n No man for all this endeuoureth himself, for taketh heart to repent for his euill life.

2 Also thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lord God, An end is come vnto the land of Israel: the end is come vpon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come vpon thee, and I will send my wrath vpon thee, and will iudge thee according to thy wayes, and will lay vpon thee all chine abominations.

4 Neither shall mine eye spare thee, neither will I haue pitié: but I will lay thy wayes vpon thee: and chine abomination shall bee in the mids of thee, and yee shall know that I am the Lord.

5 Thus layeth the Lord God, Behold, one euill, euen one euill is come.

6 An end is come, the end is come, it is watched for thee: behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come vnto thee, that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is nere, and not the founding againe of the mountaines.

8 Now I will shortly poure out my wrath vpon thee, and fulfill mine anger vpon thee: I will iudge thee according to thy wayes, and will lay vpon thee all chine abominations.

9 Neither shall mine eye spare thee, neither will I haue pitié, but I will lay vpon thee according to thy wayes, and chine abominations shall bee in the mids of thee, and yee shall know that I am the Lord that smiteth.

10 Behold, the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone sooth, the rod flourisheth: pride hath budded.

11 Cruelty is risen vnto a rod of wickednesse: none of them shall remaine, nor of their riches, nor of any of theirs, neither shall there be lamentation for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth nere, let not the buyer reioyce, nor let him that selleth, mourn: for the wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

13 For he that selleth, shall not returne to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision was vnto all the multitude thereof, and they returned not, neither doeth any encrease himselfe in the punishment of his life.

14 They haue blowne the trumpet, and prepared all, but none goeth to the battell: for my wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: hee that is in the field, shall die with the sword, and he that is in the citie, famine and pestilence shall deuoure him.

16 But they that flee away from them, shall escape, and shall bee in the mountaines, like the doues of the valleys, all they shall mourne, euerie one for his iniquitie.

17 All hands shall be weak, all knees shall fall away as water.

18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and feare shall couer them, and shame shall be vpon all faces, and baldnesse vpon their heads.

19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be cast farre off: their silver and their gold cannot deliuer them in the day of the wrath of the Lord: they shall not satisfie their soules, neither fill their bowels: for this ruine is for their iniquitie.

20 He had also set the beautie of his ornament in maiestie: but they made images of their abominations, and of their idoles therein: therefore haue I set it farre from them.

21 And I will giue it into the hands of the strangers to be spoiled, and to the wicked of the earth to be robbed, and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turne also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the destroyers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chaine: for the land is full of the iudgement of blood, and the citie is full of crueltie.

24 Therefore I will bring the most wicked of the heathen, and they shall possesse their houses: I will also make the pompe of the mightie to cease, and their holy places shall be defiled.

25 When destruction commeth, they shall seeke peace, and shall not haue it.

26 Calamitie shall come vpon calamitie, and rumour shall be vpon rumour: then shall they seeke a vision of the Prophet: but the Law shall perish from the Priest, and counsel from the Ancient.

27 The king shall mourne, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people in the land shall be troubled: I will doe vnto them according to their wayes, and according to their iudgements will I iudge them, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. VIII.

2 An appearance of the similitude of God, 3 Ezekiel is brought to Jerusalem in the spirit, 6 The Lord sheweth the Prophet the idolatries of the house of Israel.

And in the first yeere, in the sixth month, as I sat in mine house, and the Elders of Iudah sat before me, the hand of the Lord God fell there vpon me.

2 Then I beheld, and loe, there was a likeness, as the appearance of fire to looke to, from his loynes downeward, and from his loynes upward, as the appearance of brightness, and like vnto amber.

3 And he stretched out the likeness of an hand, and tooke mee by an hayrie locke of mine head, and the Spirit lift mee vp betweene the eares of the heauen, and brought me by a divine vision to Jerusalem, into the entrie of the inner gate that lieth toward the south, where remained the idole of indignation, which prouoked indignation.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there according to the vision, that I saw in the field.

5 Then said he vnto me, Some of man, lift up thine eyes now toward the North.

So I lift up mine eyes toward the North, and behold, Northward at the gate of the altar, this idle of indignation was in the entry.

6 He said furthermore vnto me, Sonne of man, seest thou not what they doe: even the great abominations that the house of Israel commiteth here to cause me to depart from my Sanctuary: but yet turne thee and thou shalt see greater abominations.

7 And he caused me to enter at the gate of the court: and when I looked, behold, an hole was in the wall.

8 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, dig now in the wall. And when I had dig-ged in the wall, behold, there was a doore.

9 And he laid vnto mee, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they doe here.

10 So I went in, and saw, and behold, there was every similitude of creeping things and ^k abominable beasts, and all the idoles of the house of Israel painted vpon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them scientific men of the Ancients of the house of Israel, and in the mids of them stood Jaazaniah, the sonne of Shaphan, with every man his cen-sers in his hand, and the vapour of the incense went vp like ^m a cloude.

12 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, hast thou seene what the Ancients of the house of Israel ⁿ doe in the darke, every one in the chamber of his imaginie: for they say,
The Lord seeth vs not, the Lord hath forsaken the earth.

13 Again he said also vnto me, Turne thee againe, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they doe.

14 And he caused me to enter into the entry of the gate of the Lords house, which was toward the North: and behold, there late women mourning for ^o Tammuz.

15 Then said he vnto me, Hast thou seene this, O sonne of man? Turne thee againe, and thou shalt see greater abominations then these.

16 And he caused me to enter into the inner court of the Lords house, and behold at the doore of the Temple of the Lord, be-twene the porch and the altar were about five and twenty men with their backs toward the Temple of the Lord, and their faces toward the East, and they worshipped the sunne toward the East.

17 Then he said vnto me, Hast thou seene this, O sonne of man? As it a small thing to the house of Iudah to commit these abomi-nations which they doe here: for they haue filled the land with cruelty, and haue returned to provoke mee: and loe, they haue cast out ^p mine before their noses.

18 Therefore will I also execute my wrath: mine eye shall not spare them, neither will I haue pitty, and ^q though they cry in be saved, are marked. 8 A complaint of the Prophet for the destruction of the people.

He cryed also with a loud voyce in mine heares, saying, The visitations of ^a the ci-tie draw nere, and every man hath a weapon in his hand to destroy it.

2 And behold, fire ^b men came by the way of the hie gate, which lyeth toward the North, and every man a weapon in his hand to destroy it: and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writers inkhorne by his side, and they went in and stood beside the brazen altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was ^c gone up from the Cherub, whereupon he was, and stood on the ^d doore of the house, and he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writers inkhorne by his side.

4 And the Lord said vnto him, Goe thro-row the mids of the citie, even thro row the mids of Ierusalem, and ^e set a marke vpon the foreheads of them that ^f mourne and cry for all the abominations that be done in the mids thereof.

5 And to the other he said, that I might heare, Goe yee after him through the citie, and siter: let your eye spare none, neither haue pitty.

6 Destroy utterly the old, and the yong, and the maidens, and the children, and the women, but touch no man vpon whom is the marke, and begin at my Sanctuary. Then they began at the ^g Ancient men, which were before the house.

7 And he said vnto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slaine, then goe forth: and they went out, and slew them in the citie.

8 Now when they had slaine them, and I had escaped, I fell downe vpon my face, and cryed, saying, ^h Ah Lord God, wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel, in powring out thy wrath vpon Ierusalem?

9 Then said he vnto me, The iniquitie of the house of Israel, and Iudah is exceeding great, so that the land is full ⁱ of blood, and the citie full of corrupt iudgement: for,
they say, The Lord hath forsaken the earth and the Lord seeth vs not.

10 As touching mee also, mine eye shall not spare them, neither will I haue pitty, but will recompense their wayes vpon their heads.

11 And behold, the man clothed with linen which had the inkhorne by his side, made report, and said, Lord, I haue done as thou hast commanded me.

Chap. 1. 5.

As as I looked, behold, in the *firmament that was aboue the head of the Cherubims, there appeared vpon them like vnto the similitude of a thron, as it were a Saphire stone.

2 And he spake vnto the man clothed with linnen, and said, Goe in betwene the wheeles, euen vnder the Cherub, and fil thine hands with coales of fire from betwene the Cherubims, and scatter them ouer the city. And he went in my sight.

3 Now the Cherubims stood vpon the right side of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 Then the glory of the Lord went by from the Cherub, and stood ouer the doore of the house, and the house was filled with the cloud, & the court was filled with the brightness of the Lords glory.

5 And the sound of Cherubims wings was heard into the vtter court, as the voyce of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And when he had commanded the man clothed with linnen, saying, Take fire from betwene the wheeles, and from betwene the Cherubims, then he went in and stood beside the wheele.

7 And one Cherub stretched forth his hand from betwene the Cherubims vnto the fire, that was betwene the Cherubims, and tooke thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linnen: who took it and went out.

8 And there appeared in the Cherubims the likenesse of a mans hand vnder their wings.

9 And when I looked by, behold, foure wheeles were beside the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another wheele by another Cherub, and the appearance of the wheeles was as the colour of a Chalycolite stone.

10 And their appearance (for they were all foure of one fashion) was as if one wheele had bene in another wheele.

11 When they went forth, they went vpon their foure sides, and they returned not as they went: but to the place whither the first went, they went after it, and they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, & their I rings, and their handes and their wings, and the wheeles were full of eyes round about, euen in the same foure wheeles.

13 And the Cherub cryed to these wheeles in mine hearing, saying, W heele.

14 And euery beast had foure faces: the first face was the face of a Cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, & the third the face of a lyon, and the fourth the face of an Eagle.

15 And the Cherubims were lifted by: *this is the beast that I saw at the riuer Chebar.

16 And when the Cherubims went, the wheeles went by them: and when the Cherubims lift by their wings to mount by from the earth, the same wheeles also turned not from beside them.

17 Ethen the Cherubims stood, they stood: and when they were lifted by, they lifted themselves by also: for the spirit of the beast was in them.

18 * Then the glory of the Lord departed from aboue the doore of the house, and stood vpon the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims lift by their wings, & mounted by from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheeles also were beside them: and euery one stood at the entrie of the gate of the Lords house, at the East side, and the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on high.

20 * This is the beast that I saw vnder the God of Israel by the riuer Chebar, and I knew that they were the Cherubims.

21 Euery one had foure faces, and euery one foure wings, and the likenesse of mans handes was vnder their wings.

22 And the likenesse of their faces was the selfe same faces which I saw by the riuer Chebar, and the appearance of the Cherubims was the selfe same, and they went euery one straight forward.

CHAP. XI.

1 Who they were that seduced the people of Israel, Against these hee prophesied, shewing them how they shalbe dispersed abroad. 19 The renewing of the heart cometh of God. 21 I desire to reach them that leane vnto their owne counsels.

Moreover, the spirit lift me by, & brought mee vnto the East gate of the Lords house, which lieth Eastward, and behold, at the entrie of the gate were fine and twentie men: among whom I saw Jaazaniah the sonne of Azur, & Delatiah the sonne of Benaiah, the princes of the people.

2 Then said be vnto me, Sonne of man, these are the men that imagine mischiefe, and driue wicked counsell in this citie.

3 For they say, * It is not neere, let vs build houses: this citie is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 Therefore prophesie against them, sonne of man, prophesie.

5 And the Spirit of the Lord fell vpon me, and said vnto mee, Speake, Thus saith the Lord, O ye house of Israel, this haue ye sayd, and I know that which riseth by of your mindes.

6 Many haue ye murdered in this citie, and yee haue filled the streets thereof with the flaine.

7 Therefore thus sayeth the Lord God, They that yee haue slaine, and haue layd in the mids of it, they are the flesh, and this citie is the caldron, but I will bring you forth of the mids of it.

8 Yee haue feared the sword, and I will bring a sword vpon you, saith the Lord God.

9 And I will bring you out of the mids thereof, and deliuer you into the hands of strangers, and will execute iudgments among you.

10 Yee shall fall by the sword, and I will iudge you in the border of Israel, and yee shall know that I am the Lord.

11 This citie shall not be your caldron, neither shall yee be the flesh in the mids thereof, but I will iudge you in the border of Israel.

There was one consent between the Cherubims and the wheeles. h Reade Chap. 9. 3.

a Thus the wicked derided the Prophets, as though they preached but errors, and therefore gaue themselves still to their pleasures. b Wee shall not be pulled out of Ierusalem, till the hour of our death come, as the flesh is not taken out of the caldron till it be sodde.

c Contrary to their vaine confidence, he sheweth in what sense this citie is the caldron: that is, because of the dead bodies that haue bene murdered therein, and so lie as flesh in the caldron. d That is, of the Caldeans. e That is, in Riblah, reade 2. King. 25. 6.

12 And ye shall know that I am the Lord: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my iudgements, but have done after the manners of the heathen, that are round about you.

13 ¶ And when I prophesied, Belatiah the sonne of Benaiah died: then fell I downe vpon my face, and cried with a loud voyce, and sayd, Ah Lord God, wilt thou then utterly destroy all the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

15 Sonne of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, wholly are they vnto whom the inhabitants of Ierusalem have said, Depart ye farre from the Lord: for the land is giuen vs in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, Although I haue cast them farre off among the heathen, and although I haue scattered them in among the countreys, yet will I bee to them as a little ¶ Sanctuary in the countreys where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord God, I will gather you againe from the people, and assemble you out of the countreys where ye haue bene scattered, and I will giue you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the idoles thereof, and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 ¶ And I will giue them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within their bowels: and I will take the stonie heart out of their bodies, and I will giue them an heart of flesh,

20 That they may walke in my statutes, and keep my iudgements, and execute them: and they shall bee my people, and I will bee their God.

21 But vpon them whose heart is toward their idoles, and whose affection goeth after their abominations, I will lay their way vpon their owne heads, sayeth the Lord God.

22 ¶ Then did the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and the wheelles beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was vpon them on high.

23 And the glory of the Lord went vp from the mids of the citie, and stood vpon the mountaine which is toward the East side of the citie.

24 Afterward the Spirit toke me vp, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Caldea, to them that were led away captiues: so the vision that I had seene, went vp from me.

25 Then I declared vnto them that were led away captiues, all the things that the Lord had shewed me.

CHAP. XII.

1 The parable of the captiuitie. 18 Another parable whereby the distress of hunger and thirst is signified.

The word of the Lord also came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, thou dwellest in the mids of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see,

and see: not: they haue eares to heare and heare not: for they are a rebellious house.

3 Therefore thou sonne of man, prepare thy stuffe to goe into captiuitie, & go forth by day in their sight, and thou shalt passe from thy place to another place in their sight, if it be possible that they may consider it: for they are a rebellious house.

4 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuffe by day in their sight, as the stuffe of him that goeth into captiuitie: and shalt thou goe forth at euening in their sight, as they that goe forth into captiuitie.

5 Digge thou thorow the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

6 In their sight shalt thou beare it vpon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the darke: thou shalt couer thy face, that thou see not the earth: for I haue set thee as a signe vnto the house of Israel.

7 And as I was commanded, so I brought forth my stuffe by day, as the stuffe of one that goeth into captiuitie: and by night I digged thorow the wal with mine hand, and brought it forth in the darke, and I bare it vpon my shoulder in their sight.

8 And in the morning came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

9 Sonne of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house sayd vnto thee, What dost thou?

10 But lay thou vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, This burden concerneth the chiefe in Ierusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.

11 Say, I am your signe: like as I haue done, so shall it be done vnto them, they shall goe into bondage and captiuitie.

12 And the chiefe that is among them, shall beare vpon his shoulder in the darke, and shall goe forth: they shall digge thorow the wall, to carie out thereby: he shall couer his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

13 My net also will I spread vpon him, and hee shall be taken in my net, and I will bring him to Babel to the land of the Caldeans, yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.

14 And I will scatter toward euery wind, all that are about him to helpe him, and all his garrison, and I will draw out the sword after them.

15 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countreys.

16 But I will leaue a little number of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all these abominations among the heathen, where they come, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

17 ¶ Moreover the worde of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, eate thy bread with trembling, and drinke thy water with trouble, and with carefulnesse.

19 And say vnto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord God of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and of the land of Israel, They shall eate their bread with care.

a That is, they receiue not the fruit of that which they see and heare.

1 Ebr. make thee vessels to goe into captiuitie.

b That as thou doest, so shall they doe, and therefore in thee they shall see their owne plague and punishment.

f It seemeth that this noble man died of some terrible death, and therefore the Prophet feared some strange iudgment of God toward the rest of the people.

g They that remained still at Ierusalem, thus reproched them that were gone into captiuitie, as though they were cast off, and forsaken of God.

h They shall be yet a litle church, shewing that the Lord will euer haue some to call vpon his Name, who he will preferue and restore, though they be for a time afflicted.

20 And the cities that are inhabited, shall be left voyd, and the land shall bee desolate, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

21 ¶ And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

22 Some of man, what is that prouerbe that you haue in the land of Israel, saying, The dayes are prolonged, and all visions shall faile?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord God, I will make this prouerbe to cease, and they shall no more vse it as a prouerbe in Israel: but say vnto them, The dayes are at hand, and the effect of euery vision.

24 For no vision shall bee any more in vaine, neither shall there be any flattering diuination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the Lord: I will speake, and that thing that I shall speake, shall come to passe: it shall bee no more prolonged: for in your dayes, O rebellious house, wil I say the thing, and will performe it, saith the Lord God.

26 Again the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

27 Some of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many dayes to come, and hee prophesieth of the times that are farre off.

28 Therefore say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God. All my words shall no longer be delayed, but that thing which I haue spoken, shall be done, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XIII.

2 The word of the Lord against false Prophets, which teach the people the counsell of their owne hearts.

And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Some of man, prophesie against the prophets of Israel, that prophesie, and say thou vnto them, that prophesie out of their owne hearts, heare the word of the Lord.

3 Thus saith the Lord God, Woe vnto the foolish prophets that follow their owne spirit, and haue seene nothing.

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the waste places.

5 ¶ We haue not risen vp in the gaps, neither made vp the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the battell in the day of the Lord.

6 They haue seene vanitie, and lying diuination, saying, The Lord saith it, and the Lord hath not sent them: & they haue made others to hope that they would confirme the word of their prophesie.

7 Haue ye not seene a vaine vision? and haue ye not spoken a lying diuination? ¶ ye say, The Lord saith it, albeit I haue not spoken.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ye haue spoken vanity, and haue seene lies, therefore behold, I am against you, saith the Lord God,

9 And mine hand shall be vpon the Prophets that see vanitie, and diuine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

10 And therefore, because they haue deceived my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace: and one build vp a wall, and behold, the others daubed it with vntempered morter.

11 Say vnto them which daubed it with vntempered morter, that it shall fall: for there shall come a great storme: and I will send hailestones, which shall cause it to fall, and a stormie winde shall breake it.

12 For, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be ad vnto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye haue daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will cause a stormie winde to breake forth in my wrath, and a great storme shall bee in mine anger, and hailestones in mine indignation to consume it.

14 So I wil destroy the wall that ye haue daubed with vntempered morter, and bring it downe to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discouered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the mids thereof, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

15 Thus wil I accomplish my wrath vpon the wall, and vpon them that haue daubed it with vntempered morter, and will say vnto you, The wall is no more, neither the daubers thereof.

16 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesie vpon Ierusalem, and see visions of peace for it, and there is no peace, saith the Lord God.

17 Likewise thou sonne of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesie out of their owne heart: and prophesie thou against them, and say,

18 Thus saith the Lord God, Woe vnto the women that sowe pillows vnder all arme-holes, and make bales vpon the head of euery one that standeth vp, to hunt soules: wil ye hunt the soules of my people, and will ye giue life to the soules that come vnto you?

19 And wil ye pollute mee among my people for handfulls of barley, and for pieces of bread to slay the soules of them that should not die, and to giue life to the soules that should not liue, in lying to my people, that haue you lies?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will haue to doe with your pillows, wherewith ye hunt the soules to make them to sle, and I will teare them from your armes, and will let the soules goe, euen the soules, that ye hunt to make them to sle.

21 Your bales also will I teare, and destroy my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hands to be hunted, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

22 Because with your lies ye haue made the heart of the righteous sad, whome I they should depart from the body. n By threatening them that were godly, and vpholding the wicked.

e That is, in the booke of life, wherein the true Israelites are written.

f Reade Ierem. 6. 14.

g Whereas the true Prophets prophesied the destruction of the city to bring the people to repentance, the false prophets spake the contrary, and flattered them in their vanities, so that what one false prophet said, (which is here called the building of the wall) another false prophet would affirme though he had neither occasion nor good ground to beare him. h Wherby is meant what soeuer man of himselfe stretcheth forth vnder the authority of Gods word.

i These superstitious women for lucre would prophesie, and sell euery man his fortune giuing them pillows to leane vpon, and kerchiefes to cover their heads, to the intent they might the more allure them and bewitch them.

k Will ye make my word to serue your bellies?

l These forcerers made the people beleue that they could preterme life, or destroy it, & that it should come to euery one according as they prophesied. m That is, to cause them to perish, and that

f Because they did not immediately see the prophecies accomplished, they contemned them, as though they should neuer be fulfilled. || Or, take none effect.

g That is, it shall not come to passe in our dayes, and therefore we care not for it: thus the wicked euer abuse Gods patience and benignitie.

23 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor diuine diminutions: for I will deliuer my people out of your hand, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XIII.

4 The Lord sendeth false prophets for the ingratitude of the people. 23 He reserveth a small portion for his Church.

a He sheweth the hypocritie of the Idolaters, who will dissemble to heare the Prophets of God though in their heart they follow nothing left: then their aduocations, and also how by one meanes or other, God doeth discover them.

b They are not onely idolaters in heart, but also worship their filthy idoles openly, which leade them in blindness and cause them to stumble, and cast them out of Gods fauour, so that he will not heare them when they call vnto him, reade Iere. 10. 15.

c To enquire of things which the Lord hath appointed to come to passe d As his abomination hath deserved: that is he shall be deliued with lies, according as he delighted therein, 2. Thess. 2. 10.

e That is, convince them by their owne conscience. f Or, by my selfe. g The Prophet declareth that God for mans ingratitude raiseth vp false prophets to seduce them that delight in lies rather then in the truth of God, and thus he punisheth him by sinne, 1 King. 22. 20, 22. and destroyeth as well those profane, as those that people. g Thus Gods iudgements against the wicked are admonitions to the godly to cleaue vnto the Lord, and not to defile themselves with like abominations.

Trauel came certaine of the Elders of Israel vnto me, and sate before me.

24 And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

3 Sonne of man, these men haue set by their idoles in their heart, and put the stumbling blocke of their iniquitie before their face: should I, being required, answer them?

4 Therefore speake vnto them, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Eury man of the house of Israel that setteth by his idoles in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to the c^o Prophet, I the Lord will answer him that commeth, according to the multitude d of his idoles:

5 That e I may take the house of Israel in their owne heart, because they are all departed from me though their idoles.

6 Therefore lay vnto the house of Israel, Thus layeth the Lord God, Returne, and withdraw your selues, and turne your faces from your idoles, and turne your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which departeth from me, and setteth by his idoles in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquitie before his face, and commeth to a Prophet, for to enquire of him for mee, I the Lord will answer him f for my selfe.

8 And I will set my face against that man and will make him an example and prouerbe, and I will cut him off from the mids of my people, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

9 And if the prophet be i deceived, when he hath spoken a thing, I the Lord haue deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out mine hand vpon him, and will destroy him from the mids of my people of Israel.

10 And they shall beare their punishment: the punishment of the prophet shall be euen as the punishment of him that alkeeth,

11 That the house of Israel may goe no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord God.

12 ¶ The word of the Lord come againe

vnto me, saying,

13 Sonne of man, when the land sinneeth against me, by committing a trespass, then will I stretch out mine hand vpon it, h and will breake the stiffe of the bread thereof, and will send famine vpon it, and I will destroy man and beast forth of it.

14 Though these three men, i Noah, Daniel, and Iob were among them, they should deliuer but their owne soules by their k righteousness, saith the Lord God.

15 If I bring nofome beastes into the land, and they shall perishe, so that it be desolate, that no man may passe thorow, because of beasts,

16 Though these three men were in the mids thereof, as I liue, saith the Lord God, they shall saue neither sonnes nor daughters: they onely shall be deliuered, but the land shall be waste.

17 ¶ If I bring a sword vpon this land, and say, Sword, gorthorow the land, so that I destroy man and beast out of it,

18 Though these three men were in the mids thereof, as I liue, saith the Lord God, they shall deliuer neither sonnes nor daughters, but they onely shall be deliuered themselves.

19 ¶ If I send a pestilence into this land, and powre out my wrath vpon it in blood, to destroy out of it man and beast,

20 And though Noah, Daniel, and Iob were in the mids of it, as I liue, saith the Lord God, they shall deliuer neither sonne nor daughter: they shall but deliuer their owne soules by their righteousness.

21 For thus saith the Lord God, How much more when I send my * foure sore iudgements vpon Ierusalem, euen the sword, and famine, and the nofome beast, and pestilence, to destroy man and beast out of it?

22 Yet behold, therein shall be left a remnant of them that shall be caried away both sonnes & daughters: behold, they shall come forth vnto you, and ye shall see their way, and their enterpises: and ye shall be comforted, concerning the euill that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, euen concerning all that I haue brought vpon it.

23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their enterpises, and ye will knowe that I haue not done without cause all that I haue done in it, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XV.

A the unprofitable wood of the vine tree is cast in to the fire, so Ierusalem shall be burnt.

And the word of the Lord come vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, what commeth of the vine tree about all other trees? and of the vine branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to doe any worke? or will men take a pinne of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast in the fire to bee consumed: the fire consumeth both the endes of it, and the mids of it is burnt. Is it meet for any worke?

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God. As the vine tree that is among the trees of the forest, which I haue giuen to the fire to be consumed, so will I giue the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

7 And I will let my face against them: they shall goe out from one fire, and another fire shall consume them: and ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I let my face against them.

The Prophet declareth the benefits of God toward Ierusalem. 15 Their unkindnesse. 46 Heiustifieth the wickednesse of other people in comparison of the finnes of Ierusalem. 49 The cause of the abominations into which the Sodomites fell. 60 Mercy is promised to the repentant.

Aaine the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Some of man, cause Ierusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord God vnto Ierusalem, Thine habitation, & thy kindred is of the land of Canaan: thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And in thy nativity when thou wast borne, thy nauill was not cut: thou wast not washed in water to soften thee: thou wast not salted with salt, nor swaddled in cloths.

5 None eye pittied thee to do any of these vnto thee, for to haue compassion vpon thee, but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the contempt of thy person in the day that thou wast borne.

6 And when I passed by thee, I saw thee polluted in thine own blood, and I said vnto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Thou shalt liue: when thou wast in thy blood, I said vnto thee, Thou shalt liue.

7 I haue caused thee to multiply, as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and warren great, and thou hast gotten excellent ornaments: thy breastes are fashioned, thine haire is growen, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked vpon thee, behold, thy time was as the time of lone, and I spread my skirts ouer thee, and covered thy filthinesse: yea, I sware vnto thee, and entered into a couenant with thee, saith the Lord God, and thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water: yea, I washed away thy blood from thee, and I anoynted thee with oyle.

10 I clothed thee also with broydered worke, and shod thee with badgers skinne, and I girded thee about with fine linnen, and I covered thee with silke.

11 And thou saidst, I will not be ashamed, for I haue received thee to mercie, & fauoured them, and covered their shame. e That thou shouldst be a chaste wife vnto me, and that I should maintaine thee and endure thee with all graces. f I washed away thy finnes. g I sanctified thee with mine holy Spirit.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets vpon thine hands, and a chaine on thy necke.

12 And I put a frontlet vpon thy face, and earrings in thine eares, and a beaurifull crowne vpon thine head.

13 Thus wast thou deckt with gold and siluer, and thy raiment was of fine linnen and silke and broydered worke: thou diddest eate fine flowre, and hony and oyle, and thou wast very beaurifull, and thou diddest grow vp into a kingdome.

14 And thy name was spread among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my beauty, which I had set vpon thee, saith the Lord God.

15 Now thou didst trust in thine owne beautie, and playedst the harlot, because of thy renowne, and hast powdered out thy fornications on euery one that passed by, thy desire was to him,

16 And thou diddest take thy garments, and deckedst thine high places with diuers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither hath any done so.

17 Thou hast also taken thy faire Jewels made of my gold and of my siluer, which I had giuen thee, and madest to thy selfe images of men, and diddest commit whoredome with them.

18 And tookst thy broydered garments and coueredst them: and thou hast set mine oyle and my perfume before thee.

19 My meate also which I gaue thee, as fine flowre, oyle & hony wherewith I fed thee, thou hast euil let it before thee for a sweete sauour: thus it was, saith the Lord God.

20 Whoreouer, thou hast taken thy sonnes and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne vnto me, and these hast thou sacrificed vnto them, to be deuoured: is this thy whoredome a small matter?

21 That thou hast slaine my children, and deliuered them to cause them to passe thorow fire for them.

22 And in all thine abominations and whoredomes, thou hast not remembered the dayes of thy youth, when thou wast naked, and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23 And beside all thy wickednesse, (woe, woe vnto thee, saith the Lord God.)

24 Thou hast also built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euery street.

25 Thou hast built thine high place at euery corner of the way, and hast made thy beautie to be abhorred: thou hast opened thy feete to euery one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredome.

26 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours which haue great members, and hast increased thy whoredome to promouke me.

27 Behold, therefore I did stretch out mine hand ouer thee, and wil diminish thine ordinarie, and deliuer thee vnto the will of them that hate thee, even to the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy wicked way.

28 Thou hast played the whore also with l There was none idolatry so vile, wherewith thou didst not pollute thy selfe.

the Assyrians, because thou wast insatiable: yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication from the Land of Canaan unto Caldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith.

30 How weak is thine heart, saith the Lord God, seeing thou doest all these things, euen the worke of a || presumptuous whorish woman?

31 In that thou buildest thine high place in the corner of every way, and makest thine high place in every street, and hast not been as an harlot that despiseth a reward,

32 But as a wife that playeth the harlot and taketh others for her husband.

33 They giue gifts to all other whores, but thou giuest gifts vnto al thy louers, and rewardest them, that they may come vnto thee on every side for thy fornication.

34 And the contrary is in thee from other women, in thy fornications, neither the like fornication shall bee after thee: for in that thou giuest a reward, and no reward is giuen vnto thee, therefore thou art contrarye.

35 Therefore, O harlot, heare the word of the Lord.

36 Thus saith the Lord God, Because thy || shame was powued out, and thy filthinesse discovered through thy fornications with thy louers, and with all the idoles of thine abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou diddest offer vnto them,

37 Beholde, therefore I will gather all thy louers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated: I will euen gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy filthinesse vnto them, that they may see all thy filthynesse.

38 And I will iudge thee after the maner of them that are || harlots, and of them that shed blood, and I will giue thee the blood of wrath and ielousie.

39 I will also giue thee into their hands, and they shall destroy thine high place, and shall breake downe thine high places: they shall strip thee also out of thy clothes, & shall take thy faire lewds, and leaue thee naked and bare.

40 They shall also bring by a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee thorow with their swords.

41 And they shall burne by thine houses with fire, and execute iudgements vpon thee in the sight of many women: & I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, & thou shalt giue no reward any more.

42 So will I make my wrath toward thee to rest, and my ielousie shall depart from thee, and I will cease and be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembered the dayes of thy youth, but hast prouoked mee with all these things, beholde, therefore I also haue brought thy way vpon thine head, saith the Lord God; yet hast not thou had consideration of all thine abominations.

44 Beholde, all that vse proverbs, shall vse this proverbe against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mothers daughter, that hath cast off her husband and her children, and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which forsooke their husbands and their children: your mother is an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46 And thine elder sister is Samaria, and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand, and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand is Sodom, and her daughters.

47 Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations: but as it had bene a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more then they in all thy wayes.

48 As I liue, saith the Lord God, Sodom thy sister hath not done, neither shee nor her daughters as thou hast done and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquitie of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulnesse of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her, and in her daughters: neither did she strengthen the hand of the poore and needy.

50 But they were haughty, and committed abomination before mee: therefore I toke them away, as pleased me.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed halfe of thy sinnes, but thou hast exceeded them in thine abominations, and hast iustified thy sisters in all thine abominations, which thou hast done.

52 Therefore thou which hast iustified thy sisters, beare thine owne shame for thy sinnes that thou hast committed more abominable then they which are more righteous then thou art: be thou therefore confounded also, and beare thy shame, seeing that thou hast iustified thy sisters.

53 Therefore I will bring againe their captivity with the captivity of Sodom, and her daughters, and with the captivity of Samaria, and her daughters: euen the captivity of thy captiues in the mids of them.

54 That thou mayest beare thine owne shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou hast comforted them.

55 And thy sister Sodom and her daughters shall returne to their former state: Samaria also and her daughters shall returne to their former state, & when thou and thy daughters shalt returne to your former state.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not heard of by thy report in the day of thy pride.

CHAP. XVII.

The parable of the two Eagles.

And the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, put forth a parable, and speake a prouerbe vnto the house of Israel.

3 And say, Thus sayth the Lord God,
The great Eagle with great wings, and long wings, and full of feathers, which had diuers colours, came vnto Lebanon, and tooke the highest branch of the cedar,

4 And brake off the top of his twigge, and caried it into the land of merchants, and set it in a citie of merchants.

5 We tooke also of the seed of the land, & planted it in a fruitful ground: he placed it by great waters, and let it as a willow tree.

6 And it budded up, & was as a spreding vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward it, and the roots thereof were vnder it: so it became a vine, and it brought forth branches, and shot forth buds.

7 There was also another great Eagle with great wings, and many feathers, and behold, this vine did turne her roots toward it, and spread forth her branches toward it, that she might water it by the trenches of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soyle by great waters, that it should bring forth branches, and beare fruit, and be an excellent vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord God, Shall it prosper? Shall hee not pull vp the roots thereof, and destroy the fruit thereof, and cause them to die? all the leaues of her bud shall wither without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the roots thereof.

10 Beholde, it was planted: but shall it prosper? Shall it not be dried vp, and wither?

when the East wind shall touch it, it shall wither in the trenches where it grew.

11 Whereupon the word of the Lord came
vnto me, saying,

12 Say now to this rebellious house,
Know ye not what these things meane? tell them, Behold, the King of Babel is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the King thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babel,

13 And hath taken one of the kings seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: hee hath also taken the princes of the land,

14 That the kingdome might bee in subjection, and not lift it selfe vp, but keepe their covenant, and stand to it.

15 But he rebelled against him, and sent his Ambassadors vnto Egypt, that they might giue him horses, and much people:
shall he prosper? shall he escape, that doth such things? or shall he breake the covenant, and be delinquent?

16 As I live, saith the Lord God, he shall die in the midst of Babel, in the place of the King, that had made him King, whose oath he despised: and whose covenant made with him, hee brake.

17 Neither shall Ibaraah with his mighty host, and great multitude of people, maintaine him in the war, when they haue cast vp mounds, and builded ramparts to destroy many persons.

18 For he hath despised the oath and broken the covenant: (yet so, he had giuen his hand) because he hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God,
As I live, I will surely bring mine oath that hee hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, vpon his owne head.

20 And I will spread my net vpon him, and hee shall be taken in my net, and I will bring him to Babel, & will enter into iuge-ment with him there for the trespass that he hath committed against me.

21 And all that flee from him with all his hoiety, shall fall by the sword, and they that remain, shall bee scattered toward all the windes: and ye shall knowe that I the Lord haue spoken it.

22 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also take of the top of this high cedar, and will let it, and cut off the top of the tender plant thereof, and I will plant it vpon an high mountaine and great.

23 Euen in the high mountaine of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs and beare fruit, and bee an excellent cedar, and vnder it shall remaine all birds, and e-uery foule shall dwell in the shadow of the branches thereof.

24 And all the trees of the feldes shall know that I the Lord haue brought downe the high tree, and exalted the low tree: that I haue dried vp the Greene tree, and made the drie tree to flourish: I the Lord haue spoken it, and haue done it.

sinne. 21 To him that amendeth, is saluation promised. 24 Death is prophesied to the righteous, which turneth backe from the right way.

The worde of the Lord came vnto mee againe, saying,

2 What meane yee that yee speake this prouerbe, concerning the land of Israel saying, The fathers haue eaten sowre grapes, and the children thereof are let on edge?

3 As I liue, saith the Lord God, ye shall use this prouerbe no more in Israel.

4 Behold, all soules are mine, both the soule of the father, and also the soule of the sonne are mine: the soule that sinneth, it shall die.

5 But if a man bee iust, and doe that which is lawfull and right,

6 And hath not eaten ^b vpon the mountaines, neither hath liſt vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath liſten with a ^c mensurours woman,

7 Neither hath oppressed any, but hath restored the pledge to his debtor: he that hath spoiled none by violence, ^a but hath giuen his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

8 And hath not giuen foorth ^d vpon vsurie, neither hath taken any increase, but hath withdrawen his hande from iniquitie, and hath executed true iudgment betwene man and man,

9 And hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my iudgments to deale truly, he is iust, he shall surely liue, saith the Lord God.

10 ¶ If he beget a sonne, that is as a thicke, or a slender of blood, if he doe any one of these things,

11 Though he doe not all these things, but either hath eaten vpon the mountaines, or defiled his neighbours wife,

12 Or hath oppressed the poore and needie, or hath spoiled by violence, or hath not restored the pledge, or hath liſt vp his eyes vnto the idoles, or hath committed abomination,

13 Or hath giuen foorth vpon vsurie, or hath taken increase, shall he liue: he shall not liue: seeing he hath done all these abominations, he shall die the death, and his blood shall be vpon him.

14 ¶ But if he beget a sonne, that seeth all his fathers finnes, which he hath done, and feareth, neither doeth like,

15 What hath not eaten vpon the mountaines, neither hath liſt vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, nor hath defiled his neighbours wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, nor hath withhelden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath giuen his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

17 Neither hath withdrawen his hande from the afflicted, nor received vsurie nor increase, but hath executed my iudgments, and hath walked in my statutes, he shall not die in the iniquitie of his father, but he shall surely liue.

18 His father, because hee cruelly oppressed

sed and spoiled his brother by violence, and hath not done good among his people, loe, euen he dieth in his iniquitie.

19 Yet say yee, Therefore shall not the sonne beare the iniquitie of the father? because the sonne hath executed iudgment and iustice, and hath kept all my statutes, and done them, he shall surely liue.

20 ¶ The same soule that sinneth, shall die: the sonne shall not beare the iniquitie of the father, neither shall the father beare the iniquitie of the sonne, but the righteousness of the righteous shall be vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wicked shall be vpon himselfe.

21 But if the wicked will returne from all his finnes that hee hath committed, and keepe all my ^d statutes, and doe that which is lawfull and right, he shall surely liue, and shall not die,

22 All his transgressions that hee hath committed, they shall not be mentioned vnto him, but in his ^e righteousness that hee hath done, he shall liue.

23 ¶ I haue I any desire that the wicked should die, saith the Lord God: or shall hee not liue, if hee returne from his wayes?

24 But if the righteous turne away from his righteousness, and commit iniquitie, ready to pardon and doe according to all the abominations, then to punish, that the wicked man doeth, shall hee liue? as his long suffering, all his righteousness that hee hath done, shall not be mentioned: but in his transgression that hee hath committed, and in his inime that hee hath sinned, in them shall hee die.

25 Yet yee say, The way of the Lord is not equal: heare now, O house of Israel. Is not my way equal? or are not your waies unequal?

26 For when a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquitie, hee shall euen die for the same, he shall euen die for his iniquitie that hee hath done.

27 Again, when the wicked turneth away from his wickednes that hee hath committed, and doeth that which is lawfull and right, he shall saue his soule aline.

28 Because hee considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that hee hath committed, he shall surely liue, and shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my wayes equal? or are not your wayes unequal?

30 Therefore I will iudge you, O house of Israel, euery one according to his wayes, saith the Lord God: returne therefore & cause others to turne away from all your transgressions: so iniquity shall not be your destruction.

31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby yee haue transgressed, and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I desire not the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: cause therefore one another to returne, and liue yee.

4 The nations also heard of him, and he was taken in their nets, and they brought him in chaines vnto the land of Egypt.

5 Now when shee saw that he had waited, and her hope was lost, sheooke another of her whelpes, and made him a lion.

6 Which went among the lions and became a lion, and learned to catch the pray, and he denoured men.

7 And he knew their widowes, and he destroyed their cities, and the land was wasted, and all that was therein by the noise of his roaring.

8 Then the nations set against him on euery side of the countreyes, and layd their nets for him, so he was taken in their pit.

CHAP. XX.

3 The Lord demeth that hee will answere them when they pray, because of their unkindnesse. 33 He promisth that his people shall returne from captiuitie. 46 By the forrest that should bee burnt, is signified the burning of Ierusalem.

A dd in the twentieth yeere, in the fift moneth, the tenth day of the month, came certaine of the Elders of Israel to enquire of the Lord, and sate before me.

2 Then came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

3 Sonne of man, speake vnto the Elders of Israel and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God. Are ye come to enquire of me? as I live, sayth the Lord God, when I am asked, I will not answere you.

4 Althou iudge them sonne, sonne of man, wilt thou iudge them? cause them to understand the abominations of their fathers,

5 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when I chose Israel, and I lift vp mine hand vnto the seede of the house of Iacob, and made my selfe knowne vnto them in the land of Egypt, when I lift vp mine hand vnto them, and said, I am the Lord your God,

6 In the day that I lift vp mine hand vnto them to bring them forth of the land of Egypt, into a land that I had promised for them, flowing with milke and hony, which is pleasant among all lands,

7 Then said I vnto them, Let euery man cast away the abominations of his eyes, and desile not your selues with the idoles of Egypt: for I am the Lord your God.

8 But they rebelled against me, & would not heare me: for none cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idoles of Egypt: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them, and to accomplish my wrath against them in the middelt of the land of Egypt.

9 But I had respect to my Name, that it should not be polluted before the heathen among whom they were, and in whose sight I made my selfe knowne vnto them in bringing them forth of the land of Egypt.

10 Now I caried them out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And I gaue them my statutes, and declared my iudgements vnto them, which if a man doe, he shall live in them.

12 Moreover, I gaue them also my Sabbath: to be a signe betwene me and them, that they might know that I am the Lord, that sanctifie them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they cast away my iudgements, which if a man doe, he shall live in them, and my Sabbath: haue they greatly polluted: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them in the wilderness to consume them,

14 But I had respect to my Name, that it should not be polluted before the heathen in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Perceuerthelesse I lift vp mine hand vnto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land, which I had promised them, flowing with milke and hony, which was pleasant above all lands,

16 Because they cast away my iudgements, and walked not in my statutes, but haue polluted my Sabbath: for their heart went after their idoles.

17 Neuerthelesse mine eye spared them, and I would not destroy them, neither would I consume them in the wilderness.

18 But I sayd vnto their children in the wilderness, Make ye not in the ordinances

b This declareth the great lenitie and patience of God, which calleth sinners to repentance before hee condemne them.

c I sware that I would bee their God, which manner of othe was obserued from antiquitie where they vied to lift vp their hands toward heauen, acknowledging God to be the author of truth and the defender thereof, and also the Iudge of the heart, wishing that he should take vengeance, if they concealed any thing which they knew to be truthe.

d God had forbidden them to make mention of the idoles, Exod. 23. 1. 34. 16. 4.

e Which thing declareth the wickednes of mans heart, which iudge Gods seruice by their eyes and outward seemes. f God had euer this respect to his glorie, that he would not haue his Name euill spoken of among the Gentiles for the punishment thereof.

g. Who might thereby take an occasion to blaspheme my Name, and to accuse me of lacke of ability, or els that I had sought a meane to destroy them more commodiously.

h That is, my true religion, which I had commanded them, and gaue themselves to serue me according to their owne fantasies.

i Whereby the holy Ghost con-fureth them that say that they will follow the religion & example of their fathers, and not measure their doings by Gods word, whether they be thereby or no.

of your fathers, neither obserue their manners, nor defile your selues with their idoles.
19 I am the Lord your God: walke in my statutes, and keepe my iudgements and doe then,
20 And sanctifie my Sabbaths, and they shall be a signe betwene me and you, that ye may know that I am the Lord your God.

21 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against mee: they walked not in my statutes, nor kept my iudgements to doe them, whiche if a man doe he shall live in them, but they polluted my Sabbaths: then I thought to powre out mine indignation vpon them, and to accomplish my wrath against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless, I withheld mine hand, and had respect to my Name, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 Yet I lift vp mine hand vnto them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, & disperse them through the countries,

24 Because they had not executed my iudgements, but had cast away my statutes, and had polluted my Sabbaths, and their eyes were^k after their fathers idoles.

25 Wherefore I gaue them also statutes, that were not good, and iudgements, wherein they should not liue.

26 And I polluted them in their owne gifts, in that they caused to passe by the fire at that first opened the wombe, that I might destroy them, to the ende that they might know that I am the Lord.

27 Therefore some of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, and say vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God, Yet in this your fathers haue blasphemed me, though they had before graciously transgressed against me.

28^a For when I had brought them into the land, for^b which I lifted vp mine hand to giue it to them, then they saw euery high hill, and all the thicke trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented their offering of pronunciation: there also they made their sweet sauour, and powred out there their drinke offerings.

29 Then I said vnto them, What is the high place wherunto ye goe? And the name thereof was called^c Bamab vnto this day.

30 Wherefore say vnto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Are ye not polluted^d after the manner of your fathers? and committee not whoredome after their abomi-nations?

31 For when you offer your gifts, & make your sonnes to passe through the fire, you pollute your selues with all your idoles vnto this day: shall I answer you when I am asked, O house of Israel? As I liue, saith the Lord God, I will not answer you when I am asked.

32 Which signifieth an high place, declaring that they wanted themselues of their idolary, and were not ashamed thereof, though God had commanded them expressly that they should haue no altar lifted vp on hie by staires, Exo. 20. 26. ^e Ebr. in the way. p He sheweth that the ingratitude of the people deserueth that God should cut them off, and that they should not haue comfort of his word.

32 Neither shall that bee done that commeth into your minde: for ye say, We will be as the heathen, and as the families of the countrie, and serue wood and stone.

33 As I liue, saith the Lord God, I will surely rule you with a mightie hand, and with a stretched out arme, and in my wrath powred out,

34 And will bring you from the people, and will gather you out of the countrie, wherin ye are scattered, with a mighty hand and with a stretched out arme, and in my wrath powred out.

35 And I will bring you into the wil-dernes of the people, and there will I pleade with you face to face.

35 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I pleade with you, saith the Lord God.

37 And I will cause you to passe vnder the rod, and will bring you into the bond of the covenant.

38 And I will chuse out from among you the rebels, and them that transgressed against me: I will bring them out of the land where they dwell, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel, and you shall know that I am the Lord.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O you, & I serue eu-ery one his idole, seeing that ye will not obey mee, and pollute mine holy Name no more with your gifts and with your idoles.

40 For in mine holy mountaine, euen in the high mountaine of Israel, saith the Lord God, there shall all the house of Israel, and all in the land serue me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruites of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept your sweet sauour, when I bring you from the people, and gather you out of the countrie, wherin ye haue bene scattered, that I may be sanctified in you before the heathen.

41 And ye shall know that I am the Lord when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to giue it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your wayes, and all your workes wherein ye haue bene defiled, and ye^u shall iudge your selues worthy to be cut off, for all your euils, that ye haue committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the Lord,
when I haue respect vnto you for my names sake, and not after your wicked wayes, nor according to your corrupt workes, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

21 And the King of Babel stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two wayes, consulting by diuination, and made his arrowes bright: he consulted with idols and looked in the liuer.

22 At his right hand was the diuination for Ierusalem to appoint captaines, to open their mouth in the slaughter, and to lift vp their voyce with shouting, to lay engines of warre against the gates, to cast a mound, and to build a fortress.

23 And it shall be vnto them as a false diuination in their sight for the othes made vnto them: but he wil call to remembrance their iniquitie, to the intent they should bee taken.

24 Therefore thus sayth the Lord God, Because pee haue made your iniquity to be remembered, in discovering your rebellion, that in al your wozkes your sinnes might appeare: because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 And thou o Prince of Israel polluted, and wicked, whole day is come, when iniquitie shall haue an end.

26 Thus sayeth the Lord God, I will tyeen the Iewes take away the diademe, and take off the crowne: this shall bee no more the same: I will exalt the humble, and will abase him that is hie.

27 I wil ouerturne, ouerturne, ouerturne it, and it shall bee no more until they come thither: and I will giue it him.

28 And thou sonne of man, prophesie, and sayd, Thus sayeth the Lord God to the children of Ammon, and to their blasphemy: say thou, I say, The sword, the rebellion of Zedekiah, and so the slaughter to consume, because of the glittering:

29 Whiles they see vanity vnto thee, and is dyed with the Egyptians to make himselfe bie, and able to resist the Babylonians. x Some referre this to the Priests attire: for Iehozadak the Priest went into captiuitie with the King. y That is, vnto the coming of Messiah: for though the Iewes had some signe of government afterward vnder the Persians, Greekes & Romanes, yet this restitution was not till Christs coming, and at length should be accomplished, as was promised, Gen. 49. 10. z Though the Iewes and Ammonites would not beleue, that thou, to wit the sword, shouldst come vpon them, and sayd that the Prophets which threatened, spake lies, yet thou shalt as surely come, as though thou werest already vpon their neckes, and prophesied a lie vnto thee to bring thee vpon the necks of the wicked that are slaine, whose day is come when their iniquitie shall haue an end.

30 Shall I cause it to returne into his shearch? I will iudge thee in the place where thou wast created, euen in the land of thine habitation.

31 And I will powre out mine indignation vpon thee, and will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliuer thee into the hand of beastly men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be in the fire to be deuoured: thy blood shall bee in the mids of the land, and thou shalt bee no more remembred: for I the Lord haue spoken it.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Ierusalem is reprobred for cruelty, 25 Of the wicked doctrine of the false prophets and priests, and of their unsauable cōsolationesse. 27 The tyranny of their rulers. 29 The wickednesse of the people.

Moreouer the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Now thou sonne of man, wilt thou iudge, wilt thou iudge this bloody cite? wilt thou shew her all her abominations?

3 Then say, Thus saith the Lord God, The cite sheddeth blood in the mids of it, that her name may come, and maketh idols against herselfe to pollute her selfe.

4 Thou hast offended in thy blood, that thou hast shed, and hast polluted thy selfe in thine idols, which thou hast made, and thou hast caused thy dayes to draw neere, and art come vnto thy terme: therefore haue I made thee a reproch to the heathen, and a mocking to all countreies.

5 Those that bee neere, and those that be farre from thee, shall mocke thee, which are vile in name, and foze in affliction.

6 Beholde, the princes of Israel euerie one in thee was ready to his power to shed blood.

7 In thee haue they despised father and mother: in the mids of thee haue they oppressed the stranger: in thee haue they veried the fatherlesse and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast polluted my Sabbaths,

9 In thee are men that eate tales to shed blood: in thee are they that eate vpon the mountaines: in the mids of thee they commit abomination.

10 In thee haue they discovered their fathers shame: in thee haue they veried her that was polluted in her floures.

11 And euery one hath committed abomination with his neighbours wife, and euery one hath wickedly defiled his daughter in law, and in thee hath euery man forced his owne sister, euen his fathers daughter.

12 In thee haue they taken gifts to shed blood: thou hast taken usury & the increase, and thou hast defrauded thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten mee, sayth the Lord God.

13 Beholde, therefore I haue smitten mine hands vpon thy countenances, that thou hast vsed, and vpon the blood, which hath bene in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong in the dayes that I shall haue to doe with thee? I the Lord haue spoken it, and will doe it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countreies, and will cause thy filthinesse to cease from thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thy selfe in the sight of the heathen, & thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

17 And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

18 Some of man, The house of Israel is vnto mee as drosse: all they are brass, and tinne, and yron, and lead in the mids of the fornace: they are euen the drosse of siluer.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because yee are all as drosse, behold, therefore I will gather you in the mids of Ierusalem.

20 As they gather siluer and brass, and yron, and lead, and tinne into the mids of the fornace, to blow the fire vpon it to melt it, so will I gather you in mine anger, and in my wrath, and will put you there and melt you.

21 I will gather you, I say, and blow the fire of my wrath vpon you, and you shall be melted in the mids thereof.

22 As siluer is melted in the mids of the fornace, so shall yee bee melted in the mids thereof, and yee shall know that I the Lord haue powred out my wrath vpon you.

23 And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

24 Some of man, say vnto her, Thou art the land that is uncleane, and not rained vpon in the day of wrath.

25 There is a conspiracie of her prophets in the mids thereof like a roaring lion, raising the pray: they haue deuoured soules: they haue taken the riches and precious things: they haue made her many widowes in the mids thereof.

26 Her priests haue broken my Law, and haue defiled mine holy things: they haue put no difference betweene the holy & prophane, neither discerned betweene the uncleane, and the cleane, and haue hid their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am prophaned among them.

27 Her princes in the mids thereof, are like wolues, rauenning the pray to shed blood, and to destroy soules for their owne concetous lucre.

28 And her prophets haue dawbed them with vntempered morter, seeing vanities and diuining lies vnto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God, when the Lord hath not spoken.

29 The people of the land haue violently oppressed by spoyling and robbing, and haue veried the poore and the needy: yea, they haue oppressed the stranger against right.

30 And I sought for a man among them that should make by the hedge, and stand

g That is, able to defend thy selfe?

h I will thus take away the occasion of thy wickednesse, i Thou shalt be no more the inheritance of the Lord, but forsaken.

k Which before was most precious.

l Meaning hereby that the godly should be tryed, and the wicked destroyed.

m Thou art like a barren land which the Lord plagueth with drought.

n The false prophets haue conspired together to make their doctrine more profitable.

o They haue neglected my seruice, Micah 3. 11. zeph. 3. 3.

p They which should haue reprooued them, flattered them in their vices, and couered their doings with lies, Chap. 13. 10.

q Which would shewe himselfe zealous in my cause by resisting and vice, Isa. 59. 16. and 63. 5. and altho pray vnto mee to withhold my plagues, Pla. 106. 23.

a Artthou ready to execute thy charge, which I commit vnto thee against Ierusalem that murdereth the Prophets and them that are godly?
b That is, the time of her destruction.
c To her owne vndouing.

d Whose very name all men hate.

e He meaneth hereby that there was no kind of wickednesse, which was not committed in Ierusalem, and therefore the plagues of God should speedely come vpon her. Lewis. 20. 11, 18. Iere. 5. 8.

f In token of my wrath and vengeance.

In the gappe before me for the land, that I should not destroy it, but I found none.

21 Therefore haue I powred out mine indignation vpon them, and consumed them with the fire of my wrath: there owne waies haue I rendered vpon their heads, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIII.

Of the idolatrie of Samaria and Ierusalem, vnder the names of Aholah and Aholibah.

The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother.

3 And they committed fornication^b in Egypt, they committed fornication in their youth: there were their breastes pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginities.

4 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sonnes and daughters: thus were their names: Samaria is Aholah, and Ierusalem Aholibah.

5 And Aholah played the harlot: when she was mine, and she was set on fire with her louers, to wit, with the Assyrians her neighbours,

6 Which were clothed with blewie silke, both captaynes and princes: they were all pleasant yong men, and horsemen riding vpon horses.

7 Thus shee committed her whoredome with them, even with all them that were the men of Asshur, and with all on whom shee hated, and desired her selfe with all their idols.

8 After shee left her her fornications, learned of the Egyptians: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginities, and powred their whoredome vpon her.

9 Therefore I delivered her into the hands of her louers, even into the hands of the Assyrians, vpon whom shee doted.

10 These discovered her shame: they tooke away her sonnes and her daughters, and slew her with the sword, and shee had an euill name among women: for they had executed iudgement vpon her.

11 And when her sister Aholibah sawe this, shee marked her selfe with inordinate loue, more then shee, and with her fornications more then her sister with her fornications.

12 Shee doted vpon the Assyrians her neighbours, both captaynes and princes clothed with diuers sutes, horsemen riding vpon horses: they were all pleasant yong men.

13 Then I saw that shee was defiled, and that they were both after one sort,

14 And that shee increased her fornications: for when shee saw men painted vpon the wall, the images of the Caldeans painted with vermillion,

15 And girded with girdles vpon their loynes, and with dyed attyre vpon their heads (looking all like princes after the manner of the Babylonians in Caldea, the land of their natiuitie.)

16 Alsoone, I say, as shee saw them, she doted vpon them, & sent messengers vnto them into Caldea.

17 Now when the Babylonians came to her into the bed of loue, they desired her with their fornication, and shee was polluted with them: and her lust departed from them.

18 So shee discovered her fornication, and disclosed her shame: then mine heart forsooke her, like as mine heart had forsaken her sister.

19 Yet shee increased her whoredome more, and called to remembrance the dayes of her youth, wherein shee had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

20 For shee doted vpon their seruants, whose members are as the members of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

21 Thou caldest to remembrance the wickednesse of thy youth, when thy teats were bruised by the Egyptians, therefore the paps of thy youth are thus.

22 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will raise up thy louers against thee, from whom thine heart is departed, and I will bring them against thee on every side.

23 To wit, the Babylonians, and all the Caldeans, the Iudees, and Shoaah, and Roa, and all the Assyrians with them: they were all pleasant yong men, captaynes and princes; all they were valiant and renowned, riding vpon horses.

24 Then these shall come against thee with charrets, wagons & wheeles, and with a multitude of people, which shall set against thee buckler, and shield, and helmet round about: and I will leane the punishment vnto them, and they shall iudge thee according to their iudgements.

25 And I will lay mine indignation vpon thee, and they shall deale cruelly with thee: they shall cut off thy nose and thine eares, & thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall carrie away thy sonnes and thy daughters, and thy residue shall be deuoured by the fire.

26 They shall also strippe thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy faire iewels.

27 Thus will I make my wickednesse to cease from thee, and thy fornication out of the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes vnto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, I will deliver thee into the hand of them, whom thou hatest: even into the hands of them from whom thine heart is departed.

29 And they that had thine despightfully, and that take away a thy labour, and shall leane thee naked and bare, and the shame of thy fornications shall be discovered, both thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

30 I will doe these things vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whooring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister: therefore will I giue her a cup into thine hand.

h These were the names of certaine princes and captaynes vnder Nebuchad nez-zar.

i Ebr. I will giue iudgement before them.

|| Or, lawes.

i They shall destroy thy princes and priests with the rest of thy people.

k All thy treasures and riches which thou hast gotten by labor.

l All the world shall see thy shamefull forsaking of God, to serue idols.

m I will execute the same iudgements and vengeance against thee, & that with greater severity.

a Meaning Israel & Iudah, which came both out of one family.

b They became idolaters after the manner of the Egyptians.

c Aholah signifieth a mansion or dwelling in herself, meaning Samaria which was the royal city of Israel. And Aholibah signifieth my mansion in her, whereby is meant Ierusalem where Gods Temple was.

d Ebr. vnder me. When the Israelites were named the people of God, they became idolaters, and forsooke God and put their trust in the Assyrians.

e The holy ghost vseth these termes which seeme strange to chaste eares, to cause this wicked vice of idolatrie so to be abhorred, that vaneth any should abide to heare the name thereof mentioned.

f Meaning, the Assyrians.

g This declareth that no words are able sufficiently to expresse the rage of idolaters, & therefore I holy ghost there compareth thee to those which in their raging loue and filthy lusts dote vpon images & paintings of them after whom they lust.

32 Thus saith the Lord God, Thou shalt drinke of thy sisters cup, deepe & large: thou shalt bee laughed to scorn and had in derision, because it containeth much.

33 Thou shalt bee filled with drunkenness and sorrow, even with the cup of destruction & desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thou shalt even drinke it, and wring it out to the dregges, and thou shalt breake the sheards thereof, and teare thine owne breastes: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast forgotten mee, and cast mee behinde thy backe, therefore thou shalt also beare thy wickednesse and thy whoredome.

36 The Lord said moreover vnto mee, Some of man, wilt thou iudge Aholah, and Aholibah: and wilt thou declare to them their abominations?

37 For they haue played the whores, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols haue they committed adulterie, and haue also caused their sonnes, whom they bare vnto me, to passe by the fire to be their meat.

38 Moreover, thus haue they done vnto me: they haue defiled my Sanctuary in the same day, and haue prophaned my Sabbathes.

39 For when they had slaine their children to their idols, they came the same day into my Sanctuary to defile it; and so, thus haue they done in the mids of mine house.

40 And how much more is it that they sent for men to come from far, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and loe, they came: for whom thou didst wash thy selfe, and paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thee with ornaments?

41 And latest I vpon a costly bed, and a table prepared before it, wherupon thou hast set mine incense, and mine oyle.

42 And a voyce of a multitude being at ease was with her: & with the men to make the company great, were brought men of Saba from the wilderness, which put bracelets vpon their hautes, & beautifull crownes vpon their heads.

43 Then I said vnto her that was old in adulteries, Now hast thou and her fornications come to an end.

44 And they went in vnto her as they go to a common harlot: so went they to Aholah and Aholibah the wicked woman.

45 And the righteous men they shall iudge them, after the manner of harlots, and after the manner of murderers: for they are harlots: and blood is in their hands.

46 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I wil bring a multitude vpon them, and wil giue them vnto the tumult, and to the spoile.

47 And the multitude shall stone them with stones, & cut them with their swords: they shall slay their sonnes and their daughters, and burne vpon their houses with fire.

48 Thus wil I cause wickednesse to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught, not to doe after your wickednesse.

49 And they shall say your wickednesse

vpon you, and yee shall beare the sinnes of your idols, and ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

CHAP. XXIIII.

He sheweth the destruction of Ierusalem by a parable of a seething pot. 16 The parable of Ezekiels wife being dead.

A Gaine in the ninth yere, in the tenth moneth, in the tenth day of the month came the word of the Lord vnto mee, saying,

2 Some of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: for the King of Babel set himselfe against Ierusalem this same day.

3 Therefore speake a parable vnto the rebellious house, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Prepare a pot, prepare it, and also putwe water into it.

4 Gather the peeces thereof into it, even every good peece, as the thigh and the shoulder, and fill it with the chiefe bones.

5 Take one of the best sheepe, and burne also the bones vnder it, and make it boyle well, and see the bones of it therein.

6 Because the Lord God saith thus, Woe to the bloody cite, even to the pot, whose skumme is therein, and whose skumme is not gone out of it: bring it out peece by peece: let no lot all vpon it.

7 For her blood is in the mids of her: she set it vpon an high rocke, and putwied it not vpon the ground to couer it with dust.

8 That it might cause wrath to arise, and take vengeance: euen I haue set her blood vpon an high rocke that it should not be couered.

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Woe to the bloody cite, for I wil make the burning great.

10 I praye on much wood: I kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and cast in lince, and let the bones be burnt.

11 Then set it emptie vpon the coales thereof, that the brasie of it may be hot, and may burne, and that the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, and that the skumme of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied her selfe with lies, and her great skumme went not out of her: therefore her skumme shall be consumed with all the world.

13 Thou remainest in thy filthines and wickednesse: because I would haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthines, till I haue caused my wrath to light vpon thee.

14 I the Lord haue spoken it: it shall come to passe, and I will doe it: I will not goe backe, neither will I spare, neither will I repent: according to thy wayes, and according to thy workes shall they iudge thee, saith the Lord God.

hee would giue the enemies an appetite thereunto. 1 The cite hath flattered her selfe in vaine, by sending my Prophets to call thee to repentance, but thou wouldest nor.

t Wherein you boast and delite.

15 ¶ Also the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

16 Sonne of man, behold, I take away from thee the pleasure of thine eyes with a plague: yet shalt thou neither mourne nor weepe, neither shall thy teares runne downe.

17 Cease from sighing: make no mourning for the dead, and binde the tyre of thine head vpon thee, and put on thy shooes vpon thy feete, and cover not thy lips, and eat & not the bread of men.

18 So I spake vnto the people in the morning, and at euen my wife died: and I did in the morning, as I was commaunded.

19 And the people sayd vnto me, Wilt thou not tell vs what these things meane toward vs, that thou doest so?

20 Then I answered them, The word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

21 Speake vnto y^e house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will pollute my Sanctuary, euen the pride of your power, the pleasure of your eyes, and your hearts desire, and your sonnes, and your daughters whom ye haue left, shall fall by the sword.

22 And yee shall doe as I haue done: ye shall not couer your lips, neither shall ye eat the bread of men.

23 And your tyre shal be vpon your heads, and your shooes vpon your feete: ye shall not mourne nor weepe, but yee shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourne one toward another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is vnto you a signe: according to all that he hath done, ye shal doe: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Also, thou sonne of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their power, the ioy of their honour, the pleasure of thre eyes, and the desire of their heart, their sonnes and their daughters,

26 That hee that escapeth in that day, shal come vnto thee to tell thee that which he hath heard with his eares?

27 In that day shal thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, & thou shalt speake and be no more dumbe, and thou shalt see a signe vnto them, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The word of the Lord against Ammon, which reioyced at the fall of Ierusalem. 8 Against Moab and Seir, Idumea and the Philistims.

The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesie against them,

3 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heare the word of the Lord God, Thus saith the Lord God, because thou saydest, ^a Ha, ha, against my Sanctuary, when it was polluted, and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate, and against the house of Iudah, when they went into captiuitie,

4 Behold, therefore I will deliuer thee to the ^b men of the East for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drinke thy milke.

5 And I will make ^c Rabbah a dwelling place for camels, and the Ammonites a sheepe coate, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

6 For thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast clapped the hands, and stamped with the feete, and reioyced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel,

7 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand vpon thee, and will deliuer thee to be possid of the heathen, and I will coote thee out from the people, and I will cause thee to be destroyed out of the countreys, and I will destroy thee, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

8 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Moab and Seir doe say, Behold, the house of Iudah is like vnto all the heathen, 9 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab, euen of the cities ^e of his cities, I say, in his frontiers with the pleasant countrey Berh-ichthoth, Baal-meon, and Kir-hathaim.

10 I will call the men of the East against the Ammonites, and will giue them in possession, so that the Ammonites shall no more be remembered among the nations,

11 And I will execute iudgements vpon Moab, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

12 Thus saith the Lord God, Because that Edom hath done euill by taking vengeance vpon the house of Iudah, and hath committed great offence, and reuenged himselfe vpon them,

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, I will also stretch out mine hand vpon Edom, and destroy man and beast out of it, and I will make it desolate from Teman, and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

14 And I will execute my vengeance vpon Edom, by the hand of my people Israel, and they shall doe in Edom according to mine anger, and according to mine indignation, and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, Because the Philistims haue executed vengeance, and reuenged themselves with a despitefull heart, to destroy it for the old hatred,

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand vpon the Philistims, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.

17 And I will execute great vengeance vpon them with rebukes of mine indignation, and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall lay my vengeance vpon them.

^e For Tyrus was much built by arte, and by labour of men was worne out of the sea. Some referre this vnto the images of the noble men, which they had erected vp for their glory and renoume.

^f I will make thee so bare that thou shalt haue nothing to compare thee.

^g The gouernours and rulers of other countreies that dwell by the sea, were by the signifieth that her destruction should bee so horrible, that all the world should heare thereof, and be afraid.

And in the eleuenth yeere, in the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,
2 Sonne of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Ierusalem, Aha, the gate of the people is broken: it is turned vnto me: for seeing she is desolate, I shall be replenished.

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I come against thee, O Tyrus, and I will bring by many nations against thee, as the Sea moueeth vp with his waues.

4 And they shall destroy the walles of Tyrus, and breake downe her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rocke.

5 Thou shalt be for the spreading of nets in the mids of the sea: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God, and it shall be a spoile to the nations.

6 And her daughters which are in the field, shall be slaine by the sword, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring vpon Tyrus Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel, a king of kings, from the North, with hoxles and with charres, and with horsemen, with a multitude and much people.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field, and hee shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift vp the buckler against thee.

9 Hee shall let engines of warre before him against thy walles, and with his weapons breake downe thy towers.

10 The dust of his hoxles shall couer thee, for their multitude: thy walles shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the whelles, and of the chares, when hee shall enter into thy gates, as into the entrie of a cite that is broken downe.

11 With the hoxes of his hoxles shall hee tread downe all thy streetes: hee shall slay thy people by the sword, and the pillars of thy strength shall fall downe to the ground.

12 And they shall robbe thy riches, and spoile thy merchandise, and they shall breake downe thy walles, and destroy thy pleasant houses, and they shall cast thy stones and thy timber and thy dust into the middes of the water.

13 * Thus will I cause the sound of thy songs to cease, and the sound of thine harpes shall be no more heard.

14 I will lay thee like the top of a rocke: thou shalt be for a spreading of nets: thou shalt be built no more, for I the Lord haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

15 Thus saith the Lord God to Tyrus, Shall not the Isles tremble at the sound of thy fall, and at the cry of the wounded, when they shall be slaine and murdered in the mids of thee?

16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come downe from their thrones: they shall lay away their robes, and put off their broyered garments, and shall clothe themselves with astonishment: they shall sit vpon the ground, and be astonished at every moment, and be amazed at thee.

17 And they shall take vp a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of the sea men, the renowned cite which was strong in the sea, both thee and her inhabitants, which caused their feare to bee on all that haunt therein!

18 Now that the Isles be astonished in the day of thy fall: yea, the Isles that are in the sea, shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord God, When I shall make thee a desolate cite, like the cities that are not inhabited, and when I shall bring the deepe vpon thee, and great waters shall couer thee,

20 When I shall cast thee downe with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, like the olde ruines, with them, I say, which goe downe to the pit, so that thou shalt not be inhabited, and I shall shew my glory in the land of the liuing.

21 I will bring thee to nothing, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou neuer be found againe, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXVII.

The Prophet bewayleth the desolation of Tyrus, shewing what were the riches, power and authoritie thereof in time past.

The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, take vp a lamentation for Tyrus.

3 And say vnto Tyrus, that is situate at the entrie of the sea, which is the mart of the people for many Isles, Thus saith the Lord God, O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the mids of the sea, and thy builders haue made thee of perfect beautie.

5 They haue made all thy ship boards of fire trees of Shenir: they haue brought cedars from Lebanon, to make mallets for thee.

6 Of the okes of Bashan haue they made thine oars: the company of the Assyrians haue made thy banks of purple, brought out of the Isles of Chittim.

7 Fine linnen with broydered worke, brought from Egypt, was spread ouer thee to be thy sail, blue sitke and purple brought from the Isles of Elishah, was thy covering.

8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners, O Tyrus: thy wife men that were in thee, they were thy pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal, and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupie thy merchandise.

11 The men of Arad with thine armie were vpon thy walles round about, and the ^e Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields vpon thy walles round about: they haue made thy beauty perfit.

12 They of Tarshish were thy merchants for the multitude of all riches, for silver, yron, tinne, and leade, which they brought to thy faires.

13 They of Iauan, Tubal and Meshech were thy merchants, & concerning the lines of men, and they brought vessels of brasse for thy merchandise.

14 They of the house of ^b Togarmah brought to thy faires horses, and horsemen, and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants: and the merchandise of many pyles were in thine hands: they brought thee for a present, ⁱ hogues, teeth, and peacocks.

16 They of Aram were thy merchants for the multitude of thy ⁱ wares: they occupied in thy faires with hemeraudes, puerple, and brofaded worke, and fine linnen, and copall, and pearle.

17 They of Iudah and of the land of Israel were thy merchants: they brought for thy merchandise wheate of ^b Minnith, and Pannag, and hony, and oyle, and balme.

18 They of Damalcus were thy merchants in the multitude of thy wares, for the multitude of all riches, as in the wine of Helbon, and white wooll.

19 They of Dan also and of Iauan, going to and fro, occupied in thy faires: yron worke, calffa and calamus were among thy merchandise.

20 They of Dedan were thy merchants in precious clothes for the charets.

21 They of Arabia, and all the princes of Redar ⁱ occupied with thee in lambes, and rammes, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba, and Raamah were thy merchants: they occupied in thy faires with the chiefe of all spices, and with all precious stones and gold.

23 They of Yaram and Carmeh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Akhur, and Chilmad were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in raiment of blue silke, and of broyded worke, and in coffers for the rich apparell, which were bound with cordes: chaines also were among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish ⁱ were thy chiefe in thy merchandise, and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the mids of the sea.

26 Thy ⁱ robbers haue brought thee into great waters: the ⁱ East winde hath broken thee in the mids of the Sea.

28 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

26 And all that handle the oare, the mariners and all the pilots of the sea shall come downe from their ships, and shall stand vpon the land.

30 And shall cause their voyce to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast dust vpon their heads, & wallow themselves in the ashes.

31 They shall plucke off their haire for thee, and gird them with a sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee, with lowe of heart and bitter mourning.

32 And in their mourning they shall take by a lamentation for thee, laying, What cities is like Tyrus, so destroyed in the mids of the sea?

33 When thy wares went forth of the seas, thou filledst many people, and thou diddest enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 When thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandise, and all thy multitude which was in the mids of thee, shall fall.

35 All the inhabitants of the Isles shall be astonied at thee, and all their kings shall be sore afraid and troubled in their countenance.

36 The merchants among the people shall blee at thee: thou shalt bee a terrour, and neuer shalt be ⁱ any more.

C H A P. XXVIII.

2 The word of God against the king of Tyrus for his pride. 21 The word of the Lord against Zidon.

25 The Lord promisseth that he will gather together the children of Israel.

The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, say vnto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thine heart is exalted, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seate of God in the mids of the sea, yet thou art but a man and not God, and ^a though thou diddest thinke in thine heart that thou wast equall with God,

4 With thy wisdom and thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures.

5 By thy great wisdom, and by thine occupying, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches.

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou diddest thinke in thine heart, that thou wast equall with God, against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall desile thy brightnesse.

8 They shall cast thee downe to the pit, and thou shalt die the death of them, that are slaine in the midst of the sea.

9 Wilt thou say then before him that slayeth thee, I am a god? but thou shalt bee a man and no god, in the hands of him that slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the death of the vncircumcised by the hands of strangers: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 Wherefore, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

12 Some of man, take vp a lamentation vpon the king of Tyrus, and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou sealest vp the summe, and art full of wisdom and perfect in beautie,

13 Thou hast bene in Eden the garden of God: eueryprecious stone was in thy garment, the ruby, the topaze, and the diamond, the chrysolite, the onix and the iasper, the saphire, the emeraude, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy timbrels, and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed Cherub, that covereth, & I haue set thee in honour: thou wast vpon the holy mountaine of God: thou hast walked in the mids of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy wayes from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise, they haue filled the mids of thee with cruelty, and thou hast sinned: Therefore I will cast thee as prosane out of the mountaine of God, and I will destroy thee, & couering Cherub, from the middes of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted vp, because of thy beauty, and thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightnesse: I will cast thee to the ground: I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast desiled thy sanctification by the multitude of thy iniquities, and by the iniquitie of thy merchandise: therefore will I bring forth a fire from the middes of thee, which shall deuoure thee: and I will bring thee to ashes vpon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people, shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and neuer shalt thou be any more.

20 Against the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

21 Some of man, set thy face against Zion, and prophesie against it.

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I come against thee, O Zion, and I will be glorified in the mids of thee: and they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall haue executed iudgements in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets, and she shall fall in the mids of her: the enimie shall come against her with the sword on euery side, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

24 And they shall be no more picking thorne vnto the house of Israel, nor any grievous thorne of all that are round about them, and despoiled them, and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I shall haue gathered the house of Israel from the people where they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in the land, that I haue giuen to my seruant Iacob.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards: yea, they shall dwell safely, when I haue executed iudgements vpon all round about them that despise them, and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

CHAP. XXIX,

Hee prophesieth against Pharaoh and Egypt.

The Lord promiseth that he will restore Egypt after foure yeeres. 18 Egypt is the reward of King Nebuchad-nezzar for the labour which hee tooke against Tyre.

1 In the tenth yeere, and in the tenth moneth, in the twelfth day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Some of man, let thy face against Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and prophesie against him, and against all Egypt.

3 Speake, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I come against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon, that lieth in the middes of his riuers, which hath said, The riuer is mine, and I haue made it for my selfe.

4 But I will put hookes in thy fawes, and I will cause the fish of thy riuers to sticke vnto thy scales, and I will draw thee out of the middes of thy riuers, and all the fish of thy riuers shall sticke vnto thy scales.

5 And I will leaue thee in the wilderness, both thee and all the fish of thy riuers: thou shalt fall vpon the open field: thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: for I haue giuen thee for meate to the beasts of the field and to the fowles of the heauen.

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the Lord, because they haue bene a staffe of reede to the house of Israel.

7 When they tooke holde of thee with their hands, thou diddest breake, and rent all thy shoulder: and when they leaned vpon thee, thou wast as a staffe amidst all their loynes to stand upright.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will bring a sword vpon thee, and destroy man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall bee desolate, and waste, and they shall know that I am the Lord: because he hath said, The riuer is mine, and I haue made it.

10 Behold, therefore I will come vpon thee, and vpon thy riuers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate from

17 ¶ In the seuen and twentieth yere also in the first moneth, and in the first day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, Nebuchad-nezzar king of Babel caused his arme to serue a great service against Tyrys: every head was made balde, and every shoulder was made bare: yet had hee no wages, nor his arme for Tyrys: for the service that hee serued against it,

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will giue the land of Egypt vnto Nebuchad-nezzar the king of Babel, and he shall take her multitude, & spoile her spoile, and take her pray, and it shall be the wages of his arme.

20 I haue giuen him the land of Egypt for his labour, that hee serued against it, because they wrought for mee, saith the Lord God.

C H A P. XXX.

The destruction of Egypt, and the cities thereof.

¶ The word of the Lord came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, prophesie, & say, Thus saith the Lord God, Woulde, and cry, Alas be vnto this day.

3 For the day is neere, and the day of the Lord is at hand, a cloudy day, and it shall be the time of the heathen.

4 And the sword shall come vpon Egypt, and feare shall bee in Ethiopia, when the flaine fall in Egypt, when they shall take away her multitude, & when her foundations shall be broken downe.

5 Ethiopia, and Phut, and Lud, and all the common people, and Cub, and the men of the land, that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

6 Thus saith the Lord, They also that maintaine Egypt, shall fall, and the pride of her power shall come downe: from the tower of Seneneth shall they fall by the sword, saith the Lord God.

7 And they shall be desolate in the middes of the countreys that are desolate, and her cities shall bee in the middes of the cities that are wasted.

8 And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

9 In that day shall there messengers goe forth from me in ships, to make the careless Hozes afraid, and feare shall come vpon them as in the day of Egypt: for loe, it cometh.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babel.

11 For hee and his people with him, euen the terrible nations, shall bee brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swordes against Egypt, and fill the land with the flaine.

12 And I will make the riuers dry, and sell the land into the handes of the wicked, and I will make the land waste, and all that therein is, by the handes of strangers: I the Lord haue spoken it.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, I will also destroy the idoles, & I will cause their idoles to cease out of Memphis, and there shall bee no more a Prince of the land of Egypt, and I will send a feare in the land of Egypt.

14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and I will execute indgement in No.

15 And I will powre my wrath vpon Sin, which is the strength of Egypt: and I will destroy the multitude of it.

16 And will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall haue great sorow, and No shall be destroyed, and Noth shall haue sorowes dayly.

17 The yong men of Auen, & of Whi- beſeth shall fall by the sword, and these cities shall goe into captiuitie.

18 At Tehaphnehes the day shall re- straine his light, when I shall breake there the barres of Egypt: and when the pompe of her power shall cease in her, the cloud shall couer her, and her daughters shall goe into captiuitie.

19 Thus will I execute iudgements in Egypt, and they shall know, that I am the Lord.

20 ¶ And in the eleuenth yere, in the first moneth, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came vnto mee, saying,

21 Sonne of man, I haue broken the arme of Pharaoh king of Egypt: and loe, it shall not bee bound up to be healed, neither shall they put a roue to binde it, and so make it strong to hold the sword.

CHAP. XXXI.

2 A comparison of the prosperitie of Pharaoh, with the prosperitie of the Assyrians, 10 He prophesieth a like destruction to them both.

A ^and in the ^a eleventh yeere, in the third moneth, & in the first day of the moneth, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, speake vnto Pharaoh King of Egypt, & to his multitude, Whom art thou ^b like in thy greatnesse?

3 Behold, Althurs was like a cedar in Lebanon with faire branches, and with thicke shadowing boughes, and shor by very high, and his top was among the thicke boughes.

4 The waters nourished him, and the deepe exalted him on high, with her riuers running round about his plants, and sent out her ^c little riuers vnto all the trees of the ^d field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted aboue all the trees of the field, and his boughes were multiplied, and his branches were long, because of the multitude of the waters, which the deepe sent out.

6 All the foules of the heauen made their nests in his boughs, and vnder his branches did all the beastes of the fildes bring forth their yong, and vnder his shadow dwelt all mighty nations.

7 Thus was hee faire in his greatnesse, and in the length of his branches: for his root was nere great waters.

8 The cedars in the garden ^a of God could not hide him: no firre tree was like his branches, and the chestrnut trees were not like his boughs: all the trees in the garden of God were not like vnto him in his beautie.

9 I made him faile by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God, enuid him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because ^e he is lift vp on high, and hath shot by his top among the thicke boughs, and his heart is lift vp in his height,

11 I haue therefore deliuered him into the hands of the ^f mightiest among the heathen: he shall handle him, for I haue cast him away for his wickednesse.

12 And the strangers haue destroyed him: even the terrible nations, and they haue left him vpon the mountaines, and in all the valleyes his branches are fallen, and his boughes are broken by all the riuers of the land: and all the people of the earth are departed from his shadow, and haue forsaken him.

13 Upon his ruine shall all the foules of the heauen remaine, and all the beastes of the fildes shall vpon his branches.

14 So that none of all the trees by the waters shall be exalted by their height, neither shall shor by their top among the thicke boughes, neither shall their leaues stand vp in their height, which drinke so much waters: for they are all deliuered vnto death in the nether parts of the earth in the mids of the children of men, among them that go downe to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord God, In the day when he went downe to hell, I caused them to mourne, and I covered the deep for him, and I did retrain the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: I caused Lebanon to mourne for him, and all the trees of the fildes fainted.

16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him downe to hel, with them that descend into the pit, and all the excellent trees of Eden, and the best of Lebanon: even all that are nourished with waters, shall ^b bee comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went downe to hell with him vnto them that be slaine with the sword and his arme, and they that dwell vnder his shadow in the mids of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatnesse among the trees of Eden? yet thou shalt be cast downe with the trees of Eden vnto the nether parts of the earth, thou shalt sleepe in the mids of the ^c vncircumcised, with them that be slaine by the sword: this is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XXXII.

2 The Prophet is commanded to bewaile Pharaoh King of Egypt, 12 He prophesieth that destruction shall come vnto Egypt through the King of Babylon.

A ^and in the ^a twelfth yeere in the twelfth a moneth, & in the first day of the month, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh King of Egypt, and say vnto him, Thou art like a ^b lyon of the nations, and art as a dragon in the Sea: thou castest out thy riuers, and troublest the waters with thy feet, and stampedst in their riuers.

3 Thus saith the Lord God, ^c I will therefore spread my net over thee with a great multitude of people, and they shall make thee come vp into my net.

4 Then will I leave thee vpon the land, and I will cast thee vpon the open fildes, and I will cause all the foules of the heauen to remaine vpon thee, and I will fill all thy beasts of the field with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh upon the moun-bright.

6 I will also water with thy blood, the land wherein thou sittest, even to the mountaines, and the rivers shall bee full of thee.

7 And when I shall put thee out, I will coner the heauen, and make the starres thereof darke: I will coner the sunne with a cloud, and the moone shall not giue her light.

8 All the lights of heauen will I make darke for thee, and bring darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord God.

9 I will also trouble the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, and upon the countreys which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will make many people amased at thee, and their kings shall be astonied with feare for thee, when I shall make my sword to glitter against their faces, and they shall be afraid at euery moment: euery man for his owne life in the day of thy fall.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, The sword of the king of Babel shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall: they all shall be terrible nations, and they shall destroy the pompe of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be consumed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from the great water sides, neither shall the foote of man trouble them any more, nor the howes of beast trouble them.

14 Then will I make their waters deepe, and cause their rivers to runne like oyle, saith the Lord God.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the countrey with all that is therein, shall bee layde waste: when I shall smite all them which dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the Lord.

16 This is the mourning wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord God.

17 In the twelfth yeere, also in the fifteenth day of the month, came the word of the Lord vnto me, saying,

18 Sonne of man, lament for the multitude of Egypt, and call them downe, even them and the daughters of the mighty nations vnto the nether parts of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pit.

19 Whom dost thou passe in beauty? go downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the mids of them that are slaine by the sword: there is deliue-red to the sword: draw her downe, and all her multitude.

21 The most mighty and strong shall speake to him out of the mids of hell with them that helpe her: they are gone downe and sleepe with the vncircumcised that be slaine by the sword.

22 Alas, is there any and all his company:

their graues are about him: all they are slaine and fallen by the sword.

23 Whose graues are made in the side of the pit, and his multitude are round about his graue: all they are slaine and fallen by the sword, which caused feare to be in the land of the living.

24 There is Oslam and all his multitude round about his graue: all they are slaine and fallen by the sword, which are gone downe with the vncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused themselves to be feared in the land of the living, yet haue they borne their shame with them that are gone downe to the pit.

25 They haue made his bed in the mids of the slaine with all his multitude: their graves are round about him: all these vncircumcised are slaine by the sword: though they haue caused their feare in the land of the living, yet haue they borne their shame with them that goe downe to the pit: they are laide in the mids of them that be slaine.

26 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude: their graves are round about them: all these vncircumcised were slaine by the sword, though they caused their feare to be in the land of the living.

27 And they shall not lie with the valiant of the vncircumcised, that are fallen, which are gone downe to the graue, with their weapons of warre, and haue laide their swords vnder their heads, but their iniquitie shall be vpon their bones: because they were the feare of the mighty in the land of the living.

28 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the mids of the vncircumcised, and lie with them that are slaine by the sword.

29 There is Edom, his kings, and all his princes, which with their strength are laide by them that were slaine by the sword: they shall sleepe with the vncircumcised, and with them that goe downe to the pit.

30 There be all the princes of the North, with all the Sidonians which are gone down with the slaine, with their feare: they are ashamed of their strength, and the vncircumcised sleepe with them that be slaine by the sword, and beare their shame with them that goe downe to the pit.

31 Pharaoh shall see them, and hee shall be comforted ouer all his multitude: Pharaoh and all his armie shall be slaine by the sword, saith the Lord God.

32 For I haue caused my feare to be in the land of the living: and hee shall be laide in the mids of the vncircumcised with them that are slaine by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord God.

I bring the sword vpon a land, if the people of the land take a man from among them,
and make him their watchman.

2 If then he seeth the sword come vpon the land, hee blow the trumpet, and warne the people.

4 Then he that heareth the sound of the trumpet, and wil not be warned, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall bee vpon his owne head.

5 For he heard the sound of the trumpet, and would not be admonished: therefore his blood shall be vpon him: but he that receiuerh warning, shall saue his life.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people bee not warned: if the sword come, and take any person from among them, hee is taken away for his iniquitie, but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

7 * So thou, O Sonne of man, I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the word at my mouth, and admonish them from me.

8 When I shall say vnto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt die the death, if thou dost not speake, and admonish the wicked of his way, that wicked man shall die for his iniquitie: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 Nevertheless, if thou warne the wicked of his way, to turne from it, if he doe not turne from his way, hee shall die for his in-iquitie: but thou shalt deliuer thy soule.

10 Therefore, O thou sonne of man, speake vnto the house of Israel, Thus yee ipeake and say, If our transgressions & our finnes be vpon vs, and wee are consumed because of them, how should we then liue?

11 Say vnto them, As I liue, saith the Lord God, I desire not the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turne from his way and liue: turne you, turne you from your euill wayes, for why will ye die, O yee house of Israel?

12 Therefore thou sonne of man, say vnto the children of thy people, The righteous-nesse of the righteous shall not deliuer him in the day of his transgression, nor the wickednesse of the wicked shall cause him to fall therein, in the day that hee returneth from his wickednesse, neither shall the righteous liue for his righteousness in the day that hee sinne.

13 When I shall say vnto the righteous, that he shall surely liue, if hee trust to his own righteousnesse, and commit iniquitie, all his righteousnesse shall bee no more remembered, but for his iniquitie that he hath committed,
he shall die for the same.

14 Again, when I shall say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt die the death: if hee turne from his sinne, and do that which is lawfull and right,

15 To wit, if the wicked restore the pledge, and giue againe that he had robbed, & walke
in the statutes of life, without committing iniquitie, he shall surely liue, and not die.

16 None of his finnes that hee hath committed, shall be mentioend vnto him, because he hath done that which is lawfull & right, he shall surely liue.

17 Yet the children of thy people say, * The way of the Lord is not equall: but their owne way is vnequall.

18 When the righteous turneth from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquitie, he shall euen die thereby.

19 But if the wicked returne from his wickednesse, and doe that which is lawfull and right, he shall liue thereby.

20 Ver ye say, The way of the Lord is not equall. O yee house of Israel, I will iudge you euery one after his wayes.

21 Also in the twelfth yeere of our cap-tiuitie, in the tenth moneth, and in the fift day of the moneth, one that had escaped out of Jerusalem, came vnto me, and said, The city is smitten.

22 Now the hand of the Lord had been vpon me in the evening afore hee that had escaped, came, and had opened my mouth, untill he came to me in the morning: and when hee had opened my mouth, I was no more dumbe.

23 Again the word of the Lord came vnto me, and said,

24 Sonne of man, these that dwell in the desolate places of the land of Israel, talke and say, * Abraham was but one, and hee possessed the land: but we are many, therefore the land shall be giuen vs in possession.

25 Therefore say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Yee eate with the blood, and lift vp your eyes toward your idoles, and shed blood: should yee then possesse the land?

26 Yee leane vpon your swordes: yee worke abomination, and ye defile euery one his neighbours wife: should ye then possesse the land?

27 Say thus vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, As I liue, to surely they that are in the desolate places, shall fall by the sword:
and him that is in the open field, will I giue vnto the beastes to be deuoured: and they that be in the forts and in the caues, shall die of the pestilence.

28 For I will lay the land desolate and waste, and the poynte of her strength shall cease, and the mountaines of Israel shall be desolate, and none shall passe thorow.

29 Then shall they know that I am the Lord, when I haue laide the land desolate and waste because of all their abominations that they haue committed

30 Also thou sonne of man, the children of thy people that talke of thee by the walles and in the doores of houses, and speake one to another, euery one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and heare what is the word that cometh from the Lord.

31 For they come vnto thee, as the people
couth to come: and my people sit before thee, and heare thy wordes, but they will not doe them: for with their mouthes they make iesses, and their heart goeth after their couetousnesse.

CHAP. XXXIII.

2 Against the shepheards that despised the flocke of Christ, and seeke their owne gaine. 7 The Lord saith that he will visite his dispersed flocke, and gather them together. 23 He promyseth the true Shepheard Christ, and wish him peace.

AND the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, prophesie against the shepheards of Israel, prophesie and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God vnto the shepheards, * Woe be vnto the shepheards of Israel, that feed themselves: and gather them together. 23 He promyseth the true Shepheard Christ, and wish him peace.

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wooll: yee kill them that are fed, but yee feed not the sheepe.

4 The weak haue ye not strengthened: the sicke haue ye not healed, neither haue yee bound vp the broken, nor brought again that which was drinen away, neither haue yee sought that which was lost, but with cruelty, and with rigour haue ye ruled them.

5 And they were scattered without a shepheard: and when they were dispersed, they were denoured of all the beasts of the field.

6 Why sheepe wandered thorow all the mountaines, and vpon euery high hill: yea my flock was scattered thorow all the earth, and none did seeke or search after them.

7 Therefore yee shepheards, heare the word of the Lord.

8 As I liue, saith the Lord God, surely because my flocke was spoiled, and my sheepe were denoured of all the beasts of the field, hauing no shepheard, neither did my shepheards seeke my sheepe, but the shepheards fed themselves, and fed not my sheepe,

9 Therefore heare yee the word of the Lord, O ye shepheards.

10 Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I come against the shepheards, and will requyre my sheepe at their handes, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheepe: neither shall the shepheards feede themselves any more: for I will deliuer my sheepe from their mouthes, and they shall no more deuoure them.

11 For thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will search my sheepe, and seeke them out.

12 As a shepheard searcheth out his flock, when hee hath bene among his sheepe that are scattered, so will I seeke out my sheepe, and will deliuer them out of all places, where they haue bene scattered in the cloudy and darke day,

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their owne land, and feede them vpon the mountaines of Israel, by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I will feede them in a good pasture, and vpon the high mountaines of Israel shall their folde be: there shall they lie in a good folde, and in fat pasture shall they feed vpon the mountaines of Israel.

15 I will feed my sheepe, and bring them to their rest, saith the Lord God.

16 I will seeke that which was lost, and bring againe that which was drinen away, and will binde vp that which was broken, and will strengthen the weak, but I will destroy the fat and the strong, and I will feed them with iudgement.

17 And you my sheepe, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I iudge betweene sheepe their brethren, and sheepe, betweene the rammes and the goates.

18 Seemeth it a small thing vnto you to haue eaten vp the good pasture, but ye must tread downe with your feete the residue of your pasture? & to haue drinke of the deepe waters, but ye must trouble the residue with your feet?

19 And my sheepe ate that which yee haue troden with your feet, and drinke that which yee haue troubled with your feet.

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord God vnto them, Behold, I, even I will iudge betweene the fat sheepe and the lean sheepe.

21 Because yee haue thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the weak with your hornes, till yee haue scattered them abroad,

22 Therefore will I helpe my sheepe, and they shall no more bee spoiled: and I will iudge betweene sheepe and sheepe.

23 And I will let vp a Shepheard ouer them, and he shall feed them, even my seruant David, he shall feed them, and hee shall be their Shepheard.

24 And I the Lord will be their God, and my seruant David shall be the prince among them, I the Lord haue spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the euill beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleepe in the woods.

26 And I will let them, as a blessing, euen round about my mountaine: and I will cause raine to come downe in due season, and there shall be raine of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yeeld her fruit, and the earth shall giue her fruit, and they shall bee safe in their land, and shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue broken the coades of their pike, and deliuered them out of the handes of those that serued themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more bee spoiled of the heathen, neither shall the beasts of the land deuoure them, but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise vp for them a plant of rodome, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither beare the reproch of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they vnderstand, that I the Lord their God am with them, and that they, euen the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord God.

31 And ye my sheepe, the sheepe of my pasture are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God, g Meaning, such as lift vp themselves aboue their brethren, and thinke they haue no need to be gouerned by me.

h That is, by putting difference betweene the good and the bad, and so giue to either as they deserue.

C H A P. XXXV.

2 The destruction that shall come on mount Seir, because they troubled the people of the Lord.

M Discover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

a Where the Idumeans dwell,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesie against it,

3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord God, Beholde, O mount Seir, I come against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee desolate and waste.

4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord.

5 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast put the children of Israel to flight by the force of the sword in the time of their calamitie, when their iniquitie had an ende, b When by their punishment I called them from their iniquitie.

6 Therefore as I live, saith the Lord God, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: except thou hate blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

c Except thou repent thy former crueltie,

7 Thus will I make mount Seir desolate and waste, and cut off from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth.

8 And I will fill his mountaines with his slain men: in thine hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers shall they fall, that are slain with the sword.

d To wit, to their former estate.

9 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not returne, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

e Meaning, Israel and Iudah.

10 Because thou hast said, These two nations, and these two countreys shall be mine, and wee will possess them (seeing the Lord was there.)

f And so by fighting against Gods people, they should goe about to put him out of his owne possession.

11 Therefore as I live saith the Lord God, I will do euen according to thy wrath, and according to thine indignation which thou hast used in thine hatred against them: and I will make my selfe known among them when I have iudged thee.

g As thou hast done cruelly, so shalt thou be cruelly handled.

12 And thou shalt know, that if the Lord have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountaines of Israel, saying, They lie waste, they are given vs to be deuoured.

h Shewing that when God punisheth the enemies, the godly ought to consider that hee hath a care ouer them, and so praise his Name; and also that the wicked rage as though there were no God till they feeble his hand to their destruction.

13 Thus with your mouthes yee have boasted against mee, and haue multiplied your words against me: I haue heard them.

14 Thus saith the Lord God, So shall all the world reioyce, when I shall make thee desolate.

15 As thou didst reioyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I doe unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea wholly, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

C H A P. XXXVI.

8 Her promises to deliver Israel from the Gentiles. 22 The benefits done to the Iewes, are to be ascribed to the mercie of God, and not unto their deservings. 26 God reneweth our hearts, that we may walke in his Commandements.

Also thou sonne of man, prophesie unto the mountaines of Israel, and say, Pee

2 Thus saith the Lord God, Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, euen the ^a places of the world are ours in possession, a That is, the Idumean.

b That is, Ierusalem, which for Gods promises was the chiefest of all the world.
c Ye are made a matter of talke and derision to all the world.

3 Therefore prophesie & say, Thus saith the Lord God, Because that they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that yee might bee a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are come unto the lips and tongues of men, and unto the reproch of the people,

4 Therefore yee mountaines of Israel, heare the word of the Lord God, Thus saith the Lord God to the mountaines and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, and to the waste and desolate places, and to the cities that are forsaken: which are spoiled and had in derision of the residue of the heathen that are round about.

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Surely in the fire of mine indignation haue I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea which haue taken my land for their possession, with the ioy of all their heart, and with despitefull minds to cast it out for a pray.

9 For behold, I come unto you, and I will turne unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown.

h His mercies and goodnes toward his Church, who shall perseuereth his, euen when he destroyeth his enemies.

10 And I will multiply the men vpon you, euen all the house of Israel wholly, and the cities shall be inhabited, and the desolate places shall be builded.

11 And I will multiply vpon you man and beast, and they shall increase and bring fruit, and I will cause you to dwell after your olde estate, and I will bestow benefits vpon you more then at the first, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

h Which was accomplished vnder Christ, to whom all these temporall deliverances did direct them.

12 Pee, I will cause men to walke vpon you, euen my people Israel, and they shall possess you, and yee shall be their inheritance, and ye shall no more henceforth despise them of men.

i That is, vpon the mountaines of Ierusalem.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, Because they say unto you, Thou land deuoured by men, and hast bene a waste of thy people, k This the enemies imputed as the reproch of the land, which God did for the sinnes of the people, according to his iust iudgements.

14 Therefore thou shalt deuoure men no more, neither waste thy people henceforth, saith the Lord God,

15 Neither will I cause men to beare in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou beare the reproch of the people any more, neither shalt cause thy folke to fall any more, saith the Lord God.

16 Moreover, the word of the Lord came unto me, saying,

17 Sonne of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their owne land, they defiled it by their owne wayes, and by their deedes: their way was before me as the filthinesse of the menituous.

18 Wherefore I powred my wrath vpon them, for the blood that they had shed in the land, and for their idoles, wherewith they had polluted it.

19 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were disperfed thow the countreys: for according to their wayes, and according to their deedes, I iudged them.

20 * And when they entred vnto the heathen, whither they went, they polluted mine holy Name, when they laid of them, These are the people of the Lord, and are gone out of his land.

21 But I fauoured mine holy Name, which the house of Israel had polluted among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore lay vnto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, I doe not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy Names sake, which ye polluted among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctifie my great Name, which was polluted among the heathen, among whom you haue polluted it, and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, saith the Lord God, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of al countreys, and will bring you into your owne land.

25 Then will I powre cleane water vpon you, and ye shall be cleane: yea, from all your filthinesse, and from all your idoles will I cleanse you.

26 A new heart also will I giue you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stonie heart out of your body, and I will giue you an heart of flesh.

27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walke in my statutes, and ye shall keepe my iudgements, and doe them.

28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gaue to your fathers, and yee shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also deliuer you from all your filthinesse, and I will call for you, and will increase it, and lay no famine vpon you.

30 For I will multiply the fruite of the trees, and the increase of the field, that yee shall beare no more the reproch of famine among the heathen.

31 Then shall ye remember your owne wicked wayes, and your deedes that were not good, and shall iudge your selues worthy to haue bene destroyed for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

32 Be it known vnto you that I doe not this for your sakes, saith the Lord God: therefore, O yee house of Israel, be ashamed and confounded for your owne wayes.

33 Thus saith the Lord God, What time as I shall haue clenfed you from all your iniquities, I will cause you to dwell in the cities, and the desolate places shall be builded.

34 And the desolate land shall be filled, whereas it lay waste in the sight of all that passed by.

35 For they said, This waste land was like the garden of Eden, and these waste and desolate and ruinous cities were strong, and were inhabited.

36 Then the residue of the heathen that are left round about you, shall know that I the Lord build the ruinous places, & plant the desolate places: I the Lord haue spoken it, and will doe it.

37 Thus saith the Lord God, I will yet for this be sought of the house of Israel, to performe vnto them: I will increase them with men like a flocke.

38 As the holy flocke, as the flocke of Ierusalem in their solemne feasts, so shall the desolate cities be filled with flocks of men, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

q He declarcth that it ought not to be referred to the toile or plentifulnesse of the earth that any countrey is rich and abundant, but onely to Gods mercies, as his plagues & curses declare when he maketh it barren.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 He prophesieth the bringing againe of the people being in captiuitie. 16 He sheweth the vision of the sent tribes with the two.

The hand of the Lord was vpon me, and carried mee out in the spirit of the Lord, and set me downe in the mids of the field, which was full of bones.

2 And hee led me round about by them, and behold, there were very many in the open field, and loe, they were very drie.

3 And he said vnto me, Sonne of man, can these bones liue? And I answered, O Lord God, thou knowest.

4 Again he said vnto me, Prophecie vpon these bones, and say vnto them, O ye drie bones, heare the word of the Lord.

5 Thus saith the Lord God vnto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall liue.

6 And I will lay sinewes vpon you, and make flesh grow vpon you, and couer you with skin, and put breath in you, that ye may liue, and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, there was a shaking, & the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, loe, the sinewes, and the fleshy grew vpon them, and about the skin couered them, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he vnto me, Prophecie vnto the winde: prophecie, sonne of man, and say to the winde, Thus saith the Lord God, Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe vpon these flaine, that they may liue.

10 So I prophesied as he had commanded me: and the breath came into them, and they liued, and stood vp vpon their feete, an exceeding great armie.

11 Then he said vnto me, Sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. Behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is gone, and we are cleane cut off.

12 Therefore prophecie, & say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my people, I will open your graues, and cause

17 And thou shalt toyne them one to another into one tree, and they shall be as one in thine hand.

18 And when the children of thy people shall speake vnto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew vs what thou meanest by these?

19 Thou shalt answere them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the tree ^a of Ioseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with him, euen with the tree of Iudah, and make them one tree, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 And the peece of wood wheron thou writest, shall be in thine hand in their sight.

21 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen whither they be gone, and will gather them on euery side, and bring them into their owne land.

22 And I will make them one people in the land vpon the mountaines of Israel, ^a and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two peoples, neither be diuided any more henceforth into two kingdoms,

23 Neither shall they bee polluted any more with their idoles, nor with their abominations, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will saue them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they haue sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And Dauid my ^a seruant shall be king ouer them, and they shall all haue one shepheard: they shall also walke in my iudgements, and obserue my statutes, and doe them:

25 And they shall dwell in the land, that I haue giuen vnto Iacob my seruant, where your fathers haue dwelt, and they shall dwell therein, euen they and their sonnes, and their sonnes sonnes for euer, and my seruant Dauid shall be their prince for euer.

26 Whereouer, I will make ^a a covenant of peace with them: it shall be an euertlasting covenant with them, and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary among them for euermore.

27 My Tabernacle also shall bee with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

28 Thus the heathen shall know, that I the Lord doe lance the Israel when my Sanctuary shall be among them for euermore.

2 He prophesieth that Gog and Magog shall fight with great power against the people of God. 21 Their destruction.

And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

9 Thou shalt ascend and come by like a tempest, and shalt be like a cloud to couer the land, both thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

21 The graver of Gog and his hosts. 17 They shall be deuoured of birds and beasts. 23 Wherefore the house of Israel is captiue. 24 Their bringing againe from captiuitie is promised.

Therefore thou sonne of man, prophesie against Gog, say, Thus saith the Lord God, behold, I come against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.

2 And I will destroy thee, and leaue but the last part of thee, and will cause thee to come vp from the North parts, I will bring thee vpon the mountaines of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and I will cause thine arrowes to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall vpon the mountaines of Israel, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: for I will giue thee vnto the birds, and to euery feathered fowle and beast of the field to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open field: for
I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

6 And I will send a fire on Bagdag, and among them that dwell safely in the cities, and they shall know that I am the Lord.

7 So will I make mine holy Name known in the middes of my people Israel, and I will not suffer them to pollute mine holy Name any more, and the heathen shall know that I am the Lord, the holy one of Israel.

8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord God: this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall goe forth, and shall burne and set fire vpon the weapons, & on the shields, and bucklers, vpon the bowes, and vpon the ar-rowes, & vpon the stauies in their hands, and vpon the speares, and they shall burne them with fire leuen yerres.

10 So that they shall bring no wood out of the field, neither cut downe any out of the forests: for they shall burne the weapons with fire, and they shall robbe those that robbed them, and spoile those that spoiled them, saith the Lord God.

11 And at the same time will I giue vnto Gog, a place there for buriall in Israel, even the valley whereby men goe toward the East part of the sea: and it shall cause them that passe by, to stoppe their noses, and there shall they bury Gog with all his multitude: and they shall call it the valley of Hamon-Gog.

12 And seuen moneths long shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall burie them, and they shall haue a name when I shall be glorified, saith the Lord God.

14 And they shall chuse out men to go continually thorow the lande with them that trauaille to bury those that remaine vpon the ground, to cleanse it: they shall search to the end of seuen moneths.

15 And the travellers that passe thorow the land, if any see a mans bone, then shall he set vp a signe by it, till the buriers haue buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

16 And also the name of the cite shall be Hamonah: thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 And thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lord God, Speake vnto euery feathered fowle, and to all the beasts of the field, Assemble your selues, and come: gather your selues on euery side to my sacrifice, for I doe sacrifice a great sacrifice for you vpon the mountaines of Israel, that ye may eate flesh and drinke blood.

22 So the house of Israel shal know, that I am the Lord their God from that day and to forth.

23 And the heathen shall know, that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquitie, because they trespassed against me: therefore hid I my face from them, and gaue them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleannes, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, and hid my face from them.

28 Then shall they know, that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be ledde into captivity among the heathen: but I haue gathered them vnto their owne lande, and haue left none of them any more there, 29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I haue powred out my Spirit vpon the house of Israel, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XL.

The restoring of the Citie, and the Temple.

In the five and twentieth yeere of our being in captiuitie, in the beginning of the yeere, in the tenth day of the moneth, in the fourteenth yeere after that the citie was smitten, in the selfsame day, the hand of the Lord was vpon mee, and brought mee thither.

2 Into the land of Israel brought he me by a vision, and set me vpon a very high mountaine, whereupon was as the building of a citie toward the South.

3 And he brought mee thither, & behold, there was a man, whose similitude was to looke to, like brasse, with a linnen chield in his hand, and a reede to measure with: and he stood at the gate.

4 And the man said vnto me, Some of man, behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, and set thine heart vpon all that I shall shew thee: for to the intent that they might be shewed thee, art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest, vnto the house of Israel.

5 And behold, I saw a wall on the one side of the house round about: and in the mans hand was a reede to measure with, of six cubites long by the cubite, and an hand breadth: so hee measured the breadth of the building with one reed, and the height with one reed.

6 Then came hee vnto the gate, which looketh towards the East, and went by the staires thereof, and measured the || poste of the gate, which was one reede broad, and || the other poste of the gate, which was one reede broad.

|| Or, upper poste.*

7 And every chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad, and betweene the chambers were six cubites: and the poste of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reede.

8 We measured also the porch of the gate within with one reede.

9 Then measured hee the porch of the gate of eight cubites, and the || postes thereof, of two cubites, and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the chambers of the gate Eastward, were three on this side, and three on that side: they three were of one measure, and the postes had one measure on this side, and one on that side.

11 And hee measured the breadth of the entrie of the gate ten cubites, and the height of the gate thirteene cubites.

12 The space also before the chambers, was one cubite on this side, and the space was one cubite on that side, and the chambers were six cubites on this side, and six cubites on that side.

13 Hee measured then the gate from the roote of a chamber to the top of the gate: the breadth was sixe and twentie cubites, done against done.

14 Wee made also postes of threescore cubites, and the postes of the court, and of the gate had one measure round about.

15 And vpon the forefront of the entrie of the gate vnto the forefront of the porch of the gate within were fittie cubites.

16 And there were narrow windowes in the chambers, and in their postes within the gate round about, and likewise in the arches: and the windowes went round about within: and vpon the postes were palme trees.

17 Then brought he me into the outward court, and loe, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about, and thirty chambers were vpon the pavement.

18 And the pavement was by the side of the gates ouer against the length of the gates, and the pavement was beneath.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate without, vnto the forefront of the court within, an hundred cubites Eastward and Northward.

20 And the gate of the outward court, that looked toward the North, measured hee after the length and breadth thereof.

21 And the chambers thereof were, three on this side, and three on that side, and the postes thereof and the arches there-

23 And the gate of the inner court stood ouer against the gate toward the North, and toward the East, and hee measured from gate to gate an hundred cubites.

24 After that he brought me toward the South, and loe there was a gate toward the South, and he measured the postes thereof, and the arches thereof according to these measures.

25 And there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof round about like these windowes: the height was fiftie cubites, and the breadth five and twentie cubites.

26 And there were seven steps to goe by to it, & the arches thereof were before them: and it had palme trees, one on this side, and another on that side vpon the postes thereof.

27 ¶ And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured from gate to gate toward the South an hundred cubites.

28 And hee brought mee into the inner court by the South gate, and hee measured the South gate according to these measures.

29 And the chambers thereof, and the postes thereof, and the arches thereof according to these measures, and there were windowes in it, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fiftie cubits long, and five and twentie cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were five and twentie cubites long, and five cubites broad.

31 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof, and the going vp to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ Again he brought me into the inner court toward the East, and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the chambers thereof, and the postes thereof, and the arches thereof were according to these measures, and there were windowes therein, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fiftie cubites long, and five and twentie cubites broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof, on this side and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ After he brought mee to the North gate, and measured it, according to these measures.

36 The chambers thereof, the postes thereof, and the arches thereof, and there were windowes therein round about: the height was fiftie cubites, and the breadth five and twentie cubites.

37 And the postes thereof were toward the utter court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof on this side, and on that side, and the going vp to it had eight steps.

38 And every chamber, and the entrie, thereof was vnder the postes of the gates: there they washed the burnt offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate stood two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, vpon the which they slew the burnt offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespass offering.

40 And at the side beyond the steps, at the entrie of the North gate stood two tables, and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Foure tables were on this side, and foure tables on that side by the side of the gate, euen eight tables, wherupon they slew their sacrifice.

42 And the foure tables were of hewen stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an halfe long, and a cubite and an halfe broad, and one cubite hie, wherupon also they laide the instruments wherewith they slewe the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were borders an hand broad, fastened round about, and vpon the tables lay the flesh of the offering.

44 And without the inner gate, were the chambers of the fingers in the inner court, which was at the side of the North gate: and their prospect was toward the South, and one was at the side of the East gate, hauing the prospect toward the North.

45 And he said vnto me, This chamber whose prospect is toward the South, is for the Priests that haue charge to keepe the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, is for the Priests that haue the charge to keepe the Altar: these are the sonnes of Zadok among the sonnes of Levi, which may come nere to the Lord to minister vnto him.

47 So he measured the court an hundred cubites long, and an hundred cubits broad, euen foure square: likewise the altar that was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured the postes of the porch, five cubites on this side, and five cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twentie cubites, and the breadth eleven cubites, and he brought me by the steps wherby they went vp to it, and there were pillars by the postes, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAP. XLI.

1 The disposition and order of the building of the Temple, and the other things thereto belonging.

A fterward he brought mee to the Temple, and measured the postes, five cubites broad on the one side, and five cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the Tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the entrie was ten cubites, and the sides of the entrie were five cubites on the one side, and five cubites on the other side, and hee measured the length thereof foure cubits, and the breadth twentie cubites.

3 Then went hee in, and measured the postes

postes of the entry two cubites, and the entry five cubites, and the breadth of the entry seven cubites.

4 So he measured the length thereof twenty cubites, and the breadth twenty cubites before the Temple. And he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After, he measured the wall of the house, five cubites, and the breadth of every chamber four cubits round about the house on every side.

6 And the chambers were chamber upon chamber, three and thirtie fore high, and they entered into the wall made for the chambers which was round about the house, that the posts might be fastened therein, and not be fastened in the wall of the house.

7 And it was large, and went round mounting upward to the chambers, for the staire of the house was mounting upward round about the house: therefore the house was larger upward: so they went up from the lowest chamber to y highest by the mids.

8 I saw also the house vie round about: the foundations of the chambers were a full reed of five great cubits.

9 The thickness of the wall which was for the chamber without was five cubits, and that which remained, was the place of the chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubites round about the house on every side.

11 And the doores of the chambers were toward the place that remained, one doore toward the North, and another doore toward the South, and the breadth of the place that remained, was five cubites round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place towards the West corner, was seven cubites broad, and the wall of the building was five cubites thicke, round about, and the length ninety cubits.

13 So he measured the house an hundred cubites long, and the separate place, and the building with the walls thereof were an hundred cubites long.

14 Also the breadth of the forefront of the house, and of the separate place toward the East was an hundred cubites.

15 And hee measured the length of the building ouer against the separate place, which was behind it, and the chambers on the one side, and on the other side an hundred cubites with the Temple within, and the arches of the court.

16 The postes & the narrow windowes, and the chambers round about, on three sides ouer against the postes, sieled with cedar wood round about, and from the ground up to the windowes, and the windowes were sieled.

17 And from aboue the doore vnto the inner house and without, and by all the wall round about within and without it was sieled according to the measure.

18 And it was made with Cherubims and palme trees, for that a palme tree was betweene a Cherub and a Cherub: and every Cherub had two faces,

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palme tree on the one side, and the face of a lion toward the palme tree on the other side: thus was it made thorow all the house round about,

20 From the ground vnto aboue the doore were Cherubims and palme trees made as in the wall of the Temple.

21 The postes of the Temple were squared, and thus to looke vnto, was the similitude and forme of the Sanctuary.

22 The altar of wood was three cubites hie, and the length thereof two cubites, and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the sides thereof were of wood. And he said unto me, This is the table that shall be before the Lord.

23 And the Temple and the Sanctuary had two doores.

24 And the doores had to wickets, euen two turning wickets, two wickets for one doore, and two wickets for another doore.

25 And vpon the doores of the Temple there were made Cherubims, and palme trees, like as was made vpon the walles, and there were thicke planks vpon the forefront of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windowes and palme trees on the one side, and on the other side by the sides of the porch, and vpon the sides of the house, and thicke planks.

CHAP. XLII.

Of the chambers of the Temple for the Priests, and the holy things.

Then brought hee me into the better court by the way toward the North, and hee brought me into the chamber that was ouer against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites was the North doore, and it was fiftie cubits broad.

3 Ouer against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and ouer against the pavement, which was for the better court, was chamber against chamber in three rows.

4 And before the chambers was a gallerie of ten cubites wide, and within was a way of one cubite, and their doores toward the North.

5 Now the chambers aboue were narrower: for those chambers seemed to eate by these, to wit, the lower, and those that were in the mids of the building.

6 For they were in three rows, but had not pillars as the pillars of the court: therefore there was a difference from them beneath and from the middlemost, euen from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without ouer against the chambers, toward the better court on the forefront of the chambers, was fiftie cubits long.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the better court, was fiftie cubites: and loe, before the Temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And under these chambers was the entrie on the East side, as one goeth into them from the outward court.

10 The chambers were in the thicknesse of the wall of the court toward the East ouer against the separate place, and ouer against the building.

11 And the way before them was after the maner of the chambers, which were toward the North, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their entries were like, both according to their fashions, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doozes of the chambers that were toward the South, was a dooze in the corner of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the East, as one entereth.

13 Then said hee vnto me, The North chambers, and the South chambers which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, wherein the Priests that appoach vnto the Lorde shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespass offering: for the place is holy.

14 When the Priests enter therein, they shall not goe out of the holy place into the vnder court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister: for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and so shall appoach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the East, and measured it round about.

16 We measured the East side with the measuring rodde, five hundred reedes, euen with the measuring reed round about.

17 We measured also the North side, five hundred reedes, euen with the measuring reed round about.

18 And he measured the South side, five hundred reedes with the measuring reed.

19 He turned about also to the West side, and measured five hundred reedes with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the foure sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reedes long, and five hundred reedes broad to make a separation betweene the Sanctuarie and the profane place.

CHAP. XLIII.

2 He seeth the glory of God going into the Temple, from whence it had before departed. 7 He mentioneth the idolatry of the children of Israel, for the which they were consumed and brought to nought. 9 He is commanded to call them againe to repentance.

Afterward hee brought mee to the gate, euen the gate that turneth toward the East.

2 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from out of the East, whose voice was like a noyse of great waters, and the earth was made light with his glory.

3 And the vision which I saw was like the vision, euen as the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the citie: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell vpon my face.

4 And the glory of the Lord came into the house by the way of the gate, whose prospect is toward the East.

5 So the Spirit tooke me vp, & brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house.

6 And I heard one speaking vnto me, out of the house: and there stood a man by me,

7 Which sayd vnto me, Sonne of man, this place is my throne, and the place of the soles of my feete, whereas I will dwell among the children of Israel for euer, and the house of Israel shall no more defile mine holy Name, neither they, nor their kings by their fornication, nor by the carkeiles of their kings in their high places.

8 Albeit they set their thresholds by my thresholds, and their posts by my postes (for there was but a wall between me and them) yet haue they defiled mine holy Name with their abominations, that they haue committed: wherefore I haue consumed them in my wrath.

9 Now therefore let them put away their fornication, and the carkeiles of their kings farre from me, and I will dwell among them for euer.

10 Thou sonne of man, shew this house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their wickednesse, and let them measure the paterne.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they haue done, shew them the forme of the house, and the paterne thereof, and the going out thereof, and the coming in thereof, and the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the figures thereof, and all the lawes thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keepe the whole fashion thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and doe them.

12 This is the description of the house, It shall bee vpon the toppe of the mount: all the limits thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the description of the house.

13 And these are the measures of the Altar, after the cubites: the cubite is a cubite and an handbreadth, euen the bottome shalbe a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the border thereof by the edge thereof, round about shall be a pynne: and this shalbe the height of the Altar.

14 And from the bottome which toucheth the ground to the lower piece shalbe two cubites, and the breadth one cubite, and from the little piece to the great piece shalbe foure cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 So the altar shalbe foure cubites, and from the altar upward shalbe foure hoynes.

16 And the altar shalbe twelue cubits long, and twelue broad, and foure square in the foure corners thereof.

17 And the frame shalbe foureene cubites long, and foureene broad in the foure square corners thereof, and the border about it shalbe halfe a cubite, and the bottome thereof shalbe a cubite about, and the steps thereof shall be turned toward the East.

a When I prophesied the destruction of the citie by the Caldeans.

18 And he said unto me, Sonne of man, thus saith the Lord God, These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it to offer the burnt offering thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the Priests, and to the Levites, that be of the tribe of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me saith the Lord God, a young bullocke for a sinne offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four corners of it, and on the four corners of the frame, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse it and reconcile it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offering, & burne it in the appointed place of the house without the Sanctuary.

22 But the second day thou shalt offer an hee goat without blemish for a sinne offering, and they shall cleanse the Altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullocke.

23 When thou shalt make an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullocke without blemish, and a ramme out of the flocke without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the Lord, and the Priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

25 Seven dayes shalt thou prepare every day an hee goat for a sinne offering: they shall also prepare a young bullocke and a ram out of the flocke without blemish.

26 Thus shall they seven dayes purifie the altar, and cleanse it, and I will consecrate it.

27 And when these dayes are expired, upon the eighth day and so forth, the Priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings, and I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

CHAP. XLIIII.

He reprooveth the people for their offence. 7 The uncircumcised in heart and in the flesh. 9 Who are to be admitted to the service of the Temple, and who to be refused.

When hee brought me toward the gate of the outward Sanctuary, which turneth toward the East, and it was shut.

2 Then said the Lord unto me, This gate shall be shut, and shall not be opened, and no man shall enter by it, because the Lord God of Israel hath entred by it, and it shall be shut.

3 It appertaineth to the prince: the prince himselfe shall sit in it to eat bread before the Lord: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall goe out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought hee me toward the North gate before the house: & when I looked, behold, the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, and I fell upon my face.

5 And the Lord said unto me, Sonne of man, I marke well, and behold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, all that I say unto thee, concerning all the ordinances of the house of the Lord, and all the lawes thereof, and marke well the entering in of the house with every going forth of the Sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God, O house of Israel, ye have enough of all your abominations,

7 Seeing that ye have brought into my Sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my Sanctuary, to pollute mine house, when ye offer my bread, even fat and blood: and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 For ye have not kept the ordinances of mine holy things: but you your selves have let other to take the charge of my Sanctuary.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, No stranger uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my Sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel,

10 Neither yet the Levites that are gone backe from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray from me after their idols, but they shall beare their iniquitie

11 And they shall serve in my Sanctuary, and keepe the gates of the house, and minister in the house: they shall lay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to serve them.

12 Because they served before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquitie: therefore have I lift up mine hand against them, saith the Lord God, and they shall beare their iniquitie,

13 And they shall not come neere unto me to do the office of the Priest unto me, neither shall they come neere unto any of mine holy things in the most holy place, but they shall beare their shame and their abominations, which they have committed.

14 And I will make them keepers of the watch of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shal be done therein.

15 But the Priests of the Levites, the sonnes of Zadok, that keepe the charge of my Sanctuary, when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come neere to me to serve me, and they shall stand before me to offer mee the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God.

16 They shall enter into my Sanctuary, and shall come neere to my table to serve me, and they shall keepe my charge.

17 And when they shall enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linnen garments, and no wooll shall come upon them, while they serve in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linnen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linnen breeches upon their loynes: they shall not gird themselves in the wearing places.

19 But when they goe forth into the utter court, even to the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments, wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments: for they shall not sanctifie the people

29 They shall eate the meate offering, and the sinne offering, and the trespass offering, and euerie dedicate thing in Israel, shall bee theirs.

30 * And all the first of all the first borne, and euerie oblation, even all of euerie sort of your oblations shall be the Priests. Ye shall also giue vnto the Priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The Priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead, or toyme, whether it be soule or beast.

CHAP. XLV.

1 Out of the land of promise are there separate foure portions, of which the first is giuen to the Priests and to the Temple, the second to the Leuites, the third to the citie, the fourth to the Prince. 9 An exhortation vnto the heads of Israel. 10 Of iust weights, and measures. 13 Of the first fruits, &c.

M EASURE, when ye shall diuide the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation vnto the Lord, an holy portion of the land, five and twenty thousand cubits long, and ten thousand broad: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the Sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, all square round about, and fiftie cubites round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the Sanctuary, and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be the Priests, which minister in the Sanctuary, which come nere to serue the Lord: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the Sanctuary.

5 And in the five and twentie thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall the Leuites that minister in the house, haue their possession for twenty chambers.

6 Also ye shall appoint the position of the citie five thousand broad, and five and twentie thousand long out against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side, and on that side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the citie, even before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the citie from the West corner Westward, and from the East corner Eastward, and the length shall be by one of the portions from the West border vnto the East border.

8 In this land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people, and the rest of the land shall they giue to the house of Israel according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord God, Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: leave off cruelty and oppression, and execute iudgement and iustice: take away your reactions from my people, saith the Lord God.

10 Ye shall haue iust balances, and a true Ephah, and a true Bath.

11 The Ephah and the Bath shall be equal: a Bath shall containe the tenth part of an Homer, and an Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the equality thereof shall be after the Homer.

12 * And the Shekel shall be twenty gerahs, and twenty shekels, and a she and twenty shekels, and fiftene shekels shall be your Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer, the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of wheat, and ye shall giue the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of the oyle, euen of the Bath of oyle, ye shall offer the tenth part of a Bath out of the Cor, (tenne Baths are an Homer, for ten Baths fill an Homer.)

15 And one lambe of two hundred sheepe out of the fat pastures of Israel for a meate offering, and for a burnt offering, & for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord God.

16 All the people of the land shall giue this oblation for the prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the princes part to giue burnt offerings, and meate offerings, and drinke offerings in the solemn feasts, and in the new moones, and in the Sabbaths, and in all the high feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sinne offering, and the meate offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

20 And so shalt thou doe the seventh day of the moneth, for every one that hath erred, and for him that is deceived: so shall you reconcile the house.

21 * In the first moneth in the fourteenth day of the moneth, ye shall haue the Pasche: once a feast of seven dayes, and ye shall eat unleavened bread.

22 And upon that day, shall the Prince prepare for himselfe, and for all the people of the land, a bullocke for a sinne offering.

23 And in the seven dayes of the feast, he shall make a burnt offering to the Lord, even of seven bullocks, and seven rammes without blemish, dayly for seven dayes, and an hee goat daily for a sinne offering.

24 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an Ephah for a bullocke, an Ephah for a ramme, and an ^h Vin of oyle for an Ephah.

25 In the seventh moneth, in the fifteenth day of the moneth, shall he doe the like in the feast for seven dayes, according to the sinne offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oyle.

CHAP. XLVI.

ⁱ The sacrifices of the Sabbath and of the newe Moones. 8 Thow which doores they must go in, or come out of the Temple, &c.

Thus saith the Lord God, The gate of the inner court, that turneth toward the East, shall bee shut the six working dayes: but on the Sabbath it shall bee opened, and in the day of the new moone it shall bee opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the Priests shall make his burnt offering, and his peace offerings, and hee shall worship at the threshold of the gate, after hee shall goe forth, but the gate shall not bee shut till the evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the entry of this gate before the Lord on the Sabbaths, and in the newe Moones.

4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer vnto the Lord on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ramme without blemish.

5 And the meat offering shall be an Ephah for a ramme: and the meate offering for the lambes: a gift of his hand, and an ^h Vin of oyle for an Ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moone it shall be a yong bullocke without blemish, and six lambs and a ramme: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meate offering even an Ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a ramme, and for the lambes: according as his hand shall bring, and an ^h Vin of oyle for an Ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall goe in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the Lord in the solenne feasts, hee that entreth in by the way of the North gate to worship, shall goe out by the way of the South gate: and hee that entreth by the way of the South gate, shall goe forth by the way of the North gate: hee shall not returne by the way of the gate whereby hee came in: but they shall goe forth ouer against it.

10 And the prince shall be in the mids of them: he shall goe in when they goe in, and when they goe forth, they shall goe forth together.

11 And in the feasts, and in the solemnities, the meate offering shall be an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambes, the gift of his hand, and an ^h Vin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall make a free burnt offering of peace offerings freely vnto the Lord, one shall then open him the gate, that turneth toward the East, and he shall make his burnt offering, and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day: after, he shall goe forth, and when he is gone forth, one shall shut the gate.

13 Thon shalt dayly make a burnt offering vnto the Lord of a lambe of one yeere without blemish: thou shalt doe it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the first part of an Ephah, and the third part of an ^h Vin of oyle, to mingle with the fine flour: this meate offering shall be continually by a perpetuall ordinance vnto the Lord.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lambe, and the meate offering, and the oyle every morning, for a continuall burnt offering.

16 Thus saith the Lord God, If the Prince giue a gift of his inheritance vnto any of his sonnes, it shall be his sonnes, and it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he giue a gift of his inheritance to one of his seruants, then it shall be his to the yeere of libertie: after, it shall returne to the prince, but his inheritance shall remaine to his sonnes for them.

18 Moreover, the prince shall not take of the peoples inheritance, nor thrust them out of their possession: but he shall cause his sonnes to inherit of his owne possession, that my people be not scattered euery man from his possession.

19 After, he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the Priests, which stood toward the North: and behold, there was a place at the West side of them.

20 Then sayd he vnto me, This is the place where the Priests shall keepe the trespass offering, and the sinne offering, where they shall bake the meate offering, that they should not beare them into the vtter court, to sanctifie the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the vtter court, and caused me to goe by the foure corners corners of the court: and behold, in every corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the foure corners of the court there were courts foynded of forty cubites long, and thirty broad: these foure corners were of one measure.

23 And there went a wall about them, even about these foure, and kitchins were made vnder the wallis round about.

24 Then said he vnto mee, This is the kitchin where the ministers of the house shall see the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 The vision of the waters, that came out of the Temple. 13 The coasts of the land of promise, and the diuision thereof by tribes.

Afterward he brought me vnto the dore of the house: and behold, waters issued out from vnder the threshold of the house Eastward: for the fount out of the house stood toward the East, and the waters ran down from vnder the right side of the house, at the South side of the Altar.

2 Then brought he me out toward the North gate, and led mee about by the way without vnto the vnter gate, by the way that turneth Eastward: and behold, there came forth waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand, went forth Eastward, he measured a thousand cubites, and he brought me through the waters: the waters were to the ancles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters: the waters were to the knees: again he measured a thousand, and brought me through: the waters were to the loynes.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, and it was a river that I could not passe over: for the waters were risen, and the waters did flow as a river that could not be passed over:

6 And he said vnto me, Son of man, hast thou seene this? Then he brought me, & caused me to returne to the brinke of the river.

7 Now when I returned, behold, at the brinke of the river were very many trees on the one side, and on the other.

8 Then said he vnto mee, These waters issue out toward the East countrey, and run downe into the plaine, and shall goe into one sea: they shall runne into another sea, and the waters shall be wholesome.

9 And every thing that liueth, which moueth wheresouer the rivers shall come, shall liue, and there shall bee a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall bee wholesome, and every thing shall liue, whither the river cometh.

10 And then the fishers shall stand vpon it, and from En-gedi euē vnto En-eglain, they shall spread out their nets: for their fish shall bee according to their kinds, as the fish of the maine sea, exceeding many.

11 But the myrie places thereof, and the markes thereof shall not be wholesome: they shall be made salt pits.

12 And by this river vpon the brinke thereof on this side, and on that side shall grow all fruitfull trees, whose lease shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof faile: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his moneths, because their waters runne out of the Sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall bee meate, and the lease thereof shall bee for medicine.

13 Thus saith the Lord God, This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelue tribes of Israel: Joseph shall haue two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: * concerning the which I lift by mine hand to giue it vnto your fathers, and this land shall fall vnto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the North side, from the maine Sea toward Herhlon as men goe to Zedadah:

16 Hamath, Berothah, Shbaim, which is betwene the border of Damascus, and the border of Hamath, and Hazer, Hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the Sea shall be Hazer, Enan, and the border of Damascus, and the residue of the North, Northward, and the border of Hamath: so shall bee the North part.

18 But the East side shall ye measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, and from the border vnto the East sea: and so shall be the East part.

19 And the South side shall bee toward Teman from Tamar to the waters of Heriboth in Kadesh, and the river to the maine sea: so shall be the South part toward Teman.

20 The West part also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come ouer against Hamath: this shall be the West part.

21 So shall ye diuide this land vnto you, according to the tribes of Israel.

22 And you shall diuide it by lot for an inheritance vnto you, and to the strangers that dwell among you, which shall beget children among you, and they shall be vnto you as borne in the countrey among the children of Israel: they shall part inheritance with you in the middes of the tribes of Israel.

23 And in what tribe the stranger dwelleth, there shall ye giue him his inheritance, saith the Lord God.

5 And by the border of Manasseh from the East side unto the West side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the East part even unto the West part, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the East quarter, unto the West quarter, a portion for Judah.

8 And by the border of Judah, from the East part unto the West part ^b shall bee the offering which they shall offer of fine and twenty thousand reedes broad, and of length as one of the other parts, from the East side unto the West side, and the Sanctuary shall be in the mids of it.

9 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the Lord, shall bee of fine and twentie thousand long, and of ten thousand the breadth.

10 And for them, even for the Priestes, shall be this holy oblation, toward the North fine and twenty thousand long, and toward the West tenne thousand broad, and toward the East tenne thousand broad, and toward the South fine and twentie thousand long, and the Sanctuary of the Lord shall be in the mids thereof.

11 It shall be for the Priestes, that are sanctified of the sonnes of Zadok, which have kept my charge, which went not astray, when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 Therefore this oblation of the land that is offered, shall be thine, as a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the Priests, the Levites shall have fine and twenty thousand long, and ten thousand broad: all the length shall be fine and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither change it, nor abalienate the first fruits of the land: for it is holy unto the Lord.

15 And the fine thousand that are left in the breadth over against the fine and twenty thousand, shall be a prophane place for the citie, for housing, and for suburbs, and the city shall be in the mids thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof, the North part fine hundredeth and foure thousand, and the South part fine hundredeth and foure thousand, and the East part fine hundredeth and foure thousand, and the West part fine hundredeth and foure thousand.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the North two hundred and fiftie, and toward the South two hundred and fiftie, and toward the East two hundred and fiftie, and toward the West two hundred and fiftie.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand Eastward, and tenne thousand Westward, and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion, and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve in the city.

19 And they that serve in the citie, shall bee of all the tribes of Israel that shall serve therein.

20 All the oblation shall be fine and twenty thousand with ^c fine and twenty thousand: you shall offer this oblation foure square for the Sanctuary, and for the possession of the citie.

21 And the residue shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other of the oblation of the Sanctuary, and of the possession of the city, over against the fine and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the East border, and Westward over against the fine and twenty thousand toward the West border, over against shall be for the portion of the prince: this shall be the holy oblation, and the house of the Sanctuary shall be in the mids thereof.

22 Moreover, from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the citie, that which is in the mids shall be the Princes: betweene the border ^d of Judah, and betweene the border of Benjamin shall be the Princes.

23 And the rest of the tribes shall be thus: from the East part unto the West part, Benjamin shall be a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the East side unto the West side, Simeon a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon from the East part unto the West part, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar from the East side unto the West, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun from the East part unto the West part, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad at the South side, toward ^e Temath, the border shall be even from ^f Tamar unto the waters of Ribbath in Kadeish, and to the ^g river that runneth into the maine Sea.

29 This is the land, which ye shall distribute unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord God.

30 And these are the bounds of the citie, on the North side fine hundredeth, and foure thousand measures.

31 And the gates of the citie shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, the gates Northward, one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, and one gate of Levi.

32 And at the East side five hundred and foure thousand, and three gates, and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, and one gate of Dan.

33 And at the South side, five hundredeth and foure thousand measures, ^h three ports, one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, and one gate of Zebulun.

34 At the West side five hundredeth and foure thousand, with their three gates, one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, and one gate of Naphtali.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great providence of God, and his singular mercy toward his Church are most liuely here set forth, who neuer leaueh his destitute, but now in their greatest miseries and afflictions giueth them Prophets, as Ezekiel, and Daniel, whom he adorned with such graces of his holy Spirit, that Daniel aboue all other had most speciall reuelations of such things as should come to the Church, euen from the time that they were in captiuitie, to the last end of the world, and to the general resurrection, as of the foure monarchies and Empires of all the world, to wit, of the Babylonians, Persians, Grecians and Romans. Also of the certaine number of the times euen vnto Christ, when all ceremonies and sacrifices should cease, because he should be the accomplishment thereof: moreover, he sheweth Christs office and the cause of his death, which was by his sacrifice to take away sinnes, and to bring euermlasting life. And as from the beginning God euer exercised his people vnder the crosse, so he teacheth here, that after that Christ is offered, hee will kill leaue this exercise to his Church vntill the dead rise againe, and Christ gather his into his kingdome in the heauens.

d He calleth them Eunuches whom the King nourished, and brought vp to be rulers of other countreys afterward.

e His purpose was to keepe them as hostages, and that he might shew himselfe victorious, and also by their good intreatie and learning of his religion, they might fauor rather him than the Iewes, and so to be able to serushim as gouernours in their land: moreover by this meane the Iewes might be better kept in subiection, fearing otherwise to procure hurt of these noble men, f The king required three things, that they should be of noble birth, that they should be witty and learned, and that they should bee of a strong and comely nature, that they might doe him better seruice: this he did for his owne commoditie, therfore it is not to praise his liberalitie: yet in this he is worthy of praise, that he esteemed learning, and knew that it was an necessary meane to gouerne by, g That they might forget their owne religion and countrey fashions, to serue him the better to his purpose: yet it is not to bee thought that Daniel did learne any knowledge that was not godly: in all points he refused the abuse of things & superstition, inasmuch as he would not eat the meate which the king appointed him, but was content to learne the knowledge of naturall things. h That by their good entertainment, they might learne to forget the mediocritie of their owne people.

In the third yeere of the reigne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, came Nebuchad, nez- zar king of Babel vnto Ierusalem, and besieged it,

2 And the Lord gaue Iehoiakim king of Iudah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he caried into the land of 3 Shinar, to the house of his god, and hee brought the vessels into his gods treasure.

4 And the King spake vnto 5 Ashpenaz the Master of his Eunuches, that hee should bring certaine of the children of Israel, of the Kings seede, and of the Princes:

6 Children in whom was no blemish, but well fauoured, and instructed in all wisdom, and well seene in knowledge, and able to vter knowledge, and such as were able to stand in the kings palace, and whom they might teach the learning, and the tongue of the Caldeans.

7 And the King appointed them prouision every day of a portion of the kings meate, and of the wine which he dranke, to nourish ing them: three yeeres, that at the end thereof, they might stand before the king.

8 Now among these were certaine of the children of Iudah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.

9 Vnto whom the chiefe of the Eunuches gaue other names: for hee called Daniel, Belteshazzar, and Hananiah, Shadrach, and Mishael, Meshach, and Azariah, Abednego.

10 But Daniel had determined in his heart, that hee would not defile himselfe with the portion of the kings meate, nor with the wine which hee dranke: therefore he requiried the chiefe of the Eunuches that hee might not defile himselfe.

11 (Now God had brought Daniel into fauour and tender loue with the chiefe of the Eunuches)

12 And the chiefe of the Eunuches sayd vnto Daniel, I feare my lord the king, who hath appointed your meate and your drinke: therefore if he see your faces worse liking, then the other children, which are of your sort, then shall wee make mee lose mine head vnto the king.

13 Then sayd Daniel to Meshach, whom the chiefe of the Eunuches had set ouer Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.

14 I desire thy seruants, I beseech thee, ten dayes, and let them giue vs pulse to eat, and water to drinke.

15 Then let our countenances be looked vpon before thee, and the countenances of the children that eate the portion of l That they might altogether forget their religion: for the Iewes gaue their children names, which might euer put them in remembrance of some point of Religion: therefore this was a great temptation and a signe of seruitude which they were not able to resist.

m Not that he thought any religion to be in the meat or drinke: for afterward he did eate: but because the king should not entise him by this sweete payson, to forget his religion and accustomed sobriety, and that in his meat and drinke he might daily remember of what people he was: and Daniel bringeth this in to shew how God from the beginning assisted him with his Spirit, and at length called him to be a Prophet. n He supposed they did this for their religion, which was contrary to the Babylonians: and therefore herein hee representeth them that are of no religion for neither he would condemne theirs, nor maintaine his owne. o Meaning, that within this space he might haue the tryall, and that no man should be able to discern it: and thus he spake, being moued by the spirit of God. p Not that it was a thing abominable to eate daintie meates and to drinke wine, as both before and after they did, but if they should haue herby become wonne to the King, and haue refused their owne religion, that meate and drinke had become accursed.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proued them ten dayes.

15 And at the ende of ten dayes, their countenances appeared fairer, and in better liking then all the childrens, which did eate the portion of the kings meat.

16 Thus Belshazzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drinke, and gaue them pulle.

17 As for these foure childzen, God gaue them knowledge, and vnderstanding in all learning and wisdom: also he gaue Daniel vnderstanding of all visions and dreames.

18 Now when the time was expired, that the king had appointed to bring them in, the chiefe of the eunuches brought them before Nebuchad-nezzar.

19 And the king communed with them, and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: they forsooke they before the king.

CHAP. II.

1 The dreame of Nebuchad-nezzar. 13 The King commandeth all the wise men of Babylon to be slaine, because they could not interpret his dreame.

16 Daniel requirerh time to solute the question. 24 Daniel is brought vnto the King, and sheweth him his dreame, and the interpretation thereof. 44 Of the everlasting Kingdome of Christ.

And in the second yere of the reigne of Nebuchad-nezzar, Nebuchad-nezzar dreamed dreames wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleepe was vpon him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the enchanters, and the astrologians, & the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreames: so they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirit was troubled to know the dreame.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in the Aramites language, O king, liue for euer: shew thy seruants thy dreame, and we shal shew the interpretation.

5 And the king answered, and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me. If ye will not make me vnderstand the dreame with the interpretation thereof, ye shall bee drawne in pieces, and your houses shall bee made a lakes.

6 But if ye declare the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receiue of me gifts and rewards, and great honour: therefore shew me the dreame and the interpretation of it.

7 They answered againe, and saide, Let the king shew his seruantes the dreame, and we will declare the interpretation thereof.

8 Then the king answered, and saide, I know certainly that ye would gaue me the time, because ye see the thing is gone from mee.

9 But if ye will not declare mee the dreame, there is but one iudgement for you: for ye haue prepared lying & corrupt wordes, to speake before me till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dreame, that I may know, if ye can declare the interpretation thereof.

10 Then the Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is no man vpon earth, that can declare the kings matter: yea, there is neither king nor prince nor lord that asked such things at an enchanter or astrologian, or Chaldean.

11 For it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can declare it before the king, except the gods whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the King was angry and in great fury, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babel.

13 And when sentence was giuen the wise men were slaine, and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be put to death.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsell and wisdom to Arioch the kings chiefe steward, which was gone forth to put to death the wise men of Babel.

15 Yea, he answered and said vnto Arioch the kings captaine, Why is the sentence so harkie from the king? Then Arioch declared the thing to Daniel.

16 So Daniel went, and desired the king that he would giue him leasure, and that hee would shewe the king the interpretation thereof.

17 Then Daniel went to his house and shewed the matter to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions, 18 That they should beseech the God of heauen for grace in this secret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babel.

19 Then was the secret reuealed vnto Daniel in a vision by night: therefore Daniel praised the God of heauen.

20 And Daniel answered and said, The Name of God be praised for euer and euer: for wisdom and strength are his.

21 And hee changeth the times and seasons: hee taketh away kings: hee setteth vp kings: hee giueth wisdom vnto the wise, g This is a iust reward of their arrogancie (which wanted of themselves) that they had the knowledge of all things: that they should be proued fooles, and that to their perpetual shame and confusion.

h Herein appeared their ignorance, that notwithstanding their brags, yet were they not able to tell the dreame, except he entred them into the matter, and thereore they would pretend knowledge where was but mere ignorance and so as deluders of the people, they were worthy to die. i Ebr. redeme the time.

i Which declarerh that God would not haue his seruants ioyned in the company of these forcerers and Astrologers whose arts were wicked, and therefore iustly ought to die, though the king did it vpon a rage, and no zeale. j Or, the captaine of the guard, a The father and the sonne were both called by this name: so that this is meant of the sonne, when he reigned alone: for he reigned also after a sort with his father. b Not that he had many dreames: but because many matters were contained in this dreame.

c Because it was so rare and strange a dreame, that he had not had the like. d He was so heauie with sleepe that he began to sleepe againe. Some reade, and his sleepe was broken from him. e For all these Astrologers and forcerers called themselves by this name of honor, as though all the wisdom & knowledge of the countrey depended vpon them, and that all other countreys were void of the same. f That is, in the Syrian tongue, which differed not much from the Chaldeans, saue it seemed to be more eloquent, and therefore he learned vnto to speake it: as the Iewish writers doe to this day.

l To whom thou madest thy promise, and who liued in thy feare: whereby he excluded all other gods.

m Meaning, power to interpret it.

n Whereby appeared that many were flaine, as verse 13 and the rest at Daniels offer were preferred on condition, not that Daniel fauoured their wicked profession, but that he had respect to equitie, because the king proceeded according to his wicked affection, & not considering if their sciencie were lawfull or no.

o He affirmeth that man by reason & art is not able to attaine to the cause of Gods secrets, but the vnderstanding onely thereof must come of God: whereby he smiteth the king with a certaine feare and reuerence of God, that he might be the more apt to receiue the hie mysteries that should be revealed.

p Because he had said that God onely might reueale the signification of this dreame, the king might haue asked, why Daniel did enterprise to interpret it: and therefore he sheweth that he was but Gods minister. and had no gifts, but such as God had giuen him to set forth his glory. q By gold, silver, brasse, and yron, a meane, the Caldean, Persian, Macedonian and Romane kingdom, which should successfullie rule all the world, till Christ (which is here called the stone) come himselfe and destroy the last: and this was to assure the Iewes, that their afflictions should not end with the Empire of the Caldeans, but that they should patiently abide the coming of Messiah, which should be at the end of this fourth Monarchie.

22 Hee discovereth the deepe and secret things: hee knoweth what is in the darke-nesse, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thanke thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, that thou hast giuen me wisdom and strength, and hast shewed mee now the thing that we desired of thee: for thou hast declared vnto vs the Kings matter.

24 Therefore Daniel went vnto Arioch, whom the King had ordeined to destroy the wise men of Babel: hee went and said thus vnto him, Destroy not the wise men of Babel, but bring me before the King, and I will declare vnto the King the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought Daniel before the King in all haste, & said thus vnto him, I haue found a man of the children of Iudah that were brought captiues, that wil declare vnto the King the interpretation.

26 Then answered the king, and said vnto Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to shew mee the dreame which I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the King, and said, The secret which the King hath demanded, can neither the wise, the astrologians, the enchanters, nor the soothsayers declare vnto the King.

28 But there is a God in heauen that reuealeth secrets, and sheweth the King: Belshazzar what shall bee in the latter dayes. Thy dreame, and the things which thou hast seene in thine head vpon thy bed, is this.

29 O King, when thou wast in thy bed, thoughts came into thy minde, what should come to passe hereafter, and he that reuealeth secrets, telleth thee what shall come.

30 As for me, this secret is not shewed mee for any wisdom that I haue, more then any other thing, but onely to shew the King the interpretation, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thine heart.

31 O King, thou sawest and beheld, there was a great image: this great image whose glory was so excellent, stood before thee, and the forme thereof was terrible.

32 This images head was of fine gold, his breast and his armes of silver, his belly and his thighes of brasse, 33 His legs of yron, and his feet were part of yron, and part of clay.

34 Thou beheldest it till a stone was cut without hands, which smote the image vpon his feet, that were of yron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the yron, the clay, the brasse, the silver and the golde broken altogether, and became like the chaffe of the summer flowers, and the winde caried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image, became a great mountaine, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dreame, and we will declare before the King the interpretation thereof.

37 O King, thou art a king of kings: for the God of heauen hath giuen thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And in all places where the children of men dwell, the beastes of the field, and the fowles of the heauen hath been giuen into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler ouer them all: thou art this head of gold.

39 And after these shall rise another kingdom, inferior to thee, of silver, and another third kingdom shall bee of brasse, which shall beare rule ouer all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall bee strong as yron: for as yron breaketh in pieces, and subdueth all things, and as yron callesh the Babylo- nians, and bruiseth all things, so shall it breake in pieces, and bruiseth all.

41 Whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of porters clay, and part of yron: the kingdom shall bee diuided: but there shall bee in it of the strength of the yron, as the best, and yet thou sawest the yron mixed with the clay, and the earth.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of yron, and part of clay, so shall the kingdom be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest yron mixed with clay and earth, they shall mingle themselves with the yron of men: but they shall not loyne one with another, as yron cannot be mixed with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these kings, shall the God of heauen set vp a kingdom, which shall neuer bee destroyed: and this kingdom shall not bee giuen to another people, grow worse and but it shall breake and destroy all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for euer.

45 Whereas thou sawest that the stone was cut off the mountaine without handes, and that it brake in pieces the yron, the brasse, the clay, the silver and the gold: so shall the kingdom of the hardnesse thereof, but the vilenesse in respect of silver. U That is, the Rouane Empire shall subdue all these other aforementioned, which after Alexander were diuided into the Macedonians, Grecians, Syrians, and Egyptians. x They shall haue ciuill warres, and continual discords among themselves. y They shall by marriages and affinities thinke to make themselves strong, yet shall they neuer bee ioyned in hearts. z His purpose is to shew that all the kingdoms of the world are transitory, and that the kingdom of Christ shall onely remaine for euer. a Meaning Christ, who was sent of God, and not set vp by man, whose kingdom at the beginning should be small and without beauty to mans iudgement, but should at length grow and fill the whole earth, which bee called a great mountaine, as verse 35. And this kingdom which is not onely referred to the person of Christ, but also to the whole body of his Church, and to every member thereof shall be eternal: for the Spirit that is in them is life eternall, Rom. 8. 10.

d There are the two dangerous weapons wherewith Satan vlieth to fight against the children of God, the content of the multitude, and the cruelty of the punishment: for though some feared God, yet the multitude which consented to the wickedness, astonished them: and here the king required not an inward consent, but an outward gesture, that the Jewes might by little and little learne to forget their true Religion.

It seemeth that they named not Daniel, because he was greatly in the kings favour, thinking if hee three had bene destroyed, they might have had better occasion to accuse Daniel: and this declarerh that this policie of seeking this damage, was insuborned by the malicious flatterers, which thought nothing but the destruction of the Jewes, whom they accused of rebellion and ingratitude.

Signifyng, that he would receive them to grace, if they would now to the length they have done.

they say that they are resolved to die for Gods cause.

For they

me, and therefore

h They ground on two points, first on the power & providence of God over them, and secondly on their cause, which was Gods glory, and the establishing of his true religion with their blood, and so make open confession, that they wil not so much as outwardly consent to idolatry.

i This declareth that more than tyrants rage, and the more wittie they shew themselves in inventing strange and cruell punishments, the more is God glorified by his servants, to whom he giveth patience & constancie to abide the cruelty of their punishment: for either hee delivereth them from death, or els for this life giveth them a better.

k For the Angels were called the sonnes of God because of their excellency: therefore the King called this Angel, whom God sent to comfort his in these great torments, the Sonne of God.

l This commendeth their obedience vnto God that they would not for any feare depart out of this fornice, till the time appointed, as Noah remained in the Arke till the Lord called him forth.

m He was moved by the greatness of the miracle to praise God, but his heart was not touch'd. And here wee see that miracles are not sufficient to convert men to God, but that doctrine must chiefly be adioyned without the which there can be no faith.

h able to deliver us from the hate fierie fornicie, and hee will deliver us out of thine hand, O King.

18 But if not, be it known vnto thee, O King, that wee will not serue thy gods, nor worship the golden image, which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of rage, and the forme of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore hee charged and commanded that they should heare the fornicie at once seven times more then it was wont to be heat.

20 And he charged the most valiant men of warre that were in his armie, to binde Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the hate fierie fornicie.

21 So these men were bound in their coates, their hosen, and their clothes, with their other garments, and cast into the mids of the hate fierie fornicie.

22 Therefore, because the Kings commandment was strait, that the fornicie should be exceeding hate, the flame of the fire slew those men that brought fourth Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell downe bound into the mids of the hate fierie fornicie.

24 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nezzar the King was affonied and rose up in haile, and spake, and sayd vnto his counselliers, Did not wee cast three men bound into the mids of the fire? Altho answered, and said vnto the king, It is true, O King.

25 And hee answered, and sayd, Lo, I see foure men loose, walking in the mids of the fire, and they haue no hurt, and the forme of the fourth is like the Sonne of God.

26 Then the King Nebuchad-nezzar came nere to the mouth of the hate fierie fornicie, and spake and sayd, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, the seruants of the High God, goe fourth and come higher: so Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came fourth of the mids of the fire.

27 Then the nobles, princes, and dukes, and the Kings counselliers came together to see these men, because the fire had no power over their bodies: for not an haire of their head was burnt, neither were their coates changed, nor any smell of fire came vpon them.

28 Wherefore Nebuchad-nezzar spake and sayd, Blessed bee the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his Angel, and delivered his seruants, that put their trust in him, and haue changed the Kings commandment, and peeled their bodies rather then they would serue or worship any god, save their owne God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, that euery people, nation, and language, which speake any blasphemy against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be king moored by draynen in pieces, and their houses shall be made a stake, because there is no God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the prouince of Babel.

31 Nebuchad-nezzar King vnto all people, nations and languages, that dwell in all the world, Peace be multiplied vnto you:

CHAP. I. I. I. I.

2 Another dreame of Nebuchad-nezzar, which Daniel declarerth. 29 The Prophet declarerth how of a proud king he should become as a beast. 31 After hee confesseth the power of God, and is restored to his former dignitie.

1 Nebuchad-nezzar being at a rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace.

2 Saw a dreame, which made mee afraid, and the thoughts vpon my bed, and the visions of mine head troubled me.

3 Therefore made I a decree, that they should bring all the wise men of Babel before me, that they might declare vnto me the interpretation of the dreame.

4 So came the enchanters, the astrologers, and the Caldeans and the soothsayers, to whom I tolde the dreame, but they could not shew me the interpretation thereof.

5 Till at the last Daniel came before me, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, which hath the spirit of the holy Gods in him) and before him I tolde the dreame, saying,

6 O Belteshazzar, chiefe of the enchanters, because I know that the spirit of the holy Gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

7 These were the visions of mine head in my bed. And behold, I saw an tree in the mids of the earth, and the height thereof was great:

8 A great tree and strong, and the height thereof reached vnto heauen, and the sight thereof to the ends of all the earth.

9 The boughes thereof were faire, and the fruite thereof made, and in it was meate for all: it made a shadow vnder it for the beasts of the fildes, and the d This no doubt was a great griefe to Daniel, not onely to haue his name changed, but to be called by the name of a vile idole, which thing Nebuchad-nezzar did, to make him forget the true religion of God. e Which also was a great griefe to the Prophet, to be numbred among the forerunners, and men whose practises were wicked and contrary to Gods word. f By the tree, is signified the dignity of a King, whom God ordeineth to be a defence for all kind of men, and whose state is profitable for mankind.

Meaning, the Angel of God, which neither eateth nor sleepeth but is euer ready to do Gods will, and is not infected with mans corruption, but is euer holy: and that he commaunded to cut down this tree, he knew that it should not be cut down by man, but by God. Hereby hee meaneth that Nebuchad-nezzar should not only for a time lose his kingdome, but be like a beast. God hath decreed this iudgement, and the whole army of heauen haue as it were subscribed vnto it, like as also they desire the execution of this decree against all them that lift vp themselves against God. He was troubled for the great iudgment of God which he saw ordained against the King: and so the Prophets vsed on the one part to denounce Gods iudgments for the zeale they bare to his glory, and on the other part to haue compassion vpon man, and also to consider that they should be subiect to Gods iudgements, if hee did not regard them with pity.

10 I saw in the visions of mine head, vpon my bed, and behold, a watchman, and an holy one came downe from heauen,

11 And cryed aloud, and said thus, Hew downe the tree, and breake off his branches: shake off his leaues, and scatter his fruit, that the beasts may feed from vnder it, and the soules from his branches.

12 Whereby shall leaue the stump of his rootes in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse binde it among the grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heauen, and let his portion bee with the beasts among the grasse of the field.

13 Let his heart be changed from mans nature, and let a beasts heart be giuen vnto him, and let seuen times be passed ouer him.

14 The sentence is according to the decree of the watchman, and according to the word of the holy ones: the demand was answered, to the intent that living men may know, that the most High hath power ouer the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whomsoever hee will, and appoynteth ouer it the most abject among men.

15 This is the dreame, that I King Nebuchad-nezzar haue leue: therefore thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof: for all the wise men of my kingdome are not able to shew me the interpretation: but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

16 Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) yeld his peace by the space of one houre, and his thoughts troubled him, and the King spake and said, Belteshazzar, let neither the dreame, nor the interpretation thereof trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

17 The tree that thou sawest, which was great and mighty, whose height reached vnto the heauen, and the light thereof through all the world,

18 Whose leaues were faire, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meate for all, vnder the which y beasts of the field dwell, and vpon whose branches the soules of the heauen did sit,

19 It is thou, O King, that art great and mighty: for thy greatnesse is growen, and reacheth vnto heauen, and thy dominion to the ends of the earth.

20 Whereas the king saw a watchman, and a holy one that came downe from heauen, and sayd, Hew downe the tree, and destroy it, yet leaue the stump of the rootes thereof in the earth, and with a band of yron and brasse binde it among the grasse of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heauen, and let his portion bee with the beasts of the field, till seuen times passe ouer him,

21 This is the interpretation, O King, and it is the decree of the most High, which is come vpon my lord the King,

22 That they shall drine thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eate grasse as the oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heauen: a seuen times shall passe ouer thee, till thou know, that the most High beareth rule ouer the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whomsoever he will.

23 Whereas they sayd, that one should leaue the stump of the tree rootes, thy kingdome shall remaine vnto thee: after that, thou shalt know that the heauens haue the rule.

24 Therefore, O King, let my counsell be acceptable vnto thee, and speake off thy times by righteousness, and thine iniquities by mercie toward the poore: for loe, let there be an healing of thine trouer.

25 All these things shall come vpon the King Nebuchad-nezzar.

26 At the end of twelue moneths, he walked in the royall palace of Babel.

27 And the King spake and sayd, Is not this great Babel, that I haue built for the hount of the kingdome by the might of my power, and for the honour of my maiestie?

28 While the worde was in the Kings mouth, a voyce came downe from heauen, saying, O King Nebuchad-nezzar, to thee be it spoken, Thy kingdome is departed from thee,

29 And they shall drine thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eate grasse, as the oxen, and seuen times shall passe ouer thee, vntill thou knowest, that the most High beareth rule ouer the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whomsoever he will.

30 The very same houre was this thing fulfilled vpon Nebuchad-nezzar, and hee was druen from men, and did eate grasse as the oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heauen, till his hautes were growen as Eagles feathers, and his nayles like birdes claws.

31 And at the end of these dayes I Nebuchad-nezzar lift by mine eyes vnto heauen, and mine understanding was restored vnto me, and I gaue thanks vnto the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liueth for euer, whose power is an everlasting power, and his kingdom is from generation to generation.

32 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and according to his will he worketh in the armie of heauen, and in the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, nor say vnto him, What doest thou?

33 At the same time was mine understanding restored vnto me, and I returned to the honour of my kingdome: my gloxy and my beauty was restored vnto mee, and my counsellors, and my princes fought vnto mee, and I was established in my kingdome, and my gloxy was augmented to ward me.

24 Now therefore, I Nebuchad-nezzar stand content there with, and giue him the glory, seemeth that he had bene put from his kingdome before.

m Nor that his shape or forme was changed in to a beast, but that he was either stricken mad, and so auoided mans company, or was cast out for his tyranny, and so wandered among y beasts, and ate herbes and grasse.

n Daniel sheweth the cause why God thus punished him.

o Cease from troubling God to anger any longer by thy finnes, that he may mitigate his punishment, if thou shew by thine vpright life that thou hast true faith and repentance.

p Suffer the errors of thy former life to be redressed. After that Daniel had declared this vision: and this his pride declared that it is not in man to conuert to God except his spirit moue him, seeing that these terrible threatenings could not moue him to repent.

5 Belshazzar King of Babylon seeth an hand writing on the wall. 8 The soothsayers called of the King cannot expound the writing. 30 Daniel readeth it, and interpreteth it also. 35 The King is slain. 38 Darius enioyneth the kingdome.

a Daniel reciteth this history of King Belshazzar Eulmerio iachs sonne, to shew Gods iudgements against the wicked, for the deliuerance of his Church, & how the prophetic of Ieremias was true, that they should be deliuered after seauenty yeeres.

b The Kings of the East paris then vied to sit alone cōmonly, and diddoin that any should sit in their company: and now to shew his power, and how little he set by his euery, which then besieged Babylon, he made a solemne banquet, and vied excellē in their company, which is meant here by drinking wine: thus the wicked are most dissolute and negligent when their destruction is at hand.

c Meaning, his grandfather.

d In contempt

of the use God they praised their idols, not that they thought that the gold or silver were gods, but that there was a certain vertue and power in them to doethen good, which is also opinion of all idolaters. e That it might be better besene. f So he that before contemned God, was moued by this sight to tremble for feare of Gods iudgements. g Thus the wicked in their troubles seekemany meanes, who draw them to God, because they seeke not to him who is the only comfort in all afflictions. h To wit, his grandmother Nebuchad-nezzars wife, which for her age was not before at the feast, but came thither when the heard of these strange newes.

1 King Belshazzar made a great feast to a thousand of his princes, and dranke wine before the thousand.

2 And Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring him the golden and silver vessels, which his father Nebuchad-nezzar had brought from the Temple in Ierusalem, that the king and his princes, his wines, and his concubines might drinke therein.

3 Then were brought the golden vessels, that were taken out of the Temple of the Lords house at Ierusalem, and the king and his princes, his wines, and his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wine, and prayled the gods of gold and of silver, of brass, of yron, of ward and of stone.

5 At the same houre appeared fingers of a mans hand, which wrote ouer against the candlestick vpon the playster of the wall of the kings palace, & the king saw the palme of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the Kings countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the foynts of his loynes were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other.

7 Wherefore the King cryed lowde, that they should bring the Astrologians, the Chaldeans & the soothsayers. And the King spake, and sayd to the wise men of Babel, Whosoener can readethis writing, and declare vnto the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with purple, and shall haue a chaine of gold about his necke, and shall bee the third ruler in the kingdome.

8 Then came all the kings wise men, but they could neither reade the writing, nor shew the king the interpretation.

9 Then was King Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his princes were astonished.

10 Now the Queene by reason of the talke of the king and his princes, came into the banquet house, and the Queene spake, and said, O Kings, lene for euer: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 There is a man in thy kingdome, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods, and in the dayes of thy father, light and understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him: whom the king Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the King, say, thy father, made chiefe of the Chaldeans, the Astrologians, Chaldeans, and Soothsayers,

12 Because a more excellent spirit, and knowledg, and understanding (for hee did expound dreames, and declare hard sentences, and dissolued doubts) were found in him, euen in Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will declare the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought before the king, and the king spake, and sayd vnto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captiuitie of Iudah, whom my father the king brought out of Iurie?

14 Now I haue heard of thee, that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and that light and understanding, and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 Now therefore, wise men and Astrologians haue bene brought before mee, that they should reade this writing, and shew mee the interpretation thereof, but they could not declare the interpretation of the thing.

16 Then heard I of thee, that thou couldest shewe interpretations, and dissolue doubts: now if thou canst reade the writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with purple, & shalt haue a chaine of golde about thy necke, and shalt bee the third ruler in the kingdome.

17 Then Daniel answered, and sayd before the king, Keepe thy rewards to thy selfe, and giue thy gifts to another: yet I will reade the writing vnto the king, and shew him the interpretation.

18 O king, heare thou. The most High God gaue vnto Nebuchad nezzar thy father a kingdome, and maiestie, and honour, and glory.

19 And for the maiestie that he gaue him, all people, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: hee put to death whom he would: he smote whom he would: whom hee would hee let vp, and whom hee would hee put downe.

20 But when his heart was puffed up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they tooke his honour from him.

21 And he was drinen from the somnes of men, & his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wilde asses: they fedde him with graile like oren, and his body was wet with the dew of the heauen, till hee knew that the most High God bare rule ouer the kingdome of men, and that hee appointeth ouer it, whomsoener hee pleaseeth.

22 And thou his sonne, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all these things, i Reade Chap 4. 6. and this declaration.

theth that both this name was odious vnto him, and also that he did not vse these vile practises, because he was not among them when all were called.

k For the idolaters thought, that the Angels had power as God, and therefore had them in like estimation, as they had God, thinking that the spirit of prophetic and understanding came of them.

l Before he reade the writing, he declared to the king his great ingratitude toward God, who could not be moued to giue him the glory, considering his wonderfull worke toward his grandfather, and so sheweth that he doth not sinne of ignorance, but of malice.

23 But hast lift vp thy selfe against the Lord of heauen, & they haue brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou & thy princes, thy wiues and thy concubines haue drunke wine in them, and thou hast playd the gods of silver and golde, of brasse, yron, wood, and stone, which neither see, neither heare, nor vnderstand: and the God in whole hand thy breath is and all thy wayes, him hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the palme of the hand sent from him, & hath written this writing.

25 And this is the writing that hee hath written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL VP HARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing, MENE, God hath numbered thy kingdomes, and hath finished it.

27 TEKEL, thou art weighed in the ballance, and art found || to light.

28 PERES, thy kingdom is diuided, and giuen to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then at the commandment of Belshazzar, they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chaine of golde about his necke, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 The same night was Belshazzar the king of the Caldians slaine.

31 And Darius of the Medes tooke the kingdom, being threescore & two yeere olde.

m After that God had to long time deferred his anger, and patiently waited for thine amendment.

n This word is twise written for the certaintie of the thing: shewing that God had most surely counted: signifying also that God hath appointed a terme for all kingdomes, and that a miserable end shall come on all that raise themselves against him.

|| Or, wanting. o Cyrus his sonne in law gaue him this title of honour, although Cyrus in effect had the dominion.

1 Daniel is made ruler ouer the gouernours. 5 A suit against Daniel. 16 He is put into a denne of lions by the commandment of the King. 23 He is deliuered by faith in God. 24 Daniels accusers are put vnto the lions. 25 Darius by a decree magnifieth the God of Daniel.

I Pleas'd Darius to set ouer the kingdom an hundredth and twentie gouernours, which should be ouer the whole kingdom.

2 And ouer these, thre rulers (of whom Daniel was one) that the gouernours might giue accomptes vnto them, and the King should || haue no damage.

3 Now this Daniel was preferred aboue the rulers and gouernours, because the spirit was excellent in him, and the King thought to set him ouer the whole Realme.

4 Therefore the rulers and gouernours sought an occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom: but they could finde none occasion nor fault: for he was so faithfull that there was no blame nor fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, Wee shall not finde an occasion against this Daniel, except we finde it against him concerning the Law of his God.

6 Therefore the rulers and these gouernours went together to the King, and sayd thus vnto him, King Darius, liue for euer.

7 All the rulers of thy kingdom, the officers and gouernours, the counsellors, and dukes haue consulted together to make a decree for the King, and to establish a statute, that whosoever shall aske a petition of any god or man for thirtie dayes saue of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, confirme the decree, and seale the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius sealed the writing and the decree.

10 Now when Daniel vnderstood that he had sealed the writing, hee went into his house, and his window being open in his chamber toward Ierusalem, he kneeled vpon his knees thre times a day, and prayd, and praised his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying, and making supplication vnto his God.

12 So they came, and spake vnto the king concerning the kings decree, Hail thou not sealed the decree, that euery man that shall make request to any God or man within thirtie dayes, saue to thee, O king, shall bee cast into the denne of lions? The king answered, and said, The thing is true, according to the Law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they, and said vnto the king, This Daniel which is of the children of the captiuitie of Iudah, regardeth not thee, O King, nor the decree that thou hast sealed, but maketh his petition thre times a day.

14 When the king heard these words, he was sore displeas'd with himselfe, and set his heart on Daniel to deliuer him: and hee labour'd till the Sunne went downe, to deliuer him.

15 Then these men assembled vnto the king, and said vnto the king, vnderstand, O King, that the Law of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute which the king confirmeth, may be altered.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the denne of lions: now the king spake, and said vnto Daniel, Thy God, whom thou sayst serueth, euen he will deliuer thee.

17 And a stone was brought, and layde vpon the mouth of the denne, and the king sealed it with his owne signet, and with the signet of his princes, that the purpose might not bee changed, concerning Daniel.

18 Then the king went vnto his palace, and remained fasting, neither were the instruments of musick brought before him, and his sleepe went from him.

19 Then the king arose early in the morning, and went in all haste vnto the den of lions.

20 And when hee came to the denne, hee cried with a lamentable voyce vnto Daniel:

d Herein is condemned the wickednesse of the king, who would be let vp as a god, and passed not what wicked lawes he approved for the maintenance of the same.

e Because hee would not by his licence shew that hee consented to this wicked decree, he set open his windowes toward Ierusalem, when hee prayd: both to shew vnto himselfe with the remembrance of Gods promises to his people wher they should pray toward that temple, and also that other might see, that he would neither consent in heart nor deed for these few dayes to any thing that was contrary to Gods glory.

f Thus the wicked maintaine euill lawes by constancie and authority, which is oft times either lightnesse, or stubbornnesse, when as the innocents thereby perish, & therefore gouernours neither ought to feare nor be ashamed to breake such.

a Reade Ester, Chap. i. v.

|| Or, not be troubled.

b This heathen King preferred Daniel a stranger to all his nobles and familiars, because the graces of God were more excellent in him then in others.

c Thus the wicked cannot abide the graces of God in others, but seeke by all occasions to deface them: therefore against such faults there is no better remedie then to walke uprightly in the feare of God, and to haue a good conscience.

and the king spake, and said to Daniel, Daniel, the servant of the living God, is not thy God (whom thou always earnest) able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O King, live for ever.

22 God hath sent his Angel, and hath shut the lions mouths, that they have not hurt mee, for my justice was found out before him, and unto thee, O King, I have done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel out of the den: so Daniel was brought out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because hee^a believed in his God.

24 And by the commandement of the king, these men which had accused Daniel, were brought, and were^b cast into the den of lions, even they, their children, & their wives: and the lions had the matter of them, and brake all their bones a pi^ces, & of euer they came at the ground of the den.

25 Afterward king Darius wrote, Unto all people, nations and languages, that dwell in all the world: Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom, men tremble and feare^c before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and remaineth for ever: and his kingdom shall not perish, and his dominion shall be everlasting.

27 We releserch^d & delivereth, and he wrought signes and wonders in heaven and in earth: who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reigne of Darius, and in the reigne of Cyrus of Persia.

Whereas the people of Israel looked for a continuall quietnesse after these seaventy yeeres, as Jeremiah had declared, he sheweth that this rest shall not be a deliverance from all troubles, but a beginning, and therefore encouraged them to looke for a continuall affliction till the Messiah be vetered and revealed, by whom they should have a spirituall deliverance, and all the promises fulfilled: whereof they should have a certaine token in the destruction of the Babylonian kingdome, wrote the dreame, and declared the summe of the matter.

2 Daniel spake and sayd, I saw in my vision by night, and beholde, the four windes of the heauen stroue upon^b the great sea:

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, one diuers from another.

4 The first was as a lion, and had eyles wings: I beheld, till the wings thereof were plucked off, & it was lifted up from the earth, and set upon his feet as a man, and a mans heart was giuen him.

5 And behold, another beast which was the second, was like a bear, and stood upon the one side: and he had thre ribbes in his mouth betwene his teeth, & it was said unto him, Arise, and devour much flesh.

6 After this, I beheld, and loe, there was another like a leopard, which had upon his backe four wings of a foule: the beast had also four heads, and dominion was giuen him.

7 After this, I sawe in the visions by night, and beholde, the fourth beast, was fearefull, and terrible, and very strong: It had great iron teeth: it deuoured, and went on they brake in pi^ces, and stamped the residue feet, and were binder his feet: and it was unlike to the made like other beasts that were before it: for it had tenne hornes.

8 As I considered the hornes, beholde, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the hornes, and hee overcame the first two, and hee overcame the third.

9 They were smal in the beginning, and were shut vp in their mountaines, and had no bruit. That is, destroyed many kingdomes, and was insatiable. To wit, the Angels by Gods commandement, who by this means punished the ingratitude of the world. Meaning Alexander the king of Macedonie. That is, his four chief captaynes, which had the empire among them after his death, Seleucus had Asia the great, Antigonus the Idue, Cassander, and after him Antipater was king of Macedonia, & Ptolemus had Egypt. It was not of himselfe, nor of his own power that he gave all these countreys: for his army contained but thirty thousand men, and hee overcame in one battell Darius, which had ten hundred thousand when he was so heavy with sleepe, that his eyes were scarce open, as the stories report: therefore this power was giuen him of God. That is, the Romane Empire, which was a monster, and could not bee compared to any beast, because the nature of none was able to expresse it. Signifying the tyrannie and greedynesse of the Romanes. That which the Romanes could not quietly enjoy in other countreys, they would give it to other kings and rulers, that at all times when they would, they might take it againe: which liberality is here called the stamping of the rest vnder the feete. That is, sundry and diuers prouinces, which were governed by the Deputies and Proconsuls, whereof euery one might be compared to a King. Which is meant of Iulius Caesar, Augustus, Tiberius, Caligula, Claudius & Nero, &c. who were as kings in effect, but because they could not rule, but by the consent of the Senate, their power is compared to a little horn. For Mahomet came not of the Romane Empire, and the Pope hath no vocation of government: therefore this cannot be applyed vnto them. And also in this prophetic the Prophets purpose is chiefly to comfort the Iewes vnto the reuelation of Christ. Some take it for the whole body of Antichrist. Meaning a certaine portion of the tenne hornes: that is, a part from the whole estate was plucked away. For Augustus tooke from the Senate the bettie of chuse the Deputies to send into the prouinces, and tooke the government of certaine countreys to himselfe.

Which signified that there should be horrible troubles and afflictions in the world, in all corners of the world, and at sundry times. Meaning the Assyrian & Caldean Empire which was most strong and fierce in power and most soone come to their authoritie, as though they had had wings to flee: yet their wings were pulled by the Persians, & they were barbarous men, which here meant by mans heart.

Meaning, the Persians, which were barbarous and cruell. They were smal in the beginning, and were shut vp in their mountaines, and had no bruit. That is, destroyed many kingdomes, and was insatiable. CHAP. VII.

A vision of foure beasts is shewed vnto Daniel. The ten hornes of the fourth beast. Of the euerlasting kingdome of Christ.

In the first yere of Belshazzar king of Babel, Daniel saw a dreame, and there were visions in his head, upon his bed: then hee

a Whereas the people of Israel looked for a continuall quietnesse after these seaventy yeeres, as Jeremiah had declared, he sheweth that this rest shall not be a deliverance from all troubles, but a beginning, and therefore encouraged them to looke for a continuall affliction till the Messiah be vetered and revealed, by whom they should have a spirituall deliverance, and all the promises fulfilled: whereof they should have a certaine token in the destruction of the Babylonian kingdome, r These Romane Emperors at the first vsed a certaine humanitie, and gentleness, & were content that they might haue the protie, and therefore in elections and counsilts would behaue themselves according as did other Senators: yet against their enemies, and those that would resist them, they were fierce and cruell, which is here meant by the proud mouth. i Meaning, the places where God and his Angels should come to iudge these Monarchies, which iudgement should begin at the first coming of Christ. k That is, God which was before all times, & is here described as mans nature is able to comprehend some portion of his glory.

l That is, an infinitenumber of Angels, which were ready to execute his commandment. x This is meant of the first coming of Christ, when as the will of God was plainly revealed by his Gospel. y Meaning, that he was astonied when he saw these Emperours in such dignitie and pride, and so suddenly destroyed at the coming of Christ, when this fourth Monarchie was subiect to men of other nations. z As the three former Monarchies had an end, at the time that God appointed, although they flourished for a time, so shall this fourth haue, and they that patiently abide Gods appointment, shall enjoy the promises. a Which is meant of Christ, who had not yet taken vpon him mans nature, neither was the son of Dauid according to the flesh, as he was afterward: but appeared then in a figure, and that in the cloudes: that is, being separate from the common sort of men by manifest signes of his diuinity. b To wit, when he ascended into the heauen, and his diuine Maiestie appeared, and all power was given vnto him in respect of that that he was our Mediatour. c This is meant of the beginning of Christs kingdome, when God the Father gaue vnto him all dominion, as to the Mediatour to the intent that hee should gouerne heere his Church in earth continually, till the time that he brought them to eternall life. d Through the strangenesse of the vision. e Meaning, of the Angels, as verse 10.

the first homes pluckt away: and behold, in this home were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking presumptuous things.

9 I beheld, All the thrones were set vp, and the Ancient of daies did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the haire of his head like the pure wooll: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheel as burning fire.

10 A fiery streame issued, and came forth from before him: thousand thousand ministered vnto him, and ten thousand thousand stood before him: the iudgement was set, and the bookes opened.

11 Then I beheld, because of the voyce of the presumptuous words, which the horne spake: I behelde, euen till the beast was slaine, and his body destroyed, and giuen to the burning fire.

12 As concerning the other beasts, they had taken away their dominion, yet their liues were prolonged for a certaine time and season.

13 As I beheld in visions by night, behold, one like the sonne of man came in the cloudes of heauen, and approached vnto the Ancient of daies, and they brought him before him.

14 And hee gaue him dominion, and honour, and a kingdome, that all people, nations and languages should serue him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall neuer bee taken away: and his kingdome shall neuer be destroyed.

15 I Daniel was troubled in my spirit in the middes of my body, and the visions of mine head made mee afrayd.

16 Therefore I came vnto one of them that stood by, and asked him the trueth of all this: so hee tolde mee, and he shewed mee the interpretation of these things.

17 These great beastes which are foure, are foure kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 And they shall take the kingdome of the Saints of the most High, which shall possesse the kingdome for euer, euen for euer and euer.

19 After this I would know the trueth of the fourth beast, which was so unlike to all the others, very fearefull, whose teeth were of yron, and his nailes of brass, which deuoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue vnder his feete.

20 Also to know of the tenne hornes that were in his head, & of the other which came vp, before whom three fell, and of the horne that had eyes, and of the mouth that spake presumptuous things, whose looke was more stout then his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horne made battell against the Saints, yea and prevailed against them,

22 Until the Ancient of daies came, and iudgement was giuen to the Saints of the most High: and the time approached, that the Saints possessed the kingdome.

23 Then he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdome in the earth, which shall be unlike to all the kingdomes, and shall deuoure the whole earth, and shall treade it downe and breake it in pieces.

24 And the tenne hornes out of this kingdome are ten kings that shall rise: another shall rise after them, and he shall be unlike to the first, and he shall subdue three kings,

25 And shall speake words against the most High, and shall consume the Saints of the most High, and thinke that hee may change times and lawes, and they shall be giuen vnto his hand, vntill a time, & times, and the diuiding of time.

26 But the iudgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and destroy it vnto the end.

27 And the kingdome, and dominion, retained them for terme of life: also the Romans were the strongest of all the other, and were neuer quiet among themselves. i. Reade verse. 7. k This is meant of the fourth beast, which was more terrible then the other. l Meaning, the Roman Emperors, who were most cruel against the Church of God both of the Iewes and of the Gentiles. m Till God shewed his power in the person of Christ, & by the preaching of the Gospel gaue vnto his sonne rest, & so obtained a famous name in the world, & were called the Church of God, or the kingdome of God. n Reade the exposition hereof vers. 8. o That shall make wicked decrees & proclamations against Gods word & send thoroughout all their dominion, to destroy all that did professe it. p These Emperours shall not consider that they haue their power of God, but thinke it is in their owne power to change Gods Lawes and mans, and as it were the order of nature, as appeareth by Octavius, Tiberius, Caligula, Nero Domitianus, &c. q God shall suffer the thus to rage against his Saints for a long time, which is meant by the time and times, but at length he will awage these troubles, and shorten the times for his elects sake, Matth. 24. 22. which is here meant by the diuiding of time. r God by his power shall restore them by that were out of order, and so destroy this little horne that it should not rise vp againe. s He sheweth wherefore the beast should be destroyed, to wit, that his Church might haue rest and quietnesse, which though they do not fully enjoy here, yet they haue it in hope, and by the preaching of the Gospel enjoy the beginning thereof, which is meant by these words, Under the heauen: and therefore he here speaketh of the beginning of Christs kingdome in this world, which kingdome the faithfull haue by the participation that they haue with Christ their head.

e That is, some of every sort that beare rule.
u Though hee had many motions in his heart which moued him to and fro to seeke out this matter curiously: yet was hee content with that which God reuealed, and kept it in memorie, and wrote it for the vfe of the Church.

C H A P. VIII.

1 A vision of a battell betwene a ramme and a goat. 20 The understanding of the vision.

a After the generall vision he cometh to certaine particular visions, as touching the destruction of the monarchy of the Persians & Macedonians: for the ruine of the Babylonians was at hand, and also he had sufficiently spoken thereof.

b That is, of Persia.
c Which represented the kingdom of the Persians and Medes, which were ioyned together.

d Meaning, Cyrus, which after grew greater in power then Darius his vncke & father in law.

e That is, no kings or nations.
f Meaning Alexander that came from Grecia with great speede and expedition.

g Though hee came in the name of all Grecia, yet he bare the title and dignitie of the generall captain, so that the strength was attributed to him, which is meant by this horne.

h Alexander ouercome Darius in two feuerall battels, and so had the two kingdomes of the Medes and Persians. i Alexanders great power was broken: for when he had ouercome all the east, he thought to returne toward Grecia, to subdue them that there had rebelled, and so died by the way. k That is, which were famous: for almost in the space of fiftene yere there were fiftene diuers successors before this monarchy was diuided to these foure, whereof Cassander had Macedonia, Seleucus Syria, Antigonus Asia the lesse, and Ptolemeus Egypt. l Which was Antiochus Epiphanes, who was of a ferule and flattering nature, and also there were other betwene him and the kingdom: and therefore is here called the little horne, because neither princely conditions, nor any other thing was in him, why he should obtaine this kingdom.

and the greatnesse of the kingdom vnder the whole heauen shall bee giuen to the holy people of the most high, whose kingdom is an euerlasting kingdom, and all powers shall serue and obey him.

28 Euen this is the end of the matter, I Daniel had many cogitations which troubled mee, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

1 And extolled himselfe against the prince of the hoste, from whom the dayly sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast downe.

12 And a time shall bee giuen him ouer the dayly sacrifice for the iniquity: and it shall cast downe the truth to the ground, and thus shall it bee and prosper.

13 Then I heard one of the Saints speaking, & one of the Saints spake vnto a certaine one, saying, How long shall endure the vision of the dayly sacrifice, and the iniquitie of the desolation to tread both the Sanctuaries and the armie vnder foot?
14 And hee answered mee, Unto the evening, and the morning, two thousand and three hundred, then shall the Sanctuaries be cleansed.

15 Now when I Daniel had scene the vision, and sought for the meaning, behold, there stood before me like the multitude of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voyce betwene the bankes of Uai, which called and sayd, Gabriel, make this man to vnderstand the vision.

17 So he came where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fel vpon my face: but he laid vnto me, vnderstand, of some of man: for in the last time shall be the vision.

18 Now as he was speaking vnto me, I being asleepe fell on my face to the ground: but he touched me, & set me vp in my place.

19 And he said, Behold, I will shew thee what shall be in the last warth: for in the end of the time appointed it shall come.

20 The ramme which thou sawest hauing two hornes, are the kings of the Medes and Persians.

21 And the goat is the king of Grecia, and the great horne that is betwene his eyes, is the first king.

22 And that that is broken, and foure stood vp for it, are foure kingdomes, which shall stand vp of that nation, but not in his strength.

23 And in the ende of their kingdom, when the rebellious shall be consumed, a king of fierce countenance, and vnderstanding

the horne, which waxed very great toward the South, and toward the East, and toward the pleasant land.

10 For, it grew vp vnto the hoste of heauen, and it cast downe some of the hoste, and of the starres to the ground, and trode vpon them,

11 And extolled himselfe against the prince of the hoste, from whom the dayly sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast downe.

12 And a time shall bee giuen him ouer the dayly sacrifice for the iniquity: and it shall cast downe the truth to the ground, and thus shall it bee and prosper.

13 Then I heard one of the Saints speaking, & one of the Saints spake vnto a certaine one, saying, How long shall endure the vision of the dayly sacrifice, and the iniquitie of the desolation to tread both the Sanctuaries and the armie vnder foot?

22 And that that is broken, and foure stood vp for it, are foure kingdomes, which shall stand vp of that nation, but not in his strength.

23 And in the ende of their kingdom, when the rebellious shall be consumed, a king of fierce countenance, and vnderstanding

m That is, toward Egypt.
n Whereby he meaneth Ptolemeus.

o That is, Iudea, p Antiochus raged against the elect of God, and trode his precious starres vnder feete, which are so called, because they are separated from the world.

q That is, God who governeth and maintaineth his Church.

r He laboured to abolish all religion, and therefore cast Gods seruice out of his Temple, which God had chosen as a little corner from all the rest of the world to haue his Name there truly called vpon.

s Hee sheweth that their finnes are the cause of these horrible afflictions: and yet comforteth them in that he appointeth this tyrant a time, whom he would not suffer viceroy to abolish his religion.

t This horne shall abolish for a time the true doctrine, and so corrupt Gods seruice.

b Which was Christ, who in this maner declared himselfe to the old Fathers, how he would be God manifested in flesh.

c This power to command the Angel declared that he was God.

d The effect of this vision shall not yet appaie, but a long time after.

e Meaning that great rage which Antiochus should shew against the Church.

f That is, out of Grecia.

g They shall not haue like power as had Alexander.

h Noting that this Antiochus was impudent and cruell, and also craftie, that he could not be deceived.

darke sentences shall stand by.

25 And through his ^l pollicie also, he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand, and he shall extoll himselfe in his heart, and by ^h peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand by against the ^o Prince of princes, but he shall be broken downe without band.

26 And the vision of the ^r evening, and the morning, which is declared, is true: therefore seale thou by the vision, for it shall be after many dayes.

27 And I Daniel was stricken and sicke certaine dayes: but when I rose vp, I did the kings business, and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAP. IX.

3 Daniel desireth to haue that performed of God, which hee had promised concerning the returne of the people from their banishment in Babylon. 5 A true confession. 20 Daniels prayer is heard. 21 Gabriel the Angel expoundeth vnto him the vision of the ^s seuen weeks. 24 The anuyning of Christ. 25 The building againe of Ierusalem. 26 The death of Christ.

I ^A the first yere of Darius the sonne of ^A Bashaereth, of the seede of the Medes, which was made King ouer the ^b realme of the Caldeans,

2 Euen in the first yere of his reigne, I Daniel understood by ^o bookes the number of the yeres, whereof the Lord had spoken vnto Ieremiah the Prophet, that he would accomplish ^s seuentie yeres in the desolation of Ierusalem.

3 And I turned my face vnto the Lord God, and ^a sought by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth and ashes.

4 And I prayed vnto the Lord my God, and made my confession, saying, Oh Lord God, which art ^o great and fearefull, and keepest covenant & mercie toward them which loue ^t thee, and toward them that keepe thy commandements,

5 We haue sinned, and haue committed iniquitie, and haue done wickedly, yea, wee haue rebelled, and haue departed from thy precepts, and from thy iudgements.

9 For wee would not obey thy seruants the Prophets, which spake in thy Name to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, ^r righteousnes belongeth vnto thee, and vnto vs ^t open shame, as appeareth cause God to delay the time of their deliuerance prophesied by Ieremiah. c That is, hast all power in thy selfe to execute thy terrible iudgements against obstinate sinners, as thou art rich in mercy to comfort them which obey thy word and loue thee. ^h Ebr. him. f He sheweth that whensoever God punisheth, he doeth it for iust cause: and thus the godly neuer accuse him of rigour as the wicked doe, but acknowledge that in the selues there is iust cause why he should so entreat them. ^h Ebr. confusion of face.

this day vnto every man of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem: yea, vnto all Israel, both nere and farr off, through all the countreys, whither thou hast driven them, because of their offences, that they haue committed against thee.

8 O Lord, vnto vs appertaineth open shame, to our ^r kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because wee haue sinned against thee.

9 Yet compassion and forgiveness is in the Lord our God, albeit we haue rebelled against him.

10 For we haue not obeyed the ^h voyce of the Lord our God, to walke in his Lawes, which hee had laid before vs by the ministration of his seruants the Prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel haue transgressed thy law, and are turned backe, & haue not heard thy voice: therefore thy ^c curse is powred by on vs, and the oath that is written in the Law of Moses thy seruant of God, because wee haue sinned against him.

12 And hee hath confirmed his wordes, which he spake against vs, and against our Iudges that ⁱ iudged vs, by bringing vpon vs a great plague: for vnder the whole heauen hath not bene the like, as hath bene brought vpon Ierusalem.

13 All this plague is come vpon vs, as it is written in the law of Moses: yet made we not our prayer before the Lord our God, that we might turne from our iniquities, and vnderstand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the Lord ^t made ready the plague, and brought it vpon vs: for the Lord our God is righteous in all his workes which hee doeth: for wee would not heare his voyce.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renowne, as appeareth this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy ^r righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger & thy wrath be turned away from thy citie Ierusalem thine holy mountaine: for because of our finnes, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Ierusalem and thy people are a reproch to all that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O our God, heare the prayer of thy seruant and his supplications, and cause thy face to ^r shine vpon thy Sanctuary, that lieth waste for the ^o Lords sake.

18 O my God, incline thine eare, and heare: open thine eyes, and beholde our desolations, and the Citie whereupon thy Name is called: for wee doe not present our supplications before thee for our owne ^r righteousness, but for thy great tender mercies.

19 O Lord heare, O Lord forgive, O Lord ^o consider and doe it, deserve not, for thine owne sake, O my God: for thy Name is called vpon thy citie, and vpon thy people.

20 And whiles I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sinne, and the sinne of my people Israel, & did present my supplication before the Lord my God, for the Meaning, he would not onely himselfe bridle the rage of Cambyles, but also the other kings of Persia by Alexander the king of Macedonia.

For this Angel was appointed for the defence of the Church vnder Christ, who is the head thereof.

CHAP. XI.
A prophetic of the kingdoms which should bee enemies to the Church of God, as of Persia, 3 Of Greece, 5 Of Egypt, 28 Of Syria, 36 And of the Romans.

As Io J, in the first yeere of Darius of the Medes, even I stood to encourage and to strengthen him.

And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand vp yet three kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be farre richer then they all: and by his strength, and by his riches he shall sit vp all against the realme of Grecia.

But a mighty king shall stand vp, that shall rule with great dominion, and doe according to his pleasure.

And when he shall stand vp, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be diuided toward the foure winde of heauen, & not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked vp, euen to be for others besides himselfe.

And the king of the South shall bee mighty, and one of his princes, and shall preuaile against him, and beare rule: his dominion shall be a great dominion.

And in the end of yeares they shall be foyned together: for the kings daughter of the South shall come to the king of the North, to make an agreement, but she shall not reaine the power of the arme, neither shall she continue, nor his arme: but he shall be deliuered to death, and they that brought her and he that begate her, and he that comforted her in these times.

But out of the brinde of her roots shall one stand vp in his steade, which shall come with an armie, and shall enter into the fortreffe of the king of the North, and doe with them as hee list, and shall preuaile.

And shall also carry captiues into Egypt their gods with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, and he shall continue more yeeres then the king of the North.

So the king of the South shall come into his kingdom, and shall returne into his owne land.

Wherefore his sonnes shall be stirred vp, and shall assemblie a mighty great armie: and one shall come and overflow, and passe thorough: then shall he returne, and be lifted vp at his fortreffe.

And the king of the South shall bee angry, and shall come forth, and fight with him, euen with the king of the North: for hee shall see forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be giuen into his hand.

Then the multitude shall be proud, and their heart shall be lifted vp: for he shall cast downe thousands: but he shall not slay preuaile.

For the king of the North shall returne, and shall see forth a greater multitude then afore, and shall come forth (after certaine yeeres) with a mighty armie, and great riches.

And at the same time there shall many stand vp against the king of the South: also the rebellious children of the people, shall exalt themselves to stabliss the vision, but they shall fall.

So the King of the North shall come, and cast vp a mount, and take the strong citie: and the armes of the South shall not resist, neither his chosen people, neither shall there bee any strength to withstand.

But he that shall come, shall doe vnto him as hee list, and none shall stand afixe and fourtie yeeres.

Meaning, Seleucus and Antiochus the great, the sonnes of Calinicus, shall make warre against Ptolemus Philopater the sonne of Philadelphus.

For his elder brother Seleucus died, or was slaine whiles the warres were preparing.

That is, Philopater, when hee shall see Antiochus to take great dominions from him in Syria, and also ready to inuade Egypt,

For Antiochus had sixe thousand horsemen, and threescore thousand footmen.

After the death of Ptolemus Philopater, who left Ptolemus Epiphanes his heire.

For not onely Antiochus came against him, but also Philip king of Macedonia, and these two brought great power with them.

For vnder Onias which falsly alledged that place of Isaiah 19. 19. certaine of the Iewes retired with him into Egypt to fulfill this prophetic: also the Angel sheweth that all these troubles which are in the Church, are by the providence and counsell of God.

The Egyptians were not able to resist Stopas Antiochus captaine.

That force and strength shall not continue, for soone after, Berenice and her yong sonne after her husbands death, was slaine of her stepsonne Seleucus Calinicus the son of Laodice, the lawfull wife of Antiochus, but put away for this womans sake.

Neither Ptolemus, nor Antiochus.

Some reade fcedde, meaning the childe begotten of Berenice.

Some reade, the that begate her, and thereby vnderstand her nurse, which brought her vp: so that all they that were occasion of this marriage, were destroyed.

Meaning, that Ptolemus Euergetes, after the death of his father Philadelphus, should succede in the kingdom, being of the same stock that Berenice was.

To reuenge his sisters death against Antiochus Calinicus king of Syria.

For this Ptolemus reigned sixe and fourtie yeeres.

Meaning, Seleucus and Antiochus the great, the sonnes of Calinicus, shall make warre against Ptolemus Philopater the sonne of Philadelphus.

For his elder brother Seleucus died, or was slaine whiles the warres were preparing.

m For whereas Antiochus was wont to contemne the Romanes, and put their ambassadours to shame in all places, Atilius the Consul, or Lucius Scipio put him to flight, and caused his shame to turne on his owne head. n By his wicked life, and obeying of foolish counsell. o For feare of the Romanes hee shall flee to his holds.
p For when as vnder the pretence of pouertrie he would haue robbed the Temple of Iupiter Dodoneus, the countreymen slew him.
q That is, Seleucus shall succeed his father Antiochus. r Nor by forreine enemies, or battell, but by treason. i Which was Antiochus Epiphanes, who as is thought, was the occasion of Seleucus his brothers death, and was of a vile, cruel, and flattering nature, and defrauded his brothers sonne of the kingdome, and vsurped the kingdome without consent of the people. t Hee sheweth that great forreine powers shall come and helpe the young sonne of Seleucus against his vnkle Antiochus, and yet shall hee be ouerthrowen.
u Meaning Ptolemeus Philometor, Philopatens sonne, who was this childes cousin germane, and is here called the prince of the covenant, because he was the chiefe, and all other followed his conduct. x For after the battell, Philometor and his vnkle An-tiochus made a league. y For hee came vpon him at vnwares, against him: and he shall stand in the ¹ pleasant land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 Again hee shall s^et his face to enter with the power of his whole kingdome, and his confederates with him: thus shal he doe, and hee shall giue him the ² daughter of women, to destroy ³ her: but ⁴ she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turne his face vnto
the ⁵ yles, and shall take many: but a prince ⁶ shall cause his shame to light vpon him, beside that hee shall cause his owne shame to turne vpon ⁷ himselfe.

19 For he shall turne his face toward the forts of his ⁸ owne land: but hee shall be ouer-throwen, and fall, and be no more ⁹ found.

20 Then shall stand vp in his place in the glory of the kingdome, one that shall raile rares, but after fewe dayes hee shall be destroyed, neither in ¹⁰ wrath, nor in battell.

21 And in his place shall stand vp a ¹¹ vile person, to whom they shall not giue the honour of the kingdome: but hee shall come in peaceably, and obtaine the kingdome by flatteries.

22 And the ¹² arme shall be ouerthrowen with a flood before him, and shall be broken:
and also the prince of ¹³ the covenant.

23 And after ¹⁴ the league made with him, hee shall worke deceitfully: for hee shall come vp, and ouercome with a ¹⁵ small people.

24 He shall enter into the quiet and pleasant pounce, and hee shall doe that which his fathers ¹⁶ haue not done, nor his fathers fathers: hee shall diuide among them the pray and the spoyle, and the substance, yea, and he shall forecast his deuices against the strong holds, euen for ¹⁷ a time.

25 Also he shall stirre by his power & his courage against the king of the South with a great army, and the king of the South shal be stirred vp to battell with a very great and mighty arme: but hee shall not ¹⁸ stand:

for they shall forecast and practise against him.

26 Yea, they that feede of the portion of his meate, shall destroy him: and his arme shall ourflow: and many shall fall, and be slaine.

27 And both these kings hearts shall bee to doe ¹⁹ mischief, and they shall talke of deceit at one table: but it shall not auaile:
for ²⁰ yet the end shall bee at the time appointed.

28 Then shall hee reuerne into his land with great ²¹ substance: for his heart shall be against the holy covenant: so shall hee do and returne to his owne land.

29 At the time appointed he shall returne, and come toward the South: but the last shall not be as the first.

30 For the ships ²² of Chittim shall come against him: therefore hee shall be sorow and returne, and fret against the holy Covenant:
so shall hee do, hee shall euen returne ²³ and haue gaine another intelligence with them that forsake the holy Covenant.

31 And armes ²⁴ shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the Sanctuarie ²⁵ of men to bring strength, and shall take away the dayly sacrifice, and they shall set vp the abominable desolation.

32 And such as wickedly ²⁶ breake the couenant, shall hee cause to sinne by flatterie:
but the people that doe know their God, shall perseuer and prosper.

33 And they that vnderstand among ²⁷ the people, shall instruct many: ²⁸ yet they shall fall by sword, and by flame, by captiuitie and by spoile, many dayes.

34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a ²⁹ little help: but many shal cleaue vnto them ³⁰ I fauently.

35 And some of them ³¹ of vnderstanding, shall fall to trie them, and to purge, and to make them white till the time bee out: for there is a time appointed.

by Gods prouidence. h That is, the Romane power shall come against him: for P. Popilius the ambassadour appointed him to depart in the Romanes names: to which thing hee obeyed, although with grieve, and to reuenge his rage, hee came against the people of God the second time. i With the Iewes which shall forsake the covenant of the Lord: for first hee was called against the Iewes by Iason the hie Priest, and this second time by Menelaus. k A great faction of the wicked Iewes shall hold with Antiochus. l So called because the power of God was nothing diminished, although this tyrant set vp in the Temple the image of Iupiter Olympius, and so began to corrupt the pure seruice of God. m Meaning, such as bare the name of Iewes, but in deede were nothing lesse: for they sold their soules, and betrayed their brethren for gaine. n They that remaine constant among the people, shal teach others by their example, and edifie many in the true religion. o Whereby hee exhorteth the godly to constancie, although they should perish a thousand times, and though their miseries endure neuer so long.
p As God will not leaue his Church destitute, yet will hee not deli-uer it all at once, but so helpe, as they may still seeme to fight vnder the crosse, as hee did in the time of the Maccabees, whereof hee here prophecieth. q That is, there shall be euen of this small number many hypocrites. r To wit, of them that feare God, and will lose their life for the defence of true Religion, signifying also, that the Church must continually be tried & purged, and ought to look for one persecution after another: for God hath appointed the time, therefore we must obey.

f Because the Angels purpose is to shew the whole counse of the persecutions of the Iewes vnto the coming of Christ, he now speakech of the Monarchy of the Romanes, which he noteth by the name of a king, who were without all religion, and contemned the true God. s So long the tyrants shall preuaile as God hath appointed to punish his people: but he sheweth that it is but for a time. u The Romanes shall obferue no certaine forme of religion as other nations, but shall chage their gods at their pleasures: yea, conuerne them, and prefer themselves to their gods. x Signifying, y they should be without all humanity: for the loue of women is taken for singular or great loue, as 2. Sam. i. 26. y That is, the god of power and riches: they shall esteeme their owne power above all their gods, and worship it. z Vnder pretence of worshipping the gods, they shall enrich their citie with the most precious iewels of all the world, because that hereby all men should haue them in ad miration for their power & riches. a Although in their hearts they had no religion, yet they did acknowledge the gods, and worshipped them in their temples: i. f they should haue bene despised as Atheists: but this was to increase their fame and riches: and when they gate any countrey, they so made others the rulers thereof, that the profit euer came to the Romanes. b That is, both the Egyptians and Syrians shall at length fight against the Romanes, but they shall be overcome. c The Angel for warneth the Iewes, that when they should see the Romans inuade them, and that the wicked should escape their hands, that then they should not thinke but that all this was done by Gods providence, forasmuch as hee warned them of it to long afore, and therefore he would still prekeure them. d Hearing that Crassus was slaine & Antonius discomfited. e For Augustus overcame the Parthians, and recovered that which Antonius had lost. f The Romanes after this reigned quietly through all countreys, and from sea to sea, and in Iudea: but at length for their cruelty God shall destroy them.

CHAP. XII.

.3. Of the deliuerance of the Church by Christ.

36 And the king shall doe what him list, he shall exalt himselfe, and magnifie himselfe against all, that is God, and shall speake marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper til the watch: he accomplished: for the determination is made.

37 Neither shall hee regard the God of his fathers, nor the desires of women, nor care for any god: for he shall magnifie himselfe, above all.

38 But in his place shall hee honour the God Nazzim, and the god whom his fathers know not shall hee honour with gold, and with silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall hee doe in the holdes of Nazzim w. i. a strange god whom he shall acknowledge: he shall increase his glory, and shall cause them to rule ouer many, and shall diuide the land for gaue.

40 And at the end of time shall the King of the South push at him, and the King of the North shall come against him like a whirlwinde, with charers and with hostemen, and with many shippes, and hee shall enter into the countreys, and shall overflow and passe throug.

41 Hee shall enter also into the pleasant land, & many countreys shall be overthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Gubim and Gobab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hands also vpon the countreys, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But hee shall haue power ouer the treasures of gold and of silver, and ouer all the precious things of Egypt, and of the Libyans, and of the blacke Mozes where hee shall passe.

44 But the tidings out of the East and the North shall trouble him, therefore hee shall go forth with great wrath to destroy and root out many.

45 And hee shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the Seas in the glorious and holy mountaine, yet hee shall come to his end, and none shall helpe him.

46 And at that time shall Michael stand by the great prince, which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as neuer was since there began to be a nation, vnto that same time: and at that time thy people shall be deliuered, every one that shall be found written in the booke.

2 And many of them shall sleepe in the dust of the earth, shall awake, some to everlasting life, & some to shame & perpetual contempt.

Hosea.

THE APOCYPHANT.

After that the ten tribes had fallen away from God by the wicked & subtil counsel of Ieroboam the sonne of Nebat, and in stead of his true service commanded by his word, worshipped him according to their owne fantasies & traditions of men, giuing themselves to most vile idolatry and superstition, the Lord from time to time sent them prophets to call them to repentance: but they grew euer worse and worse, and still abused Gods benefits. Therefore now when their prosperitie was at the highest vnder Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash, God sent Hosea and Amos to the Israelites (as he did at the same time Isaiah and Micah to them of Iudah) to condemne them of their ingratitude: and whereas they thought themselves to be greatly in the fauour of God, and to be his people, the Prophet called them bastards and children borne in adulterie: and therefore sheweth them that God would take away their kingdome, and giue them to the Assyrians to be led away captiues. Thus Hosea faithfully executed his office for the space of seuentie yeeres, though they remained still in their wickednes & vices, and derided the Prophets, and contemned Gods iudgements. And because they should neither be discouraged with threatenings onely, nor yet flatter themselves by the sweetness of Gods promises, he setteth before them the two principall parts of the Law, which are, the promise of saluation, and the doctrine of life, for the first part he directeth the faithful to Messiah, by whom onely they should haue true deliuerance: and for the second, he vseth threatenings and menaces to bring them from their wicked manners and vices: and this is the chiefe scope of all the Prophets, either by Gods promises to allure them to be godly, or else by threatenings of his iudgements to feare them from vice: and albeit that the whole law containe these two points, yet the Prophet moreouer note peculiarly, both the time of Gods iudgements, and the manner.

CHAP. I.

1 The time wherein Hosea prophesied. 2 The idolatry of the people. 3 The calling of the Gentiles. 4 Christ in the head of all people.

The word of the Lord that came vnto Hosea the sonne of Beeri, in the dayes of Azziah, Jorham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah kings of Iudah, and in the dayes of Ieroboam the sonne of Ioash king of Israel.

2 At the beginning the Lord spake by Hosea, and the Lord saide vnto Hosea, Goe, take vnto thee a wife of fornications, and children of fornications: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the Lord.

3 So he went and tooke a Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, which conceived and bare him a sonne.

4 And the Lord said vnto him, Call his name Israel: for yet a little, and I will visite the blood of Israel vpon the house of Iehu, and will cause to cease the kingdome of the house of Israel.

5 And at that day will I also breake the bow of Israel, in the balley of Israel.

6 She conceived yet againe, and bare a daughter, and God said vnto him, Call her a Called also Azziah, who being a leper was deposed from his kingdome.

b So that it may be gathered by the reign of these four kings that he preached about three score yeeres.

c That is, one that of long time hath accustomed to play the harlot: not that the Prophet did this thing in effect, but he saw this in a vision, or else was commanded by God to set forth vnder this parable or figure the idolatry of the Synagogue, and of the people her children. d Gomer signifieth a consumption or corruption, and Diblaim clusters of figs, declaring that they were all corrupt like rotten figs. e Meaning, that they should be no more called Israelites, of the which name they boasted because Israel d spreuall with God: but that they were as bastards, and therefore should be called Israelites, that is, scattered people alluding to Israel, which was the chiefe cite of the ten tribes vnder Ahab, where Iehu shed so much blood. 2. King. 10. 8, 11. f I will be reuenged vpon Iehu for the blood that he shed in Israel for albeit God stirred him vp to execute his iudgements, yet he did them for his owne ambition, and not for the glory of God, as the end declared: for he builded vp that idolatry, which hee had destroyed.

g When the measure of their iniquitie is full, and I shall take vengeance and destroy all their policie and force, name, b Lo-rubamah: for I will no more haue pittie vpon the house of Israel: but I will utterly take them away. 7 Yet I will haue mercy vpon the house of Iudah, and will salue them by the Lord their God, and I will not saue them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battell, by horses, nor by hostemen. 8 Now when she had weaned Lo-rubamah, she conceived and bare a sonne. 9 Then said God, Call his name Ammi: for ye are not my people: therefore will I not be yours. 10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor tolde: and in the place where it was said vnto them, Ye are not my people, it shall be said vnto them, Ye are the sonnes of the liuing God. 11 Then shall the children of Iudah, and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come by out of the land: for great is the day of Israel.

cept he had preserued them, he declareth that though they were destroyed, yet the true Israelites, which are the sonnes of the promise, should be without number, which stand both of the Iewes, and the Gentiles, Rom. 9. 26. n To wit, after the captiuitie of Babylon when the Iewes were restored: but chiefly this is referred to 3 time of Christ, who should be the head both of the Iewes and Gentiles. o The calamitie and destruction of Israel shall be so great, that to restore them shall be as a miracle.

1 The people called to repentance. 2 He sheweth their idolatry, and threatneth them except they repent.

c Meaning, that their idolatry was so great, that they were not ashamed, but boasted of it, Ezek. 16. 25.

d For though these people were as an harlot for their idolatries, yet he had left them with their apparell & dowrie and certaine signes of his fauor, but if they continued still, he would vterly destroy them.

h I will punish thee, that thou shalt trie whether thine idoles can helpe thee and bring thee into such straitnesse, that thou shalt haue no lust to play the wanton.

i This he saith of the faithfull which are truly conuerted, and also sheweth the vie and profit of Gods rods.

k This declareth the doome of hope, and she shall sing there as with her: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: but let her take away her fornications out of her sight, & her adulteries: from betwene her breasts.

3 And I strip her naked, and let her as in the day that she was borne, and make her as a wilderness, and leaue her like a dry land, and slay her for this.

4 And I will haue no pittie vpon her children: for they be the children of fornication.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: shee that conceived them, hath done shamefully: for she said, I will goe after my louers that giue me my bread and my water, my wooll and my flaxe, mine oyle & my drinke.

6 Therefore behold, I will stop thy way with thornes, and make an hedge, that thou shalt not finde her paths.

7 Though she follow after her louers, yet shall she not come at them: though shee seeke them, yet shall she not finde them: then shall she say, I will goe and returne to my first husband: for at that time was I better then now.

8 Now she did not know that I kane her come and wine, and oyle and multiplied her siluer and gold, which they bestowed vpon Baal.

9 Therefore I will returne, & take away my come in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recouer my wooll and my flaxe lent to cover her shame.

10 And now will I discouer her lewdnesse in the sight of her louers, and no man shall deliuer her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast dayes, her newe moones, and her Sabbaths, and all her sollemne festes.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her fig trees, whereof she hath saide, These are my rewardes that my louers haue giuen mee: and I will make them as a forest, and the wilde beasts shall eate them.

13 And I will visit vpon her the dayes of Baalim, wherein she burnt incense to them: and she decked her selfe with her earerings, and her Jewels, and she followed her louers, and forgate me, saith the Lord.

14 Therefore behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speake friendly vnto her.

15 And I will giue her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a doore of hope, and she shall sing there as idolaters do. f. I will punish her for her idolatry. o By shewing how halots trim themselves to please others, he declareth how the superstitious idolaters set a great part of their religion in decking themselves on their holy dayes.

in the dayes of her youth, and as in the day when she came out of the land of Egypt. 16 And at that day, saith the Lord, thou shalt call me Ithi, and shalt call me no more Baali. 17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall be no more remembered by their names. 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them, with the wilde beasts, and with the foules of the heauen, and with that that creepeth vpon the earth, & I will breake the bow and the sword, and the battell out of the earth, and will make them to sleepe safely. 19 And I will marry thee vnto mee for ever: yea, I will marry thee vnto me in righteousness, and in iudgement, and in mercie and in compassion. 20 I will euen marry thee vnto me in faithfulness, and thou shalt know the Lord. 21 And in that day I will beate, saith the Lord, I will beate beate the heauens, and they shall heare the earth. 22 And the earth shall heare the come, and the wine, and the oyle, and they shall heare Israel. 23 And I will sowe her vnto mee in the earth, and I will haue mercie vpon her, that was not pittied, & I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people. And they shall say, I haue my God.

That is, mine husband, knowing that I am ioyned to thee by an inuiolable covenant. That is, my master: which name was applied to their idoles. No idolatry shall once come into their mouth but they shall serue me purely according to my word.

x Meaning, that he will so blesse them, that all creatures shall fauour them. y With a covenant that neuer shall be broken. z Then shall the heauen desire rain for the earth which shall bring forth for the vie of man. Rom. 9. 25. 1. pet. 2. 10.

CHAPTER III.

The Iewes shall be cast off for their idolatry. 5 Afterward they shall returne to the Lord.

Then said the Lord to me, Goe yet, and loue a woman (beloued of her husband, and was an harlot) according to the loue of the Lord toward the children of Israel: yet they looked to other gods, and I loued the wine bottles.

2 So I bought her to me for siluerne pieces of siluer, and for an homer of barley, and an halfe homer of barley.

3 And I said vnto her, Thou shalt abide with me many dayes: Thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt be to none other man, and I will be vnto thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall remaine many dayes without a king, and without a prince, and without an offering, and without an image, and without an Ephod, and without Teraphim.

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel conuert, and seek the Lord their God, and David their king, and shall feare the Lord, and his goodnesse in the latter dayes.

f That is, they should neither haue policie nor Religion, and their idoles also wherein they put their confidence should be destroyed. g This is meant of Christs kingdome, which was promised to David to be eternall, Psal. 72. 17.

Herein the Prophet reprobeth the person of God, which loved his Church before he called her, and did not withdraw the same when she gaue her selfe to idoles.

b In every place appeareth aliberty to most heinous vices, so that one followeth in the necke of another.

c As though hee would say, that it were in vaine to rebuke them: for no man can abide it: yea, they will speake against the Prophets and Priests whose office it is chiefly to rebuke them.

d Ye shall perish all together: the one because he would not obey and the other because he would not admonish

e That is, the Synagogue where in thou boastest f That is, the Priests shalbe cast off, because that for lacke of knowledg they are not able to execute their charge, and instruct others, Deut. 33. 3. Mar. 2. 7.

l Showing that their wickednes shall be punished on all sorts: for though they thinke by the multitude of wives to have many children, yet they shal be deceiued of their hope. m In giuing themselves to pleasures, they become like brute beasts. n Thus he speaketh by derision in calling them his people, which now for their sinnes they were not: for they sought helpe of flocks and flocks.

o They are caryed away with a rage p Because they take away Gods honour, and give it to idols, therefore he will giue them vp to their lusts, that they shall dishonour their owne bodies, Ro. 1. 2. 8. q I will not correct your shame troubling you to amendment, but let you runne headlong to your owne damnation.

Hear the word of the Lord, yee children of Israel: for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and whoying, they breake out, and blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore shall the land mourne, and every one that dwelleth therein, shall be cut off, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowles of the heauen, and also the fishes of the sea shall be taken away.

4 Verily let none rebuke, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that rebuke the Priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the Prophet shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

6 By people are destroyed for lacke of knowledge: because thou hast refused knowledge, I will also refuse thee, that thou shalt be no Priest to mee: and seeing thou hast forgotten the Law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They care vpon the sinnes of my people and lift vp their minds in their iniquitie.

9 And there shall bee like people, like Priest: for I will visit their wayes vpon them, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eate, and not haue enough: they shall commit adultery, and shall not increase, because they haue left off to take heed to the Lord.

11 Whoredome, and wine, and newe wine take away their heart.

12 By people aske counsell at their stocks, and their staffe teacheth them: for the spirit of fornications hath caused them to erre, and they haue gone a whoying from vnder their God.

13 They sacrifice vpon the toppes of the chateaux, and vnto the idols vpon the hills vnder the oaks, and the poplar tree, and the elme, because the shadowe thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall be harlots, and your spouses shall be whores.

15 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah sinne: come not yee vnto Gilgal, neither goe yee vp to Beth-auen, is infected, and will eth them to learne by their example to returne in time.

16 For Israel is rebellious as an unruly heifer: now the Lord will feede them as a lambe in a large place.

17 Ephraim is cloyed to idols: let him alone. f For albeit the Lord had honoured this place in times past by his presence, yet because it was abused by their idolatry, he would not that his people should resort thither.

18 Their drunkenesse sticketh: they haue committed whoredome: their rulers loue to lay with shame. x Being ye.

19 The wind hath ybound them by their wings, and they shall bee ashamed of their sacrifices. e He calleth Beth-el, that is, the house of God, Beth-auen that is, the house of iniquity because of their abomination set vp there, signifying that no place is holy where God is not purely worshipped. n God will to disperse them that they shal not remaine in any certaine place. x They are so impudent in receiving bribes, that they will command men to bring them vnto them. y To carry them suddenly away.

CHAP. V.

1 Against the Priests and rulers of Israel. 13 The helpe of man is vaine.

O Priests, heare this, and hearken yee, O house of Israel, and giue yee care, O house of the King: for iudgement is toward you, because ye haue bene a snare on Ephraim, and a net spread vpon Sabor.

2 Yet they were profound, to decline to slaughter, though I haue bene a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, Ephraim, thou art become a harlot, and Israel is defiled.

4 They wil not giue their mindes to turned vnto their God: for the spirit of fornication is in the middes of them, and they haue not known the Lord.

5 And the pride of Israel doth resiste to his face: therefore shall Israel & Ephraim fall in their iniquitie: Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall goe with their sheepe, and with their bullockes to seek the Lord: but they shall not finde him: for hee hath with drawen himselfe from them.

7 They haue transgressed against the Lord: for they haue begotten strange children: now shall a manet denounce them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the trumpet in Sibeath, and the shamme in Ramah: crye out at Beth-auen, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shal be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel haue I caused to know the truth.

10 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore wil I poure out my wrath vpon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, and broken in degenerate, so that there is no hope in them. g Their destruction is not farre off. h That is, all Israel comprehended vnder this part, signifying, that the Lords plagues should pursue them from place to place till they were destroyed. i By the success they shall know that I haue surely determined this. k They haue turned upside downe all political order, and all manner of Religion.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a rottennesse.

13 When Ephraim saw his sicknesse, and Iudah his wound, then went Ephraim unto Ashtur, and sent unto king^a Iared: yet could he not heale you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a Lyon, and as a Lyons whelp to the house of Iudah: Iewen I will spoile, and goe away: I will take away, and none shall rescue it.

15 I will goe, and returne to my place, till they acknowledge their fault, and seeke me: in their affliction they will seeke me diligently.

CHAP. VI.

1 Affliction causeth a man to turne to God. 9 The wickednesse of the Priests.

Come, and let vs^a returne to the Lord: for he hath spoiled, and hee will heale vs: he hath wounded vs, and he will bünde vs vp.

2 After two dayes will^b hee reuie vs, and in the third day he will raise vs vp, and we shall liue in his sight.

3 Then shall we haue knowledge, and indouour our selues to know the Lord: his going forth is prepared as the morning, and he shall come vnto vs as the raine, and as the latter raine vnto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I doe vnto thee? Iudah, how shall I intreate thee: for^c your goodnesse is as a morning cloude, and as the morning dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore haue I^d cut downe by the Prophets: I haue slaine them by the words of my mouth, and^e thy iudgements were as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired^f merke, and not sacrifice, and the knowledge of God more then burnt offerings.

7 But they like^g men haue transgressed the covenant: there haue they trespassed against me.

8 Gilad is a citie of them that worke iniquitie, and is polluted with blood.

9 And as thieues wait for a man, so the company of Priests murder in the way by consent: for they worke mischief.

10 I haue seene villanie in the house of Israel: there is the whoredome of Ephraim: Israel is defiled.

11 Pea, Iudah hath set a^h plant for thee, whiles I would returne the captiuitie of my people.

a He sheweth the people how they ought to turne to the Lord thache might call back his plagues. b Though he correct vs from time to time, yet his helpe wil not be farre off, if we returne to him. c You seeme to haue a certaine holinesse, and repentance, but it is vpon the sudden and as a morning cloud. d I haue still laboured by my Prophets: and as it were framed you to bring you to amendment, but all was in vaine: for my words was not meate to feede them, but as word to slay them. e My doctrine which I taught thee was most euident. f He sheweth of what scope his doctrine tended, that they should ioyne the obedience of God, and the loue of their neighbour with outward sacrifice. g That is, like light and weak persons. h Which was the place where the Priests dwelt, and which should haue bene best instructed in my word. i That is, doeth imitate thine idolatrie, and hath taken grafts of thy trees, maria: for they haue dealt falsly: and the^a thiefe commeth in, and the robber spoyleth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickednesse: now their owne inuentions haue beset them about: they are in my sight.

3 They make the^b king glad with their wickednesse, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, and as a bery^c ouen heated by the baker, which ceaseth from raising vp, & from kneading the dough vntill it be leauened.

5 This is the^d day of our king: the princes haue made him sicke with flagons of wine: he stretcheth out his hand to take of them.

6 For they haue made ready their heart like an ouen: whiles they lie in wait: their baker slepeth all the night: in the morning it burneth as a flame of fire.

7 They are all hote as an ouen, and haue^e deuoured their Iudges: all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calseth vnto me.

8 Ephraim hath^f mist himselfe among the people. Ephraim is as a cake on the hearth not turned.

9 Strangers haue deuoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, ^g gray haire are here and there vpon him, yet hee knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face, and they doe not returne to the Lord their God, nor seeke him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a done deceived, without^h heart: they call to Egypt: they go to Ashtur.

12 But when they shall goe, I will spread my net vpon them, and draw them downe as the fowles of the heauen: I will chastise them as theirⁱ congregation hath heard.

13 Ecce vnto them: for they haue fled away from me: destruction shalbe vnto them, because they haue transgressed against mee: though I haue^k redeemed them, yet they haue spoken lies against me.

14 And they haue not cryed vnto me with their hearts, when they howled vpon their beds: ^l they assembe themselves for corne and wine, and they rebell against me.

15 Though I haue bound, and strenghtened their arme, yet doe they imagine mischief against me.

16 They returne, but not to the most high: they are like a deceitfull bow: their princes shall fall by the sword, for the rage^m of their tongues: this shalbe their derision in the land of Egypt.

a Meaning, that there was no one kind of vice among them, but that they were subiect to all wickednesse, both secret and open. b They esteeme their wicked king Ieroboam aboute God, and seeke but how to flatter and please him. c He compareth the rage of the people to a burning ouen which the baker heateth still til his dough bee leauened and raised. d They vsed all riot and excesse in their feastes & solemnities, whereby their king was ouercome with surfer, and brought into diseases, and delighted in flatteries. e By their occasion God hath deprived them of all good rulers. f That is, hee counterfeited the religion of the Gentiles, yea is but as a cake baked on the one side, and raw on the other: that is, neither through hot nor through cold, but partly a lew, and partly a Gentile. g Which are a token of his manifold afflictions. h That is, without iudgment, as they that cannot tell whether it is better to claue onely to God, or to seeke the helpe of man. i According to my curses made to the whole Congregation of Israel. k That is, diuers times redeemed them, and deliuered them from death. l When they were in affliction, and cried out for paine, they fought not vnto mee for helpe. m They onely seeke their owne commoditie and wealth, and passe not for me their God. n Because they boast of their owne strength, and passe not what they speake against me and my seruant, Psal. 7. 3. 9.

a God encourage the Prophet to signifie the speedy coming of the enemy against Israel, which was once the people of God.

b They shall cry like hypocrites, but not from the heart, as their deedes declare. c That is, Ieroboam by whom they sought their owne liberty, and not to obey my will.

d That is, vpright iudgement and godly life.

e Meaning, the calfe was invented by themselves and of their Fathers in the wilderness.

f Shewing that their religion hath but a shew, and in it selfe is but vanitie.

g They neuer cease but run to and fro to seeke helpe.

h That is, for the tribute which the king and the princes shall lay vpon thee: which meanes the Lord vseth to bring them to repentance.

i Thus the idolaters count the word of God as strange in respect of their owne inventions. k Saying, that they offer it to the Lord, but he accepteth no seruice, which hee himselfe hath not appointed.

See the trumpet to thy mouth: he shall come as an Eagle against the house of the Lord, because they haue transgressed my couenant, and trespassed against my Law.

2 Israel shall cry vnto mee, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemies shall pursue him.

4 They haue let by a King, but not by me: they haue made princes, and I know it not: of their silver and their gold haue they made them idoles: therefore shall they be destroyed.

5 Thy calfe, O Samaria, hath cast thee off: mine anger is kindled against them: how long will they be without innocencie.

6 For it came from Israel: the workman made it, therefore it is not God: but the calfe of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they haue loken the wind, & they shall reape the whilewind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall bring forth no meale: if so bee it bring forth, the strangers shall deuoure it.

8 Israel is deuoured, now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone by to Asshur: they are as a wild ass alone by himselfe: Ephraim hath hired louers.

10 Per thougth they haue hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sowe a little, for the burthen of the king, and the princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many Altars to sinne, his altars shall be to sinne.

12 I haue written to them the great things of my Law: but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it: but the Lord accepteth them not: now will hee remember their iniquitie, and visite their sinnes: they shall returne to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his maker, and buildeth Temples, and Iudah hath increased strong cities: but I will send a fire vpon his cities, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

Of the hunger and captiuitie of Israel.

Reioyce not, O Israel for now, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God: thou hast loved a reward vpon every countenance.

2 The figge and the winepresse shall not feed them, and the new wine shall faile in her.

3 They will not dwell in the Lords land, but Ephraim will returne to Egypt, and they will eat vncleane things in Asshur.

4 They shall not offer wine to the Lord,

a For although all other people should escape, yet thou shalt be punished. b Thou hast committed idolatrie in hope of reward, and to haue thy barnes filled, Ier. 44. 17. as an harlot that had rather lye by playing the whore, then to be entertained of her owne husband. c These outward things that thou seekest, shall be taken from thee. d All their doings both touching policie and religion, shall be rejected as things polluted, neither shall their sacrifices be pleasant vnto him: but they shall bee vnto them as the bread of mourners: all that eate thereof, shall bee polluted: for their bread: for their soules shall not come into the house of the Lord.

5 What wilt thou doe? then in the solemn day, and in the day of the east of the Lord?

6 For loe, they are gone from a destruction: but Egypt shall gather them up, & Memphis shall burye them: the nettles shall possess the pleasant places of their silver, and the thorne shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of visitation are come: the dayes of recompense are come: Israel shall know it: the prophet is a false the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquitie: therefore the hatred is great.

8 The watchman of Ephraim should be with my God: but the prophet is the snare of a fouler in all his wayes, and hated in the house of his God.

9 They are deeply set: they are corrupt as in the dayes of Gibeah: therefore hee will remember their iniquitie, he will visite their sinnes.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness: I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the figgetre at her first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves vnto that shame, and their abominations were according to their louers.

11 Ephraim their glory shall flee away like a bird: from the bery and from the wombe, and from conception.

12 Though they bring by their children, yet I will depine them from being men: yea, woe to them, when I depart from them.

13 Ephraim, as I sawe, is as a tree in Cyprus planted in a cottage: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 O Lord, giue them: what wilt thou giue them? giue them a barren wombe and drie breaste.

15 All their wickednes is in Gilgal: for there doe I hate them: for the wickednes of their inventions, I will cast them out of mine house: I will loue them no more: all their princes are rebels.

16 Ephraim is limittin, their roote is dried up: they can bring no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay euen the dearest of their body.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not obey him: and they shall wander among the nations.

louers the idoles. n Signifying, that God would destroy their children by these sundry meanes, and so consume them by little and little. o As they kept tender plants in their houses in Tyrus, to preserve them from the colde ayre of the Sea, so was Ephraim at the first vnto me, but now will I giue him to the slaughter. p The Prophet seeing the great plagues of God toward Ephraim, prayeth to God to make them barren rather then that this great slaughter should come vpon their children. q The chiefe cause of their destruction is, that they commit idolatrie, and corrupt my religion in Gilgal.

Israel is an empty vine, yet hath it brought forth fruit vnto it selfe, and according to the multitude of the fruit thereof he hath increased the Altars: according to the goodnesse of their land they haue made faire images.
2 Their heart is diuised: now shall they be found faultie: he shall breake downe their Altars: he shall destroy their images.
3 For now they shall say, We haue no King because we feared not the Lord: and what should a King doe to vs?
4 They haue plowed wordes, swearing faithfully in making a covenant: thus iudgement groweth as wormewood in the furrowes of the field.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy munitions shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-el in the day of battell: the mother with the children was dashed in pieces.

g As for Ephraim, hee is more like the wicked Canaanites then godly Abraham or Iakob.

h Thus the wicked measure Gods fauour by outward prosperitie, and like hypocrites cannot abide that any should reprobous their doings.

i Seeing thou wilt not acknowledge my benefits, I will bring thee againe to dwell in tents as in the feast of Tabernacles, which thou dost now con-temne. k The people thought that no man durst haue spoken against Gilead that holy place, and yet the Prophet saith, that all their religion was but vanitie. l If you boast of your riches and nobilitie, yee seeme to reproch your father who was a poore fugitive and seruant. m Meaning Moses. whereby appeareth, that whatsoeuer they haue, it cometh of Gods free goodnesse.

3 He tooke his brother by the heele in the wombe, and by his strength hee had a power with God.

4 And had a power ouer the Angel, and prevailed: hee wept and prayed vnto him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with vs.

5 Pea, the Lord God of hostes, the Lord is himselfe his memoriall.

6 Therefore turne thou to thy God: keepe mercy and iudgement, and hope still in thy God.

7 Hee is a Canaan: the balances of deceit are in his hand, he loatheth to oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, notwithstanding I am rich, I haue found me out riches in all my labours: they shall find none iniquitie in me, but that were wickednesse.

9 Though I am the Lord thy God from the land of Egypt, yet will I make thee to dwell in the tabernacles, as in the dayes of the solemne feast.

10 I haue also spoken by the Prophets, and I haue multiplied visions, and used similitudes by the ministry of the Prophets.

11 Is there iniquitie in Gilead? surely they are vanitie: they sacrifice bullockes in Gilead, and their altars are as heapes in the furrowes of the field.

12 And Iakob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel serned for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheepe.

13 And by a Prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a Prophet was hee rescued.

14 But Ephraim provoked him with his places, therefore shall his blood be poured vpon him, and his reproch shall his Lord re-ward him.

4 Yet I am the Lord thy God: from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no God but me: for there is no Saviour beside mee.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of drought.

6 As in their pastures, so were they filled: they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore haue they forgotten mee.

7 And I will be vnto them as a very lyon, and as a leopard in the way of Ashur.

9 O Israel, one hath destroyed thee, but in me is thine helpe.

10 I am: where is thy king that should helpe thee in all thy cities: and thy Iudges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king, and Princes?

11 I gaue thee a king in mine anger, and I tooke him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquitie of Ephraim is bound vpon his sinne is hid.

13 The sorowes of a trauailing woman shall come vpon him: he is an vnwise sonne, else would hee not stand still at the time, when at the breakeing forth of the children.

14 I will redeeme them from the power of the graue: I will deliuer them from death: O death I will be thy death: O graue, I will be thy destruction: repentance is hid from mine eyes.

1 The destruction of Samaria. 2 He exhorteth Israel to turne to God, who requirerh prayse and thanks.

Samaria shall be desolate: for the hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ript.

2 O Israel, returne vnto the Lord thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquitie.

3 Take vnto you wordes, and turne to the Lord, and say vnto him, Take away all iniquitie, and receive vs graciously: so will we render the values of our lips.

4 Ashur shall not saue vs: neither will wee ride vpon horses: neither will we say, Wee ride vpon horses: neither will we say, Wee are them: how they our gods: for in thee the fatherlesse findeth mercy.

5 I will heale their rebellion: I will loue them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

6 I will be as the death vnto Israel: faithfull shall grow as the thistle, and fatten his seed, and prayse, Hebr. 13. 5. d We will leaue off all vaine confidence & pride. e He declareth how ready God is to receiue them that doe repent.

Hee callech them to repentance, and repro- ueth their ingrati- tude. f Thy destructi- on is certain, and my benefits to- ward thee declare that it cometh not of me: there- fore thine owne malice, idolatry and vaine confi- dence in men must needs bee the cause thereof. g I am alone, Iames 1. 17. h It is surely laid vpon thee to be puni- shed, as Ier. 17. 12. i But would come out of the wombe, that is out of this dan- ger, wherein he is, and not tary to be stifled. k Meaning, that no power shall resist God when he will deliuer his, but euen in death will hee giue them life. l Because they will not turne to me, I will not change my pur- pose.

7 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

8 They that dwell vnder his shadow shall returne: they shall reuiue as the corne, and flourish as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

9 Ephraim shall say, What haue I to doe any more with idoles? I haue heard him, and looked vpon him: I am like a greene fiere tree: vpon mee is thy fruite found.

10 What is wise, and hee shall vnderstand these things: and prudent, and he shall know them: for the waies of the Lord are righteous, and the iust shall walke in them: but the wicked shall fall therein.

g God sheweth how prompt he is to heare his, whe they repent, and to offer himself as a protection and safeguard vnto them, as a most sufficient fruit and profit. h Signifying, that the true wisdom and knowledge consisteth in this, euen to rest vpon God.

Ioel.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Prophet Ioel first rebuketh them of Iudah, that being now punished with a great plague of famine, remaine still obstinate. Secondly, he threatneth greater plagues, because they grew dillie to a more hardnesse of heart, & rebellion against God, notwithstanding his punishments. Thirdly, he exhorteth them to repentance, shewing that it must be earnest, and proceed from the heart, because they had grievously offended God. And so doing, he promisseth that God will be merciful, and not forget his covenent that he made with their fathers: but will send his Christ, who shall gather the scattered sheepe, and restore them to life and libertie, though they seemed to be dead.

CHAP. I.

1 A prophesie against the Iewes. 2 He exhorteth the people to prayer and fasting, for the miserie that was at hand.

The word of the Lord that came to Ioel the sonne of Bethuel.

2 Heare ye this, O Elders, and hearken ye all inhabitants of the land, whether such a thing hath bene in your dayes, or yet in the dayes of your fathers.

3 Tell you your children of it, and let your children shew to their children, and their children to another generation.

4 That which is left of the palmer worne, hath the grasshopper eaten, and the residue of the grasshopper hath the canker worne eaten, and the residue of the canker worne hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake ye drunkards, and weepe and howle all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine: for it shall bee pulled from your mouth.

6 Pea, a nation commeth vpon my land, mighty, and without number, whose teeth are like the teeth of a lion, and he hath the iawes of a great lion.

7 He maketh my vine waste, and pulleth off the barke of my figge tree: hee maketh it bare, and casteth it downe, the branches thereof are made white.

8 Mourne like a virginie girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meate offering, and the drinke offering is cutt off from the house of the Lord: the priests the Lords ministers mourne.

10 The field is wasted: the land mourneth: for the corne is destroyed: the new wine is dried vp, and the oyle is decayed.

11 Bee ye ashamed, O husbandmen: howle, O vine dressers, for the wheat, and for the barley, because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried vp, and the fig tree is decayed: the pomegranate tree, and the palme tree, and the apple tree, euen all the trees of the field are withered: surely the joy is withered away from the sonnes of men.

13 Gird your selues and lament, ye priests, howle ye ministers of the altar: come, and lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meate offering and the drinke offering is taken away from the house of your God.

14 Sanctifie you a fast: call a solemne assembly: gather the Elders, and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the Lord your God, and cry vnto the Lord,

15 Alas for the day, for the day of the Lord is at hand, and it cometh as a destruction from the Almighty.

16 Is not the meate cutt off before our eyes? and loy, and gladnesse from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten vnder their clothes: the garners are destroyed: the barnes are broken downe, for the corne is withered.

18 How did the beasts mourne? the herds of cattell pine away, because they haue no pasture, and the flocks of sheepe are destroyed.

19 O Lord, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath deuoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burnt vp all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also vnto thee: for the riuers of waters are dried vp, and the fire hath deuoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAP. II.

Hee prophesieth of the coming and crueltie of their enemies. 13 An exhortation to moue them to conuert. 18 The loue of God toward his people.

Blow the trumpet in Zion, and mount in mine holy mount: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord is come: for it is at hand.

2 A day of darknesse, and of blacknesse, a day of cloudes, and obscuritie, as the morning spread vpon the mountaines, so is there a great people, and a mightie: there was none like it from the beginning, neither shall be any more after it, vnto the peres of many generations.

h He sheweth that the onely meanes to auoid Gods wrath, and to haue all things restored, is vnfained repentance.

i We see by these great plagues that utter destruction is at hand, k That is, drought.

a Hee sheweth the great iudgements of God which are at hand, except they repent. b Of affliction and trouble. c Meaning, the Assyrians.

a Signifying, the Princes, the Priests, and the gouernours.

b He calleth the Jewes to the consideration of Gods iudgments who had now plagued the fruits of the ground for the space of foure yerres, which was for their sinnes, and to call them to repentance.

c Meaning, that the occasion of their excesse and drunkennesse was taken away. d This was another plague wherewith God had punished them, when hee stirred vp the Assyrians against them.

e Mourne grieuouly as a woman which hath lost her husband.

f The tokens of Gods wrath did appeare in his Temple, in so much as Gods seruice was left off, g All comfort and substance for nourishment is taken away.

d The enemy destroyeth our plentiful country, wherefoever he cometh.

e They shalbe pale and blacke for feare, as Num. 2. 10.

f For none shall be able to resist them.

g Reade verses 2. 3. and isa. 13. 10. ezek. 32. 7. chap. 3. 5. mat. 24. 29.

Jer. 30. 7. amos 5. 18. zeph. 1. 5.

i Mortifie your affections and serue God with purenes of heart, and not with ceremonies.

k He speaketh this to stirre vp their slothfulness, and not that hee doubted of Gods mercies, if they did repent.

How God repenteth, reade Iere. 18. 8.

l That as al haue sinned, so al may shew forth signes of their repentance, that men seeing the children which are not free of Gods wrath, might be the more lively touched with the consideration of their owne sins.

Psal. 79. 10.

m If they repent, hee sheweth that God will preferre and defend them with a most ardent affection.

n That is, the Assyrians your enemies.

3 A fire denoureth before him, and behind him a flame burneth vp: the land is as the garden of Eden before him, & behind him a desolate wilderness, so that nothing shall escape him.

4 The beholding of him is like the sight of horses, & like the horsemen, so that they run.

5 Like the noise of charres in the toppes of the mountaines shall they leape, like the noise of a flame of fire that denoureth the stubble, and as a mighty people prepared to the battell.

6 Before his face shall the people tremble: all faces shall gather blackenies.

7 They shall runne like strong men, and goe vp to the wall like men of warre, and every man shall goe forward in his wayes, and they shall not stay in their paths.

8 Neither shall one thrust another, but every one shall walke in his path: and when they fall vpon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall runne to and fro in the city: they shall runne vpon the wall: they shall clime vp vpon the houses, and enter in at the windowes like the thiefe.

10 The earth shall tremble before him, the heauens shall shake, the sunne and the moone shall bee darke, and the starres shall withdraw their shining.

11 And the Lord shall utter his voice before his hoste: for his hoste is very great: for he is strong that doeth his word: for the day of the Lord is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now the Lord sayeth, Turne you vnto me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13 And I rent your heart, and not your clothes: and turne vnto the Lord your God, for he is gracious and mercifull, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the will.

14 Who knoweth, if he will returne and repent and leaue a blessing behind him, even an meate offering, and a drinke offering vnto the Lord your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast, call a solenne assembly.

16 Gather the people: sanctifie the Congregation, gather the Elders: assemble the children, and those that sucke the breasts: let the bridegrome go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her bryde chamber.

17 Let the Priests be the ministers of the Lord wepe betweene the porch and the Altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O Lord, and giue not thine heritage into reproch, that the heathen should rule ouer them. Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will the Lord be zealous ouer his land, and spare his people.

19 Woe, the Lord will answere and say vnto his people, Behold, I will send you come, and wine, and oyle, and you shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproch among the heathen.

20 But I will remove farre off from you the Northern armie, and I will drine him into a land, barren and desolate, with his face toward the East sea, and his ende to the vniuersall sea, and his stinke shall come vp, and his corruption shall ascend, because he hath exalted himselfe to doe this.

21 Feare not, O land, but be glad and reioyce: for the Lord will doe great thyngs.

22 Bee not afraid yet beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness are greene: for the tree beareth her fruit: the figge tree and the vine doe giue their force.

23 We glad then ye children of Zion, and reioyce in the Lord your God: for hee hath giuen you the raine of righteousness, and he will cause to come downe for you the rain, as was wont to bee sent when the first raine, and the latter raine in the first moneth.

24 And the barnes shall be full of wheate and the presses shall abound with wine and oyle.

25 And I will render you the yeeres that the grasshopper hath eaten, the canker worme, and the caterpillar, and the palmer worme, my great hoste which I sent among you.

26 So you shall eate and bee satisfied, and prayse the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt maruclously with you: and my people shall neuer be ashamed.

27 Vee shall also know that I am in the mids of Irael, and that I am the Lord your God, and none other, and my people shall neuer be ashamed.

28 And afterward will I poure out my Spirit vpon all flesh: and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie: your old men shall dreame dreames, and your young men shall see visions.

29 And also vpon the seruants, and vpon the maydes in those dayes will I poure my Spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the hea- uens and in the earth: blood and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sunne shall be turned into darkness, and the moone into blood, before the great and terrible day of the Lord come.

32 But whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saued: for in mount Zion and in Ierusalem shall be deliuerance, as the Lord hath said, and in the remnant, whom the Lord shall call.

CHAP. III.

Of the iudgement of God against the enemies of his people.

Behold, in these dayes, and in that time, when I shall bring againe the captiuitie of Iudah and Ierusalem,

I will also gather all nations, and will bring them downe into the valley of the Gentiles.

It appeareth that hee alludeth to the great victory of Iehoshaphat, when as God without mans helpe destroyed the enemies. 2o. Chro. 20. 26. also he hath respect to this word Iehoshaphat, which signifieth pleading, or iudgement, because God would iudge the enemies of his Church as he did there.

Leuit. 26. 4. deuter. 11. 12. q That is, in greater abundance, and more generally than in time past: and this was fulfilled vnder Christ, when as Gods Spirit vnder the Gospel was abundantly giuen to the Church, Ma. 4. 3. ades 2. 17. ioh. 7. 38. 39. r As they had visions & dreames in old times, so shall they now haue clearer reuelations. s He warneth the faithful what terrible things should come, to the intent they should not looke for continuall quietnesse in this world, and yet in all these troubles.

c That which the enemy gate for the sale of my people, he bestowed vpo harlots and drinke.
d Heraketh the cause of his Church in hand against the enemy, as though the injury were done to himselfe.
e Haue I done you wrong, that ye will render me the like?
f For afterward God would them by Nebuchadnezzar, & Alexander the great, for the loue he bare to his people, and thereby they were comforted as though the price had bene theirs.
g When I shall executemy iudgements against mine enemies, I will cause euery one to be ready and to prepare their weapons to destroy one another for my Church sake.

Ichohaphat, and will please with them there for my people, and for mine heritage Israel, whom they haue scattered among the nations, and parted my land.
3 And they haue cast lots for my people, & haue giuen the child for the harlot, & sold the girl for wine, that they might drinke.
4 Yea, and what haue you to doe with me, O Tyus and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, twisfy and speedily will I render your recompense vpon your head.
5 For ye haue taken my siluer and my gold, and haue caried into your temples my goodly and pleasant things.
6 The children also of Iudah and the children of Ierusalem haue you sold vnto the Grecians, that ye might send them farre from their border.
7 Beholde, I will raise them out of the place where ye haue sold them, and will render your reward vpon your owne head.
8 And I will sell your sonnes and your daughters into the bande of the children of Iudah, and they shall sell them to the Sabaeans, to a people farre off: for the Lorde hath spoken it.
9 Publisth this among the Gentiles: prepare warre, wake vp the mighty men: let all the men of warre draw neere: and come vp.
10 Breake your plowshares into swordes, and your sitches into speares: let the weakel say, I am strong.
11 Assemble your selues, and come all ye heathen, and gather your selues together round about: there shall the Lorde cast downe the mighty men.
12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come vnto the valley of Ichohaphat: for there will I sit to iudge all the beathen round about.

13 But in your sitches, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you downe, for the winepresse is full: yea, the wine-presses runne ouer, for their wickednesse is great.
14 Multitude, multitude, come into the valley of the thing: for the day of the Lorde is neere in the valley of the thing.
15 The lumme & moone shall be darkened, and the starres shall withdrow their light.
16 The Lorde also shall roare out of Zion, and utter his voyce from Ierusalem, and the heauens and the earth shall shake, but the Lorde will be the hope of his people: and the strength of the children of Israel.
17 So shall ye know that I am the Lorde your God dwelling in Zion, mine holy mountaine: then shall Ierusalem bee holy, and there shall no strangers go thorow her any more.
18 And in that day shall the mountaines drop downe new wine, and the hilles shall flow with milke, and all the riuers of Iudah shall run with water, and a fountaine shall come forth of the house of the Lorde, and shall water the valley of Shittim.
19 Egypt shall be waste, & Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the iniquities of the children of Iudah, because they haue shed innocent blood in their land.
20 But Iudah shall dwell for euer: and Ierusalem from generation to generation.
21 For I will cleanse their blood, that I haue not cleansed, and the Lorde will dwel in Zion.
enemies shall haue no part of this grace. n He had suffered his Church hitherto to lie in their filthinesse, but now he promisseth to cleanse them, and to make them pure vnto him, h Thus he shall encourage the enemies, when their wickednesse is full ripe, to destroy one another, which he calleth the valley of Gods iudgement.

i God assureth his against all coublers, when he destroyeth his enemies, his children shall be deliuered.
k The strangers shall no more destroy his church: which if they do, it is the people which by their finnes make the breach for the enemy.
l He promisseth to his Church abundance of graces, reade Ezekiel 47. 1. which should water and comfort the most barren places, Amos 9. 13.

Amos.

THE ARGUMENT.

Among many other Prophets that God raised vnto admonish the Israelites of his plagues for their wickednesse & idolatrie, he stirred vp Amos, who was an herdman or shepherd of a poore towne and gaue him both knowledge and constancie to reprove all estates and degrees, and to denounce Gods horrible iudgements against them, except they did in time repent: shewing them that if God spare not the other nations about them, who had liued as it were in ignorance of God in respect of them, but for their finnes will punish them, that they could looke for nothing, but an horrible destruction, except they turned to the Lorde by vniuersall repentance. And finally he comforteth the godly with hope of the comming of the Messiah, by whom they should haue perfect deliuerance and saluation.

AMOS, who was among the herdmen at Tekoa, which he saw vpon Israel in the dayes of Azariah king of Iudah, and in the dayes of Uzziah the sonne of a seah king of Israel, two yeres before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The Lorde shall roare from Zion, & utter his voyce from Ierusalem, and the dwelling places of the shepherds shall perish, and the toppes of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the Lorde, For that I have transgressions of Damascus, and for foule I will not turne to it, because they haue thirsted Gilad with thyring instruments of iron.
4 Therefore will I send a fire into the house of Dazael, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Ben-hadad.

the houſhold of Abraham.

5 I will breake alſo the barres of Da-maſcus, and cut off the inhabitant of Bhearh ahen: and him that holdeth the ſcepter out of Beth eden, and the people of Aſam ſhall goe into captiuitie vnto ^a Kir, ſaith the Lord.

6 Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſ-greſſions of Azzah, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe they ⁱ carried away priſo-ners the whole captiuitie to ſhut them vp in Edom.

7 Therefore will I ſend a fire vpon the walles of Azzah, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Aſhdod, & him that holdeth the ſcepter from Aſkelon, and turne mine hand to Ekron, and the remnant of the Philiftines ſhall periſh, ſaith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſ-greſſions of Tyus, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe they ſhut the whole cap-tiuitie in Edom, and haue not remembered the ^a brotherly covenant.

10 Therefore will I ſend a fire vpon the walles of Tyus, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus ſaith ^y Lord, For three tranſ-greſſions of Edom, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe he did perſeue his brother with the ſword, and did ^a caſt off all pitie, and his anger ſpotted him euermore, and his wrath watched him ^alway.

12 Therefore will I ſend a fire vpon ^e Moab, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſgreſſions of the children of Ammon, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe they ^m haue ript vp the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 Therefore will I kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces thereof, with ſhoutiug in the day of battell, and with a tempeſt in the day of the whirlwinde.

15 And their King ſhall goe into capti-uitie, hee and his pynces together, ſayth the Lord.

CHAP. II.

Against Moab, Iudah, and Iſrael.

Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſgreſſions of Moab, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe it burnt the ^a bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 Therefore wil I ſend a fire vpon Moab, & it ſhall deuoure the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab ſhall die with tumult, with ſhon-ting, and with the ſound of a trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the Iudge out of the mids thereof, and will ſlay all the Pynces thereof with him, ſaith the Lord.

4 ¶ Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſ-greſſions of Iudah, and for foure, ^b I will not turne to it, becauſe they haue caſt away the Law of the Lord, and haue not kept his commandements, and their lies cauſed them to erre after the which their fathers haue walked.

5 Therefore will I ſend a fire vpon Judah, and it ſhall deuoure the palaces of Jeruſalem.

6 ¶ Thus ſaith the Lord, For three tranſ-greſſions of Iſrael, and for foure, I will not turne to it, becauſe they ſolde the righteous for ſiluer, and the poore for ^a ſhoes.

7 They gaue ouer the head of the poore in the ^a duſt of the earth, and peruerſed the wayes of the necke: and a man and his father will goe in to a maid, to diſhonour mine holy Name.

8 And they lie downe vpon clothes layd to pledge: by euery altar: and they ^a drinke the wine of the condemned in the houſe of their God.

9 Yet deſtroyed I the ^b Amozite before them, whole height was like the height of the cedars, and he was ſtrong as the oakes:
notwithſtanding I deſtroyed his fruit from aboue, and his roote from beneath.

10 Alſo I brought you vp from the land of Egypt, and led you fourtie yeeres throug the wilderneſſe, to poſſeſſe the land of the A-mozite.

11 And I rayſed vp of your ſonnes for Prophets, and ⁱ of your yong men for Naz-arites. Is it not euen thus, O ye children of Iſrael, ſaith the Lord?

12 But yee gaue the Nazarites wine to drinke, and commanded the Prophets, laying, Propheſie not.

13 Beholds, I am ^k preſſed vnder you, as a cart is preſſed that is full of ſheaves.

15 For hee that handleth the bow, ſhall ſtand, and he that is ſwift of foote, ſhall not eſcape, neither ſhall he that rideth the horſe, ſaue his life.

16 And he that is of a mighty courage amongſt the ſtrong men, ſhall flee away naked in that day, ſaith the Lord.

a Can any thing come without Gods providence?
 b Shall his shewings be in vaine?
 c Shall the Prophets threaten Gods judgments, and the people not be afraid?
 d Doeth any adulterer come without Gods appointment?
 e Isa. 45 7
 f God dealeth not with the Israelites as hee doth with other people: for hee ever warneth them before of his plagues, by his Prophets.
 g Because the people ever murmured against the Prophets, he sheweth that Gods Spirit moved them so to speake as they did.
 h He calleth the strangers, as the Philistines and Egyptians to be witnesses of Gods judgments against the Israelites for their cruelty and oppression.

1 The fruit of their cruelty and these appeareth by their great riches which they have in their houses. m When the Lion hath satiate his hunger, the shepherd findeth a legge, or a tip of an eare, to shew that the sheepe have bene wored. n Whereby they thought to have had a sure bolde, and to have bene in safety.

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth where no fowler is? or will hee take up the snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?
 6 Or shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people bee not afraid? or shall there be euill in a city, and the Lord hath not done it?
 7 Surely the Lord God will doe nothing, but hee revealeth his secret unto his seruants the Prophets.
 8 The Lion hath roared: who will not be afraid? The Lord God hath spoken: who can but? yephelle?
 9 Proclaime in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble your selues upon the mountaines of Samaria: so behold the great tumults in the mids thereof, and the oppressed in the mids thereof.
 10 For they know not to doe right, saith the Lord: they rose up violence, and robbery in their palaces.
 11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, An adulterary shall come euen round about the countrey, and shall bring downe thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.
 12 Thus saith the Lord, As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the Lyon two legs, or a peece of an eare: so shal the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus, as in a couch.
 13 Heare and testifie in the house of Jaakob, saith the Lord, the God of holts.
 14 Surely in the day that I shal visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el, and the houses of the altar shalbe broken off, and fall to the ground.
 15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house, and the houses of yuorie shalbe perished, and the great houses shalbe consumed, saith the Lord.

1 Thus he calleth the princes and gournours, which being overwelmed with the great abundance of Gods benefits, forgot God, and therefore he calleth them by the name of beasts, and not of men.
 b They encourage such as haue authority ouer the people, to powle them, so that they may haue profit by it. c He alledeth to fishers which catch fish by hook and by line.

C H A P. IIII.
 Against the gournours of Samaria.

4 Come to Beth-el, and transgresse: to Gilgal, and multiply transgression, a bring your sacrifices in the morning, & your tithes after three yeeres.
 5 And offer a thanksgiving of leauen, publish and proclaime the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord God.
 6 And therefore haue I given you cleanliness of teeth in all your cities, and scarcenness of bread in all your places, yet haue ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.
 7 And also I haue withhelden the raine from you, when there were yet three moneths to the barne, and I caused it to raine upon one city, and haue not caused it to raine upon another city: one peece was rained upon, and the peece whereupon it rained not, withered.
 8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city to drinke water, but they were not satisfied: yet haue ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.
 9 I haue smitten you with blasting, and mildew: your great gardens and your vineyards, and your fig trees, a your olive trees did the palmer twome deuoure: yet haue ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.
 10 Defence haue I sent among you, after the manner of Egypt: your young men haue I slain with the sword, and haue taken away your horses: and I haue made the stinke of your tents to come up euen into your nostrils: yet haue ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.
 11 I haue overthowen you, as God overthrew Sodome and Gomorah: and ye were as a firebrand pluckt out of the burning, yet haue ye not returned unto me, saith the Lord.
 12 Therefore thus will I doe unto thee, O Israel: and because I will doe this unto thee, prepare to meete thy God, O Israel.
 13 For loe, hee that formeth the mountaines, and createth the winde, and declarreth unto man what is his thought: which maketh the morning darkenesse, and walketh upon the high places of the earth, the Lord God of holts is his Name.

C H A P. V.
 A lamentation for the captiuitie of Israel.
 H Care ye this word, which I lift up upon you, euen a lamentation of the house of Israel.
 2 The virgin Israel is fallen, and shall no more rise: shee is left upon her land, and there is none to raise her up.
 3 For thus saith the Lord God, The cite which went out by a thousand, shal leaue an hundred: and that which went forth by an hundred, shal leaue ten to the house of Israel.
 4 For thus saith the Lord unto the house of Israel, Take ye me, and ye shall liue.
 5 But seeke not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and goe not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shal goe into captiuitie, and Beth-el shal come to nought.
 6 Seeke the Lord, and ye shall liue, lest be d In stead of iudgement and equity, they execute cruelty and oppression.

e He describeth the power of God, Job 9. 9.

f They hate the Prophets, which reprove them in the open assemblies.

g Ye take both his money and also his foode wherewith he should liue.

h God will so plague them, that they shall not suffer the godly once to open their mouths to admonish them of their faults.

i So that all degrees shall haue matter of lamentation for the great plagues.

k Thus he speaketh because the wicked & hypocrites sayd they were content to abide Gods iudgements, whereas the godly tremble and feare, Iere. 30. 7. Ier. 2. 1. 1. zeph. 1. 15.

l Because yee haue corrupted my true seruice and remaine obstinate in your vices, Isa. 1. 11. Iere. 6. 10.

m Do your duty to God, and your neighbour and to ye shall feele his grace plentifully if you shew your abundant affections according to Gods word.

n That idole which you esteemed as your King, and carried about as you did Chibin, in the which images you thought that there was a certaine diuinitie.

breake out like fire in the house of Ioseph, and deuoure it, and there bee none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 They turne iudgement to wounding, & leaue off righteousness in the earth.

8 Wee makeh Pleiades, and Orion, and he turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and hee makeh the day darke as night: hee calleth the waters of the sea, and pouereth them out vpon the open earth: the Lord is his Name.

9 He strengtheneth the destroyer against the mightie: and the destroyer shall come against the fortress.

10 They haue hated him, that rebuked in the gate: and they abhorred him that spakeh vprightly.

11 Forasmuch then as your treading is vpon the poore, and ye take from him burdens of wheat, ye haue built houses of hewen stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: ye haue planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drinke wine of them.

12 For I knowe your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sinnes: they afflict the iust, they take rewards, and they oppress the poore in the gate.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keepe silence in that time, for it is an euill time.

14 Seeke God and not euill, that ye may liue: and the Lord God of hostes shalbe with you, as you haue spoken.

15 Hate the euill and loue the good, and establish iudgement in the gate: it may bee that the Lord God of hostes wil be mercifull vnto the remnant of Ioseph.

16 Therefore the Lord God of hostes, the Lord sayeth thus: Mourning shall bee in all streets, and they shall lay in all the high wayes, Alas, alas: and they shall call the husbandman to lamentation, and such as can moune, to mourning.

17 And in all the vines shall be lamentation: for I will passe thowow thee, sayeth the Lord.

18 Come vnto you, that desire the day of the Lord: what haue you to doe with it: the day of the Lord is darkenes and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a Lyon, and a beaue met him: or went into the house, and leane his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the Lord bee darkenes, and not light: euen darkenes and noliht in it?

21 Hate & abhorre your feast dayes, and I will not smel in your solenne assemblies.

22 Though you offer me burnt offerings and meate offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beastes.

23 Take thou away from me the multitude of thy songs: for I will not heare the melodie of thy viols.

24 And let iudgement ronne downe as waters, & righteousness as a mighty riuer.

25 Haue ye offered vnto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty yeres, O house of Israel?

26 But you haue borne Sicutu your king, & Chibin your images, and the stars of your gods, which ye made to your selues.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captiuitie beyond Damascus, saith the Lord, whose Name is the God of hostes.

CHAP. VI.

Against the princes of Israel liuing in pleasure.

Wrote to them that are at ease in Zion, a The Prophets threateth the maria, which were famous at the beginning of the nations: and the house of Israel came to them.

2 Goe you vnto Calneh, and see: and from thence goe you to Hamath the great: then goe downe to Gath of the Philistines: b These two cities, were famous by their first inhabitants the Canaanites: and seeing before time they did nothing: auaile them that were there borne, why should you looke that they should saue you: which were brought in to dwell in other mens possessions?

3 Ye that put farre away the euill day, and approach to the seate of iniquitie?

4 They lie vpon beds of purple, & stretch themselves vpon their beds, and eate the lambes of the flocke, and the calves out of the stall.

5 They sing to the sound of the viole: they inuent to themselves instruments of musicke like David.

6 They drinke wine in bowles, & anoint themselves with the chiefe ointments, but no man is sorry for the affliction of Ioseph.

7 Therefore now shall they goe captiue with the first that goe captiue, and the sorrow of them that stretched themselves, is at hand.

8 The Lord God hath sworne by himselfe, sayeth the Lord God of hostes, I abhorre the excellencie of Iacob, and hate in Babylon, Syria, and of the Philistines, and hath brought their wide borders into a great straitnesse, then your yee are, thinke you to be better, or to escape?

9 And if there remaine ten men in one house, they shall die.

10 And his uncle shall take him by and burne him to carry out the bones out of the house, and shall lay vnto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, None. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not remember the Name of the Lord.

11 For behold, the Lord commaundet, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 Shall houses runne vpon the rocke? plagues are not as will one plowe there with oxen? for ye haue thened iudgement into gall, and the tonnes and ryot: e As he caused diuers kinds of instruments to be made to serue Gods glory, so these did contend to inuent as many to serue their wanton affections and lustes. f They pitied not their brethren, whereof now many were slaine, & carried away captiue g Somewhere, the ioy of them that stretch themselves, shall depart. h Reade Ierem. 51. 14. i That is, the riches and pompe.

k The destruction shalbe so great, that none almost shall be left to bury the dead: and therefore they shall burne them at home, to carrie out the burnt ashes with more ease. l That is, some neighbour that dwelleth round about. m They shall be so astonished at this destruction, that they shall no more boast of the Name of Gods, and that they are his people: but they shall bee dumbe when they heare Gods Name, and abhorre it, as they that are desperate or reprobate. n He compareth them to barren rocks, whereupon it is in vaine to bestow labour: shewing that Gods benefits can haue no place among them.

CHAP. VII.

God sheweth certain visions, whereby he signifieth the destruction of the people of Israel. 10 The false accusation of Amaziah. 12 His craftie counsell.

a To devour the land, and he alludeth to the invading of the enemies.

b After the public-like commandment for mowing was given: or as some read, when the Kings sheep were shorn.

c That is, stayed this plague at my prayer.

d Meaning, that Gods indignation, was inflamed against the stubbornnesse of this people.

e Signifying that this should be the last measuring of the people, and that he would deferre his judgement no longer.

f That is, when Amos had prophesied that the Kings should be destroyed: for this wicked priest more for hatred he bare to the Prophet, then for love toward his King, thought this accusation sufficient to condemn him, whereas none other could take place.

g When this in- it is the Kings chappell, and it is the Kings strumet of Satan court.

h That was, to feare the Prophet, that he might depart, & not reprove there idolatry there openly, and so hinder his profit. h Thus he sheweth b. his extraordinary vocat on, that God had given him a charge which he must needs execute.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and behold, hee joyned a grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth: and loe, it was in the latter growth after the Kings mowing.

2 And when they had made an end of eating the grasse of the land, then I saide, O Lord God, spare, I beseech thee: who shall raise up Jaakob: for hee is small.

3 So the Lord repented for this. It shall not be, saith the Lord.

4 Thus also hath the Lord God shewed unto me, and behold, the Lord God called to judgement by fire: and it denonced the great deepe, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: who shall raise up Jaakob: for hee is small.

6 So the Lord repented for this. This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

7 Thus againe he shewed me, and behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by line: with a line in his hand.

8 And the Lord said unto mee, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a line in the middes of my people Israel, and will passe by them no more.

9 And the high places of Israel shall be desolate, and the Temples of Israel shall be destroyed: and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then Amaziah the Priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam King of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the middes of the house of Israel: the land is not able to beare all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall be led away captive out of their owne land.

12 Also Amaziah saide unto Amos, O thou the Seer, goe, flee thou away into the land of Iudah, and there eate thy bread and prophesie there.

13 But prophesie no more at Beth-el: for it is the Kings chappell, and it is the Kings strumet of Satan court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no Prophet, neither was I a Prophets sonne, but I was an herdsman, and a gatherer of wild figs.

other practise, that was, to feare the Prophet, that he might depart, & not reprove there idolatry there openly, and so hinder his profit. h Thus he sheweth b. his extraordinary vocat on, that God had given him a charge which he must needs execute.

15 And the Lord took me as I followed the flocke, and the Lord saide unto me, Goe, prophesie unto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore heare thou the word of the Lord. Thou saiest, prophesie not against Israel, and spake nothing against the house of Israel.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Thy wife shall be an harlot in the citie, and thy sonnes and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by fire: and thou shalt die in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely goe into captivity for ever out of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Against the rulers of Israel. 7 The Lord sweareth. 11 The famine of the word of God.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto mee, and behold, a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, a basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel, I will passe by them no more.

3 And the songs of the Temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: many dead bodies shall be in every place: they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Heare this, O ye that swallow up the poore, that yee may make the needie of the land to faile.

5 Saying, When wil the new moneth be gone, that we may sel come, and the Sabbath, that we may set forth wyente, & make the Ephraim small, and the Bethel great, and falsifie the weights by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poore for silver, and the needie for shoes: yea, and sell the refuse of the wheate.

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellencie of Jaakob, Surely I will never forget any of their workes.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this? and every one mourne, that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood, and it shall be cast out, and drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And in that day, saith the Lord God, I will even cause the Sonne to goe downe at noon: and I will darken the earth in the cleare day.

10 And I will turne your feastes into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation: and I will bring sackcloth upon all loynes, and baldnesse upon every head: and I will make it as the mourning of an onely sonne, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the word of the Lord.

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the North even unto the East shall they run to and fro to seeke the word of the Lord, and shall not finde it.

13 In that day shall the faire virgins and they shall not onely perish in body, but also in soule for lacke of Gods word, which is the fode thereof.

i Thus God vfed to approve the authoritie of his Prophets by his plagues & iudgements against the which were malicious enemies, Jer. 28, 12. & 29, 21, 25. at this day he doth against them that persecute the minister of his Gospel.

a Which signified the ripenesse of their finnes, & the readinesse of Gods iudgments, b There shall be none left to mourne for them.

c By slaying the sale of foodes, and necessary things which you have gotten into your own hands, & so cause the poore to spend quickly that little that they have, and at length for necessity to become your slaves.

d When the deare was once come, they were so greedie of gain, that they thought the holy day to be an hindrance vnto them.

e That is, the measure small, and the price great.

f That is, the inhabitants of the land shall be drowned, as Nilus downeth many when it overfloweth.

2 Though they dig into the hell, thence ſhall mine hand take them: though they climb vp to beauen, thence will I hang them downe.

3 And though they hide themſelues in the toppes of Carmel, I will ſearch and take them out thence: and though they be hidde from my ſight in the bottome of the Sea, thence will I command the ſerpent, and he ſhall bite them.

4 And though they goe into captivity be- fore their enemies, thence will I command the ſword, and it ſhall ſlay them: and I will ſet mine eyes vpon them for euill, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hoſts ſhall touch the land, and it ſhall melt away, and all that dwell therein ſhall moue, and it ſhall riſe vp wholly like a flood, and ſhall be drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 He buildeth his ſpheres in the heauen, and hath layd the foundation of his globe of elements in the earth: hee calleth the waters of the Sea, and powreth them out vpon the open earth: the Lord is his Name.

7 Are yet not as the Ethiopians vnto me? yet haue I beſtowed vpon you greater benefities, O children of Iſrael, ſayeth the Lord: haue not I brought vp Iſrael out of the land of Egypt: and the Philiftines from Caphtor, and Aram from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are vpon the ſinfull kingdome, and I will deſtroy it cleane out of the earth. g Though he de- ſtroy the houſe of Iſrael, yet he will euer reſtore the remnant his Church to call vpon his Name.

9 For loe, I will command, and I will liſt the houſe of Iſrael among all nations, like as corne is liſted in a ſieue: yet ſhall not the leaſt ſtone fall vpon the earth.

10 But all the ſinners of my people ſhall die by the ſword, which ſay, The euill ſhall not come, nor haſten for vs.

11 In that day will I riſe up the i tabernacle of David, that is fallen downe, and cloſe vp the breaches thereof, and I will riſe vp his ruines, and I will build it, as in the dayes of old.

12 That they may poſſeſſe the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, becauſe my Name is called vpon them, ſayeth the Lord, that doeth this,

12 Beholde, the dayes come, ſayeth the Lord, that the plowman ſhall touch the mow, and the treader of grapes him that ſoweth ſeede: and the mountaines ſhall drop ſweete wine, and all the hills ſhall melt.

14 And I will bring againe the captivity of my people of Iſrael: and they ſhall build the waite cities and inhabit them, and they ſhall plant vineyards, and drinke the wine thereof, they ſhall alſo make gardens, and eat the fruits of them.

15 And I will plant them vpon their land, and they ſhall no more bee pulled vp againe out of their land, which I haue giuen them, ſaith the Lord thy God.

and euery one in courſe, Leu. 26. 5. m Reade Ioel 3. 18. n The accompliſhment hereof is vnder Chriſt, when they are planted in his Church, out of the which they can neuer bee pulled, after they are once grafted therein.

Obadiah.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Idumeans which came of Eſau, were mortall enemies alwayes to the Iſraelites, which came of Iaakob: and therefore did not onely vex them continually with ſundry kinds of cruelty, but alſo ſtirred vp other to fight againſt them. Therefore when they were now in their greateſt proſperitie, and did moſt triumph againſt Iſrael, which was in great affliction and miſerie, God raiſed vp his Prophet to comfort the Iſraelites, ſo farre as God had now determined to deſtroy their aduerſaries, which did ſo ſore vex them, and to ſend them ſuch as ſhould deliuer them, and ſet vp the Kingdome of Meſſiah, which he had promiſed.

Obidiſon of Obadiah. Thus ſayeth the Lord God againſt Edom. Alce haue heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambaffadour is ſent among the heathen: ariſe, and let vs riſe vp againſt her to battell.

2 Beholde, I haue made thee ſmall among the heathen: thou art utterly deſpiſed.

a God hath certainly reuealed to his Prophets that bee will riſe vp the heathen to deſtroy the Edomites, whereof the rumour is now publiſhed, Ier. 49. 14. b Thus the heathen encourage themſelues to riſe againſt Edom.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceiued thee: thou that dwelleſt in the clefts of the rockes, whoſe habitation is ſie, that ſaith in his heart, No ſhall bring me downe to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thy ſelfe as the eagle, and make thy neſt among the ſtars, thence will I bring thee downe, ſaith the Lord.

5 Came theeſt to thee o robbers by world. d God wil ſo deſtroy them that he wil leave none though theeues when they come, take but till they haue enough, and they that gather grapes, euer leaue ſome behinde them, Ierem. 49. 9.

c Which deſpiteſt all others in reſpect of thy ſelfe, and yet are but an handful in com- pariſon of others, and art but vp among the hills as ſeparate from the reſt of the night? how wast thou brought to silence? would they not haue stollen, till they had enough? if the grape gatherers came to thee, would they not haue some grapes?

6 How are the things of Elau sought by, and his creatures searched?

7 All the men of thy confederacie haue drunken thee to the borders: the men that were at peace with thee, haue decuded thee, and persecuted against thee: they that ate thy bread, haue laid a wound under thee: there is none vnderstanding in him.

8 Shall not I in that day, saith the Lord, euen destroy the wise men out of Edom, and vnderstanding from the mount of Elau?

9 And thy strong men, O Teman, shall be afraid, because every one of the mount of Elau shall be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy crueltie against thy brother Iacob, shame shall couer thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 When thou standest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away his substance, and strangers entered into his gates, and cast lot: vpon Ierusalem, euen thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldst not haue beholde the day of thy brother, in the day that he was made a stranger, neither shouldst thou haue reioyced ouer the children of Iudah, in the day of their destruction: thou shouldst not haue spoken proudly in the day of affliction.

13 Thou shouldst not haue entered into the gate of my people in the day of their destruction, neither shouldst thou haue once looked on their affliction in the day of their destruction, nor haue laid hands on their substance in the day of their destruction.

14 Neither shouldst thou haue stood in the gate of my people in the day of their destruction, whereas thou shouldst haue pitied and holpen thy brother.

15 When the Lord depriued them of their former dignitie, and gaue them to be carried into captiuitie.

the crosse-way to cut off them, that should escape, neither shouldst thou haue shutt by the remnant thereof in the day of affliction.

15 For the day of the Lord is nere vpon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done to thee: thy reward shall returne vpon thine head.

16 For as ye haue drunke vpon mine holy mountaine, so shall all the heathen drinke continually: yea, they shall drinke and swallow by, and they shall bee as though they had not bene.

17 But vpon mount Zion shall be deliuerance, and it shall be holy, and the house of Iacob shall possesse their possessions.

18 And the house of Iacob shall bee a fire, and the house of Ioseph a flame, and the house of Elau as stubble, and they shall kinde in them, and deuoure them: and there shall be no remnant of the house of Elau: for the Lord hath spoken it.

19 And they shall possesse the South side of the mount of Elau, and the plaine of the Chanaanites: and they shall possesse the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin shall haue Gilad.

20 And the captiuitie of this hoste of the children of Israel, which were among the Chanaanites, shall possesse vnto Zarephath, and the captiuitie of Ierusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possesse the cities of the South.

21 And they that shall saue, shall come by to mount Zion to iudge the mount of Elau, and the Kingdome shall be the Lordes.

vnder Christ, when as the faithfull are made heires and lords of all things by him which is their head. p By the Chanaanites the Iewes meane the Dutch men, and by Zarephath, France, and by Sepharad, Spaine. q Meaning, that God will raise vp in his Church such as shall rule and gouerne for the defence of the same, and destruction of his enemies vnder Messiah, whom the Prophet calleth here the Lord and head of this Kingdome.

k When he will summon all the heathen, and send them to destroy thee.

l That is, reioyced and triumphed.

m The Edomites shall be utterly destroyed, and yet in despite of all the enemies, I will reuerse my Church, and restore it.

n God attributeth this power to consume his enemies to his Church, which power is onely proper to himselfe.

o He describeth how the Church shall be enlarged and haue great possessions, but this chiefly is accomplished

Jonah.

THE ARGUMENT.

WHEN Jonah had long prophesied in Israel, and had little profited, God gaue him expresse charge to goe and denounce his iudgements against Nineueh the chiefe citie of the Assyrians, because hee had appointed, that they which were of the heathen, should conuert by the mightie power of his word, and that within three dayes, reaching, that Israel might see how horribly they had prouoked Gods wrath, which for the space of so many yeeres, had not conuerted to the Lord for so many Prophets, and so diligent preaching. Hee prophesied vnder Iosiah and Ieroboam, as 2. Kings 14. 25.

CHAP. I.

3 Jonah fled when he was sent to preach. 4 A tempest arose, and he was cast into the sea for his disobedience.

5 The word of the Lord came also unto Jonah the sonne of Amittai, saying,

2 Art thou, and goe to Nineueh for a time hee had prophesied in Iudah hee had visions in Babylon, Ezk. 1. 1. b For seeing the great disobedience of the Israelites, he sent this Prophet to the Gentiles, that they might prouoke them to repentance, or at least make them inexcusable, for Nineueh was the chiefe citie of the Assyrians.

that great citie, and cry against it: for their wickednesse is come vp before me.

3 But Jonah rose by to flee into Tarshish from the presence of the Lord, and went downe to Tapho: and hee found a forty mile, and shipped going to Tarshish: so hee payed the had a thousand and five hundred towers, and at that time there were an hundred and twenty thousand children therein, Chap. 4. 11. d Whereby hee declareth his weaknesse, that would not promptly follow the Lords calling, but goe place to his owne reason, which perswaded him that he should nothing at all profit there, seeing he had done so small good among his owne people, Chap. 4. 2. e Which was the haven and port to the shipping thither, called also Ioppe.

euery man turne from his euill way, and from the wickednes that is in their hands.

2 Who can tell if God will turne, and repent & turne away from his fierce wrath, that we perish not?

10 And God sawe their^h workes, that they turned from their evil wayes; and God repented of the euill that he had said, that he would doe unto them; and he did it not.

their repentance, which did proceed of faith, which was wrought by the ministry of his Prophet. i Reade Ier.

CHAP. III.

The great goodnesse of God toward his creatures.

for my glory, a

Therfore it displeased ^a Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.

2 And he prayed vnto the Lord, and said, I pray thee, O Lord, was not this my fault, when I was yet in my country? therefore I presented it to flee vnto ^b Earthly: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and mercifull, slow to anger, and of great kindnesse, and repentest thee of the euill.

3 Therefore now, O Lord, take, I beseech thee, my life & from me; for it is better for me to die then to live.

4 Then said the Lord, Dost thou well to be ^d angry?

ough hee sent his Prophets forth to denounce his

5 So Iſonah went out of the citie, and ſate on the eaſt ſide of the citie, and there made him a booth, and ſate under it in the ſhadowe till hee might ſee what ſhould bee done in the citie.

6 And the Lord God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might bee a shadow over his head, and deliver him from his griefe. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worme when the morning rose the next day : and it smote the ground that it withered.

8 And when the Sunnedid arise, God prepared also a feruent East winde: and the Sunne beat vpon the head of Ionah, that hee fainted, and wished in his heart to die: and said, It is better for me to die then to liue.

9 And God said vnto Jonah, Doeſt thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he ſaid, I doe well to be angry vnto the death.

10 Then said the Lord, Thou halt had pittie on the gourd for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it growe which came up in a night, and perished in a night.

11 And should^b not I spare Nineveh the great citie, wherein are fixe score thousand persons, that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and also much cattell?

h Thus God mercifully reproveth him which would pittie himselfe and this gourd, and yet would restraine God to shew his compassion to so many thousand people. i Meaning, that they were children and infants.

e For he doubted as yet whether God would shew them mercie or no: and therefore after forty dayes, he departed out of the citie, looking what issue God should send.

THE ARGUMENT.

Micah the Prophet of the tribe of Iudah, serued in the worke of the Lord, concerning Iudah and Israel, at the least thirtie yeeres, at what time Isaiah prophesied. He declareth the destruction, first of the one kingdome and then of the other, because of their manifold wickednes, but chiefly for their idolatry. And to this end he noteth the wickednes of the people, the crueltie of the princes and gouernours, and the permission of the faile prophets, and the delighting in them. Then he seereth forth the coming of Christ, his kingdome and the felicitie therof. This Prophet was not that Micah, which resisted Ahab and all his false Prophets, as 1. King. 22. 8, but another of the same name.

CHAP. I.

■ The destruction of Judah and Israel because of their idolatry

TH Word of the Lord, that came vnto Micah the Berashite in the dayes of Iotham, Ahas, and Hezekiah Kings of Iudah, which he saue concerning Samaria, and Ierusalem

4 And the mountaines shall melt vnder him (so shall the valleys cleaue) as ware before the fire, and as the waters that are powered downeward.

5 For the wickednesse of Iacob is all this, and for the finnes of the house of Israel: what is the wickednesse of Iacob? Is not ^d Samaria? and which are the high ^e places of Iudah? is not Ierusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heape of the fildes, and for the planting of a vineyard, and I will cause the stones thereof to tumble downe into the balley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

g The gaine that came by their idols, shalbe consumed as a thing of nought: for as the wages or riches of harlots are wickedly gotten, so ate they wisely and speedily spent. h Left the Philistims our enemies reioyce at our destruction. i Which was a citie nere to Ierusalem, Josh. 18. 23, there called Ophrah, & signifieth dust: therefore he willecth them to mourne, and roule themselves in the dust for their dustie citie.

k These were cities whereby the enemy should passe as he came to Iudah.

l Hee shall not depart before he hath overcome you, and so you shall pay for his raryng.

m For Rabshakeh had shut vp Ierusalem that they could not send to succour them. n To flee away: for Saneherib layd siege first to that citie, and remained therein when he sent his capitaines and armie against Ierusalem. o Thon first receuedst the idolatrie of Ieroboam, and so diddest infect Ierusalem. p Thou shalt bribe the Philistims thy neighbours, but they shall deceiue thee, as well as they of Ierusalem. q He prophesieth against his owne citie, and because it signified an heritage, hee sayeth that God would lend an heire to possesse it. r For so they thought themselves for the strength of their citie.

burnt with the fire, and all the tooles thereof, will I destroy: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall returne to the wages of an harlot.

8 Therefore will I mourne and howle: I will goe without clothes, and naked: I will make lamentation like the dragons, and mourning as the olitriches.

9 For her plagues are grievous: for it is come into Iudah: the enemy is come vnto the gate of my people, vnto Ierusalem.

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, neither weep ye: for the house of Ephraim roule they selfe in the dust.

11 Thou that dwellest at Shaphir, goe together naked with shame: see that dwelleth at Samman, shall not come forth in the mourning of Beth-zel: the enemy shall receiue of you for his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited for good, but enill came from the Lord vnto the gate of Ierusalem.

13 Thou inhabitant of Lachish, binde the charer to the beastes of price: she is the beginning of the sinne to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou giue presents to Moresheth: Gath is the houses of Achizib shall be as a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heire vnto thee, O inhabitant of Marothah, hee shall come vnto Aullam, the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee balde: and shauce thee for thy delicate children: enlarge thy balnesse as the eagle: for they are gone into captivity from thee.

7 Therefore thou shalt haue none that shall call a cord by lot, in the congregation of the Lord.

6 They that prophesied, Prophecie ye not. They shall not prophesie to them, neither shall they take thame.

7 Thou that art named the house of Jaakob, is the spirit of the Lord shortned: are these his workers? are not my wordes good vnto him? that walketh by night?

8 But hee that was yesterday my people, is risen by on the other side, as against an enemy: they spoile the beautiful garment from them that passe by peaceably, as though they returned from the warre.

9 The women of my people haue ye cast out from their pleasant houses, and from their children haue ye taken away my glory continually.

10 Arise and depart, for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a loze destruction.

11 If a man walke in the Spirit, and would lie falsely, saying, I will prophesie vnto thee of wine, and of strong drinke, hee shall euen be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely gather thee together, O Jaakob: I will surely gather the remnant of Israel: I will put them together as the sheepe of Bozrah, euen as the flocke in the mids of their fold: the cities shall be full of bruit of the men.

13 The breaker vp shall come by before them: they shall breake out and passe by the gate, and goe out by it, and their king shall goe before them, and the Lord shall be vpon their heads.

k That is, their substance and living, which is Gods blessing, and as it were part of his glory. l Ierusalem shall not be your safeguard, but the cause of your destruction. m That is, shew himselfe to be a Prophet. n He sheweth what Prophets they delight in: that is, in flatterers, which tell them pleasant tales, and speake of their commodities. o To destroy thee. p The enemy shall breake their gates and walles, and leade them into Caldea. q To drue them forward, and so helpe their enemies.

CHAP. III.

1 Against the tyrannie of princes and false prophets.

And I sayd, Heare, I pray you, O heads of Jaakob, and ye princes of the house of Israel: Should not ye know iudgement?

2 But they hate the good: and loue the euill: they plucke off their skins from them, and their flesh from their bones.

3 And they eate also the flesh of my people, and slay off their skinne from them, and they breake their bones, and chowpe them in pieces as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they cry vnto the Lord, but he will not heare them: he will euen hide his face from them at that time, because they haue done wickedly in their works.

ther, but compareth them to wolues, lyons, and most cruell beasts. c That is, when I shall visite their wickednesse: for though I heare the godly before they cry, Mai. 6. 24. yet I will not heare these though they cry, Mai. 1. 11. Ezek. 8. 18. ias. 2. 13. 1 pet. 3. 11, 12, 3.

CHAP. II.

1 Threatnings against the wanton and dainty people. 6 They would teach the Prophets to preach.

V Vnto them that imagine iniquitie, and worke wickednes vpon their beds: when the morning is light, they practise it, because their hand is bathed in power.

2 And they couet fields, and take them by violence, and houses, and take them away: so they oppresse a man and his house, euen man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord, Behold, against this family haue I deuised a plague, whereout ye shall not plucke your neckes, and ye shall not goe so proudly, for this time is euill.

4 In that day shall they take by a parable against you, and lament with a dolefull lamentation, and say, We be utterly wasted: hee hath changed the portion of my people, how hath he taken away to restore it vnto me: he hath diuided our fields.

a As soon as they rise, they execute their wicked deuices of the night, and according to their power hurt others. b Thus the Iewes lament, and say, that there is no hope of restitution, seeing their possessions are diuided among the enemies, c Ye shall haue no more lands to diuide, as you had in time past, and as you vied to measure them in the iubile.

d Thus the people warne y Prophets that they speake to them no more: for they cannot abide their threatenings.

e God saith that they shall not prophesie, nor receiue no more of their reuokes nor taunts.

f Are these your works according to his law?

g Doe not the godly finde my wordes comfortable?

h That is, aforetime.

i The poore can haue no commodity by them, but they spoile them as though they were enemies.

k That is, their substance and living, which is Gods blessing, and as it were part of his glory. l Ierusalem shall not be your safeguard, but the cause of your destruction. m That is, shew himselfe to be a Prophet. n He sheweth what Prophets they delight in: that is, in flatterers, which tell them pleasant tales, and speake of their commodities. o To destroy thee. p The enemy shall breake their gates and walles, and leade them into Caldea. q To drue them forward, and so helpe their enemies.

ther, but compareth them to wolues, lyons, and most cruell beasts. c That is, when I shall visite their wickednesse: for though I heare the godly before they cry, Mai. 6. 24. yet I will not heare these though they cry, Mai. 1. 11. Ezek. 8. 18. ias. 2. 13. 1 pet. 3. 11, 12, 3.

They deuoure all their substance and then flatter them, promising that all shall goe well: but if one reſtraine from their bellies, then they inuent all wayes to miſchiefe.

As you haue loued to walke in darkeneſſe and to propheticall lies, ſo God ſhall reward you with groſſe blindneſſe and ignorance, ſo that when all others ſhall ſee the bright beams of Gods graces, ye ſhall as blinde men grope as in the night.

When God ſhall diſcouer them to the world, they ſhall bee aſhamed to ſpeake: for all ſhall know that they were but falſe prophets, & did belie the word of God.

The Prophet being aſſured of his vocation by the Spirit of God, ſearch himſelfe alone againſt all the wicked, ſhewing how God both gaue him gifts, ability and knowledge to diſcerne betweene good and euill, and alſo conſcience to reprove the finnes of the people, and not to flatter them.

They build them houſes by bribery, which hee calleth blood and iniquitie. They will ſay, that they are the people of God, & abuſe his name, as a pretence to cloke their hypocriſie.

Thus ſaith the Lord, Concerning the prophets that deceiue my people, and bite them with their teeth, and cry, Peace, but if a man put not into their mouths, they prepare warre againſt him.

Therefore a night ſhall be vnto you for a viſion, and darkeneſſe ſhall be vnto you for a diuination, and the ſunne ſhall goe downe ouer the prophets, and the day ſhall be darke ouer them.

Then ſhall the Seers be aſhamed, and the ſoothſayers confounded: yea, they ſhall all couer their lippes, for they haue none anſwere of God.

Yet notwithstanding, I am full of power by the Spirit of the Lord, and of iudgement, and of ſtrength to declare vnto Iacob his tranſgreſſion, and to Iſrael his ſinne.

Hearc this, I pray you, yee heads of the houſe of Iacob, and princes of the houſe of Iſrael: they abhorre iudgement, and peruert all equitie.

They build vp Zion with blood, and Ieruſalem with iniquitie.

The heads thereof iudge for rewards, and the Diſciples thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof propheticall for money: yet will they leane vnto the Lord, and ſay, Is not the Lord among vs? no euill can come vpon vs.

Therefore ſhall Zion for your ſake bee plowed as a field, and Ieruſalem ſhalbe an heape, and the mountaine of the Houſe, as the high places of the foreſt.

The Prophet being aſſured of his vocation by the Spirit of God, ſearch himſelfe alone againſt all the wicked, ſhewing how God both gaue him gifts, ability and knowledge to diſcerne betweene good and euill, and alſo conſcience to reprove the finnes of the people, and not to flatter them. They build them houſes by bribery, which hee calleth blood and iniquitie. They will ſay, that they are the people of God, & abuſe his name, as a pretence to cloke their hypocriſie.

CHAP. IIII.

Of the kingdome of Chriſt, and felicitie of his Church.

At in the laſt daies it ſhal come to paſſe, that the mountaine of the Houſe of the Lord ſhalbe prepared in the top of the mountaines, and it ſhalbe exalted aboue the hills, and people ſhall flow vnto it.

Yea, many nations ſhall come and ſay, Come, and let vs goe vp to the mountaine of the Lord, and let vs goe to the houſe of the God of Iacob, and hee will teach vs his wayes, and wee will walke in his pathes: for the Law ſhall goe forth of Zion, and the word of the Lord from Ieruſalem.

And hee ſhall iudge among many people, and rebuke mighty nations aſaſe off, and they ſhall breake their ſwords into mattocks, and their ſpeares into ſittes: nation ſhall not lift vp a ſword againſt nation, neither ſhall they learne to fight any more.

But they ſhall ſit euery man vnder his vine, and vnder his figge tree, and none ſhall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of hoſtes hath ſpoken it.

For all people will walke ſeruery one in the name of his god, and wee will walke in the Name of the Lord our God, for euer.

At the ſame day, ſaith the Lord, will I gather her that hath ſcattered, and I will gather her that is caſt out, and her that I haue aſſicted.

And I will make her that halted, a remnant, and her that was caſt farre off, a mighty nation: and the Lord ſhall reigne ouer them in mount Zion, from henceforth, euen for euer.

And thou, O tower of the ſlocke, the ſtrong hold of the daughter Zion, vnto thee ſhall it come, euen the firſt dominion, and kingdome ſhall come to the daughter of Ieruſalem.

Now why doeſt thou cry out with lamentation? is there no king in thee? is thy counſeller perished: for ſorrow hath taken thee as a woman in trauaile.

Sorrow & mourne, O daughter Zion, like a woman in trauaile: for now ſhalt thou goe forth of the citie, and dwell in the field, and ſhalt goe into Babel, but there ſhalt thou bee deliuered: there the Lord ſhall redeeme thee from the hand of thine enemies.

Now alſo many nations are gathered againſt thee, ſaying, Zion ſhalbe condemned, and our eye ſhall looke vpon Zion.

But they know not the thoughts of the Lord: they vnderſtand not his counſell, for he ſhall gather them as the heaues in the daye.

Arise, and theſe, O daughter Zion: for I will make thee a home vpon, and I will make thine houſes braſſe, and thou ſhalt breake in pieces many people: and I will conſecrate their riches vnto the Lord, and their ſubſtance vnto the ruler of the whole world.

He ſheweth that the faithfull ought not to meature Gods iudgements by the beags and threatnings of the wicked, but thereby are admoniſhed to liſt vp their hearts to God to call for deliuerance. God giueth his Church this victory, ſo oft as hee ouercommeth their enemies: but the accompliſhment hereof ſhall bee at the laſt coming of Chriſt.

CHAP. V.

The deſtruction of Ieruſalem. 2 The exchequer of Beth-lehem.

Now aſſemble thy garriſons, O daughter of garriſons: he hath laid ſiege againſt thee: they ſhall ſmite the iudge of Zion with a rod vpon the cheeke.

And thou Beth lehem Ephraim, enioy theſe comart little to bee among the throneth of Iſrahel, yet out of thee ſhall bee come that for ſomuch ſearch vnto me, that ſhall bee the ruler in Ieruſalem.

accuſtomed with her garriſons to trouble others, the Lord would now cauſe other garriſons to vex her, and that her rulers ſhould bee ſmitten on the face moſt contemptuouſly. For ſo the Iewes diuided their countrey, that for euery thouſd there was a chiefe captain: and becauſe Beth-lehem was not able to make a thouſand, hee calleth it little, but yet God will raiſe vp his captain and gouernor therein: and thus it is not the leaſt by reaſon of this benefit, as Mat. 2. 6.

Iſrael.

When Chriſt ſhall come, and the Temple ſhall be deſtroyed, Reade Iſa. 2. 2.

He ſheweth that there is no true Church but whereas the people are taught by Gods pure word. By his correptions & threatenings hee will bring the people into ſubiection, which are in the weſt corners of the world. They ſhall abſtaine from all euill doings, and exerciſe themſelues in godlineſſe, and in well doing to others. Reade Iſa. 2. 4.

He ſheweth that the people of God ought to remaine conſtant in their religion, albeit all the world ſhould giue themſelues to their ſuperſtitions and idolatry. I will cauſe that Iſrael, which is now as one lame and halting, and ſo almoſt deſtroyed, ſhall liue againe, and grow into a great people. Meaning Ieruſalem, where the Lords ſlocke was gathered. The flouriſhing ſtate of the kingdome, as it was vnder David and Salomon, which thing was accompliſhed to the Church by the coming of Chriſt. In the meane ſeaſon he ſheweth that they ſhould endure great troubles and temptations, when they ſaw themſelues neither to haue king nor counſell.

c He sheweth that the coming of Christ and all his wayes were appointed of God from all eternitie.

d He compareth the Iewes to women with child, who for a time should haue great sorrowes, but at length they should haue a comfortable deliuerance, loh. 16.21.

e That is, Christs kingdome shalbe stable and everlasting, and his people, aswel the Gentiles as the Iewes shall dwell in safetie.

f This Messiah shalbe a sufficient safeguard for vs, and though the enemy invade vs for a time, yet shall God stir vp many which shalbe able to deliuer vs.

g These whom God shal raise vp for the deliuerance of his Church, shal destroy all the enemies thereof, which are meant hereby by the Assyrians & Babylonians which were the chiefe at that time.

h By these gouernors God will deliuer vs when the enemy cometh into our land.

i This remnant or Church which God shal deliuer, shall onely depend on Gods power and defence, as doeth the grasse of the field, and not on the hope of man. k I will destroy all things wherein thou puttest thy confidence, as thy vaine confidence and idolatry, and so will heipe thee. l It shalbe so terrible, that the like hath not bene heard of.

Israel: whose goings forth haue bene from the beginning and from euerslasting.

3 Therefore will he giue them vp, vntill the time that she which shall beare, shall trauaile: then the remnant of their brethren shall returne vnto the children of Israel.

4 And hee shall stand and feede in the strength of the Lord, and in the maiestie of the Name of the Lord his God, and they shall dwell still: for now shall he be magnified vnto the ends of the world.

5 And hee shall be our peace when Asur shall come into our land: when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepheards, and eight principall men.

6 And they shall destroy Asur with the sword, and the land of Asurud with their swords: thus shall hee deliuer vs from Asur, when he cometh into our land, and when he shall tread within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Iacob shall bee among many people: as a dewe from the Lord, and as the showers vpon the grasse, that waiteth not for man, nor hopeth in the sonnes of Adam.

8 And the remnant of Iacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the middes of many people, as the Iyon among the beasts of the forest, and as the Iyons whelp among the flockes of sheepe, who when he goeth thorow, treadeth downe and teareth in pieces, and none can deliuer.

9 Thine hand shall be liue vpon thine aduersaries, and all thine enemies shall bee cut off.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the Lord, that I will cut off thine horses out of the middes of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots.

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and ouerthrow all thy strong holds.

12 And I will cut off thine enchanter, and thou shalt haue no more sorceryers.

13 Thine idoles also will I cut off, and thine images out of the middes of thee: and thou shalt no more worship the worke of thine hands.

14 And I will plucke vp thy grones out of the mids of thee: so will I destroy thine enemies.

15 And I will execute a vengeance in my wrath and indignation vpon the heathen, which they haue not heard.

2 Heare ye, O mountaines: the Lords quarrell, and ye mighty foundations of the earth: for the Lord hath a quarrell against his people, and he will pleade with Israel.

3 O my people, what haue I done vnto thee? or wherein haue I grieved thee? testifie against me.

4 Surely I brought thee by out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee from out of the house of seruantes, and I haue sent before thee Moyses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab had deuised, and what Balaam the sonne of Beor answered him, from Shittim vnto Gilgal, that yee may know the righteousness of the Lord.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the Lord, and bow my selfe before the Lord? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, and with calves of a yere old?

7 Will the Lord bee pleased with thousands of rammes, or with ten thousand runners of oyle? shall I giue my first borne for my transgression, euen the fruite of my body for the sinne of my loue?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good, and what the Lord requireth of thee: surely to doe iustly, and to loue mercie, and to humble thy selfe, to walke with thy God.

9 The Lords voyce cryeth vnto the citie, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: heare the rodd, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are yet the treasures of wickednesse in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I iustifie the wicked ballances, and the bag of deceitfull weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of cruelty, and the inhabitants thereof haue spoken lyes, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sicke in smiting thee, and in making thee desolate, because of thy sinnes.

14 Thou shalt hate eate and not be satisfied, and thy casting downe shall be in the mids of thee, and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliuer: and that which thou desirest, wilt I giue vp to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sow, but not reape: thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoynt thee with oyle: and make sweet wine, but shalt not drinke wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept,

the second table, o know if they will obey God aright or no, saying that God hath prescribed them to doe this. m Meaning, that when God speaketh to any citie or nation, the godly will acknowledge his Maiestie, and consider not the mortal man that bringeth the threatening, but God that sendeth it. i That is, of Ierusalem. k Thou shalt be consumed with inward griefe and euils. l Meaning, that the citie should go about to sueher men, as they that lay hold on that which they would preferre. m You haue received all the corruption and idolatry, wherewith the ten tribes were infected vnder Omri and Ahab his sonne: and to excuse your doings, you alleadge the kings authoritie by his statutes, and also wisdom and policie in so doing, but you shall not escape punishment, but as I haue shewed you great fauour, and taken you for my people, so shall your plagues be accordingly, Luke, 12.47.

b I haue not hurt thee, but bestowed infinite benefites vpon thee.

c That is, remember my benefites from the beginning, how I deliuered you from Balaams curse, and also spared you from Shittim, which was in the plaine of Moab, till I brought you into the land promised.

d That is, the truth of his promise, and his manifold benefites toward you.

e Thus the people by hypocrisie aske how to please God, & are content to offer sacrifices, but will not change their liues.

f There is no thing so deare to man but the hypocrites will offer it vnto God, if they thinke thereby to avoid his anger: but they will neuer be brought to mortifie their owne affections, & to giue thanks willingly to serue God as he commandeth.

g The Prophet in few words calleth them to the obseruation of and all the manner of the house of Ahab, and yee walke in their counsailes, that I should make thee waste, and the inhabitants thereof of an hilding: therefore ye shall heare the reproch of my people.

CHAP. VII.

¹ A complaint for the small number of the righteous. ⁴ The wickedness of those times. ¹⁴ The prosperitie of the Church.

a The prophet taketh upon him the person of the earth, which complayneth that all her fruits are gone, so that none is left: that is, that there is no godly man remaining: for all are given to cruelty and deceit, so that none spareth his owne brother. b He sheweth that the Prince, the iudge, and rich man are linked together all to doe euill, and to cloke the doings one of another. c That is, the rich man that is able to giue money, abstaineth from no wickednes, nor iniury. d These men agree among themselves, and conspire with one consent to doe euill. e They that are of most estimation, and are counted most honest among them, are but thornes and bryers to pricke. f Meaning, of the Prophets and gouernours. g The Prophet sheweth that the onely remedy for the godly in desperate euils is to flee vnto God for succour. h This is spoken in the person of the Church, which calleth the malignant Church her enemy.

VV De is me, for I am as the Summer-gatherings, and as the grapes of the vintage: there is no cluster to eate: my soule desired the first ripe fruits.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none righteous among men: ^b they all lie in waite for blood: euery man hunteth his brother with a net.

3 To make good for the euill of their hands, the prince asked, and the iudge iudged for a reward: therefore the great man he speaketh out the corruption of his soule: so ^c they waite it by.

4 The best of them is as a bryer, and the most righteous of them is sharper then a thorne hedge: the day of ^e thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh: then shall bee their confusion.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, neither put ye confidence in a counsellor: keepe the doyes of thy mouth from her that lyeth in thy bosome.

6 For the sonne reuileth the father: the daughter riseth vp against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law, and a mans enemies are the men of his owne house.

7 Therefore I will looke vnto the Lord: I will waite for God my Saviour: my God will heare me.

8 Reioyce not against me, ^b mine enemy: though I fall, I shall arise: when I shall sit in darknesse, the Lord shall be a light vnto me.

9 I will beare the wrath of the Lord, because I haue sinned against him, vntill he pleade my cause, and execute iudgement for me: then will he bring me forth to the light, and I shall see his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy, shall looke vpon it, and shame shall couer her, which saide vnto me, ^a Here is the Lord thy God: mine eyes shall behold her: now shall shee bee troden downe as the mire of the streets.

11 This is the day that thy walles shall be built: this day shall thyne farre away ^k the decree.

12 In this day also they shall come vnto thee from ⁱ Asshur, and from the strong cities, and from the strong holds euen vnto the riuier, and from sea to sea, and from mountaine to mountaine.

13 Notwithstanding, the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, and for the fruites of ^j their inventions.

14 ^k For de thy people with thy reddne, the flocke of thine heritage (which dwell solitarily in the wood) as in the mids of Carmel: let them feede in Bashan and Gilead, as in olde tyme.

15 ^o According to the dayes of the coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew vnto him marvellous things.

16 The nations shall see, and be confounded for all their power: they shall ^p lay their hand vpon their mouth: ^q their eares shall be deafe.

17 They shall ^r lick the dust like a serpent: they shall moue out of their holes like wormes: they shall be afraid of the Lord our God, and shall feare because of thee.

18 ^a Who is a God like vnto thee, that taketh away iniquitie, and ^b passeth by the transgressions of the remnant of his heritage? He retaineth not his wrath for euer, because mercy pleaseth him.

19 ^c Hee will turne againe, and haue compassion vpon vs: he will subdue our iniquities, and call all ^d their finnes into the bottom of the sea.

20 Thou wilt performe thy ^e trueth to Iacob, and mercy to Abraham, as thou hast sware vnto our fathers in old time.

^t Meaning of his elect.

^u The Church is assured, that God will declare in effect the trueth of his mercifull promise, which hee had made of olde to Abraham, and to all that should apprehend the promise by faith.

ⁱ To wit, when God shall shew himselfe a deliuerer of his Church, and a destroyer of his enemies.

^k Meaning, the cruell empire of the Baby Ionians.

^l When the Church shall be restored, they that were enemies afore, shall come out of all the corners of the world vnto her, so that neither holds, riuers, seas, nor mountains shall be able to let them.

^m Afore this grace appeare, he sheweth how seriously the hypocrites themselves shall be punished, seeing that the earth it selfe, which cannot sinne, shall be made wast because of their wickednesse.

Nahum.

THE ARGUMENT.

As they of Nineueh shewed themselves prompt and ready to deuiſe the word of God at Ionahs preaching, and so turned to the Lord by repentance so after a certaine time rather giuing them selves to worldly meanes to increase their dominion, then seeking to continue in the feare of God, and trade wherein they had begun, they cast off the care of Religion, and so returned to their vomites, and promoued Gods iust iudgement against them in afflicting his people. Therefore their citie Nineueh was destroyed, and Merodach baladan King of Babel (or as some thinke Nebuchad-nezzar) enjoyed the Empire of the Assyrians. But because God hath continuall care of his Church, he stirreth vp his Prophet to comfort the Godly, shewing that the destruction of their enemies should bee for their consolation. And as it seemeth he prophesied about the time of Hezekiah, and not in the time of Manasse his sonne, as the Iewes write.

e With his he is but angry for a time, but his anger neuer affwa- geth toward the reprobate, though for a time he deferre it.

f Thus the wicked would make Gods mercie an occasion to sinne, but the Prophet willet them to consider his force and iustice.

g If all creatures beat Gods commaundement, and now is able to resist his wrath, shall man flatter himselfe, and thinke by any meanes to escape when he prouoketh his God to anger?

h Left the faithfull should be discouraged by hearing the power of God, hee sheweth them that his mercies appertaine vnto them, and that he hath care ouer them. i Signifying, that God wil suddenly destroy Nineueh, and the Assyrians in such sort, as they shall lie in perpetuall darkness, and neuer recover their strength againe. k He sheweth that the enterprises of the Assyrians against Iudah and the Church, were against God, and therefore he would so destroy them at once, that hee should not neede to returne the second time. l Though the Assyrians thinke themselves like thornes that pricke on all sides, yet the Lord wil set fire on them, and as drunken men are not able to stand against any force, so they shall be nothing able to resist him. m Which may be vnderstood either of Saneherib, or of the whole body of the people of Nineueh n Though they thinke themselves in most safetie, and of greatest strength, yet when God shall passe by, he will destroy them: notwithstanding hee comforteth his Church, and promisseth to make amende of punishing them by the Assyrians.

De^b burden of Nineueh. ^b The booke of the vision of Nahum the Elkeshite.

2 God is ^d selons, and the Lord reuengeth: The Lord reuengeth: euen the Lord of anger, the Lord will take vengeance of his aduersaries, and hee reuengeth wrath for his enemies.

3 The Lord is slow to anger, but he is great in power, and will not surely cleare the wicked: the Lord hath his way in the whirlwinde, and in the storme, and the cloudes are the dust of his feete.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and dryeth it, and he dryeth up all the riuers: Bathan is wasted and Carmel, and the floure of Lebanon is wasted.

5 The mountaines tremble for him, and the hilles melt, and the earth is burnt at his sight, yea, the world and all that dwell therein.

6 Who can stand before his wrath: or who can abide in the fiercencie of his wrath: his wrath is powred out like fire, and the rocks are broken by him.

7 The Lord is good, ^b and as a strong hold in the day of trouble, and hee knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But passing ouer as with a flood, hee will utterly destroy the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What doe yee ^b imagine against the Lord: he will make an utter destruction: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For he shall come as vnto thornes solden one in another, and as vnto drunkards in their drunkenesse: they shall be deuoured as stubble fully dried.

11 There^m connecth one out of thee that imagineth enill against the Lord, euen a wicked counsellour.

12 Thus sayeth the Lord, Though they be ^b quiet, and also many, yet thus shall they be cut off when he shall passe by: though I haue afflicted thee, he shall afflict thee no more.

13 For now I will breake his yoke from thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the Lord hath giuen a commaundement concerning thee, that no more of thy name be ^b sowne: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the grauen and the molten image: I will make it thy graue for thee, for thou art vile.

15 Behold, vpon the mountaines the feete of him that declareth and publisheth peace: O Iudah, keepe thy solemne feasts, performe thy vowes: for the wicked shall no more passe through thee: he is utterly cut off.

p Which peace the Iewes should enioy by the death of Saneherib.

C H A P. II.

Hee describeth the victories of the Caldeans against the Assyrians.

The ^b destroyer is come before thy face: keepe the munition: looke to the way: make thy loynes strong: increase thy strength mightily.

2 For the Lord hath ^b turned away the glory of Iacob, as the glory of Israel: for the emptiers haue empried them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red: the valiant men are in scarlet: the charrets shall be as in the fire and flames in the day of his preparation, and the fire trees shall tremble.

4 The charrets shall rage in the streets: they shall runne to and fro in the hie wayes: they shall seme like lampes: they shall shoute like the lightning.

5 Yee shall remember his strong men, they shall stumble as they goe: they shall make haste to the walles thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the riuers shall be opened, and the palace shall melt.

7 And Huzzab the Queene shall be led away captiue, and her maids shall leade her as with the voyce of donies limping vpon their breasts.

8 But Nineueh is ^b of olde like a poole of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, shall they cry: but none shall looke backe.

9 Spoile yee the silver, spoile the gold: for there is none end of the store, and glory of all the pleasant vessels.

10 She is emptye and voyde, and waste, and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and sorrow is in all loynes, and the faces of them all gather blacknesse.

12 The lyon did teare in peeces enough for his whelpes, and worried for his lyoness, and filled his holes with praye, and his dens with spoile.

that Nineueh is so ancient that it can neuer perishe, and is as a fish-pool, whose waters they that walke on the banks cannot touch: but they shall be scattered, and shall not looke backe though men would call them. b God commandeth the enemies to spoile Nineueh, and promisseth them infinite riches and treasures. i That is, Nineueh and the men thereof shall be after this sort. k Reade Toel 3. 6. l Meaning Nineueh, whose inhabitants were cruell like the lions, and giuen to all oppression, and spared no violence or tyrannie to provide for their wives and children.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Prophet complaineth vnto God, considering the great felicity of the wicked, and the miserable oppression of the godly, which endure all kind of affliction and cruelty, and yet can see none end. Therefore he had this reuelation shewed him of God, that the Caldeans should come and take them away captiues, so that they could looke for none end of their troubles as yet, because of their stubburnesse and rebellion against the Lord. And lest the godly should despise, seeing this horrible confusion, he comforteth them by this, that God will punish the Caldeans their enemyes, when their pride and crueltie shall be at height: wherefore he exhorteth the faithfull to patience by his owne exmple, and sheweth them a forme of prayer, wherewith they should comfort themselves.

CHAP. I.

2 A complaint against the wicked that persecute the iust.

The burden which Habakkuk
the Prophet did see.

2 O Lord, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not heare!
even cry out vnto thee: for vto-lence, and thou wilt not helpe!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold sorrow? for spoyling, and violence are before me: and there are that raise by strife and contention.

4 Therefore the Law is dissolved, and iudgement doth neuer goe forth: for the wicked doeth compassie about the righteous:

5 Behold among the heathen, and re-

b Write it in great letters, that he that runneth, may see it.

c Which contained the destruction of the enemy, and the comfort of the Church: which thing though God execute not according to mans baillie affections, yet the issue of both is certaine at his time appointed. d To trust in himselfe or in any worldly thing, is neuer to be quiet: for the only rest is to stay vpon God by faith, Rom. 1. 17. gal. 3. 11. heb. 10. 38. e He compareth the proud and couetous man to a drunkard that is without reason and sense, whom God will punish, and make him a laughing stocke to all the world: and this he speaketh for the comfort of the godly, and against the Caldeans.

7 They are terrible and fearefull: their iudgement and their dignitie shall exceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter then the leopards, and are more fierce then the wolues in the evening, and their horsemen are many: and their horsemen shall come from farre, they shall flie as the Eagle hasting to meat.

9 They come all to spoile: before their faces shall be an East wind, and they shall gather the captiuitie as the land.

10 And they shall mocke the kings, and the Princes shall be a scorn vnto them: they shall deride every strong hold: for they shall gather a dunt, and take it.

11 Then shall they take a courage, and transgress, and doe wickedly, imputing this their power vnto their God.

12 Art not thou of old, O Lord my God, mine Holy one: we shall not die: O Lord, thou hast ordeined them for iudgement, O God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of pure eyes, & canst not see euill: thou canst not behold wickednesse: therefore dost thou looke vpon the transgressors, and holdest thy tongue, when the wicked deuoureth the man that is more righteous then he.

14 And maketh men as the fishes of the sea, and as the creeping things that haue no ruler over them.

15 They take by all with the angle: they catch it in their net, and gather it in their parne, whereof they reioyce and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice vnto their net, and burne incense vnto their parne, because by them their portion is fatte, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore stretch out their net & not spare continually to slay the nations?

that transgresseth by wine: therefore shall he not endure, because he hath enlarged his desire as the hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth vnto him all nations, and heareth vnto him all people.

6 Shall not all these take by a parable against him, & a taunting pouerbe against him, and say, Wo, bee that increaseth that which is not his? how long and he that laudeth himselfe with thicke clay?

7 Shall they not rise by suddenly, that shall bite thee? and awake, that shall strike thee? and thou shalt be their prey?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, at the remnant of the people that spoile thee, because of mens blood, and for the wrong done in the land, in the citie, and vnto all that dwell therein.

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thine owne house, by destroying many people, and hast sinned against thine owne soule.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Come vnto him that buildeth a towne with blood, and erecteth a citie by iniquitie.

13 Behold, is it not of the Lord of hosts, that the people shall labour in the very fire? the people shall euen wearie themselves for very vanitie.

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters couer the sea.

15 Come vnto him that giueth his neighbour drinke: thou ioynest thine heate, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest see their privities.

16 Thou art filled with shame for glorie: drinke thou also and be made naked: the cup of the Lords right hand shall be turned vnto thee, and shameful spuming shall be for thy glory.

17 For the cruelty of Lebanon shall couer thee: so shall the spawle of the beastes, which make them afraid, because of mens blood, and for the wrong done in the land, in the city, and vnto all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the image? for the maker thereof hath made it an image, and a teacher of lies, though he that made it, trust therein, when he maketh dumbe idoles.

h Signifying, that the courteous man is the ruin of his own house.

i When as hee thinketh to enrich it by cruelty and oppression.

j The stones of the house shall cry, and say that they are full of blood, and the wood shall answer, and say the same of it selfe.

k Meaning, that God will not deferre his vengeance long, but would come and destroy all their labors as though they were continued with fire.

l In the destruction of the Babylonians his glory shall appear, as though the world.

m He reprocheth thus the king of Babylon: who as he was drunken with couetousnesse and cruelty, so hee provoked others to the same, and inflamed them by his rage, and so in the end brought them to shame.

n Whereas thou thoughtest to haue glory of these thy doings, they shall turne to thy shame: for thou shalt drinke of the same cup with others in thy turne.

o Because the Babylonians were cruel, not only against other nations, but also against the people of God, which is meant by Lebanon, and the beasts therein, he sheweth that the cruelty shall be executed against them.

p He sheweth that the Babylonians gods could nothing auail them: for they were but blockes or stones, reede Ierem. 10. 8.

A prayer for the faithfull.

^a The Prophet instructeth his people to pray vnto God not onely for their great sinnes, but also for such as they had committed of ignorance.

^b Thus the people were afraid when they heard Gods threatenings, & praised, ^c That is, the state of thy Church which is now ready to perish before it come to halfe a perfect age, which should be vnder Christ.

^d Teman & Paran were neere Sinai where the Law was giuen: whereby is signified that his deliuerance was present now as it was then. ^e Whereby is meant a power that was ioyned with his brightnes, which was hid to the rest of the world, but was reuealed in mount Sinai to his people, Plal. 3. 16.

^f Signifying that God hath wonderfull meanes, and cuer had a maruillous power when he would deliuer his Church. ^g The iniquitie of this king of Syria in vexing thy people, was made manifest by thy iudgement, to the comfort of thy Church, Iudg. 3. 10, and also of the Midianites, which destroyed themselves, Iudg. 7. 22. ^h Meaning that God was not angry with the waters, but that by this meanes hee would destroy his enemies and deliuer his Church. ⁱ And so diddest vie all the elements as instruments for the destruction of thine enemies. ^k That is, thy power. ^l For he had not onely made a couenant with Abraham, but renewed it with his posteritie.

A Prayer of Habakkuk the Prophet for the ignorant.

2 ^b O Lord, I haue heard thy voyce, and was afraid: O Lord, reuieue thy worke in the mids of the people, in the mids of the yeeeres make it knownen: in wraoth remember mercy.

3 God commeth from ^d Teman, and the Holy one from mount Paran, Selah, his glory conereth the heauens, and the earth is full of his praise,

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coales went forth before his feet.

6 He flood and measured the earth: hee beghed and dissolued the nations, and the euersalting mountaines were broken, and the ancient hills did bow: his wayes are euersalting.

7 ^f For his iniquitie I sawe the tents of Cushan, and the curtaines of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the Lord angry against the ^h riuers: or was thine anger against the floods: or was thy wraoth against the sea, that thou diddest ride vpon thine horses: thy chariots brought saluation.

9 Thy ^k bowe was manifestly reuealed, and the loches of the tribes were a lure word,

11 The ^q Sunne and Moone stood still in their habitation: ^r at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the bright shining of thy speares.

12 Thou trodest downe the land in anger, and diddest thrash the heathen in displeasure.

13 Thou wentest forth for the saluation of thy people, euen for saluation with thine ^s Arrow: thou hast wounded the head of the house of the wicked, and discoveredst the foundations vnto the necke, Selah.

14 Thou diddest ^t strike thorow with his owne stauies the heads of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter mee: their reioycing was as to deuoure the poore secretly.

15 Thou diddest walke in the Sea with thine horses vpon the heape of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips shooke at the voyce: rottennesse entered into my bones, and I trembled in my selfe, that I might rest in ^u the day of trouble: for when he commeth vpon vnto the people, he shall destroy them.

17 For the fig tree shall not flourish, neither shall fruit bee in the vines: the labour of the Olive shall faile, and the fields shall yeelde no meate: the sheepe shall bee cut off from the fold, and there shall be no bullocke in the stalles.

18 But I will reioyce in the Lord: I will ioy in the God of my saluation.

19 The Lord God is my strength: he will make my feet like hinds feet, and hee will make mee to walke vpon mine high places. ^z To the chiefe singer on Regimothai.

Zephaniah.

THE ARGUMENT.

SEEING the great rebellion of the people, and that there was now no hope of amendment, he denounceth the great iudgement of God which was at hand, shewing that their countrey should be utterly destroyed, and they caried away captiues by the Babylonians. Yet for the comfort of the faithfull, he prophesied of Gods vengeance against their enemies, as the Philistines, Moabites, Assyrians and others, to assure them that God had a continuall care ouer them. And as the wicked should be punished for their sinnes and transgressions: so he exhorted the godly to patience, and to trust to finde mercy by reason of the free promise of God made vnto Abraham: and therefore quietly to abide till God shew them the effect of that grace, whereby in the end they should be gathered vnto him, and counted as his people and children.

Haggai.

THE ARGUMENT.

When the time of the seuentie yeeres captiuitie, prophesied by Jeremiah, was expired, God raised vp Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi to comfort the Iewes, & to exhort them to the building of the Temple, which was a figure of the spirituall Temple and Church of God, whose perfection and excellencie stood in Christ. And because that all were giuen to their owne pleasures and commodities, he declarerh that that plague of famine, which God sent then among them, was a iust reward of their ingratitude, in that they contemned Gods honour, who had deliuered them. Yet he comforterh them, if they will returne to the Lord, with the promise of greater felicitie, forasmuch as the Lord will finish the worke that hee hath begun, and send Christ whom hee had promised, and by whom they should attaine to perfect ioy and glory.

CHAP. I.

The time of the prophesie of Haggai. 3 An exhortation to build the Temple againe.

a Who was the sonne of Histaspis, and the third king of the Persians as some thinke.

b Because the building of the Temple began to cease by reason that the people were discouraged by their enemies: and if these two notable men had needed to be stirred vp, and admonished of their duties, what shal we thinke of other gouernours, whose doings are either against God, or very cold in his cause?

c Not that they condemned the building thereof, but they preferred policie, and private profite to religion, being content with small beginnings.

d Shewing that they sought not onely their necessities, but their very pleasures before Gods honour.

e Consider how the plagues of God vpon you for preferring your policies to his religion, and because yee seeke not him first of all: Meaning, that they should leaue off their owne commodities, and goe forward in the building of Gods Temple, and in the setting forth of his religion, g That is, I will heare your prayers according to my promise, k King 8.21.29. h That is, my glory shall be set forth by you. i And so bring it to nothing.

In the second yeere of King Darius, in the first moneth, the first day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord (by the ministration of the Prophet Haggai) vnto Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, a Prince of Iudah, and to Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozadak, the hie Priest, saying, 2 Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, saying, This people say, The time is not yet come, that the Lords house should be builded.

3 Then came the word of the Lord by the ministry of the Prophet Haggai saying,

4 Is it time for you felices to dwell in your fields houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore, thus saith the Lord of hostes, Consider your owne wayes in your hearts.

6 Ye haue sown much, and bring in little: yee eate, but yee haue not enough: yee drinke, but yee are not filled: yee clothe you, but ye be not warme: and he that earneth wages, putteth the wages into a broken bag

7 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Consider your owne wayes in your hearts.

8 Goe vp to the mountaine, and bring wood, and build this house, and I will be fauourable in it, and I will be glorified, saith the Lord.

9 Ye looked for much, and loe, it came to little, and when ye brought it home, I did blow vpon it. And why, saith the Lord of hostes, because of mine house that is waste, and yee rurne euery man vnto his owne house.

10 Therefore the heauen ouer you stayed it selfe from dew, and the earth stayed her fruit.

11 And I called for a drought vpon the land, and vpon the mountaines, and vpon the countrie, and vpon the wine, and vpon the oyle, vpon all that the ground bringerh forth k This declared both vpon men, and vpon cattell, and vpon the labour of the hande.

12 When Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozadak the hie Priest with all the remnant of the people, heard the voyce of the Lord their God, and the words of the Prophet Haggai, (as y Lord their God had sent him) then the people did feare before the Lord.

13 Then spake Haggai the Lords messenger in the Lords message vnto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the Lord.

14 And the Lord stirred vp the spirit of Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, a prince of Iudah, and the spirit of Iehoshua the son of Iehozadak the hie Priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came, and did the worke in the house of the Lord of hostes their God.

CHAP. II.

Hee sheweth that the glory of the second Temple shall exceede the first.

1 In the foure and twentieth day of the first moneth, in the second yeere of King Darius,

2 In the seuenth moneth, in the one and twentieth day of the moneth, came the word of the Lord by the ministry of the Prophet Haggai, saying,

3 Speake now to Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel prince of Iudah, and to Iehoshua the sonne of Iehozadak the hie Priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

4 Who is left among you, that saw this house in her first glory, and how doe you see it now? is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it, as nothing?

5 Ver now be of good courage. O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord, and be of good comfort, O Iehoshua, sonne of Iehozadak the hie Priest: mid bee strong all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and doe it: for I am with you, saith the Lord of hostes.

6 According to the word that I covenanted with you, when yee came out of Egypt: so my spirit shall remaine among you, feare ye not.

7 For thus saith the Lord of hostes, O yet a little while, and I will shake the heauens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land:

author of the doctrine, & that he was but the minister, as Exo. 14.3. i. iud. 7.20. Acts. 15.38.

Which declareth that men are vnapt & dull to serue the Lord, neither can they obey his word or his messengers before God reforme their hearts, and giue them new spirits, Iohn 6.44.

a For the people according as Isa.

31.11. and Ezek. 41.1, had prophesied, though the Temple should haue bin more excellent then Salomons Temple, which was destroyed by the Babyloians, but the Prophets meant the Spirituall Temple, the church of Christ.

b That is, goe forward in building the Temple.

c He exhorterh them to patience, though they see not as yet this Temple so glorious as the Prophets had declared: for this should be accomplished in Christ, by whom all things should be renewed.

d Meaning Christ, whom all ought to looke for and desire, or by desire, he may signifie all precious things, as riches and such like.

e Therefore when his time cometh, hee can make all the treasures of this world to serue his purpose; but the glory of this second Temple doth not stand in material things, neither can be built.

f Meaning, all spirituall blessings and felicity purchased by Christ, Phil 4 7

g That is, the flesh of the sacrifices: whereby he signifieth that that thing which of it selfe is good, cannot make another thing so:

and therefore they ought not to iustifie themselves by their sacrifices and ceremonies: but contrary, hee that is vnckeane and not pure of heart, doeth corrupt those things, and make them detestable vnto God, which els are good and godly. h Consider how God did plague you with famine afore you began to build the Temple,

8 And I will moue all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the Lord of hostes.

9 The silver is mine, & the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hostes.

10 The glory of this last house shall bee greater then the first, saith the Lord of hostes: and in this place will I giue peace, saith the Lord of hostes.

11 ¶ In the foure and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, in the second yere of Darius, came the word of the Lord vnto the Prophet Haggai, saying,

12 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Alke now the Priests conceiuing the Law, and say,

13 If one beare his holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt doe touch the bread, or the postage, or the wine, or oyle, or any meat, shall it be holy: And the Priests answered, and said, No.

14 Then said Haggai, If a polluted person touch any of these, shall it bee vnckeane? And the Priests answered, and said, It shall be vnckeane.

15 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, & so is this nation before me, saith the Lord: and so are all the workes of their hands, and that which they offer here, is vnckeane.

16 And now I pray you, consider in your minds: from this day, and afore, euen afore a stone was laid vpon a stone in the Temple of the Lord:

17 Before these things were, when one came to an heape of twentie measures, there were but tenne: when one came to the wine presse for to draw out sicke vessels out of the presse, there were but twenty.

18 I imore you with blasfing, and with mildew, and with haile, in all the labours of your hands: yet you turned not to mee, saith the Lord.

19 Consider I pray you, in your mindes, from this day, and afore from the foure and twentieth day of the ninth moneth, euen from the day that the foundation of the Lords temple was laid: consider it in your mindes,

20 Is the seede yet in the barme? as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the Olive tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I blesse you.

21 And againe the word of the Lord came vnto Haggai in the foure and twentieth day of the month, saying,

22 Speake to Zerubbabel the prince of Iudah, and say, I will shake the heauens and the earth.

23 And I will ouerthrow the throne of kingdomes, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdomes of the heathen, and I will ouerthrow the charers, and those that ride in them, and the horse and the tiders shall come downe, euery one by the sword of his brother.

24 In that day, saith the Lord of hostes, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my seruant the sonne of Shealtiel, saith the Lord, and will make thee as a signet: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord of hostes.

that his dignitie should be most excellent, which thing was accomplished in Christ.

i That is, before the building was begun.

k From the time they began to build the Temple, he promisseth that God would blesse them: and albeit as yet the fruite was not cometh, yet in the gathering they should haue plenty.

l He exhorteth them to patience and to abide till the harvest came and then they should see Gods blessings.

m I will make a change and renew all things in Christ, of whom Zerubbabel here is a figure.

n Hereby he sheweth that there shall be no let or hinderance when God will make this wonderful restitution of his Church,

o Signifying, that thing was accom-

Zechariah.

THE ARGUMENT.

Two moneths after that Haggai had begun to prophesie Zechariah was also sent of the Lord to helpe him in the labour, and to confirme the same doctrine. First therefore he purseth them in remembrance for what cause God had so fore punished their fathers: and yet comforteth them, if they will repent vnfeignedly, and not abuse this great benefit of God in their deliuerance, which was a figure of that true deliuerance, that all the faithfull should haue from death and sinne, by Christ. But because they still remained in their wickedesse and coldnesse to let forth Gods glory, and were not yet made better by their long banishment, hee rebuketh them most sharpe: yet for the comfort of the repentant, he euer mixeth the promise of grace, that they might by this meanes be prepared to receiue Christ, in whom all should be sanctified to the Lord.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth the people to returne to the Lord, and to eschew the wickednesse of their fathers. 16 Hee signifieth the restitution of Ierusalem and the Temple.

IN the eighth moneth of the second yere of Darius came the word of the Lord vnto Zechariah the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Iddo the Prophet, saying, a Who was the sonne of Hylaspis.

b This was not that Zechariah, whereof is mention, 2. Chro 24. 20. but had the same name, and is called the sonne of Berechiah, as he was, because he came of those progenitors, as of Isaiada or Berechia and Iddo.

2 The Lord hath bene sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou vnto them, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Turne ye vnto mee, saith the Lord of hostes, and I will turne vnto you, saith the Lord of hostes.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, vnto whom I have spoken thus to feare them with Gods iudgements, that so mee, saith the Lord of hostes, and I they should not prouoke him, as their fathers had done, whom he so grievously punished. d Let your fruites declare that you are Gods people, and that he hath wrought in you by his Spirit, and mortified you: for els man hath no power to returne to God, but God must conuert him, as Ierem 31. 18 Lamentat. 5. 21. Isaiah 21. 8, and 31. 6, and 45. 21.

Jerem. 3. 12.

ezek. 18. 30.

Isa. 4. 2.

Isa. 1. 12.

e Though your fathers be dead, yet Gods iudgements in punishing them ought still to be before your eyes: and though the prophets be dead, yet their doctrine remaineth for ever,

2 Pet. 1. 15.

f Seeing ye saw the force of my doctrine in punishing your fathers, why do not ye feare the threatenings contained in it, and declared by my Prophets?

g As men astonished with my iudgements, and not that they were touched with true repentance.

h Which containeth part of January and part of February.

i This vision signifieth the restitution of the Church, but as yet it should not appeare to mans eyes, which is here meant by the night, by the bottom, and by the myrrhe trees, which are blacke and give a darke shadow: yet he compareth God to a King, who hath his postes and messengers abroad, by whom he will worketh his purpose, and bringeth his matters to passe. k Who was the chiefe among the rest of the horsemen. l These signified the diuers offices of Gods Angels, by whom God sometime punisheth and sometime comforteth and bringeth forth his works in diuers sorts. m That is, Christ the Mediatour prayed for the saluation of his Church, which was now troubled, when all the countreys about them were at rest. n Though for a time God deferre his helpe and comfort from his Church, yet this declared that hee loved them still most dearly, as a most mercifull Father his children, or an husband his wife, and when it is expedient for them, his helpe is euer ready. o In destroying the reprobate, I shewed my selfe but a little angry toward my Church, but the enemy would haue destroyed them also, and considered not the end of my chastisements.

the * former Prophets haue cryed, saying, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Turne you now from your euill wayes, and from your wicked workes: but they would not heare nor hearken vnto mee, saith the Lord.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and do the Prophets liue for euer?

6 But did not my wordes and my statutes, which I commaunded by my seruants the Prophets, take holde of your fathers? And e they returned, and said, As the Lord of hostes hath determined to doe vnto vs according to our own wayes, and according to our workes, so hath hee dealt with vs.

7 Upon the foure and twentieth day of the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth Shebat, in the second yeere of Darivs, came the word of the Lord vnto Zechariah the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Iddo the Prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold, a man riding vpon a red horse, and he stood among the myrrhe trees that were in a bottom, and behinde him were three red horses speckled and white.

9 Then said I, O my Lord, What are these? And the Angel that talked with mee, said vnto mee, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrrhe trees, answered and said, These are they whom the Lord hath sent to go thow the world.

11 And they answered the Angel of the Lord, that stood among the myrrhe trees, and said, We haue gone thow the world: and behold, all the world sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the Angel of the Lord answered, and said, O Lord of hostes, how long wilt thou be vnmmercifull to Ierusalem, and to the cities of Iudah, which whom thou hast bene displeased now these threescore and ten yeeres?

13 And the Lord answered the Angel that talked with me, with good words, and comfortable wordes.

14 So the Angel that communed with mee, said vnto mee, Cry thou, and speake, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I am zealous ouer Ierusalem and Zion with a great zeale.

15 And am greatly angry against the careless heathen: for I was angry but a little, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the Lord, I will returne vnto Ierusalem with tender mercy: mine house shall bee builded in it, saith the Lord of hostes, and a line shall be stretched vpon Ierusalem.

17 Cry yet, and speake, Thus saith the Lord of hostes, My cities shall yet be broken with plenty: the Lord shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet chuse Ierusalem.

18 Then lift I vp mine eyes, and sawe, and behold, foure homes.

19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with mee, What be these? And he answered me, These are the homes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.

20 And the Lord shewed me foure carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And hee answered and said, These are the homes, which haue scattered Iudah so, that a man durst not lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, and to call out their homes of the Gentiles, which lift vp their home ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

are Gods instruments, which with their mallets and hammers beake thele hard and strong homes, which would ouerthrow the Church, and declare that none enemies home is so strong, but God hath an hammer to beake it in pieces.

CHAP. II.

The restoring of Ierusalem and Iudah.

I lift vp mine eyes againe and looked, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said vnto mee, To measure Ierusalem, that I may see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And behold, the Angel that talked with mee, went forth: and another Angel went out to meet him,

4 And said vnto him, Runne, speake to this young man, and say, Ierusalem shall be inhabited without walles, for the multitude of men and cattell therein.

5 For I, saith the Lord, will be vnto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the mids of her.

6 Yo, ho, come forth, and see from the land of the North, saith the Lord: for I haue scattered you into the foure windes of the heauen, saith the Lord.

7 Saue thy selfe, O Zion, that dwillest with the daughter of Babel.

8 For thus saith the Lord of hostes, After this glory hath he sent me vnto the nations, which spoiled you: for hee that toucheth

among all their enemies. d To defend my Church, to feare the enemies, and to destroy them if they approach neere. e In me they shall haue their full felicity and glory. f He calleth them, which partly for feare, and partly for their owne ease remained still in captiuitie, and so preferred their owne priuate commodities to the benefits of God promised in his Church. g As it was I that scattered you, so haue I power to restore you. h By fleeing from Babylon, and coming to the Church. i Seeing that God hath begun to shew his grace among you by deliuering you, he continueth the same still toward you, and therefore kinde me his Angel and his Christ to defend you from your enemies, that they shall not hurt you, neither by the way, nor at home.

CHAP. V.

1 The vision of the flying booke, signifying the curse of threemes, and such as abuse the Name of God. 6 By the vision of the measure is signified the bringing of Iudahs afflictions into Babylon.

a Because the Iewes had provoked Gods plagues by contemning his word, and casting off all iudgement and equitie, he sheweth that Gods curses written in this booke had iustly light both on them & their fathers: but now it they would repent, God would send the same among the Caldeans their former enemies.

b That is, vnto any injury toward his neighbour.

c Meaning, wheresoeuer he bee in the world. d He that transgresseth the first Table, and serueth not God aright, but abuseth Gods name. e Which was a measure in dry things, containing about ten portells,

8 And he said vnto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying booke: the length thereof is twentie cubites, and the breadth thereof ten cubites.

9 Then said hee vnto mee, This is the curse that goeth forth ouer the whole earth: for every one that stealeth, shall be cut off: aswell on this side, as on that: and every one that sweareth, shall be cut off, aswell on this side, as on that.

10 I will bring it forth, saith the Lord of hostes, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, & into the house of him that falsly sweareth by my Name: and it shall remaine in the mids of his house and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and stones thereof.

11 Then the Angel that talked with me, went forth and said vnto me, Lift vp now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

CHAP. VII.

5 The true fasting. 11 The rebellion of the people is the cause of their affliction.

And in the fourth yeere of king Darius, the word of the Lord came unto Zechariah in y^e fourth day of the ninth moneth, even in Chisleu.

2 For they had sent unto the house of God, Shazzer, and Regem-melech, and their men to pray before the Lord.

3 And to speake unto the Priests, which were in the house of the Lord of hostes, and to the Prophets, saying, Should I wepe in the fast moneth, and separate my selfe as I haue done these in many yeeres?

4 Then came the word of the Lord of hostes unto me, saying,

5 Speake unto all the people of the land, and to the Priests and say, When ye fasted and mourned in the first and fourth moneth, even these seuenthy yeeres, did ye fast voto me? Doe I approve it?

6 And when ye did eate, and when ye did drinke, did ye not eate for your selues, and drinke for your selues?

7 Should ye not heare the words which the Lord hath cryed by the ministry of the former Prophets when Ierusalem was inhabited, and in prosperitie, and the cities thereof round about her, when the South and the plaine was inhabited?

8 And the word of the Lord came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the Lord of hostes, saying, Create true iudgement, and shew mercy and compassion, euey man to his brother.

10 And oppresse not the widdeow, nor the fatherlesse, the stranger nor the poore, and let none of you imagine euill against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, & stopped their eares that they should not heare.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should heare the law, and the words which the Lord of hostes sent in his Spirit by the ministry of the former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the Lord of hostes.

13 Therefore it is come to passe, that as he cryed, and they would not heare, so they cryed, and I would not heare, saith the Lord of hostes.

14 But I scattered them among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed throught nor returned: for they laide the pleasant land to waste.

20 The calling of the Gentiles.

And the word of the Lord of hostes came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, I was ielous for Zion with great ielousie, and I was ielous for her with great wrath.

3 Thus saith the Lord, I will returne unto Zion, and will dwell in the middes of Ierusalem: and Ierusalem shall be called a citie of truth, and the mountaine of the f For there were both of the people, and of the Priests, which doubted, as touching this con- trouerfie, besides them which as yet remained in Caldea, and reasoned of it as of one of the chiefe points of their religion.

g For they thought: they had deserved to- ward God, be- cause of this fast which they in- uented of them- selves: & though fasting of it selfe be good, yet be- cause they thought it a ser- uice toward

God, and trusted therein, it is here reprooued.

Lord of hostes, the holy mountaine.

4 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, There shall yet olde men and old women dwell in the streetes of Ierusalem, and euery man with his staffe in his hand for very age.

5 And the streetes of the citie shall be full of boyes and girles playing in the streetes thereof.

6 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Though it be impossible in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these dayes, should it therefore be impossible in my sight, saith the Lord of hostes?

7 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, Beholde, I will deliuer my people from the East countrey, and from the West countrey.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the mids of Ierusalem, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the Lord of hostes: Let your hands be strong, ye that heare in these dayes these wordes by the mouth of the Prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the Lord of hostes was layd, that the Temple might be builded.

10 For before these dayes there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men, euery one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not increase the residue of this people as aforetime, saith the Lord of hostes.

12 For the seede shall be prosperous: the vine shall giue her fruite, and the ground shall giue her increase, and the heauens shall giue their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possesse all these things.

13 And it shall come to passe, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Iudah, and house of Israel, so will I deliuer you, and ye shall be a blessing: feare not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the Lord of hostes, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers sponked me into wrath, saith the Lord of hostes, and repented not,

15 So againe haue I determined in these dayes: to doe well vnto Ierusalem, and to the house of Iudah: feare ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall doe. Speake ye euery man the truth vnto his neighbour: execute iudgement truly and vprightly in your gates,

17 And let none of you imagine euill in your hearts against his neighbour, and loue no false oath: for all these are the things that I hate, saith the Lord.

18 And the word of the Lord of hostes came vnto me, saying,

19 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, The fast of the fourth moneth, and the fast of the fift, and the fast of the seuenth, and the fast of the tenth shall bee to the house of Iudah joy and gladnesse, and prosperous be their feasts: therefore loue the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, That there shall yet come people, and the inhabitants of great cities.

21 And they that dwell in one citie, shall goe to another, saying, * Up, let vs goe and pray before the Lord, and seeke the Lord of hostes: I will goe alio.

22 Yea, great people and mighty nations shall come to seeke the Lord of hostes in Ierusalem, and to pray before the Lord.

23 Thus saith the Lord of hostes, in those dayes shall ten men take hold out of all languages of the nations, euen take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, and say, Wee will goe with you: for wee haue heard that God is with you.

1 The threatning of the Gentiles. 9 The coming of Christ.

The burden of the word of the Lord in the land of Hadadach: and Damascus shall be his rest: when the eyes of man euen of all the tribes of Israel shall be toward the Lord.

2 And Hamath also shall border there by: Tyrus also and Sidon, though they be very wise.

3 For Tyrus did build her selfe a strong hold, and heaped vp silver as the dust, and gold as the mire of the streetes.

4 Behold, the Lord will spoile her, and hee will limite her power in the Sea, and she shall be denoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and feare, and Azrah also shall be very sorrowfull, and Ekron: for her countenance shall be ashamed, and the king shall perish from Azrah, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And the stranger shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistims.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but hee that remaineth, euen he shall be for our God, and hee shall bee as a prince in Iudah, but Ekron shall bee as a Iebusite.

8 And I will campe about mine house against the armie, against him that passeth by, and against him that returneth, dome. f Though they of Tyrus thinke themselves inuincible by reason of the Sea that compasseth them round about, yet they shall not escape Gods iudgements. g Meaning, that all should be destroyed sauca very few, that should remaine as strangers. h Hee promisth to deliuer the Iewes when hee shall take vengeance on their enemies for their cruelty, and wrongs done to them. i As the Iebusites had been destroyed, so should Ekron and all the Philistims. k He sheweth that Gods power onely shall be sufficient to defend his Church against all aduersaries, be they neuer so cruell, or assemble their power neuer so often.

1 That is, God hath now seene the great injuries and afflictions wherewith they have bene afflicted by their enemies,

m That is, hee hath righteousness and salvation in himselfe for the use and commodity of his Church,

n Which declares that they should not looke for such a king as should be glorious in the eyes of man, but should be poore, and yet in himselfe have all power to deliver his: and this is meant of Christ, as Mat. 21. 5. O no power of man or creature shall be able to let this kingdom of Christ, and he shall peaceably governe them by his word.

p That is, from the red sea to the sea called Syria-cum, and by these places which the Jewes knew he meant an infinite space and compass over the whole worlde.

q That is, from Euphrates, r Meaning, Jerusalem, or the Church which is saved by the blood of Christ, whereof the blood of the sacrifices was a figure, and is here called the covenant of the Church, because God made it with his Church and left it with them; for the love that he bare unto them.

f God sheweth that he will deliver his Church out of all dangers, seeme they never so great. t That is, into the holy land, where the city & the Temple are, where God will defend you. u Meaning, the faithful, which seemed to be in danger of their enemies on every side, and yet lived in hope that God would restore them to libertie. x That is, double benefites and prosperity in respect of that, which your fathers enjoyed from Dauids time to the captivity. y I will make Iudah and Ephraim, that is, my whole Church, victorious against all enemies, which he here meaneth by the Grecians. z He promisseth, that the Jewes shall destroy their enemies and have abundance, and excess of all things, as there is abundance on the altar when the sacrifice is offered: Which things are not to moove them to intemperancie, but to sobriety, and a thankfull remembrance of Gods great liberality. a The faithful shall be: renewed, and renewed of all, that the very enemies shall be compelled to esteeme them: for Gods glory shall shine in them, as Ioseph declared of Alexander the great, when he met Iudas the high Priest.

and no oppressour shall come upon them any more: for now I seeue with mine eyes.

9 Recoyce greatly, O daughter Zion: shout for ioy, O daughter Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: hee is iust, and sanctified himselfe, poore, and riding upon an asse, and upon a colt the foale of an asse.

10 And I will cut off the charrets from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem: the bowe of the battell shall be broken, and hee shall speake peace unto the heathen, and his dominion shall bee from sea unto sea, and from the river to the end of the land.

11 Thou also shalt bee saved through the blood of thy Covenant, I have looked thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turne you to the strong holde, ye prisoners of hope: even to day doe I declare, that I will render thee double unto thee.

13 For Iudah have I bent as a bow for mee: Ephraims hand have I filled, and I have rayled by thy sonnes, O Zion, against thy sonnes, O Grecia, and have made thee as a giants sword.

14 And the Lord shall be seene over them, and his arrow shall goe forth as the lightning: and the Lord God shall blow the trumpet, and shall come forth with the white winds of the South.

15 The Lord of hosts shall defend them, and they shall devour them, and subdue them with sling stones, and they shall drinke, and make a noyse as though wine, and they shall be filled like bowles, and as the hornes of the altar.

16 And the Lord their God shall deliver them in that day as the flocke of his people: for they shall bee as the stones of the crowne lifted up upon his land.

17 For how great is his goodness! and how great is his beautie! coene shall make the yong men cheerefull, and new wine the maidens.

2 The vanity of idolatry. 3 The Lord promisseth to visite and comfort the house of Israhel.

Ask ye you of the Lord raine in the time of the latter raine: that the Lord make white clouds, and give you showers of raine, and to euerie one graile in the field.

2 Surely the fooles have spoken vanity, and the soothsayers have seene a lie, and the dreamers have tolde a vaine thing, they comfort in vaine: therefore they went away as sheepe: they were troubled, because there was no shepheard.

3 My wrath was kindled against the shepherds, and I did visite the goats: but the Lord of hosts will visite his flocke the house of Iudah, and will make them as his beautiful houle in the battell.

4 Dur of him shall the corner come forth: out of him the naile, out of him the bow of battell, and out of him euerie appointer of tribute also.

5 And they shall bee as the mighty men, which tread downe their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battell, and they shall fight, because the Lord is with them, and the riders and horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Iudah, and I will yeeke the horse of Ioseph, and I will bring them againe, for I pity them, and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the Lord their God, and will heare them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be as a gyant: and their heart shall reioyce as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and bee glad: & their heart shall reioyce in the Lord.

8 I will blesse for them, and gather them: for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase, as they have increased.

9 And I will sowe them among the people, and they shall remember me in farre countreies: and they shall liue with their children, and turne againe.

10 I will bring them againe also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Asshur: and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall goe into the Sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, & all the depths of the river shall dry up: and the pit of Asshur shall be cast down, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the Lord, and they shall walke in his name, saith the Lord.

h That is, the ten tribes, which should be gathered under Christ to the rest of the Church. i Whereby he declareth the power of God, who needeth no great preparation when he will deliver his: for with a becke or hiffe he can call the hō all places suddenly. k Though they shall yet be scattered, and seeme to be lost, yet it shall be profitable unto them: for there they shall come to the knowledge of my Name, which was accomplished under the Gospel, among whom it was first preached. l Not that they should returne into their countrey, but be gathered & ioyn'd in one faith by the doctrine of the Gospel. m He alloweth to the deliuerance of the people out of Egypt, whereas the Angel smote the floods and rivers.

CHAP. XI.

1 The destruction of the Temple. 4 The care of the faithfull is committed to Christ. 7 A grievous vision against Ierusalem and Iudah.

a Because the Jewes thought themselves to strong by reason of this mountain, that no enemy could come to hurt them, the Prophet sheweth that when God sendeth the enemies, it shall shew it selfe ready to receiue them. b Shewing, that if the strong men were destroyed, the weaker were not able to resist. c Seeing that Lebanon was destroyed, which was the strongest munition, the weaker places could not thinke to hold out. d That is, the renouue of Iudah and Israel should perish. e Which being now destitute to befall, were deliuered as out of the Lions mouth. f Their gouernours destroy them without any remorse of conscience, or yet thinking that they doe euill. g He noteth the hypocrites which euer haue the Name of God in their mouthes, though in their life & doings they deny God, attributing their gains to Gods blessing, which cometh of the spoile of their bretheren. h I will cause one to destroy another. i Their gouernours shall execute cruelty ouer them. k That is, the small remnant, whom he thought worthy to shew mercy vnto. l God sheweth his great benefites toward his people, to conuince them of greater ingratitude, which would neither be ruled by his most beautiful order of gouernment, neither continue in the bands of brotherly vniue, and therefore he breaketh both the one and the other. Some reade for Bands, Destroyers, but in the 14. verse the first reading is confirmed. m Whereby hee sheweth his care and diligence, that hee would suffer them to haue no euil rulers, because they should consider his great loue. n Meaning the people, because they would not acknowledge these great benefites of God. o He sheweth that the least part euer profit by Gods iudgements. p Besides their ingratitude, God accuseth them of malice and wickednesse, which did not onely forget his benefites, but esteemed them as things of nought. q Shewing that it was too little to pay his wages, which could scarcely suffice to make a few tiles for to couer the Temple.

valued at of them. And I tooke the thirtie pieces of siluer, and cast them to the porter in the house of the Lord.

14 Then brake I mine other kasse, euen the Bands, that I might dissolve the brotherhood between Iudah and Israel.

15 And the Lord said vnto mee, Take to thee yet the instruments of a foolish shep-

16 For loe, I will raise vp a shepheard in the land, which shall not looke for the thing that is lost, nor seeke the tender lambs, nor deale that which is hurt, nor fede that that standeth vp: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and teare their clawes in pieces.

17 I idle shepheard that leaueh the flocke: the sword shall bee vpon his arme, and vpon his right rie. His arme shall bee cleane dyed vp, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

and sound. t By the arme he signifieth strength, as he doth wisdom and iudgement by the eye: that is, the plague of God shall take away both the strength and iudgement.

CHAP. XII.

Of the destruction and building againe of Ierusalem.

The burden of the word of the Lord vpon Israel, sayeth the Lord, which spread the heauens, and laid the foundation of the earth, and foined the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Ierusalem a heap of popson vnto all the people round about: and also with Iudah will be dee in the siege against Ierusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Ierusalem an heauie stone for all people: all that lift it vp shall be toyme, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day sayeth the Lord, I will smite euery holie with astonishment, and his rider with madnesse, and I will open mine eyes vpon the house of Iudah, and will smite euery holie of the people with blindness.

5 And the princes of Iudah shall say in their hearts, The inhabitants of Ierusalem shall be my strength in the Lord of hosts their God.

6 In that day will I make the princes of Iudah like coles of fire among the wood, and like a firebrand in the sheafe, and they themselves shall deuoure all the people round about on the right hand and on the left: and Ierusalem shall bee inhabited againe in her owne place, euen in Ierusalem.

7 The Lord also shall preferre the tents which are now of Iudah, as aforetime: therefore the glory of the house of Dauid shall not boast, nor the glory of the inhabitants of Ierusalem against Iudah.

8 In that day shall the Lord defend the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and he that is feeble among them, in that day shall be as Dauid: and the house of Dauid shall be as Gods house, and as the Angel of the Lord before them.

9 And in that day will I seeke to destroy all the nations that come against Ierusalem.

10 And I will powre vpon the house of Signifying, that they should haue a certaine kinde of regiment, and outward shew of gouernment: but in effect it should be none. b And in health as he doth wisdom and iudgement by the eye: that is, the plague of God shall take away both the strength and iudgement. c Ierusalem shall be defended against all her enemies. so shall God defend all Iudah also, and shall destroy her enemies. d Every captaine that had many vnder him afore, shall now thinke that the small power of Ierusalem shall be sufficient to defend them against all enemies, because the Lord is a-leu among them. e The people which are now as it were dispersed by the fields, and lie open to their enemies, shall be no lesse preferred by my power, then if they were vnder their kings. (which is meant by the house of Dauid) or in their defended cities.

e They shal haue the feeling of my grace by faith, and know that I haue compassion on them.

f That is, whom they haue continually vexed with their obstinacy, & grieved my spirit, Ioh. 1. 9. 37. where it is referred to Christs body, which here is referred to the Spirit of God.

g They shall turne to God by true repentance, whom before they had so grievously offended by their ingratitude. h They shal lament and repent exceedingly for their offences against God. i Which was the name of a towne and place neere to Megiddo, where Iosiah was slaine, 2. Chron. 35. 22. k That is, in al places where the Iewes shall remaine. l Signifying, that this mourning or repentance should not be a vaine ceremonie: but euery one touched with his owne griefe shall lament. m Vnder these certaine families hee containeth all the tribes, and sheweth that both the Kings and the Priests had by their sin pierced Christ. n Called also Simeon. o To wit, which were elected by grace, and preferred from the common destruction.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Of the fountaine of grace. 2 Of the cleane riddance of idolatrie. 3 The zeale of the godly against false prophets.

a He sheweth what shall be the fruit of their repentance, to wit, remission of sinnes by the blood of Christ, which shall be a continual running fountaine, and purge them from al vncleanness.

b He promisseth that God wil also purge them from all superstition, and that their religion shall be pure. c Meaning, the false prophets and teachers, who are the corrupters of all religion, whom the Prophet here calleth vncleane spirits. d That is, when they shall prophesie lies, and make God, which is the author of truth, a cloke therunto. e He sheweth what zeale the godly shal haue vnder the Kingdome of Christ, Deut. 1. 3. 6. 9. f God shall make them ashamed of their errors & lies, and bring them to repentance, and they shall no more weare Prophets apparel, to make their doctrine seeme more holy. g They shal censure their former ignorance, and be content to labour for their living.

David, and vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem the Spirit of grace and of compassion, and they shal looke vpon me, whom they haue pierced, and they shal lament for him, as one mourneth for his onely sonne, and be sorry for him as one is sorry for his first borne.

11 In that day shall there bee a great mourning in Ierusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall bewaile euery familie apart, the family of the house of David apart, and their wiues apart: the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wiues apart:

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wiues apart: the family of Simeon apart, and their wiues apart.

14 All the families that remaine, euery familie apart, and their wiues apart.

7 ¶ Arise, sword, vpon my shepherd, and vpon the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of hostes: smite the shepherd, and the sheepe shall be scattered, and I will turne mine hand vpon the little ones.

8 And in all the land, sayeth the Lord, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die: but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring that third part thorow the fire, and will fine them as the siluer is fined, and will try them as gold is tryed: they shall call on my Name, and I wil heare them: I will say, It is my people, and they shall say, The Lord is my God.

CHAP. XIII.

8 Of the doctrine that shall proceede out of the Church, and of the restauration thereof

¶ Hold, the day of the Lord commeth, and the spoile shall be divided in the mids of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Ierusalem to battell, and the citie shall be taken, and the houses spoyled, and the women defiled, and halfe of the citie shall goe into captiuitie, and the residue of the people shal not be cut off from the citie.

3 Then shall the Lord goe forth & fight against those nations, as when hee fought in the day of battell.

4 And his seete shall stand in that day vpon the mount of olives, which is before Ierusalem on the East side, and the mount of olives shall cleaue in the mids thereof: toward the East and toward the West there shall bee a very great valley, and halfe of the mountaine shall remooue toward the North, and halfe of the mountaine toward the South.

5 And ye shall flee vnto the valley of the mountaines: for the valley of the mountaines shall reach vnto Azal: yea, ye shal flee like as ye fled from the earthquake in the dayes of Uziah King of Iudah: and the Lord my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And in that day shal there be no cleare light, but darke.

7 And there shal be a day (it is knowne to

d So that out of all the parts of the world, they shal see Ierusalem, which was before hid with this mountaine: and this hee meaneth of the spiritual Ierusalem the Church. e He speaketh of the hypocrites, which could not abide Gods presence, but should flee into al places, where they might hide them among the mountains, f Read Amos 1. 1. g Because they did not credite the Prophets words, he turneth to God, and comforteth himselfe in that that hee knew that these things should come, and saith, Thou, O God, with thine Angels wilt come to performe this great thing.

h Hereby he sheweth that though their parents and friends dealt more gently with them, & put them not to death, yet they would so punish their children that became false prophetes, that the markes and signes should remaine for ever. i The Prophet warneth the Iewes, that bea He armeth the godly against the great tentations that should come before they enioyed this prosperous estate promised vnder Christ, that whoso these dangers should come, they might know that they were warned of them before.

b As your fathers and you haue had experience both as the red sea and at all other times.

c By this manner of speech the Prophet sheweth Gods power and care ouer his Church, and how hee will as it were by miracle saue it.

h Signifying that there should be great troubles in the Church, & that the time hereof is in the Lords hands, yet at length (which is here meant by the evening) God would send comfort.

i That is, the spirituall graces of God, which should euer continue in most abundance.

k All idolatry & superstition shall be abolished, and there shall be one God, one faith, and one religion.

the Lord) neither day nor night, but about the evening time it shall be light.

8 And in that day shall there waters of life goe out from Ierusalem, halfe of them toward the East sea, and halfe of them toward the breemost sea, and shall bee both in summer and winter.

9 And the Lord shall be King ouer all the earth: in that day shall there be one Lord, and his Name shall be one.

10 All the earth shall be turned as a plaine from Geba to Rimmon, toward the South of Ierusalem, and it shall be lifted vp, and inhabited in her place: from Beniamins gate vnto the place of the first gate, vnto the corner gate, and from the tower of Mananich, vnto the kings winepresses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more destruction, but Ierusalem shall be safely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite all people that haue fought against Ierusalem: their flesh shall consume away, though they stand vpon their feete, and their eyes shall consume in their holes, and their tongue shall consume in their mouth.

13 But in that day a great tumult of the Lord shall be among them, and euery one shall take the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise vp against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And Iudah shall fight also against Ierusalem, and the arme of all the heathen shall bee gathered round about, with gold and silver, and great abundance of apparell.

15 Yet this shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the asse, and of all the beasts that be in these tents as this plague.

16 But it shall come to passe that euery one that is left of all the nations, which came against Ierusalem, shall goe vp from yere to yere to worship the King the Lord of hostes, and to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

17 And who so will not come vp of all the families of the earth vnto Ierusalem to worship the King the Lord of hostes, euen vpon them shall come no raine.

18 And if the family of Egypt goe not vp, and come not, it shall not raine vpon them. This shall be the plague wherewith the Lord will smite all the heathen that come not vp to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt and the punishment of all the nations, that come not vp to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

20 In that day shall there be written vpon the bydes of the horses, The holiness vnto the Lord, and the hors in the Lords house shall be like the bowles before the altar.

21 Yea, euery pot in Ierusalem and Iudah shall be holy vnto the Lord of hostes, and all they that sacrifice, shall come and take of them, and seeke therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the Lord of hostes.

o The enemies are rich, and therefore shall not come for a praye, but to destroy and shed blood.

p As the men should be destroyed, ver. 12.

q By the Egyptians which were great enemies to true religion, he meaneth all the Gentiles.

r Signifying that to what seruice they were put now (whether to labour, or to seruice in warre) they were now holy, because the Lord had sanctified them.

s As precious the one as the other, because they shall be sanctified.

t But all shall be pure and cleane, and there shall neither be hypocrite, nor any that shall corrupt the true seruice of God.

Malachi.

THE ARGUMENT.

This Prophet was one of the three, which God raised vp for the comfort of his Church after the captiuitie, and after him there was no more vntill Iohn Baptist was sent, which was either a token of Gods wrath, or an admonition that they should with more feruent desires looke for the coming of Messiah. He confirmeth the same doctrine that the two former doe, but chiefly he reproveth the Priests for their couetousnesse, and for that they serued God after their owne fantasies, and not according to the precept of his word. He also noteth certaine peculiar sinnes, which were then among them, as marrying of idolatrous and many wiues, murmurings against God, impatience, and such like. Notwithstanding for the comfort of the godly, he declareth that God would not forget his promise made vnto their fathers, but would send Christ his messenger, in whom the Covenant should be accomplished, whose coming should be terrible to the wicked, and bring all consolation and ioy vnto the godly.

CHAP. I.

A complaint against Israel and chiefly the Priests.

The burden of the word of the Lord to Israel by the ministration of Malachi.

2 I haue loued you, sayeth the Lord: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loued vs? Was not Esau Iacobos brother, sayeth the Lord: yet I loued Iacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and made his

a Reade Mai.

b Which declareth their great ingratitude, that did not acknowledge this loue, which was so euident, in that he chose Abraham from out of all the world, and next chose Iacob the younger brother of whom they came, and left Esau the Elder. c For besides that the signes of mine hatred appeared euen when hee was made seruant vnto his younger brother, being yet in his mothers belly, and also afterward in that he was put from his birthright, yet euen now before your eyes the signes hereof are euident, in that that his country lieth waste, and he shall neuer returne to inhabit it, whereas yee my people, whom the enemy hated more then them, are by my grace and loue toward you deliuered, Reade Rom. 9. 13.

mountaines waste, and his heritage a wilderness for dragons.

4 Though Edom say, We are impouertised, but we will returne, and build the desolate places, yet sayeth the Lord of hostes, They shall build, but I will destroy it, and they shall call them, The border of wickednesse, and the people with whom the Lord is angry for euer.

5 And your eyes shall see it, and yee shall say, The Lord will bee magnified vpon the border of Israel.

6 A soune honoureth his father, and a seruant his master. If then I be a father, where is mine honour? And if I be a master, where is my feare, saith the Lord of hostes vnto you, O Priests that despise my Name: and ye say, Wherein haue we despised thy Name?

e Hee noteth their grosse hypocritie, which would not see their fautes, but most impudently couered them, and so were blind guides.

d Besides the rest of the people, he condemneth the Priests chiefly, because they should haue reproveth others for their hypocritie, and obstinacy against God, and not haue hardened them by their example to greater euill.

f Ye receive all manner offerings for your owne greedinesse, and doe not examine whether they be according to my Law or no.

g Not that they said this, but by their doings they declared no lesse.

h You make it no fault: where-by he condemneth them that thinke it sufficient to serve God partly as he hath commaunded, and partly after mans fantasie, and so come not to that purenes of religio, which he requireth, and therefore in reproch bewetheth them that a mortall man would not be content to be so served.

i He derideth the Priests, who bare the people in hand, that they prayed for them, and sheweth that these evils came vpon the people.

k Will God consider your office and state, seeing ye are so couetous and wicked?

l Because the Levites who kept the doores, did not try whether the sacrifices that came in, were according to the Law, God wisteth that they would rather shut the doores, then to receive such as were not perfect.

m God sheweth that their ingratitude, & neglect of his true service, shalbe the cause of the calling of the Gentiles: and here the Prophet that was vnder the Law, framed his words to the capacity of the people, and by the office and sacrifice he meaneth the spiritual service of God, which should be vnder the Gospell, when an end should be made to all these legall ceremonies by Christes onely sacrifice.

n Both the Priests and the people were infected with this error, that they passed not what was offered: for they thought that God was as well content with the leane as with the fat: but in the meane season they shewed not that obedience to God which he required, and so committed both impietie, and also shewed their contempt of God, and couetousnesse.

o The Priests and people were both weary with serving God, and passed not what manner of sacrifice and service they gave to God: for that which was least profitable, was thought good enough for the Lord.

p That is, hath abilitie to serve the Lord according to his word, and yet will serve him according to his couetous mind.

7 See offer ^auncleane bread vpon mine altar, and you say, ^bWherein haue wee polluted thee? In that ye say, ^cThe table of the Lord is not ^dto be regarded.

8 And if ye offer the blinde for sacrifice, it is ^enot euill: and if ye offer the lame and sicke, it is not euill: offer it now vnto thy Prince: will hee be content with thee, or accept thy person, saith the Lord of hostes?

9 And now, I pray you, ^fpray before God, that hee may haue mercy vpon vs: this hath bene by your meanes: will hee regard ^gyour persons, saith the Lord of hostes?

10 ^hWho is there euen among you, ⁱthat would shut the doores, and kinde not fire on mine altar in vaine? I haue no pleasure in you, saith the Lord of hostes, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the Sunne vnto the going downe of the same, my Name is ^jgreat among the Gentiles, and in euery place incense shall be offered vnto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name is great among the heathen, saith the Lord of hostes.

12 But ye haue polluted it, in that ye say, ^kThe table of the Lord is ^lpolluted, and the fruit thereof, euen his meate is not to be regarded.

13 Ye said also, Behold, it is a ^mwearienes, and ye haue trusted at it, saith the Lord of hostes, and ye offered that which was rancid, and the lame, and the sicke: thus ye offered an offering: should I accept this of your hand, saith the Lord?

14 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flocke ⁿa male, and voweth, and sacrificeth vnto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord of hostes, and my Name is terrible among the heathen.

15 Because the Levites who kept the doores, did not try whether the sacrifices that came in, were according to the Law, God wisteth that they would rather shut the doores, then to receive such as were not perfect.

m God sheweth that their ingratitude, & neglect of his true service, shalbe the cause of the calling of the Gentiles: and here the Prophet that was vnder the Law, framed his words to the capacity of the people, and by the office and sacrifice he meaneth the spiritual service of God, which should be vnder the Gospell, when an end should be made to all these legall ceremonies by Christes onely sacrifice.

n Both the Priests and the people were infected with this error, that they passed not what was offered: for they thought that God was as well content with the leane as with the fat: but in the meane season they shewed not that obedience to God which he required, and so committed both impietie, and also shewed their contempt of God, and couetousnesse.

o The Priests and people were both weary with serving God, and passed not what manner of sacrifice and service they gave to God: for that which was least profitable, was thought good enough for the Lord.

p That is, hath abilitie to serve the Lord according to his word, and yet will serve him according to his couetous mind.

And now, O ye ^aPriests, this commandement is for you.

2 If ye will not heare it, nor consider it in your heart, to giue glory ^bvnto my Name, saith the Lord of hostes, ^cI will euen send a curse vpon you, ^dand will curse your blessings: yea, ^eI haue cursed them already, because ye doe not consider it in your heart.

3 Behold, ^fI will corrupt ^gyour seed, and cast dung vpon your faces, euen the ^hdung of your solumne feasts, and you shall bee like vnto it.

4 And ye shall know, that ⁱI haue ^jsent this commandement vnto you, that my covenant which ^kI made with ^lLeui, might stand, saith the Lord of hostes.

5 ^mBy ⁿa covenant was with him of life and peace, and ^oI ^pgaue him feare, and hee feared mee, and was asfraid before ^qmy Name.

6 The law of ^rtrueth was in his mouth, and there was no iniquitie found in his lippes: hee walked with mee in peace and equity, and did turne many away from iniquitie.

7 For the Priests ^slips should preserve knowledge: and they should seeke the Law at his mouth: for he is the ^tmessenger of the Lord of hostes.

8 But ye are gone out of the way: ye haue caused many to fall by the Law: ye haue broken the Covenant of ^uLeui, saith the Lord of hostes.

9 Therefore haue I made you also to be despised, and vile before all the people, because ye kept not my wayes, but haue bene partiall in the Law.

10 Haue not we all one ^vfather? hath not one God made vs? why doe wee transgresse euery one against his brother, and breake the covenant of ^wour fathers?

11 ^xJudah hath transgressed, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Ierusalem: for ^yJudah hath defiled the holinesse of the Lord which he loued, and hath married the ^zdaughter of a strange god.

12 The Lord will cut off the man that doeth this: both the master and the seruant out of the Tabernacle of ^{aa}Jaakob, and him that ^{ab}offereth an offering vnto the Lord of hostes.

13 And this haue ye done againe, and ^{ac}covered the altar of the Lord with tears, with weeping, and with mourning: because

^{al}Whereby they had bound themselves to God to be an holy people. ^{am}They haue ioyned themselves in marriage with them that are of another religion. ^{an}That is, the Priests. ^{ao}Ye cause the people to lament, because that God doth not regard their sacrifices, so that they seeme to sacrifice in vaine.

a He speaketh vnto them chiefly, but vnder them he cōteinneth the people also.

b To serue me according to my word.

c That is, the abundance of Gods benefits.

d Your seede sheweth fall come to no profit.

e You boast of your holinesse, sacrifices, and feasts, but they shall turne to your shame, and be as vile as dung.

f The Priests objected against the Prophet, that he could not reprove them, but he must speake against the Priesthood, and the office established of God by promise, but hee sheweth that the office is nothing slandered, when these villaines and dung are called by their owne names.

g He sheweth what were the two conditions of the covenant made with the tribe of ^{ah}Leui: on Gods part, that he would giue them long life and felicity, and on their part, that they should faithfully serue him according to his word. ^{ai}I prescribed ^{aj}Leui a certaine Law to serve me. ^{ak}He served me and set forth my glory with all humility and submission. ^{al}He sheweth that the Priest ought to haue knowledge to instruct other in the word of the Lord.

f This is another fault, whereof he accused acceptably at your hands.

14 Pe he say, Wherein? Because the Lord hath bene witness betwene thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast transgressed, yet is thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not hee make one? yet had he abundance of spirit: and wherefore one? because he sought a godly feede: therefore keep your selues in your spirit, and let none trespass against the wife of his youth.

16 If thou hatest her, put her away, saith the Lord God of Israel, yet he couereth the iniurie vnder his garment, saith the Lord of hostes: therefore keepe your selues in your spirit, and transgress not.

17 Pe haue I wearied the Lord with your wordes: yet ye say, Wherein haue we wearied him? Whence ye say, Every one that doth euill is good in the sight of the Lord, and hee delighteth in them. Where is the God of iudgement?

1 Of the messenger of the Lord Iohn Baptist, and of Christs office.

Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before mee: and the Lord whom ye seeke, shall suddenly come to his Temple: euen the messenger of the covenant whom ye desire: behold, hee shall come, saith the Lord of hostes.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall endure, when hee appeareth? for hee is like a purging fire, and like fullers sope.

3 And hee shall sit downe to trie and fine the sinner: hee shall euen fine the finnes of Leuit, and purifie them as golde and siluer, that they may bring offerings vnto the Lord in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offerings of Iudah and Jerusalem be acceptable vnto the Lord, as in olde time, and in the yeeres afore.

5 And I will come nere to you to iudgement, and I will be a swift witness against the soothsayers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, & against those that wrongfully keepe backe the hirelings wages, and vex the widow and the fatherlesse, and oppresse the stranger, and feare not me, saith the Lord of hostes.

and purge his, & make them cleane. e He beginneth at the Priests, that they might be lights and shine vnto others. f They murmured against God, because they saw not his helpe euer present to defend them: and therefore he accuseth them of ingatitude, and sheweth that in that they are not daily consumed, it is a token that hee doth still defend them, & so his mercy toward them neuer changeth.

7 From the dayes of your fathers, ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and haue not kept them: & returne vnto me, and I will returne vnto you, saith the Lord of hostes: but ye said, Wherein shall we returne?

17 And they shall be to me, saith the Lord of hostes, in that day that I shall doe this, for a stocke, and I will spare them as a man spareth his owne sonne that serueth him.

onely preferred to honour, but also delivered from dangers, o After these admonitions of the Prophet some were liuely touched, and encouraged others to feare God. p Both be cause the thing was strange in that some turned to God in that great and vniuersall corruption, and also that this night be an example of Gods mercies to all penitent sinners. q When I shall restore my Church according to my promise, they shall be as mine owne proper goods. r That is, forgive their finnes, and gouerne them with my Spirit.

The day of the Lord, before the which Elijah should come.

compared to Elijah. ^f Which as it is true for the wicked, so doth it waken the godly, and call them to repentance ^g He sheweth wherein Iohns office should stand, in the turning of mento God, and ioyning the father and children in one vnity of faith: so that the father shal turne to the religion of his sonne which is conuerted to Christ, and the sonne shall embrace the faith of the true fathers Abraham, Izhak and Iaakob. ^h The second point of his office, was to denounce Gods iudgments against them that would not receiue Christ.

The end of the Prophets.

Certaine questions and answers touching the doctrine of Predestination, the vse of Gods word and Sacraments.

Question.

Why doe men so much vary in matters of religion?

Answer.

Because all haue not the like measure of knowledge, neither doe all beleue the Gospel of Christ.

Question.

What is the reason thereof?

Answer.

Because they onely beleue the Gospel and doctrine of Christ, which are ordeined vnto eternall life.

Question.

Are not all ordeined vnto eternall life?

Answer.

Some are vessels of wrath ordeined vnto destruction, as others are vessels of mercie prepared to glory.

Question.

How standeth it with Gods iustice, that some are appointed vnto damnation?

Answer.

Very well: because all men haue in themselves sinne, which deserueth no lesse: and therefore the mercie of God is wonderfull in that he vouchsafeth to saue some of that sinfull race, and to bring them to the knowledge of the truth.

Question.

If Gods ordinance and determination must of necessity take effect, then what need any man to care? for hee that liueth well, must needs be damned, if hee be therunto ordained: and he that liueth ill must needs be saued, if he be therunto appointed.

Answer.

Not so: for it is not possible, that either the elect should alwayes be without care to doe well, or that the reprobate should haue any will therunto. For to haue either good will or good worke, is a testimonie of the Spirit of God which is giuen to the Elect onely, whereby faith is so wrought in them, that being grafted in Christ, they grow in holinesse to that glory, wherunto they are appointed. Neither are they so vaine as once to thinke that they may doe as they list themselves, because they are predestinate vnto saluation: but rather they endeavour to walke in such good workes as God in Christ Iesus hath ordeined them vnto, and prepared for them to be occupied in, to their owne comfort, stay and assurance, and to his glory.

Question.

But how shall I know myselfe to be one of those whom God hath ordeined to life eternall?

Answer.

By the motions of spirituall life, which belongeth onely to the children of God: by the which that life is perceiued, euen as the life of this body is discerned by the sense and motions thereof.

Question.

What meane you by the motions of spirituall life?

Answer.

I meane remouall of conscience, loyned with the loosing of sinne, and loue of righteousness: the hand of faith reaching vnto life eternall in Christ, the conscience comforted in distresse, and raised vp to confidence in God by the worke of his Spirit: a thankfull remembrance of Gods benefits receiued, and the bling of all aduerities as occasion of amendment sent from God.

Question.

Cannot such perish as at some time or other feele these motions within themselves?

Answer.

It is not possible that they should: for as Gods purpose is not changeable, so hee repenteth not of the gifts and graces of his adoption: neither doeth hee cast off those whom he hath once receiued?

Question.

Why then should we pray by the example of Dauid, that hee cast vs not from his face, and that hee take not his holy Spirit from vs?

Answer.

In so praying we make protestation of the weakenesse of flesh, which mooneth vs to doubt: yet should not wee haue courage to aske, if wee were not assured that God will giue according to his purpose and promise, that which we require.

Question.

Doe the children of God feele the motions aforesaid alwayes alike?

Answer.

No truely: for God sometime to proue his, seemeth to leaue them in such sort, that the flesh ouermatcherh the spirit, whereof ariseth trouble of conscience for the time:

yet the spirit of adoption is neuer taken from them, that haue once receiued it: else might they perish. But as in many diseases of the body, the powers of bodily life are letted: so in some assaults these motions of spirituall life are not percelued, because they lie hiddden in our manifold infirmities, as the fire covered with ashes. Yet as after sicknesse commeth health, & after cloudes the Sunne shineth cleare: so the powers of spirituall life will more or lesse be felt and percelued in the children of God.

Question.

What if I neuer feel these motions in my selfe, shall I despair and thinke my selfe a cast away?

Answer.

God forbid: for God calleth his at what time hee seeth good: and the instruments whereby he usually calleth, haue not the like effect at all times, yet it is not good to neglect the meanes whereby God hath determined to worke the saluation of his. For as ware is not melted without heat, nor clay hardened but by meanes thereof: so God vseth meanes both to draw those vnto himselfe, whom he hath appointed vnto saluation, and also to bewray the wickednesse of them whom he finally condemneth.

Question.

By what meanes vseth God to draw men to himselfe that they may be saued?

Answer.

By the preaching of his word, and the ministering of his Sacraments thereunto annexed.

Question.

What meane you by the word of God?

Answer.

I meane the doctrine of the Prophets and Apostles which they receiued of the spirit of God, and haue left written in that booke which we commonly call the Old and New Testament.

Question.

How may I be assured that it is the word of God, which that Booke conteineth?

Answer.

By the maiesty of God appearing in that plaine and simple doctrine; by the purenesse, brightnesse, and holinesse thereof: by the certaintie of euery thing therein affirmed: by the successe of all things according to it: by perpetuall consent which is to be seene in euery part thereof: by the excellencie of the matters deteced: But especially by the testimony of Gods Spirit, whereby it was written, who moueth the hearts of those in whom it reiteth, to consent vnto the word, & presently to embrace it.

Question.

How doth this word of God serue to draw men vnto him?

Answer.

When it is so preached and heard, that men may understand and learne what God teacheth: accept and receiue thankfully that which is thereby giuen, promised and assured: and be moued with desire and diligence to doe that which it commandeth.

Question.

Doe the Sacraments also serue to this ende?

Answer.

Pea verily: that by sight, taste and feeling, as well as by hearing we might be instructed, assured, and brought to obedience.

Question.

How doeth our Baptisme serue herunto?

Answer.

It teacheth vs to put on Christ, that with his righteounesse our sinnefulnesse may be hiddden: it assureth vs that we are so graft into Christ, that all our sinnes by him are washed away: it chargeth vs to die to sinne, to continue in the possession of Christ, and to loue each other.

Question.

Doth the Lords Supper also this vse?

Answer.

Pea doubtlesse: for it teacheth, that the body and blood of Christ crucified, is the only food of the new borne children of God: it assureth that Christ is wholly theirs to giue and to continue life spirituall and heauenly to body and soule, to nourish, strengthen, refresh, and to make cheerrull the hearts of the elect: it requirerth thankfull remembrance of the death of Christ, unitie among those that doe professe him, with a free confession of his truth.

Question.

Why is not this vse of the Sacraments commonly knowne?

Answer.

Because they are abused for forme, for fashion, for custome and company, without regard vnto the word, whereunto they are annexed, that they ought not vpon any necessity by any person bee seuered from it, which teacheth the right vse of euery thing.

Question.

I perceiue that nothing is more necessarie then the word of God: the refore I pray you shew me how I may attaine to some knowledge and profite thereby.

Answer.

By diligent hearing of such as preach it, by continuall and orderly exercise of reading and praying.

Question.

What orderly exercise thinke you most conuenient to be vied herin?

Answer.

Answer.

That as every day twice at the least, wee most commonly receiue foode to the nourishment of this corporall life, so no day bee let passe without some reading, in such sort that occasion thereby may bee taken to speake againe vnto God by prayer as he in his word speaketh vnto vs: So that at the least two Chapters would be orderly and aduisedly read every day, all other businesse, impediments and lets let apart.

Question.

This seemeth very easie to be done: what thinke you else requisite?

Answer.

That some speciall places of Scripture be so committed to memory, that the minde may euer be furnished with some good matter against all temptations. To which end

I note these Scriptures vnto you, wherunto you may ioine other at your owne choise: Psalmes 139, 37, 50. Psalms 53. John 17. Rom. 8. 1. 1 Tim. 4.

Question.

But the Scriptures are hard, and not easie to vnderstand.

Answer.

Discourage not your selfe herewith: for God maketh them easie to such as in humilitie seke him: and that hardnesse that you finde, serueth to mooue you to the more diligence, and to make inquiry of such as haue knowledge when any doubt ariseth. That which you perceiue not at one time, God shall reueale at another: So that you shall haue your growing in grace, knowledge and godlines, to Gods glory and your owne comfort in Christ, whole Name for euer be praised, Amen.

1875

The summe of the whole Scripture of the Bookes of the Old and New Testament.

GOD.

HE bookes of the olde Testament doe teach vs, that the same God, whom Adam, Noe, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Dauid, and the other fathers did worship, is * the onely true God, and that hee the same is Almighty and euerlasting: who of his merre goodnesse hath created by his Word ^b heauen and earth, and all that is in them: From whom all things doe come: without whom there is nothing at all: And that he is iust and mercifull: who also ^d worketh all in all, ^e after his owne will: f To whom it is not lawfull to say, Wherefore doth he thus or thus.

Creation of man,

Sinne.

Moreover, these Bookes teach vs, that this very God Almighty, after he created all things, shope ^a Mallo Adam the first man, ^s to the image and spirituall similitude of himselfe, and that he did constitute him Lord ouer all things that he had created in earth. Which Adam by the cruie and fraude of the deuill, transgressing the precept of his Creator, ^h by this his sinne brought in such and so great sinne into the worlde, that we which be sprong from him by the flesh, ⁱ bee in nature the children of wrath, and thereupon we be made subiect and thrall to death, to damnation, to the yoke and tyranny of the deuill.

Christ promised.

Furthermore, we are taught by these excellent bookes, that God promised to ^k Adam, ^l Abraham, ^m Isaac, ⁿ Jacob, ^o Dauid, and to other Fathers of the olde time, that he would sende that blessed seede, his sonne Iesus Christ our sauour, which should deliuer all those from sinne, and from the tyrannic of the deuill which by a liuely and working faith should beleue this promise, and put their trust in Iesus Christ, hoping that of him and by him, they should obtaine this deliuerance.

The Lawe.

Also they giue vs to vnderstand, that in the meane season, while those Fathers the Israelites looked for the saluation, and deliuerance promised (for that the nature of man is such, so proud and so corrupt, that those would not willingly acknowledge themselves to bee sinners, which had neede of the sauour promised) God the Creator gaue by Moses his ^q Lawe written in two Tables of stone: that by it, sinne & the malice of mans heart being ^r known, men might more vehemently thirst for the comming of Iesus Christ, who should redeeme and deliuer them from sinne: which thing, neither the Lawe, nor yet the sacrifices and oblations of the Law did ^t performe. For they were shadowes and figures of the true oblation of the body of Christ: by which oblation all ^u sinne should be blotted out, and quite put away.

Christ God our Saviour came.

By the bookes of the new Testament we be taught, that Christ ^v so afore promised (* which is God ^w aboute all things most blessed for euer) euen he, ^x I say, was shadowed in the bookes of the olde Testament, and in sacrifices figured, that hee was ^y sent at the last from the Father, the selfe same time which the Father did constitute within himselfe: ^z I say, ^{aa} at that time when all wickednesse abounded in the world, then hee was sent: And this Iesus our Saviour being borne in the flesh, ^{ab} suffered death, and rose againe from the dead. Which actes of his were not done by him in respect of the ^{ac} good workes of any man (for we were all sinners) but that this God our Father should ^{ad} appeare true, in exhibiting the abundant riches of his grace which he promised, and that ^{ae} through his mercie hee might bring vs to saluation.

A lambe.
A sacrifice.
Peace.
Adoption.

Whereupon it is evidently shewed in the ^{af} Newe Testament, that Iesus Christ, being the true ^{ag} lambe, the true ^{ah} sacrifice of the worlde, ^{ai} putting away the sinnes of men, came into this worlde to purchase grace and ^{aj} peace for vs with the Father, ^{ak} walking vs from our sinnes in his owne blood, and should deliuer vs from the bondage of the deuill, whomby sinne we did serue: And so we should be ^{al} adopted by him to be the sonnes of God, made ^{am} heires with him of that most excellent and euerlasting kingdome.

The holy Ghost, Faith.

Now that we should acknowledge this singular and excellent benefit of God towards vs, almighty God ^{an} giueth vs his holy Spirit: the ^{ao} fruit and effect of the which, is faith in God, and in his Christ. For without the holy Ghost, by which we are instructed and ^{ap} sealed, neither can we beleue that God the Father sent Messias, nor yet that Iesus is Christ: For ^{aq} no man (saith Paul) can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost. The ^{ar} same Spirit witnesseth to our spirit, that we are the children of God, ^{as} and pouereth into our bowels that Charitie which Paul describeth to the Corinthians. Furthermore, that holy Spirit doth giue vs hope, which is a sure looking for eternall life, whereof he himselfe is the certaine ^{at} token and pledge. Also he giueth vs other ^{au} spirituall gifts, of the which Paul writeth to the Galatians. Therefore the benefit of faith is not yet to be desired or hid to be set by. For by the means of Iustificacion and Sanctification.

this trust & ^{av} faith in Christ, which ^{aw} worketh by charity, & sheweth it selfe forth by the works of charity, moving man thereto, we are ^{ax} iustified and sanctified: that is to say, God and the Father of our Lord

Iesus

The summe of the holy Scripture.

Iesus Christ (which is made our Father also by him being our brother) doeth accept vs to be iust and holy through his grace, and through the merite of his Sonne Iesus Christ, not imputing our finnes to vs. So farre forth, that we should suffer the paines of heli for them.

Finally, Christ himselfe came into the world, to the intent that we through him being sanctified and cleansed from our finnes, following his will in good workes, should deny the things pertaining to the flesh, and freely serue him in righteousness and holinesse all the dayes of our life: and that by good workes (which God hath prepared for vs to walke in) we should shew our selues to be called to his grace, and gift of faith: which good workes who so hath not, doeth shew himselfe not to haue such a faith in Christ as is required in vs.

To Christ must we come, and I follow him with a cheerefull minde, that he may teach vs: For hee is our master, a lowly and humble of heart: he is to vs an example, whereby we must learne the rule to liue well.

Moreouer, he is our Bishop, & our high Priest, which did himselfe offer vp for vs his own blood, being the onely mediator betweene God and men: Who now sitteth at the right hand of God the Father, being made our Advocate, making prayer and intercession for vs: who doubtlesse shall obtaine for vs whatsoever we shall desire, either of him, or else of his Father in his Name, if so be that we thus desiring, shall beleue that he will so do: for thus hath he promised. Therefore let vs not doubt, if we sinne at any time, to come with repentance (to the which he doeth inuite and stirre vs at the very beginning of his preaching) and with sure trust to the throne of his grace, with this beleefe, that we shall obtaine mercy. For therefore came he into the world, that he might saue sinners by his grace.

This is verily Christ Iesus, which shall come at a certaine time appointed by his Father, and shall sit in great maiestie to iudge all men, and to render to every man the workes of his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill: And he shall say to them which shall be on the right side, which in this world did looke for the good things to come (that is to say, liue euerlasting): Come yee blessed of my Father, enioy the kingdome that hath bene prepared for you from the beginning of the world: but to them which shall be on the left side, he shall say, Depart from me ye cursed into euerlasting fire prepared for the deuill and his angels. And then shall the end bee, when Christ hauing utterly vanquished all maner of enemies, shall deliuer vp the kingdome to God the Father.

To the intent that wee might vnderstand these things, the sacred Bookes of the Bible were deliuered to vs by the goodnesse of God through his holy Spirit, with the preaching of that doctrine which is contained in them, and with his Sacraments, by which the trueth of this doctrine is sealed vp to vs: that we might vnderstand, I say, and beleue that there is one onely true God, and one Sauiour Iesus Christ, whom (as he had promised) hee hath sent: and that wee beleueing, might haue in his Name liue euerlasting.

Besides this foundation, no man can lay any other in the Church of Christ: and vpon this foundation the Church doeth stand sure and steadfast. And Paul willett him to bee accursed which shall preach any other faith and saluation, then by Iesus Christ, yea, though hee were an Angel from heauen.

For of him, through him, and for him, are all things: To whom with the Father and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end, Amen.

Certaine

The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ according to Matthew.

THE ARGUMENT.

a This word signifieth good tidings, and is taken here for the story which containeth the joyful message of the coming of the Sonne of God, promised from the beginning.

b This is, written and taught by Matthew.

IN this history written by Matthew, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the Spirit of God so governed their hearts, that although they were foure in number, yet in effect & purpose they so consent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in style & manner of writing they be diuers, and sometime one writeth more largely than which the other doeth abridge: neuertheless in matter and argument, they all tend to one end: which is to publish to the world the fauour of God toward mankind through Christ Iesus, whom the Father hath given as a pledge of his mercy and loue. And for this cause they entitle their story, Gospel, which significeth good tidings, forasmuch as God hath performed indeed that which the fathers hoped for. So that hereby we are admonished to forsake the world, and the vanities thereof, and with most affectionate hearts embrace this incomparable treasure freely offered vnto vs: for there is no ioy nor consolation, no peace nor quietnesse, no felicitie nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospel, and in whom all the promises are, Yea, and Amen. And therefore vnder this word is contained the whole new Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the historie, which the foure Euangelists write, containing Christs coming in the flesh, his death and resurrection, which is the perfit & summe of our saluation. Matthew, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life and death, but Iohn labourerth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christs office, and also the vertue of his death and resurrection more fully appeare: for without this, to know that Christ was borne, dead, and risen againe, should nothing profit vs. The which thing notwithstanding that three first touch partly, as hee also sometime intermeddeth the historicall narration, yet Iohn chiefly is occupied herein. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, they describe as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth before our eyes the soule. Wherefore the same aptly termeth the Gospel writtē by Iohn, the key which openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of the others: for whosoever doeth know the office, vertue, and power of Christ, shall reade that which is written of the Sonne of God come to be the Redcemer of the world with most profit. Now as concerning the writers of this history, it is euident that Matthew was a Publicane or custome gatherer, & was thence chosen of Christ to be an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue been Peters disciple, and to haue planted the first Church at Alexandria, where he died the eight yere of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a Physician of Antiochia, and became Pauls disciple, and fellow in all his traualles: he liued fourescore and foure yeres, and was buried at Constantinople. Iohn was that Apostle whom the Lord loued, the sonne of Zebedeus, and brother of Iames: he died threecore yeres after Christ, and was buried neere to the citie of Ephesus.

3 When king Herode heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe

Priests and Scribes of the people, he asked of them, where Christ should be borne.

5 * And they sayd vnto him, At Beth-le-

Prophet,

6 * And thou Beth-lehem in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come the gouernor that shall feed my people Israel.

7 Then Herode * priuily called the wise men, & diligently inquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,

8 And sent them to Beth-lehem, saying,

Go and search diligently for the babe: and when ye haue found him, bring me word

again, that I may come also, and worship

him.

9 ¶ So when they had heard the King, they departed: and loe, the starre which they had seene in the East, went before them, the babe was.

10 And when they saw the starre, they re-

1 The office, doctrine and life of Iohn. 7 The Pharisees are reprooued. 8 The fruits of repentance. 13 Christ is baptized in Iordan, 17 and authorized by God his Father.

And in those dayes, Iohn the Baptift came and preached in the wilderness of Iudea.

2 And sayd, || Repent: for the Kingdom of heauen is at hand.

3 For this is he of whom it is spoken by the Prophet Esaias, saying, * The voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, is, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

4 * And this Iohn had his garment of camels haire, and a girdle of a skinn about his loynes: his meat was also || locusts and wild honey.

5 * Then went out to him Ierusalem and all Iudea, & all the region round about Iordan.

6 And they were baptized of him in Iordan, confessing their finnes.

7 Now when hee saw many of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees come to his baptism, hee sayd vnto them, * O generation of vipers, who hath forwarned you to flee from the anger to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy amendment of life,

|| Or, be sorry for your finnes: pass, and amend.

7 Jesus said unto him, It is written againe, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Againe the deuill tooke him vp vnto an exceeding high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, and the glory of them,

9 And sayd to him, All these will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then sayd Jesus vnto him, Another Satane: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.

11 * Then the deuill left him: and behold, the Angells came and ministered vnto him.

12 * And when Jesus had heard that John was deliuered up, he returned into Galilee.

13 And leauing Nazareth, went & dwelt in Capernaum, which is nere the sea, in the borders of Zabulon and Naphtalim,

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Elias the Prophet, saying,

15 * The land of Zabulon, and the land of Naphtalim by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, * Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which late in darkenesse, saw great light: and to them which late in the region and shadow of death, light is risen by.

17 * From that time Jesus beganne to preach, and to say, Amend your liues: for the Kingdome of heauen is at hand.

18 * And Jesus walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers)

19 And he sayd vnto them, Follow mee, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway leauing the nets followed him.

21 And when hee was gone forth from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother in a ship, with Zebedee their father mending their nets, and he called them.

22 And they without tarrying, leauing the ship and their father, followed him.

23 So Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdome, and healing every sicknesse, and euery disease among the people.

24 And his fame spread abroad through all Syria: and they brought vnto him all sick people that were taken with diuers diseases and gripings, and them that were possessed with devils, and those which were lunaticke, and those that had the palsey, and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes out of Galilee, and Decapolis, and Ierusalem, and Iudea, & from beyond Jordan.

3 Christ teacheth who are blessed. 13 The sale of the earth, and light of the world. 16 Good works. 17 Christ came to fulfill the Law. 21 What is meant by killing. 23 Reconciliation. 27 Adulterie. 29 Offences. 31 Discomement. 33 Not to sweare. 39 To suffer wrong. 44 To loue our enemies. 48 Perfection.

And when he saw the multitude, he went up into a mountaine: and when he was set, his Disciples came to him.

2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

3 * Blessed are the poore in spirit: for theirs is the Kingdome of heauen.

4 * Blessed are they that mourne: for they shall be comforted.

5 * Blessed are the meeke: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obtaine mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which suffer persecution for righteousness sake: for theirs is the Kingdome of heauen.

11 * Blessed are ye when men reuile you, and persecute you, and say all manner of euill against you for my sake, gladly.

12 Reioyce and be glad, for great is your reward in heauen: for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.

13 * Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt haue lost his saltnesse, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden vnder foot of men.

15 * Neither doe men light a candle, and put it vnder a bushell, but on a candlestick, and it giveth light vnto all that are in the house.

16 * Let a your light so shine before men, that they may see you: good works, and glorifie your father which is in heauen.

17 Thinke not that I am come to destroy the Law, or the Prophets. * I am not come to destroy them, but to fulfill them.

18 * For truly I say vnto you, Till heauen and earth perish, one iota, or one tittle of the Law shall not escape, till all things bee fulfilled.

24 No man can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and love the other, or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

26 Behold the fowles of the heauen: for they sowe not, neither reape, nor carry into the barnes: yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better then they?

27 Which of you by taking care, is able to adde one cubite vnto his stature?

28 And why care ye for raiment? Learne how the lilies of the field doe grow: they labour not, neither spin:

29 Yet I say vnto you, that euen Salomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe the grasse of the field which is to day, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not doe much more vnto you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall we drinke? or wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things seeketh the Gentiles) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye haue need of all these things.

33 But seeke ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morrow: for the morrow shall care for it: suffice it the day hath enough with his owne griefe.

3 And behold, certaine of the Scribes said, with themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 But when Iesus saw their thoughts, he said, Wherefore thinke ye euill things in your hearts?

c Because they did maliciously refuse Christ, who offered himselfe vnto them.

5 For whether it is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 And that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive sinnes, (then said hee vnto the sicke of the palsie,) Arise, take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his own house.

8 So when the multitude sawe it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had giuen such authoritie to men.

AND it came to passe, that when Iesus had made an ende of commanding his twelue disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 * And when Iohn heard in the prison the workes of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said vnto him,

3 Art thou he that should come, or shall we looke for another?

4 And Iesus answering, said vnto them, See, and then Iohn what things yee haue heard and seene.

5 The blinde receiue sight, and the halte
 goe: the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare: the dead are raised vp, & the // poore

6 And blessed is he that shall not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Iesus began to speake vnto the multitude, of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

8 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Behold, they that weare soft clothing, are in kings houses.

2 And when the Pharisees sawe it, they sayd vnto him, Behold, thy disciples doe that which is not lawfull to doe vpon the Sabbath.

3 *But hee sayde vnto them, * Haue ye not read what David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him?*

4 *How he entred into the house of God, and ate the shew bread, which was not lawfull for him to eate, neither for them which were with him, but onely for the * Priests?*

5 *O haue ye not read in the Law, how that on the Sabbath dayes the Priests in the Temple * brake the Sabbath, and* are blamelesse?

6 But I say vnto you, that heere is one greater then the Temple.

7 *Wherefore if ye knew what this is, * I will haue mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not haue condemned the innocent.*

8 *For the Sonne of man is * Lord, euen of the Sabbath.*

9  And hee departed thence, and went into their Synagogue.*

10 And beholde, there was a man which had his hand dried vp. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heale vpon a Sabbath day? That they might accuse him.

11 And hee sayd vnto them, What man shall there bee among you, that shall haue a sheepe, and if it fall on a Sabbath day into a pit, will not hee take it and lift it out?

12 How much more then is a man better then a sheepe: therefore it is lawfull to doe well on a Sabbath day.

13 Then layd hee to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretcht it forth, and it was made whole as the other.

14 Then the Pharisees went out, and consulted against him how they might destroy him.

15 But when Iesus knew it, he departed thence, and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.

16 And charged them that they should not make him knowne.

17 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by Elias the Prophet, saying,

18  Behold my seruant whom I haue chosen, my beloued in whom my soule delighteth: I will put my Spirit on him, and hee shall shew iudgement to the Gentiles.*

19 *He shal not * strine nor cry, neither shall any man heare his voyce in the strettes.*

20 *A * hushed reede shall he not brake, and smoking flaxe shall hee not quench, till hee bring forth iudgement vnto victorie.*

21 And in his Name shall the Gentiles trust.

22  Then was brought to him one possest with a deuill, both blinde and dumbe, and he healed him, so that he which was blind and dumbe, both spake and saw.*

23 And all the people were amazed, and sayd, Is not this the Sonne of David?

24 *But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, * This man casteth the deuils no other wise out, but through Beelzebub the prince of deuils.*

25 But Iesus knew their thoughts, and sayd to them, Every kingdom diuided against it selfe, shall be brought to nought: and every ciue or house diuided against it selfe, shall not stand.

26 So if Satan cast out Satan, he is diuided against himselfe: how shall then his kingdom endure?

27 *Also if I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom doe your * children cast them out? Therefore they shall bee your iudges.*

20 And hee that receiued seede in the stonie ground, is hee which heareth the word, and incontinently with ioy receiveth it.

21 Yet hath hee no root in himselfe, and dureth but a season: for as soone as tribulation or persecution cometh because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 And he that receiveth the seede among thornes, is hee, that heareth the word: but the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he is made unfruitfull.

23 But he that receiveth the seede in the good ground is hee that heareth the word, and understandeth it, which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some sixty fold, and some thirty fold.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seede in his field.

25 b But while men slept, there came his enemy, and sowed tares among the wheate, and went his way.

26 And when the blade was springing up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 Then came the seruants of the householder, and said vnto him, Master, sowdest not thou good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 And hee sayd to them, he enuious man hath done this. Then the seruants said vnto him, Wilt thou then that we goe, and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay, lest while yee goe about to gather the tares, ye plucke up also with them the wheate.

30 i Let both grow together untill the harvest, and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye first the tares, and binde them in sheaves to burne them: but gather the wheate into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable he put forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard seede, which a man taketh and soweth in his field:

32 Which in deed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbes, and it is a tree, so that the birds of heauen come and build in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he to them, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leaven, which a woman taketh and hideth in three peckes of meale, till all bee leavened.

34 ¶ All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without parables spake he not to them,

35 That it might be fulfilled, which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, * I will open my mouth in parables, and will utter the things which haue been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then sent Iesus the multitude away, and went into the house. And his Disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the field.

37 Then answered he, and said to them, He that soweth the good seede, is the Sonne of man,

38 And the field is the world, and the good seede, they are the children of the kingdome, and the tares are the children of the wicked,

39 And the enemy that soweth them, is the deuill, and the harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers be the Angels.

40 As then the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Sonne of man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, and them which doe iniquity.

42 And they shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then shall the iust men shine as the Sonne in the Kingdome of their father. Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Againe, the Kingdome of heauen is like vnto a treasure hid in the field, which when a man hath found, hee hideth it, and for ioy thereof departeth, and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Againe, the Kingdome of heauen is like to a merchant man that seeketh good pearles, 46 Who hauing found a pearle of great price, went, and sold all that hee had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Againe, the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a draw net cast into the sea, that gathereth of all kindes of things.

48 Which, when it is full, men draw to land, and sit and gather the good into vessels, and cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be in the end of the world. The

A ¶ That time Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said vnto his seruants, This is Iohn Baptiſt: hee is risen againe from the dead: & therefore great workes are wrought by him.

3 ¶ For Herod had taken Iohn & bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philipps wife.

4 For Iohn sayde vnto him, It is not lawful for thee to haue her.

5 And when hee would haue put him to death, hee feared the multitude, because they counted him as a ¶ Prophet.

6 But when Herods birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 ¶ Wherefore hee promised with an othe, that hee would giue her whatsoever shee would aske.

8 And when hee being before instructed of her mother, said, Giue me here Iohn Baptists head in a platter,

9 And the King was sorie: neuerthelesse because of the othe and them that sate with him at the table, he commanded it to be giuen her.

10 And sent, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And sent, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the mayd, and she brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his Disciples came and tooke by his body, and buried it, and went, and told ¶ Jesus.

13 ¶ And when Jesus heard it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart. And when the multitude had heard it, they followed him a foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth and saw a great multitude, and was moued with compassion toward them, and hee healed their sickes.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the houre is already past: let the multitude depart, that they may go into the townes, and buy them victuals.

16 But Jesus said to them, They haue neede to goe away: giue pee them to eate.

17 Then said they vnto him, We haue here but five loaves and two fishes.

18 And he said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit downe on the grasse, and tooke the five loaves and the twofishes, and looked vp to heauen and ¶ blessed and brake, and gaue the loaves to his Disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eate, and were sufficed, and they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, twelue baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men, beside women and little children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jesus compelled his Disciples to enter into a ship, and to go ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

23 And as soone as he had sent the multitude away, hee went by into a mountaine alone to pray: ¶ and when the evening was come, hee was there alone.

24 And the ship was now in the middes of the Sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrary wind.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and cried out for feare.

27 But straightway Jesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good comfort, It is I: be not afraid.

28 Then Peter answered him, and said, Master, if it bee thou, bid mee come vnto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the ship, he walked on the water, to goe to Jesus, 30 But when he saw a mighty winde, he was afraid: and as he beganne to sink, he cried, saying, Master, helpe me.

Then came to Iesus the Scribes and Pharisees, which were of Ierusalem, saying,

2 Why doe thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders: for they wash not their hands when they eat ^h bread.

3 But he answered and said vnto them, Why doe ye also transgresse the commandement of God by your tradition?

4 * For God hath commaunded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: * and hee that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to father or mother, ^b By the gift that is offered by me, thou mayest haue profit,

6 Though hee honour not his father, or his mother, shall be free: thus haue ye made the commandement of God of no authority by your tradition.

7 Hypocrites, Elias prophesied well of you, saying,

8 * This people draweth n^eer vnto me with their mouth, and honoureth mee with the lippes, but their heart is farre off from mee.

9 But in vaine they worship mee, teaching for doctrines mens precepts.

10 * Then he called the multitude vnto him, and said vnto them, Heare and vnderstand.

11 That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, that defileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his disciples, and said vnto him, Perceiuest thou not that the Pharisees are offended in hearing this saying?

13 But he answered and said, * Every plant which mine heauenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted by.

14 ¶ Let them alone: they be the * blinde leaders of the blinde: and if the blinde leade the blinde, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ Then answered Peter, and said to him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Then said Iesus, Are ye yet without vnderstanding?

17 Perceiue ye not yet, that what soeuer entred into the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the daughte?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart * come euill thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false testimonies, slanders.

20 These are the things which defile the man: but to eat with unwashen hands, defileth not the man.

21 * And Iesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyris and Sidon.

22 And behold a woman, a Canaanite came out of the same coasts, and cryed, saying vnto him, Haue mercie on mee, O Lord, the sonne of Dauid: ^g my daughter is miserably vexed with a deuill.

23 But hee answered her not a worde. Then came to him his disciples, & besought him, saying, Send her away, for she cryeth after vs.

24 But he answered, and sayd, I am not sent, but vnto the * lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

25 Yet shee came and worshipped him, saying, Lord helpe me.

26 And he answered, and said, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to ^h whelpes.

27 But shee said, Trueth, Lord: yet in deed the whelpes eate of the crummes, which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee, as thou desirest. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Iesus went away from thence, and came neere vnto the sea of Galilee, and went by into a mountaine and sat downe there.

30 And great multitudes came vnto him, * hauing with them halfe, blinde, dumbe, maimed, and many other, and cast them downe at Iesus feete, and hee healed them.

31 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, to see the dumbe speake, the maimed whole, the halt to goe, and the blinde to see, and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ Then Iesus called his disciples vnto him, and said, I haue compassion on this multitude, because they haue continued with mee already three dayes, and haue nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples sayde vnto him, Whence should we get so much bread in the wilderness, as should suffice to great a multitude?

34 And Iesus sayd vnto them, How many loaves haue ye? and they sayde, Seuen, and a few little fishes.

35 Then hee commaunded the multitude to sit downe on the ground,

36 And tooke the seuen loaves, and the fishes, and gaue thanks, and brake them, and gaue to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

Then came the Pharisees and Sadducees, and did tempt him, desiring him to shew them a signe from heauen.

2 But he answered, and said vnto them, When it is euening, ye say, Faire weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning ye say, To day shall be a tempest: for the skie is red and lowering. Hypocrites, can ye discerne the face of the skie, and can ye not discern the signes of the times?

4 The wicked generation, and adulterous seeketh a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen it, but the signe of the Prophet Jonas: so he left them and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread with them.

6 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Take heed and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

7 And they thought in themselves saying, It is, because wee haue brought no bread.

8 But Iesus knowing it, sayd vnto them, O ye of little faith, why thinke you thus in your selues, because ye haue brought no bread?

9 Doe ye not yet perceiue, neither remember the five loaves, when there were five thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

10 Neither the seuen loaves when there were foure thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

11 Altho perceiue ye not, that I said not vnto you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leauen of the Pharisees and Sadducees?

12 Then understood they that hee had not said, that they should beware of the leauen of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees, and Sadducees.

13 Now when Iesus came into the coasts of Celarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Sonne of man am?

14 And they said, Sonne say, John Baptist: and some, Elias: and others, Jeremias, or one of the Prophets.

15 He sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 Then Simon Peter answered, and said, Thou art the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.

17 And Iesus answered, and said to him

Blessed art thou, Simon, the sonne of Iohnas: for flesh and blood hath not reuealed it vnto thee, but my Father which is in heauen.

18 And I say also vnto thee, that thou art Peter, and vpon this rocke will I build my Church: and the gates of hell shall not ouercome it.

19 And I will giue vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen, and whatsoeuer thou shalt bind vpon earth, shall be bound in heauen: and whatsoeuer thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heauen.

20 Then he charged his disciples, that they should tell no man that he was Iesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth Iesus began to shew vnto his disciples, that he must go vnto Ierusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders, and of the high Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and rise againe the third day.

22 Then Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, Master, pittie thy selfe: this shall not be vnto thee.

23 Then he turned backe, and said vnto Peter, Get thee behinde me, Satan: thou art an offence vnto me, because thou understandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

24 Iesus then saide to his Disciples, Whoso man will follow mee, let him forsake himselfe, and take vpon his crosse and follow me.

25 For whosoever wil save his life shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, shall finde it.

26 For what shall it profite a man, though he should win the whole world, if he lose his owne soule? or what shall a man giue for the compenise of his soule?

27 For the Sonne of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his Angels, and then shall hee giue to every man according to his desertes.

28 Verily I say vnto you, there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the Sonne of man come in his kingdome.

Chap. 20. 17. mar. 9. 31. luke 9. 44, and 24. 7.

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the Sonne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared vnto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: if thou wilt, let vs make here thre Tabernacles one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While hee yet spake, behold, a bright cloud shadowed them: and behold, there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne, * in whom I am well pleased: * heare him.

6 And when the disciples heard that, they fell on their faces, and were sore afraid.

7 Then Iesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they lifted vp their eyes, they saw no man save Iesus onely.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, Iesus charged them, saying, Shew this vision to no man, vntill the Son of man rise againe from the dead.

10 * And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes that * Elias must first come?

11 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Certainly Elias must first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say vnto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would: likewise shall also the Sonne of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples perceiued that hee spake vnto them of John Baptist.

14 * And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certaine man and kneeled downe to him,

15 And said, Master, haue pittie on my sonne: for he is lunatique, and is sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oftentimes into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not heale him.

17 Then Iesus answered, and said, * O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shal I be with you? how long now shal I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Iesus rebuked the deuill, and he went out of him, and the childe was healed at that houre.

19 Then came his disciples to Iesus apart, and said, Why could not wee cast him out?

20 And Iesus said vnto them, Because of your unbelief: for verely I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, as much as is a graine of mustard seed, ye shall say vnto this mountaine, Remove hence to yonder place, and it shall remove: and nothing shall be impossible vnto you.

21 Howbeit, this kind goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.

22 And as they abode in Galile, Ie-sus said vnto them, The Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men, 23 And they shall kill him, but the third day shall he rise againe: and they were very sorow.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receiued poll money, came to Peter, and said, Dost thou not paye Peter pay tribute?

25 He said, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Iesus presented him, saying, What thinkest thou Simon? Of whom doe the Kings of the earth take tribute or poll money: of their children, or of strangers?

26 Peter sayd vnto him, Of strangers, Then sayd Iesus vnto him, Then are the children free.

27 Neuerthelesse, lest we should offend them, goe to the sea, and cast in an angle, and take the first fish that cometh vp, and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a piece of twenty pence: that take, and giue it vnto them for me and thee.

19 The commendation of prayer and godly assemblies. 21 Of brotherly forgiveness.

The same time the disciples came vnto Iesus, saying, * Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen?

2 And Iesus called a little childe vnto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verely I say vnto you, except ye be conuerted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himselfe as this little childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

5 And whosoever shall receiue such a little child in my Name, receiue me.

6 * But whosoever shall offend one of these little ones which beleue in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were drowned in the depth of the Sea.

7 * Woe be vnto the world because of offences: for it must needs bee that offences shall come, but woe be to that man by whom the offence cometh.

8 * Therefore if thine hand or thy foote cause thee to offend, cut them off. and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt, or maimed, then hauing two hands or two feet, to be cast into euertlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

Or, done to. Luke 17. 4. m Wee must bee continually ready to forgiue, and bee forgiven. n A common talent was valued at three score pound: some also were greater, and some lesse.

10 See that yee despise not one of these little ones: for I say vnto you, that in heauen their Angels alwayes behold the face of my Father which is in heauen

11 For the Son of man is come to save that was lost.

12 How thinke yee? If a man haue an hundred sheepe, and one of them be gone away, doth he not leaue ninety and nine, and goe into the mountaine, & seeke that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he finde it, verely I say vnto you, hee reioyceth more of that sheepe, then of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 So is it not the will of your Father which is in heauen, that one of these little ones should perill.

15 Wherefore, if thy brother trespass against thee, goe and tell him his fault betweene thee and him alone: if he heare thee, thou hast wonne thy brother.

16 But if he heare thee not, take yet with thee one or two, that by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be confirmed.

17 And if he will not vouchsafe to heare them, tell it vnto the Church: and if hee refuse to heare the Church also, let him bee vnto thee as an heathen man, and a Publi-cane.

18 Verely I say vnto you, Whatsoever ye bind on earth, shall be bound in heauen:
and whatsoever ye loose on earth, shall be loosed in heauen.

19 Again, Verely I say vnto you, that if two of you shall agree in earth vpon any thing, whatsoever they shall desire, it shall bee given them of my Father which is in heauen.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I in the mids of them.

21 Then came Peter to him, and sayd, Master, how oft shall my brother sinne against me, and I shall forgive him? vnto
seuen times?

22 Iesus said vnto him, I say not to thee, vnto seuen times, but vnto seventy times
seuen times.

23 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certaine King, which would take account of his seruants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought vnto him, which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 And because he had nothing to pay, his master commanded him to bee sold, and his wife and his children, and all that hee had,
and the debt to bee paid.

26 The seruant therefore fell downe, and besought him, saying, Master, appeale thine anger toward me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then that seruants master had compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But when the seruant was departed, he found one of his fellowes, which ought him an hundred pence, and he layd hands on him, and toke him by the throte, saying,
Pay me that thou owest.

29 Then his fellow fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Appaele thine anger toward me, and I will pay thee all.

30 But hee would not, but went and cast him into prison, till he theuld pay the debt.

31 And when his other fellowes saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came, and declared vnto their master all that was done.

32 Then his master called him, and said to him, O euill seruant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou prayedst me.

33 Dughest thou also to haue had pittie on thy fellow, euen as I had pittie on thee?

34 So his master was wroth, and deli-uered him to the paylers, till he should pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shall mine heauenly Father doe vnto you, except yee forgive from your hearts, each one to his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

3 Christ sheweth for what cause a woman may be diuorced, 11 Continuence is the gift of God, 14 He receiveth little children, 16 To obtaine life euertlasting, 24 That rich men can scarcely be saved, 28
He promisseth them that haue left all to follow him, life euertlasting.

And it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judea beyond Iordan.

2 And great multitudes followed him,
and he healed them there.

3 ¶ Then came vnto him the Pharisees tempting him, and saying to him, Is it law-full for a man to put away his wife for every ¶ fault?

4 And he answered and said vnto them,
Haue yee not read, that hee which made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leane father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife, and they twaine shall bee one ¶ flesh?

6 Therefore they are no more twaine, but one flesh. Let not man therefore put asunder that which God hath coupled together.

7 They said to him, Why did then Moses command to giue a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away?

8 He said vnto them, Moses, because of the hardness of your heart, suffered you to put away your wiues: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 I say therefore vnto you, That whosoeuer shall put away his wife, except it be for whoredome, and marrie another, committeth adulterie: and whosoever marrieth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adultery.

15 And when hee had put his handes on them, he departed thence.

16 ¶ And behold, one came and said vnto him, Good master, what good thing shall I doe, that I may haue eternal life?

17 And he sayd vnto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keepe the commandments.

18 He said vnto him, Which? And Iesus said, These, Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse.

22 And when the yong man heard that saying, he went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 Then Iesus said vnto his disciples, Verily I say vnto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heauen.

24 And againe I say vnto you, It is easier for a camel to goe thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 And when his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 And Iesus beheld them, and said vnto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Peter, and sayd to him, Behold, we haue forsaken al, and followed thee: what shall we haue?

28 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, then when the Sonne of man shall sit in the throne of his Maiestie, pee which followed mee in the regeneration, shall sit also vpon twelue thrones, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

29 And whosoever shall forsake houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or landes, for my sakes sake, hee shall receiue an hundredfold more, and shall inherite euermore life.

30 ¶ But many that are first, shall be last, and the last shall be first.

CHAP. XX.

1 Christ teacheth by a similitude, that God is debtor to no man, and how he alway calleth men to his labour. 18; Hee admonisheth them of his passion. 20 Hee teacheth him to see ambition. 28 Christ payeth our ranfome. 30 He giueth two blind men their sight.

¶ Of the kingdom of heauen is like vnto a certaine householder, which went out at the dawning of the day to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And he agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, and sent them into his vineyard.

3 And hee went out about the thirde houre, and sawe other standing idle in the market place,

4 And sayd vnto them, Come ye also into my vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right I will giue you: and they went their way.

5 Again hee went out about the sixt and ninth houre, and did likewise.

6 And hee went about the eleuenth houre, and found other standing idle, and sayd vnto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They sayd vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He said vnto them, Go ye also into my vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right that shall ye receiue.

8 ¶ And when euen was come, the Master of the vineyard sayde vnto his steward, Call the labourers, and giue them their hire, beginning at the last, till thou come to the first.

9 And they which were hired about the eleuenth houre, came and receiued euery man a peny.

10 And when the first came, they supposed that they should receiue more, but they likewise receiued euery man a peny.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured against the master of the house,

12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one houre, and thou hast made them equall vnto vs, which haue borne the burthen, and heat of the day.

13 And he answered one of them, saying, Friend, I doe thee no wrong: diddest thou not agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that which is thine owne, and go thy way: I will giue vnto this last as much as to thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for mee to doe as I will with mine owne? Is thine eye enuill because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few chosen.

A And when they drew nere to Ierusalem, and were come to Bethphage vnto the mount of the Olives, then sent Iesus two disciples,

2 Saying to them, Goe into the towne that is ouer against you, and anon ye shall find an asse bound, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them vnto me.

3 And if any man say ought vnto you, say yee, that the Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will let them goe.

4 All this was done, that it might bee fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying,

5 C * Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy king commeth vnto thee, meeke, and sitting vpon an asse, & a colt, the foale of an asse vled to the yoke.

6 So the disciples went, and did as Iesus had commanded them.

7 And brought the asse & the colt, and put on them their clothes, and set him thereon.

8 And a great multitude tyed their garments in the way: and other cut downe branches from the trees and strawed them in the way.

9 Moreover, the people that went before and they also that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna the sonne of Dauid: blessed be hee that commeth in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna thou which art in the highest hea- uens.

10 * And when he was come into Ierusalem, all the citie was moued, saying, What is this?

11 And the people sayd, This is Iesus the Prophet of Nazareth in Galile.

12 C And Iesus went into the Temple of God, and cast out all them that solde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the leates of them that solde dones.

13 And said to them, It is written, * Mine house shal be called the house of prayer: ^{but} but ye haue made it a denne of theesues.

14 Then the blind and the halt came to him in the Temple, and he healed them.

15 But when the chiefe Priests and Scribes saw the mannailes that he did, and the children crying in the Temple, and say- ing, Hosanna the Sonne of Dauid, they dis- dained,

16 And said vnto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Iesus said vnto them, Yea: readye ye neuer, * By the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast made prouerbe the praise?

17 C So he left them and went out of the citie vnto Bethania, and lodged there.

18 And * in the morning as hee returned into the citie, he was hungry.

19 And seeing a figge tree in the way, hee came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaues onely, and sayd to it, Neuer fruite grow on thee henceforward. And anon the figge tree withered.

20 And when his disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soone is the fig tree withered?

21 And Iesus answered, & said vnto them, * Verely I say vnto you, if yee haue faith,

23 ¶ And when he was come into the Temple, the chiefe Priests and the Elders of the people came vnto him as he was teaching, and sayd, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie?

24 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, I also will aske of you a certaine thing, which if ye tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

25 The Baptisme of Iohn, whence was it? ¶ from heauen, or of men? Then they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will lay vnto vs, Why did ye not then beleue him?

26 And if we say, Of men, we feare the people: for all hold Iohn as a Prophet.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke ye? A certaine man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, and said, Sonne, goe, and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 But he answered, and said, I wil not: yet afterwards hee repented himselte, and went.

30 Then came he to the second, and said likewise. And he answered, and said, I will sit: yet he went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the will of the father? They said vnto him, The first. Iesus said vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that the Publicanes and the harlots shall go before you into the kingdom of God.

32 For Iohn came vnto you in the way of righteousness, and ye beleued him not, but the Publicanes and the harlots beleued him, and ye, though ye saw it, were not moued with repentance afterwards, that ye might beleue him.

33 ¶ There was another parable. There was a certaine householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and made a winepresse therein, & built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew neere, he sent his seruants to the husbandmen to receiue the fruits thereof.

35 And the husbandmen took his seruants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other seruants, more then the first: and they did the like vnto them.

37 But last of all he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the sonne, they said among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kil him, and let vs take his inheritance.

39 So they tooke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 ¶ When therefore the Lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do to those husbandmen?

41 They said vnto him, He will cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Iesus said vnto them, Read ye neuer in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders refused, the same is made the head of the corner? This was the Lords doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

43 Therefore say I vnto you, the kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and shall be giuen to a nation which shall bring forth the fruits thereof.

44 ¶ And whosoever shall fall on this stone, he shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chiefe Priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceiued that he spake of them.

46 And they seeking to lay hands on him, feared the people, because they tooke him as a Prophet.

¶ Then Iesus answered, and spake vnto them againe in parables, saying,

2 The kingdom of heauen is like vnto a certaine King which married his sonne,

3 And sent forth his seruants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, but they would not come.

4 Again he sent forth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oren and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his merchandise.

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants, and intreated them sharply, and slew them.

7 But when the King heard it, hee was wroth, and sent forth his warriors, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their city.

8 Then said he to his seruants, Truly the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Goe ye therefore out into the high wayes, and as many as ye finde, bid them to the marriage.

10 So those seruants went out into the high wayes, and gathered together all that euer they found, both good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 Then the King came in, to see the guests, and saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment.

14 For many are called, but few chosen.

15 Then went the Pharisees, and toke counsel how they might range him in talk.

16 And they sent unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, wee know that thou art true, & teachest the way of God truly, neither carest thou any man: for thou considerest not the person of men.

17 Telvs therefore, how thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 But Iesus perceived their wickednes, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought him a penny.

20 And he said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They said vnto him, Cesar. Then said he vnto them, Give therefore to Cesar, the things which are Cesar, and giue vnto God, the things which are Gods.

22 And when they heard it, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 The same day the Sadduces came to him (which say that there is no resurrection), and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, hauing no child, let his brother marry his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

25 Now there were with vs seuen brethren, and the first married a wife, and deceased: and hauing no issue, left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Likewise also the second, and the third vnto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seuen? for all had her.

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Ye are deceived, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the Resurrection they neither marry, nor are bestowed in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in heauen.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue ye not read what is spoken vnto you of God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the liuing.

33 And when the people heard it, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that hee had put the Sadduces to silence, they assembled together.

35 And one of them which was an expounder of the Law, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the Law?

37 Iesus said vnto him, Thou shalt loue

the Lord thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and the great Commandement.

39 And the second is like vnto this, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

40 On these two Commandements hangeth the whole Law and the Prophets.

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Iesus asked them,

42 Saying, What thinke ye of Christ? Whose Sonne is he? They said vnto him, Dauid.

43 He said vnto them, How then doth Dauid in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If then Dauid call him Lord, how is he his sonne?

46 And none could answer him a word, neither durst any from that day forth aske him any more questions.

r Not that his kingdome shall then end: but the office of his humanity shall cease, and he with the Father and the holy Ghost shall reigne for euer as one God all in all. f Christ is Dauids Sonne touching his manhood, and his Lord concerning his Godhead.

m When God hath made an end of the troubles of his Church.

n He moueth an horrible trembling of the world, and as it were an alteration of the order of nature, Dan. 7. 13. ier. 1. 7.

* Then they shall deliuer you vp to be afflicted, and shall kill you, and yee shall bee hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceiue many.

12 And because iniquitie shall be increased, the loue of many shall be colde.

13 * But he that endureth to the end, he shall be saved.

14 And this Gospel of the kingdom shall be preached through the whole world for a witness vnto all nations, and then shall the end come.

15 ¶ When yee therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the Prophet, standing in the holy place, (let him that readeth consider it.)

16 Then let them which be in Iudea, flee into the mountaines.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come downe to fetch any thing out of his house.

18 And he that is in the field, let not him returne backe to fetch his clothes.

19 And wee shalbe to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes:

20 But pray that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the Sabbath day.

21 For then shalbe great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the world to this time, nor shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elects sake, those dayes shal be shortened.

23 * Then if any shall say vnto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there, beleeue it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs and false prophets, and shall shew great signes and wonders, so that if it were possible, they should deceiue the very elect.

25 Behold, I haue told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say vnto you, Behold, he is in the desert, goe not forth: Behold, he is in the secret places, beleeue it not.

27 For as the lightening cometh out of the East, and shineth into the West, so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man bee:

28 * For where soeuer a dead carkeis is, thither will the Eagles resort.

29 * And immediately after the tribulations of those dayes, shall the Sonne bee darkened, and the Moone shall not giue her light, and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of heauen shalbe shaken.

30 * And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heauen: and then shall all the kindreds of the earth moune, and they shall see the Sonne of man come in the cloudes of heauen with power and great glory.

31 * And hee shall send his Angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, and from the one end of the heauen vnto the ther.

32 Now learne the parable of the figge tree: when her bough is yet tender, and it bringeth forth leaues, ye know that summer is nare.

33 So likewise yee, when yee see all these things, know that the kingdom of God is nere, even at the doores.

34 Verily I say vnto you, this generation shall not passe, till all these things bee done.

35 * Heauen and earth shall passe away: but my words shall not passe away.

36 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heauen, but my Father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so likewise shall the coming of the Sonne of man bee.

38 * For as in the dayes before the flood, they did eate and drinke, marrie, and giue in marriage, vnto the day that Noe entered into the Arke,

39 And knew nothing till the flood came, and tooke them all away: so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man bee.

40 * ¶ Then two men shalbe in the field, the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be refused.

41 Two women shalbe grinding at the mill: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be refused.

42 * Make therefore: for yee know not what houre your Master will come.

43 ¶ If this be sure, that if the goodman of the house knew at what watch the thiefe would come, he would surely watch, and not suffer his house to be digged thorow.

44 Therefore be yee also ready: for in the houre that ye thinke not, will the Sonne of man come.

45 ¶ Who then is a faithfull seruant and wise, whom his Master hath made ruler ouer his household, to giue them meate in season?

46 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he cometh, shall find so doing, 47 Verily I say vnto you, hee shall make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But if that euill seruant shall say in his heart, My master doth deferre his coming,

49 And begin to smite his fellowes, and to eat, and to drinke with the drunken.

50 That seruants Master will come in a day, when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not ware of,

51 And will cut him off, and giue him his portion with hypocrites: there shall bee weeping and gnashing of teeth.

1 By the similitude of the virgins Iesus teacheth every man to watch, 14 And by the talents to be diligent. 31 The last iudgement, 32 The sheepe and the goates. 35 The works of the faithfull.

Then

g Every talent commonly made threescore pound, read Chap. 18. 24.

h Or, made,

h The master receiueh him into his house to giue him part of his goods and commodities.

Then the Kingdome of heauen shall be likened vnto ten virgins, which tooke their lampes, and went to meete the bridegrome.

2 And fise of them were wise, and fise foolish.

3 The foolish tooke their lampes, but tooke none oyle with them.

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now while the bridegrome carryed long, all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegrome cometh: go out to meete him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lampes.

8 And the foolish said to the wise, Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Wee feare lest there will not be enough for vs and you: but goe ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selues.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegrome came: and they that were ready, went in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterwards came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and said, Certly I say vnto you, I know you not.

13 ¶ Watch therefore: for ye know neither the day nor the houre, when the Sonne of man will come.

14 ¶ For the kingdome of heauen is as a man that going into a strange country, called his seruants, and deliuered to them his goods.

15 And vnto one hee gaue fise talents, and to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his owne abilitie, & straightway went from home.

16 Then he that had receiued the fise talents, went and occupied with them, and gained other fise talents.

17 Likewise also, he that receiued two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that receiued that one, went and digged it in the earth, and hid his masters moiney.

19 But after a long season, the master of those seruants came, and reckoned with them.

20 Then came he that had receiued fise talents, and brought other fise talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me fise talents: behold, I haue gained with them other fise talents.

21 Then his master said vnto him, It is well done good seruant and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter in into thy masters ioy.

22 Also he that had receiued two talents, came and said, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me two talents: behold, I haue gained two other talents with them.

23 His master said vnto him, It is well done good seruant, and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much: enter in into thy masters ioy.

24 Then he which had receiued the one talent, came and said, Master, I knew that thou wast an hard man, which reapest where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawdest not:

25 I was therefore afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: behold, thou hast thine owne.

26 And his master answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou evil seruant and slothfull, thou knewest that I reape, where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, & giue it vnto him which hath centales.

29 ¶ For vnto euery man that hath, it shall be giuen, and he shall haue abundance, and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken away.

30 Cast therefore that vnprofitable seruant into utter darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ And when the Sonne of man cometh in his glory, and all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit vpon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepheard separateth the sheepe from the goates.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hand, and the goates on the left.

34 Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father: inherit ye the kingdome prepared for you from the foundations of the world.

35 ¶ For I was an hungred, & ye gaue me meate: I thirsted, and ye gaue me drinke: I was a stranger, and ye lodged me:

36 I was naked, and ye clothed me: I was sicke, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw wee thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and gaue thee drinke?

38 And when saw wee thee a stranger and lodged thee? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw wee thee sicke, or in prison, and came vnto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say vnto them, Certly I say vnto you, In as much as ye haue done it vnto one of the least of these my brethren, ye haue done it to me.

41 Then shall he say vnto them on the left hand, Depart from me ye cursed into euellasting fire, which is prepared for the deuill and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue me no meate: I thirsted, and ye gaue me no drinke:

43 I was a stranger, and ye lodged mee not: I was naked, and ye clothed me not: sicke, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw wee thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, and did not minister vnto thee?

A ffinised all these sayings, hee layd vnto
his disciples,

2 Ye know that within two dayes is the

3 * Then assembled together the chiefe Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the hie Priest, called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted how they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest any bypoie be among the people.

6 C * And when Jesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came vnto him a woman, which had a boxe of very costly oymntment, & pow-red it on his head, as he sat at the table.

8 And when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, What needed this waite?

9 For this oymntment might haue bene
solde for much, and bene giuen to the poore.

10 And Jesus knowing it, sayde vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for shee hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

das Iscariot, went vnto the chiefe Priests,

15 And said, What wilt thou giue me, and I will deliuer him vnto you? And they apportioned vnto him thirtie * pieces of siluer.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 C * Now on the first day of the feast of vneleuened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eate the Passouer?

18 And he said, * Goe into the city to such a man, and say to him, The master saith,
My time is at hand: I will keepe the Passou-er at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had gi-uen them charge, and made ready the Passou-er.

20 * So when the euen was come, hee sat
downe with the twelue.

21 And as they did eate, he said, Verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowfull, and beganne euery one of them to lay vnto him, Is it I, Master?

23 And he answered, and said, * Hee that
* dipperth his hand with mee in the dish, hee shall betray me.

24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but woe be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, & said, Is it I, Master? hee said vnto him, Thou hast said it.

26 C * And as they did eate, Iesus tooke
the bread: and when hee had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to the Disciples, and said, Take, eate: * this is my body.

27 Also he tooke the cup, and when hee had giuen thanks, hee gaue it them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.

28 For this is my * blood of the new Testament, that is shed for many, for the remission of sinnes.

29 I say vnto you, that I wil not drinke henceforth of this fruit of the vine, vntill that day, when I shall drinke it new with you in my Fathers kingdome.

30 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 C * Then said Iesus vnto them, All ye shall be * offended by me this night: for it is written, I will * smite the Shepheard, and the Sheepe of the flocke shall be scattered.

32 But * after I am risen againe, I will goe before you into Galilee.

33 But Peter answered, and said vnto him, * Though that all men should be offended by thee, yet will I neuer be offended.

34 * Iesus said vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, that this night, before the Cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter said vnto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not denie thee. Likewise also said all the Disciples.

36 C * Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, and said vnto his Disciples, Sit ye here, while I goe and pray vnder.

37 And he tooke Peter, & the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waite sorrowfull, & grievously troubled.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the * death: tary ye here, and watch with me.

39 So hee went a little further, & fel on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this * cup * passe from me: ne-uertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 After, he came vnto the disciples, and found them asleep, & said to Peter, What?
couldst thou not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch, and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeede is ready, but the flesh is * weak.

42 Again he went away the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this and therefore was ready to obey: but he prayeth as the faithful doe

45 Then came he to his Disciples, and said vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: behold, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is giuen into the hands of sinners.

46 Kisse, let vs goe, behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo Iudas one of the twelue, came, & with him a great multitude with swords and staves from the high Priests and Elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, that is he, lay hold on him.

49 And forthwith he came to Iesus, and said, God saue thee, Master, and kised him.

50 Then said Iesus vnto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Iesus, and rooke him.

51 And behold, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and strooke a servant of the high Priest, and smote off his eare.

52 Then said Iesus vnto him, Put by thy sword into his place: for all that take the sword, shall perish with the sword.

53 Either thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my father, and he will giue me more then twelue legions of Angels?

54 Now then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say, that it must be so?

55 The same houre said Iesus to the multitude, Behoe come out as it were against a thiefe with swords and staves to take me: I sate dayly teaching in the Temple among you, and yet rooke me not.

56 But all this was done, that y Scriptures of the Prophets might bee fulfilled.

57 Then all the disciples forsooke him, & fled.

58 And Peter rooke Iesus, & led him to Caiaphas the high Priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

59 And Peter followed him a far off vnto the high Priests hall, and went in, and sate with the seruants to see the end.

60 Now the chiefe Priests and the Elders, and all the whole Councill sought false witness against Iesus to put him to death.

61 But they found none, and though many false witnesses came, yet found they none: but at the last came two false witnesses.

62 And sayd, This man sayd, I can destroy the temple of God, and build it in three dayes.

63 Then the chiefe Priest arose, and said to him, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these men witness against thee?

64 But Iesus held his peace. Then the chiefe Priest answered, and sayd to him, I charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tell vs if thou bee the Christ the Sonne of God.

64 Iesus sayd to him, Thou hast said it: neuerthelesse I say vnto you, hereafter shall yee see the Sonne of man sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the clouds of the heauen.

65 Then the high Priest rent his clothes, saying, he hath blasphemed: what haue we any more need of witnesses? behold, now ye haue heard his blasphemy.

66 What thinke yee? They answered, and sayd, he is worthy to die.

67 Then spat they in his face, and buffeted him: and other smote him with their rods, 68 Saying, Prophecie to vs, O Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 Peter late without in the hall, and a maide came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Iesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I wote not what thou sayest.

71 And when he went out into the porch, another mayd saw him, and sayd vnto them that were there, This man was also with Iesus of Nazareth.

72 And againe he denied with an oath, saying, I know not the man.

73 So after a while, came vnto him they that stood by, and said vnto Peter, Surely thou art all one of them: for euery thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse himselfe, and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cocke crew.

75 Then Peter remembered the words of Iesus, which had said vnto him, Before the cocke crew, thou shalt deny me thrise. So he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

Christ a deliuered vnto Pilate. 5 Iudas hangeth himselfe. 24 Christ is pronounced innocent by the iudge, and yet is condemned and crucified among theues. 46 He prayeth vpon the crosse. 51 The vail is rent. 52 The dead bodies arise. 57 Ioseph buryeth Christ. 64 Watchmen keepe the grane.

When the morning was come, all the chiefe Priests, and the Elders of the people tooke counsell against Iesus, to put him to death.

2 And led him away bound, and deliuered him vnto Pontius Pilate the gouernor.

3 Then when Iudas which betrayed him, saw that he was condemned, he repented himselfe, & brought againe the thirty pieces of silver to the chiefe Priests & Elders,

4 Saying, I haue sinned in betraying the innocent blood. But they said, What is that to vs? & see thou to it.

5 And when he had cast downe the silver pieces in the Temple, he departed, and went, & hanged himselfe.

6 And the chiefe Priestes tooke the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawfull for vs to put them into the treasure, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they tooke counsell, and bought with them a potters field, for the buriall of strangers.

8 Wherefore that field is called, * The field of blood vntill this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Ieremias the Prophet, saying, * And they tooke thirty silver pieces, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel valued.

10 And they gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord had appointed me.)

11 ¶ And Iesus stood before the gouernour, and the gouernour asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jewes? Iesus said vnto him, Thou sayest it.

12 And when he was accused of the chiefe Priests and Elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate vnto him, Hearst thou not how many things they lay against thee?

14 But he answered him not to one word, in so much that the Gouernour marvelled greatly.

15 Now at the feast the Gouernour was wont to deliuer vnto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner called Barabbas.

17 When they were then gathered together, Pilate said vnto them, Whether wil ye that I let loose vnto you, Barabbas, or Iesus which is called Christ?

18 (For he knew well, that for ennie they had deliuered him.

19 Also when he was set downe vpon the iudgement seat, his wife sent to him, saying, Haue thou nothing to doe with that iust man: for I haue suffered many things this day in a dreame by reason of him.)

20 * But the chiefe Priests and the Elders had perswaded the people, that they should aske Barabbas, and should destroy Iesus.

21 Then the Gouernour answered, and said vnto them, Whether of the twaine will ye that I let loose vnto you? And they sayd, Barabbas.

22 Pilate said vnto them, What shall I doe then with Iesus which is called Christ? They all said to him, Let him be crucified.

23 Then sayd the Gouernour, But what euill hath he done? Then they cried the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he auailed nothing, but that more tumult was made, he tooke water and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this iust man, looke you to it.

25 Then answered all the people, & sayd, His blood be on vs, and on our children.

26 Thus let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and scourged Iesus, and deliuered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the souldiers of the gouernour take Iesus into the common hall, and gathered about him the whole band.

28 And they stripped him, and put vpon him a scarlet robe,

29 And platted a crowne of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a reed in his right hand, and bowed their knees before him, and mocked him, saying, God saue thee, King of the Jewes.

30 And spitte vpon him, & tooke a reede and smote him on the head.

31 Thus when they had mocked him, they tooke the robe from him, and put his owne rayment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 * And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they compelled to beare his crosse.

33 * And when they came vnto the place called Golgotha, (that is to say the place of dead mens skulles)

34 They gaue him vineger to drinke mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof he would not drinke.

35 ¶ And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, and did cast lots, that it might bee fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, * They diuided my garments among them, and vpon my vesture did cast lots.

36 And they sat and watched him there.

37 ¶ They set by also ouer his head his cause written, * THIS IS IESVS THE KING OF THE IEWEES.

38 ¶ And there were two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by, reuiled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, * Thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, saue thy selfe: if thou be the Sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.

41 Likewise also the hie Priests mocking him, with the Scribes & Elders, and Pharisees, said, 42 He saued others, but he cannot saue himselfe: if he be the King of Israel, let him now come downe from the crosse, and wee will beleue him.

43 * We trusteth in God, let him deliuer him now, if he will haue him: for he said, I am the Sonne of God.

44 That saue also the thieves which were crucified with him, cast in his teeth.

45 Now from the first house was there darkness ouer all the land vnto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Iesus cried with a loud voyce, saying, * Eli, Eli, lamma sabachrani: that is, * My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 And some of them that stood there, when they heard it, said, This man calleth Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ranne, and tooke a sponge, and filled it with vineger, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke.

49 Other said, Let be: let vs see if Elias will come and saue him.

51 And behold, the 7 waile of the temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the stones were clouen,

52 And the graues did open themselves, and many bodies of the Saints which slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graues after his resurrection, and went into the || holy Citie, and appeared vnto many.

54 When the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Iesus, saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly * this was the Sonme of God.

55 ¶ And many women were there, beholding him a farr off, which had followed Iesus from Galile, ministring vnto him.

56 Among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Ioses, and the mother of Zebedeus sonnes.

57 ¶ And when the euen was come, there came a * rich man of Arimathea, named Ioseph, who had also himselfe bene Iesus discipcle.

58 He went to Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be deliuered.

59 So Ioseph tooke the body and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth,

60 And put it in his new tombe, which hee had hewen out in a rocke, and rolled a great stone to the doore of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Marie Magdalene, and the other Mary sitting ouer against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day that followed the Preparation of the Sabbath, the high Priests and Pharisees assembled to Pilate, 63 And said, Sir: we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet a liue, With in three dayes I will rise.

64 Command therefore that the Sepulchre be made sure vntill the third day, lest his Disciples come by night, and steale him away, and say vnto the people, Hee is risen from the dead: so shall the last * error bee worse then the first.

Now* in the || end of the * Sabbath, when the first day of the weeke beganne to dawne, Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary came to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the * Angel of the Lord descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sat vpon it.

3 And his countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for feare of him the keepers were astonied, and became as dead men.

5 But the Angel answered, and said to the women, Feare ye not: for I know that ye seeke Iesus which was crucified:

6 He is not here, for he is risen, as he said: Come, see the place where the Lord was laid,

7 And goe quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead: and behold, hee goeth before you into Galile: there ye shall see him: * for, I haue told you.

8 So they departed quickly from the sepulchre, with feare and great * ioy, and did runne to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Iesus also met them, saying, God saue you. And they came, and tooke him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Iesus vnto them, Be not afraid: Goe, and tell my brethren, that they goe into Galile, and there shall they see me.

11 ¶ Now when they were gone, behold, some of the watch came into the citie, and shewed vnto the high Priests all the things that were done.

12 And they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counsell, and gaue large money vnto the souldiers, 13 Saying, Say, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept.

14 And if the gouernour heare of this, we will perswade him, and saue you harmlesse.

15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught: and this * saying is nowed among the Jewes vnto this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleuen Disciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Iesus had appointed them.

He beginning of the Gospel of Iesus Christ, the Sonne of God:

2 As it is written in the Prophets, * Behold, I send my messenger before thy face which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 * The voice of him that cryeth in the wilderness, is, * Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 * Iohn did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of amendment of life for remission of finnes.

5 And all the countrey of Iudea, and they of Ierusalem went out unto him, and were all baptized of him in the river Iordan, confessing their finnes.

6 * Now Iohn was clothed with camels haire, and with a girdle of a skin about his loynes: and he did eate * Locusts and wild honey.

7 * And preached, saying, A stronger then I cometh after mee, whose shoes I catche I am not worthy to stoupe downe, and to loose.

8 Truth it is, I haue baptizeth you with water: but hee will baptize you with the holy Ghost.

9 * And it came to passe in those dayes, that Iesus came from Nazareth a citie of Galilee, and was baptized of Iohn in Iordan.

10 And as soone as hee was come out of the water, Iohn saw the heauens clouen in twaine, and the holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne in whom I am well pleased.

12 * And immediatly the Spirit diueth him into the wilderness.

13 And hee was there in the wilderness fortie dayes, and was tempted of Satan: hee was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministered vnto him.

14 * Now after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdome of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent and beleue the Gospel.

16 * And as hee walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, calling a net into the Sea, (for they were fishers.)

17 Then Iesus said vnto them, Follow me, & I will make you to be fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he saw James the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the ship, mending their nets,

20 And anon hee called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the ship with his hired seruants, and went their way after him.

21 * So they entred into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for hee taught them as one that had authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

23 * And there was in their Synagogue a man which had an vnclean spirit, and hee cryed, 24 Saying, Ah, what haue wee to doe with thee, O Iesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I know thee what thou art, euen that holy One of Sor.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And the vnclean spirit tare him, and cryed with a loud voice, & came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they demanded one of another, saying, What thing is this? What new doctrine is this? for hee commaundeth the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.

28 And immediatly his fame spread abroad throughout all the region bordering on Galilee.

29 * And as soone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and Iohn.

30 And Simons wifes mother lay sicke of a feuer, and anon they told him of her.

31 And hee came & toke her by the hand, and lift her vp, and the feuer forsooke her by and by, and she ministered vnto them.

32 And when euen was come, and the Sonne was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And hee healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and hee cast out many devils, and suffered not the devils to say that they knew him.

35 And in the morning very early, he rose up, and went out into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

CHAP. II.

3 He healeth the man of the palse. 5 Hee forgiveth finnes. 14 Hee calleth Levi the customeer. 16 He eateth with sinners. 18 He excuseth his disciples, as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath day.

A fter a few dayes he entred into Capernaum againe, and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And anon many gathered together, in so much that the places about the doore could not receive any more: and he preached the word vnto them.

3 And there came vnto him that brought one sicke of the palse, borne of four men.

4 And because they could not come nere vnto him for the multitude, they uncovered the rooffe of the house where hee was: and when they had broken it open, they let down the bed wherein the sicke of the palse lay.

5 Now when Iesus saw their faith, hee sayd to the sicke of the palse, Sonne, thy finnes are forgiven thee.

6 And there were certain of the Scribes, sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies? What can forgive finnes, but God onely?

8 And immediately when Iesus perceived in his Spirit, that thus they thought with themselves, hee sayd vnto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the palse, Thy finnes are forgiven thee? or to say, Arise, and take vp thy bed, and walke?

10 And that ye may knowe, that the Sonne of man hath authority in earth, to forgive finnes, (he sayd vnto the sicke of the palse.)

11 I say vnto thee, Arise and take vp thy bed, & get thee hence into thine owne house.

12 And by and by he arose, & tooke vp his bed, and went forth before them all, inasmuch that they were all amazed, & glorified God, saying, We never saw such a thing.

13 ¶ Then hee went againe toward the sea, and all the people resorted vnto him, and hee taught them.

14 ¶ And as Iesus passed by, he saw Levi the sonne of Alphæus sit at the rectit of custome, and said vnto him, Follow me. And hee arose and followed him.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at table in his house, many publicanes and sinners sate at table also with Iesus, and his disciples: for there were many that followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eate with the Publicanes and sinners, they sayd vnto his disciples, How is it, that hee eateth and drinketh with Publicanes and sinners?

17 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole have no need of the physician, but the sicke. ¶ I came not to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

18 ¶ And the disciples of John & the Pharisees did fast, and came and said vnto him, Why doe the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, and thy disciples fast not?

19 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber fast, whiles the bridegrome is with them? as long as they have the bridegrome with them they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes will come, when the bridegrome shall bee taken from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 Also no man putteth a piece of new cloth in an old garment: for els the new piece taketh away the filling vp from the old, and the breach is worse.

22 Likewise, no man putteth new wine into old vessels: for els the new wine breacketh the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels are lost: but new wine must be put in new vessels.

23 ¶ And it came to passe as hee went thowre the corne on the Sabbath day, that his disciples as they went on their way, began to plucke the eares of corne.

24 And the Pharisees said vnto him, Behold, why doe they on the Sabbath day that which is not lawfull?

25 And he sayd to them, Have ye never read what David did when he had neede, and was an hungred, both he, and they that were with him?

26 How hee went into the house of God, in the dayes of Abiathar the high Priest, and did eate the shewbread, which were not lawfull to eate, but for the Priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath, 28 Therefore the Sonne of man is Lord even of the Sabbath.

C H A P. III.

1 Hee healeth the man with the dried hand. 14 He chuseth his Apostles. 21 Christ is thought of the worldlings to be besides himselfe. 22 He casteth out the unclean spirit, which the Pharisees ascribe unto the deuill. 23 Blasphemie against the holy Ghost. 35 The brother, sister, and mother of Christ.

24 Hee entered againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man which had a withered hand.

25 And they watched him whether hee would heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

26 Then he said vnto the man which had the withered hand, Arise: stand forth in the midst.

27 And hee said to them, Is it lawfull to doe a good dede on the Sabbath day, or to doe euill: to saue the life, or to kill: But they held their peace.

28 Then he looked round about on them angrily, mourning also for the hardnesse of their hearts, and said to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored as whole as the other.

29 And the Pharisees departed, and straightway gathered a Councill with the Herodians against him, that they might destroy him.

30 But Iesus answered with his disciples to the Sea: and a great multitude followed him from Galile, and from Iudea,

31 And from Ierusalem, and from Iudaea, and beyond Iordan, and they that dwelled about Tyrus & Sidon, when they had heard what great things hee did, came vnto him in great number.

32 And he commanded his disciples, that a ship should waite for him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

33 For hee had healed many, insomuch that they pressed vpon him to touch him, as many as had his plagues.

34 And when the unclean spirits sawe him, they fell downe before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Sonne of God.

35 And he sharply rebuked them, to the end they should not utter him.

36 Then hee went vp into a mountaine, and called vnto him whom he would, and they came vnto him.

37 And hee appointed twelue that they should be with him, and that he might send them to preach,

38 And that they might haue power to heale sicknesses, and to cast out deuils.

39 And the first was Simon, and hee named him Peter.

40 Then James the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn, James brother, (and named them Boanerges, which is the sonnes of thunder)

41 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartolomew, and Mattheu, and Thomas, and James the sonne of Alphens, and Chaddus, and Simon the Canaanite.

42 And Iudas Icarior who also betrayed him, and they came home.

43 And the multitude assembled againe, so that they could not so much as eate bread.

21 And when his kinsfolkes heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they thought he had bene beside himselfe.

22 And the Scribes which came from Ierusalem, sayd, He hath Beelzebub, and through the prince of deuils he casteth out deuils.

23 But he called them vnto him, and said vnto them in parables, How can Satan driue out Satan?

24 For if a kingdome be diuided against it selfe, that kingdome cannot stand.

25 For if a house be diuided against it selfe, that house cannot continue.

26 So if Satan make insurrection against himselfe, and be diuided, he cannot endure, but is at an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong mans house, and take away his goods, except hee first binde that strong man, and then spoile his house.

28 Verely I say vnto you, all sins shal be forgiven vnto the children of men, & blasphemies, wherewith they blaspheme:

29 But he that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost, shal neuer haue forgiveness, but is culpable of eternall damnation.

30 Because they said, He had an unclean spirit.

31 Then came his brethren and mother, and stood without, and sent vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people sate about him, & they said vnto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren seeke for thee without.

33 But he answered them, saying, Who is my mother and my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them, which sate in compass about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoever doth the will of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

38 He began againe to teach by the sea side, & there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship and sate in the sea, and all the people was by the sea side on the land.

39 And hee taught them many things in parables, and said vnto them in his doctrine, 40 Hearken: Behold, there went out a sower to sow.

41 And it came to passe as he sowed, that some fell by the wayes side, and the fowles of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

42 And some fell on stonie ground, where it had not much earth, and by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

43 But alsoone as the sunne was vp, it caught heate, and because it had no roote, it withered away.

9 Then he said vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when hee was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he sayd vnto them, To you it is giuen to know the mystery of the kingdome of God: but vnto them that are without,
all things be done in parables,

12 That they seeing, may see, and not discerne: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, least at any time they should turne, and their sinnes should bee forgiven them.

13 Again he said vnto them, Perceiue ye not this parable? how then should ye vnder-stand all other parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they that receiue the seed by the wayes side, in whome the Word is sown: but when they haue heard it, Satan commeth immediatly, and taketh away the Word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And likewise they that receiue the seed in stony ground, are they, which when they haue heard the word, straightwayes receiue it with gladnes.

17 Yet haue they no roote in themselves, and indure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the word, immediatly they be offended.

18 Also they that receiue the seed among the thornes, are such as heare the word:

19 But the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things enter in, and choke the word, and it is unfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seede in good ground, are they that heare the word, and receiue it, and bring forth fruite, one score thirty, another sixty, and some an hundred.

21 Also hee sayd vnto them, * Is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushell, or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid that shall not be opened: neither is there a secret, but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he sayd vnto them, Take heede what ye heare. * With what measure ye mete, it shall bee measured vnto you:
and vnto you that heare, shall more be gi-uen.

25 For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen, and from him that hath not, shall bee taken away, * euen that he hath.

26 Also he sayd, So is the kingdome of God, as if a man should cast seed in the ground,

27 And should sleepe, and rise by night and day, and the seed should spring and grow vp, he not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eares, after that, full come in the eares.

29 And as soon as the earnt sheweth it selfe, anon hee putteth in the sickle, because the haruest is come.

30 We said moreover, Wherunto shal we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of Mustard seede, which when it is sown in the earth, is the least of all seeds that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sown, it groweth vp, and is greater of all herbes, and beareth great branches, so that the fowles of heauen may build vnder the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables hee preached the word vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake hee nothing vnto them, but hee poundered at things to his disciples apart.

35 Now the same day when euen was come, hee laid vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and tooke him as he was in the ship: and there were also with him other ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind and the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe on a pillow: and they awoke him, and sayd to him, Master, carest thou not that wee peri-lish?

39 And hee arose vp, and rebuked the wind, and sayd vnto the Sea, Peace, and be still. So the wind ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye so feareful? how is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What is this, that both the wind and the sea obey him?

11 Nowd there was there in the mountaines a great heerd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send vs into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Iesus gave them leave. Then the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine, and the herd ran headlong from the hie banke into the Sea, (and there were about two thousand swine) and they were drowned in the sea.

14 And the swineherds fledde, and told it in the city, and in the countrey, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, and saw him that had bene possessed with the devill, and had the Legion, sit her clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraide.

16 And they that saw it, told them what was done to him that was possessed with the devill, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that he would depart from their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, hee that had bene possessed with the devill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Iesus would not suffer him, but said unto him, Goe thy way home to thy kins: and shew them what great things the Lord hath done unto thee, and how hee hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, what great things Iesus had done unto him: and all men did marvill.

21 And when Iesus was come over againe by ship unto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and hee was nere unto the sea.

22 And behold, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Jairus: and when he saw him, he fell downe at his feet.

23 And besought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lyeth at poynt of death: I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thine handes on her, that she may be healed and live.

24 Then hee went with him, and a great multitude followed him: and thronged him.

25 And there was a certaine woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve yeeres,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and it availed her nothing, but she became much worse.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in: he pceale behinde, and touched his garment.

28 For he said, If I may but touch his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body, that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediately when Iesus did know in himselfe the vertue that went out of him, he turned him round about in the pceale, and said, Who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared and trembled: for she knew what was done in her, and shee came and fell downe before him, and told him the whole truth.

34 And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace, and bee whole of thy plague.

35 While hee yet spake, there came from the same Ruler of the Synagogues house, certaine which said, Thy daughter is dead: why molestest thou the Master any further?

36 Assoone as Iesus heard that worde spoken, he said unto the Ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid: onely beleue.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and Iohn the brother of James.

38 So he came unto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and saw the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, and layd unto them, Why make ye this trouble, and weepe? the child is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorne: but he put them all out, and tooke the father, and the mother of the childe, and them that were with him, and entered in where the childe lay.

41 And tooke the childe by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi, which is by interpretation, Aiden, I say unto thee, Arise.

25 Then she came in straightway with haile vnto the King, and asked, saying, I would that thou shouldest giue me euen now in a charger the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 Then the King was very fow: yet for his oaths sake, and for their sakes which sate at table with him, he would not refuse her.

30 And the Apolles gathered themselves together to Iesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And hee said vnto them, Come ye apart into the wilderness, and rest a while: for there were many commers and goers, that they had not leasure to eat.

32 So they went by ship out of the way into a desert place.

33 But the people saw them when they departed, and many knew him, and ran afoote thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and assembled vnto him.

34 Then Iesus went out, and saw a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were like sheepe, which had no shepheard: and hee began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now farre spent, his Disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is farre passed.

36 Let them depart, that they may go into the villages and townes about, and buy them bread: for they haue nothing to eat.

2 The disciples eat with vnwashed hands, 3 The commandment of God is transgressed by mans traditions, 20 What defileth man. 24 Of the woman of Syrach-nissa, 32 The healing of the dambe,

Then ¶ gathered vnto him the Pharisees, and certaine of the Scribes which came from Ierualem.

2 And when they sawe some of his Disciples ate meate with ¶ common ¶ hands, they thought that the common handling of thinge: defiled them, so that they made holinesse and religion to depend in hands washing,

(that is to say, vnwashed) they complained.
3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jewes, except they wash their hands ¶ oft, eate not,

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eate not: and many other things there bee, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washing of cups, and ¶ pots, and of brassen vessels, and of tables.)
5 Then asked him the Pharisees and Scribes, ¶ Why walke not thy Disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eat ¶ meat with vnwashed hands?
6 Then he answered and said vnto them.
Surely ¶ Clay hath prophesied well of you men.

8 For ye lay the commandement of God apart, and obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and of cups, and many other such like things ye doe.
9 And he said vnto them, ¶ Well ye reiect the commandement of God, that ye may ob-serue your owne tradition.
10 For Moses said, ¶ Honour thy Father and thy Mother: and, ¶ Whosoever that curse thoritie, by your tradition which ye haue ordeined: and ye doe many such like things.

that can defile him, when it entereth into him: but the things which procede out of him, are they which defile the man.
16 If any haue eares to heare, let him know that whatsoever thing from without entereth into a man, cannot defile him, 19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, which is the purging of all uncleannesse?

20 Then he said, ¶ That which cometh

3 And if I send them away fasting to their owne houses, they would faint by the way: for some of them came from farr.

4 Then his Disciples answered him, ¶ How can a man suffice these^b with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves haue yee? And they said, Seuen.

6 Then hee commanded the multitude to sit downe on the ground: and he tooke the seuen loaves, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his disciples to sit before them, and they did let them befoze the people.

2 The transfiguration. 7 Christ is to be heard. 26 The dumbe spirit is cast out. 29 The force of prayer and fasting. 31 Of the death and resurrection of Christ. 33 The disputation who should be the greatest. 38 Not to hinder the course of the Gospel. 42 Offences are forbidden.

And hee said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death till they haue seene the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And sixe dayes after, Iesus tooke Peter, and James, and John, and brought them vp into an high mountaine out of the way alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did shine, and was very white as snow, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 Yet hee knew not what hee said: for they were afraid.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them, and a voyce came out of the cloude, saying, This is my beloued Sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked round about, and saw no more any man save Iesus onely with them.

9 And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them that they should tell no man what they had seene, save when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselves, & demanded one of another, what the rising from the dead should meane.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and said vnto them, Elias verely shall first come, and restore all things: and as it is written of the Sonne of man, he must suffer many things, and be set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, (and they haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would) as it is written of him.

14 And when he came to his disciples, hee saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were amazed, and ranne to him, and saluted him.

16 Then hee asked the Scribes, What dispute you among your selves?

17 And one of the company answered, and said, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And wheresoeuer hee taketh him, hee teareth him, and hee someth, and gnaweth his teeth, and pinch away: and I spake to thy disciples, that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him, and said, O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you! How long now shall I suffer you! bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and as soone as the spirit sawe him, hee tare him, and he fell downe on the ground, wallowing and foaming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since hee hath bene thus? And hee said, Of a child.

22 And oftentimes he catcheth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, If thou canst beleue it, all things are possible to him that beleueth.

24 And straightway the father of the child crying with teares, said, Lord, I beleene: helpe my vnbeleefe.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the vnleane spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumbe & deafe spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

any should haue knowne it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said vnto them, The Sonne of man shalbe de-liuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraide to aske him.

33 ¶ After hee came to Capernaum: and when hee was in the house, hee asked them,
What was it that yee disputed among you by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselves, who should be the chiefe.

35 And hee late downe, and called the twelve, and said to them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he tooke a little childe, and set him in the middes of them, and tooke him in his armes, and sayd vnto them,

37 Whosoever shall receiue one of such little children in my Name, receiuech mee:
and whosoever receiuech mee, receiuech not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ Then John answered him, saying, Master, wee saw one casting out devils by thy Name, which followed not vs, and wee forbade him, because he followeth vs not.

39 ¶ But Iesus sayd, Forbid him not:
for there is no man that can doe a miracle by my Name, that can lightly speake euil of me.

40 For whosoever is not against vs, is on our part.

41 ¶ And whosoever shall giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say vnto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 ¶ And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones, that beloue in me, it were better for him rather, that a millstone were hanged about his necke, and that hee were cast into the sea.

43 ¶ Wherefore, if thine hand cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, then hauing two hands, to goe into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched.

44 ¶ Where their worme dieth not, and
the fire neuer goeth out.

45 Likewise if thy foote cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to go halt into life, then hauing two feete, to be cast into hell, into the fire that neuer shall be quenched,

46 Where their worme dyeth not, and
the fire neuer goeth out.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out: it is better for thee to goe into the kingdome of God with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire,

48 Where their worme dieth not, and
the fire neuer goeth out.

49 For every man shall be salted with fire: and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt be vn-savoury, wherewith shall it be seasoned? Haue salt in your selues and haue peace one with another.

Matth. 19. 14

And he arose from thence, and went into the costes of Iudea by the farre side of Iordan, and the people resorted vnto him again, and as he was wont he taught them again.

2 Then the Pharisees came and asked him, if it were lawfull for a man to put away his wife, and tempted him.

3 And he answered, and said vnto them,
What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, For the hardnesse of your heart hee wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But at the beginning of the creation
God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall man leaue his father and mother and cleaue vnto his wife.

8 And they twaine shall be one flesh:
so that they are no more twaine, but one
flesh.

9 Therefore, what God hath coupled together, let no man separate.

10 And in the house his Disciples asked him againe of that matter.

11 And he said vnto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adulterie against her.

12 And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, shee com-mitteth adulterie.

13 ¶ Then they brought little children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Iesus saw it, he was displeased, and sayde to them, Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not:
for of such is the kingdome of God.

15 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoever shall not receiue the kingdome of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein.

16 And heeooke them by in his armes, and put his hands vpon them, and blessed
them.

17 And when hee was gone out on the way,

u He teacheth that it is better to be sacrificed to God by salt
and fire, that is,
to be purged and sanctified, then to be sent into hell fire.

way, there came one * running, and kneeled to him, and said him, Good Master, what shall I do, that I may possesse eternall life?

18 Iesus sayd to him. Why callest thou me good? there is none: good but one, euen
God.

19 Thou knowest the commandementes,
* Thou shalt not commit adulterie. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt honor no man. Honour thy father and mother.

20 Then he answered, and said to him, Master, all these things I haue obserued from my youth.

21 And Iesus beheld him, and ^f loued him, and said vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee. Goe and sell all that thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, follow me, and take vp the crosse.

22 But hee was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowfull: for hee had great possessions.

23 And Iesus looked round about, and said vnto his disciples, how hardly doe they that haue riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And his disciples were astonied at his words. But Iesus answered againe, and said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were much more astonied, saying with themselves, Who then can be saued?

27 But Iesus looked vpon them, and sayd, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Peter began to say vnto him, Loe, we haue forsaken all and haue followed
thee.

29 Iesus answered, and said, Verily, I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospells,

30 But he shall receiue an hundred fold, now at this present: houses, and brethren and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands with persecutions, and in the world to come eternall life.

31 ¶ But many that are first, shall be last,
and the last first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid, and Iesus toke the twelve againe, and began to tell them what things should come vnto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we goe vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be deli-uered vnto the chief Priests, and to the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, & scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.

35 ¶ Then James & John the sonnes of Zebedeus came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for vs that that we desire.

36 And he sayd vnto them, What would ye I should doe for you?

37 And they sayde to him, Graunt vnto vs, that we may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Iesus sayd vnto them. Ye know not what ye alke. Can ye drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and bee baptized with the baptism that I shall bee baptized with?

39 And they sayd vnto him, We can. But Iesus sayd vnto them, Ye shall drinke indeed of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptism wherewith I shall be baptized.

40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shall be giuen to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when they heard that, they began to disclaime at James and John.

42 But Iesus called them vnto him, and sayd to them, ¶ Ye know that they which delight to beare rule among the Gentiles, haue domination ouer them, and they that be great among them, exercise authority ou-er them.

43 But it shall not bee so among you:
but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your seruant.

44 And whosoever will be chiefe of you, shall be the seruant of all.

45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ranfome of many.

46 ¶ Then they came to Iericho: and as he went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, Bartimews the son of Timeus, a blind man, sat by the way side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazaret, he began to cry and to say, Iesus
the sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me.

48 And many rebuked him, because hee should hold his peace: but he cryed much more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.

49 Then Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they called the blind, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort:
arise, he calleth thee.

50 So he threw away his cloke, and rose,
and came to Iesus.

51 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee?
And the blind sayd vnto him, Lord, that I may receiue sight.

52 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Go thy way: thy faith hath saued thee. And by and by he receiued his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

of the Temple. 24 He declareth the vertue of faith, and how we should pray. 27 The Pharisees question with Christ.

And ^a when they came nere to Ierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Olives, hee sent forth two of his disciples,

2 And laid vnto them, ^a Goe your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and as soone as ye shall enter into it, ye shall finde a colt bound, wherupon neuer man hath loosed him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe ye this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes meette, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stood there, sayd vnto them, What doe ye looking the colt?

6 And they said vnto them as Iesus had commanded them. So they let them goe.

7 ^c And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sat vpon him.

8 And ^b many spread their garments in the way: other cut downe branches off the trees, and strowed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna, Blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

10 Blessed be the kingdome that cometh in the Name of the Lord of our father: David: Hosanna, O thou which art in the highest heauens.

11 ^c So Iesus entred into Ierusalem, and into the Temple: and when he had looked about on all things, and now it was evening, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelve.

12 ^a And on the morrow when they were come out from Bethania, hee was ^a hungry.

13 And seeing a figge tree as farre off, that had leaues, he went to see if he might finde any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figs was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and sayd to it, Neuer man eate fruit of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 ^c And they came to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold doves.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carry a vessel thow the Temple.

17 And hee taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, Mine house shall be called the house of prayer vnto all nations: ^a but you haue made it a denne of thieues.

18 And the Scribes & the Priests heard it, and sought how to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was alionied at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the citie.

20 ^c And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the figge tree dyed vpon the rootes. Math. 21. 19, 20.

21 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Master, behold, the figge tree which thou curdest, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I haue ^b faith in God.

23 For verily I say vnto you, that whosoever shall say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not waiver in his heart, but shall beleue that those things which he saith shall come to passe, whatsoeuer he saith, shall be done to him.

24 ^a Therefore I say vnto you, Whatsoeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleue that ye shall haue it, and it shall be done vnto you.

25 ^a But when ye shall li and pray, forgive, if you haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 For if you will not forgive, your Father which is in heauen will not pardon you your trespasses.

27 ^c Then they came againe to Ierusalem: and as hee walked in the Temple, there came to him the Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders,

28 And said vnto him, By what authoritie dost thou these things: and who gaue thee this authoritie, that thou shouldst doe these things?

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I will aske of you a certaine thing, and answer ye me, and I will tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

30 The baptism of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men: answer me.

31 And they thought with themselves, he will say, Why then did ye not beleue him?

32 But if we say, ^a Of men, we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he had bene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered and said vnto Iesus, I esse cannot tell. And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Neither will I tel you by what authoritie I doe these things.

CHAP. XII.

1 The vineyard & its out. 14 Obedience and tribute due to princes. 25 The resurrection of the dead.

28 The summe of the Law. 35 Christ the sonne of David, 38 Hypocrites must be eschewed. 41 The offering of the poore widow.

And he began to speake vnto them in parables. ^a A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compassed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the winepresse, and built a towne in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey. Isa. 5. 1. Jer. 2. 21. Math. 21. 33. Luke 20. 9.

2 And at a time, hee sent to the husbandmen a seruant, that he might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruite of the vineyard. A The Greeke word signifieth the vessel or fat, which standeth vnder the wine-press to receiue the iuyce or li-

2 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And againe, he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, and brake his head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And againe he sent another, and him they slew, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloved: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But his husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? We will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this scripture? The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner:

11 This was done of the Lord, and it is maruelous in our eyes.

12 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceiued that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came, they sayd vnto him, Master, wee know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God truely. Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Celsar, or not?

15 Should we giue it, or should we not giue it? But he knew their hypocrisie, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and he said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said vnto him, Celsars.

17 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, ¶ Giue to Celsar the things that are Celsars, and to God, those that are Gods: and they maruelled at him.

18 ¶ Then came the Sadduces vnto him (which say there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If my mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died, left no issue:

21 Then the second tooke her, and hee died, neither did he yet leaue issue, and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall she be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceived, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marrie, nor wines are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue ye not read in the booke of Moses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceived.

28 ¶ Then came one of the Scribes, that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that he had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the commandements is, ¶ Heare Israel, the Lord our God is the onely Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy minde, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandement.

31 And the second is like that, is, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thyselfe. There is none other commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Well Master, thou hast said the truth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he,

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Iesus saw that hee answered discretely, he said vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ake him any question.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered, and said, teaching in the Temple, how say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of David?

36 For David himselfe said by the holy Ghost, ¶ The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, til I make thine enemies thy foote stoole.

37 Then David himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ Moreover he said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes, which loue to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the marketes,

39 And the chiefe seates in the Synagogues, and the first rooms at feasts,

40 Which denoure widows houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shall receive the greater damnation.

41 ¶ And as Iesus sate ouer against the tresaurie, he beheld how the people cast money into the tresaurie, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, and shee threw in two mites, which make a quadrin.

And as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, see what stones and what buildings are here.

2 Then Iesus answered and said vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be throwen downe.

3 And as he late on the mount of olives, ouer against the Temple, Peter, and James,
and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly,

4 Tell vs when shall these things be, and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, and began to say, Take heed lest any man deceiue you.

6 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore, when ye shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres, be yee not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome, and there shall be earthquakes in diuers quarters: & there shall be famine and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take heed to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Councils, & to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimoniall vnto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 But when they leade you and deliuer you vp, take pee no thought afore, neither premeditate: what yee shall say: but whatsoeuer is giuen you at the same time, that speake: for it is not yee that speake, but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shall deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: but whosoever shall endure vnto the end, he shall be saved.

14 Moreover, when ye shall see the abomination of desolation (spoken of by Daniel the Prophet) standing where it ought not (let him that readeth consider it) then let them that bee in Iudea, flee into the mountaines.

15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turne backe againe vnto the things which he left behind him, to take his clothes.

17 Then wo shalbe to them that are with children, and to them that glue sucke in those dayes.

18 Pray therefore that your flight bee not in the winter.

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, vnto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those dayes, no flesh should bee saved:
but for the elects sake, which he hath chosen,
he hath shortened those dayes.

21 Then if any man say to you, Lo, here is Christ, or lo, he is there, beleeue it not.

22 For false Christs shall rise, and false prophets, and shall shew signes and wonders to deceiue, if it were possible, the very elect.

23 But take ye heede: behold, I haue shewed you all things before.

24 Moreover in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sonne shall ware dark, and the Moone shall not giue her light,

25 And the stars of heauen shall fall: and the powers which are in heauen shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

27 And he shall then send his Angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, and from the utmost part of the earth, to the utmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the fig tree.
When her bough is yet tender, and it hingerh forth leaues, ye know that Summer is nere.

29 So in like manner, when ye see these things come to passe, know that the kingdome of God is nere, euen at the doores.

30 Verily I say vnto you, that this generation shall not passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that day & houre knoweth no man, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the Sonne himselfe, save the Father.

33 Take heede: watch, and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, & leaueth his house, and giueth authority to his seruants, and to euery man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 Watch therefore, (for ye know not when the Master of the house will come, at noon, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning.)

36 Lest if he come suddenly, he should finde you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say vnto you,
I say vnto all men, Watch.

2 But they said, Not in the trait way, lest there be any tumult among the people.

3 * And when he was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having a boce of oymnt of spikenard very coile, and she brake the boce, and powred it on his head.

4 Therefore some disdaigned among themselves, and said, To what end is this waste of oymnt?

5 For it might have bene sold for more then three hundred pence, & been given unto the poore, & they grudged against her.

6 But Iesus said, Let her alone: why trouble yee her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye have the poore with you alwayes, and when ye will ye may doe them good, but me ye shall not have alwayes.

8 She hath done that she could: she came aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Certely I say unto you, Where soeuer this Gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of in remembrance of her.

10 * Then Judas Iscariot one of the twelve, went away unto the hie Priests to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, & promised that they would geue him money: therefore he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 * Now the first day of vnkneued bread, when he sacrificed the Passouer, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the Passouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples, and said unto them, Go ye into the cite, and there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whiche soeuer he goeth in, say ye to the Goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the lodging where I shall eat the Passouer with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you an vpper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared: there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the cite, & found as he had said unto them, and made ready the Passouer.

17 * And at euen he came with the twelve

18 * And as they sat at table and did eat, Iesus said, Certely I say unto you, that one of you shall betray mee, which eateth with mee.

19 Then they began to be sorowfull, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another, Is it I?

20 And he answered, and said unto them, It is one of the twelve that * dipperth with me in the platter.

21 * Truly the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is * written of him: but woe be to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

22 * And as they did eat, Iesus tooke the bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it and gaue it to them, and said, Take, eat, this is my body.

23 Also he tooke the cup, and when he had giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

24 And he sayd unto them, This is my blood of the new Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Certely I say unto you, I will drinke no more of the fruit of the Vine, untill that day that I drinke it new in the kingdome of God.

26 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out to the mount of Olives.

27 * Then Iesus said unto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is written, * I will smite the Shepheard, and the sheepe shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into * Galile before you.

29 And Peter sayd unto him, Although all men should be offended, yet would not I.

30 Then Iesus said unto him, Certely I say unto thee, this day, euen in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt denie me thise.

31 But he said more earnestly, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also said they all.

32 * After, they came into a place named Gethsemane: then he said to his disciples, Sit ye here till I haue prayed.

33 And hee tooke with him Peter, and James, and Iohn, & he began to be * afraid, and in great heavinesse, 34 And said unto them, My soule is very heauie, euen vnto the death: tarrye here and watch.

35 So he went forward a litle, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from me: neuerthelless, not that I will, but that thou * wilt, be done.

37 Then he came & found them sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one houre?

38 * Watch ye, and pray, that yee enter not into tentation: the spirit in deede is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And he returned, and found them asleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy: neither knew they what they should answer him.

41 And he came the third time, and said vnto them, * Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: it is enough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise vp: let vs goe: loe, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.

43 * And immediately while he yet spake, came Judas that was one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staves from the hie Priests & Scribes, and Elders,

44 And he that betrayed him, had giuen them

45 And as soon as he was come, hee went straightway to him, and saide, r Walster, Walster, and kisse him.

46 Then they layd their hands on him, and toke him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew out a sword, and smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Iesus answered and saide vnto them, We be come out as vnto a thiefe with swords and with staves to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye toke me not: but this is done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they all forsooke him and fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine young man, clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, and the young men caught him.

52 But he left his linnen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 So they led Iesus away to the high Priest, and to him came all the hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him a farre off, euen into the hall of the high Priest, and sate with his seruants, and warmed himselfe at the fire.

55 And the hie Priests and all the Councell sought for witness against Iesus, to put him to death, but found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another, made without hands.

59 But their witness yet agreed not together.

60 Then the hie Priest stood up amongst them, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these beare witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the hie Priest asked him, and sayde vnto him, Art thou Christ the Sonne of the Blessed?

62 And Iesus said, I am hee, and ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and sayde, What haue we any more neede of witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? and they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 And some began to spit at him and to couer his face, and to beat him with fists, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the bergeantes smote him with their rods.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maids of the high Priest.

67 And when shee sawe Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazaret.

68 But hee denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crew.

69 Then a Maid saw him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But hee denied it againe: and anone after they that stood by, sayd againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speech is like.

71 And hee began to curse and sweare saying, I know not this man of whom ye speake.

72 Then the second time the Cocke crew, and Peter remembered the word that Iesus had said vnto him, Before the Cocke crow twice, thou shalt denie me thrise, and weighing thor with himselfe, he wept.

CHAP. XV.

1 Iesus is led to Pilate. 15 Hee is condemned, reuiled, and put to death, 46 and is buried by Joseph.

And anon in the dawning, the high Priests held a Councell with the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Councell, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Iewes? And hee answered, and sayd vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the high Priests accused him of many things.

4 Therefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Iesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them, whomsoever they would desire.

7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

8 And the people cryed aloud, and began to desire that hee would doe as hee had euer done vnto them.

9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

10 For hee knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuy.

11 But the high Priests had mooued the people to desire that hee would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 And Pilate answered, and sayde againe vnto them, What will ye then that I doe with him, whom ye call the King of the Iewes?

13 And they cryed againe, Crucifie him.

14 Then Pilate sayde vnto them, But what will hatch be done? And they cryed the more feruently, Crucifie him.

26 And the title of his cause was written about, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And hee was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, He that destruyeth the Temple, and buildeth it in three dayes,

30 Save thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the high Priestes mocking, said among themselves with the Scribes, He saved other men, himselfe hee cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that wee may see, and beleue. They also that were crucified with him, reviled him.

33 Now when the sixth houre was come, darkness arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani: which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken mee?

35 And some of them that stood by when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reede, and gaue him to drinke. Saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue up the ghost.

38 And the vail of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying gaue up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Sonne of God.

40 There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was Marie Magdalene, & Mary (the mother of Iames the lesse, and of Ioses,) and Salome, 41 Which also when hee was in Galile, followed him, and ministered vnto him, and many other women which came by with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 And now when night was come, because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honourable Councellour, which also looked for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if hee were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked of him whether he had beene any while dead.

45 And when hee knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph, 46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him downe, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and layd him in a tombe that was hewn out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene, and Marie Ioses mother beheld where he should be laid.

And when the Sabbath day was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Iames, and Salome, bought sweet ointments, that they might come, and embalme him.

2 Therefore early in the morning, the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the Sunne was yet rising,

3 And they layde one to another, Alas shall we roll away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one.)

5 So they went into the sepulchre, and sawe a yong man sitting at the right side clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraid.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraid: yee seeke Iesus of Nazaret, which hath bene crucified: he is risen: he is not here: behold the place where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he will goe before you into Galile, there shall ye see him, as he said vnto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre: for they trembled, and were amazed: neither sayd they any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

5 Of Zacharias & Elisabeth. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the nativity of Iohn Baptist. 20 His mercy dulity is punished. 28 The salke of the Angel & Mary. 46 Her song. 57 The birth, circumcision and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giveth thanks to God and prophesieth.

INASMUCH as many haue taken in hand to set forth the story of those things wherof we are fully perswaded.

2 * As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their liues, and were ministers of the b word.

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) alsoone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point.

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certainty of those things wherof thou hast bene instructed.

5 In the time of Herod king of Iudaea there * as a certaine Priest named Zacharias. of the b course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.

6 Both were iust before God, and walked in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, without reproofe.

7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, as hee executed the priests office before God, as his course came in order.

9 According to the custom of the Priests office, his lot was b to burne incense when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord standing at the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel said vnto him, feare not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name * Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnes, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, & shall neither drinke vⁿ the nor i strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall be turned to their Lord God.

17 * For hee shall goe * before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, & hee said vnto him, I know it is so: for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am * Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not bee able to speake vntill the day that these things be done: because thou hast not said my words, which shall be fulfilled in thee: in that season.

i The Temple was diuided into three parts: the first was the body of the Temple called Atrium, where the people was: the second called Sanctum, where the priests and Leuites were: and the third Sanctum Sanctorum, into the which the high Priest entred once a yeere to sacrifice.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake unto them: then they perceived that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for hee made signes vnto them, and remayned dumbe.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid her selfe sixe moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me: my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixt moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a city of Galilee, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and said, ¶ Hail thou that art freely beloued: the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not Mary: for thou hast found fauour with God.

31 ¶ For loe, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a Son, and shalt call his Name IESVS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Sonne of the most high, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the Throne of his father Dauid, 33 ¶ And he shall reigne ouer the house of Jacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be no end.

34 Then sayde Mary vnto the Angel, How shall this bee, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered and said vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most high shall ouershadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a sonne in her olde age: and this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be impossible.

38 Then Mary said, Behold the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill country with haste to a citie of Iuda,

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe sprang in her belly, and Elisabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loude voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruit of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence cometh this to me, that the Mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For loe, as soone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioi,

45 And blessed is she that beleeueth: for those things shall be performed, which were told her from the Lord.

46 Then Mary said, My soule magnified the Lord.

47 And my spirit reioyceth in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for he hold, from henceforth shall all ages call him blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done for me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 ¶ Wee hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the ypon in the imagination of their hearts.

52 Wee hath put downe the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 ¶ Wee hath filled he hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty.

54 ¶ Wee hath upholden Israel his seruant, being vndofull of his mercy, 55 ¶ As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and his seed) for euer.

56 ¶ And Mary abode with her about three moneths: after, shee returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabeths time was fulfilled that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbors and cousins heard tell how the Lord had shewed his great mercy vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so that on the eight day they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered and sayd, Not so, but he shall be called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kindred that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: and they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and hee spake and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt neere vnto them, and all these words were noyced abroad throughout all the hill country of Iuda.

CHAP. II.

7 The birth and circumcision of Christ. 23 He was received into the Temple. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of him. 46 Hee was found among the doctors. 51 His obedience to father and mother.

And it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commandement from Augustus Cæsar, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (This first taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And Joseph also went by from Galile out of a citie called Nazareth, into Iudea, vnto the citie of Dauid, which is called

Beth-lehem, (because hee was of the house and lineage of Dauid.)

5 To be taxed with Mary that was giuen him to wife, which was with child.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that he should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her first begotten Sonne, and wrappd him in swaddling clothes, and layde him in a cratch, because there was no couche for them in the time.

8 And there were in the same countrey shepherds abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And loe, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of Dauid, a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe to you, Ye shall find the child swaddled, and layd in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praising God, and saying,

14 Glory bee to God in the high heauens, and peace in earth, and towards men good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds said one to another, Let vs goe then vnto Beth-lehem, and see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the babe layd in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that child.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were tolde them of the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard & seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

21 And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circumcise the child, his name was then called IESVS, which was named of the Angel, before hee was conceived in the wombe.

22 And when the dayes of her purification after the Law of Moyses were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord,

23 (As it is written in the Lawe of the Lord, * Euery man child that first openeth the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord.)

24 And to giue an oblation, * as it is commanded in the Law of the Lord, a payre of turtle doves, or two yong pigeons.

37 And she was widow about foure score and foure yeeres, and went not out of the Temple, but serued God with fastings and prayers, night and day.

38 She then coming at the same instant vpon them, confessed likewise the Lord, and spoke of him to all that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galilee to their owne cite Nazareth.

40 And the child grew and waxed strong in spirit, and was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was with him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Jerusa-

45 And when they found him not, they turned backe to Jerusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe three dayes after that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonied at his understanding and answers.

48 So when they saw him, they were amased, and his mother sayde vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs?

beholde, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then said hee vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must dernes.

3 ¶ And hee came into all the coastes about Iordain, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Elias the Prophet, which saith,
The voice of him that crieth in the wildernes is, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5 Euery valley shall be filled, and euery mountaine, and hill shalbe brought low, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough shall be made smooth.

6 And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7 Then said hee to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, ¶ All generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruites worthy amendment of life, and begin not to say with your selues, We haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Nowe also is the axe layde vnto the roote of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

10 ¶ Then the people asked him, saying,
What shall we doe then?

11 And he answered, and said vnto them,
¶ We that hath two coats, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meat, let him doe likewise.

12 Then came there Publicans also to be baptized, and said vnto him, What shall we doe?

13 And hee said vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The soldiers likewise demanded of
him,

16 Iohn answered, and sayd to them all, * Indeed I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoes lather I am not worthy to vnloose: he will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 * Whose fanne is in his hand, and he will make cleane his floore, and will gather the wheate into his garner, but the chaffe will be burne vp with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

18 Thus then exhorting with many other things, he preached vnto the people.

19 * But when Herod the Tetrarch was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done.

20 He added yet this aboue all, that hee shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 * Now it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, that Iesus was baptized and did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shape like a doue vpon him, and there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne: in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Iesus himselfe began to be about thirtie yeres of age, being as men supposed the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Eli,

CHAP. IIIL

1 Iesus is led into the wildernesse to bee tempted.
2 He ouercommeth the deuil.
3 Hee goeth into Galilee.
4 Preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum.
5 The Iewes despise him.
6 Hee cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law.
7 Hee denieth acknowledge Christ.
8 Hee preacheth thorow the cities.

And Iesus ful of the holy Ghost returned from Iordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wildernesse,

2 * And was there forty dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuil said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery word of God.

5 Then the deuil tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinkling of an eye.

6 And the deuil sayd vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to me: and to whomsoeuer I will, I giue it:

7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, they shall be all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, and said, Hence from mee, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone shalt thou serue.

9 Then hee brought him to Ierusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence,

10 For it is written, * That he will giue his Angels charge over thee, to keepe thee:

11 And with their hands they shall lift thee vp, lest at any time thou shouldst dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuil had ended all the temptation, hee departed from him: for a season.

14 And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about.

q That is, the motion of the deuil, or that was tormented with a very deuil.

15 For hee taught in their Synagogues and was honoured of all men.

16 * And hee came to Nazaret, where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Elias: and when hee opened the booke, hee found the place, where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath anointed me: that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: hee hath sent mee that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recovering of sight to the blind, that I should set at libertie them that are bound.

19 And that I should preach the acceptable yere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious wordes, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then hee said vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this proverbe, Physician, heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrye.

24 And he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, * No Prophet is accepted in his owne countrye.

25 But I tell you of a truthe, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut thre yeres and sixe monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a ciue of Sidon, vnto a certaine widowe.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then al that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But hee passed through the mids of them, and went his way.

31 ¶ And came downe into Capernaum, a ciue of Galile, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an vncleane deuil, which cryed with a loud voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret: art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, even the holy One of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuil throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then hee stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Now when the sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases brought them vnto him, and he layd his hands on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And devils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that hee should not depart from them.

43 But he sayd vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdom of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

Then it came to passe, as the people pressed vpon him to heare the word of God, that hee stood by the lake of Genesareth,

2 And saw two shyps stand by the lake side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And * hee entred into one of the shyps which was Simons, and required him that hee would thrust off a little from the land: and hee sat downe, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 ¶ Now when hee had left speaking, hee layd vnto Simon, Launch out into the deepe, and let downe your nets to make a draught.

5 Then Simon answered, and said vnto him, Master, we haue trauelled all night, and haue taken nothing: neuerthelesse at thy word I will let downe the net.

6 And when they had to done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, so that their net brake.

which were in the other shippe, that they should come and helpe them, who came then and filled both the shippes, that they did sunke.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it, hee fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, goe from me, for I am a sinfull man.

9 For he was utterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also James and John the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus sayd vnto Simon, feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all, and followed him.

12 * Now it came to passe, as hee was in a certaine citie, behold, there was a man full of leprosie, and when hee saue Iesus, hee fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make mee cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, bee thou cleane. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he should tell: no man: but goe, saith he, and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing as * Moyses hath commanded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day as hee was teaching, that the Pharisees and doctors of the Law came by, which were come out of euery towne of Galilee, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 * Then behold, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsey, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the presse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tiling ded and all, in the mids before Iesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees began to chynke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceived their thoughts, he answered, and said vnto them, What I thinke ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee, or to say, Rise, and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authoritie to forgive sinnes in earth, (he said vnto the sicke of the palsey) I say to thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

25. And immediately he rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed whereon hee lay, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

26 And they were all amazed, and praised God, and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse wee haue seene || strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after that he went forth and saw a Publikean named || Leui, sitting at the receit of Custom, and said vnto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publikeans, and of other that sate at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes and Pharisees among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye, and drinke ye with Publikeans and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, They that are whole, neede not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

32 * I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they said vnto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharisees also, but thine eat and drinke?

34 And he said vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast as long as the bridegrome is with them?

35 But the daies wil come euen when the bridegrome shall be taken away from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 Again he spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an olde vesture: for then the new renteth it, and the peece taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 ¶ Also no man poureth new wine into old vessels: for then the new wine wil breake the vessels, and it wil run out, and the vessels will perish.

38 But new wine must be poured into new vessels: so both are perfected.

39 Also no man that hath drunk olde wine, straightway desireth new, for he saith, The old is better.

4 How hee went into the house of God, and took, and ate the Shewbread, and gaue also to them which were with him, which was not lawfull to eat, but for the * Priests onely?

5 And he said vnto them, The Sonne of man is * Lord also of the Sabbath day.

6 ¶ It came to passe also on another Sabbath, that hee entered into the Synagoge and taught, and there was a man whose right hand was dried vp.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether hee would heale on the Sabbath day, that they might finde an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had, he withered hands, Arise, and stand vp in the mids. And he arose and stood vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good, or to doe euill: to saue life, or to destroy it?

10 And hee beheld them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And hee did so, and his hand was restored againe, as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse and communed one with another, what they might doe to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in those dayes, that hee went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 * And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them hee chooseth twelve which also hee called * Apostles.

14 (Simon whom he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James and Iohn, Philip, and Bartlemew:

15 Matthew, and Thomas: James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called zealous,

16 Judas James brother, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then hee came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea and Ierusalem, and from the Sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to be healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he blessed by his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye * poore for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that * weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euill, for the Son of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be eglaide: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But wee be to you that are rich: for ye haue receiued your consolation

25 Allee be to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Allee be to you that now laugh: for ye shall weep and weepe.

26 Allee be to you when all men speake well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say vnto you which heare, Love your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which hate you.

29 * And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke offer also the other: * and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Giue to every man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods, * aske them not againe.

31 * And as ye would that men should do to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 * For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which do good for you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

34 * And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, & doe good and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of * the most high: for he is kind vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 ¶ Iudge not, & ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.

38 Giue, and it shall be giuen vnto you, * a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & running ouer shall men giue into your bosom: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And hee spake a parable vnto them, * Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall not they both fall into the ditch?

CHAP. VII.

2 Hee healeth the captaine's servant. 11 Hee raiseth up the widowes sonne from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whom Iohn Baptist sent unto him. 24 Hee commendeth Iohn, 31 And reproveth the Iewes for their unfaithfulness. 36 He eateth with the Pharisee. 37 The woman worshippeth him with her teares, and hee forgiveth her finnes.

Math. 8. 5.

When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, hee entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine Centurions servant was sicke and readie to die, which was deare unto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, hee sent unto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that hee would come and heale his servant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying, that hee was worthe that he should doe this for him.

5 For hee saith, sayd they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roofe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come unto thee: but I say the word, and my servant shall be whole.

8 For I like wile am a man set under authority, and have under mee soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth, and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, hee marvelled at him, and turned him and said to the people that followed him, I say unto you I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the servant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when hee came nere to the gate of the citie, behold, there was a dead man carried out, who was the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, hee had compassion on her, and sayd vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And he went and touched the coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and hee sayd, Arise. Pong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sat up, and began to speake, and hee deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath blessed his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Iudaea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certain men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we waite for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they sayd, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou hee that should come, or shall we waite for another?

21 And at that time hee cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many blind men hee gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, Goe your wayes and shew Iohn what things ye haue seene & heard: that the blind see, the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poor receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is hee, that shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reede shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparellled, and fine delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater then hee.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? & what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: wee haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

38 * And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with teares, and did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them: with the oymint.

39 Now when the Pharisees which bade him, saw it, he spake with himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he should surely haue knowen, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for shee is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain lender, which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other nifte.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayd, I suppose that hee to whom hee forgave most. And hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then hee turned to the woman, and sayd vnto Simon. Heest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feet: but she hath washed my feet with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddest not anoynt: but shee hath anoynted my feet with oymint.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiven her: for shee loued much. To whom a little is forgiven, hee doeth loue a little.

48 And hee sayd vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

49 And they that sat at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that euen forgiveth sinnes.

50 And he sayd to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee, goe in peace.

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all citie, he spake by a parable,

5 A sower went out to sow his seed, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feet, and the fowles of heauen deuoured it up.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp it withered away, because it lacked moitnesse.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprung vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprung vp and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he said these things, he cried, We that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 * The parable is this, the seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward cometh the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should beleene, and be saved.

13 But they that are on the stones are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, whi h for a while beleue, but in the time of tentation goe away.

22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that hee went into a ship with his disci-unto the other side of the lake. And they lanched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell ^l asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, wee perishe.
And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then hee said vnto them, Where is your faith? And they feared, and wondered among themselves, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ So they sailed into the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Ga-lile.

27 And as hee went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and hee ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voice sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee ^k to torment me not.

29 For hee commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for oft times hee had caught him: therefore hee was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but hee brake the bands, and was ^l caried of the deuill into wildernesse.)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, ^m Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not commaund them to goe out into the ⁿ deepe.

32 And there was there by, an herde of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was chokt.

34 When the hearde men saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they tolde it in the citie and in the coun-treij.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Iesus, clothed, and in his right minde, and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, tolde them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the coun-treij about the Gadarenes, besought him, that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship and returned.

38 Then the man out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Iesus sent him away, saying,

39 ¶ Returne into thine owne house, and shew vnto what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached thro-rowt all the ^p citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and hee was the ruler of the ^q Synagogue, who fel downe at Iesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

42 For hee had but a daughter onely, about twelue yeeres of age, and shee lay a dying. (And as hee went, the people thronged him.)

43 And a woman hauing an issue of blood twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon Physicians, and could not be healed of any:

44 When shee came behinde him, she touched the ^r hemme of his garment, and im-mediatly her issue of blood stancet.

45 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hath touched me? When euery man denied,
Peter said, and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and crewd on thee, and layest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that shee was not hid, she came trembling, and fell downe before him, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause shee had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he said vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy ^s faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace.)

from the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: dileale not the Master.

50 When Iesus heard it, hee answered him, saying, Feare not, beleeue onely, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he went into the house, he suffered no man to goe in with him, saue Peter, and James, and John, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept and sorrowed for her: but he said, Weepe not, for she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laught him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So he thrust them all out, and tooke her by the hand, and cryed, saying, Waite, arise.

CHAP. IX.

2 He fendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach, Herod beareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth fise thousand men with fue loaues, & two fishes. 19 Divers opinions of Christ. 28 Hee transfigureth him selfe vpon the mount. 42 He deliuereth the possessed, 47 and teacheth his disciples to bee lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but he reprimandeth them.

Then called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power and authority ouer all diuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staves, nor scrippes, neither bread, nor stinck, neyther haue two coates.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that citie, shake off the very dust from your feete for a testimony against them.

6 And they went out, and went thorow euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he doubted because that it was said of some, that John was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared, and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod said, John haue I beheaded: who then is this, of whom I heare such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they tolde him what great things they had done. Then he tooke them, and went aside into a solitary place, neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him, and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 And when the day began to waxe away, the twelue came, and said vnto him,

Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meate: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he sayd vnto them, I sine yee them to eate. And they sayd, We haue no more but fue loaues and two fishes, except wee should goe and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about fise thousand men. Then he said to his Disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he toke the fue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say ye people that I am?

19 They answered, and sayd, John Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the old Prophets is risen againe.

20 And he sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned & commanded them, that they should tell that to no man,

22 Saying, The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reproued of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the thied day rise againe.

23 ¶ And he sayd to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take by his crosse daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for me sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what anantage is it a man, if he winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himself?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of his Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 And I tell you of a suretie, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter and John, and James, and went vp into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias,

31 Which appeared in glory, and told of his departing, which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

him, were heauie with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men standing with him,

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: let vs therefore make three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wilt not what he said.

34 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud, and ouershadowed them, & they feared when they were entering into the cloud.

35 And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 And beholde, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne, for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he crieth, and hee teareth him, that hee someth, and with much pain departeth from him, when he hath buffed him.

40 Now I haue belought thy disciples to call him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and said, O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shall I be with you, and suffer you? bryng thy sonne hither.

42 And whyles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vnclane spirit, and healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God: and while they all wondered at all things which Iesus did, he said vnto his disciples,

44 Marke these words diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 And then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should bee the greatest.

47 When Iesus saw that thoughtes of their hearts, he tooke a little child, and set him by him.

48 And hee said vnto them, Whosoever receiuerh this little child in my name, receiuerh me: and whosoever shall receiue me, receiuerh him that sent me: for hee that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 And John answered, and sayd, Master, wee saw one casting out devils in thy name, and we forbad him, because hee followeth with thee not by vs.

50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Forbidde him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 And it came to passe, when the dayes were accompted, that hee should be receiued vp, hee setled himselfe fully to goe to Ierusalem,

52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his behauiour was, as though hee would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John saw it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that we commaund that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whither thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 But he said vnto another, Follow me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdom of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid them farewell which are at mine house.

62 And Iesus said vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, & looketh backe, is apt to the kingdom of God.

16 * Ye that heare my, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth mee, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seuentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw * Satan like lightning, fall downe from heauen.

19 Beholde, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuerthelesse, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heauen.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Iesus in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, Father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast bid these things from the * wife and learned, and hast reuealed them to babes: euen so, Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are giuen me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the Sonne, & he to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

23 ¶ And hee returned to his disciples, and said secretly, * Blessed are the eyes which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and Kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them, and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

25 ¶ Then beholde, a certaine expounder of the Law stood by, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I doe to inherite eternall life?

26 And he said vnto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, & said, * Thou shalt loue thy Lord God with all thine heart, and with all thy loue, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, * and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he sayd vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to * iustifie himselfe, sayd vnto Iesus, Who is * then my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answered, and sayd, A certaine man went downe from Ierusalem to Jericho, and fell among thornes, and they robbed him of his rayment, and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by * chance there came downe a certaine Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when hee was come nere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came nere vnto him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, and polued in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made provision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he tooke out * two pence, and gaue them to the host, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the thornes?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Goe, and doe thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that hee entered into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And shee had a sister called Marie, which also sat at Iesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much seruing, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? bid her therfore that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art troubled about many things:

3 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He drieth out a deuil. 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharise. 28 He preferreth the spiritual confession. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He teacheth with the Pharise, and reproacheth the hypocrite of the Pharise, Scribes and hypocrites.

And so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples layd vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdom come: Let thy will be done euen in earth as it is in heauen:

3 Our dayly bread giue vs: for the day: 4 And forgive vs our finnes: for euen we forgive euery man that is indebted to vs. And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 And hee ouer he said vnto them, Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loanes?

6 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to let before him:

7 And he within should answer and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise, and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall find: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiveth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will hee for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father giue the holy Ghost to them, that desire him?

15 But some of them sayd, Wee casteth out devils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the devils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and said vnto them, Every kingdome diuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house diuided against an house, shall fall.

18 So if Satan also be diuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out devils, by whome doe your children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtlesse the kingdom of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, the things that he possideth are in peace.

26 Then he goeth her, and taketh to him seven other spirits worse then himselfe: and they enter in and dwell there: so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 And it came to passe, as hee layd these things, a certaine woman of the company lifted up her voyce, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he sayd, Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

29 And when the people were gathered thicke together, hee began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, but the signe of Ionas the Prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Nininites, so shall also the sonne of man be to this generation.

16 the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharisees, which is hyppocrisie.

2 For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reuealed: neither hid, that shal not be knowne.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shal be heard in the light: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shal be preached on the houles.

4 And I say vnto you, my friends, Bee not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom ye shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not foue sparrows bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haire of your head are numbred: feare not therefore: yee are more of value then many sparrows.

8 Also I say vnto you, whosoener shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoener shall speake a worde against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but vnto him, that shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and princes, take no thought how, or what thing ye shal answer or what ye shal speake.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company sayd vnto him, Walter, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee layd vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a diuider of you?

15 Therefore he said vnto them, Take heede and beware of countenancesse: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And hee put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The ground of a certaine rich man brought forth fruites plenteously.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where I may lay by my fruites?

18 And he said, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruites, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goods layd by for many yeeres, lue at ease, eat, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But God said vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

24 Consider the rauen: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then fowles?

25 And which of you by taking thought, can add to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?

27 Consider the lilies how they growe: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royallie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will hee clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore alke not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue need of these things.

31 But rather seeke ye after the kings dome of God, and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bags, which waue not old, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 Let your loynes be girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And ye your selves like vnto men that waite for their master, when he will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if hee come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 Now vnderstand this, that if the godman of the house had knowne at what houre the thiefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayd vnto him, Master, tellst thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler over his household, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when hee commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Make a trust I say vnto you, that hee will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doth deferre his coming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydens, and to eat & drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbelievers.

47 And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But hee that knew it not, and yet did commit things unworthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoever much is giuen, of him shall be much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 I am come to put fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it be ready kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must bee baptized with baptisme, and how am I grieved, till it be ended?

51 Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shall be sune in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 Then said he to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the West, straightway ye say, A showre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when ye see the South winde blow, ye say, that it will be hore: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discern ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge you not of your selues what is right?

58 While thou goest with thine adulterarie to the altar, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee deliuered from him, lest hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the iaylor, and the iaylor cast thee into prison.

1 The crucifix of Pilate. 2 Wee ought not to condemn all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 Hee healeth the crooked woman, 15 answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes hee declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 also that the number of them which shall bee saved, is small. 33 Finally, hee sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

a Hee murdered them as they were sacrificings: & by their blood was mingled with the blood of the beasts which were sacrificet. b For the Iewes tooke occasion hereby to condemn them, as most wicked men. c He warneth them, rather to consider their own estate, then to reprove other mens. d Which tower stood by the river Siloe or fish-pool in Jerusalem. e Or, debtors. f By this similitude is declared the great patience that God vseth towards sinners, in looking for their amendment: but this delay auileth them nothing, when they still remaine in their corruption. g Wee see our state, if we bring not forth fruit. h For both it is vnfruitfull in itselfe and doth hurt to the ground where it groweth. i Whom Satan had stricken with a disease, as the spirit of couetousnesse is that spirit, that maketh a man covetous. j As they are, whose sinewes are shrunke. k Or, set at libertie out of Satans bands.

There were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eightene, vpon whom the towne in Siloam fell, and slew them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 Hee spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and hee came and loughte fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruit of this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And hee answered, and said vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, till I digge round about it, and doing it.

9 And if it beare fruit, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitie eightene yeeres, and was bowed together, and could not lift up her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layd his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayd vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and bee healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doeth not each one of you on the Sabbath day loose his ox or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound, for eightene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day.

17 And when hee said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, What is the kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede which a man tooke and sowed in his garden and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the fowles of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 And againe hee sayd, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.

22 And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying toward Ierusalem.

23 Then sayd one vnto him, Lord, are there few that shall be saved? And he said vnto them,

24 Strive to enter in at the straite gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and ye begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shall answer and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are.

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We haue eaten and drunken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: Depart from mee, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, and all the Idoctors in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shall come many from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 And behold, there are last, which shall be first: and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharisees, and said vnto him, Depart and goe hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Goe yee and tell that foor, Behold, I cast out devils, and will heale sill 9 to day, and to morrow, and the third day: I shall be perfected.

33 Howebeit I must walke to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet should perish out of Ierusalem.

1 Iesus eateth with a Pharise, 4 healeth the dropsie upon the Sabbath, 8 teacheth to be lowly, and to bid the poore to our table, 15 He telleth of the great Supper, 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them, 34 The salt of the earth.

¶ Or take hisrefession.

As it came to passe, that when hee was entered into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees on the Sabbath day to eat bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake unto the expounders of the Law, and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee took him, and healed him, and let him goe.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an asse or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway put him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the guests, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe rooms, and laid unto them,

8 When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, let not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, lest a more honorable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come and say to thee, Since this man cometh, and thou hast begun with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 But when thou art bidden, go, and sit down in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, sit up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 ¶ For whosoever exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, & he that humbleth himselfe shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then he sayd he also to him that had bidden him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor the rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind.

14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sate at table heard these things, he sayd unto him, Blessed is he that eateth bread in the Kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: the first said unto him, I have bought a farme, and I must needs goe out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another sayd, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to plow them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his servant, Goe out quickly into the places and streets of the City, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

23 Then the Master said to the servant, See, out into the high wayes and hedges, and compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Nowe there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayd unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father and mother, and wife & children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my discipule.

27 And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and cometh after me, cannot be my discipule.

28 For which of you mynding to build a tower, sitteth not downe before, and counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to performe it,

Then resorted unto him all the Publicans and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

4 What man of you having an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doth not leave ninety and nine in the wilderness, and goe after that which is lost, untill hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he saith it on his shoulders with joy.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends & neighbors, saying unto them, Reioyce with me: for I have found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall bein heaven for one sinner that converteth, more then for ninety and nine iust men, which need none amendment of life.

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and neighbors, saying, Reioyce with me: for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that converteth.

11 He sayd moreover: A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, give mee the portion of the goods that shall come me. So he divided unto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his journey into a farre Countrey, and there he wasted his goods with riotous living.

14 Now when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessity.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and he sent him to his farme to feede swine.

16 And he would faine have filled his belly with the huskes that the swine ate: but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, & said, How many hired seruantes at my fathers house bread enough and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and go to my father, and say unto him, Father, I haue sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make mee as one of thy hired seruantes.

20 So he arose, & came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayd unto him, Father, I haue sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants,

Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet,

23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eat and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Nowe the elder brother was in the field, and when he came and drew neere to the house, he heard melody and dancing,

26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then hee was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered, and sayd to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I doeth thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandment, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kisse, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatted calfe.

31 And hee said unto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue is thine. It was mee that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but he is found.

12 And if ye haue not bene faithfull in another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is yours?

13 No seruant can serue two Masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or else hee shall leaue to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also which were concious, and they mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they which ¹inuide your felues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The Law and the Prophets endured vntill Iohn: and since that time the Kingdom of God is preached, and euery man ²preacheth inoitt.

17 Now it is more easie that heauen and earth shall passe away, then that one tittle of the Law should fall.

18 Whosoener putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoener marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple, and fine linen, and fared well and delicately euery day.

20 Also there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layde at his gate full of sores,

21 And desired to bee refreshed with the crummes that fell from the rich mans table: yea and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into Abrahams bofome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in tormẽts, he lieth by his eyes, and saw Abraham afarre off, and Lazarus in his bofome.

24 Then he cryed and said, Father Abraham haue mercie on mee, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormẽted in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuest thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore is he comforted, and thou art tormẽted.

26 Besides all this, betwene you and vs there is a great gulfe set, so that they which would go from hence to you, cannot, neither can they come from thence to vs.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Christ teacheth his Disciples to auoid occasions of offence. 3 One to forgive another. 5 We ought to pray for the increase of faith. 6 He magnifieth the vertue of faith. 10 and sheweth the vnauailitie of man. 11 healeth tenne lepers. 12 speaketh of the latter dayes, and of the end of the world.

Then said hee to the disciples, * It cannot be auoided, but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millstone were hanged about his necke, and that he were cast into the sea, then that hee should offend one of these litle ones.

3 Take heed to your felues: if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him: and if he repente, forgive him.

4 And though he sinne against thee threuen times in a day, and seuen times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, I repenteth me, thou shalt forgive him.

5 ¶ And the Apostles said vnto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, * If ye had faith, as much as is a graine of mustar seed, and should say vnto this milberry tree, * Plucke thee selfe vp by the rootes, and plant thy selfe in the Sea, it should euen obey you.

o Christ describeth spirituall things, by such manner of speech, as is most proper to our vnderstanding: for our soules haue neither fingers nor eyes, neither are they thinste, or speake: but the Lord as it were in a table, painteth forth the state of the life to come, as our capacite is able to comprehend it.

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant, because hee did that which was commaunded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye haue done all those things which are commaunded you, say, ¶ We are but vnprofitable seruants: we haue done that which was our duty to doe.

11 ¶ And so it was when he went to Ierusalem, that he passed thorow the mids of Samaria and Galile.

12 And as hee entered into a certaine towne, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood at a farre off.

13 And they lift vp their voices and said, Iesus, Master, haue mercie on vs.

14 And when he saw them, hee said vnto them, ¶ Goe, shew your selues vnto the Priests. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 Then one of them, when hee saw that hee was healed, turned backe, and with a loude voyce praised God,

16 And fell downe on his face at his feet, and gaue him thanks: and hee was a Samaritan.

17 And Iesus answered, & said, are not there ten cleansed: but where are the nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praise, save this stranger.

19 And he sayd vnto him, Arise, Goe thy way, the faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when hee was demanded of the Pharisees, when the Kingdome of God should come, hee answered them, and sayd, The Kingdome of God cometh not with observation.

21 Neither shall men say, Loe here, or loe there: for behold, the Kingdome of God is within you.

22 And hee sayd vnto the Disciples, The dayes will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 ¶ Then they shall say to you, Beholde here, or behold there: but go not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightning that lighteneth out of the one part under heauē, shineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, so shall the Sonne of man be in his day.

25 But first must hee suffer many things, and be reprobated of this generation.

26 ¶ And as it was in the dayes of Noe, so shall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wiues, and gaue in marriage vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 ¶ Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot: they ate, they dranke, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built,

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these examples shall it be in the day when the Sonne of man shall be reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the house and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out, and hee that is in the field likewise let him not turne backe to that he lefte behinde.

2 By the example of the widow, & the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children, he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saved, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to him 31 and of the crosse. 35 A blind man receiveth sight.

A ¶ He spake also a parable vnto them, to this ende, that they ought alwayes to pray and not to waite faint.

2 Saying, There was a iudge in a certaine city, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

3 And there was a widow in that cite, which came vnto him, saying, ¶ Doe me iustice against mine adulterie.

4 And he would not for a time: but afterward hee sayde with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man,

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, least at the last she come and make me weary.

6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vniuersall iudge saith.

7 Now shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day & night vnto him, yea, though he be slow long for them?

8 I tell you hee will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man cometh, shall hee find faith on the earth?

9 ¶ He spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselves that they were iust, and despised other.

10 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharise, and the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharise stood and prayed thus with himselfe, O God, I thanke thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vnjust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

euery man that exalteth himselfe shall bee

15 They brought vnto him also babes, that hee should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, Whosoever receiveth not the kingdom of God as a babe, he shall not enter therein.

18 Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherit eternal life?

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why cal-lest thou me good? none is good saue one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the commandements,
Then shalt not commit adultery: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse: Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Then when Iesus heard that, hee sayd vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow mee.

23 But when he heard those things, hee was very heauie: for he was marvellous rich.

24 And when Iesus saw him sorrowfull, hee said, With what difficulty shall they that haue riches enter into the kingdom of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 Then sayd they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Loe, wee haue left all, and haue followed thee.

29 And he said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdom of Gods sake,

30 Which shall not receiue much more in this world, and in the world to come life euermlasting.

31 Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelve, and sayd vnto them, Behold, wee goe vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets.

32 For hee shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mockt, and shall be spiritually intreated, and shall be spitte on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they wil put him to death: but the third day
he shall rise againe.

34 But they understood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, neither perceiued they the things, which were spoken.

35 And it came to passe, that as hee was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sat by the way side begging.

36 And when hee heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace, but hee cried much more, Sonne of Dauid haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be brought vnto him. And when he was come neere, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath laued thee.

43 Then immediately hee receiued his sight, and followed him, praising God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue praise to God.

3 And hee sought to see Iesus, who hee vp into a wild figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp and saw him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and re-ceiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue ta-

11 And whiles they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because hee was nere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of God should shortly appeare.

12 He sayd therefore, * A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his tenne seruants, and deliuered them tenne pieces of mony, and said vnto them, * Occupy till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe when hee was come againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that hee commaunded the seruants to bee called to him, to whome he gaue his mony, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well good seruant: because thou hast bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased five pieces.

19 And to the same hee sayd, Be thou also ruler ouer five cities.

20 So the other came, and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a strait man, thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and recealest that thou dost not knowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne mouth wilt I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a strait man, taking vp that I laid not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest thou not my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he said vnto them that stood by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, hee hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreover those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, hee went forth before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come nere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, wherein assoone as yee are come, yee shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man hath rode: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 ¶ And if any man aske you, why yee looke him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 So they that were sent went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said vnto them, Why looke ye the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath neede of him.

35 ¶ So they brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to crye, and to praye God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene,

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharisees of the company said vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 But he answered and said vnto them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would crie.

41 ¶ And when he was come nere, hee beheld the citie, and wept for it.

42 Saying, ¶ O if thou haddest euen known at the least in this thy daye those things, which belong vnto thy peace: but now are they hid from thine eyes.

what authoritie thou doest these things, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

2 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

3 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

4 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

5 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

6 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

7 Then Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

8 ¶ Then began hee to speake to the people this parable, ¶ A certaine man planned a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey, for a great season.

9 And at a time he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruite of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away empty.

10 Again he sent yet another seruant, and they did beate him, and soule increased him, ardent him away empty.

11 Moreover, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

12 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reverence, when they see him.

13 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned within themselves, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

14 So they call him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

15 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others: but when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

16 And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then that is written, ¶ The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

17 Whosoever shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken: and on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

18 Then the hie Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

19 ¶ And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which shouldaine themselves iust men, to take him in his talke, and to reuerse him vnto the power and authoritie of the Gouernour.

20 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither dost thou accept mans person, but teachest the way of God truly,

21 Is it lawful for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

22 But he perceived their craftinesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

23 Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Celsars.

24 Then he said vnto them, ¶ Giue then vnto Celsar the things which are Celsars, and to God those which are Gods.

25 And they could not repproue his saying before the people: but they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

26 ¶ Then came to him certaine of the Sadduces, (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

27 Saying, Master, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

28 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

29 And the second tooke the wife, and hee died childlesse.

30 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

31 And last of all, the woman died also.

32 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall shee be: for seuen had her to wife.

33 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marrie wiues, and are married.

34 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wiues, neither are married.

35 For they can die no more, forasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

36 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen ¶ Moses shewed it besides the bush, when he said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

37 For hee is not the God of the dead, but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

38 Then certain of the Pharisees answered, and said, Master, thou hast well said.

39 And after that, durst they not aske him any thing at all.

40 ¶ Then said he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

41 And Dauid himselfe saith in the book of the Psalmes, ¶ The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 42 Till I shall make thine enemies thy footstool.

43 Seeing Dauid called him Lord, how is he then his sonne?

44 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

45 ¶ Beware of the Scribes, which desire to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chiefe courtes at feasts.

his Priests house. 60 Peter denieth him thrise, and yet repenteth. 67 Christ is brought before the Council, where he maketh ample confession.

NOW the Feast of unleavened bread, where nere, which is called the Pascheour.

2 And the high Priests and Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas, who was called Itariot, and was of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way and communed with the high Priests and captains, how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to give him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunity to betray him unto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ Then came the day of unleavened bread when the Pascheour must be sacrificed.

8 And hee sent Peter and John, saying, Goe and prepare vs the Pascheour, that wee may eat it.

9 And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then hee said unto them, Behold, when yee be entered into the cite, there shall a man meete you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that hee entereth in,

11 And say to the good man of the house, The master sayth unto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Pascheour with my disciples?

12 Then hee shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed, there make it ready.

13 So they went and found as hee had said unto them, and made ready the Pascheour.

14 ¶ And when the houre was come, hee sat downe, and the twelve Apostles with him.

15 Then he said unto them, I have earnestly desired to eat this Pascheour with you before I suffer.

16 For I say unto you, I henceforth I will not eat of it any more, untill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.

17 And hee tooke the cup, & gave thanks, and sayd, Take this, and divide it among you.

18 For I say unto you, I will not drinke of the fruit of the vine, untill the kingdome of God be come.

19 ¶ And hee tooke bread, and when hee had given thanks, he brake it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.

20 I likewise also after Supper hee tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood which is shed for you.

21 ¶ Per beholds, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the table.

22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth, as it is appointed: but woe be to that man, by whom he is betrayed.

23 Then they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it should be, that should doe that.

24 ¶ And there arose also a strife among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.

25 But hee said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne over them, and they that beare rule over them, are called Grauous lords.

26 But ye shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefest as he that serueth.

27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as hee that serueth.

28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.

29 Therefore I appoynt unto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appoynted to mee,

30 That ye may eate and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seats, and iudge the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired you, to know you as wheate.

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuered, strengthen thy brethren.

33 ¶ And hee said unto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison, and to death.

34 But hee sayd, I tell thee, Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.

35 ¶ And hee said unto them, When I sent you without bag, and scrip, and shoes, lacked yee any thing? And they sayd, No thing.

36 Then hee said to them, But now hee that hath a bag, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and hee that hath none, let him sell his coat, and buy a two.

37 For I say unto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, ¶ Even with the wicked was hee numbered: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me, haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swordes. And hee sayd unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Olives: and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he came to the place, hee sayd to them, Pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

41 And hee gate himselfe from them about a stones cast, and kneeled downe and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from mee: neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel unto him, from heaven, comforting him.

44 But being in an agony, hee prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was like dropes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.

57 But he denied him, saying, Monian, I know him not.

58 And after a litle while, another man saw him, and sayd, Thou art also of them. But Peter sayd, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Verely, even this man was with him: for hee is also a Galilean.

60 And Peter sayd, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while he yet spake, the cocke crew.

vs Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder, was cast in prison.

20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath hee done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chaunge him, and let him loose.

23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the chief Priests preuailed.

24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, coming out of the field, and on him they layd the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, ¶ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For behold, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Coner vs.

31 ¶ For if they doe these things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie? 32 ¶ And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.

33 And when they were come to the place which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

34 Then said Iesus, Father, forgive them: for they knowe not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if hee be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

36 The fouldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription also was written ouer him in Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, I feare thee not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation:

41 We are in deepe righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And hee said vnto Iesus, Lord remember mee when thou comest into thy kingdome.

43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

44 ¶ And it was about the sixth houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, mid-day, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vail of the Temple rent through the middes.

46 And Iesus cried with a loude voyce, and sayd, Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue up the ghost.

47 ¶ Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surety this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood afare off, and the women that followed him from Galilee, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counsellor, a good man and a iust,

51 He did not consent to the counsel and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a city of the Iewes: who also himselfe was baptized for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus,

53 And tooke it down, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe between out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layde.

54 And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath began.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared oyls and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandment.

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the elcuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Now it was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and came vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and saw the linnen clothes layd by themselves, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about ^{the} threescore furlongs, called Emmaus.

14 And they ^d talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes ^{were} holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleophas) answered, and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, & hast not knowne the things which are come to passe therein, in these dayes?

19 And hee sayde vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mighty in deede and in word before God, and all the people.

20 And how the high Priests and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we ^{were} trusted that it had benee he that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Psa, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also scene a vision of Angels, which sayd, that he was alieue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the Sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, ¶ Moses, and flow of heart to beleene all that the Prophets haue spoken,

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And hee began at Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went co, but he ^{made} as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is toward night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe as he sat at table with them, he tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayd betwene themselves, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when hee opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they role vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the elcuen gathered together, and them that were with them,

34 Which sayd, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was knowne of them in ^{the} breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, and said vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had scene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are yee troubled, and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine hands and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, and ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his hands and feete.

41 And while they yet beleued not for joy, and wondered, he said vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honycombe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the wordes, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus it is written, & thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day,

47 And that repentance and remission of finnes should be preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the ^{promise} of my Father vpon you: but tary ye in the cite of Ierusalem, vntill ye be indued with power from on high.

The holy Gospel of Iesus Christ, according to Iohn.

1. 14. 17. The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witness, to beare witness of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.

8 Hee was not that light, but was sent to beare witness of the light.

9 That was true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 Hee was in the world, and the world was made by him: and the world knewe him not.

11 He came into his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them
he gaue power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name,

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs, (and we sawe the glory therof, as the glory of the only begotten Son of the Father.) Full of grace and truerh.

15 Iohn bare witness of him, and cryed, saying, This was hee of whom I said, hee that cometh after mee, is preferred before me: for he was before me.

16 And of his fullnesse haue all wee recei-ued, and grace for grace.

17 For the Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and truerh came by Iesus Christ.

18 No man hath scene God at any time:
the only begotten Son, which is in the bo-some of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed and denied not, and sayde plainely, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? and he answered, No.

22 Then sayde they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? whatapest thou of thy selfe?

23 He said, I am the voyce of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him,
Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to vnlace.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan where Iohn did baptize.

29 The next day Iohn seeth Iesus com-ming vnto him, & saith, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but because he should be declared to Israel, therefore am
I come, baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saue the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, hee said vnto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come down, and tarry still on him, that is he which baptiseth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saue, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.

35 The next day, Iohn stood againe,
and two of his disciples:

36 And he beheld Iesus walking by, and said behold the Lambe of God.

37 And the two Disciples heard him
speake and followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned about, and saue them follow, and sayde vnto them, What seek ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say by interpretation, Master),

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knew not whence it was, but the ser-

15 Then he made a scourge of sinall cords, and drewe them all out of the Temple with the sheepe and oxen, & powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the Tables,

16 And said vnto them that sold dones,
Take these things hence: make not my fathers house a house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered and sayd vnto them, Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Forty and six yeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Jew askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jewes meddle not with the Samaritans.

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he woulde haue giuen thee water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst againe.

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more thirstie: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water, springing vp into euerslating life.

15 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, So, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, & said, I haue no husband. Iesus sayd to her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fise husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saidest thou truely.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yet say that in Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor at Ierusalem worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which ye know not: we worship that which we know: for saluations of the Jewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truerh: for the Father requirith euen such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truerh.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am hee that speake vnto thee.

27 And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What talkest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpott, and went her way into the city, and sayd to the men,

29 Come, see a man which hath told me all things that euer I did: Is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Hasten, eat.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meat to eat, that ye know not of.

33 Then said the disciples between themselves, Hath any man brought him meat?

34 Iesus said vnto them, My meat is, that I may do the wil of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth haruest? Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto haruest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages, and gathereth fruit vnto life eternall, that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, might reioyce together.

37 For herein is the saying true, that one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of the city beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, We hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they belought him that hee would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many more beleeued because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for wee haue heard him our selues, and know that this is indeed the Christ the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, which had scene all the things that hee did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into Cana a towne of Galilee, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would go down, and heale his sonne: for he was euen ready to die.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeue.

49 The ruler said vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus said vnto him, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleeued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

Jer. 17. 22.

After that, there was a feast of the Iewes, & Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.
2 And there is at Ierusalem by the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Hebrew Bethesda, hauing fye porches:
3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the moving of the water.
4 For an Angel went down at a certaine season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.
5 And a certaine man was there, which had been diseased eight and thirty yeres.
6 When Iesus saw him, and knew that he now long time had ben diseased, he said unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?
7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the pool: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.
8 Iesus saide vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bed, and walke.
9 And immediately the man was made whole, andooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.
10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: it is not lawfull for thee to carie thy bed.
11 He answered them, He that made mee whole, he said vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.
12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?
13 And hee that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.
14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and said vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.
15 C The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.
16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because d The afflictions that we endure are chastisements for our finnes.

hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.
17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.
18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.
19 Then answered Iesus, and saide vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The sonne can do nothing of himselfe, save that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoever things he doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.
20 For the Father loneth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoever he himselfe doeth, and he will shew him greater workes then these, that pee should maruile.
21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.
22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne,
23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.
24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleueth in him that sent me, hath euermlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.
25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall liue.
26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.
28 Maruile not at this: for the houre shall come, in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.
29 And they shall come forth, that haue done good vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.
30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent mee.
31 If I should beare witness of my selfe, my witness were not true.
32 There is another that beareth witness of mee, and I know that the witness which he beareth of me is true.
33 I sent vnto Iohn, and hee bare witness vnto the truth.
34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that pee might be saved.
35 He was a burning, and a shining candle: and pee would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

e That is, proper and peculiar to him alone.
f It was lawfull for all Israel to call God their Father, Exod. 4. 22, but because Christ did attribute to himselfe that he had power ouer all things, and wrought as his father did, they gathered that Christ did not onely make himselfe the Sonne of God, but also equall with him.

39 Search the Scriptures: for in them ye thinke to haue eternall life, and they are they which teſtifie of me.

40 But ye will not come to mee, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praife of men.

42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and ye receiue me not: if another ſhall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleue, which I receiue honour one of another, and ſeeke not the honour that cometh of God alone?

45 Doe not thinke that I will accuſe you to my Father: there is one that accuſeth you, euen Moſes, in whom ye truſt.

46 For hee had ye beleueed Moſes, ye would haue beleueed mee: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleue not his writings,
how ſhall ye beleue my wordes?

CHAP. VI.

10 Ieſus feedeth ſine thouſand men with ſine loaves and two fiſhes. 15 Hee departeth away, that they ſhould not make him King. 26 He reprooeth the fleſhly heauens of his word. 51 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The fleſh profiteth not.

After theſe things Ieſus went his way
ouer the Sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, becauſe they ſaw his miracles, which hee did on them that were diſeaſed.

3 Then Ieſus went vp into a mountaine, and there he ſate with his diſciples.

4 Nowe the Paſſouer, a feaſt of the Iewes, was neere.

5 Then Ieſus liſt by his eyes, and ſee-ing that a great multitude came vnto him, he ſaid vnto Phiſlip, Whence ſhall wee buy bread, that theſe might eat?

6 (And this he ſaid to proue him: for he himſelfe knew what he would doe.)

7 Phiſlip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not ſufficient for them, that euery one of them make take a little.

8 Then ſaide vnto him one of his diſciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother,

9 There is a little boy here, which hath ſine barley loaves, and two fiſhes: but what are they among ſo many?

10 And Ieſus ſaide, Make the people ſit downe. (Now there was much graſſe in that place.) Then the men ſate downe, in number about ſine thouſand.

11 And Ieſus tooke the bread and gaue thankes, and gaue to the diſciples, and the diſciples to them that were ſet downe: and likewiſe of the fiſhes as much as they would.

12 And when they were ſatiſfied, hee ſaid vnto his diſciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing bee loſt.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baſkets with the broken meate of the ſine barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had ſcene the miracle that Ieſus did, ſaid, This is of a trueneth the Prophet that ſhould come into the world.

15 When Ieſus therefore perceined that they would come, and take him to make him a King, he departed againe into a moun-taine himſelfe alone.

16 When euen was now come, his diſciples went downe vnto the Sea.

17 And entred into a ſhip, and went ouer the Sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Ieſus was not come to them.

18 And the Sea aroſe with a great wind that blew.

19 And when they had rowed about ſine and twenty, or thirtie furlongs, they ſaw Ieſus walking on the Sea, and drawing neere vnto the ſhip: ſo they were afraid.

20 But he ſaid vnto them, It is I: bee not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ſhip: and the ſhip was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 The day following, the people which ſtood on the other ſide of the Sea, ſaw that there was none other ſhip there, ſauethat one, whereinto his diſciples were entred, and that Ieſus went not with his diſciples in the ſhip, but that his diſciples were gone alone.

23 And that there came other ſhips from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people ſaw that Ieſus was not there, neither his diſciples, they alſo tooke ſhipping, and came to Capernaum, ſeeking for Ieſus.

25 And when they had found him on the other ſide of the Sea, they ſaid vnto him, Rabbi, when cameſt thou hither?

26 Ieſus answered them, and ſaid, Vere-ly, verily I ſay vnto you, ye ſeeke me not, becauſe ye ſaw the miracles, but becauſe ye ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which periſheth, but for the meat that endureth vnto euerlaſting life, which the Sonne of man ſhall giue vnto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then ſaid they vnto him, What ſhall we doe, that we might worke the workes of God?

29 Ieſus answered, and ſaid vnto them,
This is the worke of God, that ye beleue
in him whom he hath ſent.

30 They ſaid therefore vnto him, What ſigne ſhoweſt thou then, that we may lee it, and beleue thee? what doeſt thou worke?

x Where Christ

desert, as it is * written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

32 Then Iesus saide vnto them, Clerely, verely I say vnto you, * Moyses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my Father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth down from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they sayd vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus layde vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to mee, shall not hunger, and * hee that belieueth in me, shall * neuer thirst.

36 But I sayd vnto you, that ye also haue seene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to mee,
I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him, should haue euerslasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because hee sayde, I am the bread, which is come downe from heauen.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose Father and Mother we knowe? how then saith hee, I came down from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and sayd vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can * come to mee, except the Father which hath sent me, * draw him, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Propheets, And they shall be all caught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, commeth vnto me.

46 * Now that any man hath seene the Father, saue hee which is of God, hee hath seene the Father.

47 Clerely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleueth in mee, hath euerslasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your Fathers did eat Manna in the wildernesse, and are dead.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the * liuing bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes strove among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Clerely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no * life in you.

54 Whosoener * eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath euerslasting life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeede, and my blood is drinke indeede.

56 Hee that eateth my flesh, and drinketh
my blood, * dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father, hath sent me, so liue I by the Father, and hee that eateth me, euen he shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. He that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therfore of his Disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying:
who can * heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his Disciples murmured at this, layde vnto them, Doerh this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascend vp * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickeneth: the flesh * profiteth nothing: the wordes that I spake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning which they were that beleued not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto mee, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with
him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away.

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Waiter, to whome shall we goe? thou hast
the wordes of * eternall life:

69 And we beleue, and knowe that thou art * the Christ the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you twelue, and one * of you is a deuill?

71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelue.

AFTER these things Iesus walked in Ca-sarea, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

2 Now the Iewes * feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any

6 Then Iesus saide vnto him, My time is not yet come : but your time is alway readie.
7 The world cannot hate you : but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are euill.
8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast, I will not goe vp yet vnto this feast : for my time is not yet fulfilled.
9 These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.
10 But as soon as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.
11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is hee ?
12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some saide, He is a good man : other saide, Nay, but he deceiueth the people.
13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the Iewes.
14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple and taught.
15 And the Iewes marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned ?
16 Iesus answered them, and sayde, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.
18 He that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory : but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no vnrighteousness is in him.
19 Did not Moses geue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law ? Why goe ye about to kill me ?
20 The people answered, and sayde, Thou hast a deuil : who goeth about to kill thee ?
21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke : and pee all maruile.
22 Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the Fathers) and pee on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.
23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken, pee yet angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day ?
24 Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.
25 Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill ?
26 And beholde, hee speaketh || openly, and they say nothing to him : doe the Rulers knowe in dede, that this is the very Christ ?
27 Howbeit wee know this man whence he is : but when the Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.
28 Then cryed Iesus in the Temple

as he taught, saying, Pee both know mee, and know whence I am : yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.
29 But I know him : for I am of him, and he hath sent me.
30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laid handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.
31 Now many of the people beleened in him, and sayd, When the Christ cometh, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done ?
32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.
33 Then saide Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.
34 Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me, and where I am, can ye not come.
35 Then sayde the Iewes among themselves, Whither will hee goe, that wee shall not finde him ? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians ?
36 What saying is this that hee saide, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde mee ? and where I am can ye not come ?
37 Now in the last * great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.
38 Hee that beleueth in me, * as sayth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water of life.
39 (* This spake he of the Spirit which they that beleued in him, should receiue : for the holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)
40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayde, Of a truth this is the Prophet.
41 Other said, This is the Christ : some said, But shall Christ come out of Galile ?
42 * Saith not the Scripture, that the Christ shall come of the seed of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was ?
43 So was there dissension among the people for him.
44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid handes on him.
45 Then came the officers to the high Priests and Pharises, and they sayde vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him ?
46 The officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.
47 Then answered them the Pharises, Art ye also deicide ?
48 Doeth any of the rulers, or of the Pharises beleue in him ?
49 But this people which know not the Law, are curied.
50 Nicodemus sayde vnto them, (* hee that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them.)
51 Doeth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, * and know what hee hath done ?

AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues,

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he tare doune, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman, taken in adultery, and set her in the mids,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moles in the Law commanded vs, that such should bee stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayd to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stooped doune, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe hee stooped doune, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the mids.

10 When Iesus had lift by himselfe againe, & saw no man but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I goe: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

He sheweth that he is not onely man, but God also. e He would not iudge rashly as they did, Deut. 17. 6. and 19. 15. math. 18. 16. 2. cor. 13. 1. hebr. 10. 28.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, & the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then sayd they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither knowe mee, nor my Father. If ye had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the streets, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I go my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then said the Jewes, Will hee kill himselfe, because he sayth, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, We are from beneath: I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore vnto you, that ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleeue, that I am hee, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus said vnto them, When the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift up the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with mee: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Jewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verily my disciples,

32 And shall knowe the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, & were neuer bound to any man: why sayest thou then, We shall bee made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deede.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seen with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seen with your father.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

CHAP. IX.

2 Of him that was borne blinde, 11 The confesson of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blind men Christ giueth sight.

As Iesus passed by, hee saw a man which was blinde from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I will worke the workes of him that sent mee, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blinde with the clay.

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the pool of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before when he was blinde, sayd, Is not this he that late and begged?

9 Some said, This is hee: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe said, I am hee.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, & anointed mine eyes, and sayd vnto me, Goe to the pool of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and received sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is he? He said, I cannot tell.

13 A They brought to the Pharisees him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharisees also asked him how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then sayde some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? And there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that he had bene blinde, and receiued his sight) untill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not: or who hath opened his eyes, we can we not tell: hee is olde enough: aske him: he shall answer for himselfe.

22 These wordes spake his parents, because they durst not speake the trueth for feare they should be excommunicate.

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For the good worke we stone thee not, but for blasphemy, and that thou beeing a man, makest thy selfe God.

34 Iesus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, I said, ye are gods?

CHAP. XI.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priests and Pharisees gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ getteth him out of the way.

As a certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Marie which anointed the Lord with oymment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord, behold, hee whom thou louest, is sicke.)

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that hee was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, hee said to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudaea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and doest thou goe thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day he shall stumble not, because hee seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee shall stumble, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake hee, and after hee sayd vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepe: but I goe to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if hee sleepe, he shall lase.

13 Howbeit Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then Iesus said vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 Then came Iesus and found that he had lien in the graue foure dayes already.

18 Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about fifteene furlongs off.

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha & Mary to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha when shee heard that Iesus was coming, went to meet him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou haddest bin here, my brother had not bin dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall hee liue.

26 And whosoener liueth and beleueeth in me, shall neuer die. Beleuest thou this?

27 Shee said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when shee had so said, he went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickly and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come vnto the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was, and saw him, shee fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou haddest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, hee groined in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, 34 And said, Where haue yee laide him? They said vnto him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Iesus wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how hee loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not hee, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue made also that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laid vpon it.

39 Iesus layd, Take yee away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, he stinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Sayd I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleue, thou shouldst see the glory of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, & sayd, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest me alwayes, but because of the people that stand by, I said it, that they may beleue, that thou hast sent me.

43 As hee had spoken these things, hee cryed with a loude voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus sayde vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Iherusalem, and had seene the things, which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, and tolde them what things Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the high Priests, and the Pharisees a councell, and said, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Cafaphas, which was the high Priest, that same yere, said vnto them, We percelue nothing at all.

50 For yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake hee not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yere, hee prophesied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he should gather together in one the children of God which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Pascheouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Pascheouer to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselves, as they stode in the Temple, What thinke ye that hee cometh not to the feast?

57 Now both the high Priests and the Pharisees had giuen a commandement that if any man knew where hee were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

7 Christ excuseth Maries faith. 13 The affliction of some towards him, and the rage of others against him and Lazarus. 25 The commoditie of the crosse. 27 His prayer. 28 The answer of the Father. 33 His death, and the fruit thereof. 36 Hee exhorteth to faith. 40 The blindness of some, and the infirmities of others.

Then Iesus five dayes before the Pascheouer, came to Bethania, where Lazarus was, which was dead, whom hee had raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that late at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Mary a pound of oynment of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Iesuss feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the savour of the oynment.

4 Then layd one of his disciples, euen Judas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this oynment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee sayd this, not that hee cared for the poore, but because hee was a thiefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then said Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying shee kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes yee haue with you, but me ye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knew that hee was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had raised from the dead.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 Then sayde the people that stood by and heard, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of mee, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the iudgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 * And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his upper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that he powred water into a bason and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with mee.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also the hands, and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is washed, needeth not, saue to wash his feet, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and yet say little: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye, if ye doe them.

18 I I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue chosen: but it is that the scripture might be fulfilled, * hee that careth bread with mee, hath lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue that I am a he.

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth mee, receiueth him that sent me.

21 When Iesus had said these things, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus beside him, whom Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that he should aske who it was of whom hee spake.

25 He then, as he leaned on Iesus breast, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, Hee it is, to whome I shall giue a kisse, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a kisse, and gaue it to Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the kisse, Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Judas had the bagges, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue neede of against the feast: or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Aftoone then as hee had receiued the kisse, hee went immediately out, and it was night.

31 When he was gone out, Iesus said, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, & shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the Iewes, Whether I goe, can ye not come: also to you I now, 34 A new commandment giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, whether I goe, thou canst not follow me now: but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

me, Philip? he that hath seene me, hath seene
my Father, how then sayest thou, Shew vs giue you another Comforter, that he may worlde cannot receiue, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him:

for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I wil not leaue you comfortlesse: but I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

20 At that day shall yee know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my Commandementes, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shew mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas sayd vnto him, (not Hecariot)
Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him,
If any man loue mee, hee will keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with
him.

24 Hee that loueth me not, keepeth not my wordes, and the worde which ye heare, is not a mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you,
being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring al things to your remembrance, which I haue told you.

27 Peace I leaue with you: my peace
I giue vnto you: not as the world giveth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I said vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now haue I spoken vnto you, be-foze it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this worlde cometh, and hath wrought in me.

31 But it is that the worlde may knowe that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs go hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation, and mutuall loue between Christ and his members under the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common afflictions and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost, and the Apostles.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is an
hu. bandman.

2 Every branch that beareth not fruit in me, hee takeh away: and euery one that beareth fruit he purgeth it, that it may bring forth moze fruit.

3 Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the Vine, no more can yee, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without mee can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in mee, hee is cast foorth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in mee, and my wordes abide in you, alke what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that yee beare much fruit, and he made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued mee, so haue
I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shal keepe my Commandementes, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers Commandementes, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my toy might remaine in you, and that your toy might be full.

12 This is my Commandement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, friends.

uer I command you.

ter doth: but I haue called you friends: for 18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If yee were of the world, the world would loue his owne: but because yee are not of the world, but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said vnto you,* The seruant is not greater then his master.* If they haue persecuted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my word, they will also keepe yours.

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not knowne him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloke for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both me and my Father.

2 Hee putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come, 7 and therefore doeth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

These things haue I said vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke that he doeth Gods seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowne the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember that I tolde you them. And these things I sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me,* What doest thou?

6 But because I haue sayde these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sinne, and of righteousness, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleeue not in mee:

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot heare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the Spirit of truth, hee will leade you into all truth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoever he shall heare shall hee speake, and hee will shew you the things that come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for hee shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore layde I, that hee shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see mee: for I go to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves,* What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me, and For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayde therefore,* What is this that hee saith, A little while? wee know not what hee saith.

19 Now Iesus knew that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Doe ye enquire among your selves of that I sayde. A little while, and ye shall not see mee: and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that ye shall weep and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall be turned to ioy.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall be no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall ye aske me nothing.* Verily, verily I say vnto you,* Whatsoever ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue yee asked nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receive the truth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift up his eyes to heauen, and sayd, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 * I thou hast giuen him * power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to all * them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they know thee to bee the only very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus * Christ.

4 I haue * glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: * thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue knownen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world: but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name, * thole that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the * childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things haue I in the world, * thole that they might haue my toy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euil.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 * Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified thyrow the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me through thy word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in me, and I in thee: euen that they may bee alio one in vs, that the * world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I * haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, * that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be * with mee euen where I am, * that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knownen thee, but I haue knownen thee, and these haue knownen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, * that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me, may be in them, and I in * them.

3 *Judas then after hee had receiued a band of men & Officers of the hie Priest, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lan-ternes and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Now Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soone then as he had said vnto them
I am he, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they said Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I said vnto you, that I am he, therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou gavest me haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priestes seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the capitaine, and the Officers of the Jewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And led him away to *d Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest: the same yere)

14 * And Caiaphas was hee that gaue counsel to the Jewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 * Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another discipule, and that discipule was knowne of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other discipule, which was knowne vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maide that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he sayd, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coales: for it was cold, and they warmed themselves.
and Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ (The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.)

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world: I neuer taught in the Synagogue & in the Temple, whither the Jewes resort continually, and in secret haue I sayd nothing.

21 And he asked thou me? aske them which heard mee, what I sayd vnto them: behold, they know what I sayd.

22 ¶ When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so.

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, heare witness of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.

25 * And Simon Peter stood endwarmed himselfe, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? he denied it, and sayd, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, sayd, Did not I see thee in the garden with
him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Cai-phas into the common hall. Now it was morning, and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they should bee defiled, but that they might eate the Passouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euill doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Jewes said vnto him, It is not lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus * might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what dearth he should die.

33 * So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Jewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine owne nation and the hie Priests haue de-liuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world, if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Jewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the worlde,
that I should beare witness vnto the truth:
euery one that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is truth?
and when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Jewes, and said vnto them, I find in him no cause at all.

39 * But you haue a custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passouer: will ye then that I loose vnto you the king of the Jewes?

40 * Then cryed they all againe, saying,
Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murderer.

Then Pilate tooke Iesus and scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a Crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And sayd, Hailie king of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and sayd vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may knowe, that I find no fault in him at all,

5 Then came Iesus forth, wearing a Crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them, Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priestes and officers saw him they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God.

8 When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid.

9 And went againe into the Common hall and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from above: therefore hee that deliuered mee vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Celsars friend: for whosoever maketh himselfe a Kings speaker against Celsar.

13 When Pilate heard that worde, he brought Iesus forth, and late downe in the Iudgement seate in a place called the Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passover, and about the first houre: and hee sayd vnto the Iewes, Behold your King.

15 But they cryed, away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayd vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priestes answered, We haue no King but Celsar.

16 Then deliuered hee him vnto them to be crucified. And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens sculles, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the midst.

19 And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IHSVS OF NAZARET THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was naxie to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke and Latine:

21 Then said the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes, 22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euey souldier a part, and his coate, and the coate was without seam, woven from the toppe thowout.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lots for it: whose it shall be. This was that Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and on my coate did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things indede.

25 Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister Marie the wife of Clopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother and the Disciple standing by, whom hee loued, he sayd vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the Disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre the Disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessel full of vineger, and they filled a sponge with vineger, and put it about an hyssope staake, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head and gaue up the ghost.

31 The Iewes then, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was a high day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water,

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that hee saith true, that ye might beleue it.

36 For these things were done, that the Scripture should be fulfilled, that a bone of him shall be broken.

38 And after these things Ioseph of Arimathea, (who was a discipule of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) belought Pilate that hee might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. Hee came then and tooke Iesus body.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrre and aloes mingled together about an hundred pound.

40 Then tooke they the body of Iesus, and wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odours, as the manner of the Iewes is to burye.

41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet layd.

CHAP. XX.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre. 3 So doe Peter and Iohn. 12 The two Angels appeare.

17 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene. 19 And to all his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas. 28 His confession.

NOW * the first day of the weeke came Mary Magdalene, early when it was yet darke, unto the sepulchre, and saw the stone taken away from the tombe.

2 Then she ranne, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other Disciple whom Iesus loued, and layd vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee knowe not where they haue layde him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other Disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they came both together, but the other Disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And hee stouped downe, and saw the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the Sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lie.

7 And the kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the other discipule, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and beleued.

9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.

10 And the Disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed herselfe into the sepulchre.

12 And saw two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Iesus had lain.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When shee had thus said, shee turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? Shee supposing that hee had bene the gardiner, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus saith vnto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and said vnto him, Rabbouni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus sayeth vnto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and told the Disciples, that shee had seene the Lord, and that hee had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the doores were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace be vnto you.

20 And when hee had so said, hee shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then saide Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father hath sent mee, so send I you.

22 And when hee had said that, hee breathed on them, and said vnto them, Receive the holy Ghost.

23 ¶ Whosoeners sinnes yee remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoeners sinnes yee retaine, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, We haue seene the Lord: but hee said vnto them, Except I see in his hands the print of the napes, and put my finger into the print of the napes, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleue it.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thine hands, and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse, but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue beleued.

30 ¶ And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke.

31 But these things are written, that yee might beleue that Iesus is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleueing yee might haue life through his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his Disciples againe. Hee commandeth Peter earnestly to feed his sheepe. 18 He ferewarneth him of his death. 23 Of Christes manifold miracles.

¶ Or, lake of Genesareth.

After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said unto them, I goe a fishing. They said unto him, We also will goe with thee. They went their way and entered into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shore: neuertheless the Disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said unto them, ||Sirs, haue ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said unto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. So they cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued unto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, hee girded his coat to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by ship (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they laid hote coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said unto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred threescore and three: and albeit they were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said unto them, Come, and dine. And none of the Disciples durst alke him, who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Ie-sus shewed himselfe unto his Disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee more than these? He said unto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee sayde unto him, Feede my lambs.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou mee? He sayd unto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said unto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said unto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me? and sayd unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayde unto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say unto thee, When thou wast yong, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee old, thou shalt stretch forth thine handes, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and saw the Disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also leaned on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, hee sayd to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus said unto him, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that Disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 ¶ Nowe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

c The Minister cannot well teach his Congregation, except he loue Christ effectually, which loue is not in them that feed not the flocke.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ cauesh him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

¶ The Actes of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

Chris after his Ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby that he was not onely full of his Church, but wouldest bee the head and maintainer thereof for ever. Wherein also his mighty power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the sound of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainly perceiue the praife and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppress and ouerthrow the Gospel: he raiseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kind of cruelty. Againe, we shall here behold the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their Captaine Christ, leaving leaving as it were by this historie a perpetual memorie to the Church that the Crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction is but the beginning of another: Yet neuertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings, and tentations of his to a good issue, giuing them as it were in sorrow, ioy: in bonds, freedom: in prison deliverance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitye. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs stocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this onely history in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The words of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles be occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

Have made the former treatise. In Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to doe and teach,

2 Until the day that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen^b commandments vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe aline after that he had suffered, by many insallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourety dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdom of God.

4 And when hee had gathered them together, he commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, which, sayd hee, ye haue heard of me.

5 For Iohn in deede baptizsed with water, but ye shall be baptizsed with the holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he saide vnto them, it is not for you to know the times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receive power of the holy Ghost, when hee shal come on you: and ye shal be witnesses vnto mee both in Ierusalem and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as hee went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell,

11 Which also sayd, Ye men of Galile, why stand ye gazing into heauen? This

Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as ye haue seene him go into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is nare to Ierusalem, containing a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an upper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Phillip, and Thomas, Bartolomew and Matther, Iames the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayde, (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundred and twentie.)

16 Ye men and brethren, this Scripture must needs haue beene fulfilled, which the holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was guide to them that toke Iesus.

17 For hee was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore hath purchased a field with the reward of iniquitie: and when he had throwen downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is known vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, inasmuch that that field is called in their owne language, Accedana, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, Let his habitation be voyde, and let no man dwell therein: also let another take his charge.

21 Therefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was conversant among vs.

22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them bee made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Iosiph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iesus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen, that hee that should take in hand that excellent office of an Apostle, might be chosen by the authoritie of God.

o As the true redeemer to gather vs vnto him.

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he sheweth by the visible graces of the holy Spirit, that Christ is come. 41 He baptizeth a great number that were conuer- ted. 42 The godly exercise, charity, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

AND when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from heauen, as of a rushing and mightie wind, and it filled all the house where they sat.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen tongues, like fire, and it sat vpon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, & began to speake with other tongues, as the spirit gaue them // utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Hierusalem Jewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was noised, the multitude came together, and were astonished, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and maruelled, saying among themselves, Beholde, are not all these which speake of Galile?

8 How then heare we eueryman in our owne language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Iudea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Phrygia, and Damphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Lybia, which is before Cyrene, and // strangers of Rome, and Jewes and Proselytes, 11 Creetes, and Arabians: wee heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderful workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.

14 But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift up his voyce, and said vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and ye all that inhabit Hierusalem, bee this knowne vnto you, and hearken vnto my wordes.

15 For these are not drunken, as yee suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day: le with religion,

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the Prophet * Joel,

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saith God, I will poure out of my spirit vpon all flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your * olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will poure out of my spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shew wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 * The Sunne shall bee turned into darknesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall bee * that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall bee liued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these wordes, Iesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also know:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of the wicked, being deliuered by the * determine counsell, and // foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 Whom God hath raised vp, and loosed the * shadowes of death, because it was impossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For David sayth concerning him, * I beh. In the Lord alwayes be fore mee: for hee is at my * right hand, that I should not bee shaken.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreover all my flesh shall rest in // hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to // see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed mee the * wayes of life, and shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke David, * that hee is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore seeing he was a * Prophet, and knew that God had * twome with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loynes he would raise vp Christ concerning the resurrection to set him vpon his throne,

34 For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but he sayeth, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, * Sit at my right hand, 35 Until I * make thine enemies thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a surety, that God hath made him both Lord & Christ, this Iesus, I say, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter and the other Apostles, When and brethren, what shall we doe?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, Amend your liues, and be baptized euery one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of sinnes: & ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is made vnto you, and to your children, and to all that are afarre off, euen as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words he besought, and exhorted them, saying, Saue your selues from this froward generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and prayers.

43 And feare came vpon euery soule: and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles, 44 And all that belonned, were in one place, and had all things common.

CHAP. III.

7 The lame is restored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

Now Peter and John went vp together into the Temple, at the ninth houre of prayer.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe was caried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of the temple that entered into the Temple.

3 When seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receive an almes.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with John, said, Look on vs.

5 And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receive some thing of them.

6 Then said Peter, Silver and gold haue I none, but such as I haue, that giue I thee: In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And hee leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entered with them into the Temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walke, and praising God.

10 And they knew him, that it was hee which sat for the almes at the Beautiful gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and sore astonished at that which was come vnto him.

11 And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people gathered vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter saw it, hee answered vnto the people, Men of Israel, why maruaile ye at this? or why looke ye so stedfastly on vs, as though by our owne power or godlinesse we had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, * the God of our fathers hath glorified his Sonne Iesus, whom ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when hee had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 * But ye denied the Holy one and the Just, and desired a murderer to be giuen you,

15 And killed the Lord of life, whom God hath raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his Name hath made this man sound, whome ye see, and knowe, through faith in * his Name: and the faith which is in him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I know y^e through ignorance ye did it, as did also your governors.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your sinnes may be put away, when the time of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the Name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good success of the Gospel. 32 The increase, unity, and charitie of the Church.

AS they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the capitaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuouly that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layd hands on them, and put them in hold vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Wherebeit many of them which heard the word, belerued, and the number of the men was come to fiftie thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morrow, that their Rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, & Cataphas, and Iohn, & Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high Priests.

7 And when they had let them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter, full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 For as much as we this day are examined of the good worke done to the impotent man, to witt, by what means he is made whole,

10 Be it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, even by him both this man standeth here: before you whole.

11 This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and understood that they were vnlearned men, & without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councill, and conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall wee doe to these men? For liuely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it bee nopsed no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it be right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for al men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboue forty yeres old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let go, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the high Priests and Elders had layd vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast said, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtes against thine holy Son Iesus, whom thou hadst annointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselves together.

28 To doe whatsoeuer thine hand and thy counsell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatenings, and grant vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word,

30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes and wonders may be done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee: and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast coined this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

8 And Peter sayd vnto her, Tell mee, hath yee the land sold so much? And she sayd, Yea, so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue yee agreed together, to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feet, & yelded vp the ghost, and the young men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles, were many signes and wonders shewed among the people: and they were all with one accord in Salomons porch.

13 And of the other s durst no man loyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that believed in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more.

15 Inasmuch that they brought the sicke into the streetes, and laid them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them,

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation,

18 And laid hands on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and sayd,

20 Go your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & found them not in the prison, they returned and told it,

23 Saying, Certainly we found the prison shut and linc as was possible, & the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one, and shewed them, saying, Behold, the men that yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue bene stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the chiefe Priest asked them, g Because of their owne euill consciences, which made them to tremble: for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strange iudgements. h That is, they gaue them great praise.

i Which then were the chiefe among them.

k They were full of blinde zeale, emulation and ielousie, in defence of their superstition.

l That is, of the lively doctrine whereby the way to life is declared.

m So that there was no fraud nor deccie, nor negligence: but a lively search forth the power of God, and his prouidence for his.

a Which signified their sacrifice, distrust, and hypocricie.

b Who moued thine heart to sell thy possession? whereas thou turnest part to another vlc, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.

c His sinne therefore was so much greater, in that he committed it willingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sell his possessions, nor to put his money to the common vse.

e Because God so disposed it.

f And to mocke him, as if hee should not haue known your craftie fetch: which declareth, that when men do any thing of an euill conscience, they do not only pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselves, but also prouoke the wrath of God because they doe proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and Almighty.

s This Theudas was aboute thirty yeeres before him, of whom Iosephus mentioneth lib. 20. de Antiq. cap. 4. that was after the death of Herod the great, when Archelaus his sonne was at Rome, at what time Iudea was full of insurrections: so that it is not sure to give credit to Eusebius in this point. Of him maketh mention Iosephus, lib. 18. where he speaketh of the taxing, Luke 2. 1.
t He groundeth vpon good principles, but hee doubteth of the qualitie of the cause, neither dare affirm whether it be good or bad: wherein appeareth he was but a worldling.

28 Saying, Did not wee straitly commaund you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered and sayd, We ought rather to obey God than men.

30 The God of our fathers hath raised vp Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a Saviour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Now when they heard it, they brast forth anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there by in the Council a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the Law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a litle space.

35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what yee intend to doe touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp Judas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it bee of God, ye cannot destroy it, lest ye be found euill fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commaunded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, & let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Council: reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach and preach Iesus Christ.

8 The graces and miracles of Steuen, whom they accused falsly.

And in those dayes, as the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians toward the Hebrewes, because their widowes were neglected in the daily ministering.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude a Whole assemblies were Iewes and dwelled in Grecia: therefore those spake Greeke and not Hebrew.

b They were not looked vnto in the distribution of the almes, of the Disciples together, and said, It is not meet that we should leaue the word of God to serue the table.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you such men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, which wee may appoint to this busines.

4 And we will giue one selues continually to prayer, and to the ministracion of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of faith and of the holy Ghost, and Prochorus and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a Proselyte of Antiochia.

6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, & the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

8 Now Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom, and the Spirit by the which hee spake.

11 Then they suborned men which said, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses, and God.

12 Thus they moued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Council.

13 And set forth false witnesses, which said, This man ceaselesly not to speake blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances which Moses gaue vs.

Gen. 13. 1.

3 * And said vnto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kinned, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came hee out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran, and after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, nor the breadth of a foote; yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 But God spake thus, that his * seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and increase it vntill ⁴ foure hundred yeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I iudge, saith God; and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 * He gaue him also the conenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate * Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac begate * Jacob, and Jacob the twelue * Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarkes mooued with enuie, sold * Ioseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and * gaue him fauour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when * Jacob heard that there was come in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time Ioseph was knowne of his brethren, and Iosephs kinned was made knowne vnto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Ioseph and cauled his father to be brought, and all his kinned, euen ³ threescore and threene soules.

15 So * Jacob went downe into Egypt, and he * died, and our fathers,

16 And were remoued vnto * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that * Abraham had bought for money of the sonnes of Enos, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nere, which God had twome to Abraham, the people * grew and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another King arose, which knew not Ioseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kinned, and enill intreated our fathers, and made them to call out their young children, that ³ if they should not remaine aline.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdomes of the Egyptians, and was mighty in wordes and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full foure yere old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them fight wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarrell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren should haue vnderstood that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the next day hee shewed himselfe vnto them as they strove, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren, why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in y land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when foure yeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wilderness of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame ² of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew nere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying,

32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, * Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I haue sene, I haue sene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, & am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a Judge: the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He * brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red Sea, and in the wilderness * foure yeres.

37 This is that Moses which sayd vnto the children of Israel, * A * Prophet shall the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euen of your brethren, like vnto me, him shall ye heare.

1 And Saul consented to his death, and At that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad through the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, * carried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made banock of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 Then came Philip into the city * of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto thole things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palfies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the city a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, That hee himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they * gaue heede from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great * power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But as soone as they beleueed Philip, which preached the things that concerned the kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe * beleueed also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 Now when the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the * holy Ghost,

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands, the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Giue me also this power, that 25 So they, when they had testified and and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, & the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doest let me

37 And Philip said vnto him, If thou belonest with a all thine heart, thou mapest.
Then he answered, and said, I beleue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commanded the charret to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And as soon as they were come by out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

12 And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receive his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy Saints at Jerusalem.

14 Moreover, here he hath authority of the high Priests, to bind all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto mee to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entered into his house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bin scales, and suddenly he received sight, and arose, and was baptized,

19 And received meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God,

21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and sayd, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound unto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, * consenting that this was the Christ.

23 And after¹ that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying await was known of Saul: now they² watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to toyne himselfe with the Disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleevued not that he was a Disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken unto him, & how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Jesus.

28 And he was * conversant with³ them at Jerusalem,

29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Ctesarea, and sent him forth to⁴ Caesars.

21 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea and Galilee, & Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, he came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda, 33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palseie.

34 Then said Peter unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and make up thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And * all that dwelt at Lydda, and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Joppa a certaine woman a discipile named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called * Dorcas) shee was full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had washed her, they layd her in an upper chamber.

38 Now so much as Lydda was nere to Joppa, and the Disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come unto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, & shewing the coates and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and knelt downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And hee opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, shee up.

41 Then hee gave her the hand, and lifte her up, and called the * Saints & widowes, and restored her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa, and many beleevued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee carried many dayes in Joppa with one Simon a * canner.

fraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And hee said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come vnto me in remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 He lodged with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: † he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his seruants, and a soldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morrow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the citie, Peter went by vpon the house to pray, about the first houre.

10 Then waied he an hungred, & would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, he fell into a trance.

11 And he saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessel come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet, knit at the four corners, and was let downe to the earth.

12 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce to him, Arise, Peter: kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vnclane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purified, † pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thise: and the vessel was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had scene meant, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am hee whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the capitaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called he the men in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him by, saying, Stand vp: for euert I my selfe am a man.

27 And as hee talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, We know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Jew, to company or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted, or vnclane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I alke therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And sayd, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the Sea side) who when hee cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou halt well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceiue, that God is no acceptor of persons.

35 For in every nation hee that feareth him and worketh righteousnesse, is accepted with him.

36 Ye know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all.

38 To wit, how God anoynted Iesus of Nazareth, with the holy Ghost, & with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the diuill: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which hee did both in the land of the Iewes, and in Ierusalem, whom they slew, hanging him on a tree.

40 Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eate and drinke with him, after he arose from the dead.

42 And hee commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testify, that it is hee that is ordained of God a Iudge of quicke and dead.

Now the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter came up to Jerusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Joppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessel coming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the four corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were three men already come vnto y^e house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreover these three brethren came with me, and we entered into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send me to Joppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Wee shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, *euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how hee saide, * John baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gave them alike gift, as he did vnto vs, when we believed in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 And they which were scattered abroad because of the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cypus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number believed and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come, and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorteth all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people toynd themselves vnto the Lord.

25 And when departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when he had found him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, insomuch, that the Disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Jerusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the spirit that there should be great famine throughout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples every man according to his ability, purposed to send succour vnto y^e brethren which dwelt in Iudaea.

2 And hee killed James the brother of John with the sword.
3 And when he saw that it pleased the Jewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of unleavened bread).
4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.
5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and hee smote Peter on the side, and railed him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he had scene a vision.

10 Nowe when they were past the first and the second ward, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Now I knowe for a trueth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Jewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voice, she opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ran in and tolde how Peter stood before the entry.

15 But they sayde vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet shee affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayd they, It is his Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand to hold their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe heere these things vnto James and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.

18 Now as fast as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he examined the keepers and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Cyprus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herod arrayed himselfe in royall apparell, and sate on the iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, The voice of God, and not of man.

23 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee gaue not glory vnto God, so that hee was eaten of wormes, and gaue by the Ghost.

24 And the word of God grew, and multiplied.

25 So Barnabas and Saul returned from Ierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them John whose surname was Marke.

name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, I ful of all subtilty and all mischitfe, the childe of the devill, and enemye of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to pervert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a miste and a darknesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleued, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphos, they came to Perga, a cite of Pamphylia: then John departed from them, and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia, a cite of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent unto them, saying, Men and brethren, if yee haue any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood by and beckened with the hand, and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the land of Egypt, and with an high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the tyme of fourty yeeres, suffered hee their manners in the wilderness.

19 And he destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, and diuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterward hee gaue unto them Iudges about foure hundred and fiftie yeeres, vnto the tyme of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a King, and God gaue unto them Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty yeeres.

22 And after ye had taken him away, hee raised vp Dauid to be their King, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will do all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God accordyng to his promise rayled by to Israel the Saviour Iesus:

24 When * John had first preached before his coming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when John had fulfilled his course, hee said, whom ye thinke that I am, I am not hee: but behold, there commeth one after me, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to looke.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the words of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God rayled him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was scene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Jerusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you that touching the promise made vnto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that hee raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in y second Psalme, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath sayd thus, * I will giue you the holy things of Dauid which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee sayeth also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit, Dauid after he had serued his tyme by the counsell of God, hee slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowne vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not be iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets,

41 * Behold, ye deuilisers, and wonder, and banish away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleue, if a man would declare it vnto you.

42 And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Jewes, the Gentiles beought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Jewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole cite together, to heare the worde of God.

45 But when the Jewes saw the people, they were full of enuile, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying the m, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, "It was necessary that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthie of euerm-lasting life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commaunded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the worde of the Lord, and as many as were ordeined vnto eternall life, beleued.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published throughout the whole country.

50 But the Jewes stirred certaine deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coastes.

51 But they shoote off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 23 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience. 25 Appoint ministers. 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

A^d it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Jewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jewes and of the Grecians beleued.

2 But the vnbeleeuing Jewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Loude, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the cite were diuided: and some were with the Jewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Jewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospell.

8 ¶ Now there fate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a cripple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to bee healed,

10 Sayde with a loud voyce, † Stand vp right on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the kinnesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Jupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas, and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ranne in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, Men, why doe ye these things? Wee are euery men subiect to the like passions that ye be, and preach vnto you, that ye should turne from these vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuerthelesse, hee left not himselfe without witness, in that he did good and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them.

19 Then there came certaine Jewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, † stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the cite, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that cite, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia.

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleued.

24 Thus they went thorowout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached y word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia.

26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles send their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia. 39 And separate company because of John Marke.

As Cerinthus and others: so writeth Epiphanius against the Cerinthians: of the same of the place whence they came, did much prevail to persuade abroad.
Gal. 5. 1, 2.

Then came downe a certaine man from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying: Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moyses, ye cannot be saved.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas, against them, they ordeined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them should goe yo to Jerusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Idenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the Pharisees, which did beleue, rose vp, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moyses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And when there had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and sayd vnto them, * Ye men and brethren, ye knowe that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out mee, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospell, and beleue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs.

9 And hee put no difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee had purified their hearts.

10 Now therefore, why tempt ye God, to lay a yoke on the disciples neckes, which neither our fathers, nor we were able to beare?

11 But wee beleue, through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saved, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which tolde what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they helde their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 * Simeon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophet, as it is written,

16 * After this, I will returne, and will build againe the Tabernacle of David, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God.

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstine themselves from filthinesse of idoles, and fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moyses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send cholen men of their owne companie to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas, to wit, Judas whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren,

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, send greeting.

24 For as much as wee haue heard, that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbrd your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law: to whome we gaue no such commaundement,

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when we were come together with one accord, to send cholen men vnto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul.

26 Men that haue giuen by their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 These haue therfore sent Judas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things.

29 That is, that ye abstine from things offered to idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall doe well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, & after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas being Prophets, exhorted the brethren with many wordes and strengthened them.

33 And after they had carried there a space, they were let goe in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding Silas thought good to abide there still.

Should doe vnto you, doe not to others. Or, comforted. n Having desired leave of the Church, y brethren prayed God to prosper their iourney. o Who for iust causes, changed his mind. t And only Judas went, k The heathen thought this no vice, but made it a common custome. As touching a strangled thing and blood, they were not vnlawfull of themselves, and therefore were obserued but for a time.

t And whatsoever they would not doe to themselves, that they should not doe it to others.

l Therefore the ceremonies commaunded by God, could not so soone be abolished, till the libertie of the Gospell were better knowne.

25 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord,

26 ¶ But after certaine dayes Paul said vnto Barnabas, Let vs retorne, and visite our bretheren in euery cite, wher wee haue preached the word of the Lord, and see howe they doe.

27 And Barnabas† counsell'd to take with them Iohn called Marke.

28 But Paul thoughte it not meet to take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

29 Then were they so stirred, that they departed alimder one from the other, so that Barnabas tooke Marke, and sailed vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chole Silas and departed, being commended of the bretheren vnto the grace of God.

41 And hee went thorow Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

CHAP. XVI.

¶ When Paul had circumcised Timothy, he tooke him with him. 7 The spirit calleth them from one countrey to another. 14 Lydia is converted. 28 Paul and Silas imprisoned, convert the layler. 37 and are deliuered as Romanes.

¶ Then came hee to Derbe and to Lystra: And behold, a certaine discipule was there, named * Timothyus, a womans sonne, which was a Jewesse and beleueed, but his father was a Grecian,

2 Of whom the bretheren which were at Lystra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he should goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes, which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe ordeined of the Apostles and Elders, which were at Jerusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Nowe when they had gone thorowout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were† forbidden of the holy Ghost, to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Mysia, and soughte to goe into Bithinia: but the Spirit† suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Mysia, and came downe to Troas,

9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs,

10 And after hee had seene the vision, immediately wee prepared to goe into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a streight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to† Neapolis.

12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe cite in the parts of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and wee were in that cite abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the cite, besides a iuier where they were wont to pray: and we sat downe, and spake vnto the women, which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia: a seller of purple, of the cite of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whole heart the Lord opened, that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptised and her household, shee besought vs, saying, If pee haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to prayer, a certaine mayd hauing a spirit of divination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 Shee followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did shee many dayes: but Paul being grieved, turned about, and sayd to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the Gouernors, saying, These men which are Jewes, trouble our cite,

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receive, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 The people also rose by together against them, and the Gouernors rent their clothes, and commanded them to be beaten with rodde.

23 And when they had beaten them sore, they cast them into prison commaunding the Iaylor to keepe them surely.

24 Altho hauing receiued such commandement, cast them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 Nowe at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and when hee saw the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loud voice, saying, Doe the selfe no harme: for wee are all here.

29 Then hee called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saved?

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of Lydia: and when they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 Hee disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOwe as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures.

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleueed, and ioyued in companie with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleueed not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drawe Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are.

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is an other King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleueed, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commendement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie subject to idolatrie.

17 Therefore hee disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market, dayly, with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures, and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What wilt this babler say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars street, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, gaue themselves to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things yee are too superstitious.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Paul labourerth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is despised of the Iewes, 8 yet receiued of many, 9 and comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio resisteth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vow. 21 His faith in the providence of God. 22 and care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

A fter these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew named Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents.)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Jesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleare: from henceforth will I go vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Titus, a worshipper of God, whose house topned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, beleued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this cite.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, & taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, I see Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Law, looke yee to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And hee drave them from the Iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians Sosthenes, the chiefe Ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he took leaue of the brethren, and sailed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes, 20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent.

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this Feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you, if God will. So he sailed from Ephesus.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to Cefarea, he went by to Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, he went down vnto Antiochia.

23 Now when he had taried there a while, he departed, and went thorow the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strenghtning all the disciples.

28 For mightily he confuted publickly the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

6 The holy Ghost is giuen by Pauls hands, 9 The Iewes blaspheme his doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles, 13 The rashnesse and punishment of the Conuersers, and the fruit that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana, 41 Ies God deliuereth him, and appeareth by the Towne Clarke.

And it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed thorow the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, haue ye receiued the holy Ghost since ye beleued? And they sayd vnto him, We haue not so much as heard, whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he sayd vnto them, vnto what were ye then baptized? And they said, vnto Johns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, * John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Horouer, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of thre moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertained to the Kingdome of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed dayly in the school of one * Tryannus.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Jewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul.

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, kerchiefs or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of y vagabond Jewes, exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We admire you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Jew, the Priest, about leuen which did this.

15 And the euill spirit answered and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Jewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which used curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe thorow Macedonia and Achaia, and to goe to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer temples of Diana, brought great gaines vnto the craftsmen:

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like things, and said, Sirs, pee know that by this craft we haue our gods.

26 Horouer, yee see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods, which are made with hands:

Asia, and the world worshippeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cryed out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

29 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, and caught Scaus, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his iourny.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the company drewe forth Alexander, the Jewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, there arose a thout almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephelians.

35 Then the towne Clerke, when he had stayed the people, said, Ye men of Ephelus, what man is it, that knoweth not, how that the cite of the Ephelians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which came downe from Iupiter?

36 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, ye ought to bee appealed, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which haue neither committed sacriledge, neither doe blaspheme your goddess.

38 Wherefore, if Demetrius & the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are Deputies: let them accuse one another.

39 But if yee enquire any thing concerning other matters, it may be determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For wee are euen in leopardie to bee accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause, whereby wee may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, hee let the assembly depart.

CHAP. XX.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia.

7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, and preacheth.

9 At Troas he raysed vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flocke vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his payer wish them, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

Now after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those parts, and had exhorted them with many words he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there thre moneths, because the Jewes laid wait for him, as hee was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Scaus of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus. 5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sayled forth from Philippi, after the dayes of beleauened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fise dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And the first day of the weeke, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continueth the preaching vnto midnight.

8 And there were many lights in an upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certaine yong man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, hee ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the thirde loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went down, and laid himselfe vpon him, and embraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, hee continued a long while till the dawnyng of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the cite of Alos, that we might rectiue Paul there: for so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe afoot.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Alos, and we had rectiued him, we came to Miletum.

15 And wee sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day wee arriued at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephelus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he basted to bee, if he could possible, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecost.

17 Therefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, hee said vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 Seruing the Lord with all modestie, and with many teares, and tentations, which came vnto me by the laying sawait of the Jewes,

3 And when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand and sailed toward Syria, and arrived at Tyus: for there the ship unladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there fewen daies. And they told Paul through the Spirit, that hee should not goe vnto Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wives and children euen out of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when we had embraced one another, weeooke shippe and they returned home.

7 And when wee had ended the course from Tyus, we arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, & came vnto Cesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as wee taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and said, Thus sayth the holy Ghost, So shall the Jewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we had heard these things, both wee & other of the same place beought him, that he would not goe vnto Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, wee ceased, saying, The will of the Lord bee done.

e This was not to make Paul afraid, but to encourage him against the brutes

f Who was the chiefe or superintendent of the Church of Ierusalem.

fied the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleuee, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue after the customs.

22 What is then to bee done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that wee say to thee. Wee haue ^h foure men, which haue made a vow.

24 Them take, and ⁱ purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may ^a haue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, wherof they haue bin informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleuee, wee haue written, and determined ^{*} that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entered into the Temple, ^{*} declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moued all the people, and ^a layde handes on him,

28 Crying, Ven of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreover he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath ⁱ polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ranne together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vp-rore.

32 Who immediately toke souldiers, and ^m Centurions, and ranne ⁿ downe into them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere and tooke him, and commanded him to be bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, he commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieues, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bin led into the castle, he sayd vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who said, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the ^{*} Egyptian who betore these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Jew, and citizen of ^{*} Carus a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the grieues, and beckned with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said.)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Jew, borne in ^{} Carus in Cilicia, but brought up in this citie at the ^{} feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 ^{*} And I persecuted this ^{||} way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

5 As also the chiefe Priest dorh beare me witness, and all the state of the Elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as Iourneyed and was come nere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voice, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreover, they that were with mee, saw shined a light, and were afraid, but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with mee, and came vnto Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Jewes which dwelt there,

13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that * Just one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarriest thou? Arise, and bee baptized, and wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance,

18 And saw him laying vnto me, Wake haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I sayd, Lord, they know that I * pisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleued in thee.

20 And when the blood of thy Martyr Steuen was shed, I also * stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyces, and sayd, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre,

24 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should be scourged and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is * a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this // burgeship. Then Paul said, But I was * so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe Captaine also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Romane, and that hee had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knownen the certaintie wherefore hee was accused of the Jewes, hee loosed him from his bonds, and commaunded the hie Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answer of Paul being smitten, and the overthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encourageth him.

23 And because the Jewes laid waste for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

And Paul beheld earnestly the Councill, and said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God * will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou stirrest to iudge me according to the Law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I * knew not, brethren, that he was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when I saw Paul perceived that the one part were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharisees, he cryed in the Councill, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention betwene the Pharisees and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor Spirit: but the Pharisees confesse * both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharisees part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a Spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe Captaine fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Jewes made an assembly, and bound themselves with an * oath, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then forty, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and sayd, We haue bound our selues with a solemne oath, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Councill, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we, or euery he come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters * sonne heard of

of their laying await, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayd, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe Captaine: for he hath a certayne thing to shew him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chiefe Captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this young man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe Captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he said, The Jewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them more then forty men, which haue bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the young man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had shewed him these things.

23 And he called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsemen thercoze and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night:

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix: I sendeth greeting.

26 As this man was taken of the Jewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garrison, & rescued him, perceiving that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accuse him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 There I perceived that hee was accused of questions of their Law, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee, how that the Jewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commaunded his accusers to speake before thee the things they had against him, farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commaunded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the Gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the Gouernour had read it, hee asked of what Proouince he was: and when he understood that he was of Cilicia,

35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thine

accusers also are come, and commaunded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix greiveth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 and after leaues him in prison.

Now after sixe dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, & with Tertullus a certaine Orator, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence.

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix with all thanks.

4 But that I bee not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curesse a few words.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sect of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we took him, and would haue iudged him according to our Law:

7 But the chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation,

11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vnto worship in Jerusalem.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither making uprore among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call heretic, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselves looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I indevout my selfe to haue

g This letter was written partly in the favour of Paul, that his adversaries might not oppresse him. h The captaine dissembled to commend his owne diligence: for hee did not know that Paul was a Romane, before hee had rescued him, and giuen him to be straitly examined.

21 Let these themselves say, if they haue found any vniust thing in me, while I stood in the Councill,

22 Except it be for this one voyce that I cried standing among them, * Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, hee deferred them, and sayd, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee should haue ease, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine daies came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called forth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ,

26 And as he disputed of Righteousnesse, and Temperance, and of the Iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, So thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rounie: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Jewes, left Paul bound.

CHAP. XXV.

2 The Jewes accuse Paul before Festus, 3 He answereth for himselfe, 11 and appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth.

When Festus was then come into the prouince, after thre daies he went by from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Jewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Ierusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that hee himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said hee, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there bee any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 Now when hee had taried among them no more then tenne daies, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Jewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him, and laid many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not proue.

8 Forasmuch as hee answered that hee had neither offended any thing against the Law of the Jewes, neither against the Emperour, nor against Cesar.

9 Per Festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe vnto Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to bee iudged: to the Jewes I haue done nothing, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeal vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councell, he answered, Wilt thou appeale vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine daies, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many daies, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Jewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the maner of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood by, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aloue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether hee would goe to Ierusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, said he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrow when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chiefe men of the Citie, at Festus com-

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approued by rehearsing his conversation. 25 his modest answer against the iniurie of Festus.

When Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer thee this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Jewes:

3 Chiefely, because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are among the Jewes: wherefore, I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Jewes:

5 Which knew mee heretofore (if they would testifie) that after the most straitt sect of our religion, I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly sending God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to do many contrary things against the name of Iesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints, I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them throughout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being moze madde against them, I persecuted them, euen vnto strange cities.

12 At which time, euen as I went to Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the hie Priests,

13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness, both of the things which thou hast seene, and of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee.

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee.

18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of sinnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heavenly vision.

20 * But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iudaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Jewes caught mee in the * Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Neuertheless I obteyned helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, laying none other things, then those which the Prophets and Psalmes did say should come,

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that hee should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people and to the Gentiles.

24 And as hee thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, I Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad. O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and sobernesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O King Agrippa, beleuest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleuest.

28 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest mee to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bondes.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death,

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certain others prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & sayled hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lydia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sayling into Italie, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Cnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by Candie, neere to Salomone.

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire haues, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sayling was now ioparadous, because also the fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayd vnto them, Syrs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Wherefore heeste the Centurion beleueed rather the gouernour and the maker of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul,

12 And because the haueen was not commodious to winter in, many rooke counsell to depart thence, if by any means they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an haueen of Candie, and lieth toward the South west and by West, and North west and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they iupposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed reuer, and sailed by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And we ranne vnder a little Ile named Claudia, and had much adoe to get the boate, 17 Which they tooke vp and bled all helpe, vndergirding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtis, and they let downe the vessel, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be laued, was taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and sayd, Syrs, yee should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and Ise, God hath giuen vnto thee all that sayle with thee.

25 Wherefore, syrs, be of good courage: for I beleene God, that it shall be so as it hath bene tolde me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Island.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen dreined that some countrey approached vnto them,

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fathoms: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and found fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure anchors out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Nowe as the mariners were about to fler out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancrees out of the fore shippe,

31 Paul said vnto the Centurion, and the souldiers, Except hee abide in the shippe, I cannot be safe,

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boate, and let it fall away,

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue caried, and continued sailing, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegarde: for there shall not a haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eate.

36 Then

e This yle was west and by South from Candie freight toward the gulfes Syrtis, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they alsoooke meate.

37 Now we were in the shippe in all two hundred thre score and threene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat in to the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knelwe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken up the anchors, they committed the shippe unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoysed by the maine saile to the winde, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the soldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners: least any of them when he had swomme out, should shew away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commanded that they that could swimme, should cast themselves first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

2 Paul with his company auerently entreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper hurteth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessary, he saied toward Rome. 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his businesse. 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

And when they were come safe, then they knew that the yle was called Malta.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kinde of kinde: for they kindled a fire, and received vs euery one, because of the present shewe, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sickes, and layed them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worme hanging on his hand: they say among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But hee shooke of the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Wherby they waited when hee should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a greater while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same received vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was that the father of Publius lay sick of the feuer, and of a bloody fluxe, to whome Paul entred in, and when hee prayed, he layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed they laden vs with things necessary.

11 Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the yle, whose badge was Calioz and Pollux.

12 And when we arrived at Syracuse we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we set a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South wind blew, and we came the second day to Puttoli.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen daies, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs at the Market of Appius, and at the thre || Cauiens, whom when Paul saw, hee thanked God, and waied bold.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a soldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he sayd vnto them, Men, and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Altho when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you and to speake with you: for the hope of Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he repounded and testified the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus both out of the Law of Moyses, and out of the Prophets from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among theme These the Paimims failed to be Jupiters children and gods of the sea.

g No doubt the captaine vnderstood both by Festus letters, also by the report of the vndercaptaine, that Paul had committed no fault.

h That is, for Iesus Christs cause, whom they had long looked for, as he that should be the Redeemer of the world.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercy of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteounesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed most abominably, both against the law of God and nature, the infinite bounty of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordained that mans saluation should only stand in the perfecte obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saved by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward recei-ued circumcision as a seale or badge of the same righteounesse by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not Performed: either because the Iewes received not Christ (which was the blessed seed) or else beleued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preferre the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Elau declare that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafed in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause whereof is the onely wil of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saved, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias prooueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: and for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberal mercie of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and to gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground worke of faith and doctrine laid, instructions of Christian maners follow, teaching euery man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, reuerencing and obeying the Magistrate, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christs example. Finally, Saint Paul affers his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and fla-terers, and to concludeth with a prayer.

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous iourney by the will of God to come vnto you,

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirituall gift, to strengthen you.

12 That is, that I might bee comforted together with you, through our mutual faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that ye should not bee inglorious, how that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene ^{||} sic hitherto) that I might haue some ^o fruit also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians, and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men, and to the vnwise.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed ^o of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the ^p pwyer of God vnto saluation to euey one that belieueth, to the Jew first, and also to the ^{||} Grecian.

17 For by it the ^r righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heauen against all ^v vngodlinesse, and vnrighteousnesse of men, which withhold the truth: in vnrighteousnesse.

19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternal power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his works, to the intent that they should be without excuse.

21 * Because that when they knew God, they ^g glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darknesse.

22 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fools.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Therefore also God ^y gaue them vp to their heares iustice, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betwene themselves:

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, ^{||} forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer. Amen.

26 For this cause God gaue them vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their ^{||} lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and reuered in themselves such recompence of their error, as was meete.

28 For as they regarded not to knowe God, euen lo God deliuered them vp vnto a ^r reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not conuenient,

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, malitiousnesse, full of enuie, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the euill part, whippers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inuentors of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, covenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knew ^r the Law of God, how that they which commit such things, are worthy of death, yet not onely doe the same, but also ^b fauour them that doe them.

CHAP. II.

1 He searcheth the hypocrites with Gods iudgement, 7 And comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beate downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, hee pronounceth all men to be sinners, 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 The Lawes by the Law written.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whose euer thou art that ^{||} iudgeth: for in that that thou iudgeth another, thou condemnest ^r thy life: for thou that iudgeth, doest the same things.

2 But wee know that the iudgement of God is according to ^r truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgeth them which doe such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 O, despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and ^r patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardness, and heart that cannot repent, ^r heapest vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of ^r wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 * Who will reward euery man according to his ^r works:

7 That is, to them which by continuance in well doing leake glory, and honour, and immortallitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious, and disobey the truth, and obey vnrighteousnesse, shall be indignation and wrath.

be iustified by their works: seeing Abraham the father of beleeuers hath nothing to glorie of before God, and therefore all mens works shall condemne them, and they onely shall be saved, which apprehend Iesus Christ by faith to be their onely iustice and sanctification.

Fls. 2. 5.

ezek 36. 20.

n The end of circumcision was the keeping of the law, & the Sacrament separated from his end, is of none effect.

o Or, condemne.

a When the Law is called the Letter, or that it prouoketh death in vs, or that it killeth, or is the ministration of death, or that it is the strength of sinne, it is meant as we consider the Law of it selfe without Christ.

Coloss. 2. 13.

o In the inward man and heart.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall be vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euill: of the Jew first, and also of the ^f Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the Jewe first, and also to the Grecian.

11 For there is no ^{*} respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perish also ^{*} without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Lawe, shall be iudged by the Law.

13 ^{*} For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the doers of the Law shall be iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, doe by nature the things contained in the Law, they hauing not the Law, are a Law vnto themselves.

15 Which shew the effect of the Lawe written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing.)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 ^k Behold, thou art called a Jewe, and reuelst in the Law, and ^{*} gloziest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and ^{||} allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perfwadest thyselfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse,

20 An instructor of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the ^{||} forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyselfe: thou that preachest, A man should not steale, dost thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adulterie, dost thou commit adulterie: thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrifice?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, ^{*} as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou bee a transgressor of the Law, thy ^m circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision bee counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) ^{||} iudge thee, which by the ⁿ letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outward: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one within, and the ^{*} circumcision is of the heart, in the ^o spirit, not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

2 Having granted some prerogative to the Jewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he proueth by the Scriptures, both Jewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24. and to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by workes, 31. and so the Lawe to bee established.

What is then the preferment of the Jew: or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much euery manner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ^{||} oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleue? shall their ^{*} vnbeliefe make the ^{||} faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be ^{} true, and ^{} euery man a liar, as it is written, ^{} That thou mightest bee ^{} iustified in the wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if ^{} our vnrightheousnesse commend the rightheousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake ^{} as a man)

6 God forbid: like how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? ^{} are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Jewes and Gentiles are ^{} vnder sinne,

10 As it is written, ^{*} There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none, that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 ^{} Their throte is an open sepulchre: they haue builded their tongues to deceit: ^{} the poyson of aspes is vnder their lips.

14 ^{*} Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 ^{*} Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes.

17 And the ^{*} way of peace they haue not known.

18 ^{*} The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Now wee know that whatsoeuer the ⁿ Law saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Law, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the world bee ^{*} culpable before God.

20 ^{*} Therefore by the workes of the ⁿ Law shall no flesh be iustified in his sight: for by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

Testament. g The Law doeth not make vs guiltie, but doeth declare that wee are guiltie before God, and deserue condemnation. Galat. 2. 16. h He meant the Law, either writ or vnwritten, which commandeth or forbiddeth any thing, whose workes cannot iustifie, because we cannot performe them.

k Or fidelitie in performing his promise.
l The lawe of faith is the Gospel, which offereth saluation with condition (if thou beleuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs. So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which onely Christ hath fulfilled for vs, m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meane, and if they will have any difference, it onely standeth in words: for in effect there is none. n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law: so that the Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectually to vs by Christ Iesus.

a That is, by workes.
b He might pretend some merit or worke worthy to be recompensed.
Gen. 15. 6. gal. 3. 6 James. 2. 23.
c Meriteth by his workes.
d That dependeth not on his workes, neither thinketh to merite by them.
e Which maketh him that is wicked in himselfe, iust in Christ.
Psal. 32. 1.
f Vnder this excellent sacrament he comprehendeth the whole Law.

21 But now is the *righteousnes of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witness of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousnes of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleue.
23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and areⁱ deprived of the glory of God,
24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his^k righteousnes, by the forgiveness of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God,
26 To shew at this time his righteousnes, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.
27 Where is then the reioicing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the^l Law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.
29 God, is he the God of the Jewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.
30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision^m of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.
31 Doe wee then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, ⁿ we establish the Law.
1. 17 Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by them themselves of whom the Lawes most boasted, as of Abraham and of David, 18 And also by the office of the Law and faith.
What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found^a concerning the flesh?
2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherewith to^b reioyce, but not with God.
3 For what faith the Scriptures? * Abraham beleued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.
4 Now to him that^c worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:
5 But to him that^d worketh not, but beleueth in him that^e iustificeth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
6 Euen as David declareth the blessednesse of the man vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying.
7 * Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sinnes are couered.
8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.
9 Came then this blessednesse then vpon the^f circumcision only, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not to he he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.
11 *After hee received the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleue, not being circumcised,^g righteousness might be imputed to them also,
12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.
13 For the promise that he should bee the heire of the world, was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed through the^h Law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For if they which are of theⁱ Law bee^k heires, faith is made void, and the promise is made of none effect.
15 For the Law canleth^l wrath: for where no Law is, there is no^m transgression.
16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure toⁿ all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Law: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,
17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen^o before God whom hee beleued, who quickeneth the^p dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.
18 Which Abraham alone hope beleued vnder hope, that he should bee the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy feede be.
19 And he^q was not weak in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither the^r deadnes of Saras wombe,
20 Neither did he doubt of the promise of God through vbeleefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue^s glory to God,
21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousness,
24 But also^t for vs, to whom it shall bee imputed for righteousness, which beleue in him that raised by Iesus our Lord from the dead.
25 Who was deliuered to death, for our sinnes, and^u is risen againe for our iustification.
and constant. 1 In that she was past childbearing. f For his mercy and truth. t For our instruction, for we shall bee iustified by the same means. u To accomplish and make perfect our iustification.

n The iustice of Iesus Christ, which is imputed to the faithfull.

o Which beleeue to be saued in Iesus Christ.

Then being iustified by faith, wee haue peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * By whom also wee haue access to this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glorie of God.

3 Neither doe we so onely, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ when wee were yet of no strength, at his time died for the vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then being now iustified by his blood, wee shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were enemies, wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore as by one man sinne entered into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men for al sinnes as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moyses, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefit abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedence of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Wherefore, the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless, where sinne abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sinne had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glorie in the flesh, but rather seek to subduer to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyed with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 Setting before mens eyes the reward of sinne and righteousness.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we which haue bene baptised into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptised into his death?

4 We are buried then with him by baptism into his death, that like as Christ was raised by the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnes of life.

5 For if wee be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him,

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that hee died, he died once to sinne: but in that hee liueth, hee liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that wee are dead to sinne, but are aline to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue yee your members as weapons of unrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aline from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

being dead we cannot sinne. g That he might destroy sin in our flesh. h And sette hat the right hand of the Father. i We may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs, which is by the participation of Christs death, by whom also being quickned, we liue to God, that is, to righteousness. k In that ye are led with the Spirit of God. l The mind first smothereth e- uill motions, where by mans will is entised: thence burst forth the lusts, by them the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth sollicit the mind: therefore he commandeth at the least, that we rule our bodies. || Or, instruments, or garments.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you, for ye are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall wee sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whomsoever ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it bee of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bin the seruants of sin: but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, wherunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannes and to iniquity, to commit iniquity, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sin, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruite had ye then in those things, wherof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruite in holinesse, and the end, euermourning life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 13 The use of the Law, 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmities of the flesh. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh and the spirit.

K Now ye not, brethren (for I speake to them that know the Law) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 For as the woman which is in subjection to a man, is bound by the Law to that man, while he liueth: but if the man bee dead, shee is deliuered from the law of the husband and the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man bee dead, shee is free from the Law, so that shee is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead all to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, even vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sinnes, which were by the law, had reigne in our members, to bring forth fruite vnto death.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not knowne sin, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not luit.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all manner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alive without the law: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued, and I died.

10 But I died: and the same commandement whi h was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and decieued mee, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the law is spirituall, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I do: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now they it is no more I, that doe it: but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in mee, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing which I would, but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another Lawe in my members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the Law of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from this body of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ witheth our Lord. Then I my selfe in my minde serue the Law of God, but in my flesh the law of sinne.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the law: for I had not knowne sin, except the Law had said, Thou shalt not luit.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The aſſurance of the faithfull, and of the fruits of the holy Ghoſt in them. 3 The weakeneſſe of the law, and who accompliſhed it, 4 And wherefore 5 Of what fort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruit of the ſpirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the croſſe. 28 Of the mutual love betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his free knowledge.

Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Chriſt Jeſus, which walke not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the Law of the Spirit of life, which is in Chriſt Jeſus, hath freed me from the Law of ſinne and of death.

3 For that that was impoſſible to the Law, in as much as it was weak, becauſe of the fleſh, God ſending his owne Sonne, in the ſimilitude of ſinfull fleſh, and for ſinne, condemned ſinne in the fleſh,

4 That the righteouſneſſe of the Law, might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the fleſh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the fleſh, ſauiour the things of the fleſh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wiſedome of the fleſh is death:
but the wiſedome of the Spirit is life and
peace,

7 Becauſe the wiſedome of the fleſh is enmity againſt God: for it is not ſubiect to the Law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the fleſh, cannot pleaſe God.

9 Now ye are not in the fleſh, but in the ſpirit, becauſe the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Chriſt, the ſame is not his.

10 And if Chriſt be in you, the body is dead becauſe of ſinne: but the Spirit is life for righteouſneſſe ſake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raiſed up Jeſus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raiſed vp Chriſt from the dead, ſhall alſo quickn your mortal bodies, becauſe that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the fleſh, to liue after the fleſh:

13 For if ye liue after the fleſh, ye ſhall die:
but if ye mortifie the deeds of the body by the Spirit, ye ſhall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the ſonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue recei-ued the Spirit of adoption, whereby wee cry Abba, Father.

16 The ſame Spirit beareth witneſſe with our Spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are alſo heires, & freely made euen the heires of God, and heires aminged partakers of the with Chriſt, if ſo bee that wee ſuffer with him, that wee may alſo bee glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this preſent time, are not worthy of the glorie that ſhall be ſhewed vnto vs.

19 For the ſeruent deſire of the creature waiteth when the ſonnes of God ſhall be reueiled.

20 Becauſe the creature is ſubiect to vanitie, not of it owne will, but by reaſon of him which hath ſubdued it vnder hope,

21 Becauſe the creature alſo ſhall be de-liuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the ſonnes of God.

22 For wee know that euery creature groaneth with vs alſo, and travaileth in pain together vnto this preſent.

23 And not onely the creature, but we alſo which haue the firſt fruites of the Spirit, euen wee doe ſigh in our ſelues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our body.

24 For wee are ſaued by hope: but hope that is ſeene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he ſeeth?

25 But if we hope for that we ſee not, wee dore with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit alſo helpeth our infirmities: for wee know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit ſeife maketh requeſt for vs with ſighes, which cannot be exprefſed.

27 But he that ſearcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for he maketh requeſt for the Saints according to the will of God.

28 Alſo we know that all things worke together for the beſt vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpoſe.

29 For thoſe which he knew before, hee alſo predeſtinated to bee made like to the im-mage of his Sonne, that hee might be the firſt borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom hee predeſtinate, them alſo hee calleth, a whom hee calleth, them alſo hee iuſtifieth, and whom hee iuſtified, them hee alſo glorifieth.

31 What ſhal we then ſay to theſe things?
If God bee on our ſide, who can bee againſt vs?

32 Who ſpared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs all to death, how ſhall he not with him giue vs all things alſo?

33 Who ſhall lay any thing to the charge of Gods choſen? It is God that iuſtifieth.

34 Who ſhal condemne? it is Chriſt which is dead, yea, or rather which is riſen againe, who is alſo at the right hand of God, and

CHAP. IX.

1 Having testified his great love towards his nation, and the signes thereof, 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobation. 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reuision of the lawes.

I Say the trueth * in Christ. I lie not, my conscience bearing me witness in the holy Ghost,

2 That I haue great heavinesse, and continuaill sorrow in mine heart.

3 For I would wish my selfe to bee separated from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whome pertaineth the adoption, and the * glory, & the * Covenante, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God and the promises.

5 Of whome are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is
* God ouer all, blessed for ever. Amen.

6 * Notwithstanding it cannot bee that the word of God should take none effect: for all they are not * Israel, which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seed of Abraham: * but, In * Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the * flesh, are not the children of God: but the * children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is a word of promise, * In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Neither he only seeth this, but also * Rebecca when she had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac.

11 For, ver the children were borne, and when they had neither done good nor euill, (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by works, but by him that calleth.)

12 It was said unto her, * The elder shall serue the younger:

13 As it is written, * I haue loued Jacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he is rich to all, * I will haue mercy on him to whom I will shew mercie:
and will haue comp: ssion on him, on whom
I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not to him that willet,th, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the * Scripture saith vnto Isha- k That is, God
raa, * For the same purpose haue I stirred in the scrips- re.
thee vp, that I might shew my power in Exod. 9. 36.
thee, and that my Name might bee declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore he hath mercy on whom hee will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto mee, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, who art thou which pledest against God? shall the * thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lump one vessel to honour, and another to dishonour?

22 What and if God would, to shew his wrath, and to make his power knownen, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath prepared to destruction?

23 And that he might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Euen vs, whom hee hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles,

25 As hee saith also in Eze, * I will call the, My people, which were not my people:
and her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall bee, in the place where it was said vnto them, * We are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the liuing God.

27 Also Elias crieth concerning Israel,
* Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saved.

28 For he will make his account, and gather it into a short lumme with righteous-nesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 And as Elias said before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seed, we had bene made as^m Sodom, and had bene like to Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousness, could not attaine vnto the Law of Righteousnesse.

32 Therefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone,

33 As it is written, * Behold, I lay in Sion a * stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beloueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

Berthezen, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness vnto every one that believeth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Law, * That the man which doeth these things, shall live thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh in this wise, * Say not in thine heart, * Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from above.)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? * The word is nere thee, even in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleue in thine heart, that God rayled him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoever beleueth in him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoever shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleued: and how shall they beleue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * how beautiful are the feet of them which bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Elias saith, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, haue they not heard? * No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ends of the world.

19 But I demaund, did not Israel know God? * I will shewke you to enny by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Elias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretcht forth mine hand vnto a // disobedient and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and revealed himselfe to the Gentiles. 18 Whom hee warrmeth to humble themselves. 19 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

Demanded then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the tribe of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee knew before. Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seek my life?

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? * I haue reserved vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant though the // election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of works: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of works, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, & eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, run for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, & bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, haue they stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but though they fall saluation cometh vnto the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world: and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, 29 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

30 For when as ye in time past haue not beleued God, yet haue now obtained mercy through their unbelicfe,

31 Euen so now haue they not beleued // by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercie.

32 For God hath shut vp all in unbelicfe, that he might haue mercie on all.

33 What the deepnesse of the riches, both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath knowne the mind of the Lord? or who hath his counsell? or who hath beene his counsell? or who hath knowne the things which God hath decreed? or who hath beene his counsell? or who hath knowne the things which God hath decreed? or who hath beene his counsell? or who hath knowne the things which God hath decreed?

of the Lord? or who hath his counsell?

35 Or who hath beene his counsell? or who hath beene his counsell? or who hath beene his counsell?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glorie for ever. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and works of such as be true in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengence.

1 Beseech you therefore brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue by your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruice of God.

2 And fashion not your felices like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may proue what is the good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, a boue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that he vnderstand according to sobriety, as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one bodie in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 Seeing then that we haue gifts that are diuers, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether we haue prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of our faith:

7 An office, let vs wait on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: hee that distributeth, let him doe it with simplicitie: hee that ruleth, with diligence: hee that sheweth mercy, with cheerefullnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. Abhorre that which is euill, and cleaue vnto that which is good,

10 Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another.

11 Be not slothfull to doe seruice: seruent in spirit: seruing // the Lord,

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing in prayer,

13 Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: giuing your felices to hospitality.

14 Bless them which persecute you: // bless, I say, and curse not.

7 1 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, neither both any die to himselfe.
8 1 For whether we liue, wee liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.
9 1 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and returned, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, y and by the orery mercie of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 4 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 And requirith the same of them.

W^hich are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selves.

2 Therefore let every man please his neighbour in that that is good to * edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, sell * on me.

the Gospel of God, that the vniuersall of the Gentiles might bee acceptable: being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore wherewith I may re-ioyce in Christ Iesus in these things which by the Gospel pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not * speake of any thing k which Christ hath not wrought by mee, * to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede.

19 With the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Ilyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints which are at Ierusalem.

27 For it hath pleased them, and their debtors are they: for if the Gentiles be made partakers of their spirituall things, their duty is alio to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue sealed them this fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

29 And I know when I come, that I shall come to you with abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren, I beseech you for our Lord Iesus Christs sake, and for the loue of the spirit, that ye would strue with me by prayers to God for me,

31 That I may be deliuered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, and that my seruice which I haue to doe at Ierusalem, may be accepted of the Saints,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yere and a halfe, he was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence falsse apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to falsse doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian Religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproveth their contentions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humility, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be periwaded by worldly wit and eloquent reason, but is revealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this saluation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skillfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes, that he neuer sought his owne glory, neither yet how he might liue, but onely the glory of Christ: which thing at his coming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before Infidels, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duty of marriage, of discord and dissention among the married, of virginity, and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather than he would doe, he would neuer vse that liberty, which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, and selfe will was the cause of those great euils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in their assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the Spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

2 He prayeth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 He beatech downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisdom of the world.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

7 So that ye are not destitute of any gift: waiting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 * Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that ye may be blamelesse in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 * God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

knit together in one mind, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto mee, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, that euerie one of you sayeth, I am Pauls, and I am * Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Christis.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were yee baptized * into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but * Crispus, and * Gaius, 15 Leit any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore know I not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ lent mee not to * baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with * wiledome of wordes, * leit the crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saved, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wiledome of the wise, and will call away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the * scribe? where is the * disputer of this world? hath not God made the wiledome of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wiledome knew not God in the wiledome of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a * signe, and the Grecians seeke after wiledome.

23 But we preach Christ crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, wee preach Christ, the power of God, and the wiledome of God.

25 For the * foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men * after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath cholen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath cholen the weak things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God cholen. and things * which are not, to bring to nought things * that are.

29 That no * flesh should reioyce in his presence.

attribute these things to God, then acknowledge their owne follie and weaknesse. f According as the world * earneeth wise men.

g Which are in mans iudgement almost nothing, but taken for abjects and cast aways. h Esteemed and in reputation. x Thus he calleth man in contempt, and to beate downe his arrogancy.

20 But yee are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs * wiledome, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, * We that reioyce, let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Gospel, 8 Which Gospel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And agayne honourable and manifest to the spirituell.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, of wiledome, shewing vnto you the * testimony of God.

2 For I esteemed not to know any thing among you, laue Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 * And I was among you in * weaknesse and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my word, and my preaching in the * enticing speech of mans wiledome, but in plaine euidence of the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wiledome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wiledome among them that are * perfect: not the wiledome of this world, neither of the * princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But wee speake the wiledome of God in a mystery, euen the hid wiledome, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which * none of the Princes of this world hath known: for had they known it, they would not haue crucified the * Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not seene, neither eare hath heard, neither * came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reucaled them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit * searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, laue the spirit * of a man, which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue * receiued not the Spirit of the world, but the Spirit, which is of God, that wee might know the * things that are giuen to vs of God.

• That is, very few. f H: calleth Iesus the mighty God, full of true glory and maiesty, whom David also calleth the King of glory, Psal. 24. 7. and Steuen nameth him the God of glory, Acts 7. 2. and hereby appeareth the diuinity of Christ, and coniunction of two natures in one person. 1/a. 64. 4. g Man is not able to thinke Gods providence toward his. h For he is one God with the Father and the Sonne. i Mans mind which vnderstandeth and iudgeth. k Wee are not moued with that Spirit, which teacheth things wherewith the world is delighted, and which men vnderstand by nature. l All the benedicts of God in Iesus Christ.

ted in Christ by faith we begin to moue by his Spirit, and as we profit in faith, wee grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poison: for milke and strong meat in effect are one, but onely differ in manner and forme.

AND I coulde not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, even as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you cniuing, and strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then, and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye believed, and as the Lord gaue to every man?

6 I haue plantred, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are one, and every man shall receive his wages, according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: yee are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to mee, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let every man take heede how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, timber, hay,

13 Every mans worke shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by the fire: and the fire shall try every mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built vpon, abide, he shall receive wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall lose it, but hee shall be safe himselfe: neither the lesse yet as it were by the fire.

16 Know ye not that yee are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you terme to be wise in this world, let him bee a foole, that he may bee wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishnesse with God: for is written, Hee catcheth the wise in their owne craftinesse.

20 And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it bee Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death: whether they bee things present, or things to come, euen all are yours,

CHAP. IIIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement. 7 Beating downe their glory which hindered them to prayse that, which they dispraised in him, 19 He sheweth what hee requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LET a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that every man be found faithful.

3 As touching me, I passe very little to be iudged of you, or of mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore I iudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall every man haue praise of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that yee might learne by vs, that no man presume above that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou haddest not receiued it?

f To wit, from other men, and preferreth thee.

8 Now yet are full : now yee are made rich : yee reigne as kings without vs, and would to God, yee did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the s^ait Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gazing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are ^a holes for Christs sake, and ye are wise in Christ : we are weaker, and ye strong : yee are honourable, and wee are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certain dwelling place,

12 * And labour, working with our owne hands : we are reuiled, and yet we blisse : we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 * We are euil spoken of, and we || pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved children, I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand || instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers : for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Therefore, I pray you, be yet followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloved sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, and he will speach of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the ^b kingdome of God is not in word, but in ^c power.

21 What will ye ? Shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirit of meeknesse ?

CHAP. V.

1 Hee reproveth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace purity, 9 And flee wickednesse.

I T is heard certainly, that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the ^a Gentiles, * that one should haue his fathers wife.

2 And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather sorrowed, that he which hath done this deed, might be put from among you.

3 * For I verily as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath ^b thus done this thing,

8 Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of malicioulnesse and wickednesse : but with the unleavened bread of sinceritie and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that ye should not company together with fornicators,

10 And ^e not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters : for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that ye company not together : if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or ^f an idolater, or a rapler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

CHAP. VI.

1 Hee rebuketh them for going to law together before the heathen. 7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 Hee reproveth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 And sheweth that wee ought to serue God purely both in body and soule.

D Are any of you, hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder || the ^a vniust, and not vnder the Saints ?

2 * Doe ye not know, that the Saints shall iudge the world ? If the world then shal be iudged by you, are ye unworthy to iudge the smallest matters ?

3 Know yee not that wee shall iudge the ^b Angels ? how much more things that pertaine to this life ?

4 If then ye haue iudgement of things pertaining to this life, * set vp them which are ^c least esteemed in the Church.

5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wile man among you ? no not one, that can iudge betwene his brethren ?

6 But a brother goeth to law with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

7 Now therefore there is betterie a ^d fault esteemed your iudge : for it is most easie to iudge betwene brethren. || Or, ^e impotencie of minde.

cation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? p care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 We are boughte with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning the Lords: but I giue mine aduise, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithfully.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present necessity: I meane, that it is good for a man to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgin marry, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, I herceafter thought both they which haue wives, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vse this world, as though they used it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The unmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgin and a wife: the unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how shee may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your own commodity, not to cangle you in a snare, and that ye shoulde that which is honest, and that ye may cleane fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is becomingly for his virginie, if she passe the flower of her age, and neede so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

37 Neuertheless, he that standeth firme in his heart, that he hath no neede, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virginie, he doeth well.

38 So then bee that giueh her to marriage, doth well, but he that giueh her not to marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband liueth, but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to marry with whom shee will, onely in the Lord.

40 But shee is more blessed, if shee so abide, in my iudgement: and I thinke that I haue also the spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices. 2 And he sheweth how men ought to behaue them toward such as be weake.

AS touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that we all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth up, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is knowne of him.

4 Concerning therefore meat sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that an idole is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some haue a conscience of the idole, vntill this houre. eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the life: neither if we eate not, haue wee the life.

9 But take heed lest by any means this power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, shall not the conscience of him him which is referred to weake, be boldened to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles?

11 And though thy knowledge shall sleepe, weake brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when ye sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weake conscience, ye sinne against Christ.

13 Therefore if meate offend my brother, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

j For that part that was burnt, was deuoured of the altar, and the other was due vnto the Priests by the Law.

k For now you haue no iust cause against me, seeing that I preached the Gospel freely vnto you.

l Seeing he is charged to preach he is willingly & earnestly to follow it: for if he do it by constraint, he doth not his duty.

m That I be not chargeable to them to whom I preach, seeing that they thinke that I preach for gaines.

AND I not an Apostle? am not I free? haue I not serued Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my workmen in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yee are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 By defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eat, and to drinke?

5 Doe haue we not power to leade about a wife being a sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Do I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses,

*Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take care for ore?

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that hee which eateth, should care in hope: and that hee that drieth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 *If we haue toliuen vnto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?

12 If others with you bee partakers of this power, are not we rather? neuertheless, we haue not vben this power: but I suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know, that they which minister about the holy things, eat of the things of the Temple: and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be to done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioycing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, I notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? verily that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free, that I abuse not mine authority in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe servant vnto all men, that I might winne the moe.

20 And vnto the Iewes I become as a Jewe, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Law, as though I were vnder the Law, that I may win them that are vnder the Law.

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not, without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Law through Christ) that I may win them that are without Law.

22 To the weakke I become as weakke, that I may winne the weakke: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means sauie some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiveth the prize: so run that ye may obtaine.

25 And every man that prosueth make- rices, abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore lo runne, not as vncertainly: so fighte I, not as one that beatech the ayre.

27 But I beate downe my body, and bring it into subiection, lest by any means after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reprovved.

C H A P. X.

Hee faweth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God. 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and euillence of their neighbour.

MOREouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were vnder the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

2 And were all baptized vnto Moses, in the cloud, and in the sea,

3 *And did all eate the same spiritual meate,

4 *And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were overthruwen in the wilderness.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after still things* as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, *The people late downe to eate and drinke, and toie vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as the substance of some of them committed fornication, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

a praise vnto her: for her haire is¹ giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you: and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be² heresies euen among you, that they which are approued among you, might be knownen.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, taketh his own supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eate and to drinke in: despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shal I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lord Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, took bread:

24 * And when he had giuen thanks, hee brake it, and sayd, Take, eat: this is my body which is broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he tooke the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoever shall eate this bread, & drinke the cup of the Lord unworthily, shal be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 * Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he discerneth not the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I let in order when I come.

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the¹ dumbe idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen² faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit:

10 And to another³ the operations of great wokes: and to another, prophecies: and to another, the discerning of spirits: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into¹ one body, whether wee be Jewes or Grecians, whether wee be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now God hath disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but² one body:

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feet, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be³ more feeble, are necessary.

22 And upon those members of the body, which we thinke most dishonest, put wee more honestly on: and our vncomely parts haue more comeliness on.

24 For our comely parts need it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honor to that part which lacked.

25 Lest there should be any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now wee are the body of Christ, and members a// for your part.

28 And God hath ordeined some in the church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly Teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernors, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles: are all Prophets: are all Teachers:

30 Are all doers of miracles: haue all the gifts of healing: do all speake with tongues: doe all interpret:

31 But desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fontaine and rule of edifying the Church, hee setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

Though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding braile, or a tinkling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophesie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remoune mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long: it is bountifull: loue ennieth not: loue doth not boast it selfe: it is not puffed by:

5 It is diuinely not: it seeketh not her owne things: it is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not enill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquity, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doth neuer fall away, though that prophesyings bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we know as imperfectly, but the faith that iustifieth in effect cannot, as 1. Iohu 2.9. Mat. 17. 20. Luke 17.6. c Not that it suffereth it selfe to be abused, but iudgeth others by all loue and humanity d Which may be without offense of Gods word e Knowledge it selfe shall be perfected in the world to come & not abolished: but the manner of knowing and teaching shall cease when we shall be before Gods presence, where we shall need neither schools nor teachers. f That is, imperfectly. || Or, teach, phesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I vnderstood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now wee see thorow a glasse darkly, but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shall I know euen as I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen these three: but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spiritual gifts, 5 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be observed in the Church.

Flow after loue, and couet spiritual gifts, and rather that ye may prophesie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man heareth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that ye all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is that that prophesie, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profit you, except I speake to you, either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine:

7 Whereouer, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it be a pipe, or an harpe, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped:

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell:

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken: for ye shall speake in the ayre.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it cometh to passe) in the world, and none of them is dumb.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as ye couet spiritual gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit prayeth: but mine vnderstanding is without fruit.

r Which expoundeth the word of God. s Paul beareth as yet with their weakness, because also there were the gifts of God: but yet hee sheweth that they should not passe this measure, that first one, after another, and at the utmost the third should read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. s Or, learning, which Gods Spirit moueth them to wiser.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Els, when thou blest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the roume of the vnllearned, say Amen, at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speake languages more than ye all.

19 Det hee all I rather in the Church to speake five wordes with mine understanding, than I might also instruct others, then tenne thousand wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding, but as concerning malitiousnesse be children, but in understanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, * By men of other tongues, & by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleene, but to them that beleene not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleene not, but for them which beleene.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speak strange tongues, there cometh they that are vnllearned, or they which beleene not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wits?

24 But if all prophesie, and thees come in one that beleue not, or one vnllearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worship God, and say plainly, that God is in you indeed.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when ye come together, according as euery one of you hath a psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are should read in a strange language, which was to declare Gods miracle in the gift of tongues: but chiefly he commandeth that nothing be done without interpretation. s Or, learning, which Gods Spirit moueth them to wiser.

* Subject to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as wee see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subject, as also the Law sayeth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you: either came it vnto you only?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or a spirituell, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the Scriptures.

4 And that hee was buried, and that he arose the third day, according to the Scriptures.

5 And that hee was seene of Cephas, then of the twelve.

6 After that hee was seene of more then fiftie hundred brethren at once, whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that hee was seene of James: then of all the Apostles.

8 And last of all, hee was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

I am: and his grace which is in mee, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and to haue ye beleueed.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there bee no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised by Christ: whom he hath not raised up, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life I onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made the first fruits of them that sleepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made alīue.

23 But euery man in his owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward they that are of Christ, at his coming, shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the end, when hee hath delivered vs by the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when hee hath put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must raigne, till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 ¶ For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feet. (And when hee saith that all things are subdued vnto him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shal be subdued vnto him, then shal the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may bee all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

This kingdome standeth in governing the faithfull, and ouercoming the aduersaries, euen death the chiefest: which done, Christ being perfected with all his members, shall as hee is man and head of the Church, with his fellow heires deliuer his kingdome, and be subiect to God, with whom and the holy Ghost in Godhead hee is equal. Psal. 110. 1. Act. 2. 43. 5. heb. 1. 13. & 10. 13. Psal. 8. 6. heb. 2. 8. n We shalbe perfectly fulfilled with his glory and felicity.

o That is, as dead, & because they were but newly come to Christ would be baptized before they dyed. p Except these things bee true of Christs kingdome, and his subiection, what shall become of them whom the Church daily baptizeth, for to destroy death in them, which is the end of Baptisme, and so they to rise againe?

30 Why are wee also in jeopardy euery houre?

31 ¶ By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what advantage it me, if the dead be not raised? let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow wee shall die.

33 Bee not deceived: * euill speakings corrupt good maners:

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God: I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, whom are the dead raised up, and with what bodie come they forth?

36 I saie, that which thou sowest, is not quickned, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bodie that shall bee, but bare come, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a bodie at his pleasure, euen to euery sēde his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sown in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spiritual body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 As it is also written, The first man Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first made which is spiritual: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthly: so shall wee beare the image of the heavenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shew you a secret thing, wee shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be changed, b This naturall body as it is now, till it be made new by the Spirit of Christ. c When the Lord cometh to iudgement, some of the Saints shalbe alīue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

q I take to witness all my sorrows wherein I may iustly reioice in y Lord, that I haue sustained them among you.

r That is, hauing regard to this present life, and not to Gods glory, and to life everlasting. 1. Cor. 2. 13. wisd. 2. 6.

* Menander is Thaide.

s There is one substance as touching the flesh both of man and beast, but the difference is as touching the qualities.

t Euen as the Sunne and the Moone, being of one substance, differ in dignity, so in the resurrection our bodies shall haue more excellent qualities then they haue now.

u For what is more vile to looke vnto, then the dead carkeis?

x Not changing the substance, but made partaker of the diuine nature.

y Christ bringeth vs from heauen vnto the Spirit of life.

z This is attributed to Christ as concerning his diuinity, not in respect of his humanity, whose flesh hath this glory by power of God, who dwelleth in it.

a Both in substance and forme we are earthly.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either to perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them faire passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornesse, and contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therefore he wishesthem well in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authority, yet they were necessary (schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inability and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bin compelled to vse rigour and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault, as is now euident both in that that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authority, he consulteth their arrogant braggies, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: so that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which ingendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion towards our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicity of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas hee contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore at his coming he menaceth such as rebell against his authority, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profit that cometh to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his coming contrary to his promise, he proo-ueth his constancie, both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueness of the Gospel. 21 Which truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

P I T L An Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, & our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with all the Saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort,

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we bee afflicted, it is for your consolation, and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed out of measure passing strength, so that wee also together doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, wee received the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not truit in our selues, but in God which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 15. 17

a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom wee trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs,

11 So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may bee giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity & godly purenesse, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersion in the world, and most of all to you wards.

13 For we write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your reioycing, euen as yee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be ledde forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse: or minde I those things which I minde, according to the flesh, that with mee should bee yea, yea, and Nay nay?

18 Yea, God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Pea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Pea, and Nay: but in him it was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glory of God through vs.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anoynted vs.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and hath giuen the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue toward them, & requiring likewise that they would be fauorable to the incessant adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyced in God for the efficacy of his doctrine, 17 confuteth thereby such quarell pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BUT I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heavinesse.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that should make mee glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote b this same thing vnto you, least when I came, I should take heauines of them of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my sorow is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might perceiue the loue, which I haue specially vnto you.

5 And if any hath caused sorow, the same hath not made me sorry, but partly (least I should make more charge vnto) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest the same should bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Therefore, I pray you, that you would confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the paffe of you, whether pee would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for verily if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the sight of Christ,

11 Lest Satban should circumsent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christs Gospel, and a doze was opened vnto me of the Lord,

13 I had no rest // in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God, which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

CHAP. III.

1 He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the truth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7. 13 he maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO we begin to praise our selues againe? Do we need we as some other, Epistles of commendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 We are our epistle writtē in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest to be the Epistle of Christ ministered by vs, and writtē, not with ynke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiency is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministrations of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not beholde the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 Now shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministry of condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse great boldnesse of speech.

13 And wee are not as Moses, which put a vailē vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende

l In preaching the Gospel, Exod. 34. 33. m Moses shewed the Law as it was covered with shadows, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof: againe, the Gospel setteth forth the glory of God clearly, not couering our eyes, but driving the darknesse away from them.

of that which should be abolished.
14 Therefore their minds are hardened : for until this day remaineth the same covering untaken away in the reading of the old Testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen unto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layd ouer their hearts.

16 Nevertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vaile shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all behold as in a mirror the glory of the Lord with open face, & are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundness in his office. 8 And that which his enemies took for his disadvantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turneth to his great advantage. 11. 17 shewing what profit commeth thereby.

Therefore, seeing that we haue this ministry, as we haue received mercy, we see faint not :

2 But haue cast from vs the clokes of shame, and walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully : but in declaration of the truth we appaue our selues to every mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds, that is, of the iudees, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine unto them.

5 For wee preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Jesus sake.

6 For God that commanded the light to shine out of darkness, is he which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on every side, yet are we not in distress : in pouerty, but not overcome of pouerty.

9 We are persecuted, but not forsaken : cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Every where wee beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 For wee which liue, yet the treasure which they carry is nothing worse or interior. 1 All the faithfull, and chiefly the Ministers must drinke of this cup, because the world hateth Christ : and also that the members should be conformable to Christ their head, yet by the mighty power of Christ, who overcame death, they are made conquerours.

12 So then death worketh in vs, and k life in you.

13 And because we haue the same Spirit of faith according as it is written, I beleue, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleue, and therefore speake,

14 Knowing that hee which hath raised vp the Lord Jesus, shall raise vs up also by Jesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plentifully grace by the thanksgiving of many, may rebound to the prayse of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed daily.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre more excellent and eternall weight of glory :

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene : for the things which are seene, are temporal : but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

you all, which are both partakers of mine affliction & comfort, may abundantly see forth his glory. Or, be corrupted. Groweth stronger. p Which is so called in respect of the euerlasting life.

CHAP. V.

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the utility that cometh by the crosse. 4 How we ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 by whom, 9 and for what end. 14 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 20 and the office of ministers, and all the faithfull.

For we know, that if our earthly house of this Tabernacle be destroyed, we haue a building giuen of God, that is, an house not made with hands, but eternall in the heauens.

2 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen.

3 Because that if we be clothed, we shall not be found naked.

4 For in deed we that are in this Tabernacle, sigh and are burdened, because we would not be unclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortallity might be swallowed vp of life,

5 And hee that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway bold, though we know that whiles we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walke by faith, and not by sight)

8 Nevertheless, we are bold, and loue rather to remoue out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him.

10 For wee must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that every man may receiue the things which are done in his body, according to that hee hath done, whether it be good or euill.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue laid before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I use great boldnesse of speech toward you: I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on every side, fightings without, and terrors within.

6 But God that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:

7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your seruent minde to me towards, so that I reioyced much more.

8 For though I made you sorrie with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same Euile made you sorrie, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce, not that ye were furie, but that ye repoyred to repentance: for yee sorrowed godly, so that in nothing yee were hurt by vs.

10 For godly sorrow causeth repentance unto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorrow causeth death.

11 For behold, this thing that yee haue bene so godly sorrowing, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what a punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the love of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted anything to him of you, I haue not bene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, even so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye received him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, hee exhorteth them to continue relieving the poore Saints, commending their good beginning.
23 After, hee commendeth Titus and his fellows vnto them.

W^e doe you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,
2 Because in great trial of affliction their joy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie abounded vnto their rich liberality.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receive the grace and fellowship of the ministering which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gave their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as hee had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in every thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, even so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore praeue I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I shew my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will, a parte agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to wil, even so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be ealed and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition at this time your abundance supplieth this lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, * We that gathered much, had nothing over, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

19 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you,

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was to careful, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose waife is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt minde.)

20 Avoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs,

21 Providing for honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

a This benefit of God appeared in two things, first, that the Macedonians being in to great afflictions were so prompt to helpe others: and next, that being in great poverty, were very liberal towards others.
b So that a most abundant river of riches flowed out of their pouertie.

c So he collecteth their liberality, either because they were the belouers of Gods graces, or because they received them of God freely, and so they desired Paul to see to the distribution thereof.
Chap. 9. 13.

d Every man may doe good that hath ability therein: but to will and have a mind to doe good, cometh of perfect charitie.

22 And we haue sent with them our brother whom we haue oft times proued to be diligent in many things: but now much more diligent, for the great confidence which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper to youward: of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the ^k glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shewe toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the rejoycing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions coming to them. 6 Hee exhorteth to giue almes cheerfully, 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOR as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of minde, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achata was prepared a yere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue said) be readye.

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with mee, and finde you vnprepared, wee (I need not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As every man which in his heart, so let him giue, not ^a grudgingly, or of necessity: ^b For God loveth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing ^c all sufficient in all things, may abound in euery ^d good worke,

9 As it is written, ^e He hath sparred abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplye your seed, and increase the fruites of your beneuolence,

11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberality, which causeth through vs thanksgiving vnto God:

12 For the multiplication of this seruice not onely supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thanksgiving of many vnto God:

13 Which by the expectation of this retribucion, praise God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men.

14 And by ^d their prayer for you, // desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore bee vnto God for his unspeakable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how he useth it.

NOW I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am ^a bashfull, but am bold toward you being absent.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde vnto you when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bold against some, ^b which esteeme vs as though wee walked according to the flesh.

3 Nevertheless, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mighty through God to cast downe holds)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yet on things after the appearance: If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christ, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christ, euen so are wee Christ.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, sayth he, are force and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters when we are absent, such will wee also in dede, when wee are present.

12 For wee dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselves: but they understand not that they ^a measure themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, ^b but according to the measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For wee stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though we had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ.

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you, according to our line abundantly.

a These words his backbiters vsed, thinking thereby to diminish his authority, as verie 10. b As though we boasted of our selues by a carnall affection.

CHAP. XI.

2 He declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgements of the Corinthians. 22 And his owne praise.

Woult to God yee could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and indeede bee instructed me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you, with godly ielousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your minds should bee corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another spirit then that which yee haue receiued, either another Gospel then that ye haue receiued, yee might well haue suffered him.

5 Greedy I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chief Apostles.

6 And though I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vermouth, in all things.

7 Yane I committed an offence, because I abashd my life, that yee might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely.

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not be gurious to you.

10 The truerth of Christ is in mee, that this reioycing shall not bee shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might be found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruail: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Wherefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall bee according to their works.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke that I am foolish: or else take mee euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer foolcs gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man luite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch, as though that wee had bene weak: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Hebrewes, so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I.

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes above measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft.

24 Of the Jewes five times receiued I forty stripes.

25 I was thrie beaten with rodde: I was once stoned: I suffered thrie shipwracke: night and day haue I been in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren.

27 In wearinesse and painefullnesse, in watching often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbered dayly, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak: who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the gouernour of the people binder king Aretas, layde watch in the cite of the Damascenes, and would haue caught me.

his boasting upon the Corinthians. 14 He sheweth what good will be beareth them, 20 And promiseth to come unto them.

It is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I know a man ^{in Christ} about foueteene yeeres agoe, (whether hee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the ^{third} heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 how that he was taken vp into Paradyse, and heard words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to utter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce, of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I refraine lest any man should thinke of mee about that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure, through the abundance of revelations, there was giuen vnto mee ^a picke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord ^o that he that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in mee.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguishes for Christs sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue been commended of you, for in nothing was I inferior vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior vnto other Churches, except that I haue not been // floridfull to your hinderance? forgive me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the ^{third} time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet will I not be slothfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but ^{you}: for the children ought not to lay by the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowed for your // soules: though the more I loue you, the less I am loued.

16 But see it that I charged you not:

yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, thinke ye that we excole our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest when I come I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you ^{as} such as you would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings and discords.

21 I fear lest when I come againe, my God ^o abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned already, and haue not repented of the vncleanesse, and fornication, & wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians after they had been instructed by Saint Paul in the truth of the Gospel, gave place to false apostles, who entering in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must be necessarily observed, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee proueth that the granting thereof is the overthrow of mans salvation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend, as though they had been sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority, but spake of himselfe, he proueth both that he is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that he is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, he proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commodity: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come. Wherefore men ought now to imbrace that liberty, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the gennes of mans traditions: finally hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth: and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselves to be seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the law were necessary to salvation, 8 and desireth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conversation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

10 For now I preach I mans doctrine, or Gods: or goe I about to please men: for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 Now I certifie you brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after * man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the * reuelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For we haue heard of my conversation in time past, in the Jewish religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it,

14 And profited in the Jewish religion above many of my // companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the * traditions of my fathers.

21 After that, I went into the coasts of Syria and Cilicia: for I was unknown by face unto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

CHAP. II.

3 Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 and that he is nothing inferior to other Apostles: 11 Tea, and that he hath reproved Peter the Apostle of the Jewes. 16 After he cometh to the principall scope which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, & not by the workes of the Law.

Then fourteene yeeres after I went up againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke with me Titus also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated with them of the Gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chief, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3. But neither yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was compelled to be circumcised,

4. For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in privily to lye out our libertie, which we have in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whom we gave not place by subjection for an houre, that the truth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past, it maketh no matter to me: * God accepteth no mans person) nevertheless, they that are the chiefs, did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel over the uncircumcision was committed unto mee, as the Gospel over the circumcision was unto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship over the Circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles.)

9 And when James and Cephas, and John knew of the grace that was given unto me, which are counted to be pillars, they came to mee and to Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should preach unto the Gentiles, and they unto the Circumcision,

10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said unto Peter before all men, sith thou being a Jew, livest as the Gentiles, and not like the Jewes, why constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Jewes?

15 Alle which are Jewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, even we I say, have believed in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law, no flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while we seek to be made righteous by Christ, we our selves are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I have destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I though the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might live unto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I live, yet not I now, but Christ liveth in me: and in that that I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loved mee, and given himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousness bee by the Law, then Christ died without a cause.

of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the Spirit, ye would now be made perfect by the flesh?

4 Haue ye suffered so many things in vaine? if so be it be euen in vaine.

5 Ye therefore that minister to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all the Gentiles be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham,

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Law, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Law, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is evident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but * the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, * Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe, * Though it be but a mans covenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or * addeth any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. Bee asperct not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was four hundred and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disannull the covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then seereth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: if there had bene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousness should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sin, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoole-maister to bring vs to Christ, that we might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoole-maister.

26 For ye are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 * For all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

Then I say that the heire as long as hee is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be Lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the Father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the Law,

5 That he might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receive the adoption of the Sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a servant. but a sonne: now if thou bee a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

21 Tell mee, yee that will bee vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?
22 For it is writen, that Abrahams had two sonnes, * one by a seruant, and * one by a free woman.
23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.
24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers^l are the two Testaments, the one which is * Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.
26 But Ierusalem, which is^m about, is free: which is the mother of vs all.
27 For it is writen, * Reioyce thouⁿ bar-ren that bearest no children: breake forth, and crieth thou that trauallest not: for the desolate hath many more children then shee which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the manner of Isaac children of the promise.
29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.
30 But what saith the Scripture? * Out out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with y^o sonne of the free woman.
31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the^p free woman.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

While Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entered in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee addresseth them of salutation, because they were thereunto predestinated by the free Election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme toward them. And to the intent they should not glory in themselves, hee sheweth them their extreme misery wherein they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whom

d Wee that are the members, are raised vp from death, and reigne with our head Christ in heauen by faith.

6 And hath raised vs by together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That he might shew in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindeesse towards vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are yee saved through faith, and that not of your selues; it is the gift of God,

9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workmanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordeined that we would walke in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that yee being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called circumcission of them, which are called circumcission in the flesh, made with hands,

12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliens from the common wealth of Israel, and were strangers from the covenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Iesus, yee which once were farre off, are made nere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the partition wall,

15 In adrogating through his flesh the hatred, that is, the law of commandments which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one body by his crosse, and lay hatred thereby,

17 And came and preached peace to you which were asafare off, and to them that were nere.

18 For through him wee both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore, yee are no more strangers and foreigners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone,

21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord,

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of trouble, 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his Spirit.

For this cause, I Paul am the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If yee haue heard of the dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen mee to you ward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mysterie vnto mee (as I wrote about in few words,

4 Wherby when yee reade, yee may know mine understanding in the mystrie of Christ.)

5 Which in other ages was not opened vnto the sonnes of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his hely Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should bee inheritous also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Wherof I am make a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto mee through the working of his power.

8 When vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vniuersall riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mystrie is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto principalities & powers in heauenly places might bee knowne by the Church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which hee wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord.

12 By whom wee haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whom is named the whole family in heauen and in earth)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may bee strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith, that yee being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May bee able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may bee filled with all fullnesse of God.

20 Unto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly about all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs,

21 Bee praye in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euery Amen, graces of God may abound in you. Rom. 16. 25. feele Christ in vs.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe into Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a city of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospell vniuersally to all the Gentiles, hee trauielled from place to place: till at length he was taken prisoner at Rome, where of the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein hee commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospell thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to see ambition, and to embrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the vse of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, he comforteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and generally, with relification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discovereth his heart toward them,
3 By his thanksgiving, 4 Prayers, 8 and wishes for their faith and saluation, 7, 12. 20 He sheweth the fruit of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

Paul and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the Bishops, and Deacons, 2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, having you in perfect memory,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for al you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the fellowship which yee haue in the Gospell, from the first day vntill now.

6 And I am persuaded of this same thing, that he that hath begunne this good worke in you, will perfect it vntill the day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my bands, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospell, you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roots in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That yee may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure and without offence, vntill the day of Christ,

11 Filled with the fruites of ^h righteousness, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and prae of God.

12 ¶ I would yee understood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospell,

13 So that my bands in ⁱ Christ are famous throughout all the iudgement hall, and in all other places.

14 In so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bands, and dare more frankly speake the word.

20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it bee by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death advantage.

g Of this peculiar benefit to suffer for Christs sake.

h Or, are excellent.

o To live in the flesh, is to live in this brittle body till we be called to live everlastingly: but to live according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the Spirit, and to be plunged in the filthy concupiscences of the flesh.

p The more that tyrants rage against the Gospel, the more manifestly they declare that they runne to their owne destruction, and againe, constant perseverance for Christs sake, is an evident signe of salvation. q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse, who are his, and who are not. ¶ Or, Christlike.

22 And whether to live in the flesh, were profitable for mee, and what to choose, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loved, and to bee with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your surety, and joy of your faith.

26 That ye may more abundantly rejoyce in Christ Jesus for mee, by my coming to you againe.

27 * Surely let your conversation bee, as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that together I come and see you, or else bee absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye still continue in one spirit, and in one minde, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your adversaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given for Christ, that not onely ye should believe in him, but also suffer for his sake.

30 Having the same fight which ye saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

For Christs sake, is an evident signe of salvation. q God sheweth by this meanes of bearing the crosse, who are his, and who are not. ¶ Or, Christlike.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee exhorteth them above all things to humility, whereby pure doctrine is churly maintained.

19 Promising that hee and Timotheus will speedily come unto them, 27 and excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

¶ If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercy.

2 Fulfill my joy, that ye be like minded, having the same love, being of one accord, and of one iudgement.

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meeknesse of mind every man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Look not every man on his owne things; but every man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus.

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 * But he made himselfe of no reputation, and took on him the forme of a servant, and was made like unto men, & was found in shape as a man.

8 * He humbled himselfe, and became obedient unto the death, even the death of the crosse.

¶ He humbled himselfe, and became obedient unto the death, even the death of the crosse. ¶ Hee exhorteth them above all things to humility, whereby pure doctrine is churly maintained. ¶ Hee exhorteth them above all things to humility, whereby pure doctrine is churly maintained.

9 Therefore God hath also highly exalted him, and given him a name above every name,

10 * That at the Name of Jesus should every knee bow, both of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth,

11 * And that every tongue should confesse that Jesus Christ is the Lord, unto the glory of the Father.

12 Therefore my beloved, as ye have alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in mine absence, so make an end of your owne salvation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, even of his good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whom ye shine, as * lights in the world.

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not runne in vaine, neither have laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered up by you on the sacrifice, and service of your faith, I am glad, and rejoyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and rejoyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus heartily unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 * For all sake their owne, and not that which is Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath served with me in the Gospel.

23 Will therefore I hope to send assoone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus unto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, even your messenger, and he that ministered unto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heavinesse, because ye had heard that he had been sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere unto death: but God had mercie on him, and net on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might rejoyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the works of Christ he was neere unto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfil that service which was lacking on your part toward me.

2 Beware of dogges: beware of euill workers: beware of the concision.

3 For wee are the Circumcision, which worship God in the Spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the kindred of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, * an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, * by the Law a Pharise.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousness which is in the Law, I was unrebukeable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the same I counted losse for Christs sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lord, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee doing, that I might winne Christ.

9 And might bee found in him: that is, not hauing mine owne righteousness, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, even the righteousness which is of God through faith.

10 That I may know him, and the ver-tue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and bee made conformed vnto his death.

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the resurrection of the dead:

12 I do not as though I had already attained to it, either were I already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behind, and indure my selfe vnto that which is before.

14 And fellow hard toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reuocate euen the same vnto you.

16 Where thelesse, in that whereunto wee are come, let vs pced by one rule, * that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of mee, and looke on them, which walke so, as ye haue vs for an example.

18 * For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, & now tell you weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ,

19 Whose end is damnation, whose God is their belly, & whose glory is to their shame, which minde carnally things.

20 But our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the Saniour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ.

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby hee is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

8 Hee exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 15 and thanketh them because of the promise that they made for him being in prison, 21 And so concludeth with salutation.

Therefore, my brethren beloved and louged for, my toy, and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloved.

2 I pray Eudias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithful pokefellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the Booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 * Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thanks.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all understanding, shall preserve your hearts and minds in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praise, thinke on these things.

9 Which ye haue both learned and recei-ued, and heard, and seme in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are * resumed againe to care for mee, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, ther-with to be content.

12 And I can be abased, and I can abound: eury where in all things I am instructed both to be full, and to bee hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth
 mee.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done,
 that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians know also that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I demunicated with me concerning the matter

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN this Epistle Saint Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuell and true Christ, and the fained counterfeit, and imagined Christ, whom the false Apostles taught. And first, hee confirmeth the doctrine which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoever good thing can be desired, standeth onely in Christ, whom onely wee embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, hee toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay only on Christ, without whom all things are but mere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence from meates, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as meanes whereby to come to Christ, he vterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ is abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithful.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeit Christ of the false Apostles. 25 He approueth his authority and charge, 28 and of his faithfull executing of the same.

Paul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timothyus our brother, 2 To them which are at Colosse, Saints and faithful brethren in Christ: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 Wee giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, alwaies praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith^b in Christ Iesus, and of your loue towards all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that yee heard and truly knew the grace of God.

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which yee haue^c by the spirit.

9 For this cause wee also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might bee fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisdom, and spirituall vnderstanding,

10 That yee might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being^a fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with ioyfulness,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome^{*} of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of sinnes.

15 Who is the^{*} image of the invisible God, the¹ first borne of every creature.

16^{*} For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and invisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principallities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him.

17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning,^{*} and the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

20 And by him to reconcileⁱ all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers, and enemies, because your mindes were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

4 And this I say, lest any man should be-abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest there be any man that shoyle you through * philosophie, and vaine deceit, through the traditions of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 * For in him dwelleth all the fulnes of the * Godhead // bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principallity and power:

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith. and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the purity of their Religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheat, so there were among them wicked men, which by mooning vaine and curious questions to overthrow their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly instructed them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden coming of Christ come vpon them at vnwares: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

2 He thanketh God for them, that they are so steadfast in faith and good works, 6 and receiue the Gospel with such earnestnesse, 7 That they are an example to all others.

Paul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 Alwe giue thanks alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembering your effectuall faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of you hope in our Lord Iesus Christ in the sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloved brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our Gospel was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And we became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with sorrow of the holy Ghost,

7 So that we were as examples to all that beleue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia, and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is toward God spread abroad in all quarters, that wee need not to speake any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint under the crosse, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And their in obeying. 18 Hee exhorteth his absence, that hee could not come and open his heart to them.

FOR ye your selues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine.

2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were thankfully increased at Philippi (as ye know) we were bold in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much sitting.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by uncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs we so speake, not as they that please men, but God which trieth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer be flattered with words, as ye know, nor coloured with uncleannesse, God is record.

6 Neither sought we praise of men, neither of you, nor of others.

7 When we might haue bin schargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our godd will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but also our owne sonles, because ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and tranzile: for we laboured day and night, because wee would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 We are witnesses, and God also, how holily and iustly, and vnblaimeably we behaved our selues among you that beleue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euerie one of you (as a father his children)

12 That ye would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when ye receiued the word of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as the word of men, but as it is inward the word of God, which also worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Judea creeke Christ Iesus, because ye haue also endured the same things of your own

17 Forasmuch brethren, as we were kept from you for a season, concerning sight, but not in the heart, we enforced the more to see your face with great desire.
18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (if I could, at least once or twise) but Satan hindered vs.

CHAP. III.

2 He sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned to ward them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 And also prayed for them.

Wherefore since we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone.

2 And haue sent Timotheus our brother, and Minister of God, and our labourer, fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man should be moued with these afflictions: for yee your selues know, that we are appoynted therunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent him, that I might know of your faith, least the tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that yee haue good remembrance of vs alwaies, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you.

7 Therefore brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessity through your faith.

8 For now are we alone, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we recompense to God againe for you, for all the sor where-with wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,

10 Night and day praying exceedingly, that wee might see your face, and might accomplish that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ guide our iourney vnto you.

12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as wee doe toward you:

13 To make your hearts stable, and vnblicable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 He exhortheth them to holnesse, 6 Innocency, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the end of the resurrection.

And furthermore we beseech you brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Iesus, that ye increase more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs how ye ought to walke, and to please God.

2 For ye know what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Iesus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your sanctification, and that yee should abstaime from fornication,

4 That every one of you should know, how to possesse his vessel in holinesse and honour,

5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man oppresse or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all such things, as we also haue told you before time, and testified.

7 For God hath not called vs vnto uncleannes, but vnto holinesse.

8 We therefore that despise these things, despise not man, but God who hath euen giuen you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another:

10 Pea, and that thing verily ye do vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more,

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to meddle with your own business, and to work with your owne hands, as we commanded you,

12 That yee may behaue your selues honestly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are after ye, that ye follow not, euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if wee beleue that Iesus is dead, and is risen, euen so them which sleepe in Iesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this say we vnto you by the word of the Lord, that we which liue, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, shall not prevent them which sleepe.

16 For the Lord himselfe shall descend from heauen with a shout, and with the voyce of the Archangell, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.

CHAP. V.

1 He enserueth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lord, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 11 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

Be of the times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no neede that I write vnto you.
2 For ye your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the treauise vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a thiefe.

5 We are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darknesse.

6 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doo other, but let vs watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the means of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now wee beseech you, brethren, that ye know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you, 13 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 All desire you, brethren, admonish them that are burlie: comfort the feeble minded: beate with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Left the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because hee went to other places, rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally, commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willeth them to correct such charpely, as liue idly of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

Now wee beſeech you brethren, by the N Communion of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and by our aſſembling vnto him,

2 That ye be not ſuddenly reuoced from your minde, nor troubled, neither by ſpirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Chriſt were at hand.

3 Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day ſhall not come, except there come a departing fiſt, and that that man of ſinne be diſcloſed, even the ſonne of perdition,

4 Which is an aduerſarie, and exalteth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the myſterie of iniquitie doeth al-

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

I N writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to reach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him because of his youth. And therefore he doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared that professing the Law, they know not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, he so confesseth his ynworthines, that he sheweth to what worthines the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willett prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offing his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to every sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers, as ordinary meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what manner of men they ought to be, to whom the mystic of the Son of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of Religion, men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, hee teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hasty in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the due of seruants, the nature of false teachers, of vaine speculations, of coueousnes, of sith men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 He exhorteth Timotheus to wait upon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith with a good conscience, charity, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Eto doe that thou mayest command some that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heed to fables, and genealogies, * which are endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For * the end of the commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfeined.

6 From the which things some haue re-red, and haue turned vnto vaine tangling.

7 They would be Doctors of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake,
neither whereof they affirme.

8 * And we know that the Law is good,
if a man vse it lawfully.

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not given vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mo-

12 Therefore f I thanke him which hath made mee strong: that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for he counted mee faithfull, and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemers, and a persecuter, and an oppressour: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through unbelieve.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, & by all means worthy to be receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Notwithstanding for this cause was I receiued to mercie, that Iesus Christ should first shew on mee all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shall in time to come beleeue in Iesus vnto eternall life.

17 Now vnto the King euerlasting immortal, inuisible, vnto God only wise, be honour, and glory for euer, and euer, Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, sonne Timotheus, according to the prophecies, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest * fight a good fight,

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 Wherefore, 8 And how. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

I Charge thee therefore, that first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks be made for all men,

2 For kings, and for all that are in authority, that wee may lead a quiet and a peaceable life in all godlinesse and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

4 * Who wil that all men shall be saved, and come vnto the knowledge of the truth,

5 For there is one God, and one Mediator betweene God and man, which is the man Christ Iesus.

11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman to teach, neither to vsurpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.

13 For * Adam was first formed, then Eue.

14 * And Adam was not deceived: but the woman was deceived, and was in the transgression.

CHAP. III.

1 He declareth what is the office of Ministers, 11 and as touching their families. 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 And the principall point of the heavenly doctrine.

This is a true saying, * If any man desire the Office of a Bishop, hee desireth a worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be irreproachable, the husband of one wife, watchfull, sober, modest, harberous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all honesty.

5 For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall hee care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a yong scholler, lest he bring puffed vp, fall into the condemnation of the deuil

7 He must also be well reported of, euen of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuil.

8 Likewise must Deacons be honest, not was a signe of incontinencie. || Or, reuerence. e If it be requisite that a man should take care in governing his owne house, how much more are they bound to be careful, which shall gouerne the Church of God? f In the doctrine of faith. g Left being proud of his degree, he be likewise condemned as the deuil was, for lifting vp himselfe by pride. h That is, no man may haue any thing lusty to lay to his charge. i As being defamed, should become impudent, and doe much harme.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God. 6 Of true godlines, and contentation of mind. 9 Against couetisnesse. 11 A charge given to Timothee.

Let as many seruants as are vnder the lyeke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.

2 And they which haue belouing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, & beloued, and partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome words of our Lord Iesus Christ, & to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,

4 Hee is puffed vp, and knoweth nothing but doteth about * questions and strife of words, whereof commeth enuie, strife, ray-lings, euill surmisings,

5 Claine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, and detracers of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such separate thy selfe.

6 But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.

7 For wee bought nothing into the world, and it is certaine, that wee can carry nothing out.

8 Therefore when wee haue food and rayment, let vs therewith be content.

9 For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and hurtfull lusts, which drawe men in perdition and destruction.

10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and * perced themselves thorow with many sorowes.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godlinesse, faith loue, patience, and meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith: lay hold of eternal life, whereunto thou also art called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

13 I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession,

14 That thou keepe this commandment without spot, and blameable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 Which in due time he shall shew, that is * blessed and pryncer onely, the King of kings, and Lord of lords,

16 Who onely hath immortallitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, whom neuer man sawe, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

17 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they bee not high minded, and that they * trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy.)

18 That they doe good, and bee rich in good workes, and ready to distribute, and communicate,

19 Laying by in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.

20 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and * auoyde prophane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science, falsely so called,

The second Epistle of Paul to Timotheus

THE ARGUMENT.

The Apostle being now ready to consume the doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospel, and in the constant and sincere confession of the same : willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue as doe husbandmen, which at length receive the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care as souldiers doe, which onely seeke to please their captaine : shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospel which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently taking heede of contentions, cutious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie. Considering that the examples of H. meneus and Phileus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible : and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and estimation, hee sheweth that all that professe Christ are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good till Gods triall come : yet hee reserueth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, he declareth what abominable men, and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exercise himselfe diligently in the Scriptures both against the aduersaries, and for the vtilitie of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnesse and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the wil of God,^a according to the promise of life which is in Christ Iesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne : Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine ^b elders, with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindefull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou ^c stirre by the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of ^d mine hands.

7 For God hath not given to vs the Spirit of ^e feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 We not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner; but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saved vs, and called vs with an ^f holy calling, not according to our ^g works, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was given to vs through Christ Iesus before the ^h world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the ⁱ appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortallite vnto light through the Gospel,

11 * Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 Therefore I desire that thou suffer with me, as with a good fellowe, in my bonds, and in all things that shall come upon me. For these things I suffer, that I may get the crown of life, which is promised to them that love him that hath called us to this glory by his Gospel. I desire that thou suffer with me, as with a good fellowe, in my bonds, and in all things that shall come upon me. For these things I suffer, that I may get the crown of life, which is promised to them that love him that hath called us to this glory by his Gospel.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed : for I know whom I haue beleued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the whole some words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus. ^g Which is my selfe.

14 That ^h worthy thing which was committed to thee, keep through the holy Ghost, the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Demogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus : for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercy with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the whole some doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelity of Gods counsell, touching the salvation of vs, 19 and the marke thereof.

Thou therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of me, ^a by many witnesses, the same deliver to faithful men, which shall be able to ^b teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with the ^c affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strine for a mastership, he is not crowned, except he strine as bee ought to doe.

6 The husbandman ^d must labour before he receive the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the seede of David, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds : but the word of God is not ^e bound.

10 Therefore,

^a Being sent of God to preach what life which he had promised in Christ Iesus,

^b As 1.2.3. b Following the steps of mine ancessors, as Abraham, Isaac, Iacob and others, of whom I am come, and of whom I receiued the true religion by succession.

^c The gift of God is a certain lively flame kindled in our hearts, which Satan and the flesh labour to quench, and therefore we must nourish it, and stirre it vp.

strife.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not strive, but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, * suffering the euill men patiently,

25 Instructing them with meekenesse that are contrary minded, prouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the truth,

26 And || that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

2 For * men shall be louers of their owne selues, contentious, boasters, proud, enuied, spra-kers, disobedient to parents, vnthankfull, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce breakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

4 Traitors, headie, bie minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

5 Having a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therefore from such.

6 For of this sort are they which * creepe into houses, and leade captiue simple women laden with finnes, and ledde with diuines lustes,

7 Which women are euer learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 * And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moyses, so doe these also resist the truth, men of * corrupt mindes, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their inadnelle shall be euident vnto all men, as theys also was.

10 ¶ But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of liuing, * purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience.

11 Persecutions, and afflictions, which came vnto mee at * Antiochia, at Icontium, and at Lystra, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered
mee.

12 Dea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

13 But the euil men and * deceiuers shal ware worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceined.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, & art perswaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them:

15 And that thou hast known the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

16 * For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, & is profitable to teach, to improoue, to correct, and to instruct in righteousnesse,

17 That the * man of God may be * absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Satan stirred vp certaine, which went about not onely to ouerthrow the government of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselves to be Pastors:
others vnder pretext of Moses Law, brought in many trifles. Against these two sorts of men Paul ar-meth Titus: first teaching him what manner of ministers hee ought to chuse, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and among other things: he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euer mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or els doeth not obey, hee willett him to bee auoyded.

CHAP. I.

5 He aduertiseth Titus touching the government of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers 12 The nature of the Creteians, and of them which sare abroad Iewish fables and inventions of men.

Paul a servant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the truth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Under the hope of eternal life, which God that cannot lye, hath promised before the world began,

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our Saviour:

4 To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to rebresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordaine Elders in every citie, as I appointed thee.

6 If any be irreproachable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of ryot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must be irreproachable as Gods steward, not froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, not striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But barbarous, one that loueth goodnesse, wife, is righteous, holy, temperate, ding to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with whole some doctrine, & reprove them that say against it buke them sharply, that they may be found in the faith, minable and disobedient, and vnto euery

CHAP. II.

1 Hee commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves. 11 Through the benefit of the grace of Christ.

B At I speake thou the things which become a wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men bee sober, honest, discreet, found in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour as becometh holines, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine,
but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the young women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children.

5 * That they be discreet, chaste, keeping at home, good, and * subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things, shew thy selfe an en-sample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integrity,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reproued, that he which withstandeth, may bee ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 * Let seruants bee subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering againe,

10 Neither pickers, but that they shew al-god faithfullnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things,

11 * For the grace of God that bringeth saluation vnto all men hath appeared.

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lusts, and that we should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mightie God, and of our Saviour Iesus Christ.

14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that hee might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes.

15 These things speake and exhort, and rebuke with al * authoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authority, 9 Hee warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnpromisable questions, 12 Concluding with certaine private maters, 15 And salutations.

P At them in remembrance that they * be subject to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient and ready to euery
good worke,

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but soft, shewing al meeknesse vnto al men.

3 * For we our selues also were in times past brutish, disobedient, decciued, seruiling the lusts and diuers pleasures, liuing in ma-liciousnesse and enuy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But when the bountifullnesse a loue of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 * Not by the works of righteousness, which wee had done, but according to his mercy he saued vs, by the * washing of new birth, and the renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly through Iesus Christ our Saviour,

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I wil thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleued in God, might be carefull to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 * But stay foolish questions & genealogies, & contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnpromisable and daime.

10 * Rect him that is an heretike, after once or twise admonition.

11 Knowing that he that is such, is per-uerced, and * himselfe being damned of his owne selfe.

12 When I shall send Artemas vnto thee, or Tyticus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined there to Law, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lacke nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good workes for necessary vses, that they be not vnfruitfull.

you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness and a declaration of the same. For since passing the balenefesse of his matter, he flyeth as it were vp to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments procuring the duetie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

4 Hee reioyceth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him againe.

PALL a prisoner of Iesus Christ, & our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend & fellow helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow iouidier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I* giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heard of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoever good thing is in you* through Christ Iesus may be knowne.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore though I bee very bold in Christ to command thee that which is comenient, 9 Yet for lones sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am, euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my soune* Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue retained with mee, that in thy stead hee might haue ministered vnto me in the bonds of the Gospel.

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that hee therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer.

16 * Not now as a seruant, but above a seruant, euen as a brother beloved, specially to me: how much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee hath hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I doe not lay to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Wherefore also prepare mee lodging for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

e For he is thy seruant by condition, and also now the Lords: so that both for thine owne sake & for the Lords, thou oughtest to loue him.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines witnesseth, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowne, it were curiositie of our parte to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the author thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authority, although we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to persuade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that at his coming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Propheties, and therefore not only Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternal Priest, whereof all the Leviticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his coming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinneto be abolished, as hee proueth from the 7. Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 8. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentie and fife verse of the same Chapter: yea, and is the King to whome all things are subiect, as appeareth from that verse 25. to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore according to the examples of the old fathers, wec

we must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, we may steadfastly and courageously perseuere euen to the ende, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both bee thankfull to God, and duefull to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 aboute the Angels, 7 and of their office.

A sundry times and in diuers maners, God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom hee hath made heire of all things, by whom also hee made the worlde,

3 Who being the brightnesse of the glorie, and the ingaured forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie, in the highest places,

4 And is made to much more excellent then the Angels, inasmuch as hee hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels saith hee at any time, Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee: and againe, I will bee thy Father, and he shall be my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begot ten Sonne into the worlde, hee saith, And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, We make the Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquitie. Therefore God, euen thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse above thy fellows.

10 And, Thou Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou dost remaine: and they all shall waxe old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels saith hee at any time, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool:

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

15 Because hee was at the time appointed, declared to the world. 2 Sam. 7. 14. 1 Chron. 22. 10. Psal. 97. 7. Psal. 104. 4. h Hee compareth the Angels to the winde, which are here beneath as Gods messengers. Psal. 45. 6, 7. i The administration of thy kingdome is iust. k This is meant in that that the Worde is made flesh, and that the holy Ghost was pouered on him without measure, that wee may all receiue of him eueny one according to his measure. Psal. 102. 25. Psal. 110. 1. Math. 23. 44. 1. cor. 15. 25. chap. 10. 12.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to be assed at the infirmities, and low degree of Christ,

10 Because it was necessarie that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that hee might be like vnto his brethren.

V Therefore we ought diligently to giue heed to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any time we should let them slippe.

2 For if the worde spoken by Angels was steadfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

4 God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindful of him, or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a little inferior to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him aboute the workes of thine hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glorie, that he should consecrate the Prince of their saluation through afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren,

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy * through death, him that had the power of death, that is, the devil.

15 And that he might deliver all them, which for feare of death, were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For hee in no sort tooke the Angels, but he tooke the seed of Abraham.

17 Therefore in all things it became him to bee made like unto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faithfull high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the finnes of the people.

18 For in that he suffered, and was tempted, hee is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAP. III.

1 He requirerh them to be obedient unto the word of Christ, 3 who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleene, that they might haue eternall rest.

Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the Apostles and high Priest of our profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appoynted him, euen as Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as hee which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded of some man, and he that hath build all things, is God.

5 Now Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a servant, for a witness of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whole house we are, if we hold fast the confidence, and the reioicing of the hope unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the exhortation, according to the day of the tentation in the wilderness,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, provoked mee, and saw my works fouretyeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they known my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, ^b If I they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest at any time there bee in any of you an euill heart, and unfaithfull, to depart away from the living God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called * To day, lest any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the ende the beginning, wherewith we are upholden,

15 So long as it is layd, * To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he displeased fortyeeres: was he not displeased with them that sinned, * whose carkeises fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whome sware hee, that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in, because of unbeliefe.

CHAP. IIIII.

2 The word without faith is unprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of unbelieuers. 12 The nature of the word of God.

Lest ye feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should seeme to be departed.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleueed, doe enter into rest, as he sayd to the other, * As I haue twome in my warth, If ^b they shall enter into my rest: although ^c the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth, that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein for unbelieues sake:

7 Againe he appointed in ^d Dauid a certain day by ^e To day, after to long a time, say- ing, as it is layd, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ^f Iesus had giuen them rest, then would hee not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is lively, & mighty in operation, and shaper then any two edged sword, and senteth through, euery vnto the diuiding asunder of the soule and the spirit, and of the tynes, and the marrow, and is a di. cerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his light: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, (with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great high Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an high Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmitie, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of need.

CHAP. V.

5 He compareth Iesus Christ with the Levitical Priests, shewing wherein they either agree, or dissent.

1 Afterward he reproofeth the negligence of the Levies.

For every high Priest is taken from among men, and is ordained for men, things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both gifts, and sacrifices for sinnes.

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmities.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne, parties as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honoz vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honoz to be made the high Priest, but he that sayd vnto him, Thou art my Sonne, this day began I thee, &c. u. c. him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for ever after: the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer by prayers & supplications, with a strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high Priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom we haue many things to say, which are hard to be believed, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time ye ought to be teachers, yet haue ye needed againe that we teach you the first principles of the word of God: and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For euery one that tasteth milke, is inexperienced in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised, to discern both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproving them, and exhorteth them not to faint.

2 But to be steadfast and patient,

3 Forasmuch as God vs sure in his promise.

Therefore leaving the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisme, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucified againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth hearbs meet for them by whom it is blessed, receiveth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reposed, and is nere vnto cursing, whole and so to be burned.

9 But beloved, we haue persecuted our selues: better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that he should forget your worke, and labour of loue which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end,

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them, which through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, he swore by himselfe.

14 Saying, Surely I will abundantly bless thee, and multiply thee maruclously.

15 And so after that hee had rayped patiently, he enjoyed the promise.

Gen. 14. 18. a So called because that Moses maketh no mention of his parents or kindred, but as he had bin suddenly sent of God into the world to be a figure of Christ our euangelizing Priest, & shortly taken out of the world againe, so Christ as touching his humanity had no father, and concerning his diuinity no mother.

f Because there is no mention of his death.

confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the stables of his counsell, bound himselfe by an oath.

18 That by two immutable things wherein it is impossible that God should lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to hold fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which wee haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it is curren into that which is within the vail,

20 Whether the forerunner is for vs entered in, euen Iesus that is made an high Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

1 Which is in heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 11 Also Christs Priesthood with the Leuites.

1 The this Melchisedec was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things, who first is by interpretation King of righteousness: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without father, without mother, without kindred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither end of life: but is likened vnto the Soune of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider how great this man was vnto whom enen the Patriarch Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loines of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kindred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And heere men that die receiue tithes: but there hee receiue them, of whom it is witnessed, that hee liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiue tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Law was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aarons?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there bee a change of the Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertained vnto another tribe, whereof no man ferued at the Altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which Tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest.

16 Which is not made Priest after the Law of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the Commandement that went afore, is disannulled, because of the weaknes thereof, and vniprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfect, whereby we draw nerre vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath (for these are made Priests without an oath:

21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that sayd vnto him, The Lord hath sware, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much is Iesus made a surety of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath an euertlasting Priesthood.

25 Therefore, he is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an he Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmlesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those high Priests to offer vp Sacrifice, first for his owne finnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered by himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the oath that was since the Lawe, maketh the Soune, who is consecrated for euermore.

was first made after the Law was giuen: but because the declaration of that eternal oath was then reuealed vnto the world,

CHAP. VIII.

6 He prometh the abolishing as well of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Covenant by the spirituall and euertlasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New Covenant.

Now of the things which wee haue spoken, this is the summe, that wee haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the Throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuary,

The Law and the Priesthood are both of one condition: so that both Aarons and Moses Offe pertaine to Christ, which is Priest, and Law maker, h Which stood in outward and corporal ceremonies, Psal. 110. 4. chap. 5. 6.

and of the true ^b Tabernacle, which the Lord sight, and not ^c man.

3 For ^d every high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessity, that this man should haue something also to offer.

4 For he were not a Priest, if he were on the earth: seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts.

5 Also he came unto the patrene & shadow of heavenly things, as Moyses was warned by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle. * See, said he, that thou make all things according to the ^e patrene shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent office, inas much as he is the Mediator of a better ^f Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bin faultlesse, no place should haue bin sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them, hee saith, * Behold, the dayes will come, saith the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda, a new Testament:

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to lead them out of the land of Egypt: for they ^h continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their inrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith, A new Testament, hee hath abrogated the olde: now that which is disannulled and waxed old, is ready to banish away.

i Men shal not in the time of the Gospel be so ignorant as they were before, but shall know God much more perfectly through Christ.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished, 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

Then the first ^h Testament had also ordinances of religion, and a worldly sanctu-
2 For the first ⁱ Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holie place.

3 And after the ^j second vasis was the Tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all,
4 Which had the golden chender, and the Arke of the Testament overlaid with gold, and with golde, wherein the golden pot which had Manna was, and ^k Aarons rod that had budded and the ^l tables of the Testament.

5 And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the ^m Mercy seat: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the service.

7 But into the second went the ⁿ high Priest alone, once every yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ^o ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing.

9 Which was a figure for the time present wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make ^p holy, concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice.

10 Which only stood in meats & drincks, and cleares washings, and carnal ceremonies, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come as hee Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calves: but by his owne blood entered hee in once into the ^q holie place, and obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 For if the ^r blood of buls & of goates, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 how much more shall the ^s blood of Christ, which toucheth the eternall spirit offer himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from ^t dead works, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that though ^u death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the ^v former Testament, they which were called might recieue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a Testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the Testament.

17 For the ^w Testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it is aliue.

18 Wherefore, neither was the first ordeined without ^x blood.

Christ the true and eternall Priest offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure: the Leviticall Priest offered yeerely, and therefore did only represent the true holines: but Christ by one only sacrifice hath made holy for euer all them that beleue: 1 Outwardly in the sight of god 1 *1. d In the Hebrew it is, thou hast peered mine eare, thou hast row, that is, hast made me prompt and ready to heare: and in the Greeke, thou hast made mee a body, that is, to obey thee, which both tend to one purpose. e Or roll and folding: for in old time they vsed to fold bookes like rolles.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to the people according to the Law, hee tooke the blood of calves and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hyssope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people.

20 * Saying This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed unto you.

21 Moreover, he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministering vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessary, that the similitudes of heavenly things should be purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places that are made with hands, which are similitudes of the true Sanctuary: but is entered into very heaven, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entered into the holy place every yeere with other blood,

26 (For then must he haue often suffered, since the foundation of the world): but now in the end of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed unto men that they shall once die, and after that cometh the iudgement.

28 So Christ was once offered to take away the sinnes of many, and unto them that looke for him, shall hee appeare the second time without sinne unto salvation.

CHAP. X.

i The old Law had no power to cleanse away sin, so but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the good new of God thankfully, with patience and stedfast faith.

For the Law having the shadow of good things to come, and not the very substance of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, sanctifie the comers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of buls and goats should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a body hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings, thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come, (In the beginning of the booke it is written of mee) that I should doe thy will, O God.

8 About when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law.)

9 Then said he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God, hee taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will wee are sanctified, even by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministering, and oft times offereth one manner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth tareth till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath hee consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that hee had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them,

17 And their finnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and liuing way, which hee hath prepared for vs, through the vailles, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is sure the house of God,

22 Let vs draw nere with a true heart in assurance of faith, sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water:

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope without wavering (for hee is faithful that promised.)

24 And let vs consider one another, so prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that wee haue among our selues, as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because wee see that the day draweth nere.

26 * For if we sinne willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes.

27 But a fearful looking for of iudgement, and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

Now faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

3 * Through faith wee vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the word of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did^e appeare.

4 By faith Abel^a offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain: by^b the which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet^c speaketh.

5 By faith was^d *Enoch taken away, that he should not see death, neither was he found: for God had taken him away: for because he was taken away, hee was reported of him that he had pleased God.

8 By faithⁱ *Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he should afterwaerd receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither hee went.

9 By faith hee abode in the land of promise, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city hauing a foundation, whole builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith^j *Sara also receiued strength to conceiue seed, and was deliuered of a child, when she was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was^k dead, so many as the starres of the heie in multitude, and as the sand of the Sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these dyed in faith, and receiued not the promises, but saw them^l afarre off, and beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were^m strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had bene minded ofⁿ that country, from whence they came out, they had leasure to haue returned.

20 By faith, *Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith, *Jacob when hee was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and^q leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith^r *Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, gave commandment of his bones.

2 Looking vnto Iesus the authour and

fini her of our faith, who for the say that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, least yee should be wearied, and faint in your minids.

3 * Knowing that the tryng of your faith byngeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberallie, and reprocheth no man, and it shall bee giuen him.

6 * But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and carryed away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A // wauering minded man is unstable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of lowe degree reioyce in that he is // exalted:

10 Again, he that is rich, in that hee is made // lower: for as the floure of the grasse shall he // vanish away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heat, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beautie of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shal the rich man fade away in all his // wayes.

12 * Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tride, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is // tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot bee tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Ettenot, my deare brethren.

17 Every good // giuing, and every perfect gift is from above, & cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither // shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate he vs with the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let every man be // swift to heare, slow to speake,

Pro. 17. 27. k That is, prompt to learne.

and // slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the // righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluitie of malicioulnesse, and receiue with meekenesse the word that is // grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 * And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man that beholdeth his naturall face in a // glasse.

24 For when he hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect Law of libertie, and continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed // in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is // vaine.

27 Pure religion is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, & to keepe himselfe // vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich. 8 To be loving and mercifull. 14 And not to be swift of faith, where no need is: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

My brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring and in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stand thou here, or sit here vnder my footstole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euill // thoughts?

5 Weaken my beloued brethren, hath not God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which hee promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seate?

7 Doe not they blasphemie the // worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, which saith, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if ye regard the persons, ye commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressours.

of all.

11 For he that saith, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, sayd also, * Thou shalt not kill.
Now though thou doest none adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressor of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the ¹ Law of liberty.

13 For there shall be iudgement mercilesse to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie reloseth against iudgement.

14 What availleth it, my brethren, though a man saith he hath ¹ faith, when he hath no works? can the faith save him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be * naked and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace: warme your selves, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding yee give them not those things which are needfull to the body, what b. profit it?

17 Even so the faith, if it have no works is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith, and I have works: shew mee thy faith out of thy ¹ works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God:
thou doest well: the devils also beleeve it,
and tremble.

20 But wilt thou understand, O thou vaing man, that the faith which is without works, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through works, when hee offered Isaac his sonne upon the altar?

22 Seest thou not, that the faith wrought with his works: and through the works was the faith made ¹ perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham beleeved God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness:
and hee was called the friend of God.

24 Be se then how that of works a man is ¹ iustified, and not ¹ of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through works, when shee had received the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, even so the faith without works is dead.

My brethren, bee not ¹ many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee ¹ sinne all.
* If any man sinne not in ¹ word, he is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Behold, wee put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey us, and we turne about all their body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they bee so great, and are driven of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whether loener the gover-nour listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasterh of great things: behold, how great a ¹ thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a ¹ world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and ¹ stretch on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith blessed wee God even the father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figges? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweet.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conversation his works in meekenesse of wisdom.

14 But if yee have bitter envying, and strife in your hearts, rejoyce not, neither bee liars against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensuall, and devilish.

16 For where envying and strife is, there is sedition, and all manner of euill works.

17 But the wisdom that is from above, is first ¹ pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without iudging, and without hy-pocrisie.

18 And the ¹ fruit of righteousness is so-wen in peace, of them that make peace.

and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske and receiue not, because ye aske amillie, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the amillie of the world is the enemie of God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nere to God, and he will draw nere to you. Cleanse your hands ye sinners, and purge your hearts, ye wavering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and sorrow ye, and weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into heavinesse.

10 Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Law, and condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnst the Law, thou art not an observer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. Who art thou that iudget another man?

13 Goe to now ye that say, To day or to morrow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gain.

14 (And yet ye cannot tell what shall be to morrow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away.)

15 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, and, If wee liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, to him that knoweth how to doe wel, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

2 He threateth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 to beware of sweareing, 16 one to knowlege his fault to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

Goe to now, ye rich men: weepe, and mourne for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupt, and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold and siluer is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire.

* Ye haue heaped by treasure for the last dayes.

4 Behold, the hire of the laborers, which haue reaped your fieldes (which is of you kept back by fraud) cryeth, and the cryes of them which haue reaped, are entered into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse, Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receive the former, and the latter raine.

8 We ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nere.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye bee condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering adversity, of long patience, which haue spoken in the name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Job, and haue known what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merrie? Let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoint him with oyle in the name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiven him.

16 Acknowledge your fautes one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it bee without spot.

17 * Hellas was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for thre yeeres and six moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath converted him,

20 Let him know that he which hath converted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

THE ARGUMENT.

HExhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdom of Christ, wherunto we are called by the grace of God revealed to vs in his Sonne, and haue already recieued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent that this faith should not faile, seeing Christ contained and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselves. And because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer p.secutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserveth for the wicked. Last of all he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

2 Hee sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elct and regenerate in a liuely hope, 7 and how faith must be tryed, 10 that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old, 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, inasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Peter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell here and there throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, by through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vnderfild, and that fadeeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God, through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye trieste, though now for a season (if neede require) ye are in heavynesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might be found vnto your praise, and honour, and glorie, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene: and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleue, and reioyce with ioy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 And neede doth to require, when it pleaseth God to lay his crosse vpon his, for to draw them from earthly things, and make them partakers of his heavenly graces. 10 At his second coming.

9 Receiving the // end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that not vnto themselves, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Therefore, gird vp by the loynes of your minde: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which without respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vaine conuersation, received by the traditions of the fathers,

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lambe undefiled, and without spot.

20 Which was ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his meanes doe beleue in God that rayled him from the dead, and gaue him glory, that your faith and hope might

4 To whom yee come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God, and precious.

5 And ye as liuely stones be made a spirituall house, an holy * Priesthood to offer by spirituall sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, * Behold, I put in ^b Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and he that belieueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleeue. it is precious: but vnto them which be disobedient, * the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, * abstain from fleshy lusts, which fight against the soule,

12 * And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which beake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your * good workes which they shall see, glorifie

God in the day of the visitation.

13 * Submit your selues vnto all // manner ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be vnto the King, as vnto the superiour,

14 Vnto Souerour, as vnto them that are sent of him for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men,

16 As free, and not as hauing the liberty for a cloke of malitiousnesse, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: * loue // brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 * Seruants, be subiect to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and courteous, but also to the // irouard.

19 * For this is thankeworthy, if a man for // conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when yee be buffered for your faults, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, ye suffer wrong, and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For heremto ye are called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an ensample that ye should follow his steps.

22 * Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when he was reuiled, reuiled not againe, when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 * Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that we being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteousnesse: by whose stripes we were healed.

25 For ye were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the shepherd and bishop of your soules.

sinnes, the just for the vnjust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the 1 Oasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same minde, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should sine (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.
3 * For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnes, lusts, drunkennes, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abouting idelatries, 4 Wherein it is worthy to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same preached also vnto the dead, that they might be condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand.
Wee see therefore sober, and watching in Christ, blessed are ye: for the spirit of glory, and of God, resteth vpon you: which on their part, is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a mur-derer, or as a thief, or an euill doer, or as a

1 The duties of Pastours is to feede the flocke of Christ, and what reward they shall haue if they be diligent. 5 He exhorteth yong persons to submit themselves to the Elders, 8 To be sober, and to watch that they may resist the enemy.

THE ARGVMENT.

The effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectual grace towards men moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, and in increasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approve their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things. (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to bee the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophetes testified. And lest they should promise to themselves quietnesse by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose manners and trade he liuely set forth as in a table, aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his coming, and to preserue themselves vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

4 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen them all things appertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to see the corruption of worldly lusts, 10 To make their calling sure with good works, and fruits of faith.
14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to bee the true Sonne of God as he himselfe had scene vpon the mount.

Simon Peter a seruant, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the righteousness of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his ^b godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlinesse, ^c through the knowledge of him that hath called vs || vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them yee should be partakers of the ^e godly nature, in that yee flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence therevnto: to witte moreouer ^f vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge:

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Saviour.

c That is, salua-
tion.

d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.
|| Or, through his glory. e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that wee flee the corruption of the world, as Paul writeth, are dead to sin and are not in the flesh. f Godly manners.

a By Elders he vnderstandeth all them which

Church.

|| Or, Christ.
|| Or, which is committed vnto you,
or as much as in you lieth.

a In that he declared himselfe true and faithfull in accomplishing his promise by Christ.

6 And with knowledge, temperance; and with temperance, patience; and with patience, godliness:

7 And with godliness, brotherly kindness; and with brotherly kindness, love. 8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For hee that hath not these things, is blinde, and e cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde finnes.

10 Therefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election sure; for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entering shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into the eternall kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Therefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be established in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you up by putting you in remembrance,

14 Seeing I know that this my tabernacle, such as our Lord Jesus Christ hath bestowed me.

15 I will endeuour therefore alwayes, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we followed not * // deceivable fables, when we opened vnto you the power, and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but with our eyes wee saw his glorie.

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce wee heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 And hee haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which ye doe well that ye take heed, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the * day dawne, and the * day itare arrie in your hearts.

20 * So that ye first know this, that no prophesie in the Scripture is of * any priuate // motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

CHAP II.

He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

But there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon them selfe swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their // damnable wayes, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words make * merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not farre off, and their damnation they fetch not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into Hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darkness, to be kept vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * Noe the right person a preacher of righteousness, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrew them, and made them an example vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 * And deliuered iust Lot veyed with the vncleane conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vered his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to releeue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to bee punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despite the gouernement, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not * railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as * brute beasts, led with sensuality, and made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and that perishe through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receive the wages of vnrightheousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciouly for a season. Spots they are and blot: * delighting themselves in their deceivings, in railing with you,

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnbable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, curled children,

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of * Balaam, the sonne of Bolo, which loured the wages of vnrightheousnes, 16 But hee was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumb asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

were cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in error,

19 Promising vnto them liberty, and are themselves the seruants of corruption: for of whomsoever a man is overcome, euen vnto the same he is in bondage.

20 * For if they, after they haue escaped from the stichineesse of the world, through the knowledge of the Lord, and of the Saviour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein and overcome, the later end is worse with them then the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them, not to haue knownen the way of righteousness, then after they haue knownen it to turne from the holy Commandement giuen vnto them.

22 But it is come vnto them according to the true prouerbe, * The dog is returned to his owne vomite, and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the impietie of them which mocke at Gods promises. 7 After what sort the ende of the world shall be. 8 That they prepare themselves therunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of S. Paul, and the rest of the Scriptures, 18 concluding with eternal thanks to Christ Iesus.

1 This second Epistle I now write vnto you beloved, wherewith I liue vp and waite your pure minds,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes which were tolde before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saviour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there that come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly knowe not, that the heauens were of old, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the world that then was, perished, overflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserved vnto fire against the day of iudgement, & of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slacknelle) but is patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noyse, & the earth shall melt with heat, & the earth with the workes that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolved, what manner person ought ye to be in holy conversation and godlinesse,

12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with heat?

13 But wee looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that yee may bee found of him in * peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloved brother Paul according to the wisdom giuen to him, wrote to you,

16 As one that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are a hard to bee vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable peruerter, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing yee know these things before, beware lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Saviour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore Amen.

The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGUMENT.

AFTER that Saint Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doth consist only in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnesse, to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beloeue in Christ, unless he doth endeavour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which hinc being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiues.

CHAP. I.

1 True witness of the euerslasting word of God.

2 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne

1 That which was from the beginning, which wee haue heard, which wee haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and our hands haue handled of the word of life,

2 (For the life appeared, and we haue seene it, and haue witness, and shewe vnto you the eternall life, which was with the Father and appeared vnto vs.)

3 That, I say, which wee haue seene and heard declare wee vnto you, that yee may also haue fellowship with vs, and that

John 8. 12.

f The fruit of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the very purity and light, will not haue fellowship with them which he in sinne and darke- nesse.

g In an euill conscience, and without the feare of God.
h That is, Christ with vs, and we with our selues.

our fellowship also may be with the Father and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, & declare vnto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darkenesse, wee lie, and doe not truly:

7 But if we walke in the light, as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship one with another, and the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, wee deccie our selues, and truerh is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust to forgive vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all unrighteousnesse.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in vs.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our Advocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

M^y babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Advocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his Commandements.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a liar, and the truerh is not in him.

5 But he that keepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect in deede, hereby we know that we are in him.

6 He that lateth hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandement vnto you: but an olde commandement which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde commandement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenes is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse untill this time.

10 * He that loneth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, Fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you, young men, because ye haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because ye haue known the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue known him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as yet haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an ointment from him, that is holy, & ye haue known all things. 21 I haue not written vnto you because ye know not the truerh: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truerh.

22 Who is a liar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternal life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deccie you.

27 But the anointing which he receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, & it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye knowe that hee is righteous, know ye that he which doeth righteously, is borne of him.

g He nameth all the faithfull children, as he being their spirituall father, attributing to old men knowledge of great things, to young men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

C H A P. III.

1 The singular loue of God toward vs, 7 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold what loue the Father hath shewed Bon vs, that wee should bee called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloved, now are we the sonnes of God, but yet it doth not appeare what we shall be: and wee know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, such as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doth righteously, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Son of God, that he might looke the works of the deuill.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because hee is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowne, and the children of the deuill: whosoever doth not righteously, is not of God, neither he that loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that yee heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another.

12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne works were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Barrell not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death unto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoever hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 Whereby haue we perceined loue, that he layd downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 And whosoever hath this worldes good, & seeth his brother haue need, and shutteth by his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in deed and in trueth.

19 For thereby we know that we are of the trueth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 And whatloueuer we aske, we receiue of him, because wee keepe his commandments, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 This is then his Commandement, That we beloue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 For he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him: and hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit which he hath giuen vs.

C H A P. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

DEARELY beloved, beloue not euery spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall yee know the Spirit of God, Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, how that hee should come, and now already he is in the world.

4 Little children ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of trueth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that wee might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 No man hath seene God at any time, If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue seene and do testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to bee the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And wee haue knowne, and beleueed

The generall Epistle of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the truth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithful, and exhorteth them to persevere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

I A seruant of Iesus Christ, & brother of James, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and referred to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercy vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were before of olde ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnes, and denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, so far as much as ye once knew this, how that the Lord after that hee had deliuered the people out of Egypt, destroyed them afterward, which belieued not.

6 The Angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserved in euill chains vnder darkenesse vnto the iudgement of the great day.

7 As Sodome and Gomorthe, and the cities about them, which in like manner as they did, committed fornication, and followed strange flesh, are set forth for an example, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charitie when they feast with you, without all feare feeding themselves: clouds they are without water, carped about of windes, corrupt trees, without fruit, twise dead, and plucked vp by the rootes.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, soming out their owne shame: they are wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blacknesse of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam propheied of such, saying, Behold, the Lord commeth with thousands of his Saints.

15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked doodes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lustes: whose mouthes speake proud things, hauing mens persons in admiration, because of a vanitage.

17 But ye beloued, remember the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ.

18 How that they tolde you that there should be mockers in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lustes.

19 These are makers of sectes, fleshly, hauing not the Spirit.

20 But ye beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost,

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lord Iesus Christ vnto eternall life.

22 And haue compassion of some in putting difference:

23 And other saue with feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now vnto him that is able to keepe you that ye fal not, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with ioy,

25 That is, to God onely wise, our Saviour, be glory, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, both now and for euer, Amen.

The Reuelation of Iohn the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent Book, a summe of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, and encourage vs against others. Therein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinitie of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption, what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, and what things he reprobeth: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sing like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witness to the truth, who in despite of the beast and Satan will reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victory: neuertheless for a season God will permit this Antichrist, and strumper vnder color of faire speech, and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherefore he aduerteth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companie sing continuall praises: for the Lambe is married: the world of God hath gotten the victory: Satan that a long time was vntied, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetual glory. Reade diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

|| Or, declared to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

1 The cause of this revelation, 3 Of them that receive it. 4 John writeth to the seven Churches. 5 The Maiestie and Office of the Sonne of God. 20 The vision of the Candlesticks and Starres.

Eve a Revelation of Iesus CHRIST which God gave unto him to shewe unto his servants things which must shortly be done: which hee sent, and shewed by his Angel unto his servant John,

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is hee that readeth, and they that heare the words of this propheticke, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seven Churches which are in Asia, Grace bee with you, and peace from him, which is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is a faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the kings of the earth, unto him that loved vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his blood,

6 And made vs Kings and Priests vnto God, euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for evermore, Amen.

7 Behold he cometh with clouds, and every eye shall see him: yea, euen they which haue pierced him thorow: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I John, euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was ravisht in spirit on the Lords day, and heard behinde mee a great voice, as it had bene of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and send it vnto the seven Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyratra, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the voice

8 And unto the Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith hee that is first, and last, which was dead, and is alive.

9 I know thy workes and tribulation, and poverty (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them, which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, I shall come, to passe, but the death shall come of you into prison, that ye may be tried, and ye shall have tribulation ten dayes: be thou faithfull unto the death, and I will give thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith unto the Churches. He that overcometh, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus, write, These things hee which hath the sharpe sword sayth thus.

13 I know thy workes and where thou dwellest, even where Satans throne is, and thou kepest my name, and hast not denied my faith, neither in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast them that maintain the doctrine of Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the eyes of Israel, that they should eat of things sacrificed unto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 When thou hast them that maintain the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come unto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith unto the Churches. To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the Manna that is, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet like fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy love, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are more at the last than at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, that thou suffrest the woman Jezabel, which teacheth her selfe a Prophetsse, to teach and to deceiue my servants, to make them commit fornication, and to eat meates sacrificed unto idoles.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am he which search the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according unto your workes.

saith hee that is Holy and True, which hath the key of David, which openeth, and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open dore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themselves
Jewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I say, I will make them that they shall come and worship before thy feet, and shall know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliver thee from the houre of temptation which will come upon all the world, to trie them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly: hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy

12 Him that overcome, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee shall goe no more out: and I will write upon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the new Jerusalem, which commeth downe out of heaven from my God, and I will write upon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what

14 And unto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werest colde or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke-warre, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art woe-fuld, and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

about it with 24 Elders sitting upon them, and seue beasts, praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and behold, a dore was open in heauen, and the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediately I was raulshed in the spirit, and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one late upon the throne.

3 And he that sat, was to looke upon like vnto a Jasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like to an Emerauld.

4 And round about the throne were seue and twentie seates, and upon the seates I saw seue and twenty Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thundrings, & voyces, and there were seuen lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto crystal: in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were seue beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a lyon, and the second beate like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the four beastes had each one of them six wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and which is,
and which is to come.

9 And when those beastes gave glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which lieth for euer and euer,

10 The seue and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him, that lieth for euer

Chap. 5. 13.

II Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy wils sake they are, and haue bene created.

CHAP. V.

Hee seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8. 14 And therefore the foure beasts, the 24 Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefits.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that satte upon the throne, ^a a Booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with ^b seven seales,

2 And I saw a strong Angel, which preached with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to looke the Seales thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders said vnto mee, Weepe not: beholde, the Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid hath obtained to open the Booke, and to looke the seauen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood ^a a Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had ^b seven hornes, and ^c seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came, and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that satte upon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beasts, and the foure and twentie Elders^d fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vials full of obours, which are the ^e prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast^f redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD ^g Kings and Priests, and we shall^h reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beasts and the Elders, and there were ⁱ thousand thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voyce, Who is worthy is the^j Laybe that was killed, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, & strength, and honour, and glory, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Prayse, and honour, and glory, and power be: vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the^k lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell down, and worshipped him that sitteth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the six seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that thou consistest a generall prophesie to the end of the world.

AFTER I beheld when the Lambe had opened one ^a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beasts say, as it were the ^b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was ^c a white horse, and he that^d satte on him had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might overcome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was ^e red, and power was giuen to him that^f satte thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, ^g a blacke horse, and he that satte on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beasts say, ^a A measure of wheate for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, ^b a pale horse, and his name that satte on him, was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the fifth seale, I saw vnder the altar ^c the soules of them that were killed for the word of GOD, and for the testimony which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true, dost thou tudge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellow seruaunts, and their brethren that should be killed euery one as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the sixth seale, and loe, there was a great^d earthquake, and the^e sunne was as blacke as sackcloth of haire, and the^f moone was like blood.

^a The opening of the seale is the declaration of Gods will, and the executing of his iudgements.

^b Signifying, that there were marueilous things to come.

^c The white horse signifieth innocencie, victory, and felicitie, which should come by the preaching of the Gospel.

^d He that rideth on the white horse, is Christ.

^e Signifying the cruel wailes that ensued when the Gospel was refused.

^f Who was Satan.

^g This signifyeth an extreme famine & want of all things.

^h The Greeke word signifieth that measure which was ordinarily giuen to seruants for their portion or share of meate for one day.

ⁱ Which amounted to about foure pence halfe penny.

even cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loude voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Alloe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were given two wings of a great Eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, into her place, where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed by the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandments of God, and haue the testimony of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast deceiveth the reprobate, 2. 4. 12 And is confirmed by another beast, 17 The privilege of the beasts marke.

And I saw a beast rise out of the Sea, having seven heads, and ten hornes, and upon his heads were ten crownes, and upon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I saw, was like a leopard, and his feet like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, & his throne, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gave power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was given vnto him a mouth that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was given vnto him to doe two and fortie moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was given vnto him to make war with the Saints, and to overcome them, and power was given him ouer euery kind, red, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captivity, hee shall goe into captivity: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming by out of the earth which had two hornes like the Lambe, but hee spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men.

14 And hee deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should speake, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And he made all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, to receiue

two swords caried before him. So Boniface the eighth which first ordained the Iubile, shewed himselfe one day in apparell as a Pope, and the next day in harnesse as the Emperour, and the two hornes in the Bishops mitre are signes hereof. He spake deuillish doctrine, accused Gods word of imperfection, set vp mans traditions, and spake things contrary to God and his Word. For the Pope in ambition, cruelly, idolatry and blasphemy did follow and imitate the ancient Romanes. He brought them to idolatry, and astonished them with the name of that holy Empire (as heermeth it.) The man of sinne, according to the operation of Satan shal be with all power, signes and miracles of lies, 2. Thessal. 2. 9, 10. Before the whole Empire, which representeth the first beast, and is the image thereof. For the first Romane Empire was as the patterne, and this second Empire is but an image & shadow thereof. a Here is the description of the Romane empire, which standeth in cruelty and tyrannie. b Meaning Rome, because it was first gouerned by seven Kings or Emperours after Nero, and also is compassed about with seven mountains. c Which signifie many prouinces. d By these beasts are signified the Macedonians, Perlians and Caldeans, whome the Romanes overcame. e That is, the deuill. f This may be vnderstood of Nero, who moued the first persecution against the Church, and after slew himselfe, so that the familie of the Cæsars ended in him. g For the Empire was established againe by vespasian. h By receiving the statutes, ordinances, decrees, ceremonies, and religion of the Romane Empire.

c Whereby he renounceth Christ: for as faith, the word, and the Sacraments are the Christians marks: to this Antichrist will accept none but such as will approve his doctrine: so that it is not enough to confesse Christ, and to beleue the Scriptures, but a man must subscribe to the Popes doctrine: moreover, their churismatories, greting, vowes, othes, and shewings are signes of this marke, inasmuch as no nation was accepted that had not many of these marked beastes. d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstood by many reasons: for about 666 yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist beganne to bee manifest in the world: for these characters xxiij. figure 666, and this number is gathered of the small number Armenus, which in the whole make 666, and signifie Lactinius, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vetch in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof he contemneth the Hebrew and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italy in old time was called Lactinius, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby he noteth of what countrey chiefly he should come.

a Iesus-Christ ruleth in his Church to defend and comfort it, though the beast rage neuer so much: and seeing Christ is present euery with his Church, there can be no vicar: for where there is a vicar, there is no Church.

b Meaning, a great and ample Church.

c Which was the marke of their cleauing to wit, their faith.

d Signifying that the number of the Church should be great, and that they should speake boldly, and aloud, & so glorifie the Lord. e None can praise God but the elect whom he hath bought. f By whoredome: and vnder this vice he comprehendeth all other: but this is chiefly meant of idolitry, which is the spiritual whor dome. g For their whole delight is in the Lambe Iesus, & they loue none but him. h Whom cleaue h that the faichfull ought to liue iustly and holily: that they may be the first fruits, in an excellent sort of the Lord. i Forasmuch as their finnes are pardoned, and they are clad with the iustice of Christ. k By this Angel are meant the true ministers of Christ which preach the Gospel faithfully.

7 * Saying with a loude voyce, ¹ Feare God, and giue gloe to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made ² heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, ³ It is fallen, it is fallen, ⁴ Babylon the great city: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the ⁵ wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third Angel followed them, saying with a lowde voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and hee shall be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe:

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiue the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of ⁶ Saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 When I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, ⁷ Write, ⁸ Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die in the ⁹ Lord. Then ¹⁰ I sayd the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white ¹¹ cloude, and vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a lowde voyce to him that sat on the cloude, ¹² * Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloude, ¹³ thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cryed with a lowde crie to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, ¹⁴ Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the cluteres of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

y That is, a certain place appointed, and not in the heaven, z By this simile he declarerh the horrible confusion of the tyrants and infidels, which delight in nothing but warres, slaughters, persecutions and effusion of blood.

CHAP. XV.

1 Seven Angels have the seven last plagues. 3 The seven of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of Gods wrath.

a This is the fourth vision, which containeth the doctrine of Gods judgements for the destruction of the wicked and comfort of the godly.

b Meaning, an infinite number of Gods ministers, which had infinite manners and sorts of punishments.

c Signifying this brittle & inconsistent world mixt with fire, that is, troubles and afflictions, but the Saints of God overcome them all, and sing divine songs unto God, by whose power they get the victory.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 And what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

a This was like the sixth plague of Egypt, which was scorpions and boyles, or pecks: and this, to reigne commonly among Christians, Monks, Friars, Nunnies, Priests, and such filthy vermin which beare the marke of the beast.

2 And the first went, and poured out his brall upon the earth: and there fell a noy- some and a grievous * dye upon the men, which had the marke of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel poured out his brall upon the Sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living thing died in the Sea.

4 And the third Angel poured out his brall upon the rivers and fountains of waters, and they became * blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Lords, thou art iust. Which art, and Which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Even so, Lord, God Almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel poured out his brall upon the Sunne, and it was given unto him to torment men with a heate of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heate, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues, and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel poured out his brall upon the thron of the beast, and his kingdom was darke, and they * gnew their tongues for sorrow.

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixth Angel poured out his brall upon the great river Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should bee prepared.

13 And I saw three * unclean spirits like frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of * devils, working miracles, to goe unto the Kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 * Behold, I come as a thiefe. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walke naked, and men see his filthinesse.)

16 And they gathered them together into a shew their furie, rage and blasphemy against God, when the light of his Gospel shal shine. 1 By Eu, brate, which was the strength of Babylon, is meant the riches, strength, pleasures and commodities of Rome the second Babylon, which the faithful which are the true Kings and Priests in Christ, have taken away by disclosing their wicked deceit. m That is, a strong number of this great devil the Popes ambassadors, which are ever crying and creaking like frogges, and come out of Antichrists mouth, because they shoud speake nothing but lies, and vse all manner of craftie deceit to maintaine their rich Euphrates against the true Christians.

r This is the last judgement, when Christ shall come to destroy the wicked and deliver his Church.

s Meaning, the whole number of them that shall call themselves Christians whereof some are so in deed, some are Papists, and vnder pretence of Christ serue Antichrist, and some are Neuters, which are neither on the one side nor on the other. t Signifying all strange religions, as of the Iewes, Turkes, and others, which then shall fall with that great whore of Rome, and be tormented in eternall paines. Iere 25, 15.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sins and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe.

a Which was Christ Iesus, who will take vengeance on this Romish harlot.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine words, doctrines of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreies.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome, which is the Papistrie, whose cruelty and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.

e Full of idolatry, superstition, and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, vers. 18. whose beauty onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to a good, but these elect.

place called in Hebrew q Armageddon.

17 And the seventh Angel powred out his viall into the aire: and there came a loud voyce out of the Temple of heauen from the thron, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voyces, and thunders, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen to mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came in remembrance before God: to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great hail, like talents, out of heauen vnto the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

22 And there fell a great hail, like talents, out of heauen vnto the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

23 And there fell a great hail, like talents, out of heauen vnto the men, and men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the hail: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

Then there came one of the seven Angels, which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnation of the great whore that sitteth vpon many waters.

24 And I saw her committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

25 So he caried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seven heads and ten hornes.

26 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of gold in her hand, full of her abominations, and herselfe full of her fornication.

27 And in her forehead was a name written, A mystery, great Babylon, the mother of whoredomes, and abominations of the earth.

28 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of Saints, & with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great maruile.

29 Then the Angel said vnto me, Wherefore marvellest thou? I will shew thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seven heads, and ten hornes.

30 And he caried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemie, which had seven heads and ten hornes.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder, (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the mind that hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a short space:

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the might, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one mind, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee sayd vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent for to giue their kingdom vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

1. Pet. i. 19. n That is, the things which shou loudest best.

o And to shew signes of great sorrow.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, ^a Go out of her my people, that ye be not partakers in her finnes, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her finnes are ^a come by vnto heauen, & God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 ^a Reward her, euen as the hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes; and in the cup that shee hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 In as much as shee glorified her selfe, and flued in pleasure, so much giue you to her torment & sorrow: for shee saith in her heart, ^a I fe beinge a queene, and am no ^a widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death and sorrow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will conuene her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication: and flued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burnings.

10 And shall stand asafare off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of finest linnen, and of purple, and of silke, and of scarlet, and of all manner of thyne ^a wood, and of all vessels of yvorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, & of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamom, and odours, and oymments, and frankincense, and wine, and oyle, and fine floure, and wheate, and beastes, and sheepe, and hoxes, and ^a charrets, and seruants, and ^a soules of men.

14 (And the ^a apples that thy soule tasted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, & thou shalt finde them no more.)

15 The merchants of these things which were ware rich, shall stand asafare off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and whosoever traualle on the sea, shall stand asafare off,

18 And cry, when they see the smoke of her burnings, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry weeping, & wayling, and say, Alas,

alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had shippes on the sea by her || colli-

nelle: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath ^a giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angell tooke vp a stone, like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, & shall be ^a found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftsman, of whatsoeuer craft he bee, shall be found any more in thee, and the found of a millstone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shall bee heard no more in thee: for thy ^a merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceived all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are given vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

And after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, ^a Hallelu iah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power bee to the Lord our God.

2 For ^a true and righteous are his iudgements: for hee hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants (shed by her hand).

3 And againe they said, Hallelu iah: and her ^a smoke role vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Eldees, and the foure ^a beastes fel doونه, and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, ^a Amen, Hallelu iah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thundrings, saying, Hallelu iah, for our Lord God Almighty hath reigned.

7 Let vs bee glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of the Lambes is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arayed with pure fine linnen, and shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousness of the Saints.

come downe from heauen because all the benefits that the Church hath, they acknowledge it to come of God through Christ.

And I saw a new heauen, and a new earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy Citie new Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sat vpon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new: and he said vnto mee, Write: for these words are faithful and true.

6 And he said vnto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, I will giue to him that is athirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, and unbelieuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, & sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall haue their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with mee, saying, Come, I will shew thee the bride, the Lambe's wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great and an high mountain, and he shewed me the great Citie, holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Jasper stone, cleare as Crystal.

12 And had a great wall and his, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names writtten, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On y^e East part the were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the South side three gates, and on the West side three gates.

14 And the wall of the Citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the citie lay foursquare, and the length is as large as the bredth of it, and he measured the citie with y^e reed, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, & the bredth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, forty and four cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Jasper: the second of Sapphir: the third of a Chaledonie: the fourth of an Emeraud:

20 The fift of a Sardonie: the first of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaz: the tenth of a Chrysolopaius: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the streete of the citie is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 And the citie hath no neede of the sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saved, shall walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

f Chap. 19. 10.
g Now this is the second time that he suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the person, which as to admonish vs of our infirmities and readinesse to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his spirit.

h This is not then as the other prophecies which were commanded to be hid till the time appointed, as in Daniel 12. 4. because that these things should bee quickly accomplished, and did now begin.

A And he shewed mee a pure & riuier of water of life cleare as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the ^b mides of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuier, was the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of fruits, and gaue fruite euery ^c moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the ^d nations with.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shalbe in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, & his name shalbe in their foreheads.

5 * And there shalbe no ^e night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the Sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And hee said vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophetic of this booke.

8 And I am John, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed mee these things.

9 But he said vnto mee, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 And he said vnto me, * Seale not the wordes of the prophetic of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vnjust, let him be vnjust still:

and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am * Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the citie.

15 For without shalbe dogs and inchanters, and whozenongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loueth, or maketh lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testify vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the rore and the * generation of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

17 And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, * Come: and let him that is athirst, come: and * let whosoever will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophetic of this booke, * If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophetic, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, & from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, * Surely I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

p Seeing the Lord is at hand, we ought to be constant and reioice, but we must beware we esteeme not the length or shortnesse of the Lords comming by our owne imagination, 2. inspire: That in all truth and godlinesse

we may haue true desire.

Thou art the very Comforter
in all wee and distresse,
The heauenly gift of God most high,
which no tongue can expresse:
The fountaine and the liuely spring of ioy celestall,
The fire so bright, the loue so cleere,
and unction spirituall.

Thou in thy gifts art manifold, whereby Christs Church doth stand,
In faithfull hearts writing thy law,
the finger of Gods hand.
According to thy promise made thou giuest speec, & grace, That through thy helpe the praise of God
may stand in euery place.

The humble sute of a sinner.

O Lord dissolve the bands,
And make the knots of peace and loue thorowout all Christian lands.

Grant vs (O Lord) through thee to know the Father most of might,
That of his deare beloved Sonne
we may attaine the light.
And that with perfect faith also we may acknowledge thee
The Spirit of them both, alway one God in persons thre.

Laude and praise be to the Father,
and to the Sonne equally,
And to the holy Spirit also,
one God coeternall.
And pray we that thy only Sonne boughte his Spirit to send To all that do profess his Name, vnto the worlds end.

The Humble sute of a sinner. M.

O Lord of whom I do depend, behold my carefull hart, And when thy will and pleasure is release me of my heart. Thou seest my sorowes what they are, my griefe is knowne to thee: And there is none that can remove or take the same from me:

But only thou, whose aid I see,
whose mercy still is prest
To ease all those that come to see for succour and for rest.

And sith thou seest my restlessnes,
my teares and grievous groes, Attend vnto my sute, O Lord,
marke well my plaint and moes.

For sinne hath so inclosed me,
and compass me about,
That I am now remedlesse,
if mercy helpe not out.

For moztall man can not release or mitigate this paine,
But enen thy Christ, my Lord & God, which for my finnes was slain.

Whose bloody wounds are yet so sic,

though not with mortall eye,
Yet do thy Saines behold them all,
and so I trust shalt I.
Though tunc doth hinder me a while,
when thou shalt see it good:
I shall enjoy the sight of him,
and see his wounds and blond.

And as thine Angels and thy Saines,
do now behold the same:
So trust I to possesse that place,
with them to praise thy name.
But while I live here in this vale,
where sinners do frequent:
Assist me ever with thy grace,
my finnes still to lament.

Least that I tread in sinners trace,
and give them my consent:
To dwell with them in wickednesse,
whereto nature is bent.
Onely thy grace must be my stay,
lest that I fall downe flat:
And being downe then of my selfe, can not recover that.

Wherefore this is yet once againe,
my suite and my request:
To grant me pardon of my finnes,
that I in thee may rest.
Then shall my heart, my tongue and voice,
be instruments of praise:
And in the Church and house of Saines sing Psalmes to thee alwayes.

Venite exultemus. Plal. xci

Sing this as the Benediction

O Come and let vs now reioice
And sing unto the Lord:
And to our onely Saviour
Also with one accord.
O let vs come before his face,
With inward reverence:
Confessing all our former finnes
And that with diligence.

To thanke him for his benefites, Alwayes distributing:
Wherefore to him right ioyfully,
In Psalmes now let vs sing.
And that because that he alone
Is Lord magnificent
And eke about all our Gods,
A king omnipotent.

His peop both he not forsake,
At any tye or tide:
And in his handes are all the coast:
Of all t world so wide.
And th his loving countenance,
He looth every where:
And do behold the tops of all,
The mountaines far and neare.

The scand all that is therein
Are his, he them made:
And eke he hath fashioned,
The earth hich doth not fade.
O come therefore and worship him,
And downefore him fall:
And let vs kneele before the Lord,
Whom he hath made vs all.

Te Deum.

He is our God, our Lord and king,
And we his people are:
His flocke and sheepe of his pasture,
In whom he taketh care.

This day if ye will heare his voice
Yet harden not your heart:
As in the bitter murmuring,
When ye were in desert.

Which thing was for their negligence,
Committed in the time:
Of trouble in the wilderness,
A great and grievous crime.

Whereas your fathers tempted me,
And tryed me every day:
They proued me and saw my workes
What I could doe or say.

These fortie yeeres I haue been grieved
With all this generation:
And euermore I sayd they erred,
In their imagination.

Whether with their hearts were soze combred
Long time and many dayes:
Wherefore I know assuredly,
They haue not knowen my wayes.

To whom I in mine anger swoze,
That they should not be blest:
Nor see my ioy celestiall,
Nor enter in my rest.

Gloria patri.

All laud and praise be to the Lord,
O that of might art most,
To God the Father and the Sonne,
And to the holy Ghost.
As it in the beginning was,
For euer heretofore,
And is now as this present time,
And shall be euermore.

The Song of S. Ambrose called Te Deum.

Worship the Lord, we knowledg Thee, the onely Lord to be, and as eter-nall father, all the earth doth worship thee. To thee all Angels cry, the heauens and all the powers therein, To thee Cherub and Seraphin
they do not sin.

The Song of the three Children.

The song of Zacharias, called Benedictus.

The only Lord of Israel, We pray'd

euermore : For though his visitation

And mercy kept in store, His people now

he hath redeem'd, That long hath bene in thall : And spread abroad his saving health, Upon his seruants all.

In Dauids house his seruant true,
According to his mind :

And also his annointed king
As we in Scripture find.

As by his holy Prophets all,
Of times he did declare,
The which were since the world began
His wayes for to prepare.

That we might be deliuer'd,
From those that make debate :
Our enemies and from the hands,
Of all that do vs hate.

The mercy which he promised,
Our fathers to fulfill :
And thinke vpon his covenant made,
According to his will.

And also to performe the oath,
Which he before had sworne :
To Abraham our father deare,
For vs that were forlorne.

That he would giue him selfe for vs,
And vs from bondage bring :
Out of the hands of all our foes,
To serue our heavenly king.

And that without all manner feare,
And eke in right confidence :
And also for to lead our lines,
In steadfast holinesse.

And thou O child which now art borne
And of the Lord cleet :
Shalt be the Prophet of the highest,
His wayes for to direct.

For thou shalt goe before his face,
For to prepare his wayes :
And also for to reach his will,
And pleasure all thy dayes.

To giue them knowledge howe that their Saluation is nere :
And that remission of their sinnes,
Is through his mercy nere.

After by the day spring from on high,
To come vs for to visite :

Magnificat.

And those for to illuminate
Which doe in darknesse sit.
To lighten those that shadow'd be,
With death and eke opprest :
And also for to guide their feet,
The way to peace and rest.

The song of blessed Mary called

Magnificat.

My soule doth magnifie the Lord, my Spirit eke euermore : Reioyeth in the Lord my God, which is my Saviour.

And why : because he did regard, And gaue respect vnto, So base estate of his handmaide, And let the mighty goe.

For now behold all nations,
And generations all,
From this time forth for euermore
Shall me right blessed call.

Because he hath me magnified
Which is the Lord of might :
Whose name be euer sanctified,
And pray'd day and night.

For with his mercy and his grace,
All men he doth enflame :
Throughout all generations,
To such as feare his name.

He shew'd strength with his great arme
And made the proud to start,
With all imaginations,
That they beare in their heart.

He hath put downe the mighty ones
From their supernall seat :
And did exalt the mecke in heart,
As he hath thought it meet.

The hungry he replenished,
With all things that were good :
And through his power he made the rich
Of times to want their food.

And calling to remembrance,
His mercy euery deale :
Hath holpen vp assistantly,
His seruant Israel.

According to his promise made,
To Abraham before :
And to his seed succedimely,
To And for euermore.

The Symbole or creed of Athanasius, called Quicunque uult.

The Catholike beleefe is this,
that God we worship one In Trinitie, and Trinitie in Unitie alone.
So as we neither age confound,

Quicunque uult.

the persons of the three:
For yet the substance whole of one in sunder parted be.

One person of the Father is,
another of the Sonne:
Another person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
Of Father, Sonne, and holy Ghost, but one the Godhead is:
Like glory coeternall eke,
the Diuinitie likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree:
And such also we do beleene,
the holy Ghost to be.
Vncreate is the Father, and vncrate is the Sonne:
The holy Ghost vncrate, so vncrate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is, incomprehensible Sonne, Incomprehensible also is the holy Ghost of none.
The Father is eternall, and the Sonne eternall so:
And in like sort eternall is the holy Ghost also.

And yet though we beleene, that each of these eternall be:
Yet there but one eternall is,
and not eternals three.
As in incomprehensible, we ne yet vncrate thee,
But one incomprehensible, one vncrate hold to be.

Almighty so the Father is,
the Sonne almighty so:
And in like sort almighty is the holy Ghost also.
And albeit that every one of these almighty be:
Yet there but one almighty is,
and not almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also:
Yet are there not three Gods at all,
but one God and no more.
So likewise Lord the Father is,
and Lord also the Sonne:
And Lord the holy Ghost, yet are there not three Lords but one.

For as we are compelled to grant,
by Christian veritie:
Each of the persons by himselfe,
both God and Lord to be.
So Catholike religion,
forbidderh vs alway:
That either Gods be three, or that their Lords be three to say.

Of none the Father is, nor made,
ne create, nor begot:
The Sonne is of the Father, not creat, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghost is of them both,
the Father and the Sonne:
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,

The Symbole or Creed of Athanasius.

But doth proceed alone,

So we one Father hold, not three,
one Sonne also not three,
One holy Ghost alone, and not three holy Ghosts to be.
None in this Trinitie before, nor after other is:
No greater any then the rest,
no lesser be likewise.

But every one among themselves,
of all the persons three:
Together coeternall all,
and all coequall be.
So Unitie in Trinitie,
as it is said before:
And Trinitie in Unitie,
in all things we adore.

Therefore what man soever that,
salvation will attaine:
This faith touching the Trinitie, of force he must retaine.
And needfull to eternall life,
it is that every might:
Of the incarnating of Christ,
our Lord welcome aright.

For this the right faith is, that we believe and eke doe know:
That Christ our Lord the Sonne of God, is God and man also.
God of the Fathers substance got,
before the world began:
And of his mothers substance borne,
in world a very man.

Both perfect God and perfect man
in one, one Jesus Christ:
That both of reasonable soule,
and humane flesh subist.
Touching his Godhead equall with, his Father God is he:
Touching his manhood, lower than his Father in degree.

Who though he be both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is he but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One not by turning of Godhead,
into the flesh of man:
But by taking manhood to God,
this being one began.

All one not by confounding of the substance into one:
But onely by the unitie,
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man, is but one Christ likewise.

Who suffered for to save vs all,
to hell he did descend:
The third day rose againe from death,
to heaven he did ascend.
He sits at the right hand of God,
the almightie Father there:
From thence to judge the quick and dead again he will retorne.

The Lamentation.

At whose retorne all men shall rise,
with bodies new restor'd:
And of their owne works they shall give account vnto the Lord.
And they vnto eternall life,
shall goe that haue done well:
Who haue done ill shall goe into eternall fire to dwell.
This is the Catholike believe,
who doth not faithfully Believe the same, without all doubt he saved cannot be.
To Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glory be therefore:
As in beginning was is now,
and shall be evermore.

The Lamentation of a Sinner. M.

O Lord turne not away thy face, From him that lieth prostrate: Lamenting fore his sinfull life, Before thy mercy gate. Which gate thou openest wide to those that do lament their sin. Shut not that gate against me Lord, But let me enter in.

And call me not to mine accounts,
How I haue liued here:
For then I know right well (O Lord)
how vile I shall appeare.
I need not to confesse my life,
I am sure thou canst tell
What I haue been and what I am
I know thou knowest it well.

O Lord thou knowest what things be past
And eke the things that be:
Thou knowest also what is come,
Nothing is hid from thee.

Before the heauens & earth were made Thou knowest what things were then:
As all things else that haue been since,
Among the sonnes of men.

And can the things that I haue done,
Be hidden from thee then?
Yea, nay thou knowest them all (O Lord)
Where they were done and when.
Wherefore with teares I come to thee
To beg and to entreat:

The Lords prayer.

Enen as the child that hath done euill,
And feareth to be beate.

So come I to thy mercy gate,
Where mercy doth abound.
Requiring mercy for my sinne,
To heale my deadly wound.

O Lord I need not to repeat,
What I doe begge or craue:
Thou knowest O Lord before I aske,
The thing that I would haue.

Very good Lord mercy I aske,
This is the totall summe:
For mercy Lords is all my sute:
Lord let thy mercy come.

The Psalmes of Dauid in Meeter.

Beauwiv. Psal j. T. S.

This Psalme is set first as a preface to exhort all god-ly men to studie and meditate the heauenly wise-dome: For they be blessed that doe so: but the wicked contemners thereof at length shall come to misery.

The man is blest that hath not bent to wicked rede his eare: Nor led his life as sinners doe, nor late in sconers chayre. 2 But in the law of God

the Lord doth set his whole delight:

And in that law doth exercise himselfe

both day and night.

3 He shall be like the tree that groweth fast by the riuers side:

Which bringeth forth most pleasant fruit,
in her due time and tide.

4 Whose leafe shall neuer fade nor fall,
but flourish, fill and stand:

Then so all things shall prosper well,
that this man takes in hand.

6 So shall not the vngodly men,
they shall be nothing so:

But

But as the dust which from the earth,
the winde drives to and fro.
6 Therefore shall not the wicked men,
in iudgement stand upright;
Nor yet the liars with the iust, shall come in place of light.

For why, the way of godly men,
vnto the Lord is knownen:
And eke the way of wicked men,
shall quite be ouerthrowen.

Quare firmuerunt. Psal. ij. T. S.

David reioyceth that albeit his enemies and worldly power rage, God will aduance his kingdom euen to the farthest end of the world. Therefore hee exhorteth Princes humbly to submit themselves vnto the same. Herein is signified Christ and his kingdom

Sing this as the first Psalme.

Why did the Gentiles tumults raise,
what rage was in their braine?

Why did the Jewish people muse,
seeing all is but vaine.

2 The kings and rulers of the earth,
conspire and are all bent:

Against the Lord and Christ his Sonne, which he amongst vs sent.

3 Shall we be bound to them say they:
let all their bonds be broke:

And of their doctrine and their law,
let vs reiect the yoke.

4 But he that in the heauen dwelth,
their doings will deride:

And make them all as mocking stockes,
through out the world so wide.

5 For in his wrath the Lord will say,
to them vpon a day:

And in his furie trouble them,
and then the Lord will say.

6 I haue anointed him my king,
vpon my holy hill:

I will therefore Lord preach thy lawes, and eke declare thy will.

7 For in this wise the Lord himselfe, did say to me I wot:

Thou art my deare and onely Sonne, to day I thee begot.

8 All people I will giue to thee,
as heires at thy request:

The ends and coasts of all the earth,
by thee shall be possesst.

9 Thou shalt them bruite euen with a mase
as men vnder foot tread:

And as the porters shears shalt breake,
them with an iron rod.

10 Nowe O kings and rulers all,
be wise therefore and learne:

By whom the matters of the world,
be iudged and discerned.

11 See that yeferne the Lord aboue,
in rembling and in feare:

See that with reuerence ye reioyce,
to him in like manner.

12 See that yee kill: and eke embrace,
his blest Sonne I say:

Left in his wrath ye suddenly,
perish in the mid way.

13 If once his wrath neuer so small,
shall kinde in his best:

O then all they that trust in Christ, shall happy be and blest.

Domine quis. Psal. iij. T. S.

David driven out of his kingdom e by his sonne Absolon, was greatly tormented in his mind for his sinne. Therefore he calleth vpon God, and is bold in his promises against the terror both of enemies and present death. Then he reioyceth for the victorie giuen to him and the Church, ouer their enemies.

O Lord, how are my toes increast, which were me more and more? They kill my heart when as they say, God can him not restore. But thou O Lord art my defence, when I am hard beset: My worship and mine honour both, & thou holdst by my head.

4 Then with my voice vpon the Lord,

I did both call and cry:

And he out of his holy hill,

did heare me by and by.

5 I laid me downe and quietly,

I slept and rose againe:

For: why I know assuredly,

the Lord will me sustaine.

6 If ten thousand had hind me in,

I could not be afraid:

For thou art still my Lord my God,

my Saviour and my aide.

7 Rise vp therefore saue me my God,

for now to thee I call:

For thou hast broke the cheekes and teeth,

of these wicked men all.

8 Saluation onely doth belong, to thee O Lord aboue:

Thou doest bestow vpon thy folke,

thy blessing and thy loue.

Cum inuocarem. Psal. iij. T. S.

David persecuted by Saule, calleth vpon God with assured trust, reprooeth his enemies for resisting his dominion, and presenteth the fauour of God before all treasure.

Sing this as the 1. Psalme.

O God that art my righteousnesse,

Lord heare me when I call

Thou hast set me at libertie.

When

- When I was bound and thall.
 1 Haue mercy Lord therefore on me,
 and grant me my request:
 For vnto thee incessantly,
 to cry I will not rest.
- 3 O mortall men how long will ye,
 my glory thus despise?
 Why wander ye in vanitie,
 and follow after lies?
- 4 Know ye that good and godly men,
 the Lord both take and chule,
 And when to him I make my plaint,
 he doth me not refuse.
- 5 Sinne not but stand in awe therefore,
 examine well your heart:
 And in your chamber quietly,
 see you your selues conuert.
- 6 Offer to God the sacrifice,
 of righteousness: I say:
 And looke that in the living Lord,
 you put your trust alway.
- 7 The greater sort craue worldly goods and riches doe embrace:
 But Lord grant vs thy countenance,
 thy fauour and thy grace.
- 8 For thou thereby shalt make my heart,
 more ioyfull and more glad:
 Then they that of their come and wine,
 full great increase haue had.
- 9 In peace therefore lie downe will I,
 taking my rest and sleepe:
 For thou onely wilt me (O Lord) alone in safety keepe.

Parha mea auribus. Psal. v. T. S.

David persecuted by Doeg and Achitophel, Saules flatterers, calleth vpon God to punish their malice. Then assured of success, he conceiveth comfort.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

- I Recline thine eares vnto my word,
 O Lord my plaint consider:
 2 And heare my voyce, my king my God to thee I make my prayer.
- 3 Heare me becom, Lord tary not,
 for I will haue respect,
 My prayer early in the morn,
 to thee for to direct.
- 4 And I will trust through patience,
 to thee my God alone:
 That art not pleased with wickednesse,
 and ill with thee dwels none.
- 5 And in thy sight shall neuer stand, these furious fooles: (O Lord) Vaine workers of iniquite, thou hast alwaies abhor'd,
- 6 The liars and the flatterers, thou shalt destroy them then:
 And God will hate the bloud-chirke,
 and the deceitfull man.
- 7 Therefore wilt I come to thy house,
 trusting vpon thy grace:
 And reuerently will worship thee,
 toward thine holy place.

- 8 Lord lead me in thy righteousness,
 for to confound my foes:
 And eke the way that I shall walke,
 before my face disclose.
- 9 For in their mouthes there is no truth,
 their hearts are foule and vaine:
 10 Their throat an open pulchre, their tongues doe glofe and faine.
- 11 Destroy their false conspiracies, that they may come to nought:
 12 Subuert them in their heapes of sinne, which haue rebellion wrought.
- 13 But those that put their trust in thee,
 let them be glad alwaies:
 And render thanks for thy defence,
 and giue thee name the praise,
- 14 For thou with fauour wilt encrease,
 the iust and righteous till:
 And with thy grace as with a shield, defend them from all ill.

Domine me in furore. Psal. vi. T. S.
 David for his sinnes, felt Gods hand, and conceived the horror of euermolting death. Therefore hee desireth forgiveness, and not to die in Gods indignation, then suddenly feeling Gods mercy, he rebuketh his enemies, who reioyce at his affliction.

Sing this as the third Psalme.

- I Did in thy wrath reppure me not,
 though I deserue thine ire:
 Yet correct me in thy rage,
 O Lord I thee desire.
- 2 For I am weak therefore O Lord,
 of mercy me forbeare:
 And heare me Lord for why thou knowest
 my bones doe quake for feare.
- 3 My soule is troubled very sore,
 and bered vehemently:
 But Lord how long wilt thou delay,
 to care my misery.
- 4 Lord turne thee to thy wonted grace,
 my lilly soule by take:
 O saue me not for my delertes,
 but for thy mercie sake.
- 5 For why, no man among the dead,
 remembereth thee one whit:
 Who shall worship thee O Lord,
 in the infernall pit?
- 6 So grievous is my plaint and mone,
 that I ware wondrous faint:
 All the night long I wash my bee,
 with teares of my complaint.
- 7 My sight is dimme and waxeth old,
 with anguish of my heart:
 For feare of those that be my foes,
 and would my soule subuert.
- 8 But now away from me all ye,
 that worke iniquitie:
 For why, the Lord hath heard the voice of my complaint and cry.
- 9 He heard not onely my request,
 and prayer of my heart:
 But it receiued at my hands,
 and tooke it in good part.
- 10 And now my foes that nexted me,
 the Lord will loose defame:
 And suddenly confound them all,
 to their rebuke and shame.

To heare the wicked in their hearts say, Ensh, thou carest not for it.
16 But thou seest all their wickednesse, and well dost vnderstand,
That friendlesse and poore fatherlesse are left vnto thy hand.

17 Of wicked and malicious men thou breake the power for euer;
That they with their iniquitie may perishe all together.
18 The Lord shall reigne for euermore
as King and God alone:
And he will chase the heathen folke out of the land ech one.

19 Thou hearest O Lord the poore mens their prayers and request: (plaint, Their hearts thou wilt confirme, vntill thine eares to heare be past 20 To iudge the poore and fatherlesse, and helpe them to their right:
That they may be no more opprest with men of worldly might.

In Domino. Psal. xi. T. S.

This Psalme sheweth first what assaults of temptation & anguish of mind he sustained in persecution.
Next he reioiceth, that God sent him succour in necessitie, declaring his iustice, as well in governing the good & wicked men as the whole world.

Sing this as the third Psalme.

I Trust in God, how dare ye then say thus my soule vntill:
Flee hence as fast as any fowle,
and hide you in your hill:
2 Beholde, the wicked bend their bowes, and make their arrowes prest
To shoot in secret, and to hurt
the sound and harmlesse beast.

3 Of worldly hope all stayes were shrunke, and cleerly brought to nought:
Alas, the iust and righteous man,
what euill hath he wrought?
4 But he that in his Temple is,
most holy and most hie,
And in the heauen hath his seat
of royall maiestie,

The poore and simple mans estate considered in his minde,
And feared yett our full narrowly
the manners of mankinde:
5 And with a cheerefull countenance
the righteous man will vsse,
But in his heart he doth abhorre
all such as mischiefe muse:

6 And on the sinners casteth snares
as thicke as any rain,
Fire and brimstone and whirlwindes thicke,
appointed for their paine.

7 Behold then how the righteous God doth righteousnesse embrace,
And to the iust and bright men
shewes forth his pleasant face,

Sa uenit me fac. Psal. xij. T. S.

The Prophet seeing the miserable decay of all good order, desired God speedily to send reformation:
then comforted with the assurance of Gods helpe and promises, concludeth, that when all orders, are most corrupted, then God will deliuer his.

Sing this as the third Psalme.

Helpe Lord, for good and godly men do perishe and decay,
And faith and truerh from worldly men is parted cleane away.

2 Who so doth with his neighbour talke,
his talke is all but vaine:
For every man bethinketh how to flatter, lie and faine.

3 But flattering and deceitfull lips,
and tongues that be so stout,
To speake proud words & make great brags,
the Lord soon cuts them out.

4 For they say still, We will preuaile, our tongues shall vs extoll:
Our tongues are ours, we ought to speake,
what Lord shall vs controll?

5 But for the great complaint and crye of poore and men opprest, Arise will I now, sayth the Lord,
and them restore to rest.

6 Gods word is like to siluer pure, that from the earth is tried,
And hath no lesse than seuen times
in fire been purified.

7 Now since thy promise is to helpe,
Lord keepe thy promise then,
And saue vs now and euermore from this ill kinde of men.

8 For now this wicked world is full of mischiefs manifold,
When natiuitie with mortall men
so highly is extold.

Vsquequo Domine. Psal. xij. T. S.

David, as it were, ouercome with afflictions, flieth to God, his only refuge: and encouraged through Gods promises, conceiue confidence against the extreme horrors of death.

Sing this as the third Psalme.

How long wilt thou forget me, Lord, shall I neuer be remembered?
How long wilt thou thy visage hide,
as though thou wert offended?

2 In heart and minde how long shall I with care be troubled be?
How long eke shall my deadly foes
thus triumph ouer me?

3 Behold me now, O Lord my God,
and heare me sore opprest:
Lighen mine eyes, lest that I sleepe,
as one by death possesst.

4 Lest thus mine enemy say to me,
Behold I do preuaile:
Lest they also that hate my soule
reioyce to see me quaille.

5 But from thy mercies and goodnesse
my hope shall neuer start:
In thy rest, se and sauing health right glad shall be my hart.

6 I will giue thanks vnto the Lord,
and prestes to him sing,
Because he hath heard my request, and granted my wishing.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. xliij. T. S.
He describeth the wickednesse of men so grown to such licentiousnes, that God was brought to vter contempt: for which, albeit he was greatly grie-ued, yet perswaded that God would redresse it, he is comforted.

T Here is no God as foolish men assume in their mad mood: Their desires are all corrupt and baine, not one of them doth good. 2 The Lord beheld from heaven high the whole race of mankind,

And saw not one that sought indeed the living God to finde.

3 They went all wide and were corrupt,
and truly there was none:
That in the world did any good,
I say there was not one.

4 Is all their iudgement so farre lost, that all worke mischief still?
Eating my people euen as bread, not one to seeke Gods will.

5 When they thus rage then suddenly, great feare on them shall fall:
For God doth loue the righteous men,
and will maintaine them all.

6 He wocke the doings of the poore, to their reproch and shame:
Because they put their trust in God,
and call vpon his name.

7 But who shall gine his people health, and when wilt thou fulfill Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill?

8 Euen when thou shalt restore againe, such as were captiue led:
Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Domine quia. Psal. xv. T. S.
Heere is taught why God chose the lewes his peculiar people and placed his temple among them, which was that they by liuing vprightly, might witness that they were his speciall & holy people.

Sing thou the third Psalm.
O Lord within thy tabernacle, who shall inhabite still:

Whom wilt thou receiue to dwell,
in thy most holy hill?

2 The man whose life is incorrupt, whose workes are iust and straight:
Whose heart doth thinke the very truth,
whose tongue speaks no deceit.

3 Nor to his neighbour doth none ill,
in body, goods or name.
Nor willingly doth moue false tales, which might impaire the same.

4 That in his heart regardeth not,
malicious wicked men:
But those that loue and feare the Lord,
he maketh much of them.

5 His oath and all his promises, that keepeth faithfully:
Although he make his covenant so,
that he doth looke therby.

6 That putteth not to blurie, his money and his come:
He for to hurt the innocent,
doth bide or else purloine.

7 Altho so doth all things as you see,
that here is to be done:
Shall neuer perishe in this world,
nor in the world to come.

Conserua me. Psal. xvi. T. S.
Dauid prayeth to God for succour, not for his works but for his faiths sake, protesting that he hateth all Idolatry, taketh God only for his comfort and selicitie, who suffereth him to lacke nothing.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

Lord keepe me for I trust in thee,
and doe confesse indeed:
Thou art my God and of my goods,
O Lord thou hast no need.

2 I giue my goods vnto the Saints,
that in the world doe dwell:
And namely to the faithfull stocke,
in vertue that excell.

3 They shall heape sorowes on their heads which run as they were mad:
To offer to the Idoll Gods,
alas it is too bad.

4 As for the bloody sacrifice, and offerings of that sort:
I will not touch nor yet thereof,
my lips shall make report.

5 For why? the Lord, the portion is of mine inheritance:
And thou art he that dost maintaine,
my rent, my lot, my chance.

6 The place wherein my lot did fall,
in beautie did excell:
Mine heritage assigne to me,
doth please me wondrous well.

7 I thanke the Lord that caused me,
to vnderstand the right:
For by this meanes my secret thoughts,
doe teach me euery night.

8 I let the Lord still in my sight,
and trust him ouer all:
For he doth stand on my right hand,
therefore I shall not fall.

- 9 Therefore my heart and tongue also,
doe both reioyce together:
My flesh and body rest in hope,
when I this thing consider.
10 Thou wilt not leave my soule in graue,
for Lord thou lovest me:
Nor yet wilt giue thy holy one corruption for to see.
11 But wilt teach me the way to life,
for all treasures and store:
Of perfect loy are in thy face,
and power for euermore.

Exaudi Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

Heere he complaineth to God of the cruell pride and arrogancie of Saul who rageth without any cause. Therefore he desireth God to reuenge his innocencie and deliuer him.

Sing this as the 30. Psalm.

- O Lord giue care to my last cause, attend when I complaine:
And heare the prayer that I put forth with lips that doe not faime.
2 And let the iudgement of my cause proceed alwayes from thee,
And let thine eyes behold and cleare
this my simplicitie.
3 Thou hast well tride me in the night,
and yet couldest nothing finde:
That I haue spoken with my mouth,
that was not in my minde.
4 As for the works of wicked men,
and pates peruerse and ill:
For loue of thy most holy word,
I haue refrained still.
5 Then in the pates that be most pure,
stay me Lord and preferue:
That from the way wherein I walke,
my steps may neuer swerue.
6 For I do call to thee O Lord, surely thou shalt me aide:
Then heare my prayer and waigh right well
the words that I haue said.
7 O thou the Saviour of all them that put their trust in thee:
Declare thy strength on them that spurne, against thy maiestie.
8 O keepe me Lord as thou wouldst keepe
the apple of thine eye:
And vnder couert of thy wings defend me secretly.

The second part.

- 9 From wicked men that trouble me
and daily me annoy:
And from my foes that goe about my soule for to destroy.
10 Which wallow in their worldly wealth,
so full and eke so fat:
That in their pride they do not spare to speake they care not what.
11 They lie in waite where I should passe with craft me to confound,
And wishing mischief in their mindes,
to cast me to the ground.
12 Such like a Lyon greedily, that would his pray imbrace:

- Or lurking like a Lyons whelp within some secret place.
13 Thy Lord with haste preuent my foe,
and cast him at thy feet:
Sauce thou my soule from the ill man,
and with the sword him linte.
14 Deliuer me Lord by thy power, out of these tyrants hands:
Which now so long time raigned haue,
and kept vs in their bands.
15 I meane from worldly men to whome
all worldly goods are rife, That haue no hope nor part of loy
but in this present life.
16 Thou of thy store their bellies fillst, with pleasure to their minde:
Their children haue enough, and leaue to theirs the rest behind.
17 But I shall with pure conscience, behold thy gracious face:
So when I wake I shall be full of thine Image and grace.

Diligam te Domine. Psal. xvij. T. S.

David giueth thanks entering into his kingdome excelling the marvellous graces of God in his preseruation. Herein is the image of Christs kingdome which shall conquer through Christ, by the vs-speakeable loue of God, though all the world resist.

O  God my strength and fortitude, of force I must loue thee. Thou art my castle and defence, in my necessitie.

2. By God, my rocke, in whom I trust, the worker of my wealth: By refuge, buckler and my shield, the hope of all my health.

- 3 When I sing laud unto the Lord,
most worthy to be serued:
Then from my foes I am right sure that I shall be preferred.
4 The panges of death did compass me,
and bound me euery where:
The flowing waues of wickednesse
did put me in great feare.
5 The sic and subtle snares of hell, were were round about me set :

 And for my death there was preparede
 a deadly trapping net.
 6 I thus beset with paine and griefe,
 did pray to God for grace:
 And he forthwith did heare my plaint,
 out of his holy place.
 7 Such was his power that in his wrath,
 he made the earth to quake:
 Pea the foundations of the mount,
 of Basan for to shake:
 8 And from his nostrils came a smoake,
 when kindled was his ire:
 And from his mouth came kindled coales
 of hot consuming fire.
 9 The Lord descended from aboue,
 and bowed the heuens hie :
 And underneath his feet he cast,
 the darknesse of the skie.
 10 On Cherubs and on Cherubins, full royally he rood:
 And on the wings of all the windes,
 came flying all abroad.
 The second part.
 11 And like a den most darke he made his hid and secret place:
 With waters blacke and ayrie cloudes, enuironed he was.
 12 But when the presence of his face,
 in brightnesse shall appeare:
 Then cloudes consume, and in their stead come hayle and coales of fire.
 13 The fiery darts and thunderbolts, disperse them here and there:
 And with his often lightnings,
 he puts them in great feare.
 14 Lord at thy wrath and threatnings, and at thy chiding cheare:
 The springs and the foundations of all the world appeare.
 15 And from aboue the Lord sent downe,
 to fetch me from below:
 And pluckt me out of waters great that would me overflow.
 16 And me deliuered from my foes, that would haue made me thral:
 Pea from such foes as were too strong for me to deale withall.
 17 They did persecute me to oppresse, in time of my great griefe:
 But yet the Lord was my defence,
 my succour and reliefe.
 18 He brought me forth in open place,
 whereas I might be free:
 And kept me safe because he had a fauour vnto me.
 19 And as I was an innocent,
 so did he me regard:
 And to the cleanness of my hands,
 he gaue me my reward.
 20 For that I walked in his way,
 and in his pathes haue trod:
 And haue not turned wickedly, against my Lord and God.

The third part.

21 And euermore I haue respect, to his law and decree:

his statutes and commandments,
 I call not out from me.
 22 But pure and cleane and incorrupt, appeared before his face:
 And did refrain from wickednesse,
 and sinne in any case.
 23 The Lord therefore will me reward
 as I haue done aright:
 And to the cleanness of my hands,
 appearing in his sight.
 24 For Lord with him that holy is,
 wilt thou be holy too:
 And with the good and vertuous men,
 right verthuously wilt doe.
 25 And to the louing and elect thy loue thou wilt reserue:
 And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
 as wicked men deserue.
 26 For thou dost saue the simple folke,
 in trouble when they lie:
 And dost bring downe the countenance,
 of him that looketh hie.
 27 The Lord will light my candle so that it shall shine full bright:
 The Lord my God will make also my darknesse to be light.
 28 For by thy helpe an host of men
 I scorned Lord I shall,
 By thee I feare and ouerleape
 the strength of any wall.
 29 Unspotted are the wayes of God,
 his word is purely true,
 He is a sure defence to such as in his faith abide.
 30 For who is God except thy Lord,
 for other there is none,
 O else who is omnipotent, sauing our God alone.

The fourth part.

31 The God that girdeth me with strength is he that I do meane,
 That all the waies wherein I walke,
 did euermore keep cleane.
 32 That made me feet like to the harts,
 in swiftnesse of my pace,
 And for my surety brought me forth into an open place.
 33 He did in order put my hands,
 to battell and to fight:
 To breake in sunder barres of brasse,
 he gaue me armes the might.
 34 Thou teachest me thy sauing health, thy right hand is my tower:
 Thy loue and familiaritie doth still increase my power.
 35 And vnder me thou makest plaine,
 the way where I should walke:
 So that my feet shall neuer slip,
 nor stumble at a balke.
 36 And fiercely I pursue and take my foes that me annoyde:
 And from the fiend do not returne,
 till they be all destroyed.
 37 So I suppress and wound my foes that

that they can rise no more:
For at my feete they fall downe flat,
I strike them all to foz.
38 For thou doest giue me with thy strength to warre in such a wise:
That they be all scattered abroad,
that doe against me rise.
39 Lord thou hast put into my hands,
my most enemies poy:
And all my foes thou doest diuide,
in sunder with thy stroke.
40 They cald for helpe, but none gaue care
nor holpe them with reliefe:
Plea to the Lord they cald for helpe, yet heard he not their grieffe.

The fifth part.

41 And still like dust before the wind,
I drine them vnder feete,
And sweepe them out like filthy clay,
that sticke in the streete.
42 Thou keepest me from seditious folke that still in strife be led:
And thou doest of the heathen folke,
appoint me to be head.
43 A people strange to me unknowne, and yet they shall me serue;
And at the first obey my word,
whereas mine owne will swerne.
44 I shall be irksome to mine owne,
they will not see my light:
But wander wide out of the way,
and hide them out of sight.
45 But blessed be the liuing Lord,
most worthy of all praise,
That is my rocke and sauing health, praised be he alwaies.
46 For God it is that gaue me power, reuenged for to be:
And with his holy word subduide,
the people vnto me.
47 And from my foes me deliuered, and set me higher then those:
That cruell and vngodlie were,
and vp against me rose.
48 And for this cause O Lord my God, to her giue thanks I shall:
And sing out praises to thy name,
among the Gentiles all.
49 Thou gauest great prosperitie, vnto the king I say:
To Dauid thine annointed king,
and to his seed for aye.

Celi enarrans. Psal. xix. T. S.

Hee moueth the faithfull to glorifie God by the workmanship, proportion and ornaments of the heauens, and by the law wherein God is reuealed familiarily to his chosen people.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

The heauens and the firmament,
doe wondrously declare:
The glory of God omnipotent, his workes and what they are.
2 The wondrous workes of God appeare,
by euery dates successe:
The nights likewise which their race run,
the selfe same thing expresse.

3 There is no language tongue nor speech where their sound is not heard:
In all the earth and coasts thereof,
their knowledge is conferrd.
4 In them the Lord made for the Sunne,
a place of great renoune:
Who like a Bridegroom ready to stande, doth from his chamber come.
5 And as a valiant champion,
who for to get a prize:
With toy doth hast to take in hand, some noble enterprize.
6 And all the skie from end to end, he compasseth about:
Nothing can hide it from his heate,
but he will find it out.
7 How perfect is the law of God,
how is his coucnant sure:
Conuerting soules and making wise,
the simple and obscure.
8 Just are the Lords commandments, and glad both heart and minde:
His precepts pure and giue light, to eyes that be full blinde.
9 The feare of God is excellent and doth endure for ever:
The iudgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
10 And more to be embraced alwaies
then fined gold I say:
The hony and the hony combe are not so sweete as they.
11 By them thy seruant is forewarnde, to haue God in regard:
And in performance of the same,
there shall be great reward.
12 But Lord what earthly man doth know
the errour of his life.
Then cleanse my soule from secret finnes which are in me most rife.
13 And keepe me, that presumptuous finnes
preuaile not ouer mee:
And then I shall be innocent,
and great offences flee.
14 Accept my mouth and eke my heart,
my words and thoughts each one:
For my redeemer and my strength,
O Lord thou art alone.

Exaudiat te Dominus. Psal. xx. T. S.

The people pray to God to heare their King, and receiue his sacrifice, which he offered before he went to battaile against the Armonites, declaring that the heathen put their trust in horses, but they trust onely in his name, wherefore the other shall fall, but the king and his people shall reioyce.

Sing this as the 14. Psalm.

In trouble and aduersitie,
the Lord God heare thee still:
The maiestie of Jacobs God, defend thee from all ill.
2 And send thee from his holy place,
his helpe at euery neede:
And so in Zion stablish thee,
and make thee strong in neede.
3 Rememb'ring well the sacrifice.

that now to him is done:
 And so receive right thankfull thy burnt offerings echone.
 4 According to thy hearts desire the Lord grant vnto thee,
 And all thy counsell and deuile,
 full well performe may he.
 5 He shall reioyce when thou vs sauest,
 and our banners display:
 Unto the Lord which thy requests, fulfilled hath alway.
 6 The Lord will his annointed saue,
 I know well by his grace:
 And send him health by his right hand
 out of his holy place.
 7 In Chariots some put confidence,
 and some in horses trust:
 But we remember God our Lord that keepeth promise true.
 8 They fall downe flat, but we doe rise and stand by stedfastly:
 Now saue and helpe vs Lord and king,
 on thee when we cry.

Domine in virtute. Psal. xxj. T. S.

David in the person of the people praiseth God for the victorie giuen them against the Syrians and Ammonites, 1. Sam. 21. Wherein hee was crowned with the Crowne of the king of Ammon, 2.
 Sam. 12. and indured with the manifold blessings
 of God.

O Lord how ioyfull is the King in thy strength and thy power? How vehemently doth hee reioice in thee his Saviour? For thou hast giuen vnto him his godly hearts desire: to him nothing hast thou denide, of that he did require.

3 Thou didst preuent him with thy gifts and blessings manifold,
 And thou hast set vpon his head
 a crowne of perfect gold.
 4 And when he asked life of thee, thereof thou madst him sure:
 To haue long life, yea such a life
 as euer should endure.
 5 Great is his glory by thy help,

thy benefits and aide:
 Great worship and great honour both,
 thou hast vpon him laid.
 6 Thou wilt giue him felicitie that neuer shall decay,
 And with thy cheerefull countenance
 wilt comfort him alway.
 7 For why, the King doth strongly trust in God for to preuaile, Therefore his goodnesse and his grace will not that he shall quail.
 8 But let thine enemies feele thy force, and those that thee withstand:
 Finde out thy foes and let them feele
 the power of thy right hand.
 9 And like an ouen burne them Lord,
 in fiery flame and time:
 Thine anger shall destroy them all,
 and fire shall them consume.
 10 And thou wilt roote out of the earth their fruit that should increase,
 And from the number of thy folke their seed shall end and cease.

11 For why, much mischief they did moue against thy holy name, Yet did they faile and had no power
 for to performe the same.
 12 But as a marke thou shalt them set in a most open place,
 And charge thy bow-strings readily against thy enemies face.
 13 Be thou exalted Lord therefore in thy strength euery howe,
 So shall we sing right solemnly praying thy might and power.

Deus Deus meus. Psal. xxj. T. S.

David complaineth of his desperate extremities, and declareth whereof he recovereth himselfe from temptation: vnder his person is figured Christ.
Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

O God my God wherefore doest thou forsake me utterly,
 And helpest not when I doe make my great complaint and cry.
 2 To thee my God euen all day long
 I doe both cry and call,
 I cease not all the night, and yet
 thou hearest not at all.
 3 Euen thou that in thy Sanctuarie and holy place doest dwell,
 What art the comfort and the loy,
 and glory of Israel.
 4 And he in whom our fathers old had all their hope for euer:
 And when they put their trust in thee
 so didst thou them rescue.
 5 They were deliuered euer when they called on thy name,
 And for the faith they had in thee
 they were not put to shame.
 6 But I am now become a wopine,
 more like then any man:
 An out-cast whom the people scoone with all the spite they can.
 7 And me despise as they behold,

me walking on the way,
They grin, they mow, they nod their heads,
and in this wise they say.

8 This man did glory in the Lord
his fauour and his loue,
Let him redeeme and helpe him now,
his power if he will prooue.

9 But Lord out of my mothers wombe
I came by thy request,
Thou didst pierce me still in hope whilst I did sucke her breast.
10 I was committed from my birth with thee to haue abode, Since I was in my mothers wombe thou hast been euer my God.

The second part.

11 Then Lord depart not now from me
in this my pining griefe, Since I haue none to be my helpe,
my succour and reliefe.

12 So many Bulls doe compasse me that be full strong of head, Pea Bulls so far as though they had in Balan field been led.

13 They gape vpon me greedily, as though they would me swallow:
Such like a Lyon roaring out and ramping for his pray.

14 But I drop downe like water shed,
my ioynts in sunder breake:
My heart doth in my body melt like waxe against the heat.

15 And like a potsherd drieth my strength, my tongue it cleaueth fast Unto my iawes, and I am brought to dust of death at last.

16 And many dogs doe compasse me,
and wicked counsell like:
Conspire against me curdely,
they pierce my hands and feet.

17 I am tormented so that I might all my bones haue told,
Yet still vpon me they did looke,
and still they me behold.

18 My garments they diuided eke,
in parts among them all:
And for my coate they did cast lots,
to whom it might befall.

19 Therefore I pray thee be not farre from me at my great need,
But rather sith thou art my strength,
to helpe me Lord make speed.

20 And from the sword Lord saue my soule
by thy might and thy power,
And keep my soule thy darling deare from dogges that would deuoure.

22 And from the Lions mouth that would me all in sunder stiner,
And from the hornes of Unicornes
Lord safely me deliuer.

22 And I shall to my brethren all thy maiestie record,
And in thy Church shall prayse the name of thee the living Lord.

The third part.

23 All ye that feare him prayse the Lord
thou Jacob honour him,
And all ye seed of Israel,
with reuerence worship him.

24 For he despiseth not the poore,
he turneth not away:

His countenance when they doe call,
but granteth to their cry.

25 Among the folke that feare the Lord,
I will therefore proclaime Thy prayse, and keep thy promise made for setting forth thy name.

26 The poore shall eat and be sufficed, and those that doe their deuer
To know the Lord, shall praise his name, their hearts shall live for euer.

27 All coastes of earth shall praise the Lord and turne to him for grace,
The heathen folke shall worship him before his blessed face.

28 The kingdome of the heathen folke the Lord shall haue therefore,
And he shall be their gouernour and king for euermore.

29 The rich men of his goodly gifts shall feed and talke all,
And in his presence worship him and bow their knees full low.

30 And all that shall goe downe to dust,
of life by him must talke:
My seed shall serue and praise the Lord,
while any world shall last.

31 My seed shall plainly shew to them that shall be borne hereafter,
His iustice and his righteousness,
and all his workes of wonder.

Domine regis. Psal. xxiij. W. IV.

David having tried Gods manifold mercies diuers times, gathereth the assurance that God will continue his goodnesse for euer.

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

The Lord is onely my support and he that doth me feed, How can I then lacke any thing whereof I stand in need.

2 He doth me feed in coates most safe,
the tender grasse fast by:
And after driues me to the streames which runne most pleasantly.

3 And when I feeble my selfe neere lost, then doth he me home take:
Conducting me in the right pathes, euen for his owne names sake.

4 And though I were enen at deaths doore
yet will I feare none ill,
For with thy rod and shepheard's crooke,
I am comforted still.

5 Thou hast my table richly deckt,
in deliight of my face:
Thou hast my head with balsme refresht,
my cup doth ouerflow.

6 And finally while breath doth last,
thy grace shall me defend:
And in the house of God will I my life for euer spend.

Another of the same by T. S.

Sing this as the 22. Psalm.

MP Shepheard is the living Lord, nothing therefore I need:
In pastures faire with waters calme
he lets me forth to feed.

2 He did conuert and glad my soule and brought my mind in frame,
To walke in paths of righteousnesse,
for his most holy name.

3 Pea though I walke in baile of death,
yet will I feare none ill:
Thy rod, thy staffe, doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.

4 And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt O Lord fill full my cup,
and eke annoint my head.

5 Through all my life thy fauour is,
so frankly shewed to me:
That in thy house for euermore my dwelling place shall be.

Domini est terra. Psal. xxiiij. l. H.

The grace of God being now vttered in the Temple more glorious than before in the Tabernacle. Da-uid with exclamation setteth forth the honour thereof mouing the consideration of the eter-nall mansions prepared in heauen, whereof this was a figure.

Sing this as the 21. Psalm.

The earth is all the Lords, with all her store and furniture, Pea his is all the world, and all that therein doth endure.

2 For he hath fastly founded it about the Sea to stand,
And laid a low the liquid fountes,
to flow beneath the land.

3 For who is he O Lord, that shall ascend into thy hill,
And passe into thy holy place
there to continue still?

4 Whose hands are harmeles & whose hart
no spot there doth defile,
His soule not set on vanitie, who hath notwayne to guile.

5 Him that is such a one, the Lord shall place in blisfull sight:
And God his God and Saviour, shall yeld to him his right.

6 This is the hoope of travellers in seeking of his grace,
As Jacob did the Israellites
in that time of his race.

7 Pe Princes ope your gates, stand ope
the euermoring gate:
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.

8 Who is the king of glorious state?
the strong and mightie Lord,
The mighty Lord in battell strong,
and cryall of the sword.

9 Pe Princes ope your gates, stand ope

the euermoring gate,
For there shall enter in thereby
the king of glorious state.
10 Who is the king of glorious state?
the Lord of hostes he is,
The kingdome and the royaltie of glorious state is his.

Ad se Domine. Psal. xxv. T. S.

Dauid grieved at his finnes, an malicious enemies, most feruently prayeth for forgiveness, especially of such finnes as he committed in his youth.

Lift mine heart to thee, my God and guide most iust: Now suffer me to take no shame, for in thee doe I trust.

2. Let not my foes reioyce, nor make a scoffe of me: and let them not be ouer-throwen, that put their trust in thee.

3 But shame shall them befall, which harme them wrongfully:

Therefore thy pathes and thy right waies unto me Lord descry.

4 Direct me in thy truth,
and teach me I thee pray:

Thou art my God and Saviour on thee I waite alway.

5 Thy mercies manifold
I pray the Lord remember,

And eke thy pittie plentifull,
for they haue been for euer.

6 Remember not the faults and frailty of my youth, Remember not how ignorant
I haue been of thy truth.

7 Nor after my deserts,
let me thy mercy finde:

But of thine owne benignitie,
Lord haue me in thy minde.

8 His mercy is full sweet,
his truth a perfect good:
Therefore the Lord will sinners teach and such as goe aside.

9 The humble he will teach his precepts for to keep:

He will direct in all his wayes
the lowly and the meeke.

10 For all the wayes of God are truth and mercy both,
To them that keep his testament,
the witness of his troth.

The second part.

- 11 Now for thy holy name,
O Lord I thee increate:
To grant me pardon for my tūme,
for it is wondrous great.
- 12 Who so doth feare the Lord,
the Lord doth him direct:
To lead his life in such a way,
as he doth best accept.
- 13 His soule shall euermore
in goodnesse dwell and stand:
His seed and his posteritie, inherittall the land.
- 14 All thoe that feare the Lord,
know his secret intent:
And vnto them he doth declare,
his will and testament.
- 15 Mine eyes and eke my heart,
to him I will aduance:
That plucke my feet out of the snare,
of sinne and ignorance.
- 16 With mercie me behold,
to thee I make my moone:
For I am poore and desolate, and comfortles alone.
- 17 The troubles of my heart,
are multiplid indeed:
Brīng me out of this mulerie, necessity and need.
- 18 Behold my pouertie,
mine anguish and my paine:
Remit my tūme and mine offence,
and make me cleane againe.
- 19 O Lord behold my foes,
how they doe still increase:
Pursuing me with deadly hate,
that saīne would liue in peace.
- 20 Preserue and keepe my soule,
and eke deliuer me:
And let me not be ouerthrowne,
because I trust in thee.
- 21 Let my simple purenesse, me from mine enemies shend,
Because I looke as one of thine, that thou shouldst me defend.
- 22 Deliuer Lord thy folke,
and send them some relesce:
I meane thy chosen Israel,
from all their paine and grieve.

Iudica me Domine, Psal. xxvi. I. H.

David iniuriously oppressed and helpelesse, yet assured of his integritie to Saul, calleth God to defend him causelesse afflicted. Then he desireth to be in the company of the faithfull in the congregation of God, when he was banished by Saul, promising Godly life, open prayes, thankesgiuing and sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 14. Psalme.

- Let be my iudge, and thou shalt see,
my paches be right and plaine:
It shall in God and hope that he,
ill strength me to remaine.
- 2 Proue me my God I thee desire,
my waies to search and try:
As men doe proue their gold with fire,
my reines and heart espye.

- 3 Thy goodnesse layd before my face,
I durst behold alwaies:
For of thy tructh I tread the trace,
and will doe all my dayes.
- 4 I doe not lust to haunt or vse, with men whose workes are vaine.
To come in houle I doe refuse,
with the deceitfull traine.
- 5 I much abhorre the wicked sort,
their deeds I doe despise:
I doe not once to them resort,
that hurtfull things deuise.
- 6 My hands I wash and doe proceed,
in workes that are vpright,
Then to thine Altar, I make speed,
to offer there in light.
- 7 That I may speake and preach thy praise that doth belong to thee:
And to declare how wondrous wayes,
thou hast beene good to me.
- 8 O Lord thy house I loue most deare,
to me it doth excell:
I haue delight and would be neare,
whereas thy grace doth dwell.
- 9 O shun not vp my soule with them,
in time that take their ill:
Nor yet my life among those men,
that seeke much blood to spill.
- 10 Whose hands are heapt with craft and their lips thercof are full. (guile)
And their right hand with wench and wile, for bydes doth plucke and pull.
- 11 But I in righteounesse intend,
my tūme and dayes to serue, Haue mercy Lord and me defend,
so that I doe not luerue.
- 12 My foote is staid for all assayes,
it standeth well and right:
Wherefore to God I will giue prayse,
in all the peoples sight.

Domine illumini, Psal. xxvij. J. H.

Dauid deliuered from great perils, giueth thankses whereas we see his constant faith against the assaults of all enemies and the end why he desireth to liue and to be deliuered. Then he exhorteth to faith, and to attend vpon the Lord.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- The Lord is both my health and light, shall man make me dismayde?
Sith God doth giue me strength and might why should I be afraid?
- 2 While that my foes with all their strength
begin with me to braule:
And thinke to eate me vp at length, themselves haue caught the fall.
- 3 Though they in campe against me lie,
my heart is not afraid:
In battell pight if they wil trie,
I trust in God for aid.
- 4 One thing of God I doe require,
that he will not denie:
For which I pray and will desire till he to me applie.
- 5 That I within his holy place,
my life throughout may dwell:

To see the beautie of his face,
and view his temple well.

6 In time of dread he shall me hide, within his place most pure:
And keepe me secret by his hide,
as on a rocke most sure.

7 At length I know the Lords good grace shall make me strong and stout:

My foes to foile and cleane disface,
that compasse me about,

8 Therefore within thy house will I, give sacrifice of praise.

With Psalmes and songs I will apply, to laud the Lord alwayes.

The second part.

9 Lord heare the voice of my request, for why to thee I call:

Haue mercy Lord on me oppress, and send me helpe withall.

10 My heart doth knowledge vnto thee,
I line to haue thy grace:

Then seeke my face sayest thou to me,
Lord I will seeke thy face.

11 In wrath turne not thy face away,
nor suffer me to slide:

Thou art my helpe still to this day,
be still my God and guide.

12 My parentes both their soules forsooke, and call me of a luge:

And then the Lord himselfe yet tooke,
of me the care and charge.

13 Teach me O Lord the way to thee,
and lead me on forth right:

For feare of such as watch for me,
to trap me if they might.

14 Doe not berake me to the will,
of them that be my foes:

For they surmise against me still,
false witness to depose.

15 My heart would faint. but that in me,
this hope is fixed fast:

The Lord Gods good grace shall it see,
in life that are shall last.

16 Trust then in God whose whole thou his will abide thou must: (art

And he shall ease and strength thy heart,
if thou in him doe trust.

Ad te Domine. Psal. xxxviij. T. T.

Being in feare and penhuenesse to see God dishonored by wicked men, he cryeth for vengeance against them, and being assured that God hath heard him, he commendeth all the faithfull to his tuition,

Sing this as the 21. Psalme.

Thou art O Lord my strength and state,
the succour in which I craue:

Neglect me not lest I bee like,
to them that goe to graue.

2 The voice of thy suppliant heare,
that vnto thee doth cry:

When I lift vp my hands vnto, thy helpe I keepe most hye.

3 Repute me not among the sort,
of wicked and peruer:

That speake right faire vnto their friends,
but thinke kill all in heart,

4 According to their handi worke,
as they deserue indeed,

And after their lamentations,
let them receiue their need.

5 For they regard nothing Gods workes his law, ne yet his loze:

Therefore will be them and their seed, destroy for euermore.

6 To render thanks vnto the Lord,
how great a cause haue I:

My voice, and prayer, and my complaint,
that heard so willingly.

7 He is my shield and fortitude,
my buckler in distresse:

My hope, my health, my hearts releece,
my song shall him confesse,

8 He is our strength and our defence,
our enemies to resist:

The health and the saluation,
of his elect by Christ.

9 Thy people and thy heritage,
Lord blest, guide and pectre:

Increase then Lord and rule their hearts,
that they may neuer swerne.

Affirmo Domino. Psal. xxxix. T. S.

David exhorteth princes (who for the most part thinke there is no God) at the least to feare him for the thunder and tempestes for feare whereof all creatures tremble: And albeit it threatneth sinners, yet it moueth his to praise his name.

Sing this as the 3. Psalme.

Due to the Lord ye Potentates,
ye rulers of the world:

Give ye all praise, honour, and strength,
vnto the liuing Lord.

2 Give honour to his holy name,
and honour him alone:

Glorify him in his maiestie, within his holy throne.

3 His voice doth rule the waters all,
euen as himselfe doth please:

He doth prepare the thunder claps,
and gouernes all the seas.

4 The voyce of God is of great force,
and wondrous excellent:

It is most mightie in effect,
and most magnificent.

5 The voyce of God doth rent and breake,
the Cedar trees so long:

The Cedar trees of Libanus, which are both high and strong.

6 And makes them scape like as a Calfe, or else the Unicorn:

7 Not onely trees but mountaines great,
wher on the trees are borne.

8 His voice diuides the flames of fire,
and shakes the wilderness:

It makes the desert quake for feare, that called is Cadus.

9 It makes the Hindes for feare to calue, and makes the couert plain:

Then in his temple euery man,
his glory doth proclaim.

10 The Lord will sit above the clouds, ruling the raging sea:

So shall he reaigne as Lord and king for euer and for aye.

11 The Lord will give his people power, &
in vertue to increase:

The Lord will blesse his chosen folke, with euertlasting peace.

Exaltabo te Domine. Psal. xxx. I. H.

When Dauid should dedicate his house to the Lord
he fell extreame sicke without all hope of life, & therefore after recouerie hee thanketh God, exhorting others to doe the like, and to learne by him, that God is rather mercifull than seuerer towards his, altho that aduersitie is sodaine. Then he prayeth and promisseth to praise God for euer.

A  I laud and praye with heart and voyce, O Lord I giue to thee, which didst not make my foes reioyce, but hast calted me. 2. O Lord my God to thee I cryde, in all my paine and griefe,

 Thou gauest an eare and didst provide to cast me with reliefe.

 3 Of thy good will thou hast cald backe

 my soule from hell to saue, Thou didst reuenge when strength did I lacke,
and keptst me from the graue.

 4 Sing praise ye Saints that proue and see the goodnesse of the Lord,
In memorie of his mercies,
reioyce with one accord.

 5 For why, his anger but a space,
doth last and slacke againe,
But in his fauour and his grace,
alwaies doth life remaine.

 6 Though gripes of griefe & panges full shall lodge with vs all night, (Soye, 7 The Lord to day will be reioyce, before the day be light.

 8 When I enioyd the world at will,
thus would I boast and say:
Truly I am sure to seeke none til,
this wretched shall not decay.

 9 For thou O Lord of thy good grace, hast sent me strength and aid,
But when thou turnest away thy face,
my minde was sore dismayde,

 10 Wherefore againe yet did I cry to thee O Lord of might:
My God with plaints I did apply,
and prayde both day and night,

 11 What gaines in my blood said I,
if death destroy my dayes:
Doth dust declare thy mercies,

or yet thy truth doth praise.

12 Wherefore my God some pittie take,
O Lord I thee desire:

Doe not this simple soule forsake,
of helpe I thee requirer, 16 Then didst thou turne my griefe & woe,
into a cheerefull voice:

The mourning weed thou tookest me fro,
and madest me to reioyce.

14 Wherefore my soule incessantly,
halting vnto thy praise:

My Lord my God to thee will I, giue laud and thanks alwaies.

In te Domine speraui. Psal. xxxi. I. H.

Dauid deliuered from great danger sheweth first what meditation he had by the power of faith, when death was before his eyes and how the fa-uour of God alwaies is ready to those that feare him. He exhorteth the faithfull to trust in God, because he praiseth them.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

O Lord I put my trust in thee,
let nothing worke me shame:

As thou art true deliuer me,
and let me quite from blame.

2 Heare me O Lord and that anone, to helpe me make good speed,

Be thou my rocke and house of stone,
my fence in time of need.

3 For why as stones thy strength is truee,
thou art my fort and tower,

For thy names sake be thou my guide,
and lead me in thy power.

4 Plucke forth my feet out of the snare, which they for me haue laid:

Thou art my strength, and all my care,
is for thy might and aid.

5 Into thy hands Lord I commit, my spirit which is thy due:

For why, thou hast receiued it,
O Lord my God most true.

6 I hate such folke as will not part,
from things to be abhaid:

When they on trifles set their heart,
my trust is in the Lord.

7 For I will in thy mercy say,
I see it doth excell:

Thou seest when I sought would me annoy,
and knowest my soule full well.

8 Thou hast not left me in their hand,
that would me ouercharge:

But thou hast set me out of band,
to walke abroad at large.

The second part.

9 Great griefe O Lord doth me assaile some pittie on me take:

My eyes were dim, my leg: t doth faile,
my wombe for woe doth ache.

10 My life is wome with griefe and paine,
my yeares in woe are past:

My strength is gone, and through disdaine,
my bones corrupt and waste.

11 Among my foes I am a scoorne,
my friends are all dismayd:

My neighbour and my kinsmen boyme,
to see mee are afraid.

12 As men once dead are out of minde,
so am I now forgot:
As small effect in me they finde,
as in a broken pot.

13 I heard the brags of all the rout, their thraats my mind did tray:
How they conspyd and went about,
to take my life away.

14 But Lord I trust in thee for aide, not to be ouertrode:
For I confesse and still haue said,
thou art my Lord my God.

15 The length of all my life and age,
O Lord is in thy hand:
Defend me from the wrath and rage,
of them that me withstand:

16 To me thy seruant Lord expresse, and shew thy toyfull face:
And saue me Lord for thy goodnesse, thy mercy and thy grace.

The third part.

17 Lord let me not be put to blame, for that on thee I call:
But let the wicked beare their shame,
and in the grane to fall.

18 O how great good hast thou in store,
layd vpsfull safe for them:
That feare and trust in thee therefore,
before the sonnes of men.

19 Thy presence shall them fence and gulse, from all proud brags and wrongs:
Which in thy place thou shalt them hide,
from all the strife of tongues.

20 Thankes to the Lord that hath declar'd on me his grace so farre:
He to defend with watch and ward,
as in a towne of warre.

21 This did I say both day and night,
when I was lone oppressed:
Loe I was cleane cast out of sight,
yet he ardst thou my request.

22 Ye Saints loue ye the Lord I say,
the faithfull he doth guide:
And to the proud he will repay,
according to their pride.

23 Be strong and God shall stay your heart:
be bold and haue a lust:
For sure the Lord will take your part,
lich ye in him doe trust.

Beati quorum Psal xxxii. I. H.

David punished with grieuous sicknesse for his sins, counceth them happy to whom God doth not im-pute their transgressions. And after that hee had confessed his finnes and obtained Pardon, he exhorteth the wicked men to lue godly, and the good to reioyce.

Sing this as the 30 Psalme.

The man is blest, whose wickednesse,
the Lord hath cleane remitted:
And he whose sinne and wretchednes,
is hid and alio couered.

2 And blest is he to whom the Lord,
imputeth not his sinne:
Which in his sin hath hid no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 For whilst that I kept close my sinne in silence and constraint,
My bones did weare and waste away,
with daily moane and plaint.

4 For night and day thy hand on me
so gricuous was and smart,
That all my blood and humors moist to dyneesse did conuert.

5 I did therefore confesse my fault,
and all my finnes discover:
Then thou O Lord didst me forgive, and all my finnes passe ouer.

6 The humble man shall pray therefore,
and seeke thee in due time:
So that the floods of waters great shall haue no power on him.

7 When trouble and aduersitie doe compass me about,
Thou art my refuge and my toy,
and thou doest rid me out.

8 Come hither and I shall thee teach how thou shouldst walke aright,
And will thee guide as I my selfe haue leard by proofe and sight.

9 Be not so rude and ignorant
as is the Oxle and Assle, Whose mouth without a raine or bit from harme thou canst not rule.

10 The wicked men shall manifold sorowes and griefe sustaine,
But vnto him that trusts in God his goodnesse shall remaine.

11 Be merry therefore in the Lord,
ye lust lift vp your voice:
And ye of pure and perfect heart,
be glad and eke reioyce.

Exultate iusti. Psal. xxxii. I. H.

He exhorteth good men to praise God, for the creating and governing of all things for his faithfull promises, for scattering the counsell of the wicked teaching that no creature preserveth any man, but only his mercy.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

Y^e righteous in the Lord reioyce,
it is a seemely sight:

That vpbright men with thankfull voice should praise the Lord of might.

2 Praise ye the Lord with Harpe and song in Psalme and pleasant things, With Lute and instrument among,
that soundeth with ten strings.

3 Sing to the Lord a song most new,
with courage giue him praise, 4 For why, his word is ever true,
his workes and all his waies.

5 To indgement equitie and right,
he hath a great good will,
And with his gifts he doth delight,
the earth throughout to fill.

6 For by the word of God alone,
the heauens all were wrought,
Their hoasts and powers euery one,
his breath to passe hath brought.

7 The waters great gathered hath he on heapes within the shore,
And hid them in the depth to be,
as in a house of store.

8 All men on earth both least and most,
feare God and keepe his law:
Pe that inhabite in each coast,
dread him and stand in awe.
9 What he commaunded wrought it was,
at once with present speede:
What he doth will is brought to passe,
with full effect indeede.
10 The counsels of the nations rude,
the Lord doth bring to nought:
He doth deface the multitude,
of their deuile and thought.
11 But his decrees continue still,
they neuer slacke nor swage:
12 The motions of his mind and will, take place in euery age.
The second part.
13 And blest are they to whom the Lord,
as God and guide is knowne:
Whom he doth chosie of meere accord,
to take them as his owne.
14 The Lord from heauen cast his sight.
on men mortall by birth:
Considering from his seat of might,
the dwellers of the earth.
15 The Lord I say whose had hath wrought mans heart and doth it frame:
For he alone doth know the thought,
and working of the same.
16 A King that trusteth in his host,
shall nought preuaile at length:
The man that of his might doth boast,
shall faile for all his strength.
17 The troups of horsemen eke shall faile, their spurde steeds shall starue.
The strength of horse shall not preuaile,
his rider to preserve.
18 But loe the eyes of God entend,
and watch to aide the iust:
With such as feare him to offend,
and on his goodnesse trust.
19 That he of death and all distresse, may set their soule from dread:
And if that dearth their land oppresse,
in hunger them to feede.
20 Wherefore our soules doe still depend,
on God our strength and stay:
He is the shield vs to defend,
and dyne all darts away.
21 Our soule on God hath ioy and game, reioycing in his might:
For why? in his most holy name,
we hope and much delight.
22 Therefore let thy goodnesse O Lord, still present with vs be:
As we alwaies with one accord,
doe onely trust in thee.

Benedicam Domi. Psalm. xxxiiij. T. S.

David hauing escaped Achis 1. Sam. 12. praising God for his deliuerance giuing others example to trust in God, to feare and serue him, who defendeth the godly with his Angels and vicerly de-stroyeth the wicked in their finnes.

Sing this as the 3. Psalm.

I will giue laude and honour both vnto the Lord alwaies:

And eke my tongue for euermore,
shall speake vnto his praise.
2 I doe delight to laud the Lord,
in soule and eke in voice:
That humble men and mortified,
may heare and so reioyce.
3 Therefore see that yee magnifie, with me the liuing Lord,
And let vs now exalte his name,
together with one accord.
4 For I my selfe belought the Lord,
he answered me againe:
And me deliuered incontinent,
from all my feare and paine.
5 Alho so they be that him behold, shall see his light most cleare:
Their countenance shall not be dight,
they need it not to feare.
6 This lilly wretch for some releife, vnto the Lord did call:
Who did him heare without delay,
and rid him out of thall.
7 The Angell of the Lord doth pitch:
his tents in euery place:
To saue all such as feare the Lord,
that nothing them deface.
8 Cast and consider well therefore,
that God is good and iust:
O happy man that maketh him,
his onely stay and trust.
9 Feare ye the Lord ye holy ones,
aboue all earthly thing.
For they that feare the liuing Lord,
are sure to lacke nothing.
10 The Lyons shall be hungerbit, and pinde with famine much:
But as for them that feare the Lord,
no lacke shall be to such.

The second part.

11 Come neare therfore my children deare,
and to my words giue care:
I shall you teach the perfect way.
how ye the Lord should feare.
12 Who is that man that would liue long and lead a blessed life?
See thou refraine thy tongue and lips,
from all deccit, and strife.
13 Turne backe thy face from doing ill,
and doe the godly deed.
Inquire for peace and righteousnesse,
and follow it with speede.
14 For why? the eyes of God aboue,
vpon the iust are bent:
His cares likewise doe heare the plaint,
of the poore innocent.
15 But he doth frowne and bend his browes
vpon the wicked traine:
And cuts away the memory,
that should of them remaine.
16 But when the iust doe call and cry,
the Lord doth heare them so:
That out of paine and misery,
forthwith he lets them goe.
17 The Lord is kind and straight at hand,
to such as be contrite:

He saues also the sorrowfull,
the mecke and poore in spirit.

18 Full many be the miseries, that righteous men doe suffer:

But out of all aduersities,
the Lord doth them deliuer.

19 The Lord doth so preferue and keepe,
his very bones alway:

That not so much as one of them,
doth perishe or decay.

20 The sinne shall stay the wicked man,
which he himselfe hath wrought:

And such as hate the righteous man,
shall soone be brought to nought.

21 But they that feare the living Lord,
the Lord doth saue them sound:

And who that put their trust in him,
nothing shall them confound.

Iudica Domine. Psal. xxxv. 1. H.

Sauls flatterers persecuted David who prayeth for revenge, that his innocency may be declared & that such as take his part may reioyce, for which he promisceth to magnifie Godsname all the daies of his life.

Sing this as the humble suite of a sinner.

Lord plead my cause against my foes, confound their force and might:

Fight on my part against all those,
that seeke with me to fight.

2 Lay hand vpon thy speare and shield,
thy selfe in armour dresse:

Stand up for me and fight the field,
to helpe me from distresse.

3 Gird on thy sword and stop the way,
mine enemies to withstand:

That thou vnto my soule mayest say,
loe I thy helpe at hand.

4 Confound them with rebuke and blame,
that seeke my soule to spill:

Let them turne backe and flee with shame,
that thinke to worke me ill.

5 Let them disperse and flee abroad,
as wind doth vaine the dust:

And that the Angell of our God,
their might away may thrust.

5 Let all their waies be voide of light, and slippery like to fall:

And send thine Angell with his might,
to persecute them all.

7 For why? without my fault they haue,
in secret set their grin:

And for no cause haue digd a caue,
to take my soule therein.

8 When they think least and haue no care,
O Lord destroy them all:

Let them be trap in their owne snare,
and in their mischiefe fall.

9 And let my soule, my heart and voice,
in God haue ioy and wealth.

That in the Lord I may reioyce,
and in his saving health.

10 And thus my bones shall speake and say,
my parts shall all agree:

O Lord though they doe seeme full gay,
what man is like to thee?

11 Thou dost defend the weak from them,
that are both stout and strong:

And rid the poore from wicked men,
that spoile and doe them wrong.

12 By cruell foes against me rise:
to witnesse things vnrue:

And to accuse me they deuise,
of that I neuer knew.

13 When I to them doe owe good will,
they quite me with disdain:

That they should pay my good with ill,
my soule doth sore complain.

14 When they were sicke I mournd therfore and clad my selfe in sacke:

Which fasting I did fast full sore,
to pray I was not slacke.

15 As they had bene my brethren deare,
I did my selfe behaue:

As one that maketh twofull cheare,
about his mothers graue.

16 But they at my distresse did ioy,
and gather on a rout:

Pea abiect slanes at me did toy,
with mockes and cheekes full stont.

17 The belly gods and flattering traine, that all good things deride:

At me doe grin with great disdain,
and plucke their mouthes aside.

18 Lord when wilt thou amend this geare,
why dost thou stay and pause?

O rid my soule mine onely deare, out of these Lions clauies.

19 And then I will giue thanks to thee,
before the Church alwaies:

And whereas moit of people be:
there will I shew thy prayse.

20 Let not my foes preuaile on me,
which hate me for no fault:

For yet to winke or turne their eye,
that couldest me assault.

The third part.

21 Of peace no word they thinke or say,
their talke is all vntrue:

They still consult and would betray,
all those that peace enshue.

22 Which open mouth they run at me,
they gape they laugh they flie:

Well, well, say they, our eyes doe see,
the thing that we desire.

23 But Lord thou seest what waies they cease not this geare to mend: (take

Benot farre off nor me forsake, as men that faile their friend.

24 Awake, arise and stirre abroad,
defend me in my right:

Reueng my cause my Lord my God,
and aide me with thy might.

25 According to thy righteousness,
my Lord God let me free:

And let not them their pride expresse,
nor triumph on me.

26 Let not their hearts reioyce and cry,
there, there this geare goeth trim:

As giue them cause to say on high,

we haue our will on him.

27 Confound them with rebuke and shame that ioy when I doe mourne :
And pay them home with spite and blame,
that brag at me with scoorne.
28 Let them be glad and eke reioyce, which loue mine vpright way :
And they alwaies with heart and voice,
shall praise the Lord and say.

29 Great is the Lord and doth excell,
for why? he doth delight :
To see his seruants prosper well,
that is his pleasant sight.
30 Therefore my tongue I will apply,
thy righteousnesse to praise :
Unto the Lord my God will I, sing laud and thankes alwaies.

Dixit iniustus, Psal. xxxvi. I. H.

David vexed by the wicked complaineth of their malice, but considering Gods great mercy to all creatures, especially toward his children, by faith thereof is comforted and assured of his deliuerance.

Sing this as the humble suite of a Sinner.

The wicked with his workes vnjust,
doth thus persuade his heart :
That of the Lord he hath no trust,
his feare is set apart.
2 Yet doth he ioy in his estate,
to waite as he began :
So long till he deserue the hate,
of God and eke of man.
3 His wordes are wicked vile and nought, his tongue no truth doth tell :
Yet at no hand will he be taught,
which way he may doe well.
4 When he doth sleepe then doth he muse,
his mischiefe to fulfill :
No wicked waies doth he refuse,
nor nothing that is ill.
5 But Lord thy goodnesse doth ascend, aboue the heauens high :
So doth thy truth it selfe extend,
vnto the cloudy skie.
6 Much more then hills to high & deepe,
thy iustice is exspect :
Thy iudgement like to seas most deepe,
thou sauest both man and beast.
7 Thy mercy is aboue all things,
O God it doth excell :
In trust whereof as in thy whitges,
the sonnes of men shall dwell.
8 Within thy house they shall be fed, with plenty at their will :
O fall delights they shall be fed,
and take the reof their ill.
9 For why? the well of life so pure,
doth euer flow from thee :
And in thy light we are full sure,
the lasting light to see.
10 From such as thee desire to know,
let not thy grace depart :
Thy righteousnesse declare and show,
to men of vpright heart.
11 Let not the proud on me preuaile,

O Lord of thy good grace :

For let the wicked me assaile,
to throw me out of place.
12 But they in their deuile shall fall.
that wicked workes maintaine :
They shall be ouerthrowne withall, and neuer rise againe.

Noli emulari, Psal. xxxvii. W. W.

Because the godly should not bee daunted to see wicked men prosper, David sheweth that all things shall be granted euen with heares desire to them that loue and feare God : but the wicked albeit they flourish for a time, shall at length perishe.

Sing this as the 51 Psalme.

Gudge not to see the wicked men,
in wealth to flourish still :
Nor yet enuie such as to ill,
haue bent and set their will.
2 For as greene grasse and flourishing are cut and wither away :
So shall their great posteritie,
soone perishe and decay.
3 Trust thou therefore in God alone, to doe well giue thy mind :
So thou shalt haue the land as thine,
and there sure food shalt find.
4 In God set all thy hearts delight, and looke what thou wouldest haue :
Or else canst wish in all the world,
thou needst it not to craue.
5 Cast both thy selfe and thine affaires, on God with perfect trust :
And thou shalt see with patience,
the effect both sure and iust.
6 Thy perfect life and godly name,
he will cleare as the light :
So that the Sunne euen at noone day, shall not shine halfe so bright.
7 Be still therefore and steadfastly, on God see thou waite then :
Not shrinking for the prosperous state,
of lewd and wicked men.
8 Shake of dispaire, enuie and hate,
at least in any wise :
Their wicked steps annoyd and flie,
and follow not their guile.
9 For euer wicked man will God, destroy both more and lesse :
But such as trust in God are sure,
the land for to possess.
10 Watch but a while and thou shalt see,
no more the wicked traine :
No not so much as house or place,
where once he did remaine.
The second part.
11 But mercifull and humble men,
enjoy shall sea and land :
In rest and peace they shall reioyce, for nought shall them withstand.
12 The lewd men and malicious, against the iust conspire :
They gnash their teeth at him as men,
which doe his bane desire.
13 But while that lewd men thus do think the Lord laughs them to scorne :
For why? he seeth their terme approach,
when they shall sigh and mourne.

14 The wicked haue their sword out drawne their bowe like they haue bene:
To ouerthrow and kill the poore,
as they the right way went.

15 But the same sword shall pierce their which was to kill the iust: (hearts) Likewise their bow shall breake to shivers wherein they put their trust.

16 Doubtles the poore mans iust estate, is better a great deale more:
Then all these lewd and wordly mens,
rich pompe and heaped store.

17 For be their power neuer so strong,
God will it ouerthrow:
Where contrary he doth preferue
the humble men and low.

18 Hee seeth by his great prouidence,
the good mens trade and way:
And will giue them inheritance,
which neuer shall decay.

19 They shall not be discouraged,
when some are hard bested:
When other shall be hunger bit,
they shall be clad and fed.

20 For whosoener wicked is,
and enemy to the Lord:
Shall quaille yea melt euen as Lambs grease or smoake that flies abroad.

The third part.

21 Behold the wicked borrow much,
and neuer payeth againe:
Whereas the iust by liberal gifts,
makes many glad and faine.

22 For they whom God doth blest, shall the land for heritage: (haue)
And they whom he doth curse likewise, shall perishe in his rage.

23 The Lord the iust mans cause doth and giue him good successe: (guide)
To euerie thing he takes in hand,
he sendeth good redresse.

24 Though that he fall yet is he sure,
not utterly to quaille:
Because the Lord stretcheth out his hand,
at need and doth not faile.

25 I haue bene yong and now am old,
yet did I neuer see:
The iust man left, nor yet his seede,
to beg for misericordie.

26 But giues alway most liberally, and sends whereas is need:
His children and posterity, receiue of God their meed.

27 Flee vice therefore and wickednes,
and vertue doe embrace:
So God shall grant thee long to haue,
on earth a dwelling place.

28 For God so toucheth quietie, and shewes to his such grace:
That he preferues them euermore,
but stropes the wicked race.

29 Whereas the good and godly men, inherit shall the Land:
Hauing as Lords all things therein,
in their owne power and hand.

30 The iust mans mouth doth euer speake,

of matters wise and bie:
His tongue doth talke to edifie,
with truth and equitie.

31 For in his heart the law of God, his Lord doth still abide:
So that where euer he goe or walke,
his foote can neuer slide.

32 The wicked like a rauening wolfe,
the iust man doth beset:
By all meanes seeking him to kill,
if he fall in his net.

The fourth part.

33 Though he should fall into his hands, yet God would succour send:
Though men against him sentence giue,
God will him yet defend.

34 Waite thou on God and keepe his way he shall preferue thee then:
The earth to rule and thou shalt see,
destroyd these wicked men.

35 The wicked haue I seene most strong,
and placed in high degree:
Flourishing in all wealth and store,
as doth the Lawell tree.

36 But suddenly he passed away,
and loe he was quite gone:
Then I him sought but could not find,
the place where dwelt such one.

37 Marke and behold the perfect man,
how God doth him increase:
For the iust man shall haue at length,
great ioy with rest and peace.

38 As for transgressours wor to them, destroyd they all shall be:
God will cut off their budding race,
and rich posteritie.

39 But the saluation of the iust,
doth come from God above:
Who in their trouble sends them ayd,
of his meere grace and loue.

40 God doth them helpe save and deliuer,
from lewd men and uniuert:
And still will save them whilst that they,
in him doe put their trust.

Domine in furore. Psal. xxxviii. I. H.

David sicke of some grievous disease acknowlegeth himselfe to be chastised of the Lord for his sinnes and therefore prayeth God to turne away his wrath, begin the end with firme confidence and commendeth his cause to God, hopeth for speedy helpe at his hand.

Sing this at the humble suite of a Sinner.

Pleas me not to rebuke O Lord,
in thy provoked ire:
As in thy heauie wrath O Lord, correct me I desire.

2 Thine arrows doe stick fast in mee,
thy hand doth presse me sore:
And in my flesh no health at all,
appeareth any more.

3 And all this is by reason of,
thy wrath that I am in:
Nor any rest is in my bones,
by reason of my sinne.

4 For loe my wicked doings O Lord,
aboue my head are gone:
A greater load then I can beare,
they lie me sore vpon.

7 My wounds stinke and are fettered sore,
as teachsome is to see:
Which all through mine owne foolishnes,
betideth vnto me.
8 And I in carefull wise am brough't,
in trouble and distress:
That I go wailing all the day,
in dolefull heavinesse.
9 My loynes are fill'd with sore disease,
my flesh hath no whole part,
10 I feeble am and broken sore,
I roare for griefe of heart,
11 Thou knowest Lord my desire my grones are open in thy sight:
12 My heart doth pant, my strength hath mine eyes haue lost their light. (saide)
My louers and my wonted friends, stand looking on my woe:
And eke my kinsmen farre away,
are me departed fro.
13 They that did seeke my life laid snares,
and they that sought the way,
To doe me hurt spake lies and thought,
on treason all the day,

The second part.

14 But as a deafe man I became,
that cannot heare at all:
15 And as one dumbe that opens not,
his mouth to speake withall.
16 For all my confidence O Lord, is wholly set on thee:
17 O Lord thou Lord that art my God, thou shalt giue eare to me.
18 Thus did I craue that they my foes, triumph not ouer me.
For when my foore did slip then they,
did toy my fall to see.
And truly I poore wretch am set,
in plague and woefull plight:
And eke my grieuous heavinesse,
is euer in thy sight.
19 For while I for my wickednesse,
in humble wise confesse:
And while I for my sinful deedes,
my sorrowes doe expresse.
20 My foes doe still remaine aline, and mighty are also:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
their number hugely grow.
21 They stand against me that my good,
which euill I doe repay:
Because that good and honest things,
I doe enliue alway.
22 Forake me not my Lord my God,
be thou not farr away:
Haste me to helpe my Lord my God.
my safete and my day.

Dixi custodiam Psal. xxxix. J. H.

David hauing determin'd silence, yet brast forth into words that he would not, through his bitter griefe for bee maketh certaine requestes which take of mans infirmities: yet mixed with many prayers and all to shew a mind wonderfully troubled, that it may appeare how he did strue mightily against death and desperation.

Sing this as the humble suite of a sinner.

I Said I will looke to my wayes,
for feare I should goe wrong,

I will take heed all times that I,
offend not with my tongue,
2 As with a bit I will keepe fast, my mouth with force and might:
Not once to whisper all the while,
the wicked are in sight.
3 I held my tongue and spake no word, but kept me close and still:
Pea from good talke I did reframe,
but force against my will.
4 My heart wapt hote within my breast, with musing thought and doubt:
Which did increase and stirre the fire,
at last these words brast out.
5 Lord number out my life and dayes, which yet I haue not past:
So that I may be certifi'd,
how long my life shall last.
6 Lord thou hast paynted out my life,
in length much like a span:
Mine age is nothing vnto thee,
so vaine is euery man.
7 When walketh like a shade and doth,
in vaine himselfe annoy:
In getting goods and cannot tell,
who shall the same enioy.
8 Now Lord lieth things this wise do frame
what helpe doe I desire:
Of truth my helpe doth hang on thee,
I nothing else require.

The second part.

9 For all the sinnes that I haue done,
Lord quite me out of hand:
And make me not a scoime to foolles,
that nothing vnderstand.
10 I was as dumbe and to complaine,
no trouble might me moue:
Because I knew it was thy worke,
my patience for to proue.
11 Lord take from me thy scourge & plague,
I can them not with stand:
I faint and pine away for feare,
of thymost heauy hand.
12 When thou for sinne dost man rebuke,
he wareth woe and wain:
As doth a cloth that moches haue fret,
so vaine a thing is man.
13 Lord heare my suite and giue good heed, regard my teares that fall:
I sojourne like a stranger heere,
as did my fathers all.
14 Spare a little giue me space,
my strength for to restore:
Before I goe away from hence,
and shall be seene no more.

Expectans expectans. Psal. xl. I. H.

David deliuered from great danger doth magnifie God therefore, and commendeth his providence towards all mankind. Then hee promiseth to giue himselfe wholly to Gods seruice and declarerth how God is truly worshipped. Afterward he giueth thanks, and hauing complained of his enemies, calleth for aid and succour.

Sing this as the 3. Psalm.

I Waited long and sought the Lord,
and patiently did beare,
At length to me he did accord,

- my voice and cry to heare.
 2 We plucked me from the lake so deepe out of the mire and clay:
 And on a rocke he set my feete,
 and he did guide my way.
 3 To me he taught a Psalm of praise,
 which I must shew abroad:
 And sing new songs of thanks alwaies, unto the Lord our God.
 4 When all the folke these things shall see as people much afraide:
 Then they unto the Lord will flie,
 and trust upon his ayde.
 5 O blest is he whose hope and heart,
 doth in the Lord remaine:
 That with the proud doe take no part,
 nor such as lie and faine.
 6 For Lord my God thy wondrous deeds, in greatnelle farre doe passe:
 Thy fauour towards vs exceedes,
 al things that euer was.
 7 When I intend and doe denie, thy workes abroad to shew:
 To such a reckoning they doe rise,
 thereof no end I know,
 8 Burnt offerings thou delightest not in,
 I know thy whole desire:
 With sacrifice to purge his sinne,
 thou doest no man require.
 9 Meate offerings and sacrifice, thou wouldest not haue at all:
 But thou O Lord hast open made,
 mine eares to heare withall.
 10 But then sayd I behold and looke,
 I come a meane to be:
 For in the volum of thy booke,
 thus it is said of me.
 11 That I O God should doe thymisde, which thing doth like me well:
 For in my heart thy law I find,
 fast placed there to dwell.
 12 Thy iustice and thy righteousness,
 in great resorts I tell:
 Behold my tongue no time shall cease,
 O Lord thou knowest it well.
 The second part.
 13 I haue not hid within my breast,
 thy goodnesse as by stealth:
 But I declare and haue exprest, thy truth and saving health.
 14 I keepe not close thy louing mind,
 that no man should it know:
 The trust that in thy truth I finde,
 to all the Church I shew.
 15 Thy tender mercy Lord from me, withdraw thou not away:
 But let thy loue and veritie, preserve me still for aye.
 16 For I with mischief many one,
 and sore beset about,
 My sinnes increasend to come on,
 I cannot spee them out.
 17 For why in number they exceed,
 the haies upon mine head:
 My heart doth faile for very dread,
 that I am almost dead.
 18 With speed Lords helpe and set me free,
 O Lord I thee require:

Make haste with al to succour me,
 O Lord at my desire.

- 19 Let them sustaine rebuke and shame,
 that seeke my soule to gill:
 Drive backe thy foes and then defame,
 that wisly and would me ill.
 20 For their ill feates doe them discry,
 that would deface my name:
 Alwaies at me they raile and cry,
 fie on him, fie for shame.
 21 Let them in thee haue ioy and wealth,
 that seeke to thee alwaies:
 That those that loue thy saving health,
 may say to God be praye.
 22 But as for me I am but poore, opprest and brought full low:
 Yet thou O Lord wilt me restore,
 to health full well I know.
 23 For why, thou art my hope and trust
 my refuge helpe and Ray:
 Wherefore my God as thou art iust, with me no time delay.

Beatus qui intelligit. Psal. xli. T. S.

Dauid graciously afflicted, blesteth them that pite his case complaining of faithlesse friends such as Judas, Iohn. 5. then he giueth thanks for Gods mercy in chastising him gently, not suffering his enemies to triumph.

The man is blest that careful is the needy to consider, For in the season
 perillous, the Lord will him deliuer.
 2. The Lord will make him safe and sound and happy in the land, And he wil not deliuer him into his enemies hand.

- 3 And in his bed when he lieth sick,
 the Lord will him restore:
 And thou O Lord wilt turne to health,
 his sicknesse and his sore.
 4 Then in my sicknesse thus say I,
 haue mercy Lord on me:
 And heale my soule which is full woe,
 that I offended thee.
 5 Mine enemies wisht me ill in heart,
 and thus of me did say,
 When shall he die that al his name,
 may vanishe quite away.
 6 And when they come to visite me,
 they aske if I doe well,
 But in their hearts mischief they hatch,
 and to their mates it tell.
 7 They bite their lips and whisper so,
 as though they would me chame,

And

The second part.

And cast their fetters how to trap,
me with some mortall harme.
Some grieuous sin hath brought him to,
this sickness say they plaine:
He is so low that without doubt,
rise can be not againe.
The man also that I did trust,
with me deuile deceite:
Whose army table eate my bread,
the same for me laid waite.
I haue mercy Lord on me therefore,
and let me be preferred:
That I may render vnto them,
the things they haue desired.
By this I know assuredly,
to be beloued of thee:
When that mine enemies haue no cause,
to triumph ouer me.
But in my right thou hast me kept,
and maintained alway:
And in thy presence place assigned,
where I shall dwell for aye.
The Lord the God of Israel,
be praised euermore:
Euen to be it Lord will I say,
euen so be it therefore.

Quemadmodum. Psal. xli. I. H.

David is grieved that through periculous he could not be present in the congregation, protesting his presence in heart, albeit in body separated. At last he sheweth that notwithstanding these sorrowes and thoughts, yet he continually putteth his confidence in the Lord.

Sing this as the humble wise of a Sinner.

I like as the hart doth breath and bray,
the well springs to obtaine:
So doth my soule desire alway,
with the Lord to remaine.
My soule doth thirst & would draw neare
the liuing God of might.
When shall I come and appeare,
in presence of his light.
The teares all times are my repast,
which from mine eyes doe slide:
When wicked men cry out so fast,
where now is God your guide?
Alas what grieve is this to thinke,
what freedom once I had.
Therefore my soule as at pits binke,
is most heauie and sad.
When I did march in good array,
furnished with my traine:
Unto the temple was our way,
with songs and hearts most faine.
My soule why art thou sad alwaies,
and fereft thus in my brest?
Trust still in God for him to praise,
I hold it alwaies best.
By him I haue succour at need,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which with all speede, will hast to lend reliefe.
And thus my soule within me Lord,
doth faine to thinke vpon:
The land of Jordan and records
the little hill Hermon.

One grieve another in doth call,
as floyde burst out their voice:
The founts of euill that doe fall,
ruine ouer me with noise.
Yet I by day felt his goodnesse,
and helpe at all assayes:
Likewile by night I did not cease,
the liuing God to praise.
I am perswaded thus to say,
to him with pure pretence.
O Lord thou art my guide and stay,
my rocke and my defence.
Why doe I then in penitencie, hanging the head thus waile, While that mine enemies me oppresse,
and bere me with their talke?
For why they becomine inward parts with pangues to be abhord:
When they cry out with stubborne heartes,
Where is thy God thy Lord?
So soone why dost thou faint & quail,
my soule with paine opprest?
With thoughts why dost thy selfe assaile,
to soe within my brest?
Trust in the Lord thy God alwaies, and thou the time shalt see:
To giue him thanks with laud and praise for health restord to thee.

Iudica me Domine. Psal. xliij. T. S.

Hee praueth to be deliuered from them which conspire with Abaddon, to the end that he might ioy-fully praise God in his holy congregation.

Sing this as the 35. Psalme.

IUDGE and reuenge my cause O Lord, from them that euill be.
From wicked and deceitfull men,
O Lord deliuer me.
For of my strength thou art the God,
why putt thou me thee fro?
And why walke I so heauily, oppressed with my foe?
Send out thy light and eke thy truth,
and lead me with thy grace:
Which may conduct me to thy hill,
and to thy dwelling place.
Then shall I to the altar goe,
of God my ioy and cheare:
And on my harpe giue thanks to thee,
O God my God most deare.
Why art thou then so sad my soule,
and fereft thus in my brest?
Still trust in God for him to praise,
I hold it alwaies best.
By him I haue deliuerance,
against all paine and griefe:
He is my God which doth alway,
at neede send me reliefe.

Deus auxilium. Psal. xliij. T. S.

A most earnest prayer made in the name of the faith-full in persecution, for sustaining the quarrell of Gods word, as in s. Paul. Rom. 8

Our eares haue heard our satters

thers tell, and reverently record. The wondrous works that thou hast done, in elder times (O Lord) how thou didst cast the Gentiles out, and stroydst them with strong hand: Planting our fathers in their place, and gavest to them their land.

3 They conquered not by sword, nor strength
the land of thy behest:
But by thy hand thine arme and grace,
because thou lovedst them best.
4 Thou art my king O God that holpe,
Jacob in sundry wile.
5 Led with thy power we thyw downe such as did against vs rise.

6 I trusted not in bow, ne sword,
they could not sancme sound:
7 Thou keptst vs from our enemies rage, thou didst our foes confound.
8 And still we boast of thee our God,
and praise thy holy name:
9 Yet now thou goest not with our host,
but leavest vs to shame.
10 Thou madest vs flee before our foes,
and so were ouer trod:
Our enemies robd and spoild our goods,
while we were sparit abroad.
11 Thou hast vs given to our foes,
as sheepe for to be flaine:
Among the heathen eury where,
scattered we doe remaine.
12 Thy people thou hast sold like slaves,
and as a rym of nought
For profite none thou gettst thereby,
no gaine at all was sought.
13 And to our neighbours thou hast made of vs a laughing stocke,
And those that round about vs dwell,
at vs doe grin and mocke.

The second part.

14 Thus we scorne for no other ble,
but for a conuon talke:
They mocke, they scorne they nod their,
where euer they goe or walke. (heads) 15 I am ashamed continually to heare these wicked men:
Plea to I blinde that all my face,
with red is conered then.

16 For why? we heare such standour such false reports and lies (woe)
That death it is to see their wrongs their threatenings and their cries.
17 For all this we forget not thee,
nor yet thy couenant breake:
18 We turne not backe our hearts from thee
nor yet thy pathes forsake.
19 Yet thou hast trod vs downe to dust,
where dens of dragons be:
And conered vs with shade of death,
and great aduersitie.
20 If we haue our Gods name forgot,
and helpe of Idols sought:
Would not God then haue tride this out,
for he doth know our thought?
21 Nay, nay for thy names sake O Lord, alwayes are wee flaine thus:
22 As sheepe vnto the shambles sent,
right so they deale with vs.
13 Thy Lord why sleepest thou? awake, and leaue vs not for all:
24 Why hidest thou thy countenance, and doest forget our thral?
25 For downe to dust our soule is brought and we now at last cast:
Our belly like as it were glide, vnto the ground cleaues fast.
26 Rise vp therefore for our defence,
and helpe vs Lord at neede,
We thee beseech of thy goodnes, to releue vs with speede.

Eruditis cor meum. Psal. xlv. I. N

Solomon his maiestie, honor, strength, beauty, riches and power are praised: his marriage with the Egyptian an heathen woman is blest, of that shee renounce her people and country, and giue her selfe wholy to her husband. Heere is figured the won-derfull maiesty and increase of Christs kingdome, and the Church his spouse now taken of the Gentiles.

Singebis as the 25. Psalms.

MP heari doth take in hand, some ioyfull song to sing:
The praise that I shall shew therein pertaineth to the king.
2 Thy tongue shall be as quicke, his honour to endite.
As is the pen of any Scribe,
that bleth fast to write.
3 O sayest of all men,
thy speech is pleasant pure:
For God hath blessed thee with gifts,
for euer to endure.
4 About thee girde thy sword,
O Prince of might elect:
With glozy honour and renowne,
thy person pure is deckt.
5 Got forth with goodly speede,
in meekenes truth and right:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct,
in workes of dreadfull night.
Thy arrowes sharpe and keene,
their hearts so feare shall sing:
That folke shall fall and kneele to thee,
yea all thy foes (O king)
7 Thy ropall scate O Lord

For ever shall remaine:

Because the scepter of thy Realme, doth righteousnesse maintaine.

8 Because thou lovest the right,
and doest the ill detest:

God even thy God hath nointed thee with ioy above the rest.

9 With myrrh and sauiours sweet thy clothes are all bespreed,

When thou doest from thy palace passe therein to make thee glad.

10 Kings daughters doe attend
in fine and rich aray,

At thy right hand the Queene doth stand in gold and garments gay.

The second part.

11 O daughter take good heed, incline and giue good care:

Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most deare.

12 Then shall the king desire thy beautie faire and crim,

For why, he is the Lord thy God and thou must worship him.

13 The daughters then of Tyre with gifts full rich to see,

And all the wealth of the Land shall make their suite to thee,

14 The daughter of the king, is glorious to behold:

Within her closet she doth sit,
all deckt in beaten gold.

15 In robes well wrought with needle,
and many a pleasant thing:

With virgins faire on her to waite,
she cometh to the king.

16 Thus are they brought with ioy,
and mirth on euery side:

Into the palace of the king,
and there they doe abide.

17 In stead of parents left,
(O Queene thy chance so stands)

Thou shalt haue sons whom thou mayst set,
as Princes in all lands.

18 Therefore thy holy name
all ages shall record,

Thy people shall giue thanks to thee for euermore O Lord.

Dom nostrum refugium. Psal. xlvj. I. H.

Along of thanksgiving for the deliuerance of Ierusalem, after Senacherib with his army was driuen away, or some other like sodaine and marciellous deliuerance by the mighty hand of God: whereby the Prophet commendeth this great benefite, doth exhort the faithfull to giue themselves wholly into the hands of God, doubting nothing but that vnder his protection they shall be safe against all the assaults of their enemies.

The Lord is our defence and aide, the strength whereby wee stand: When we with you are much dismayed, he is our helpe at hand. 2. Though the earth remooue, we will not feare, though hills so high and deepe Be thrust and hurled here and there, within the Sea

so deepe.

3 For though the waues doe rage so sore that all the banks it spils,

And though it ouerflow the shore,
and beat downe mightie hills.

4 For one faire fount doth send abroad,
his pleasant stream es apace:

To seeth the Citie of our God,
and wash his holy place.

5 In midst of her the Lord doth dwell,
he can no whit decay:

All things against her shall rebell,
the Lord will truely slay,

6 The heathen folke the kingdomes feare,
the people make a noyse:

The earth did melt and not appeare,
when God puts forth his voice.

7 The Lord of hostis doth take our part,
to vs he hath an eye:

Our hope of health with all our heart,
on Iacobs God doth lie.

8 Come heare & see with mind & thought,
the working of our God:

What wonders he himselfe hath wrought, throughout the earth abroad.

9 By him all warres are burst and gone,
which countries did conspire:

Their bowes he brake and speares each one,
their chariots burnt with fire.

10 Leau of therefore saith he and know,
I am a God most stout:

Among the heathen he and low,
and all the earth throughout.

11 The Lord of hostis doth vs defend,
he is our strength and tower:

On Iacobs God we doe depend,
and on his might and power.

Omnes gentes. Psal. xlvj. I. H.

An exhortation to worship God for his mercies toward Iacobs posteritie. Herein is prophesied the kingdom of Christ, in the time of the Gospell.

Sing this as the 46 Psalme.

Ye people all with one accord,
clay hands and eke reioice:

Be glad and sing vnto the Lord with sweet and pleasant voice,

2 For high the Lord and dreadfull is,
with wonders manifold:

A mightie King he is also,
in all the earth extolde.

- 3 The people he shall make to be unto our bondage thrall, And underneath our feet he shall the nations make to fall.
- 4 For vs the heritage he chose,
which we possesse alone:
The flourishing worship of Jacob,
his well beloued one.
- 5 Our God ascended vpon high with joy and pleasant noise,
The Lord goeth vp aboue the skie, with trumpets royall voice.
- 6 Sing praises to our God sing praise,
sing praises to our King:
For God is king of all the earth,
all skillfull praises sing.
- 7 God on the heathen raines and sits vpon his holy throne,
- 8 The Princes of the people haue them toynd euery one To Abrahams people, for our God which is exalted hit,
As with a buckler doth defend the earth continually.

Magnus Dominus. Psal. xlvij.

Thanks are given to God for the notable deliuerance of Hierusalem from the hands of many Kings, the Rate whereof is praised, for that God is present at all times to defend it. This Psalm is seemeth to be made in the time of Ahaz, Iosaphat, Aza, or Ezechia: for then chiefly was the Citie by huraine Princes assaulted.

Sing thou as the 46. Psalm.

- Great is the Lord, and with great praye to be advanced still,
Within the Citie of our God,
vpon his holy hill.
- 2 Mount Sion is a holy place,
it gladdeth all the land:
The Citie of the mighty King,
on her North side doth stand.
- 3 Within the pallaces thereof
God is a refuge knownen, For loe the Kings are gathered, and together they are gone.
- 4 But when they did behold it so, they wondered and they were Astonied much, and suddenly were diuyn backe with feare.
- 5 Great terror there on them did fall,
for very woce they cry:
As doth a woman when she shall goe trauell by and by.
- 6 As thou with Easterne winde the ships
vpon the Sea doest breake, So were they strake, and euen as we heard our fathers speake:
- 7 So in the Citie of our God,
we saw as it was told:
Pea in the Citie which our God for euer will uphold.
- 8 O Lord we waite and doe attend on thy good helpe and grace,
For which we doe all times attend within thy holy place.
- 9 O Lord according to thy name, for euer is thy praise.

And thy right hand O Lord is full of righteousness alwayes.

- 10 Let for thy iudgements Sion mount,
fulfilled be with ioyes:
And eke of Iuda goyn (O Lord)
the daughter to reioyce.
- 11 Goe walke about all Sion hills,
yea round about her goe:
And tell the towers that there vpon are builded on a tow.
- 12 And marke ye well her bulwarkes all behold her towers there,
That ye may tell thereof to them that after shall be here.
- 13 For this God is our God, our God for euermore is he,
Pea and vnto the death also our guider shall be.

Audiet hec omnes. Psal. xlix.

Gods spirit moueth the consideration of mans life, shewing that the wealthy are not the happiest, but notwithstanding all things are ruled by Gods providence, who as he iudgeth these worldly misers to euermore torment. So doth hee preferre his, and will reward them in the day of the retribucion. 1. Tacit. 2.

Sing thou as the 46. Psalm.

- AL people hearken and giue eare to that that I shall tell, 2 Both high and low, both rich and poore
that in the world doe dwell.
- 3 For why, my mouth shall make discourse of many things right wise,
In vnderstanding shall my heart his studie exercise.
- 4 I will incline mine eare to know
the parables so dark,
And open all my doubtfull speech in meeter on my harp.
- 5 Why should I feare afflictions,
or any care full toyle:
Or else my foes which at my heeles are prest my life to spoyle?
- 6 For as for such as riches haue, wherein their trust is most:
And they which of their treasure great,
themselues doe brag and boast.
- 7 There is not one of them that can his brothers death redeeme, Or that can giue a price to God sufficient for him.
- 8 It is too great a price to pay,
none can thereto attaine:
Or that he may his life prolong,
and not in gaile remaine.
- 9 They see wise men as well as foolen,
subiect vnto deaths hands:
And being dead strangers possesse their goods, their rents, their land.
- 10 Their care is to build houses faire,
and so to determine sure:
To make their name right great on earth
for euer to endure.
- 11 Yet shall no man alwayes enioy high honour, wealth and rest,
But shall at length taste of deaths cup,
as well as the brut bea.

The second part.

- 13 And though they try their foolish to be most lewd and vaine, (thoughts Their children yet approue their talke, and in like sinne remaine.
14 As sheepe into the fold are brought,
so shall they into graue :
Death shall them ear, and in that day
the iust shall Lordship haue.
15 Their image and their royall port shall fade and quite decay, When as from houle to pit they passe with woe and well away.
16 But God will surely preferne me from death and endlesse paine, Because he will of his good grace
my soule receiue againe.
17 If any man wage wondrous rich, feare not I say therefore :
Although the glory of his houle increaseth more and more.
18 For when he dieth of all these things
nothing shall he receiue,
His glory will not follow him,
his pompe will take her leaue.
19 Yet in this life he takes himselfe
the happiest vnder Sunne,
And others likewise flatter him, saying all is well done.
20 And presuppose he liue as long as did our fathers old,
Yet must he needs giue place at length,
and be brought to death's fold.
21 Thus man to honour God hath cald, yet doth he not consider :
But like bruit beasts so doth he liue,
which turne to dust and powder.

Deus Deorum. Psal. L. W. IV.

He prophesieth how God will call all nations by the Gospell, and require no other sacrifice of his people, but confession of his benefits and thankgi-uing : and how he detesteth all such as seem zealous of ceremonies, and not of the pure word of God.

The mighty God, the eternall hath thus spoke, and all the world hee will call and prouoke, Euen from the East and so forth to the west. 2. From toward Sion, which place him liketh best : God will appeare in beauty most excellent :

3. Our God will come before that long time be spent.

3 Denouncing fire
shall goe before his face, A great tempest shall rounde about him trace.

4 Then shall he call the earth and heaucus bright, To iudge his folke
with equitie and right.

7 Saying goe too,
and now my Saints assemble,
My peace they keepe,
their gifts doe not dissemble.

6 The heauens shall declare his rightcoulnesse,
For God is iudge
of all things both more and lesse.

7 Heare my people,
for I will now recale :
List Israel,
I will thee nought conceale.

8 Thy God thy God am I, and will not blame thee For giuing not all manner offerings to me.

9 I haue no need to take of thee at all, Goates of thy fold
or Calfe out of thy stall :

10 For all the beasts
are mine within the wood,
On thousand hills
cattell are mine goods.

11 I know for mine
all birds that are on mountaines,
All beasts are mine which haunt the fields and fountaines.

12 Hungry if I were
I would it not thee tell,
For all is mine
that in the world doth dwell.

13 Eat I the flesh of great Bulls or Bullocks, Or drinke the blond
of Goates and of the flockes.

14 Offer to God
prayer and heartie thanksgiuings, And pay thy vowes
vnto God enseruings.

15 Call vpon me when troubled thou shalt be, Then will I helpe
and thou shalt honour me.

16 To the wicked
thus saith the eternall God, Why dost thou preach
my lawes and gests abroad :

Seeing thou hast
them

- them with thy mouth abused, 17 And hate it to be by discipline reformed.
 My wordes I say
 thou doest rect and hate, 18 If that thou see a sheefe as with thy mate Thou runnest with him,
 and so your pray doe seeke:
 And art all one with bandes and ruffians eke.
 19 Thou thrust thy selfe to backbite and to slander,
 And how thy tongue
 decerneth it is a wonder.
 20 Thou sittest making thy brother how to blame,
 And how to put
 thy mothers sonne to shame.
 21 These things thou dost and whilst I held my tongue, Thou dost me iudge
 because I stayd so long Like to thy selfe:
 yet though I keep long silence, Once shalt thou feeble of thy wrongs iust recompence.
 22 Consider this ye that forget the Lord,
 And feare not when he threatneth with his word:
 Left without helpe
 I shoyld you as a pray.
 23 But he that thankes
 offereth, praiseth me aye,
 Saith the Lord God,
 and he that walketh this trace
 I will him teach Gods saving health to embrace.

Another of the same by I. H.

- The God of Gods the Lord,
 he said the earth by name:
 From whence the Sunne doth rise, unto the setting of the same.
 2 From Sun in his faire place,
 his glory bright and cleare:
 The perfect beauty of his grace,
 from thence it did appeare.
 3 Our God will come in haste, to spease he will not doubt:
 Before him shall the fire wake,
 and tempests round about.
 4 The heauens from on high,
 the earth below likewise:
 He will call forth to iudge and try,
 his folke he doth deuise.
 5 Bring forth my Sainces (saith he) my faithfull flocke so deare, Which are in bond and league with me
 my law to love and feare.
 6 And when those things are tride,
 the heauens shall record:
 That God is iust, and all must bide
 the iudgement of the Lord.

- 7 My people I geue heed,
 I saile to thee I cry:
 I am thy God thy helpe at need thou canst it not deny.
 8 I doe not say to thee
 thy sacrifice is slacke, Thou offerest daily unto me much more then I doe lacke.
 9 Thinkest thou that I doe need thy cattell yong or old, Or els so much desire to feed on Goates out of thy fold?
 10 Nay, all the beastes are mine,
 in woods that eat their fill:
 And thousand more of neat and kine, that runne wilde on the hills.

The second part.

- 11 The birds that build on high,
 in hills and out of sight:
 And beastes that in the fields doe lie,
 are subiect to my might.
 12 Then though I hungred sore,
 what need I ought of thine:
 Sith that the earth with her great store,
 and all therein is mine:
 13 To Bulles flesh haue I need, to eat it dost thou thinke?
 Or such a sweetnesse doe I finde
 the blood of Goates to drinke.
 14 Giue to the Lord his praise,
 with thankes to him apply:
 And see thou pay thy vowes alwayes, unto the God most hye.
 15 Then seeke and call to me, when ought would worke thee blame:
 And I will sure deliuer thee that thou mayest prayle my name.
 16 But to the wicked traine, which talke of God each day:
 And yet their wordes are foule and vaine,
 to them the Lord will say.
 17 With what face darest thou my wordes once speake or name?
 Why dost thy talke my Law allow,
 thy deeds deny the same.
 18 Whereas for to amend thy life thou art so slacke:
 My word the which thou dost pretend,
 is cast behinde thy backe.

The third part.

- 19 When thou a theefe dost see by theft to liue in wealth,
 With him thou runst and dost agree likewise to thine by stealth.
 20 When thou dost thin beheld that wines and mates do fill, Thou likest it well and warest bold to vie that life most vile.
 21 Thy lips thou dost apply to slander and defame,

Thy

Thy tongue is taught to craft and lie, and still doth vs the same.
22 Thou studiost to reuile thy friends to thee to neere,
With flanders thou wouldst needs defile thy mothers soune most deare.

23 Hereat while I doe weepe as though I did not see Thou goest on still, and so dost thinke that I am like to thee.
24 But sure I will not let to strike when I begin, Thy fautes in order I will let and open all thy linne.

25 Marke this I von require, that haue not God in mind:
Lest when I plague you in mine ire,
your helpe be farre to finde.

26 He that doth giue to me
the sacrifice of prayle, Doth please me well, and he shall see to walke in godly waies.

Miserere mei. Psal Lj. W. W.
Dauid rebuked by the Prophet Nathan for his great offences, acknowledged the same to God, professing his natural corruption, wherefore he prayeth God to forgue his sins, and renew in him his holy spirit, promising that he will not be vnmindfull of those great graces. Finally fearing lest God would punish the whole Church for his fault, hee requireth that he would rather increase his graces towards the same.

Lord consider my distresse, and now with speed some pittie take: My finnes deface my faults redreffe, good Lord for thy great mercies sake. 2. Alas me (O Lord) and make mee cleane from this vniust and sinfull act: And purifie yet once againe, my hatious crime and bloudy fact.

3 Remoile and sorrow doth constrain me to acknowledge mine excess,

My finnes alas doe still remaine before my face without release.
4 For thee alone I haue offended, committing euill in thy sight:
And if I were therefore condemned yet were thy iudgements iust and right.

5 It is too manifest alas that first I was conceived in sinne, Pea of my mother to borne was,
and yet vile wretch remaine therein.
6 Also behold Lord thou dost loue
the inward truth of a pure heart, Therefore thy wisdom from above thou hast reuealed me to conuert.

7 If thou with Tlope purge this blot,
I shall be cleaner than the glasse:
And if thou wash away my spot,
the snow in whitenesse shall I passe.
8 Therefore O Lord such toy me send,
that inwardly I may finde grace:
And that my strength may now amend,
which thou hast swagd for my trespass.

9 Turne backe thy face and frowning ire,
for I haue felt enough thy hand:
And purge my finnes I thee desire,
which doe in number passe the sand.
10 Make new my heart with in my brest, and frame it to thy holy will:
Thy constant spirit in me let rest,
which may these raging enemies kill.

The second part.

11 Cast me not Lord out from thy face,
but speedily my torments end:
Take not from me thy spirit of grace, which may from dangers me defend.

12 Restore me to those toyces againe, which I was wont in thee to finde:
And let me thy free spirit retaine, which vnto thee may ascribe my minde.

13 Thus when I shall thy mercies know,
I shall instruct others therein:
And men that are likewise brought low,
by mine example shall see sinne.

14 O God that of my health art Lord, forgiue me this my bloudy vice:
My heart and tongue shall then accord,
to sing thy mercies and iustice.

15 Touch thou my lips my tongue vntie,
O Lord which art the onely key:
And then my mouth shall testifie,
thy wondrous workes and praise alway.

16 And as for outward sacrifice,
I would haue offered many one:
But thou esteemst them of no price,
and therein pleasure taked thou none.

17 The heauy heart the mind opprest,
O Lord thou neuer dost rect:
And to speake truth it is the best,
and of all sacrifice the effect.

18 Lord vnto Sion turne thy face, poure out thy mercies on thy hill:
And on Ierusalem thy grace, build vp the walles and loue it still.

19 Thou shalt accept then our offerings, of peace and righteousness I say:

Pea Calves and many other things,
upon thine altar we will lay.

Another of the same by T. N.

Sing thou as the Lamentation.

HAve mercy on me God after thy great abundant grace:
After thy mercies multitude,
doe thou my sinnes deface.

2 Pea wash me more from mine offence, and cleanse me from my sinne:
For I doe know my faults and still,
my sinnes are in mine eyne.

3 Against thee, thee alone I haue;
offended in this case:
And enill haue I done before,
the presence of thy face.

4 That in the things that thou hast done, upright thou maist be tride:
And eke in iudging that the doome,
may passe vpon thy side.

5 Behold in wickednesse my kinde, and shap: I did receive:
And loe my sinnefull mother eke,
in sinne did me conceiue.

6 But loe the truth of inward parts,
is pleasant vnto thee:
And secrets of thy wilddome thou,
reuealed halt to me.

7 With I hope Lord besprinkle me,
I shall be cleansed to:
Pea wash thou me and so shall I,
be whiter then the snow.

8 Of ioy and gladnesse make thou me,
to heare the pleading voyce:
That so the bruised bones that thou,
hast broken may reioyce.

9 From the beholding of my sinnes,
Lord turne away thy face:
And all my deeds of wickednesse,
doe utterly deface.

10 O God create in me a heart,
vnsport in thy sight:
And eke with in my bowels Lord,
renew a stable spirit.

11 Nor cast me from thy sight nor take,
thy holy spirit away:
The comfort of thy sauing helpe giue me againe I pray.

12 With thy true spirit establish me, and I will teach therefore winners thy waies, and wicked shall,
be turned vnto thy loze.

The second part.

13 O God that art my God of health,
from bloud deliuer me:
That praies of thy righteousness,
my tongue may sing to thee.

14 Thy lips that yet fast closed be,
Doe thou O Lord vnloze:
The praies of thy maiestie,
my mouth shall disclose.

15 I would haue offered sacrifice,
if that had pleased thee,
But pleased with burnt offerings,

I know thou wilt not be 16 A troubled spirit is sacrifice, delightfull in Gods eyes:
A broken and an humble heart,
God thou wilt not despise.

17 In thy good will deale gently Lord, to Sion and withall: Graunt that of thy Ierusalem, vpreard may be the wall.

18 Burnt offerings, gifts and sacrifice of iustice in that day:
Thou shalt accept, and calues they shall vpon thine altar lay.

Quid gloriaris. Psal. Lij. I. H.

Dauid defendeth the arrogant tyranny of Doeg Sauls chiefe shepheard, who by false surmises caused Abimelech and the Priests to be slaine. Hee propheseth his destruction, incourageth the faith-full to trust in God, who most sharpe reuengeth his, and rendereth thanks for his deliuerance, herein is liuely set forth the kingdom of Antichrist.

Why dost thou tyrant boast abroad, thy wicked workes to praise?

Dost thou not know there is a God, whose mercies last alwaies? 2 Why dost thy minde yet still denie, such wicked wiles to warpe? Thy tongue vntrue in forging lies, is like a ra-mour sharpe.

3 O mischief how settst thou thy minde,
and wilt not walke upright:
Thou hast more fast false tales to find,
then bring the truth to light.

4 Thou dost delight in fraud and guile,
in mischief blond, and wrong:
Thy lips haue leard the flattering stile,
O false deceitfull tongue.

5 Therefore shall God for euer confound, and plucke thee from thy place:
Thy seed roote out from of the ground,
and so shall thee deface.

6 The iust when they behold thy fall, with feare will praise the Lord:
And in reproch of thee withall,
cry out with one accord.

7 Behold the man that would not take,
the Lord for his defence.

But of his goods his God did make,
and trust his corrupt sense.

3 But I an Olive fresh and Greene will spring and spread abroad:
For why? my trust all times hath beene,
upon the living God.

9 For this therefore will I give praise, to thee with heart and voyce:
I will set forth thy name alwayes, wherein thy Saints reioyce.

Dixit insipiens. Psal. Liiij. T. S.

David describeth the crooked nature, the crueltie & punishment of the wicked, when they looke not for it, and desireth the deliuerance of the godlie that they may reioyce together.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

The foolish man in that which he,
within his heart hath said:

That there is any God at all,
hath utterly denaid.

2 They are corrupt and they also,
a haynous worke haue wrought:

Among them that there is not one,
of good that woorthely ought.

3 The Lord lookt downe on sons of men from heauen all abroad,

To see if any were that would,
be wise and seeke for God.

4 They are all gone out of the way,
they are corrupted all:

There is not one doth any good,
there is not one at all.

5 Doe not all wicked workers know, that they doe feede vpon:

My people as they feed on bread,
the Lord they call not on.

6 Euen there they were a afraid and stood,
with trembling all bifornade:

Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

7 For God his bones that there besiege, hath scattered all abroad,

Thou hast confounded them that they,
relected are of God.

8 O Lord give thou thy people health,
and thou O Lord fulfill:

Thy promise made to Israel,
from out of Sion hill.

9 When God his people shall restore,
that earth was captiue lad:

Then Jacob shall therein reioyce,
and Israel shall be glad.

Deus in nomine. Psal. Liiij. I. H.

David in great danger through Ziphims called vpon God to destroy his enemies, promising sacrifice for his deliuerance.

Sing this as the 46. Psalme.

God saue me for thy holy name,
and for thy goodnes sake:

Unto the strength Lord of the same,
I doe my selfe betake.

2 Regard O Lord and give an eare, to me when I doe pray:

Bow downe thy selfe to me and heare,
the words that I doe say.

3 For strangers by against me rise,
and tyrants bere me ill:

Which haue not God before their eyes,
they seeke my soule to spill.

4 But loe my God doth giue me aid,
the Lord is straight at hand:

With them by whom my soule is staid,
the Lord doth euer stand.

5 With plagues repay againe all those,
for me that lie in waite:

And in thy truth destroy my foes,
with their owne snare and baite.

6 An offering of free heart and will,
then I to thee shall make:

And praise thy name for therein still great comfort I doe take.

7 O Lord at length doe let me free,
from them that craft conspire:

And now mine eies with ioy doth see,
on them my hearts desire.

Exaudi Deus. Psal. Lv. I. H.

David in great distress, complaineth of Sauls crueltie & falsehood of his familiar acquaintance: effectually mouing the Lord to pity him. Then assured of deliuerance he setteth forth the grace of God, as if he had already obtained his request.

O God giue care and doe apply,
to heare me when I pray:

And when to thee I call and cry, hide not thy selfe away.

2 Take heed to me, grant my request, and answer me againe:

With plaints I pray full sore oppressed, great griefe doth me constrain.

3 Because my foes with threats and cries, oppress me through despite:

And so the wicked sort likewise,
to bere me haue delight.

4 For they in counsell doe conspire, to charge me with some ill:

So in their hally wrath and ire,
they doe pursue me still.

5 My heart doth faint for want of breath,
it pannerth in my breast:

The terrors and the dread of death,
doth worke me much vntrest.

6 Such dreadfull feare on me doth fall,
that I therewith doe quake:

Such horror overwhelmeth me withall, that I no shift can make.

7 But I doe say who will giue me, thel swift and pleasant wings:

Of some fayre done that I may flee,
and rest me from those things.

8 Loe then I would goe farre away,
to fly I would not cease:

And I would hide my selfe and stay,
in some great wilderness.

9 I would be gone in all the land,
and not abide behinde:

That I were quit and ouerpass,
these blasts of boystrous wind.

10 Denide them Lord and from them pull,
their disauish double tong:

For I haue spide their Curty sill, of rapine strife and wrong.

Which

- 11 Which things both night & day through-did close her as a wall: (out In midst of her is miserye flout, and sorrowe ke withall.
12 Her priue parts are wicked plaine,
her deede are much too vile:
And in her streetes there doth remaine,
all crasse fraud and guile.

The second part.

- 13 If that my foes did seeke my shame,
I might it well abide:
From open enemies chake and blame,
somewhere I could me hide.
14 But thou it was my fellow deare, which friendshipp didst proceed:
And didst my secret counsell heare,
as my familiar friend.
15 With whom I had delight to talke,
in secret and abroad:
And we together oft did walke,
within the house of God.
16 Let death in hast vpon them fall,
and send them quicke to hell:
For mischiefc reigneth in the hall,
and parlour where they dwell.
17 But I vnto my God doe crye, to him for helpe I flee:
The Lord doth heare me by and by,
and he doth succour me.
18 At morning noone, and euening tide,
vnto the Lord I pray:
When I so instantly haue cryde,
he doth not say me nay.
19 To peace he shall restore me yet, though warres be neare at hand:
Although the number be full great,
that would against me stand.
20 The Lord that first and last doth raigne
both now and euermore:
Will heare when I to him complaine,
and punish them full sore.
21 For sure there is no hope that they,
to turne will once accord:
For why? they will not God obey,
nor doe not feare the Lord.
22 Upon their friends they laid their hands which were in covenant knit:
Of friendship to neglect the bands,
they passe of care no whit.
24 While they haue war within their heart
as butter are their wordes:
Although their wordes were smooth as oyle,
they cut as sharpe as swords.
24 Cast thou thy care vpon the Lord,
and he shall nourish thee:
For in no wise will he accord,
the iust in thral to see.
25 But God shall cast them deepe in pit, that thirst for bloud alwaies:
He shall no guilefull man permit,
to liue out halfe his daies.
26 Though such be quite destroyed & gone in thee (O Lord) I trust:
I shall depend thy grace vpon with all my heart and lust.

Miserere mei. Psalm. Lvi. 7. H.

David being brought to Achis the King of Gath a.
Sarn. 11. 12. complaineth of his enemies, de-mandeth succour, trusteth in God, and promiseth to performe his vow, which was to praise God in his Church.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- HAuc mercy Lord on me I pray,
for man would me deuour:
He sighteth with me day by day,
and troubleth me each houre.
2 Mine enemies dailie enter pils,
to swallow me outright:
To fight against me many rise,
O thou most high of might.
3 When they would make me much afraid with boasts and bags of pride:
I trust in thee alone for aide,
by thee I will abide.
4 Gods promise I doe mind and praise,
O Lord I sticke to thee:
I doe not care at all aspaies,
what flesh can doe to me.
5 What things I see her did or spake, they wrest them at their will:
And all the counsell that they take,
is how to worke me ill.
6 They all consent themselves to hide, close watch for me to lay:
They spie my pates and sinnes haue laid,
to take my life away.
7 Shall they thus scape, on mischiefc set,
thou God on them wilt frowne:
For in his wrath he doth not let,
to throw whole kingdomes downe.
8 Thou seest how oft they make mee flee,
and on my teares dost looke:
Reserue them in a glasse by thee,
and write them in thy booke.
9 When I doe call vpon thy name,
my foes alway doe start:
I well perceiue it by the same,
that God doth take my part.
10 I glory in the word of God,
to praise it I accord:
With ioy I will declare abroad,
the promise of the Lord.
11 I trust in God and yet I say,
as I before began:
The Lord he is my helpe and stay,
I doe not care for man.
12 I will performe with heart so free,
to God my vowes alwaies:
And I (O Lord) all times to thee, will offer thankes and prayse.
13 My soule from death thou dost defend,
and keepe my feete vpight:
That I before thee may ascend,
with such as liue in light.

Miserere mei. Psalm. Lviij. 1. H.

David in the desert of Ziph betrayed by the inhabitanes, and in the same caue with Saule gathered vnto God with full confidence that hee will per-forme his promise, and shew his glorie in heaven and earth against his cruell enemies, Therefore he reneweth laud and praise.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

Take pittie for thy prionelle sake,
haue mercy Lord on me :

For why, my soule doth her betake,
vnto the helpe of thee.

2 Catchin the shadowe of thy wings,
I let my selfe full fast :

Untill miserie, malice and like things,
be gone and ouerpast.

3 I call vpon the God most hie, to whom I sticke and stand :

I meane the God that will stand by,
the cause I haue in hand.

4 From heauen he hath sent his ayd, to saue me from their sight :

That to denoure me haue assayd,
his mercy truth and might,

5 I lead my life with Lyons fell,
all set on worch and ire :

And with such wicked men I dwell,
that feed like flames of fire :

6 Their teeth are speares and arrowes long as sharpe as I haue seene :

They wound and cut with their quicke tong
as swordes and weapons keene.

7 Set vp and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright :

Exalt thy praise in earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.

8 They lay their net, and doe prepare a prinie caue and pit :

Wherin they thinke my soule to snare,
but they are fallen in it.

9 My heart is set to laud the Lord,
in him to toy alwaies :

My heart I say doth well accord, to sing his laud and praise.

10 Awake my ioy, awake I say,
my Lute my harpe, and string :

For I my selfe before the day, will rise, reioyce and sing.

11 Among the people I will tell,
the goodnesse of my God :

And shew his prayse that doth excell,
in heathen lands abroad.

12 His mercy doth extend as far,
as heauens all are high :

His truth as hie as any starre,
that standeth in the skie,

13 Set forth and shew thy selfe O God,
about the heauens bright :

Exalt thy prayse on earth abroad,
thy maiestie and might.

Si uero usque. Psal. Lvij. I. H.

He describeth his malicous enemies sansles flatterers, who secretly and openly sought his destruction from whom hee appealed to Gods iudgement, shewing that the iust shal reioyce at the punishment of the wicked to Gods glory.

Sing this as the 48. Psalme.

Ye rulers which are put in trust,
to iudge of wrong and right :

Be all your iudgements true and iust, not knowing need nor might.

2 Pray in your hearts be warlike and must,
in mischiefe to continue :

And where you should true iustice vse,

your hands to bysses are bent.

3 This wicked sort in their birth day,
haue erred on this wise :

And from their mothers wombe alway,
haue vsed craft and lies.

4 In them the popoule and the breath,
of serpents doe appeare,

Pea like the adder that is deafe,
and fast doth stop his eare.

5 Because he will not heare the voice, of one that charmerh well :

No though he were the chiefe of choice,
and did therein excell.

6 O God brake thou thir teeth at once, within their mouth throughout :

The tuskes that in their great chaw bones,
like Lyons whelpes hang out.

7 Let them consume away in waste,
as waters runne forth right :

The shafts that they do shoot in haste,
let them be broke in sight.

8 As snailles doe waite within the shell,
and vnto slime doe runne :

As one before his time that fell,
and neuer saw the sunne.

9 Before the thornes that now are young,
to bushes big shall grow,

The stoumes of anger waring strong,
shall take them ere they know.

10 The iust shall ioy, it doth them good, that God doth vengeance take :

And they shall wash their feet in blood,
of them that him forsake.

11 Then shall the world shew forth and tell that good men haue reward :

And that a God on earth doth well, that iustice doth regard.

Eripe me. Psal. Lix. I. H.

David in great danger of Saul, who sent to slay him in his bed, declareth his innocency, and their fury, praying God to destroy all malicious sinners, who liue for a time to exercise his people, but in the end consume in his wrath to Gods glory. For this he singeth praise to God, assure of his mercy.

End aid and saue me from my foes, O Lord I pray to thee, Defend and keepe me from all those, that rise and stirre with me, 2 O Lord preserve me from those men whose dolings are not

not good: and let me sure and safe from them, that still thirst after blood.

3 For loe they watch my soule to take,
they rage against me still.

Pea for no fault that I did make,
I neuer did them ill.

4 They runne and doe themselves prepare,
when I no whit offend:
Arise and saue me from their snare,
and see what they intend.

5 O Lord of hostes of Israel, arise and stirre all lands:
And pity none that doe rebel,
and in their mischief stand.

6 At night they stirre and seeke abroad,
as hounds they houle and grin:
And all the city cleane throughout,
from place to place they run.

7 They speake of me with mouth alway,
but in their lips were swords:
They greed my death and then would say, what one doth heare our words?

8 But Lord thou hast their wayes espyde,
and laught thereat apace:
The heathen folke thou shalt deride,
and mocke them to their face.

9 The strength that doth my foes with-
D Lord doth come of thee: (stand
My God he is my helpe at hand, a fort offence to me.

10 The Lord to me doth shew his grace,
in great abundant skill:
That I may see my foes in case,
such as my heart doth will.

The second part.

11 Destroy them not at once O God, least it from minde doe fall:

But with thy strength drine them abroad,
and so consume them all.

12 For their ill words and trustlesse tongues confound them in their pride:
Thy wicked oathes with lies and wrongs.
let all the world deride.

13 Consume them in thy wrath O Lord, that nought of them remaine.
That men may know throughout the world that Jacobs God do raigne.

14 At evening they returne apace,
as dogs they grin and cry:
Throughout the streets in every place,
they run about and pye.

15 They seeke about for meat I say,
but let them not be fed:
Nor finde a house where in they may, be bold to put their head.

16 But I will shew thy strength abroad,
thy goodnesse I will praise:
For thou art my defence and God,
at need in all assays.

17 Thou art my strength thou hast me said
O Lord I sing to thee:

Thou art my fort my fence and ayd,
a louing God to me,

Dona repulisti. Psal. Lx. I. H.

Dauid now king ouer Iudah after many victories sheweth by euident signes that God elected him king assuring the people that God will prosper them if they approue the same. After he prayeth vnto God to finish that, that he hath begun.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

O Lord thou didst vs cleane forsake, and scatterd it vs abroad:
Such great displeasure thou didst take,
returne to vs, O God.

2 Thy might doth moue the land so sore,
that it in sunder brake:
The hurt thereof O Lord restore,
for it doth bow and quake.

3 With heauy chance thou plaguest thus the people that are thine:
And thou hast giuen vnto vs,
a drinke of deadly wine.

4 But yet to such as feare thy name,
a token shall ensue:
That they may triumph in the same,
because thy word is true.

5 So that thy might may keepe and saue, thy folke that sauaour thee:
That they my helpe at hand may haue,
O Lord grant this to me.

6 The Lord did speake from his owne place
this was his ioyfull tale:
I will diuide Sichan by pace,
and mete out Succoth vale.

7 Gilead is giuen to my hand,
Danass mine beside:
Ephraim the strength of all my land,
my law doth Iuda guide.

8 In Hoab I will walch my feet,
ouer Edom throw my shoe:
And thou Palestine oughtest to seeke,
for sauaour me vnto,

9 But who will bring me at this tide,
vnto the City strong:
Or who to Edom will me guide,
so that I goe not wrong?

10 What thou O God which didst forsake, thy folke, their land, their coast:
Our wars in hand thou wouldest not take,
nor walke among our host.

11 Give aid O Lord and vs relieue, from them that vs disdain:
The helpe that hostes of men can giue,
it is but all in vaine.

12 But through our God wee shall haue to take great things in hand. (might
He will reed downe and put to flight, all those that vs withstand.

Whether hee were in danger of the Ammonites pursued of Absolon, here he crieth to be deliuered & confirmed in his kingdom promising perpetuall prayes.

Reuad

Sing this as the 59. Psalme.

Regard O Lord for I complaine, and make my suite to thee.
Let not my words returne in vaine,
but giue an eare to me.
2 From off the coasts and vtmost parts,
of all the earth abroad:
In griefe and anguish of my heart,
I cry to thee O God.
3 Upon the rocke of thy great power,
my wofull mind repole:
Thou art my hope, my fort, and tower,
my fence against my foes.
4 With in thy tent I lust to dwell,
for euer to adoure:
Under thy wings I know right well,
I shall be safe and sure.
5 The Lord doth my desire regard,
and doth fulfill the same:
With godly gifts doth he reward,
all them that feare his name.
6 The king shall be in health maintaine and so prolong his daies:
That he from age to age shall raigne,
for euermore alwaies.
7 That he may haue a dwelling place,
before the Lord for aye:
Let thy mercy truth and grace, defend him from decay.
8 Then shall I sing for euer still,
with praise vnto thy name:
That all my vowes I may fulfill,
and dayly pay the same.

Comme Deu. Psal. Lxij. I. H.

Dauid declareth by his example, and the nature of God, that he and all people might trust in God alone, seeing that all without God goeth to nought who onely is of power to saue, and that hee rewardeth man according to his workes,

Sing this as the 61. Psalme.

My soule to God shall giue good heed,
and him alone intend:
For why, my health and hope to speed
doth whole on him depend.
2 For he alone is my defence,
my rocke my health and aid:
He is my stay that no pience, shall make me much dismayd.
3 O wicked folke how long will ye,
use craftes: sure ye must fall:
For as a rotten hedge ye be,
and like a tottering wall.
4 Whom God doth loue ye seeke alwaies, to put him to the worke:
Ye loue to lie, with mouth ye praise,
and yet your heart doth curse.
5 Yet still my soule doth whole depend,
on God my chiefest desire:
From all ill feates me to defend,
none but him I require.
6 He is my rocke my strength and tower,
my health is of his grace:

He doth support me that no power,
can moue me out of place.

7 God is my glory and my health,
my soules desire and lust:
My fort my strength my stay my wealth,
God is mine onely trust.
8 O haue your hope in him alway,
ye folke with one accord:
Poure out your hearts to him and say,
our trust is in the Lord.
9 The sonnes of men deceitfull are,
on ballance but a sleight:
With things most vile doe they compare,
for they can keepe no weight.
10 Trust not in wrong, robbrie or stealth
let vaine delights be gone:
Though goods well got flow in with wealth,
let not your heart thereon.
11 The Lord long tith one thing dtd tell, which here to minde I call:
We spake it oft, I heard it well,
that God alone doth all.
12 And that thou Lord art good and kind, thy mercie doth exceed:
So that all sort with thee shall finde,
according to their deed.

Deus Deu meus. Psal. Lxij. T. S.

Dauid after his danger of Ziph, giveth thanks to God for his wonderfull deliuerance, in whose mercies hee trusteth euen in the midst of misery, prophesying the deliuction of Gods enemies, contrarywise happinesse to them that trust in the Lord,
1. Sam. 3.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

O God my God, I watch betime, to come to thee in haste:
For why my soule and body both doe thirst of thee to taste.
2 And in this barren wilderness,
where waters there are none:
My flesh is parcht for thought of thee,
for thee I wish alone.
3 That I might see yet one againe, thy glory strength and might:
As I was wont it to behold,
with in thy temple bright.
4 For why, thy mercies far surmount,
this life and wretched daies:
My lips therefore shall giue to thee,
due honour laud and praise.
5 And whilst I liue I will not faile, to worship thee alway:
And in thy name I shall lift vp,
my hands when I doe pray.
6 My soule is fild as with marrow,
which is both fat and sweete:
My mouth therefore shall sing such songs,
as are for thee most meete.
7 When as in bed I thinke on thee,
and eke all the night tide:
For vnder couert of thy wings,
thou art my loyfull guide.

- 2 My soule doth surely sticke to thee,
thy right hand is my power :
- 9 And those that seek me my soule to destroy,
thou death shall soone deuoure.
- 10 The sword shall them deuoure eachone, their carkeases shall feed
The hungry foxes which doe rume, their pray to seek at need.
- 11 The king and all men shall reioice, that doe professe Gods word :
- For liers mouths shal then be stoppt, which haue the truth disturbd.

Exaudi Dom. Psal. Lxiiij. J. H.

David prayeth against the false reporters and slaudeers, he declared their punishment and destruction to the comfort of the iust, and glorie of God.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

- O Lord vnto my voice giue care,
with plaints when I doe pray :
And rid my life and soule from dread,
of foes that threat to slay.
- 2 Defend me from that sort of men,
which in decies doe lurke :
And from the frowning face of them,
that all ill feares doe worke.
- 3 Who whet their tongues as we haue seene, men whet and sharpe their swords :
They shoote abroad their arrowes keene,
I meane most bitter words.
- 4 With priny sleight shoot they their shafts
the vpright man to hit :
The iust vnwares to hit by craft,
they care of feare no whit.
- 5 A wicked worke they haue decreed,
in counsell thus they cry :
To kille decrees let vs not dread,
what who can it espye ?
- 6 What wayes to hurt they talke of mule,
all times within their heart :
They all consule what feates to vse,
each doth inuent his part.
- 7 But yet all this shal not auaille,
when they thinke it all vpon :
God with his dart shal sure assaile,
and wound them euery one.
- 8 Their craftes & their ill tonges withall shall worke themselves such blame :
That they which then behold their fall,
shall wonder at the same.
- 9 Then all that see shall know right well,
that God the thing hath wrought :
And praise his witty worke and tell,
what he to passe hath brought.
- 10 Per shal the iust in God reioyce, will trusting in his might :
So shall thy ioy in thine aid and voyce, whose heart is pure and right.

Tedecy hymnus Psal. Lxv. I. H.

A thankesgiving vnto God by the faithfull who are signified by Sion and Ierusalem for the chusing preseruatiou and gouernance of them, and for the plentiful blessings powred forth vpon all the earth.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

Thy praise alone O Lord doth raigue,
in Sion thine owne hill :
Their vowes to thee they doe maintaine,

and their behestes fulfill.

- 2 For that thou doest their prayer heare,
and doest thereto agree :
Thy people all both farre and neere,
with trust shall come to thee.
- 3 Our wicked life so farre exceedes, that we should fall therin :
But Lord forgive our great misdeedes, and purge vs from our sinne.
- 4 The man is blest whom thou doest chuse within thy courts to dwell :
Thy house and temple he shall vse with pleasures that excell.
- 5 Of thy great iustice heare vs God,
our health of thee doth rise :
The hope of all the earth abroad,
and the sea coasts likewise.
- 6 With strengthe thou art beset about,
and compass with thy power :
Thou makest the mountaines strong & stou-to stand in euery shouer.
- 7 The swelling seas thou doest asswage, and make their stremes full still :
Thou doest reframe the peoples rage,
and rule them at thy will.
- 8 The folke that dwell full farre on earth, shall dread thy signes to see :
Which moine and euening in great mirth,
doe passe with praise to thee.
- 9 When that the earth is chape and dry,
and thirsteth more and more :
Then with thy drops thou doest apply,
and much increase her store.
- 10 The flood of God doth ouerflow, and so doth caule to spring :
The herde and come which men doe sow.
for he doth guide the thing.
- 11 With wet thou doest her furrowes fill,
whereby her cloods doe fall :
Thy drops on her thou doest distill, and blest her fruite withall.
- 12 Thou deckst the earth of thy good grace with faire and pleasant crop :
Thy cloudes distill their dew apace,
great plenty thy do drop.
- 13 Whereby the desert shall begin,
full great increase to bring :
The little hilles shal top therin, much fruite in them shal spring.
- 14 In places plaine the flocke shall feed,
and couer all the earth :
The vallies with coyne shal so exceed,
that men shall sing for mirth.

Iubilat Dio. Psal. Lxvi. T. S.

He exhorteth to praise the Lord in his wonderfull workes. He setteth forth the power of God to assay rebels and sheweth Gods mercy to Israel to prouoke all men to heare, and praise his name.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

YE men on earth in God reioyce, with praise let forth his name :
Extoll his might with heart and voyce,
giue glory to the same.

2 How wonderfull O Lord sayre, in all thy workes thou art :
Thy foes for feare doe lecke to thee,

fall sore against their heart.

3 All men that dwell the earth throughout doe praise the name of God:

The laud thereof the world about is shewed and set abroad.

4 All folke come forth behold and see, what things the Lord hath wrought: Marke well the wondrous workes that he for man to passe hath brought.

5 He laid the Sea like heapes on him, therein a way they had:

On foote to passe both faire and drie, whereof their hearts were glad.

6 His might doth rule the world alway,
his eyes all things behold:
All such as would him disobey,
by him shall be controld.

7 Ye people giue vnto our God,
due laud and thanks alwayes:
With ioyfull voyce declare abroad,
and sing vnto his praise.

8 Which doth endue our soule with life,
and it preserve withall:

He stayeth our feete so that no strife,
can make vs slip or fall.

9 The Lord doth proue our deedes with fire
if that they will abide:

As workemen doe when they desire,
to haue their metall tride.

10 Although thou suffer vs so long,
in prison to be cast:

And there with chaines and fetters strong,
to lie in bondage fast.

The second part.

11 Although I say thou suffer men,
on vs to ride and raigne:

Though we through fire and water runne,
of very griefe and paine.

12 Yet sure thou dost of thy good grace dispose it to the best:

And bring vs out into a place,
to liue in wealth and rest.

13 Unto thy house resort will I,
to offer and to pray:

And there I will my selfe apply,
my vowes to thee to pay.

14 The vowes that with my mouth I spake in all my griefe and snare:

The vowes I say which I did make,
in dolour of my heart.

15 Burnt offerings I will giue to thee,
of Dren fat and Rammes:

None other sacrifice shall be of Bullockes, Goats and Lambes.

16 Come forth and hearken here also,
all ye that feare the Lord:

What he for my poore soule hath done,
to you I will record.

17 Full oft I call vpon his grace,
this mouth to him doth crie:

And thou my tongue make speede apace,
to praise him by and by.

18 But if I feele my heart within,
in wicked workes reioyce:

O if I haue light to liue,
God will not heare my voyce.

19 But surely God my voyce hath heard and what I doe require,
My prayer he doth well regard,
and granteth my desire.

20 All praise to him that hath not put nor cast me out of minde:
Nor yet his mercy from me shut, which I doe euer finde.

Deus miseratur. Psal. Lxvij. I. H.

A sweet prayer for all the faithfull to obtaine the fa-uour of God, and to be lightened with his countenance, to the end that his way and iudgements may be knowne throughout the earth, as reioycing that God is the gouernour of all nations.

Sing this as the 30. Psalme.

H Aue mercy on vs Lord,
and grant to vs thy grace:

To shew to vs doethon accord,
the brightnest of thy face.

2 That if all the earth may know,
the way to godly wealth:

And all the nations on a roth,
may see thy sauing health.

3 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad
extoll and laud the same.

4 Throughout the world so wide,
let all reioyce with mirth:

For thou with truth and right doest guide
the nations of the earth.

5 Let all the world O God,
giue praise vnto thy name:

O let the people all abroad,
extoll and laud the same.

6 Then shall the earth increafe, great store of fruit shall fall:

And then our God the God of peace, shall blese vs eke withall.

7 God shall vs blese I say,
and then both far and neere:

The folke throughout the earth alway of him shall stand in feare.

Exurgat Deus. Psal. Lxvij. T. S.

Dauid expresseth the wonderfull mercies of God towards his people, who by all meanes and most strange sorts declareth himselfe to them. Gods Church therefore by reason of his promise, & great victories doth excell all worldly things. Wherefore all men are moued to praise God for euer.

L Et God arise, and then his foes will turne themselves to flight: His enemies then will runne abroad, and scatter out of sight. 2. And as the fire doth melt the waxe, and wind blow smoke

- 3 But righteous men before the Lord,
shall heartily reioyce,
They shall be glad and merry all,
and cheerefull in their voice.
- 4 Sing praise, sing praise vnto the Lord,
who rideth on the skie:
Extoll the name of Iah our God,
and him doe magnifie.
- 5 That same is he that is aboue,
within his holy place:
That father is of fatherlesse,
and iudge of widowes case.
- 6 Houles he giues and issue both,
vnto the comfortlesse:
He bringeth bondmen out of of thral,
and rebels to distresse.
- 7 When thou didst march before thy folke
the Egyptians from among:
And brought them through the wilderness, that was both wide and long. (downe)
- 8 The earth did quake the raine poud heard were great claps of thunder:
The mount Sinai shooke in such sort,
as it would cleaue in sunder.
- 9 Thine heritage with drops of raine,
abundantly was waft:
And if so be it barraine wart,
by thee it was refresh.
- 10 Thy chosen flocke doth their remaine, thou hast prepar'd that place:
And for the poore thou doest prouide,
of thine speciall grace.

The second part.

- 11 God will giue women causes iust,
to magnifie his name:
When as his people triumphs make,
and purchase brait and fame.
- 12 And puissant kings for all their power,
shall sit and take the foile:
And women which remaine at home,
shall helpe to part the spoile.
- 13 And though ye were as blacke as pots,
your hue shall passe the Doue: Whose wings and feathers seeme to haue silver and gold aboue.
- 14 When in this land God shal triumph,
ouer kings both high and low.
Then shall it be like Salmon hill,
as white as any snow.
- 15 Though Babel be a fruitfull hill,
and in height others passe:
Yet Zion Gods most holy hill, doth farre excell in grace.
- 16 Why brag ye thus ye hills most high and leape for pride together?
The hill of Zion God doth loue and there will dwell for euer.
- 17 Gods army is two millions, of warriors good and strong:

The Lord also in Sinai, is present them among.

18 Thou didst O Lord ascende on high,
and captiues led them all,
Which in time past thy chosen flocke,
in prison kept and thral.

Thou madest them tribute for to pay,
and such as did repine,
Thou didst subdue that they might dwell in thy temple diuine.

19 Now praised be the Lord for that,
he pouereth on vs such grace:
From day to day he is the God of our health and solace.

The third .art.

- 20 He is the God from whom alone,
saluation cometh plaine.
He is the God by whom I scape, all dangers, death and paine.
- 21 Thus God will wound his enemies head and breake the hairy scalp,
Of those that in their wickednesse,
continually doe walke.
- 22 From Babel will I bring said he
my people and my weepe:
And all mine owne as I haue done.
from danger of the deepe.
- 23 And make them dip their feete in blood.
of those that hate my name:
And dogs shall haue their tongues imbrude,
with licking of the same.
- 24 All men may see how thou O God,
thine enemies dost delace:
And how thou goest as God and King,
into thine holy place.
- 25 The singers go before with toy,
the minstrels follow after:
And in the mids the damfels play,
with Timbrel and with Taber.
- 26 Now in the congregations,
(O Israel) praise the Lord:
And Jacobs whole posteritie, giue thanks with one accord.
- 27 Their chiefe was little Benjamin,
but Iuda made their healt:
With Zabulon and Naphtalim, which dwell about their coast.
- 28 As God hath giuen power to thee,
so Lord make firme and sure:
The thing that thou hast wrought in vs
for euer to endure.
- 19 And in thy temple gifts will we,
giue vnto thee O Lord:
For thine vnto Ierusalem, sure promise made by word.

The fourth part.

- 30 Pea and strange kings to vs subdue, shall doe like in thole dayes:
I meane to thee they shall present, their gifts of land and praise.
- He shall destroy the spearmens ranches, their calues and Wiles of might:
And causetheir tribute pay, and daunt
all such as loue to fight.
- 31 Then shall the Lords of Egypt come,
and presents with thumbring: .

The

The Mooles most blacke shall stretch their unto their Lord and King. ^(hands) 32 Therefore ye kingdomes of the earth
gine paynt vnto the Lord, Sing Praises to God with one consent thereto let all accord.
33 Who though he ride and euer hath aboue the heauens bright, Per by the fearefull thund. claps men may well know his might.
34 Therefore the strength of Israel
ascribeto God on high, Whose might and power doth far extend aboue the cloudie skie.
35 O God thy holinesse and power is dread for euermore,
The God of Israel giues vs strength prayed be God therefore.

Saluum me fac, Psal. Lxix. I. H.

Christ and his elect is figured in Davids zeale & anguish, the malicious crueltye of whose enemies & their punishment Iudas and such traytors noteth, who are cursed. Then gathereth he courage in afflictions and offereth praises to God, which are more acceptable than all sacrifice. Finally, hee doth prouoke all creatures to praises, prophesying of the kingdome of Christ and building of Iuda, where all the faithfull and their seed shall dwell for euer.

S
Aue me O God, and that with speed:

the waters flow full fast, So nie my soule

doe thy power, that I am soe againe.

2.
I sit, as if I were in clay, where as I feel no ground: I fall into such floods

I say, that I am like be drowned.

3 Which crying oft I faint and quail,
my throat is hoarse and dry:
Which looking vp my sight doth faile for helpe to God on high.
4 Why does that guiltlesse doe oppresse
my soule, with hate aretch:
In numbe sure they are no lesse
then haire is are on my head.
5 Though for no cause they vex me soe, they prosper and are glad:
They doe compass me to reuile
th' things I haue had.
6 What I haue done for want of wit, thou Lord all times canst tell,

And all the fautes that I commit,
to thee are knowen full well.
7 O God of hostes defend and stay all those that trust in thee, Let no man doubt or thinke away for ought that chanceth me.
8 It is for thee and for thy sake, that I doe beare this blame:
In spite of thee they would me make to hide my face for shame.
9 My mothers sonnes, my brethren all forsake me on a row,
And as a stranger they me call,
my face they will not know.
10 Unto thy house such zeale I beare that it doth pine me much,
Their cheekes and taunts at thee, to heare
my v. ry heart doth grutch.

The second part.

11 Though I doe fast my flesh to chaste, yea if I wepe and moane:
Per in my teeth this gear is calt,
they passe not thereupon.
12 If I for grie. se and paine of heare
in sackcloth vnto walke,
Then they anon will it peruckt, therof they tell and talke.
13 Both hee and low, and all the throng that sit within the gate,
They haue me euer in their tongue,
of me they talke and prate.
14 The drunkards which in wine delight,
it is their chiefe pastime,
To seeke which way to worke me spite,
of me they sing and rime.
15 But thee the while O Lord I pray, that when it pleaseth thee,
For thy great truth thou wilt alway
send downe thine aide to me.
16 Plucke thou my feet out of the mire,
from drowning doe me keepe:
From such as owe me wrath and ire,
and from the waters deepe.
17 Lest with the waues I should be drowned and depth my soule deuour:
And that the pit should me confound,
and hide me in her power.
18 O hold mee fast to me giue care,
as thou art good and kind:
And as thy mercie is most deare,
Lord haue me in thy mind.
19 And do not from thy seruant hide,
nor turne thy face away:
I am opprit on euery side,
with haile giue care I say:
20 O Lord drawe to my soule draw nigh,
the same with aid repose:
Because of their great tyranny, acquit me from my foes.

The third part.

21 That I abide rebuke and shame thou knowest and thou canst tell,
For thou that seeke and worke the same thou seest them all full well.

- 22 When they with brags do breake my hart
I seeke for helpe anone:
But find no friends to ease my smart.
to comfort me not one.
- 23 But in my meate they gaue me gall,
too cruell for to thinke:
And gaue me in my thirst withall,
strong vniuer to dunke.
- 24 Lord turne their table to a snare,
to take themselves therein:
And when they thinke full well to fare,
than trap them in the gin.
- 25 And let their eyes be darke and blinde, that they can nothing see,
Bow downe their backe and do them binde,
in thraldome for to be.
- 26 Bowe out thy wrath as hot as fire,
that it on them may fall:
Let thy displeasure in thine ire,
take hold vpon them all.
- 27 As desert die their house disgrace,
their offspring eke expell:
That none thereof posside their place,
nor in their tents doe dwell.
- 28 If thou dost strike the man to tame,
on him they lie full sore:
And if that thou doe wound the same,
they seeke to hurt him more.
- 29 Then let them heape vp mischiefe still,
sith they are all peruer:
That of thy fauour and good will,
they neuer haue a part.
- 30 And race them cleane out of the booke
of life, of hope, of trust,
That for their names they in ner looke,
in number of the iust.
- The fourth part.
- 31 Though I O Lord with woe and griefe
haue bene so sore opprest:
Thy helpe shall giue me such reliefe, that all shall be redrest.
- 32 That I may giue thy name the praise,
and shew it with a song:
I will extoll the same alwayes, with heartie thanks among.
- 33 Which is more pleasant vnto thee,
such mind thy grace hath borne:
Then either Oye or Ear can be,
that hath both heare and home.
- 34 When simple folke doe this behold,
it shall reioyce them sure, Allye that seeke the Lord behold,
your life for ay shall dure.
- 35 For why, the Lord of hosts doth heare
the poore when they complaine,
His prisoners are to him full deare,
he doth them not disdain.
- 36 Wherefore the skie and earth below
the sea with flood and flame,
His praise they shall declare and shew,
with all that line in them.
- 37 For sure our God dwelt Zion saue, and Iudaea cities build,
Much folke possession there shall haue,
her Arrets shall all be fild.
- 38 His seruants seed shall keepe the same,
all ages out of minde:

And there all they that loue his name
a dwelling place shall finde.

Deus in adiuro. Psal. Lxx. l. H.

He prayeth to be right speedily deliuered, his enemies to be ashamed, and all that seeke the Lord to be comforted.

Sung this as the 72. Psalm.

- O God to me take heed,
of helpe I thee require:
O Lord of hosts with hast make speed, helpe, helpe I thee desire.
- 2 Altho shame confound them all that seeke my soule to spill, Rebuke them backe with blame to fall that thinke and wisly me ill.
- 3 Confound them that apply and seeke to worke me shame,
And at my harme doe laugh and cry,
so, so, there goeth the game.
- 4 But let them ioyfull be in thee with ioy and wealth, Altho only trust and seeke to thee,
and to thy sauing health.
- 5 That they may say alwaies
in mirth and one accord,
All glory, honour, laud and praise be giuen to thee O Lord.
- 6 But I am weak and poore, come Lord thine aide I lacke:
Thou art my stay and helpe, therefore make speed and be not slacke.

In te Domine. Psal. Lxxi. j. H.

He prayeth in faith, established by promise, and confirmed by the worke of God from his youth to bee deliuered from his wicked and cruell sonne Absolon, with his confederacie, promising to bee thankfull therefore.

Sing this as the 12. Psalm.

- MY Lord, my God in all distress
my hope is whole in thee.
Then let no shame my soule oppress,
nor once take hold on me.
- 2 As thou art iust defend mee,
and rid me out of dead,
Give eare and to my suite accord,
and send me helpe at need.
- 3 Be thou my rocke to whom I may for aide all times resort, Thy promise is to helpe alway, thou art my fence and fort.
- 4 Saue me my God from wicked men and from their strength and power,
From sottie enuie, and eke from them that cruelly deuoure.
- 5 Thou art the way wherein I trust,
thou Lord of hosts art he:
Pea from my youth I had a lust,
still to depend on thee.
- 6 Thou hast me kept euen from my birth, and I through thee was borne:
Cather fore I will thee praye with mirth both euening and at morne.
- 7 As to a monster seldom seene, much folke about me throng:
But thou art now, and still hast been my fence and aid so strong.

 8 Wherefore my mouth no time shalt lache thy glory and thy praise:
 And eke my tongue shall not be slacke,
 to honour thee alwayes.
 9 Refuse me not O Lord I say, when age my lims doth take:
 And when my strength doth waste away,
 doe not my soule forsake.
 10 Among themselves my foes inquire,
 to take me through deceit:
 And they against me doe conspire, that for my soule laid wait.

The second part.

11 Lay hand and take him now they said,
 for God from him is gone:
 Dispatch him quite, for to his ayd,
 I wis there cometh none.
 12 Doe not absent thy selfe away,
 O Lord when need shall be:
 But that in time of need thou may,
 in haste gine helpe to me.
 13 With shame confound and overthrow,
 all those that seeke my life:
 Oppresse them with rebuke also,
 that saine would worke me strife.
 14 But I will patiently abide,
 thy helpe at all assayes:
 Still more and more each time and tide
 I will set forth thy praise.
 15 My mouth thy iustice doth record, that dayly helpe doth send:
 But of thy benefits O Lord,
 I knowe no count or end.
 16 Yet will I goe and seeke forth one,
 with thy good helpe O God,
 The saving health of thee alone,
 to shew and set abroad.

17 For of my youth thou takest the care, and doest instruct me still,
 Therefore thy wonders to declare,
 I haue great mind and will.
 18 And as in youth from wanton rage, thou didst mee keepe and stay, Forake me not vnto mine age,
 and till my head be gray.

The third part.

19 That I thy strength & might may shew,
 to them that now be here,
 And that our seed thy power may know,
 hereafter many a yeere.
 20 O Lord thy iustice doth exceed,
 thy doings all may see:
 Thy works are wonderfull indeed,
 oh who is like to thee?
 21 Thou madest me feele afflictions sore,
 and yet thou didst me saue:
 Pea thou didst helpe and me restore,
 and tookest me from the graue.
 22 And thou mine honour doest increase,
 my dignity maintaine:
 Pea thou doest make all strife to cease,
 and comfort me againe.
 23 Therefore thy faithfulness to praise,
 I will both Lute and sing:
 My harpe shall sound thy laud alwayes,

O Israels holy King.

24 My mouth shall toy with pleasant voice
 when I shall sing to thee:
 And eke my soule shall much reioyce,
 for thou hast made me free.
 25 My tongue thy vprightnesse shall praise, and speake it daily still:
 For griefe and shame doe them confound, that sought to worke me ill.

Deus iudicium, Psal. Lxxij. I. H.

Gods kingdome by Christ is represented by Solomon, vnder whom shall bee righteousnesse, peace and felicity, vnto whom all kings and nations shall doe homage, whose name and power shall indure for euer.

Let gine thy iudgements to the king, therein instruct him well: And with his sonne that princely thing, Lord let thy iustice dwell. 2. That he may gouerne vprightly, and rule thy folke a right: And so defend through equitie, the poore that haue no might.

3 And let the mountaines that are high,
 vnto their folke gine peace:
 And eke let little hills apply,
 in iustice to increase.
 4 That he may helpe the weak and poore, with aid and make them strong:
 And eke destroy for euermore,
 all those that doe him wrong.
 5 And then from age to age shall they, regard and feare thy might:
 So long as sunne doth shine by day,
 or else the Moone by night.
 6 Lord make the King vnto the iust, like raine to fields new sowne:
 And like to drops that lay the dust,
 and fresh the land new sowne.
 7 The iust shall flourish in his time,
 and all shall be at peace:
 Till the Moone shall leaue to prime,
 waste, change and to increase.
 8 He shall be Lord of sea and land, from shore to shore throughout:
 And from the founts within the land,
 through all the earth about.
 9 The people that in desert dwell, shall knoe to him full chiecke:

And all his enemies that rebel,
the earth and dust shall lick.
10 The Lords of all the Isles thereby, great gifts to him shall bring:
The King of Saba and Arabia, giving many a costly thing.

The second part.

11 All kings shall seeke with one accord,
in his good grace to stand:
And all the people of the world,
shall serue him at his hand.
12 For he the needy suit doth saue,
that vnto him doth call:
And eke the simple folke that haue,
no helpe of man at all.
13 He taketh pittie of the poore, that are with need oppress:
He doth preferue them euermore,
and bringes their soules to rest.
14 He shall redeeme their life from dread, from fraud, from wrong, from might,
And eke the blood that they shall bleed,
is precious in his sight.

15 But he shall liue and they shall bring,
to him of Sabaes gold:
He shall be honoured as a King,
and daily be extold.
16 The mighty mountaines of his land of come shall beare such throng:
That it like Cedar trees shall stand,
in Libanus full long.
17 Their citties eke full well shall speed,
the fruits thereof shall passe:
In plenty it shall far exceed,
and spring as great as grasse.
18 For euer they shall praise his name,
while that the Sun is light:
And thinke them happy throug the same,
all folke shall blesse his might.
19 Praise ye the Lord of hoasts, and sing,
to Israels God each one:
For he doth euer wondrous thing,
yea he himselfe alone.
20 And blessed be his holy name,
all times eternally:
That al the earth may praise the same,
Amen, Amen say I.

Quam bonus Deus: Psal. Lxxij. T. S.

Dauid teacheth that neither the prosperity of the vngodly, nor the affliction of the good oughte to discourage Gods children, but rather moue them to consider Gods prouidence, and to reuerence his iudgements, so that the wicked vanish away like smoke, and the godly enter into life euersaling, in hope wherof he resigneth himselfe to Gods
hand.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

How euer it be, yet God is good,
and kind to Israell:
And to all such as safely keepe,
their conscience pure and well.
2 Yet like a foolke I almost slippt,
my feet began to slide:
And ere I wist, euen at a pinch,
my steps away gan glide.
3 For when I saw such foolis men,

I grudged and did disdaine:
That wicked men should haue all thinge,
without turmoile and paine.
4 They netted fustie pangs not gette,
as if death should them limite:
Their bodies are both stout and strong,
and euer in good plight.
5 And free from all aduersitie,
when other men be thence:
And with the rest they take no part,
of plague or punishment.
6 Therefore presumption doth embrace their neckes as doth a chaine:
And are euen wrapt as in a robe,
with rapine and disdaine.
7 They are so fed that euen for fat,
their eyes oft times out start:
And as for worldly goods they haue,
more then can wish their heart.
8 Their life is most licentious, boasting much of the wrong:
Which they haue done to simple men,
and euer pride among.

9 The heauens and the lining Lord,
they spare not to blaspheme:
And praise they doe of worldly thinges,
no whit they doe esteeme.
10 The people of God oft times turne backe to see their prosperous state:
And almost drinke the selfe same cup,
and follow the same rate.

The second part.

11 How can it be that God say they,
should know or understand:
These worldly thinges, since worldly men,
be lords of sea and land?
12 For we may see how wicked men,
in riches still increase:
Rewarded well with worldly goods,
and liue in rest and peace.
13 Then why doe I from wickednesse,
my fantasie restraime:
And wash my hands with innocent and cleanse my heart in vaine?
14 And suffer scourges euery day,
as subiect to all blame:
And euery morning from my youth,
sustaine rebuke and shame?
15 And I had almost said as they,
murthering mine estate:
But that I should thy childeyn iudge,
as folke vnfortunat.
16 Then I berought me how I might,
this matter vnderstand:
But yet the labour was too great,
for me take in hand.
17 Untill the time I went into,
thy holy place and then:
I vnderstood right perfectly,
the end of all these men.
18 And namely how thou testest them,
vpon a slippery place:
And at thy pleasure and thy will,
thou dost them all deface.
19 Then all men must at that strange sight to see how suddenly:

They are destroyed, dispatcht, consumed,
and dead to horrible.
20 Much like a dream when one awakes,
to shall their wealthy decay:
Their famous names in all mens sight,
shall ebbe and passe away.

The third part.

21 Yet thus my heart was grieved thus,
my mind was much oppressed, 22 So fond was I and ignorant, and in this point a beast, 23 Yet neuertheless by thy right hand,
thou holdst me alwaies fast:
24 And with thy counsell dost me guide to glorie at the last.
25 What thing is there that I can wish,
but thee in heauen above:
And in the earth there is nothing,
like thee that I can loue.
26 My flesh and eke my heart doth faile,
but God durst faile me neuer:
For of my heart God is the strength,
my portion eke for euer.

27 And loe all such as this forsake, thou shalt destroy each one:
And those that trust in any thing,
launing in thee alone.
28 Therefore will I draw nere to God,
And euer with him dwell:
In God alone I put my trust,
his wounders will I tell.

Ut quid Deus. Psal. Lxxiii. J. H.

A complaint of the destruction of the Church and true religion; vnder the name of Sion, and the altars destroyed. But trusting in the might and free mercies of God, by his covenant, requirerh helpe and succour to the glory of his name, the saluation of his poore afflicted seruants, and the confusion of his proud enemies.

Sing this as the 27. Psalme.

Why art thou Lord so long from vs,
in all this danger deepe?
Why dost thine anger kindle thus,
at thine owne pasture theepe?
2 Lord call the people to thy thought,
which haue bin thine so long:
The which thou hast redeemed and brought from bondage fore and strong.
3 Haue mind I say, and thinke vpon, remember it full well,
Thy pleasant place thy mount Sion,
where thou wast wont to dwell.
4 Lift vp thy foot and come in haste,
and all thy foes deface:
Which now at pleasure rob and waste,
within thy holy place.
5 Amid thy congregations all,
thine enemies roare O God:
They sit as signes on euery wall,
their banners plaide abroad.
6 As men with axes hew downe trees,
that on the hills doe grow:
So shine the billes and wordes of these,
within thy temple now.
7 The feeling saws, the carued boords,
the goodly grauen stones,
With axes, hammers, billes and swords,

they beate them downe at once:

8 Thy places they consume with flame,
and eke in all this toile,
The house appointed to thy name,
they race downe to the toile.

9 And thus they laid within their hearts, dispatch them out of hand:
Then burnt they vp in euery place,
Godes houles through the land.

10 Per thou no signe of helpe dost send,
our Prophets all are gone:

To tell when this our plague shall end,
among vs there is none.

11 When wilt thou Lord once end this shame and cease thine enemies strong?

Shall they alway blaspheme thy name,
and raise on thee so long?

12 Why dost thou ther draw thy hand a backe,
and hide it in thy lap,

Why plucke it out and benot slacke,
to giue thy foes a ray.

The second part.

13 O God thou art my King and Lord, and euermore hast been:

Pray thy good grace throughout the world,
for our good helpe hath bene.

14 The seas that are so deepe and dead,
thy might did make them die:

And thou didst breake the serpents head
that he therein did die.

15 Pray thou didst breake the heads so great of whales that are so fell:

And gauest them to the folke to eat,
that in the deserts dwell.

16 Thou madst a spring with stremes to rise from rocke both hard and hie:

And eke thy hand hath made likewise,
deepe riuers to be drie.

17 Both day and eke the night are thine,
by ther they were begun.

Thou settst to serue vs with their shine,
the light and eke the Sunne.

18 Thou dost appoint the ends and coasts, of all the earth about:

Both sommer heats and winter frosts,
thy hand hath found them out.

19 Thinke on O Lord, no time forget thy foes that thee defame:

And how the foolish folke are set,
to raile vpon thy name.

20 O let no cruell beast denoue
thy Turtle that is true:

Forget not alwaies in thy power,
the poore that much doe rue.

21 Regard thy covenant and behold,
thy foes possesse the land:

All sad and darke, forworne and old,
our Realme as now doth stand.

22 Let not the limple goe away,
with disappointed shame:

But let the poore and meerie eye,
giue praise vnto thy name.

23 Rise Lord, let be by thee maintaine,
the cause that is thine owne:

Remember how that thou blasphem,
art by the foolish one:

24 The voice forget not of thy foes,
for the presuming he:

Is more and more increas of those,
that hate thee spitefull.

Confitebimur tibi. Psal. Lxxv. R.

The faithfull praye the Lord, who shall come to iudge at his time when the wicked shal drinke the cup of his wrath. But the righteous shall be exalted to honour.

Sing this as the 44. Psalme.

Vnto thee God we will giue thanks,
we will giue thanks to thee:

Such thy name is to reere, declare thy wondrous workes will weere.

2 I will vprightly iudge, when get conuenient time I may:

The earth is weake and all therein,
but I her pillars stay.

3 I did to the mad people say,
deale not so furiously:

And vnto the vngodly ones,
let not your home to hie.

4 I sayd vnto vnto them let not by your railed homes to hie:

And see that you do with stiffe necks,
not speake presumptuously.

5 For neither from the Easterne parts,
nor from the Westerne side:

For from forsaken wilderness, protection doth proceed.

6 For why? the Lord our God he is,
the righteous Iudge alone:

He putteth downe the one, and lets another in the throne.

7 For why? a cup of mightie wine is in the hand of God:

And all the mightie wine therein, himselfe doth powre abroad.

8 As for the lees and sticke dregs, that doe remaine of it:

The wicked of the earth shall drinke,
and lucke them euill whil.

9 But I will talk of God I say, of Iacobs God therefore:

And will not cease to celebrate,
his praise for euermore.

10 In lunder breake the hornes of all vngodly men will I:

But then the homes of righteous men,
shall be exalted hie.

Gloria Patri.

To father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
all glorie be therefore:

As in beginning was, is now,
and shall be euermore.

In Index. Psal. Lxxvi. I. H.

Heere is describe the power of God, and care for the defence of his people, by the destruction of Senacheribs armie, for which the faithfull are exhortet to be thankfull.

Sing this as the 66. Psalme.

Tall that now in Iurie dwell,
the Lord is clearly knowen:
His name is great in Israel, a people of his owne.

2 At Salem he his tents hath plight to tarrie there a space:

In Sion ke he hath delight,
to make his dwelling place.

3 And there he brake both shaft and bow,
the sword, the spear, and shield:

And brake the ray to ouerthrow
in battell on the field.

4 Thou art more worthe honor Lord,
more might in thee doth lie:

Then in the strongest of the world,
that rob on mountaines hie.

5 But now the proud are spollt through thee and they are fallen on sleepe:

Through men of ware no helpe can be,
themselues they could not keepe.

6 At thy rebuke O Iacobs God,
when thou didst them reproduce:

As halfe a sleepe their chariots stood,
no horsemen once did moue.

7 For thou art dreadfull Lord indeed, what man the courage hath

To bide thy sight, and durst not dread, when thou art in thy wrath?

8 When thou dost make thy iudgements heard from heauen through the ground:

Then all the earth full sore afraid,
in silence shall be found.

9 And that when thou O God dost stand in iudgement for to speake,

To saue th afflicted of the land,
on earth that are full weake.

10 The furie that in man doth raigne, shall turne vnto thy praise:

Hereafter Lord do thou restraime their wrath and threats awies.

11 Make vovles and pay them to your God ye folke that nigh him be:

Bring gifts all ye that dwell abroad,
for dreadfull sure is he.

12 For he doth take both life and might from Princes great of birth:

And full of terror is his sight,
to all the kings on earth.

Voc mea ad. Psal. Lxxvij. J. H.

David reheaseth his great afflictions, and grie-uous temptations, where by he is driuen to consider his former conuersion, & the course of Gods works in the preservation of his seruants, and so he cōsumeth his faith against these temptations.

With my voyce to God doe cry, with heart and heartie chare: My voice to God I lift on tce, and he my lute doth heare. In time of griefe I sought to God, by night no rest I took: But I rechte my hands to him abroad

abroad, my soule comfort forsooke.

3 When I to thinke on God intend,
my trouble then is mured:
I spake but could not make an end,
my breath was stayt to lye.

4 Thou holdst mine eyes alwaies from rest,
that I thence with awake:
With feare am I to lye opprest,
my speech doth me forsaake.

5 The dayes of old in mind I cast, and oft did thinke vpon
The times and ages that are past, full many yeares agone.

6 By night my longes I call to minde, once made thy praise to thewe:
And with my heart much talke I finde,
my spirits do search to knowe.

7 Will God, said I, at once for all,
cast off his people thus?
So that henceforth no time he shall,
be friendly vnto vs.

8 What is his goodnes cleane decayd, for euer and a day?
Is his promise now delaid,
and doth his truth decay?

9 And wilt the Lord our God forget, his mercies manifold?
Shall his wrath increase to hot,
his mercie to with-hold?

10 At last I sayd, my weaknesse is,
the cause of this mistrust:
Gods mighty hand can helpe all this,
and change it when he list.

The second part.

11 I will regard and thinke vpon,
the working of the Lord:
Of all his wonders past and gone,
I gladly will record.

12 Praise all his workes I will declare,
and what he did deuise:
To tell his facts I will not spare,
and eke his counsell wise.

13 Thy workes, O Lord, are all bright, and holy all abroad:
What one hath strength to match the might of thee O Lord our God?

14 Thou art a God that oft dost shew,
thy wonders eueri hour:
And so dost make thy people know,
thy vertue and thy power.

15 And thine owne folke thou dost defend with strength and stretched arme:
The sonnes of Jacob thou descend, and Josephs seed from harme.

16 The waters Lord perceined thee,
the waters saw thee well:
And they for feare aside did flee,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds that were both thick & black,
did raine full plentifully:
The thunder in the aere did cracke,
thy shafts abroad did flie.

18 The thunder on the earth was heard.

the lightnings from aboue:
With flashes great made them afeard,
the earth did quake and moue.

19 Thy waies within the sea doe lie,
thy paths in waters deepe:
Yet none can there thy steps espye,
nor know thy paths to keepe.

20 Thou leadst thy folke vpon the land,
as sheepe on euerie siede:
Through holes and through Aarons hand,
thou didst them safely guide.

Attendite populi, Psal. Lxxviii. T. S.

Hee sheweth how God of his mercie chose his Church of the posteritie of Abraham, casting in their teeth the rebellio of their fathers, that their children might acknowledge Gods free mercies, and be ashamed of their peruerse ancestors. The holy Ghost hath comprehended as it were, the sum of all gods beneficts, that the grosse people might see in few words, the effect of the whole hitories.

Tend my people to my law, and to my words incline: My mouth shall speake strange parables and sentences diuine, which wee our selues haue heard and leard, euen of our fathers old: And which for our instruction,

our fathers haue vs told.

4 Because we should not keepe it close,
from them that should come after:
Who should Gods power to their race praise,
and all his workes of wonder.

5 To Jacob he commandment gaue,
how I should liue:
Telling our fathers should the same,
vnto their children giue.

6 That they and their posteritie, which were not sprung by tho:
Should haue the knowledge of the law,
and teach their seed also.

7 That they may haue the better hope in God that is about:
And not forget to keepe his lawes,
and his precepts in loue.

8 Not being as our fathers were,
rebellin in Gods sight:
And would not frame their wicked liues,
to know their God aright.

- 9 How went the people of Ephraim,
their neighbours for to spoile:
Shooting their darts the day of warre,
and yet they tooke the spoile:
- 10 For why? they did not keepe with God,
the covenant that was made,
Nor yet would walke or lead their liues,
according to his trade.
- 11 But put into oblivion, his counsell and his will:
And all his workes most magnifiquē, which he declared still.

The second part.

- 12 What wonders to our forefathers,
did he himselfe disclose:
In Egypt land with him the field,
that called is Chanaan?
- 13 He did diuide and cut the sea,
that they might passe at once:
And made the waters stand as still,
as doth an heape of stones.
- 14 He led them secret in a cloud,
by day when it was bright:
And in the night when darke it was,
with fire he gaue them light.
- 15 He brake the rockes in wilderness,
and gaue the people drinke:
As plentifull as when the deepes, doe flow by to the brinke.

- 16 He drew out riuers out of rockes, that were both dry and hard:
Of such abundance that no fountaines,
to them might be compar'd.
- 17 Yet for all this against the Lord,
their liues they did encrease:
And stirred him that is most high,
to wrath in wilderness.
- 18 They tempted him with in their hearts,
like people of mistrust:
Requiring such a kind of meate,
as seru'd to their lust.
- 19 Saying with murmuration,
in their vnfaithfulness:
What can this God prepare for vs,
a feast in wilderness?
- 20 Behold he strucke the stony rocke,
and fountaines forth did flow:
But can he now giue to his folke,
both bread and flesh also?
- 21 When God heard this he wared wroth,
with Jacob and his seed:
So did his indignation,
on Israel proceede.

The third part.

- 22 Because they did not faithfullie, believe, and hope that he Could alwaies helpe and succour them, in their necessitie.
- 23 Wherefore he did command the clouds,
forthwith they brake in sunder:
24 And raine downe Hanna for them to a food of mickle wonder. (eat
- 25 When earthly men with Angels food, were fed at their request:
- 26 He bad the East wind blow away,
and brought in the Southerly.

- 27 And raine downe flesh as thicke as duck,
and fowle as thicke as land:
- 28 Which he did cast amidst the place, where all the tents did stand.
- 29 Then did they eate exceedingly,
and all men had their fill:
Yet more and more they did desire,
to serue their lust and will.
- 30 But as the meat was in their mouths,
his wrath vpon them fell:
- 31 And slew the flower of all their youth,
and choise of Israel.
- 32 Yet fell they to their wonted sinne,
and still they did him grieve:
For all the wonders that he wrought,
they would him not believe.
- 33 Their daies therefore he shortned,
and made their honour vaine:
Their yeares did wast and passe away,
with terrors and with paine.
- 34 But euer when he plagued them,
they sought him by and by:
Remembring then he was their strength,
their helpe and God most high.
- 35 Though in their mouths they did but and flatter with the Lord: (close And with their tongues, and in their hearts, dissembled euery word.

The fourth part.

- 36 For why? their hearts were nothing bent
to him, nor to his trade:
Nor yet to keepe, or to performe, the conehat that was made.
- 37 Yet was he still to mercifull,
when they deseru'd to die:
That he forgauē them their misdeeds,
and would not them destroy.
- 38 Peca many a time hee turned his wrath,
and did himselfe aduile:
And would not suffer all his whole displeasure to arise:
- 39 Considering that they were but flesh,
and euen as a wind
That passeth away, and cannot well, returne by his owne kind.
- 40 How often times in wilderness,
did they thinke Lord prouoke?
How did thy moone and fiers the Lord,
to plague them with his stroke?
- 41 Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
and temptred God often times:
Prescribing to the holy Lord,
what things they would haue done.
- 42 Not thinking of his hand & power,
nor of the day when hee Deliucred them out of the hands, of the fierce enemye.
- 43 Nor how he wrought his miracles,
as they themselves beheld:
In Egypt, and the wonders that,
he did in Soan field.
- 44 Nor how he turned by his power,
their waters into bloud:
That no man might receiue his drinke,
at riuier nor at fount.
- 45 Nor how he sent them swarmes of flies,
which

which did them sore annoy:
And kild their countrey full of frogs,
which should their land destroy.

The fift part.

46 Not how he did commit their frutes,
vnto the Caterpillar:
And all the labour of their hands,
he gaue to the Grasshopper.
47 Earth hailstones he destroyed their vines,
so that they were all lost:
And not so much as wild fig trees,
but he consumed with frost.
48 And yet with hailstones once againe,
the Lord their cattell smote:
And all their flocks and herds likewise,
with thunderbolts full bore.
49 He cast vpon them in his ire,
and in his furie strong:
Displeasure, wrath, and euill spirits,
to trouble them among.

50 Then to his wrath he made a way,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.
51 He stricke also the first borne all,
that by in Egypt came:
And all the cheefe of men and beasts,
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his owne deare folke,
he did preserve and keepe:
And cared them through wilderness,
euen like a flocke of sheepe.
53 Without all feare, both safe and sound,
he brought them out of thral:
Wheras their foes with rage of sea,
were overwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coastes of his owne holie land:
Euen to the Mount which he had got,
by his strong arm: and hand.
55 And there cast out the heathen folke,
and did their land diuide:
And in their tentes he set the tribes of Israell to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most high,
they stird and tempted still:
And would not keepe his testament,
nor yet obey his will.
57 But as their fathers turned backe,
euen so they went astray:
Much like a bow that would not bend,
but slip and start away.

The sixt part.

58 And grieved him with their hill altars, with offerings and with fire:
And with their Idols, vehemently provoked him to ire.
59 Therewith his wrath began againe,
to kindle in his brest:
The naughtinesse of Israell,
he did so much detest.
60 Then he forsooke the Tabernacle, of Silo where he was:
Right conuerlant with earthly men,
euen as his dwelling place:
61 Then suffered he his might and power,
in bondage for to stand:

And gaue the honour of his Arke, into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the sword,
wroth with his heritage:
63 The yong men were deuourde with fire,
maides had no marriage.
64 And with the sword the Priests also,
did perishe euery one:
And not a widow left aliuie,
their death for to benome.
65 And then the Lord began to wake,
like one that slept a time:
And as a valiant man of warre,
refreshed after wine.
66 With Enmities in their hinder parts,
he stricke his enemies all:
And put them then vnto a shame,
that was perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent and Tabernacle, of Ioseph did restore:
As for the Tribe of Ephraim,
he would in no wise chuse.
68 But chose the Tribe of Iehuda, wheras he thought to dwell:
Euen the noble mount Sion, whiche he did loue to well.

69 Wheras he did his Temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth which he hath made,
for euer to endure.
70 Then chose he Dauid him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
Which he tooke vp and brought away,
euen from the folds of sheepe.

71 As he did follow the Clouds with young,
the Lord did him aduance:
To feed his people Israell,
and his inheritance.
72 Thus Dauid with a faithfull heart,
his flocke and charge did feed:
And pudently with all his power,
did gouerne them indeed.

Deus, venerunt. Psal. Lxxix. I. H.

The Israelites complaine to God for the calamity that they suffered when An iochus destroyed their temple & City, desiring aide against his tyranny, least God & religion should be contemned by the Heathen, who should see them forsaken & perishe.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

O Lord the Gentiles do invade, thine heritage to spyle:
Hierusalem an heape is made,
thy Temple they desile.
2 The bodies of thy Saints most deare, abroad to birds they cast:
The flesh of them that do thee feare,
the beasts deuour and wast.
3 Their blood throughout Ierusalem,
as water spilt they haue:
So that there is not one of them,
to lay their dead in graue.
4 Thus are we made a laughing stocke, almost the world throughout:
The enemies at vs iest and mocke, which dwell our coasts about.
5 Wilt thou O Lord, thus in thine ire, against against vs euer sinne?

And shew thy wrath as hot as fire,
thy folke for to consume?
6 Upon thyle people poure the same,
which did thee neuer know:
All realmes which call not on thy name,
consume and ouerthrowe.

7 For they haue got the bypper hand,
and Iacobs seed destroyed:
His habitation and his land,
they haue left wast and boyd.
8 Beare not in mind our former faults.
With speed some pittie shew:
And aide vs Lord in all assaults,
for we are weak and low.

The second part.

9 O God that giuest all health and grace,
on vs declare the same:
Weigh not our works, our sinnes deface,
for honour of thy name.
10 Althy shall the wicked still alway,
to vs as people dumme:
In thy reproch reioyce and say,
where is their God become?

11 Require O Lord as thou seest good,
before our eyes in light:
Of all these folke, thy seruants blood,
which they spile in desight.
12 Receiue into thy sight in hast,
the clamours, griefe, and wrong:
Of such as are in prizon cast, sustaining irons strong.

Thy force and strength to celebrate,
Lord let them out of bands:
Which vnto death are destinate,
and in their enemies hand.
13 The nations which haue becne so bold
as to blasphemie thy name:
Into their laps with scuen fold,
repay againe the same.

14 So we thy folke and pasture sheepe, will praise thee euermore:
And reach all ages for to keepe,
for thee like praisie in store.

Qui regis Israel. Psal. Lxxx. I. H.

A lamentable prayer to God to helpe the miseries of the Church, desiring him to consider the first estate, when his fauor shined towards them, that he might finish that worke which he begun.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

Thou heare that Israel doest keepe, giue care and take good heed:
Which leadest Ioseph like a sheepe,
and doest him watch and feed.
2 Thou Lord I say, whose fear is set,
on Cherubins to bught:
Shew forth thy selfe, and do not let,
send downe thy beames of light.

3 Before Ephraim and Benjamin,
Dan aske eke likewise:
To shew thy power doe thou beginne,
come helpe vs Lord arise.

4 Direct our hearts vnto thy grace,
connect vs Lord to thee:
Shew vs the brightnesse of thy face,
and then full safe are we.

5 Lord God of hostes of Israel

how long wilt thou I say Against thy folke in anger dwell, and wilt not heare them pray.
6 Thou doest them feed with toryons deap, their bread with teares they eat:
And drinke the teares that they do weepe
in measure full and great.

7 Thou hast vs made a very strife, to those that dwell about:
And that our foes do loue alife,
they laugh and leet it out.
8 Take vs Lord vnto thy grace, connect our minds to thee:
Shew forth to vs thy ioyfull face,
and we full safe shall be.

9 From Egypt where it grew not well, thou broughtst a vine full deare:
Then heathen folke thou didst reuell,
and then didst plant it there.
10 Thou didst prepare for it a place,
and set her rootes full fast:
That it did grow and lying apace,
and sit the land at last.

The second part.

11 The hills were covered round about,
with shade that from it came:
And eke the Cedars high and stout,
with branches of the same.
12 Althy then didst thou her walls destroy:
her hedge pluckt by thou hast:
That all the folke that passe thereby,
thy vine may spoile and wast.

13 The Bore out of the wood so wild, doth digge and root it out:
The furious beasts out of the field, denour it all about.

14 O Lord of hostes returne againe, from heauen looke downe betime:
Behold, and with thy helpe sustaine,
this poore vineyard of thine.

15 Thy plant, I say, thine Israel, whom thy right hand hath set:
The same which thou didst loue so well,
O Lord do not forget.

16 They lop and cut it downe apace,
they burne it eke with fire:
And through the frowning of thy face,
we perishe in thine ire.

17 Let thy right hand be with them now, whom thou hast kept so long:
And with the Sonne of man whom thou,
to thee hast made so strong.

18 And to when thou hast let vs free,
and saued vs from shame:
Then we will neuer fall from thee,
but call vpon thy name.

19 O Lord of hostes through thy good grace, connect vs vnto thee:
Behold vs with a pleasant face,
and then full safe are we.

Exultate Deo. Psal. Lxxxi. I. H.

An exhortation to praise God for his benefits, es-teeming their ingratitude.

Be light and glad, in God reioyce,

which

which is our strength and stay: Be ioyful and lift up your voyce to Iacobs God I say 2 Prepare your instruments most meet, to me ioyful Psalme to sing: Strike up with harp and lute so sweet, on euery pleasant string.

- 3 Blow as it were in the new Doone, with trumpets of the best:
As it is vied to be done,
at any solenne feast.
4 For this is vnto Itraell,
a statute and a trade:
A law that must be kept full well,
which Iacobs God hath made.
5 This clause with Joseph was decreed,
when he from Egypt came:
That as a witness all his seed, should still obdure the same.
6 When God I say had thus prepar'd, to bring him from that land:
Whereas the speerch which he had heard,
he did not vnderstand.
7 I from his shoulders tooke (saith he)
the burthen cleane away:
And from the furnace quit him free,
from burning bricke of clay.
8 When thou in griefe didst cry and call,
I holpe thee by and by:
And I did answere thee withall,
in thundre secretlye.
9 Sea at the waters of discord,
I did thee tempt and proue:
Whereas the goodnesse of the Lord,
with muttering thou didst moue.
10 Heare O my folke, O Itraell, and I assure it thee:
Regard and marke my words full well,
if thou wilt cleane to mee.

The second part.

- 11 Thou halt no God in thee rescue, of any land abroad:
Nor in no wile to bow or seene
a strange or forraigne God.
12 I am the Lord thy God, and I from Egypt set thee free:
Then aske of me abundance,
and I will giue it thee.
13 And yet my people would not heare,
my voyce when that I spake:
Nor Itraell would not obey,
but did me quite forsake.
14 Then did I leaue them to their will,
in hardness of their hearts:
To walke in their owne counsels still,
themselues they might peruert.

- 15 That my people would haue heard,
the words that I did say:
And eke that Itraell would regard,
to walke within my way.
16 How soone would I confound their foes and bring them downe full low:
And turne my hand vpon all thole,
that would them ouerthrow.
17 And they that at the Lord do rage, as flauies should seeke him till:
But of his folke the time and age, should flourish euer still.
18 I would haue fed them with the crop,
and fitt of the wheate:
And made the rocke with hony drop,
that they their fillies should eate.

Deus sicut in. Psal. Lxxxii. I. H.

David declaring God to be present with Iudges & Magistrates, reprocch their partialitie, and vn-righteousnes, and exhorteth them to do iustice, seeing no amendment, he desireth God to execute iustice himselfe.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

- A Did the yaste with men of might,
the Lord him selfe doth stand:
To plead the cause of truely and right,
with Iudges of the land.
2 How long, said he, will you proceed,
falsly iudgement to award:
And haue respect for loue of meeb,
the wicked to regard?
3 Whereas of due you should defend:
the fatherlesse and weake:
And when the poore man doth contend,
in iudgement iustly speake.
4 If ye be wise defend the cause of poore men in their right:
And rid the needy from the clauies,
of tyrants force and might.
5 But nothing will they know or learne,
in vaine to them I talke:
They will not see or ought discern,
but still in darknesse walke.
For loe euen now the time is come,
that all things fall to nought.
And likewise lawes both all and some,
for gaine are sold and bought.
6 I had decreed it in my sight,
as Gods to take you all:
And children to the most of might,
for loue I did you call.
7 But not with standing ye shall die,
as men, and so decay:
Tyrants I shall you destroy,
and plucke you quite away.
8 Thy Lord and let thy name be knowne, and iudge the world with might:
For why? all Nations are thine owne,
to take them as thy right.

Deus quis similis. Psal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

The Itraelites pray the Lord to deliuer them from their enemies, both at home and farre off: also that all such wicked people be stricken with his stormie tempests, that they may know his power.

Sing this as the 77. Psalme.

Do not God reſtaine thy tongue,
in ſilence do not ſtay, Withhold not Lord thy ſelfe ſo long,
nor make no more delay.

2 For why? behold thy foes, and ſee
how they doe rage and cry:

And thoſe that beare an hate to thee,
hold by their heads on hye.

3 Againſt thy ſolke they uſe deceit,
and craftily they enquire:

For thine elect to lie in waite, their counſell doth conſpire.

4 Come on ſay they, let vs cryell, and plucke theſe ſolke away:
So that the name of Iſrael,
may utterly decay.

5 They all conſpire with in their hearts,
how they may thee withſtand:

Againſt the Lord to take a part,
they are in league and band.

6 The tents of all the Edomites,
the Iſmaelites alſo:
The Hagarites and Hoabites, with diuers other moſe.

7 Sebail with Ammen, and likewiſe doth Amaſeck conſpire:

The Phiſtims againſt thee riſe, with them that dwell at Tyre.

8 And Aſhur eke is well apaid,
with them in league to be:
And doth become a ſence and aide,
to Lots poſterity.

9 As thou didſt to the Madianites, ſo ſerue them Lord each one:

As to Siter and to Jabin beſide the brooke Kidon.

10 Who in thou in Endor didſt deſtroy, and waſt them through thy might:
That they like dung on earth did lie,
and that in open ſight.

The ſecond part.

11 Make them now, and their Lords appeare like Seb and Oreb then:

As Saba and Salmā were,
the Kings of Madian.

12 Which ſaid, let vs throughout the land,
in all the coaſts abroad:
Poſſeſſe and take into our hand,
the faire houſes of God.

13 Turne them God with ſtoymes as ſaſt,
as wheelles that haue no ſtay:

Do like the chaſſe which men do caſt,
with winds to ſlie away.

14 Like as the fire with rage and ſume,
the mighty foreſtes ſpiles:
And as the flame doth quite conſume,
the mountaines and the hills.

15 And let the tempeſt of thy wrath,
vpon their neckes be layd:

So of thy ſtoyme wind and ſhower,
Lord make them all afraide,

16 Lord bring them all Iſthace deſire,
to ſuch rebuke and ſhame:

That it may cauſe them to enquire,
and learne to ſeek thy name.

17 And let them euermore daily,

to ſhame and ſlander caſt:

And in rebuke and obloquie,
to periſh eke withall.

18 That they may know and feele full well, that thou art called Lord:

And that alone thou doeſt excell,
and raigne throughout the world.

Quam dilecta. Pſal. Lxxxiii. I. H.

David exiled his country, deſireth ardently to returne to Gods Tabernacle, and aſſembly of the ſaints to praiſe God. Then he praiſeth the courage of the people, that paſſe the wilderneſſe to aſſemble themſelues in Sion.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

How pleaſant is thy dwelling place,
O Lord of hoſts to me?

The Tabernacles of thy grace, how pleaſant Lord they be?

2 My ſoule doth long full ſore to go, into thy courts abroad:

My heart doth luſt, my fleſh alſo,
in thee the liuing God.

3 The ſparrows find a roome to reſt, and laue themſelues from wrong:

And eke the ſwallow hatch her neſt,
where in to keepe her yong.

4 Theſe birds full high thine altar may haue place to ſit and ſing:

O Lord of hoſtes thou art I ſay,
my God and eke my king.

5 Oh they be bleſſed that may dwell,
within thy houſe alwaies:

For they all times thy facts do tell,
and euer giue thee praiſe.

6 Per, happy ſure likewiſe are they,
whole day and ſtrength thou art:

Which to thy houſe do mind the way,
and ſeek thee in their heart.

7 As they go through the vale of teares,
they digge vpon fountaines ſill:

That as a ſpring it all appeares,
and thou their pits doſt fill.

8 Fro ſtrength to ſtrength they walke full ſaſt no ſainneſſe there ſhall be:

And to the God of gods at laſt,
in Sion they doe ſer.

9 O Lord of hoſtes to me giue heed, and heare when I do pray:

And let it through thine eares proceed,
O Jacobs God I ſay.

10 O Lord our ſhield of thy good grace, regard and do draw neare:

Regard I ſay, behold the face of thine appointed deare.

11 For why? within thy courts one day,
is better to abide,

Then other where to keepe O Kay,
a thouſand dayes beſide.

12 Much rather would I keepe a doore, within the houſe of God:

Then in the tents of wickedneſſe, to ſettle mine abode.

13 For God the Lord ſight and defence, will grace and worſhip giue:

And no good thing ſhall he withhold,
from them that purely liue.

14 O Lord of heales, that man is blest, and happy he is that that is persuaded in his breast, to trust all times in thee.

Benedixisti Dom. Psal. Lxxxv. I. H.

Because God withdrew not his rods from his Church, after the returne from Babylon, first they put him in minde that he should not leaue the worke of his grace vnperfit, and complaine of their long affliction. Then they reioice in hope of promised deliuerance, which was a figure of Christs kingdom, vnder which should be perfect felicity.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

Thou hast bene mercifull indeede,
O Lord vnto thy land:

For thou reioicest Iacobs seed,
from thraldome out of hand.

2 The wicked wayes that they were in,
thou didst them cleane remit:
And thou didst hide thy peoples sinne,
full close thou coueredit it.

3 Thine anger eke thou didst asswage, that all thy wrath was gone:
And so didst turne thee from thy rage,
with them to be at one.

4 O God of health doe now conuert, thy people vnto thee:
Put all thy wrath from vs a part,
and angry cease to be.

5 Why shall thine anger neuer end,
but still proceede on vs?
And shall thy wrath it selfe extend,
vpon all ages thus?

6 Wilt thou not rather turne therefore, and quicken vs that we
And all thy folke may euermore, be glad and ioy in thee?

7 O Lord on vs doe thou declare,
thy goodnesse to our wealth:
Shew forth to vs, and do not spare,
thine ayd and sauing health.

8 I will harken what God saith for he,
speakes to his people peace:
And to his Saints that neuer they,
returne to foolishnesse.

9 For why, his helpe is still at hand to such as doe him feare, Whereby great glory in the land shall dwell and flourish there.

10 For truth and mercy there shall meet,
in one to take their place:
And peace shall iustice with kisse greete,
and there they shall embrace.

11 As truth from earth shall spring apace
and flourish pleasantly,
So righteousness shall shew her face and looke from heauen hie.

12 Pea God himselfe doth take in hand to giue vs each good thing,
And through the coastes of all the land
the earth her fruits shall bring.

13 Before his face shall iustice grow much like a gude olfay,
He shall direct his steps also and keep them in the way.

Jucunda Dominus. Psal. Lxxxvj. I. H.
Dauid sore afflicted prayeth fruently for deliuerance, sometime rehearsing miseries and merites recei-ued, desiring also to be ministered of the Lord that he may feare and glorifie his name. He complaineth also of his aduersaries, and requires to be deliuered from them.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

I Did how thine care to my request, and heare me by and by:

With grievous paine and griefe opprest,
full pouze and weake am I.

2 Decline my soule, because my wayes and doings holy be,
And saue thy seruant O my Lord that puts his trust in thee.

3 Thy mercy Lord on me expresse, defend me eke withall:

For through the day I doe not cease on thee to cry and call.

4 Comfort O Lord thy seruants soule that now with paine is pinde, For vnto thee Lord I extoll and lift my soule and minde.

5 For thou art good and bountifull, thy gifts of grace are free:
And eke thy mercy plentifull
to all that call on thee.

6 O Lord likewise when I doe pray regard and giue an eare, Marke well the wordes that I doe say and all my prayers heare.

7 In time when trouble doth me mooue to thee I doe complaine, For why I know and well doe proue thou answerest me againe.

8 Among the Gods (O Lord) is none with thee to be comparde,
And none can doe as thou alone
the like hath not been heard.

The second part.

9 The Gentiles and the people all which thou didst make and frame, Before thy face on knees will fall and glorifie thy name.

10 For why, thou art so much of might,
all power is thine owne:
Thou workest wonders still in sight,
for thou art God alone.

11 O teach me Lord the way, and I shall in thy truth proceed:
O ioyne my heart to thee so nie,
that I thy name may dread.

12 O thee my God will I giue prayse, with all my heart (O Lord)
And glorifie thy name alwayes, for euer through the world.

13 For why, thy mercy shewed to me is great and doth excell, Thou sett my soule at libertie out from the lower hell.

14 O Lord the proud against me rise and heapes of men of might,
They seeke my soule, and in no wise will haue thee in their sight.

15 Thou Lord art mercifull and meeke, full slacke and slow to wrath:
Thy goodnesse is full great, and eke thy truth no measure hath.

16 Turne to me and mercy grant,
thy strength to me apply :

Help me and save thine owne servant,
thy handmaides sonne am I.

17 On me some signe of favour shew, that all my foes may see :

And be ashamed, because Lord thou doest helpe and comfort me.

Fundamenta tui. Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The holy Ghost promisseth that the Church, as yet in miserie, after the captivitie of Babylon, should be restored to great excellency : so that nothing should be more comfortable then to be numbred among the members thereof.

Sing this as the 81. Psalme.

That Citie shall full well endure, her ground worke still doth stay
Upon the holy hill full sure,
it can no time decay.

2 God loves the gates of Sion best,
his grace doth there abide :

He loves them more than all the rest of Jacobs tents beside.

3 Full glorious things reported be in Sion and abroad, Great things I say are said of thee thou Citie of our God.

4 On Razab I will cast an eye, and beare in minde the same :

And Babylon shall eke apply, and learne to know my name.

5 Loe Palestine and Tyre also,
with Ethiopie likewise :

A people old full long agoe were borne, and there did rise.

6 Of Sion they shall say abroad that divers men of fame

have there sprung up, and the high God hath founded fast the same.

7 In their records to them it shall through Gods deuce appeare,

Of Sion, that the chiefe of all had his beginning there.

8 The trumpeters with such as sing, therein great plenty be :

By fountaines and my pleasant springs are compassed all in thee.

Domine Deus Psal. Lxxxvij. I. H.

The faithfull sore affected by sickness, persecution, adversitie, and as it were left of God, without any consolation: yet call on God by faith, and strive agaist desperation.

Lord God of health, the hope and stay, thou art alone to me: I call and cry throughout the day, and all the night to thee. 2. Let my prayers soone ascend unto thy light on high: Incline thine eare (O Lord) intend, and hearken to my cry.

3 For why, my soule with woe is filld and doth in trouble dwell,
My life and breath doth almost yeeld and draweth nigh to hell.

4 I am esteemd as one of them that in the pit doe fall,
And made as one among those men that have no strength at all.

5 As one among the dead, and free from things that here remaine, It were more easie for me to be with them the which are slaine.

6 As those that lie in graue I say, whom thou hast cleave forgot:
The which thy hand hath cut away,
and thou regardst them not.

7 Pea like to one shut by full sure within the lower pit,
In places darke and all obscure and in the depth of it.

8 Thine anger and thy wrath I know full force on me doth lie,
And all thy stormes agaunt me rise
my soule to wepe and cry.

9 Thou puttst my friends far off from me and makest them hate me sore,
I am shut up in prison fast and can come forth no more.

10 By sight doth faile through griefe to see
I call to thee O God:
Throughout the day my hands also to thee I stretch abroad.

The second part.

11 Doest thou unto the dead declare thy wondrous workes of fame, Shall dead to life againe repaire and prayse thee for the same?

12 O shall thy louing kindnesse Lord be preached in the graue,
O shall with them that are destroyd,
thy truth her honour haue?

13 Shall they that lie in darke still losse of all thy wonders wote?
O there shall they thy iustice know where all things are forgot?

14 But I (O Lord) to thee alway doe cry and call apace,
My prayer eke ere it be day shall come before thy face.

15 Why doest thou O Lord abhor my soule in griefe that seeketh thee,
And now O Lord why doest thou hide thy face away from me?

16 I am as flint, as drying flint from

from youth this many a yeere:
The terrors which doe bere me ill,
with troubled mind I beare.

17 The furies of thy wrathfull rage,
full sore vpon me fall:

Thy terrours eke doe not asswage, but me oppresse withall.

18 All day they compass me about,
as water at the tide:

And all at once with streames full stout beset me on each side.

19 Thou settest far from me my friends, and loners euery one:

Pea and mine old acquaintance all,
out of my sight are gone.

Misererecordia. Psal. Lxxxix. I. H.

David praisth God, for his conent made be-twene him and his elect by Iesus Christ, then he complaineth of the desolation of his kingdome, so that the promise seemed to be broken. Finally he prayeth to be deliuered from afflictions mentioning the shortnesse of mans life, and confirming him selfe by Gods promises.

Sing thou as the 67. Psalme.

T sing the merites of the Lord,
my tongue shall neuer spare,
And with my mouth from age to age,
thy truth I will declare:

2 For I haue said that mercy shall for euermore remaine,

In that thou doest the heauens stay,
thy truth appeareth plaine.

3 To mine elect, saith God, I made a conenant and behest,

My seruant David to perswade,
I swore and did protest.

4 Thy seede for euer I will stay,
and stablish it full fast:

And still vphold thy throne alway,
from age to age to last.

5 The heauens shew with ioy and mirth thy wondrous workes O Lord:

Thy Saints within thy Church on earth thy faith and truth record.

6 Who with the Lord is equall then,
in all the clouds abroad:

Among the sonnes of all the gods,
what one is like our God?

7 God in assemble of his Saints, is greatlie to be dread:

And ouer all that dwell about,
in terror to be had.

8 Lord God of hosts in all the world,
what one is like, to thee?

Ou euery side most mightie Lord,
thy truth is scene to vs.

9 The raising sea by thine aduice, thou ruledst at thy will:

And when the waues thereof arise,
thou makest them calme and still.

10 And Egypt thou Lord hast subdued:
and thou hast it destroyed:

Pea thou thy foes with mightie arme,
hast scattered all abroad.

The second part.

11 The heauens are thine and still haue ben likewise the earth and land

The world with all that is therein, thou foundedst with thy hand.

12 Both North & South, with East & West thy selfe did make and frame.

Both Tabor mount and eke Hermon, reioyce and praise thy name.

13 Thine arme is strong and full of power:
all might therein doth lie:

The strength of thy right hand each houre,
thou livest vpon hye.

14 In righteounes and equitie, thou hast thy seate and place:

Mercy and truth are still with thee,
and goe before thy face.

15 That folke is blest that knoweth aright:
thy present power O God:

For in the fauour of thy light,
they walke full safe abroad.

16 For in thy Name throughout the day,
they ioy and much reioyce:

And through thy righteounesse haue they
a pleasant fame and noice.

17 For why? their glorie, strength and aid
in thee alone doth lie:

Thy goodnesse eke that hath vs staid,
hall lift our hoine on hye.

18 Our strength that doth defend vs well,
the Lord to vs doth bring,

The holy one of Israel,
he is our guide and King,

19 Sometime thy will vnto thy Saints,
in visions thou didst shew:

And thus then didst thou say to them,
thy mind, to make them know:

20 A man of might I haue erect, your King and guide to be:

And let him by whom I elect,
among the folke to me.

The third part.

12 My seruant David I appoint, whom I haue searched out:

And with my holy ope anoint,
him king of all the rout.

22 For why? my hand is readie still,
with him for to remaine:

And with mine arme also I will,
him strengthen and sustaine.

23 The enemies shall him not oppresse,
they shall him not denour:

Ne yet the sonnes of wickednesse,
on him shall haue no power.

24 His foes likewise I will destroy,
before his face in light:

And those that hate him I will plague,
and strike them with my might.

25 My truth and mercy eke withall,
hall still vpon him lie:

And in my name his hoine eke shall be lifted vp on hye:

26 His kingdome I will set to be,
vpon the sea and land:

And eke the running floods shall he,
embrace with his right hand.

27 He shall depend with all his heart
on me and thus shall say:

My Father and my God thou art,

my rocke of health and stay.
 28 As one strik boate I will him take,
 of all on earth that springs:
 29 My might and honor I shall make,
 above all worldly kings.
 30 My mercy shall be with him still,
 as I my selfe haue told:
 My faithfull covenant to fulfill,
 my mercie I will hold.
 31 And cle his seede I will sustaine, for ever strong and sure:
 So that his seate shall still remaine,
 while heauen doth endure.
The fourth part.
 32 If that his tonnes forlake my law,
 and to begin to swaue:
 And of my iudgements haue none awe,
 nor will not them obserue.
 33 But if they doe not die aright,
 my statutes to them made:
 And set all my commandements light,
 and will not keepe my trade.
 34 Then with my rod will I begin,
 their doings to amend:
 And so with scourging for their sinne,
 when that they doe offend.
 35 My mercy yet and my goodnesse,
 I will not take him fro:
 Nor handle him with craftinesse,
 and so my truch forgoe.
 36 But sure my covenant I will hold with all that I haue spoke:
 No word the which my lips haue told,
 shall alter or be broke.
 37 Once swaue I by my holinesse, and that performe will I:
 With Dauid I shall keepe promise, to him I will not lie.
 38 His seede for euermore shall raigne, and eke his throne of might:
 As doth the Sunne it shall remaine,
 for ever in my sight:
 39 And as the Moone within the skie,
 for ever standeth fast,
 A faithfull witnesse from on hie,
 so shall his kingdome last.
 40 But now O Lord thou dost reiect, and now thou changeest cheare:
 Yea thou art wroth with thine elect,
 thine owne annointed beare.
 41 The covenant with thy seruant made,
 Lord thou hast quite undone:
 And downe vpon the ground also,
 hast cast his royall crowne.
The fift part.
 42 Thou pluckst his bedges vp with might,
 his walles thou dost confound:
 Thou bearest eke his bulwarkes downe,
 and breakest them to the ground.
 43 That he is sore desitoid and toyme, of commers by throughout:
 And sois made a mocke and scorne,
 to all that dwell aboute.
 44 Thou their right hand hast liued vp that him to thee annoy,
 And all his foes that him deuour,
 lo: thou hast made to toy.

45 His words edge thou dost take away, that should his foes withstand:
 To him in warre no victorie,
 thou giuelt no vpper hand.
 46 His glory thou dost also waite,
 his throne, his toy, his mirth,
 By thee is ouerthrowne and cast,
 full low vpon the earth.
 47 Thou hast cut off and made full short his youth and lustie daies:
 And raised of him an ill report,
 with shame and great dispraise.
 48 How long away from me O Lord,
 for ever wilt thou turne?
 And shall thine anger still alway,
 as fire consume and burne?
 49 O call to mind remember then,
 my time consumeth fast:
 Why hast thou made the tonnes of men,
 as things in vaine to wast?
 50 What man is he that liueth heere, and death shall neuer see?
 From the hand of hell his soule,
 shall he deliuer free?
 51 Where is O Lord thine old goodnesse, to oft declar'd before me:
 Which by thy truch and uprightnesse,
 to Dauid thou hast sware?
 52 The great rebukes to mind I call,
 that on thy seruant lie:
 The rayling of the people all,
 borne in my breast haue I.
 53 Altherewith O Lord thine enemies, blasphem'd haue thy name:
 The steps of thine annointed one,
 they cease not to defame.
 54 All praise to thee O Lord of hostes,
 both now and eke for aye:
 Through skie and earth, and all the coastes,
 Amen, Amen I say.

Domine refugium. Psal. XC. I. H.

Moses seeing the people, neither admonished by the breuity of their life, nor by plagues, to be thankfull, prayeth God to turne their hearts, and continue his mercies toward them, and their posteritie for ever.

Sing this as the 78. Psalm.

Thou Lord hast bene our sure defence,
 our place of ease and rest:
 In all times past, yea so long since,
 as cannot be exprest.
 2 Ere there was made mountaine or hill,
 the earth or world abroad:
 From age to age and alwaies still,
 for ever thou art God.
 3 Thou grindest man through griefe & paine to dust of clay and then:
 And then thou layest againe returne,
 againe ye somes of men.
 4 The lasting of a thousand yeere,
 what is it in thy sight?
 As yest day it doth appeare,
 or as a watch by night.
 5 So soone as thou dost scatter them,
 then is their life and trade,
 All as a sleepe, and like the grasse, whose beaurie soune doth fade.

6 Which in the morning shines full bright,
but fadeeth by and by:
And is cut down ere it be night,
all withered, dead and dry.

7 For through thine anger we consume,
our might is much decayd:
And of thy feruent wrath and fume,
we are full sore afraid.

8 The wicked workes that we haue wrought thou setst before thine eie:
Our priue faults, yea eke our thoughts,
thy countenance doth spie.

9 For through thy wrath our days do wast, thereof doth nought remaine:
Our yeares consume like words of blast,
and are not call'd againe.

10 Our time is threescore yeares and ten that we do liue on mould:
If one see fourscore, surely then we count him wondrous old.

The second part.

11 Yet of this time thy strength and chiefe,
the which we count vpon:
Is nothing else but painefull griefe,
and we like blasse are gone.

12 Altho once doth know what strength is what might thine anger hath: (there, O in his heart who doth thee feare,
according to thy wrath?

13 Instruct vs Lord to know and try,
how long our daies remaine:
That then we may our hearts apply,
true wisdom to attaine.

14 Returne O Lord, how long wilt thou, forth on in wrath proceed?
Shew fauour to thy seruants now,
and helpe them at their need.

15 Refresh vs with thy mercie soone, and then our ioy shall be:
All times as long as life doth last,
in heart reioyce shall we.

16 As thou hast plagued vs before,
now aldo make vs glad:
And for the yeares wherein full sope affliction we haue had.

17 O let thy worke and power appeare,
and on thy seruants light:
And shew vnto thy children deare, thy glory and thy might.

18 Lord let thy grace and glory stand, on vs thy seruants thus:
Confirm the workes we take in hand,
Lord prosper them to vs.

Qui habitat. Psal. XCj. I. H.

He describeth the assurance he liueth in, that committeeth him else wholly to Gods protection in all temptation, & promise of God to those that loue him, know him, and trust in him to deliuer them, and giue them immortal glory.

Sing this as the 99. Psalme.

H E that within the secret place of God most high doth dwell:
In shadow of the mightiest grace,
at rest shall keepe him well.

2 Thou art my hope and my strong hold,
I to the Lord will lay:
For God is he, in him will I my whole affiance stay.

3 He shall defend thee from the snare,
the which the hunter laid:
And from the deadly plague and care whereof thou art afraid.

4 And with his wings will couer thee,
and keepe thee safely there:
His faith and truth thy fence shall be,
as sure as shield and speare.

5 So that thou shalt not need I say,
to feare or be affright:
Of all the shafts that fly by day,
nor terror of the night.

6 For of the plague that pinisse doth walke in darke to fast:
Nor yet of that which doth destroy and at noone day doth wast.

7 Pea at thy side as thou dost stand,
a shoulard dead shall be:
Ten thousand eke at thy right hand,
and yet thou shalt be free.

8 But thou shalt see it for thy part,
thine eyes shall well regard:
That euen like to their desert,
the wicked haue reward.

9 For why? O Lord I onely lust, to stay my hope on thee:
And in the highest I put my trust,
my sure defence is he.

10 Thou shalt not need none ill to feare,
with thee it shall not melt:
Nor yet the plague shall once come nere
the house where thou dost dwell.

11 For why? vnto his Angels all,
with charge commandeth hee:
That still in all thy wayes they shall preserve and prosper thee.

12 And in their hands shall thee beare by,
still waiting thee vpon:
So that thy foot shall neuer chancel, to turne as any stone.

13 Upon the Lion thou shalt go,
the adder kill and long:
And tread vpon the Lyons yong, with Dragons stout and strong.

14 For he that trusteth vnto me,
I will dispatch him quicke:
And him defend because that he,
doth know my name aright.

15 When he for helpe on me doth cry,
an answer I will giue:
And from his griefe take him will I,
in glorye for to liue.

16 With length of yeares & days of wealth
I will fulfill his time:
The goodnesse of my lauing health,
I will declare to him.

Bonum est. Psal. XCij. J. H.

A Psalme for the Sabbath, to stirre vp the people to acknowledge & praise God in his worke. Da-uid reioyceth therein: but the wicked consider not that the vngodly, when he is most flourishing, shall most speedily perish, in the end is described the felicity of the iust placed in the house of God, in praise of the Lord.

Sing this as the 83. Psalme.

I T is a thing both good and meet,
to praise the highest Lord:

And to thy name O thou most high,
to sing with one accord.

2 To shew the kindnes of the Lord
betime ere day be light:

And eke declare his truth abroad,
when it doth draw to night.

3 Upon ten stringed instrument, on Lute and Harpe so sweet:
With all the mirth you can invent,
of instruments most meet.

4 For thou hast made me to reioyce, in things so wrought by thee:
And I haue ioy in heart and voyce,
thy handy works to see.

5 O Lord how glorious and how great,
are all thy works so stout:

So deeply are thy counsels set,
that none can try them out.

6 The man without hath not the wit,
this geare to passe to bring:
And all such fooles are nothing fit,
to vnderstand this thing.

7 When to the wicked at their will,
as grasse do spring full fast:

They when they flourish in their ill,
for euer shall be wast.

8 But thou art mighty Lord most high, yea thou dost raigne therefore:

In euerie time eternall,
both now and euermore.

9 For why? O Lord behold and see,
behold thy foes I say:

How all that worke iniquity, shall perish and decay.

10 But thou like as an Unicorne, shalt lift mine horne on high:

With fresh and new prepared oyle, thine oynted King am I.

11 And of my foes before mine eyes, shall see the fall and shame

Of all that vp against me rise, mine eare shall heare the same.

12 The iust shall flourish vp on hie,
as Date trees bud and blow:

And as the Cedars multiply,
in Libanus that grow.

13 For they are planted in the place,
and dwelling of our God:

Within his courts they spring apace,
and flourish all abroad.

14 And in their age most fruit shall bring,
both fat and well becene:

And pleasantly both bud and spring,
with boughes and branches Greene.

15 To shew that God is good and iust, and bright in his will:

He is my rocke, my hope and trust,
in him there is none ill.

Dominus regnauit. Psal. XCiiij. I. H.

He praiseth the power of God in the creation of the world, and beatech downe all people which lift themselves against his Majesty, and p. ouoketh to consider his promise.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

The Lord as King aloft doth raigne,
in glory goodly dight

And he to shew his strength and maine, hath giue himselfe with might.

2 The Lord likewise the earth hath made,
and shap'd it so sure:

No might can make it more or fade,
at stay it doth endure.

3 Ere that the world was made or wrought thy seat was set before:

Beyond all times that can be thought,
thou hast been euermore.

4 The floods, O Lord the floods do rise,
they roare and make a noise:

The floods (I say) did enterpise, and lifted vp their voice.

5 Pea though the stormes arise in light, though seas do rage and swell:

The Lord is strong and more of might,
for he on high doth dwell.

6 And looke what promise he doth make,
his iournehold to defend:

For iust and true they shall it take,
all times without an end.

Deus ultionum. Psal. XCiiij. I. H.

Hee prayeth God against the violence of tyrants, comforteth the afflicted by the good issue of their afflictions, and by the ruine of the wicked.

Sing this as the 73. Psalme.

O Lord thou dost reuenge all wrong-that office longs to thee:

Such vengeance doth to thee belong, declare that all may see.

2 Set forth thy selfe, for thou of right,
the earth dost iudge and guide:

Reward the proud and men of might,
according to their pride.

3 How long shall wicked men beare sway, with lifting vp their voyce?

How long shall wicked men I say,
thus triumph and reioyce?

4 How long shall they with brags burst out, and proudly prate their fill?

Shall they reioyce which be so stout,
whose workes are euer ill?

5 Thy folke O Lord, thine heritage,
they people and were till now:

Against thy people they do rage,
still daily more and more.

6 The widows which are comfortlesse, and strangers they distress:

They slay the children fatherlesse, and none do put them by.

7 And when they take these things in hand,
this talke they haue of thee:

Can Jacobs God this vnderstand?
tush, no he cannot see.

8 O folke without and people rude, some knowledge now discern:

Pe fooles among the multitude,
at length begin to learne.

9 The Lord which made the eare of man,
he needs of right must heare:

He made the eyes, all things must then,
before his sight appeare.

10 The Lord doth all the world correct,
and make them vnderstand:

Shall he not then your deeds detect,

how can ye scape his hand.

The second part.

11 The Lord doth know the thoughts of his heart he seeth plaine: (man)

The Lord I say mens thoughts doth scan, and findeth them but vaine.

12 But Lord that man is happy sure, whom thou dost keepe in awe.

And though correction dost procure, to teach him in thy law.

13 Whereby he shall in quiet rest, in time of trouble sit:

When wicked men shall be suppress, and fall into the pit.

14 For sure the Lord will not refuse, his people for to take:

His heritage whom he did chuse, he will no time forsake.

15 Untill that iudgement be decreed, to iustice to convert:

That all may follow her with speed, that are of upright heart.

16 But who vpon my part shall stand, against the cursed traine:

Who shall rid me from their hand that wicked works maintaine?

17 Except the Lord had bene mine ayd, mine enemies to expell:

My soule and life had now bene clayd, almost as low as hell:

18 When I did say my foote doth slide, and now am like to fall:

Thy goodnesse Lord did so prouide, to stay me by withall.

19 When with my selfe I misd much, and could no comfort find:

Then Lord thy goodnesse did me touch, and that did ease my mind.

20 While thou inhabit thy selfe and draw with wicked men to sit:

Which with pience in stead of law, much mischief doe commit?

21 For they consult against the life, of righteous men and good:

And in their counsels they are ripe, to shed the guiltlesse blood.

22 But yet the Lord he is to me, a strong defence or locke:

He is my God to whom I flee, he is my strength and rocke.

23 And he shall cause their mischieses all, themselves for to annoy:

And in their malice they shall fall, our God shall them destroy.

Venite exultem. Psal. XCv. J. H.

An earnest exhortation to praise God for the government of the world, and election of his Church, to eschew the rebellion of the old fathers, who tempted God in the wilderness, and therefore entered not the land of promise.

Sing this as the benedictus.

○ Come let vs lift up our voyce, and sing vnto the Lord:

In him our rocke of heathen reioyce, let vs with one accord.

2 Psea let vs come before his face, to giue him thanks and praise:

In singing Psalmes vnto his grace, let vs be glad alwaies.

3 For why? the Lord he is no doubt, a great and mightie God:

A King about all Gods throughout, in all the world abroad.

4 The secrets of the earth so deepe, and corners of the land:

The tops of hills that are so deepe, he hath them in his hand.

5 The sea and waters all are his, for he the same hath wrought:

The earth and all that therein is, his hand hath made of nought.

6 Come let vs bow and praise the Lord, before him let vs fall:

And kneele to him with one accord, the which hath made vs all.

7 For why? he is the Lord our God, for vs he doth provide:

We are his flocke he doth vs feede, his sheepe and he our guide.

8 To day if ye his voice will heare, then harden not your heart:

As ye with grudging many a yeare, prouokt me in desert.

9 Whereas your fathers tempted me, my power for to proue:

My wondrous works when they did see, yet still they would me moue.

10 Twise twentie yeares they did me grieue and I to them did say:

They erre in heart, and not beleue, they haue not knowne my way.

11 Wherefore I sweare when that my wrath, was kindled in my breast:

That they should neuer tread the path, to enter in my rest.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvi. J. H.

An exhortation both to the Iewes and Gentiles, to praise God for his mercie. And this specially ought to be reserved to the Kingdome of Christ.

Sing this as the 37. Psalme.

Sing ye with praise vnto the Lord, new songs of ioy and mirth:

Sing vnto him with one accord, all people on the earth.

2 Psea sing vnto the Lord I say, praise ye his holy name:

Declare and shew from day to day, saluation by the same.

3 Among the heathen eke declare, his honour round about:

To shew his wonders doe not spare, in all the world throughout.

4 For why? the Lord is much of might, and worthy praise alway:

And he is to be dread of right, about all Gods I say.

5 For all the Gods of heathen folke, are Idols that will fade:

But yet our God he is the Lord, that hath the heavens in ade.

6 All praise and honour eke do dwell, for aye before his face:

Both might and power likewise excell,
within his holy place:

7 Ascribe vnto the Lord alway,
ye people of the world:

All might and worship eke I say, ascribe vnto the Lord.

8 Ascribe vnto the Lord also,
the glory of his name:

And eke into his courts doe goe, with gifts vnto the same.

The second part.

9 Fall downe and worship ye the Lord,
within his temple bright:

Let all the people of the world,
be fearefull at his sight.

10 Tell all the world be not agast,
the Lord doth raigine aboue:

Pea he hath set the earth to fall,
that it can neuer moue.

11 And that it is the Lord alone, that rules with Princely might:

To iudge the nations euery one,
with equitie and right:

12 The heauens shall great ioy begin,
the earth eke shall reioyce:

The sea with all that is therein, shall shoute and make a noise.

13 The field shall ioy, and euery thing, that springeth on the earth:

The wood and euery tree shall sing,
with gladnesse and with mirth.

14 Before the presence of the Lord, and comming of his might:

When he shall iustly iudge the world,
and rule his folke with right.

Dominus, eg. Psal. XCvij. J. H.

David exhorteth all to reioyce for the comming of the Kingdome of Christ, deadfull to the rebels and Idolaters, & ioyfull to the iust, whome he exhorteth to innocency, to reioycing and thankgiuing.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

The Lord doth raigine, whereat the earth,
may ioy with pleasant voice:

And eke the fies with ioyfull mirth,
may triumph and reioyce.

2 Both clouds and darknesse eke do swell and round about him beat:

Pea right and iustice euer dwell,
and bide about his seat.

3 Pea fire and heat at once doe turne,
and goe before his face:

Which shall his foes and enemies burne, abroad in euery place.

4 His lightnings eke full bright did blaze,
and to the world appeare:

Whereat the earth did looke and gaze,
with dread and deadly feare.

5 The hills like waxe did melt, in sight and presence of the Lord:

They fied before that rulers might,
which guideth all the world.

6 The heauens eke declare and shew,
his iustice all abroad:

That all the world may see and know,
the glory of our God.

7 Confusion sure shall come to such,
as worship idols vaine:

And eke to those that glory much,
in idle pictures to maintaine.

8 For all the foles of the world, which they as Gods doe call:

Shall feeble the power of the Lord,
and downe to him shall fall.

9 With ioy shall Sion heere this thing,
and Iuda shall reioyce:

For at thy iudgements they shall sing,
and make a pleasant noise.

10 That thou O Lord art set on high,
in all the earth abroad:

And art exalted wondrously, aboue each other God.

11 All ye that loue the Lord doe this,
hate all things that are ill:

For he doth keepe the soules of his,
from such as would them spill.

12 And light doth spring vp to the iust, with pleasure for his part:

Great ioy with gladnesse, mirth, and lust,
to them of vpight heart.

13 Perighteous in the Lord reioyce, his holinesse proclaim:

Be thankfull eke with heart and voyce,
and mindefull of the same.

Cantate Dom. Psal. XCvij. I. H.

An earnest exortatio to al creatures to praiſe the Lord for his power, mercie, and ſcilitie in his promiſe by Chriſt, by whom he hath communicated his ſaluation to all nations.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O Sing ye now vnto the Lord,
a new and pleasant song: (world)

For he hath wrought throughout the his wonders great and strong.

2 With his right hand full worthily,
he doth his foes deuour:

And get himſelfe the victorie,
with his owne arme and power.

3 The Lord doth make the people know, his ſauing health and might:

The Lord doth eke his iuſtice ſhow,
in all the Weathers ſight.

4 His grace and truth to Iſraell,
in mind he doth record:

That all the earth hath ſene right well,
the goodneſſe of the Lord.

5 Be glad in him with ioyfull voyce,
all people on the earth:

Give thanks to God, ſing, and reioyce,
to him with ioy and mirth.

6 Upon the Warpe vnto him ſing, giue thanks to him with Pſalmes:

Reioyce before the Lord our King,
With trumpets and with Pſalmes.

7 Pea let the Sea, with all therein, for ioy both roare and thrill:

The earth likewiſe let it begin,
with all that therein dwell.

8 And let the founts reioyce their ſiſs,
and clap their hands apace:

And eke the mountaines and the hills,
before the Lord his face.

9 For he shall come to iudge end try,
the world and every wight:
And rule the people mightily,
with iustice and with right.

Dom. regnauit. Psal. XCix. I. H.

He commeth with the power, equi tie, and excellency of the kingdome of God by Christ, ouer the Iews & Gentiles, prouoking the to magnifie the same,
& to feare the Lord, as the ancient Fathers, Moses, Aaron, and Samuel, who calling vpon God were heard in their prayers.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

The Lord doth raigne, although at it
the people rage full ore:

Pea he on Cherubins doth sit,
though all the world do roare.

2 The Lord that doth in Sion dwell, is high and wondrous great:
Aboue all folke he doth excell,
and he aloft is set.

3 Let all men praise thy mighty name, for it is fearfull sure:

And let them magnifie the same,
that holy is and pure.

4 The princely power of our King, doth loue iudgement and right:
Thou rightly rulest every thing,
in Iacob through thy might.

5 To praise the Lord our God denie,
all honour to him doe:

His footstool worshipping him before,
for he is holy too.

6 Moses, Aaron and Samuel,
as Priests on him did call:

When the Lord pray he heard them well,
and gaue them answer all.

7 Within the cloud to them he spake, then did they labour still:

To keepe such lawes as he did make,
and pointed them vntill.

8 O Lord our God thou didst them heare and answered them againe:

Thy mercy did on them appeare, their deeds didst thou maintaine.

9 O laud and praise our God and Lord,
within his holy hill:

For why? our God is throughout the world, is holy euer still.

2. Iubilate Deo omnis. Psal. C. F. H.

He exhorteth all men to serue the Lord, who hath made vs to enter into his Courts and assembly to praise his name.

U people that on earth doe dwell,

Sing to the Lord with cheerefull voice:

With loue with feare, his praise forth

tell. Come ye before him and reioyce.

2 The Lord ye know is God inde, D, without our y^e he did vs make.

3 Alle are his fl ecke he doth vs feed, and for his shepe he doth vs take.

4 Enter then his gates with praise, approch with ioy his courts vnto:
Praise, laud, and blesse his name alwaies,
for it is seemly so to doe.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is for euer sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

In God the Lord be glad and light, praise him throughoat the earth:

Serue him and come before his sight,
with singing and with mirth.

2 Know that the Lord our God he is,
he did vs make and keepe:

Not we our selues, for we are his owne flocke and pasture sheepe.

3 O goe into his gates alwaies, giue thanks within the same:

Within his Courts let forth his praise,
and laud his holy name.

4 For why? the goodnesse of the Lord,
for euer more doth raigne:
From age to age throughout the world,
his truth doth still remaine.

Miserericordiam. Psal. Ci. N.

David describeth what gouernment he will obteine in his house and kingdome, by rooting out the wicked, and cherishing the godly persons.

Sing this as the 18. Psalme.

I Mercy will and iudgement sing,
O Lord God vnto thee:

2 And wisely doe in perfect way,
vntill thou come to me.

3 And in the midst of my house walke,
in purenesse of my spirit:

And I no kind of wicked thing,
will let before my sight.

4 I hate their works that fall away,
it shall not cleaue to mee:

From me shall part the froward heart,
none euill will I see.

5 Him will I stroy that slandereth his neighbour priuily:

The lofty heart I cannot beare,
nor him that looketh hie.

6 Mine eyes shall be on them, within the land that false shall be:

In perfect way who walketh shall be I seruant vnto me.

7 I will no guiltfull person haue,
within my house to dwell:

And in my presence he shall not remaine that lies doth tell.

8 Betimes I will destroy euen all the wicked of the land:

That I may from Gods citie cut the wicked workers hand.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cii. N.

It seeme that this prayer was appoynted by the Church to pray in the capitall y of Babylon. A co-solation for the building of the Church, whereof followeth

followeth the praise of God to be published vnto all posterities. The consuetudine of the Gentiles and stabilitie of the Church.

Sing this as the 67. Psalme.

- O Hear my prayer Lord, and let my cry come vnto thee:
2 In time of trouble do not hide thy face away from me.
3 Incline thine eares to me, make hast to heare me when I call:
 For as the smoke doth fade, so do my dayes consume and fail.
4 And as a harty my bones are burnt, my heart is litten dead:
 And withers as the grasse, that I forget to eat my bread.
5 By reason of my growing voyce, my bones cleave to my skin:
6 As Pellican in wilderness, lych case now am I in.
7 And as an Owle in desert is, so I am such a one:
 I watch, and as a sparrow on the house top, am alone.
8 Lo daily in reprochfull wise, mine enemies do me scorn:
 And they that do against me rage, against me they haue sworn.
9 Surely with ashes as with bread, my hunger I haue filld:
 And mingled haue my drinke with teares that from mine eyes haue filld.
10 Because of thy displeasure Lord, thy wrath and thy disdain:
 For thou hast lifted me aloft, and cast me downe againe.
11 The daies wherein I passe my life, are like the fleeting shade:
 And I am withered like the grasse, that loose away doth fade.
12 But thou O Lord for euer dost remaine in steady place:
 And thy remembrance euer doth abide from race to race.

The second part.

- 13 Thou wilt arise and mercy thou to Sion wilt extend:
 The time of mercy, now the time forget is come to end.
14 For euen in the towrs thereof thy seruants do delight:
 And on the bux thereof they haue compassion in their prite.
15 Then shall the heathen people feare the Lords most holy name:
 And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory & thy fame.
16 Then when the Lord the mighty God, againe shall Sion reare:
 And then when he most nobly in his glory shall appeare.
17 To prayer of the desolate, when he himselfe shall bend:
 When he shall not disdain vnto their prayers to attend.
18 This shall be written for the age, that after shall succeed:
 The people yet increas'd,

the Lords renowne shall spread.

- 19 For he from his sanctuary, hath looked downe below:
 And out of heauen hath the Lord beheld the earth also.
20 That of y mourning captiue he might heare the wofull cry:
 And that he might deliuer those, that damned are to die.
21 That they in Sion may declare, the Lords most holy name:
 And in Ierusalem let forth the praises of the same.
22 Then when the people of y land and kingdomes with accord:
 Shall be assembled for to doe, their seruice to the Lord.

The third part.

- 23 By former force of strength he hath abated in the way:
 And shorter he did cut my daies, thus I therefore did say:
24 By God in midst of all my daies, now take me not away:
 Thy yeares endure eternally, from age to age for aye.
25 Thou the foundation of the earth, before all times hast layd:
 And Lord the heauens are the worke, which thine owne hands haue made.
26 Pea they shall perishe and decay, but thou shalt last for aye:
 And they shall all in time waxe old, euen as a garment will.
27 Thou as a garment shalt them change, and changed shall they be:
 But thou dost still abide the same, thy yeares doe neuer see.
28 The children of thy seruants shall, continually endure:
 And in thy sight their happy seed for euer shall stand sure.

Benedic anima. Psal. Cij. T. S.

The Prophet prouoketh men and Angels, and all creatures to praise the Lord for his fatherly mercies, in deliuerance of his people from euils, in his providence ouer all things, and in preseruati- on of the faithfull.

M

O soule giue laud vnto the Lord,

my spirit shall do the same: And all the secrets of my heart, praise thee his holy name. Give thanks to God for all his gift, & know not thy selfe unkind,

And

And suffer not his benefits to slip out of thy mind.

- 3 That gave thee pardon for thy faults,
and thee restore againe:
For all thy weake and fraile disease,
and heald thee of thy paine.
- 4 That did redeme thy life from death,
from which thou couldst not flee:
His mercy and compassion both,
he did extend to thee.
- 5 That filld with goodnesse thy desire,
and did prolong thy youth:
Like as the Eagle calls her bill, whereby her age reneweth.
- 6 The Lord with iustice doth repay,
all such as be oppressd:
So that their sufferings and their wrongs,
are turned to the best.
- 7 His wayes and his commandements, to Moses he did show:
His counsels and his valiant acts,
the Israelites did know.
- 8 The Lord is kind and mercifull,
when sinners doe him grieve:
The slowest to conceaue a weath,
and readiest to forgive.
- 9 He chides not vs continually,
though we be full of strife:
Nor keeps our faults in memory,
for all our sinfull life.
- 10 Nor yet according to our sins,
the Lord doth vs regard:
Nor after our iniquities,
he doth vs not reward.
- 11 But as the space is wondrous great,
twixt earth and heauen above:
So is his goodnesse much more large,
to them that do him loue.
- 12 God doth remoue our sinnes from vs,
and our offences all:
As far as is the Sunne rising, full distant from his fall.

The second part.

- 13 And looke what pittie parents Deare,
vnto their children beare:
Like pittie beareth God to such,
as worship him in feare.
- 14 The Lord that made vs knows our shape,
our mould and fashion iust:
How weake and fraile our nature is,
and how we be but dust.
- 15 And how the time of mortall men,
is like the withering Hare:
Like the flower right faire in field,
that fades full soone away.
- 16 Whose glorie and beauty stoymy winds,
doe vterly disgrace:
And make that after their afflicties,
such blossoms haue no place.

- 17 But yet the goodnesse of the Lord,
with his shall euer stand:
Their childrens children do receaue,
his right couline at hand.
- 18 I meane which keepe his covenant,
with all their whole desire:
And not forget to do the thing,
that he doth them require.
- 19 The heauens his are made the seat,
and footstool of the Lord,
And by his power imperiall,
he gouernes all the world.
- 20 Ye Angels which are great in power,
praise ye and blesse the Lord:
Which to obey and do his will,
immediatly accord.
- 21 Ye noble hostes and ministers, cease not to laud him still:
Which ready are to execute,
his pleasure and his will.
- 22 Praise all his workes in euery place,
praise ye his holy name:
By heart, my mind, and eke my soule,
praise ye alio the same.

Benedic anima. Psal. Ciiii. VV. K.

A thanksgiving for the creation of the world, and gouernance of the same by his maruailous providence. Also a prayer against the wicked, who are occasions that God diminisheth his blessing

My soule praise the Lord, speake good of his name: O Lord, our great God

how dost thou appeare, so passing in glorie, that great is thy fame: Honor and maiestie in thee shine most cleare: With lighte

as a robe, thou hast thee beclad, whereby all the earth thy greatnesse may see.

The heauens in such sort thou alio hast spread, that it to a curtaine compared may be.

3 His chamber beames lie,
in the clouds full lure;
Which as his chariots,
are made him to beare.
And there with much swiftness,
his courie doth endure:
Upon the wings riding,
of wind in the aire.
4 He maketh his spirits,
as heralds to goe:
And lightnings to scree,
we see also prest,
His will to accomplish,
they turne to and fro:
To saue or consume things,
as seemeth him best.

5 He grounded the earth,
so firmly and fast:
That it once to moue,
none shall haue such power.
6 The deepe a faire covering,
for it made thou hast:
Which by his owne nature,
the hills would deuour.
7 But at thy rebuke,
the waters do flee:
And to giue due place,
thy word to obey:
At thy voice of thunder,
so fearefull they be:
That in their great raging,
they hast loone away.

8 The mountaines full high,
they then vp ascend:
If thou do but speake,
thy word they fulfill.
So likewise the vailies,
most quickly descend:
Where thou them appointest, remaine they do still.
9 Their bounds thou hast set,
how farre they shall run:
So as in their rage,
not that passe they can:
For God hath appointed,
they shall not returne:
The earth to destroy more,
which made was for man.

The second part,

10 Whereunder the springs, to strong streames and lakes,
Which run doe full swift,
among the huge hills.
11 Where both the wild Ases, their thirst ofennes sake:
And beasts of the mountaines, thereof drinke their fill.
12 By these pleasant springs, of fountaines full faire:
The foules of the ayre,
abide shall and dwell.
13 Who moued by nature,
to hop here and there:
Among the greene branches,
their song shall excell.
14 The mountaines to mooue,
the clouds he doth vse:
The earth with his works,
are wholly replate:

15 So as the bruite cattell.
he doth not refuse:
But grasse doth prouide them,
and heards for mans meat:
Pea bread, wine, and oyle,
he made for mans sake:
His face to refresh,
and heart to make strong.
16 The Cedars of Liban, this great God did make:
Which trees he doth nourish,
that grow vp so long.
17 In those may birds build,
and make there their nest:
In fire trees the Strykes, remaine and abide.
18 The hie hills are succours, for wild Goats to rest:
And eke the rocks stony,
for Goats to hide.
19 The Boone then is set,
her lealons to runne:
The daies from the nights,
thereby to discern:
And by the descending,
also of the Sunne:
The cold from heat alway, thereby we do learne.

20 When darkness doth come,
by Gods will and power:
Then creepe forth do all,
the beastes of the wood.
21 The Lyons range roaring, their pray to deuour.
But yet it is thou (Lord)
which giueth them food.
22 Allone as the Sunne is vp, they crye:
To couch in their dens,
then are they full faire.
23 That man to his worke may,
as right doth require:
Till night come and call him,
to take rest againe.

The third part,

24 How sundry (O Lord)
are all thy works found:
With wiledome full great,
they are indeed wrought.
So that the whole world,
of thy praise doth sound:
And as for thy riches,
they passe all mens thought.
25 So as the great sea,
which large is and broad:
Where things that creepe swarme,
and beasts of each sort.
26 There both mighty ships saile,
and some be at roade:
The whale huge and monstrous,
there also doth spote.
27 All things on thee wait,
thou dost them relieue:
And thou in due time,
full well dost them feed.
28 Now when it doth please thee,
the same to giue:
They gather full gladly,
those things which they need.

Thou openest thy hand,
and they find such grace:
That they with good things,
are filled we see.
29 But sore are they troubled,
if thou turne thy face:
For if thou their breath take,
wile dust then they be.

30 Again, when thy spirit,
from thee doth proceed:
All things to appoint,
and what shall ensue.

31 Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed:
And doest by thy goodnesse,
the dry earth reuive.

32 The praise of the Lord, for ever shall last:
Who may in his workes,
by right well reioyce:
His looke can the earth make,
to tremble full fast:
And likewise the mountaines,
to smooke at his voice.

33 To this Lord and God, sing will I alwaies:
So long as I live,
my God praise will I.

34 Then am I most certaine, my words shall him please:
I will reioyce in him,
to him will I cry.

35 The sinners, O Lord, consume in thine ire:
And eke the peruerse,
them root out with shame.
But as for my soule now,
let it still desire:
And say with the faithfull, praise ye the Lords name.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cx. V.

Hee praiseth the singular goodnesse of God for chusing a peculiar people to himselfe, neuer ceasing to do them good euen for his promise sake.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

G The praises vnto God our Lord,
and call vpon his name:
Among the people eke declare,
his workes, to spread his fame.
2 Sing ye vnto the Lord I say,
and sing vnto his praise,
And talke of al his wondrous workes that he hath wrought alwaies.
3 In honour of his holy name,
reioyce with one accord:
And let the heart also reioyce,
of them that seeke the Lord.
4 Seeke ye the Lord, and seeke the strength of his eternall might:
And seeke his face continually,
in presence of his sight.
5 The wondrous workes that he hath done
keepe still in mindfull heart:
Ne let the iudgements of his mouth out of our mind depart.
6 Pe that of faithfull Abraham,
his seruant are the seed:

Pe his elect, the children that of Jacob do proceed.

7 For he, he onely is I say,
the mighty Lord our God:
And his most rightfull iudgements are,
through all the earth abroad.
8 His promise and his covenant, which he hath made to his:
He hath remembered euermore, to thousands of degrees.

The second part.

9 The covenant which he hath made,
with Abraham long ago:
And faithfull oath which he hath sworne, to Isaac also.

10 And did confirme the same for law,
that Jacob should obey:
And for eternall covenant,
to Israel for aye.

11 When th us he said, loe I to you,
all Canaan land will giue:
The lot of your inheritance,
wherein your seed shall liue.

12 Although their number at that time,
did very small appeare:
Pea very small, and in the land,
they then but strangers were.

13 While yet they walke from land to land,
without a liue abroad:
And while from sundry Kingdomes they,
did wander all abroad.

14 And wrong at no oppressors hands,
he suffered them to take:
But euen the great and mightie Kings,
reproued for their sake.

15 And thus he sayd, touch ye not those,
that mine armed be:
Ne doe the Prophets any harme,
that doe pertaine to me.

16 He calleth a dearth vpon the land, of bread he stroyed the store:
But he against their time of need,
had sent a man before.

The third part.

17 Euen Joseph which had once bene sold,
to lue a slave in woe:

18 Whose feet they hurt in stockes whose the iron plect also. (Soule)

19 Until the time came when his cause, was knowne apparently:
The mightie word of God the Lord,
his faultlesse truth did try.

20 The King sent and deliuered him,
from prison where he was:
The ruler of the people then,
did freely let him passe.

21 And ouer all his house he made,
him Lord to beare the sway:
And of his substance made him haue
the rule, and all the day.

22 That he might to his will instruct,
the Princes of the land:
And wisdomes loze his ancient men,
might teach to vnderstand.

23 Then into the Egyptian land, came Israel also:

And Jacob in the land of Ham,
did live a stranger tho:
24 His people he exceedingly,
in number made to flow:
And over all their enemies,
in strength he made them grow.
25 Whose heart he turned, that they with his people did intreat: (hate)
And did his servants wrongfully, abuse with false decree.

The fourth part.

26 His faithful servant Moses then,
and Aaron whom he chose:
He did command to goe to them,
his message to disclose.
27 The wondrous message of his signes,
among them they did shew:
And wondrous in the land of Ham, then did they worke also.

28 Darknesse beset, and it was darke, instead of brighter day:
And unto his commission,
they did not disobey.
29 He turned their waters into bloud,
he did their fishes slay.
30 Their land brought forth frogs even in the where their King should lay. (place)

31 He spake, and at his voice there came,
great swarms of noisome flies:
And all the quarters of their land,
were filled with crawling lice.
32 He gave them cold and storme hails,
in heat of summer raine:
And fiery flames within their land,
he sent vnto their paine.

33 He smote their vines and all their trees whereon their figs did grow:
And all their trees within their coasts,
downe did he overthrow.
34 He spake, then Caterpillers did,
and grasshoppers abound:
35 Which eate the grasse in all their land, and fruit of all their ground.

The fifth part.

36 The first begotten in their land,
eke deadly did he smite:
Pest, the beginning and first fruite,
of all their strength and might.
37 With gold and silver he them brought,
from Egypt land to passe:
And in the number of the Tribes,
no feeble one there was.

38 Egypt was glad and ioyfull then,
when they did thence depart:
For terror and the feare of them,
was fallen into their heart.
39 To shroud them from the parching heat,
a cloud he did display:
And fire he sent to give them light,
when night had hid the day.

40 They asked, and he caused quailles,
to raine at their request:
And fully with the bread of heauen,
their hunger he respect.

41 He opened then the stony rocks,
and water gushed out:

And in the dry and parched grounds,
like rivers ran about.

42 For of his holy covenant,
aye mindfull was he tho:
Which to his servant Abraham,
he pledged long agoe.
43 He brought his people forth with mirth,
and his elect with ioy:
Out of the cruell land, where they,
had lived in great annoy.

44 And of the Heathen men he gaue, to them the fruitful lands:
The labours of the people eke,
they tooke into their hands.
45 That they his holy statutes might,
obscure for euermore:
And faithfully obey his lawes,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Consitemini Dom. Psal. Cvi. R.

The people dispersed vnder Antiochus, do magnifie the goodnesse of God among the repentant, and pray to be gathered from among the Heathen, that they may praise his name.

Sing this as the 103. psalme.

Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
his merite dures for aye:
2 Who can expresse his noble acts, or all his praise display?
3 They blessed are that iudgement keepe,
and iustly doe away:
4 With fauour of thy people (Lord)
remember me I pray.
5 And with thy saving health (O Lord)
vouchsafe to visite me:
That I the great felicitie, of thine elect may see.
And with thy peoples ioy, I may a ioyfull mind possesse:
And may with thine inheritance,
a glorying heart expresse.
6 Both we and eke our fathers all,
haue sinned euery one:
We haue committed wickednesse,
and lewdly we haue done.
7 The wonders great which thou O Lord hast done in Egypt land:
Our fathers, though they saw them all,
yet did not vnderstand.

For they thy mercies multitude,
did keepe in thankfull mind,
But at the Sea, yea the red sea,
rebelled most vnkind.
8 Yet thelesse he lauded them,
for honour of his name:
That he might make his power knowne,
and spread abroad his fame.

9 The red sea he did then rebuke, and forthwith it was diuide:
And as in wilderness, so through the deepe he did them guide.
10 He lauded them from the cruell hand,
of their despightfull foe:
And from the enemies hand he did,
deliuer them also.

The second part.

- 11 The waters they oppressors whelmd, not one was left alive.
- 12 Then they beleueed his words, and praise
in long they did him giue.
- 13 But by and by vnthankfully,
his words they cleane forgot:
And for his counsell and his will,
they did neglect to wait.
- 14 But lusted in the wilderness,
with fond and greedy lust:
And in the desert tempted God,
the Ray of all their trust.
- 15 And then their wanton minds desire,
he suffered them to haue:
But waiting kennelesse therewithall,
vnto their soule he gaue.
- 16 Then when they lodged in their tents,
at Moles they did grutch:
Aaron the holy of the Lord,
so did they enue much:
- 17 Therefore the earth did open wide,
and Dathan did deuoure:
And all Abirams company,
did come in that houre.
- 18 In their assemblie kindled was,
the hot consuming fire:
And waiting flames did then burne vp the wicked in his ire.
- 19 Upon the hill of Mozeb they,
an Idoll calfe did frame:
And there the moulden image they,
did worship of the same.
- Into the likeness of a Calf, that feedeth on the grasse:
- 20 Thus they their glorie turnd, and all their honor did deface.
- 21 And God their onely Saviour, vnkindly they forgot:
Which many great and mightie things,
in Egypt had wrought.

The third part.

- 22 And in the Land of Ham, for them,
most wondrous workes had done:
And by the red sea deadli things, performed long ago.
- 23 Therefore for their so belwing them,
forgetfull and vnkind:
To bring destruction on them all,
be purposed in his mind.
- Had not his chosen Moles stood before them in the breake:
To turne his wrath lest he on them with slaughter should him weake,
- 24 They did despise the pleasant land,
that he beight to giue:
Pea and the words that he had spake,
they did no whit beleue.
- 25 But in their tents with grudging hearts
they wickedly repind:
As is the voyce of God the Lord,
they gaue an hearkning mind.
- 26 Therefore against them lifted he,
his strong reuenging hand:
Them to destroy in wilderness,
ere they should see the land.
- 27 And to destroy their seed among,

the nations with his rod:

- And through the countries of the world,
to scatter them abroad.
- 28 To Baal Deor then they did,
adiopne themselues allo:
And eat the offerings of the dead,
so they forooke him tho.
- 29 Thus with their owne inuentions,
his wrath they did prouoke:
And in his so inkindled wrath,
the plague vpon them broke.
- 30 But Phines stood vp with scales,
the sinners vile to slay:
And iudgement he did execute,
and then the plague did stay.

The fourth part.

- 31 It was imputed vnto him,
for righteousness that day:
And from henceforth to counted is,
from race to race for aye.
- 32 At waters ke of Meribah,
they did him angry make:
Pea so farre forth that Moles was then punished for their sake.
- 33 Because they berey his spirit to sore,
that in impatient heat,
his lips spake inuadable:
his feruor was so great.
- 34 For as the Lord commanded them, they slew the people that
- 35 But were among the heathen mist, and learned their works alid.
- 36 And did their Idols serue, which were their rutine and decay:
- 37 To sende their sons and daughters they did offer vp and slay.
- 38 Pra with vnkindly murdering knife,
the guiltlesse blood they spilt:
Pea their owne sons and daughters blood without all cause of guilt.
- Whom they to Canaan Idols then,
offred with wicked hand:
And so with blood of Innocents, defiled was the land.
- 39 Thus were they stained with the workes
of their owne filthie way:
And with their owne inuentions,
a whoring did they stay.
- 40 Therefore against his people was the Lords wrath kindled sore:
And euen his owne inheritance,
therefore he did abhorre.
- 41 Into the hands of heathen men,
he gaue them for a prey:
And made their foes their Lords, whom they were forced to obey.

The fifth part.

- 42 Pea and their hartfull enemies,
opprest them in the land.
And they were humbly made to stoope,
as subiects to their hand.
- 43 Full often times from thall had he,
deliuered them before:
But with their counceles they to wrath,
prouokt him euermore.
- Therefore they by their wickednesse, were

were brought still low to lie.

44 Yet when he saw them in distresse, he hearkened to their crye.

45 He called to intad his counaunt, which he to them had sworn;
And by his mercies multitude, repented him therefore.

46 And fauour he made them to find before the sight of thole
That led them captiue from their land, when earst they were their foes.

47 Saue vs O Lord that art our God,
saue vs O Lord we pray:
And from among the hearthen folke,
Lord gather vs away.

48 That we may spread the noble praise,
of thy most holy name:
That we may glorie in thy praise,
and sounding of thy fame.

49 The Lord the God of Israel
be blest for euermore:

Let all the people say Amen,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

Confitemini Dom. Psal. Cviij. P. K.

David exhorteth all that are redeemed by he Lord and gathered vnto him, to giue thanks therefore, who by sending prosperitie and aduersity bringeth men vnto him. Therefore as the righteous thereat reioyce, so shall the wicked haue their mouthes stopp'd.

Sing this as the 96. Psalme.

G Iue thanks vnto the Lord our God,
for gracions is hee.

And that his mercie hath no end,
all mortall men may see.

2 Such as the Lord redeemed hath, with thanks shall praise his name:
And shew how they from foes are freed,
and how he wrought the same.

3 We gathered them forth of the lands, that lay so farre about:
From East to West, from North to South,
his hand did lead them out.

4 They wandered in the wilderness,
and strayed from the way:
And found no Citie where to dwell,
that serue might for their stay.

5 Whose thirst and hunger was so great,
in those deserts so void:
That faintnesse did them sore assault,
and eke their soules annoyd.

6 Then did they crye in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state
according as they prayd.

7 And by that way which was most right
he led them like a guide:
That they might to a Citie go,
and there also abide.

8 Let them therefore before the Lord, confesse his goodnesse then:

And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men,

9 For he the empty soule sustains,
whome thirst had made to faint:
The hungrie soule with goodnesse fed,
and them eke did acquaint.

10 Such as do dwell in darkenesse deepe

where they of death do waite:
Fast bound to tast such troublous stormes,
as iron chaines do threat.

The second part.

11 For that against the Lords owne words
they sought so to rebell:
Esteeming light his counaels hie,
which dole so farre crell:

12 But when he humbled them full low they then fell downe with grieve:
And none was found so much to helpe, whereby to get reliefe.

13 Then did they crye in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid,
Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

14 For he from darkenesse out was brought and from deaths dreadfull shade:
Bursting with force the iron bands,
which did before him lade.

15 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then.

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men,

16 For he threw downe the gates of brasse and brake them with strong hand:
Their iron barres he smote in two,
nothing could him withstand.

17 The foolish folke great plagues do seele and cannot from them wend:
But heape on more to those they haue,
because they do offend.

18 Their soules so much did loath all meat that none they could abide:
Whereby death had them almost caught,
as they full truely tride.

19 Then did they crye in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for aid:

Who did remove their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

20 For he then sent to them his word, which healeth did loone restore:
And broughe them from those dangers deepe wherein they were before.

The third part.

21 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then,

And shew the wonders that he doth
before the sonnes of men.

22 And let them offer sacrifice, with thanks and also feare:
And speake of all his wondrous workes,
with glad and ioyfull cheare.

23 Such as in Shluis or pittle barkes.
into the seas descend:

Their merchandise throughe fearefull floods
to compass and to end:

24 Those men are forced to behold,
the Lords workes what they see:
And in the dangerous deepe the same,
most maruillous they see.

25 For at his word the stormie wind,
aristh in a rage:

And stirreth by the surges so,
as nought can them allwaage.

26 Then are they lifted vp so hie,
the clouds they seeme to game:

And plunging downe the depth untill,
their soules consume with paine.

27 And like a drunkard to and fro,
now here, now there they creele:
As men with feare of wite bereft,
or had of sence no feele.

28 Then did they crye in their distresse,
vnto the Lord for ayde:
Who did remoue their troublous state,
according as they prayd.

29 For with his word the Lord doth make,
the sturdie skornes to cease:
So that the great waues from their rage,
are brought to rest and peace:
30 Then are men glad when rest is come,
which they so much doe craue:
And are by him in heauen brought,
which they so faine would haue.

The fourth part.

31 Let men therefore before the Lord,
confesse his kindnesse then:
And shew the wonders that he doth,
before the sonnes of men.

32 Let them in presence of the folke, with praise extoll his name:
And where the Elders doe conuent,
let them there doe the same.

33 For running floods to drie deserts,
he doth oft change and turne:
And dyeth vp as it were dust,
the springing well and bourne.

34 A fruitfull land with pleasures deckt, full barren doth he make:
When on their flames that dwell therein,
he doth fast vengeance take.

35 Again, the wilderness full rude,
he maketh fruit to beare:
Which pleasant springs of waters cleere,
though none before were there.

36 Wherein such hungry soules are set,
as he doth freely giue:
That they a Citie may them build,
to dwell in for their vs.

37 That they may sow the pleasant land,
and vineyards also plant:
To yeld them fruites of such increase,
as none may seeme to want.

38 They multiply exceedingly, the Lord doth blesse them so:
Who doth also their brut beasts make,
by numbers great to grow.

39 But when the faithfull are low brought,
by the oppressors rout:
And minish doe through many plagues, that compass them about.

40 Then doth he Princes bring to shame, which did them more oppresse:
And likewise caused them to erre,
within the wilderness.

41 But yet the poore he raised vp,
out of their troubles deepe:
And oft times doth their traine augment,
much like a flocke of sheepe.

42 The righteous shall behold this sight,
and alio much reioyce:
Whereas the wicked and peruerse,
with grieve shall stop their voyce.

43 But who is wisse, that now full well,
he may these things record?
For certainly such shall perceiue,
the kindnesse of the Lord.

Paratum cor. Psal. Cuiij. R.

David with heart and voyce praieth the Lord, and assureth himselve of the promise of God concerning his kingdome ouer Israel, and his power against other nations, who though he seeme to forsake vs for a time, yet he alone in the end will cast downe our enemies.

Sing this as the 95. Psalme.

O God my heart prepared is,
and eke my tongue is so:
I will aduance my voyce in song,
in giuing praise alio.

2 Awake my diall and my harpe, sweete melodies to make:
And in the morning I my selfe, right early will awake.

3 By me among the people Lord, still prayd shalt thou be:
And I among the heathen folke, will sing O Lord to thee.

4 Because thy mercie Lord is great,
aboue the heauens hie:
And eke thy truth doth reach the clouds,
with in the loftie skie.

5 Aboue the starrie heauens hie, eract thy selfe O God:
And Lord display vpon the earth,
thy glory all abroad.

6 That thy deerey beloued may,
be let at libertie:
Helpe O my God with thy right hand,
and hearken vnto me.

7 God in his holinesse hath spoke,
wherefore my ioy abound:
Sichem I will diuide and meete,
the vale of Succoth ground.

8 And Silad shall be mine owne, Danassos mine shall be:
My head strength Ephraim, and law, shall Iuda giue for me.

9 Moab my washpot, and my shoe.
on Edom I will throw:
Upon the land of Baseltine in triumph will I goe.

10 Who shall into the City strong,
be guide to conduct me:
O how by whome to Edomland, conuicted shall I be?

11 Is it not thou (O God) which late,
hadst vs forsaken quite?
And thou (O Lord) which with our hoast, didst not goe forth to fight.

12 Giue vs (O Lord) thy sauing aid,
when troubles doe assaile:
For all the helpe of man is vaine,
and can no whit auale.

13 Through God we shall doe vallant acts, and worthy of renowne:
He shall subdue our enemies,
yea he shall tread them downe.

Deus laudem. Psal. Cix. R.

David being falsely accuſed by Saules flatterers, praiſeth God to be p^{er}mitted to deſtroy his enemies, who repreſent Iudas the traitor or vnto Ieſus Chriſt, and all like enemies of the Children of God.

Sing this as the 98. Pſalme.

In ſpeechleſſe ſilence doe not hold,
O God thy tongue alwaies:
O God enen thou I ſay that art,
the God of all my praife.
2 The wicked and the quietfull mouth on me diſcloſed be:
And they with falſe and lying tongue,
haue ſpoken vnto me.
3 They did beſet me round about,
with words of hatefull ſight:
Without all cauſe of my deſert, againſt me did they fight.
4 For my good will they were my loes,
but then gan I to pray:
My good with ill, my friendlineſſe,
with hate they did repay.
5 Set thou the wicked ouer him,
to haue the vpper hand:
At his right hand eke ſuffer thou,
his hatefull foe to ſtand.
6 When he is iudged, let him then,
condemned be therein:
7 And let the prayer that he makes,
be turned into ſinne:
8 Few be his daies, his charge alſo, let thou another take:
9 His children let be fatherleſſe, his Wiſe a widow make.
10 Let his offspring be vagabonds,
to beg and ſeek their bread:
11 Standing out of the waſhed place, where earſt they haue been fed, 12 Let couetous extortioners, catch all his goods and loze:
And let the ſtrangers ſpoile the fruit,
of all his toile before.
13 Let there be none to pittie him,
let there be none at all:
That on his children fatherleſſe, will let their mercy fall.

The ſecond part.

13 And ſo let his poſteritie,
for euer be deſtroyd:
Their names out blotted in the ag;
that after ſhall ſucceed.
14 Let not his fathers wickedneſſe, from Gods remembrance fall:
And let thou not his mothers ſinne,
be done away at all.
15 But in the preſence of the Lord,
let them remaine for aye:
That from the earth their memorye,
he may cut cleane away.
16 With mercie he forgate to ſhew,
but did purſue with ſpight:
The troubled man and fought to ſlay,
the wofull hearted wight.
17 As he did curſing loue, it ſhall
beſide vnto him ſo:
And as he did not bleſſing loue,
it ſhall be far him fro.
18 As he with curſing clad himſelfe,
ſo it like water ſhall:

Into his bowels, and like oyle, into his bones befall.

19 As garment ſet it be to him,
to couer him for aye:
And as a girdle, wherewith he,
ſhall girded be alway.
20 Doe let this ſame be from the Lord,
the guerdon of my foe:
Pea and of thoſe that euill ſpeake
againſt my ſoule alſo.
21 But thou O Lord that art my God,
deale thou I ſay with me:
After thy name, deliuer me,
for good thy mercies be,
22 Becauſe in depth of great diſtreſſe,
I needy am and poore:
And eke within my pained breaſt,
my heart is wounded loze.
The third part.
23 Euen ſo doe I depart away,
as doth declining ſhade:
And as the Graſshopper, ſo I,
am ſhaken off and fade.
24 With faſting long from needfull food
enterſcled are my knees:
And all her fatneſſe hath my fleſh, enſcled beene to leſe.

25 And I alſo a vile reproch, to them was made to be:
And they that did vpon me look,
did ſhake their heads at me.
26 But thou O Lord that art my God,
mine ayd and ſuccour be:
According to thy mercy Lord,
ſaue and deliuer me,
27 And they ſhall know thereby, that this Lord is thy mightie hand:
And that thou, thou haſt done it Lord,
ſo ſhall they vnderſtand.
28 Although they curſe with ſpite, yet thou,
ſhalt diſſe with louing voyce:
They ſhall ariſe and come to ſhame,
thy ſeruant ſhall reioyce.
29 Let them be clothed all with ſhame,
that enemies are to me:
And with confuſion as a cloke,
eke couered let them be.
30 But greatly I will with my mouth,
giue thanks vnto the Lord:
And I among the multitude,
his prayſes will reioyce.
31 For he with helpe at his right hand, will ſtand the poore man by,
And ſaue him from the man that would,
condemne his ſoule to die.

Dixit Dominus. Pſal. Cx. N.

David prophesieth of the power and euerlaſting kingdome of Chriſt, and of the priethood, which ſhould put an end to the Priethood of Lewis.

Sing this as the 67. Pſalme.

The Lord did ſay vnto my Lord,
ſit thou on my right hand:
Till I haue made thy foes a ſcoole, whercon thy ſerue may ſtand.
2 The Lord ſhall out of Zion ſend, thy ſerue of thy might:

Amid thy mortall foes be thou,
the ruler in their sight.

3 And in the day on which thy raigue,
and power they shall see:
Then hereby freewill offerings shall the people offer thee.

4 Psa with an holy worshipping
then shall they offer all:
Thy breech dew is the dew that doth from wombe of morning fall.

5 The Lord hath sworne, and neuer will repent what he doth say:

By the order of Helchiledech, thou art a Psalm for aye.

6 The Lord thy God on thy right hand,
that standeth for thy day:
Shall wound for thee the stateli Kings,
vpon his wrathfull day.

7 The heathen he shall iudge, and fill the place with bodies dead:
And ouer diuers countries shall in lunder limite the head.

8 And he shall drinke out of the brooke that runneth in the way:
Therefor he shall lift vp on hie,
his royall head that day.

Confite'or tibi. Psal. Cxi. N.

Hec giueth thanks. to the Lord for his mercifull works towards his Church, and declareth wherein true wisdom: and right knowledge consisteth.

W
My heart I do accord to praise and laud the Lord, in presence of the iust.

For great his works are found, to teach them such are bound, as do him loue and truit. His workes are glorious, alio his righteousnelle it doth endure for euer. His wondrous workes hee would we still remember should, his mercy faileth neuer.

5 Such as to him loue bear,
A portion full fayre:
He hath vp for them layd,

For this they shall well find,
He will them haue in mind,
and keepe them as he sayd.

6 For he did not disdaine,
His workes to shew them plaine:
By lightnings and by thunder:
When he the heathens land,
Did giue into their hand,
Where they beheld his wonders.

7 Of all his workes ensueth,
Both iudgement, right and truth,
Whereof his statutes tend:

8 They are decreed sure,
For euer to endure,
Which equitie doth end.

9 Redemption he gaue,
His people for to saue:
And hath also requirede:

His promise not to faile,
But alwaies to preuaile,
His holy name be feared.

10 Who so with heart full faine,
True wisdom would attaine,
The Lord feare and obey:
Such as his lawes do keepe,
Shall knowledge haue full depe:
His praise shall last for aye.

Beatus vir. Psal. Cxii. VV. K.

He praise the felicity of them that feare God: & condemne the cursed estate of the contemners
of God.

Sing this as the Lords Prayer.

The man is blest that God doth feare,
And that his lawes doth loue indeede:
2 His seed on earth God will increase,
And bleste such as from him proceed.
3 His house with good he will fulfill,
His righteousness endure shall still.

4 Unto the righteous doth arise,
In trouble ioy, in darknelle light.

5 Compassion is in his eye,
And mercy alwaies in his sight.

6 He doth by iudgement things extend.

7 And surely such shall neuer faile,
For in remembrance had is he:

8 No tidings ill can make him quaille,
Who in the Lord liue hope doth see:

9 His heart is firme, his feare is fast,
For he shall see his foes downe cast.

10 He did well for the poore provide,
His righteousness shall still remaine:

And his estate with praise abide,
Though that the wicked men disdaine.

11 Psa graue his teeth threat shall he,
And to consume his state to see.

In exitu Israel, Psal. Cxliij. W.W.

Israels deliuey out of Egypt, putteth vs in remembrance of Gods great mercies towards his children, and of our vnthankfulness for the same.

Sing this as the 85. Psalme.

When Israel by Gods addeesse, from Pharaos land was bent:
And Jacobs house the strangers left,
and in the same traine went:
Thou Iuda God his glory shewd, and holinesse most bright:
the Israelites declare,
the kingdom, power and might.

2 The sea it saw and suddenly,
as all amaz did lie:
The roaring streames of Jordans floud recoiled backwardly.
4 As Rams afraid the mountaines skipt their strength did them forsake:

And as the lily trembling Lambs,
the tops did beat and shake.

5 What aifo the sea as all amazd,
to suddenly to flie:
Ye rowling waues of Jordans floud,
why ran ye backwardly?
6 Why shooke ye hills as Rams afraid,
why did your strength to shake?
Why did your tops as trembling Lambs,
for feare quier and quake?

7 Dearth confesse thy Soueraigne Lord, and dread his mighty hand:
Befoze the face of Jacobs God,
feare ye both sea and land.
8 I meane the God which from hard rocks,
dorch cause maine flouds appeare:
And from the stony flint doth make guth out the fountaines cleare.

Non nobis Domine. Psal. Cxv. N.

The faithfull oppressed by idolatrous tyrants, promise that they will not be vnminfull of so great a benefite, if it would please God to heare their praier, & peliuer them by his omnipotent power.

Sing this as the 68. Psalme.

NOr unto vs Lord, not to vs,
but to thy name giue praise:
Both for the mercy and the truth,
that are in thee alwaie.
2 Why shall the heathen lequiers say,
where is their God become?
3 Our God in heauen is, and what he wil, that hath he done.
4 Their Idols silver are and gold, woke of mens hands they be:
5 They haue a mouth and do not speake,
and eyes and do not see.
6 And they haue eares foyned to their heads, and do not heare at all:
And noses eke they formed haue,
and do not smell withall.
7 And hands they haue and handile not,
and feet and do not go:
8 A throat they haue, yet through the same they make no sound to blow.
Thole that make them be like to them,
and thole whose trust they be:
9 O Israel trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
10 O Aarons house trust in the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he:
11 Trust ye the Lord that feare the Lord,
their helpe and shield is he.
12 The Lord hath mindfull been of vs,
and will vs blisse alfo:
On Israel and on Aarons house,
his blessing he will shew.
13 Them that be feareers of the Lord,
the Lord will blisse them all:
Euen he will blisse them euery one,
the great and eke the small.
14 To you (I say) the louing Lord, will multiply his gracie:
To you, and to the children that,
shall follow of your race.
15 Ye are the blessed of the Lord,
euen of the Lord I say,

Which both the heauen and the earth,
hath made and set in stay.

16 The heauens, yea the heauens his,
belong vnto the Lord:
The earth vnto the seruantes of men,
he gaue of free accord.

17 They that be dead do not with praise, set forth the Lords renoune:
Nor any that into the place of silence do goe downe.

18 But we will praise the Lord our God,
from henceforth and for ay:
Sound ye the praises of the Lord,
praise ye the Lord I say.

Dilexi quoniam Psal. Cxvi. N.

David being in great danger of Saul in the desert of Maon, perceiuing the great and inestimable loue of God toward him, magnifieth such great mercies, and protesteth that he will be thankful for the same.

Sing this as the 11. Psalme.

1 Love the Lord because my voyce, and prayer heard hath he:

2 When in my dayes I cald on him,
he bowed his eare to me.

3 Euen when the furies of cruell death,
about beset me round:

When paines of hell me caught, and when,
I woe and sorrow found.

4 Upon the name of God my Lord,
then did I call and say:

Deliver thou my soule O Lord,
I doe thee humble pray.

5 The Lord is very mercifull, and iust he is also:

And in our God compassion,
dorth plentifully flow.

6 The Lord in safety dorth preserve, all those that simple be:

I was in wofull misery,
and he relieved me.

7 And now my soule sith thou art safe,
returne vnto thy rest:

For largely for the Lord to thee,
his bounty hath exprest.

8 Because thou hast deliuered,
my soule from deadly thral,

By moistned cies from mourning teares,
my sliding feet from fall.

9 Before the Lord I in the land of life will walke therefore:

10 I did beleue, therefore I spake, for I was troubled sore.

The second part.

11 I said in my distresse and feare, that all men liers be:

12 What shall I pay the Lord for all his benefites to me?

13 The whole some cup of sauing health,
I thankfully will take:

And on the Lords name I will call,
when I my prayer make.

14 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight:

Pea euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

15 Right deare and precious in his sight,
the Lord doth aye esteeme,

The death of all his holy ones,
what euer men do deeme.

16 Thy seruant Lord, thy seruant loe,
I do my selfe confesse:

Somme of thy handmaid, thou hast broke the bonds of my distresse.

17 And I will offer vp to thee,
a sacrifice of prayse:

And I will call vpon the name,
of God the Lord alwaies.

18 I to the Lord will pay the vowes,
that I haue him beight:

Pea euen at this present time,
in all his peoples sight.

19 Pea in the Courts of of Gods own house and in the midst of thee:

O thou Ierusalem I say,
wherefore the Lord praise ye.

time appointed obtained the Kingdome, for the
which he biidehall them that feare the Lord, to be thankfull: vnder whose person, Christ is liuely set forth, who should be of his people reiected.

Sing this as the 84. Psalme.

O Give ye thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is he:

Because his mercie dorth endure,
for euer towards thee.

2 Let Israel confesse and say,
his mercie duces for ay:

3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
his mercie duces for ay.

4 Let all that feare the Lord our God,
euen now confesse and say,

The mercy of the Lord our God,
endureth still for ay:

5 In trouble and in heauinesse,
vnto the Lord I cryde,

Which louingly heard me at large,
my suite was not denide.

6 The Lord himselfe is on my liue,
I will not stand in doubt:

For feare what man can do to me,
when God stands me about.

7 The Lord doth take my part with t
that helpe to sicour me:

Therefore I shall see my desire,
vpon mine enemy.

8 Better it is to trust in God,
then in mans mightall seed:

9 O to put confidence in Kings, or Princes in our need.

- 9 All nations haue enclosed me,
and compassed me round:
10 But in the name of God shall I,
mine enemies confound.
11 They kept me in on euery side,
they kept me in I say:
But through the Lords most mightie name
I shall worke their decay:
12 They came about me all like Bees,
but yet in the Lords name:
I quencht their thornes that were on fire,
and will destroy the laue.

The second part.

- 13 Thou hast with force thrust soeate me,
that I indeed might fall:
But through the Lord I found such helpe, that they were vanquish't all.
14 The Lord is my defence and strength,
my ioy, my iurth, and song:
He is become for me indeed,
a Saviour most strong.
15 The right hand of the Lord our God,
doth bring to passe great things:
He causeth voice of ioy and health,
in righteous mens dwellings.
16 The right hand of the Lord doth bring most mightie things to passe:
His hand hath the preheminnce,
his force is as it was.
17 I will not die but sur-riue,
to utter and declare:
The Lord his might and wondrous power,
his works and what they are.
18 The Lord himselfe hath challanged, and hath corrected me:
But hath not giuen me ouer yet to death, as ye may see.
19 Set open vnto me the gates of trust and righteounesse:
That I may enter into them,
the Lords praise to confesse.
20 This is the gate euen of the Lord,
which shall not be shut,
But good and righteous men alway.
Shall enter into it.

The third part.

- 21 I will giue thanks to thee O Lord, because thou hast heard me:
And art become most louingly,
a Saviour vnto me.
22 The stone which ere this time among the builders was refused,
Is now become the corner stone,
and chiefly to be vsed.
23 This was the mightie worke of God,
this was the Lords owne act:
And it is maruellous to behold,
with eies that noble act.
24 This is the ioyfull day indeed, which God himselfe hath wrought:
Let vs be glad and ioy therein,
in heart, in mind, in thought.
25 Now helpe vs Lord and prosper vs,
we wish with one accord:
26 Blessed be he that comes to vs,
in the name of the Lord.

- 27 God is the Lord that sheweth vs light,
bind vs therefore with cords:
Pour sacrifice to the altar,
and giue thanks to the Lord.
28 Thou art my God, I will confesse, and render thanks to thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise thy mercy towards me.
29 O giue vs thanks vnto the Lord,
for gracious is he,
Because his mercie doth endure,
for euer towards ther.

Beati immaculati. Psal. Cxix. VV. VV.

The Prophet wonderfully commendeth Gods law wherein cannot fauise himselfe, nor expresse sufficiently his affection, therevnto adding notable complaints and consolations meete for the faithfull to haue both in heart and voyce and in the Hebrew euery 8. verses, begin with one letter of the Alphabet selves his statutes to obserue: Seeking the Lord with all their heart, and neuer from him swerue.

- 3 Doubtlesse such men go not astray,
nor do no wicked thing.
Which steadfastly walke in his pathes,
without any wandring.
4 It is thy will and commandement, that with all attne heere,
Thy noble and diuine precepte,
we learne and keepe indeed.
5 Oh would to God it might thee please,
my waies so to adresse:
That I might both in heart and voyce,
thy lawes keepe and confesse:
6 So should no shame my life attaine, whilst I thus let mine eies,
And bend my mind alwayes to mule,
on thy sacred decrees.
7 Then will I praise with byright heart,
and magnifie thy name:
When I shall learne thy iudgements iust,

and

and likewise proue the same.

8 And wholly will I giue my selfe, to keepe thy lawes most right:
For sake me not for euer Lord, but shew thy grace and might.

BETH. The second part.

9 By what meanes may a young man best his life learne to amend?

If that he marke and keepe thy word and therein his time spend.

10 Unfainedly I haue thee sought, and thus seeking abide:
O neuer suffer me (O Lord)
from thy precepts to slide.

11 Within my heart and secret thought, thy words I haue hid still:
That I might not at any time, offend thy Godly will.

12 We magnifie thy name (O Lord)
and praise thee euermore:
Thy statutes of most worthy fame,
O Lord, teach me therefore.

13 My lips haue neuer ceast to preach,
and publish day and night:
The iudgements all which did proceed, from thy mouth full of might.

14 Thy testimonies and thy waies, please me no lesse indeed:
Then all the treasures of the earth,
which worldlings make their need.

15 Of thy precepts I will still muse,
and thereto frame my talke:
As at a macke so will I aime,
thy waies how I may walke.

16 By onely Ioy shall be so set,
and on thy lawes to set:
That nothing can me so farre blind,
that I thy words forget.

GIMEL. The third part.

17 Grant to thy seruant now such grace,
as may my life prolong:
Thy holy word then will I keepe, both in my heart and tongue.

18 Mine eyes which were dun and shut vp,
so open and make bright:
That of thy law and maruillous workes,
I may haue the cleare sight.

19 I am a stranger in this earth, wandering now heere now there:
Thy word therefore to me disclose,
my foot steps for to cleere.

20 My soule is rancid with desire,
and neuer is at rest:
But seekes to know thy iudgements hie,
and what may please thee best.

21 The proud men and malicious, thou hast destroyed each one:
And curst are such as doe not,
thy bests attend vpon.

22 Lord turne from me rebuke and shame,
which wicked men conspire:
For I haue kept thy couenants, with zeale as hot as fire.

23 The Princes great in counsels late,
and did against me speake:
But then thy seruant thought how he,

thy statutes might not breake.

24 For why? thy couenants are my Ioy, and my great hearts solace.
They serue instead of counsellors,
my matters for to passe.

DALETH. The fourth part.

25 I Am alas as brought to graue,
and almost turnd to dust:
Restore therefore my life againe,
as thy promise is iust.

26 My waies when I acknowledged, with mercy thou didst heare:
Heare now eke soone and me instruct,
thy lawes to loue and feare.

27 Teach me once thoroughly for to know thy precepts and thy loze:
Thy works then will I meditate,
and lay them by in store.

28 My soule I feele so sore oppress, that it melteth for griefe:
According to thy word therefore,
hast Lord to send reliefe.

29 From lying and deceitfull lips, let thy grace me defend:
And that I may learne thee to loue, thy holy law me send.

30 The way of truth both straight and sure,
I haue cholen and found:
I let thy iudgements me before,
which keepe me safe and sound.

31 Since then (O Lord) I forsooke my leite, thy couenants to embrace:
Let me therefore haue no rebuke,
nor checke in any case.

32 Then will I runne with Ioyfull cheere where thy word doth me call:
When thou hast let my heart at large,
and rid me out of thrall.

HE. The fift part.

33 I Instruct me (Lord) in the right trade, of thy statutes diuine:
And it to keepe, euen to the end,
my heart will I incline.

34 Graunt me the knowledge of thy law,
and I shall it obey:
With heart and mind and all my might,
I will it keepe I say.

35 In the right path of thy precepts, guide me Lord I require:
None other pleasure doe I wish,
nor greater thing desire.

36 Incline thy heart my lawes to keepe,
and couenants to embrace:
And from all filthy auarice,
Lord sheld me with thy grace.

37 From vaine desires and worldly lust, turne backe my eyes and sight:
Giue me the spirit of life and power,
to walke thy waies aright.

38 Confirm thy gracious promise Lord, which thou hast made to me:
Which am thy seruant and doe loue,
and feare nothing but thee.

39 Reproach and shame which I so feare,
from me O Lord expell:
For thou dost guide with equitie,

and therein doest excell, 40 Behold my hearts desire is bent,
 thy lawes to keepe for aye:
 Lord strengthen me so with thy grace,
 that it performe I may.

V AV.

The sixt part.

41 Thy mercies great and manifold,
 let me obtaine O Lord:
 Thy saving health let me enjoy,
 according to thy word.
 42 So shall I stop the slanderous mouthes, of fletted men and unist:
 For in thy faithfull promises, stands my comfort and trust.
 43 The word of truth within my mouth,
 let ever still be prest:
 For in thy iudgements wonderfull,
 my hope doth stand and rest.
 44 And whplicit that breath within my brest doth naturall life preserve:
 Psea till this word shall be dissolved,
 thy law will I observe.

45 So walke will I as let at large,
 and made free from all dread:
 Because I sought how for to keepe,
 thy precepts and thy read.
 46 Thy noble acts I will describe,
 as things of most great fame:
 Euen before Kings I will them blase, and thinke no whit for shame.

47 I will reioyce then to obey, thy worthy beils and will:
 Which euermore I haue leued best,
 and so will loue them still.

48 My hands will I lift to thy lawes, which I haue deerey sought:
 And practise thy commandments,
 in will, in deed, and thought.

Z A I N.

The vii part.

49 Thy promise which thou madst to me,
 thy seruant Lord remember:
 For therein haue I put my trust,
 and confidence for euer.
 50 It is my comfort and my ioy,
 when troubles me a while:
 For were my life not by thy word,
 my life would soone me faile.

51 The proud, and such as God contemne still made of me a scoone:
 Yet would I not thy law forsake,
 as he that were forloine.

52 But cald to mind Lord thy great workes shewed to our fathers old:
 Whereby I felt thy ioyes surmount,
 my grieve an hundred fold.

53 But yet alas for feare I quake, seeing how wicked men:
 Thy law forsooke, and did procure,
 thy iudgements who knoweth when,

54 And as for me, I feare my songe,
 thy statutes to exalt:
 When I among the strangers dwell,
 and thoughts gar me assault.

55 I thought vpon thy name O Lord,
 by night, when others sleepe:
 As for thy law also I kept,

and euer will it keepe.

56 This grace I did obtaine, because thy covenante sweet and deare,
 I did embrace and also keepe, with reuerence and with feare.

H E T H.

The viii. part.

57 O God which art my part and lot,
 my comfort and my stay:

I haue decreed and promised,
 thy law to keepe alway.

58 Mine earnest heart did humbly sue,
 in patience of thy face:
 As thou therefore hast promised,
 Lord grant me of thy grace.

59 My life I haue examined, and tride my secret heart:
 Which to thy statutes caused me,
 my feet straight to conuert.

60 I did not stay nor linger long, as they that slothfull are:
 But hastily thy lawes to keepe,
 I did my selfe prepare.

61 The cruell hands of wicked men,
 haue made of me their pray.
 Yet would I not thy law forget,
 nor from thee go astray.

62 Thy righteous iudgement toward me,
 so great is and so hie:
 That euen at midnight will I rise,
 thy name to magnifie.

63 Companion am I to all them, which feare thee in their heart:
 And neither will for feare nor dread,
 from thy commandments flatter.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plentifully, doe all the world fulfill:
 O teach me how I may obey, thy statutes and thy will.

T E T H.

The ix. part.

65 According to thy promise Lord, so hast thou with me dealt:
 For of thy grace in sundry sortes,
 haue I thy seruant felt.

66 Teach me to iudge alwaies aright,
 and giue me knowledge sure:
 For certainly belene I doe, that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me with thy rod,
 I erred and went astray:
 But now I keepe thy holy word,
 and make it all my day.

68 Thou art both good and gracious, and giuest most liberally:
 Thy ordinances how to keepe, therefore O Lord teach me.

69 The proud and wicked men haue forgd against me many a lie:
 Yet thy commandments still observe,
 with all my heart will I.

70 Their hearts are swollen with worldly as great so are they fat: (wealth)
 But in thy law do I delight, and nothing lacke but that.

71 O happy time may I well say, when thou didst me correct:

For

For as a guide to learne thy lawes, thy rods did me direct.
72 So that to me thy word and law,
is deare manifold,
Then thousands great of siluer and gold,
or ought that can be told.

LOD. The x. part.

73 Seeing thy hands haue made me Lord,
to be thy creature:
Grant knowledge likewise how to learne,
to put thy lawes in mee.
74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce, when euer they me see:
Because I haue leard by thy word,
to put my trust in thee.

75 When with thy rod the world is plagued,
I know the cause is iust:
So when thou doest correct me Lord,
the cause iust needs be must.
76 Now of thy goodnesse I thee pray, some comfort to me send.
As thou to me thy seruant hast,
so from all ill me defend.

77 Thy tender mercies poure on me,
and I shall surely liue:
For joy and consolation both,
thy lawes to me do giue.
78 Confound the yfard whose false pretence is me for to destroy:
But as for me thy helpe to know,
I will my selfe imploie.

79 Alho so with reuerence do thee feare to me let them retire:
And such as do thy covenants know,
and them alone desire.
80 O my heart without all waivering:
let on thy lawes be bent:
That no confusion come to me,
whereby I shall be shent.

CAPH. The xi. part.

81 My soule doth faint and feafully not,
thy sauing health to craue:
And for thy words sake still I trust,
my hearts desire to haue.
82 Mine eyes doe faile with looking for thy word, and thus I say:
When wilt thou me comfort Lord,
why doest thou thus delay?

83 As a skin bottle in the snawe,
so am I parcht and dryde:
Yet will I not out of my heart let thy commandments slide.
84 Alas how long shall I yet liue, before I see the howe:
That on my foes which me torment,
thy vengeance thou wilt poure?

85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits, thinking to make me sure:
Thus contrary against thy law,
my hurt they do procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causelesse they me grieve:
To thee therefore I do complaine, that thou mightst me relieue.

87 Almost they had me cleant destroyed, and brought me quite to ground:

Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.
88 Restore me Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy covenants keepe, till death my life expell.

LAMED. The xii. part.

89 In heauen Lord where thou doest dwell thy word is stablished sure:
And shall for all eternitie,
fast grauen there endure.
90 From age to age thy trust abides,
as doth the earth witnesse:
Whole ground worke thou hast layd so sure,
as no tongue can expresse.

91 Euen to this day we may well see,
how all things perseure,
According to thy ordinance,
for all things thee reuer.
92 Had it not been that in thy law,
my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distresse,
I had been brought to nought.

93 Therefore will I thy precepts ay,
in memorie keepe fast:
By them thou hast my life restored
when I was at last last.

94 No wight to me can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Haue me therefore for to thy lawes
my cares and heart incline.

95 The wicked men do seeke my heart,
and there lie in wait:
But I the while considered thy noble acts and great.

96 I see nothing in this wide world,
at length which hath not end:
But thy commaundments and thy word, beyond all end extend.

MEM. The xiii. part.

97 What great desire and fervent tone,
doe I beare to thy law?
All the day long my whole desire,
is onely on thy law.
98 Thy word hath taught me far to passe
my foes in policie:
For still I keepe it as a thing, of most excellencie.

99 My teachers which did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I doe thy covenants keepe,
and them to others tell.
100 In wisdom I doe passe also,
the ancient men indeed:
And all because to keepe thy lawes,
I held it ay best need.

101 My feet I haue refrained the from every euill way:
Because that I continually, thy word might keepe I say.

102 I haue not swerd from thy iudgement,
nor yet shunke any dell:
For why? thou hast me taught thereby,
F 3

to line godly and well.

- 103 O Lord how sweet vnto my tast
 And I thy words alway:
 Doubtlesse no honey in my mouth,
 Seale ought to sweete I may:
 104 Thy lawes haue me such wisdomes that vterly I hate (learn)
 All wicked and vngodly wayes, in euery kind or rate.

NVN. The xlii. part.

- 105 Euen as a lantern to my feet,
 so doth thy word shine bright:
 And to my pathes where euer I goe,
 it is a flaming light.
 106 I haue both sworne and will performe
 most certainly doubtlesse:
 That I will keepe thy iudgements iust,
 and them in life expresse.
 107 Affliction hath me sore oppress, and brought me to deathes doxe:
 O Lord as thou hast promised,
 so me to life restore.
 108 The offerings which with heart & voice,
 most feankly I thee giue:
 Accept, and teach me how I may after thy iudgements liue.
 109 My soule is as so in my hand,
 that dangers it assaile:
 Yet do I not thy law forget,
 nor it to keepe will faile.
 110 Although the wicked laud their acts,
 to catch me at a bay:
 Yet did I not from thy precepts
 once swaue or go astray.
 111 Thy law I haue so claued alway,
 as mine owne heritage:
 And why? for therein I delight,
 and let my whole courage.
 112 For euermore I haue been bent thy statutes to fulfill:
 Euen so I haue vnto the end
 I will continue still.

3AMECH. The xv. part.

- 113 The craftie thoughts & double hearts
 I do alwaies detest:
 But as for thy law and precepts,
 I loued them euer best.
 114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
 my shield of strong defence:
 Therefore I haue thy promises looked for with patience.
 115 So to therefore ye wicked men,
 depart from mee anon:
 For the commandments will I keepe of God my Lord alone.
 116 As thou hast promised to performe, that deathie me not assaile:
 For let my hope abuse me so,
 that through distrust I qualle.
 117 Uphold me and I shall be safe,
 for ought they do or say:
 And in thy statutes pleasure take will I both night and day.
 118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feet,
 as doe thy statutes beake.

For nought anailles their subtiltie, their counsell is but weak.

- 119 Like dross thou castest the wicked out,
 where euer they goe or dwell:
 Therefore can I as thy statutes,
 loue nothing halfe so well:
 120 My flesh alas is taken with feare
 as though it were benummed:
 For when I see thy iudgements, straight
 I am as one astounded.

AIN. The xvi. part.

- 121 I Doe the thing that lawfull is,
 and giue to all men right:
 Resigne me not to them that would oppresse me with their might.
 122 But for thy seruant surely be,
 in that thing that is good:
 That proud men giue me not the foile,
 which rage as they were wood.
 123 Mine eyes with waiting are now blind
 thy health so much I craue:
 And eke thy righteous promise Lord, whereby thou wilt me saue.
 124 Intraat thy seruant louingly,
 and fauour to him shew:
 Thy statutes of most excellencie, teach me also to know.
 125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
 grant me to understand:
 How by thy statutes I may know best what to take in hand.
 126 It is now time Lord to begin,
 for truth is quide vnto:
 Thy lawes likewise they haue transgressed,
 and none against them said.
 127 This is the cause wherefore I loue thy lawes better then gold, Diadems fine, which are as scum
 most colly to be sold.
 128 I thought thy precepts all most iust,
 and to them laid in store:
 All craftie and malicious waies
 I do as haire the more.

BE. The xvii. part.

- 129 Thy covenants are most wonderfull,
 and full of things profound:
 My soule therefore doth keepe them sure,
 when they are tride and found.
 130 When men first enter into thy word,
 they find a light most cleare:
 And very deets vnderstand
 when they it read or heare.
 131 For now I haue both good and breadth to know thy commandment:
 That I might guide my life thereby,
 I sought what thing it meant.
 132 With mercy and compassion Lord, behold me from above:
 As thou art wont to behold such as thy name feare, and loue.
 133 Direct my footsteps by thy word,
 that I thy will may know:
 And neuer let inquisie
 thy seruant ouerthrow: 134 From slanders tongues, and deadly pynninge

perpetua and keepe me sure:
Thy precepts then will I obserue, and put them eke in de.

135 Thy countenance which doth surmount
the Sunne in her bright hew:
Let shine on me, and by thy law,
teach me what to cleue.

136 Out of my eyes great fouds gush out of deare teares and fell:

When I behould how wicked men, thy lawes keepe neuer a dell.

Z A D E The xviii. part.

137 In euery point Lord thou art iust,
the wicked though they grudge:
And when thou doest sentence pronounce,
thou art a righteous iudge.

138 To render right and flee from guile, are two chiefe points most hye:
And such as thou hast in thy law, commanded vs straightlie.

139 With zeale and wrath I am consumed, and euen pinde away:

To see my foes thy word forget,
for ought that I doe may.

140 So pure and perfect is thy word,
as any heart can deeme:
And I thy seruant nothing more,
doe loue or yet esteeme.

141 And though I be nothing let by,
as one of base degree:

Yet doe I not thy heeds forget,
nor shynke away from thee.

142 Thy righteousnes (Lord) is most iust,
for euer to endure:

Allo thy law is truth it selfe,
most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble and griefe haue seized on me,
and brought me wondrous low,

Yet doe I fall of thy precepts, diligent to heare and know.

144 The righteousnes of thy iudgements,
both last for euermore:

Then teach them me, for euen in them,
my life lyeth up a store.

K O P H The xix. part.

145 With feruent heart I cald and cryed,
now answer me, O Lord:

That thy commandments to obserue,
I may fully accord.

146 To thee my God I make my suite,
with most humble request:

Save me therefore and I will keepe,
thy precepts and thy best.

147 To thee I cry, euen in the moine,
before the day waxe light:

Because that I haue in thy word,
my confidence whole plight.

148 Mine eyes prevent the watch by night,
and ere they call I wake:

That by deuiling of thy word,
I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thine eares to heare my voice, and pittie on me take:

As thou wast wont, to iudge me Lord, least life should me forsake.

150 My foes draw neere, and doe procure,

my death maliciouslie:

Which from thy law are far gone backe,
and strayed from it lewdlie.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou nect, for need doth so require:

And all thy precepts true they are,
then helpe I thee desire.

152 By thy commandments I haue leard, not now but long agoe:

That they remaine for euermore, thou hast them grounded so.

R E S H The xx. part.

153 My trouble and afflictions, consider and behold:

Deliver me, for of thy law,
I neuer take fast hold.

154 Defend my good and righteous cause, with speed me succour send:

From death as thou hast promised,
Lord keepe me and defend.

155 As for the wicked farre they are,
from hauing health or grace:

Whereby they might thy statutes know,
they enter not the trace.

156 Great are thy mercies (Lord) I grant:
what tongue can them attaine:

And as thou hast me iudged ere now,
so let me life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble me,
and persecute me sore:

Yet from thy laws I neuer shrunke, nor went away therefore.

158 And truth it is for griefe I die, when I these traitors see:

Because they keepe no whit thy word,
nor yet seeke to know thee.

159 Behold for I do loue thy lawes, with heart most glad and faine:

As thou art good and gracious, restore my life againe.

160 What thy word doth decree must be,
and so it hath beene euer:

Thy righteous iudgements are also,
most true and decay neuer.

S C H I N. The xxi. part.

161 Princes haue sought by cruelty, causelesse to make me couch:

But all in vaine, for of thy word,
the feare did my heart touch.

162 And certainly euen of thy word,
I was more merrie and glad:

Then he that of great popples and prayes, great store and plentie had.

163 As for all lies and falsitie,
I hate most and detest:

For why? thy holy lawes doe I,
about all things looe best.

164 Seuen times a day I praise the Lord, singing with heart and voice:

Thy righteous actes and wonderfull, to cause me to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such haue,
as doe thy statutes loue:

No danger shall thy quiet state, impart or once remove.

166 Mine onlie health and comfort (Lord)

I looke for at thy hand:
And therefore haue I done those things, which thou didst me command.

167 Thy lawes haue bene my exercise, which my soule most desired:
So much my loue to them was bent,
that nought else I required.

168 Thy statutes and commandements,
I kept (thou knowest) aright:
For all the things that I haue done,
are present in thy sight.

TAV The xxii. part.

169 O Lord let my complaint and cry,
before thy face appeare:
And as thou hast me promise made,
so teach me thee to feare.

170 My humble supplication, toward thee let find access:
And grant me Lord deliuerance,
for so is thy promise.

171 Then shall my lips thy praises speake,
aftermost ample loit:
When thou thy statutes hast me taught,
wherein stands my comfort.

172 My tong shall sing and preach thy word and on this wise say shall:
Gods famous acts and noble lawes,
are iust and perfect all.

173 Stretch out thy hand I thee beseech, and speedily me saue:
For thy commandements to obserue, choicest (O Lord) I haue.

174 Of thee alone (O Lord) I craue health,
for other I know none:
And in thy law, and nothing else,
I doe delight alone.

175 Grant me therefore long daies to thee,
thy name to magnifie:
And of thy iudgements mercifull,
let me thy fauour trie.

176 For I was lost & went astray, much like a wandring sheepe:
Oh seeke me, for I haue not failed,
thy commandements to keepe.

Ad Dominum. Psal. Cxx. T. S.

David being banished among the barbarous Ara-bians, through false reports of enuious flatterers lamenteth his long abode among such infidels, given to all kind of wickednes and contention.

In trouble and in thral, vnto the Lord I call, and he doth me comfort:

Deliver mee I say, from lyes lips al-way, and tongues of false report.

3 What vantage or what thing, Gatst thou thus for to thing,
thou false and flattering lye:

4 Thy tongue both hurt, I weene,
No lesse then arrows keene,
of hot consuming fire.

5 Alas too long I slacke, Within these tents so blacke,
which Kedars are by name:
By whom the flocke elect,
And all of Isaacks seed,
are put to open shame.

6 With them that peace did hate,
I came a peace to make,
and let a quiet life:
But when my tale was told,
Causelesse I was controld,
by them that would haue strife.

Leuani oculos. Psal. Cxxi. W. W.

The Prophet sheweth by his owne example, that the fursfull ought to looke for all their succor of God alone, who will gouerne and giue good successe to all their godly enterprises,

1 Lift mine eyes to Syon hill,

from whence I do attend, that incomm

God me send. 2. The mighty God me

incomm will, which heauen and earth framed, and all things therein named.

3 Thy foot from slip he will preserue,
And will thee safely keepe:
For he will neuer sleepe.

4 Lo he that doth Israell conserue,
No sleepe at all can him catch,
But his eyes shall euer watch.

5 The Lord is thy warrant alway,
The Lord eke doth thee couer:
As at thy right hand euer.

6 The Sunne shall not thee parch by day,
Nor the Moone not halfe so bright,
Shall with cold thee hurt by night.

7 The Lord will keepe thee from distresse,
And will thy life sure saue:
And thou also shalt haue.

8 In all thy businesse good successe,
There euer thou goest in or out,
God will thy things bring about.

Letatu sum. Psal. Cxxi. W. R.

David reioyeth that God accomplished his promise, and placed his Arke in Zion giuing thanks, and praying for the prosperitie of the Church.

1 Did in heart reioyce, to heare the peoples voice, in offering so willingly:

2

3

For let vs up say thes, and in the Lords house pray, thus spake the folke full louingly. Our feet that wandred wide, shall in thy gates abide, O thou Jerusalem full faire: which art so seemly set, much like a Cit e neat, the like whereof is not elke where.

4 The tribes with one accord,
The tribes of God the Lord, are thither bent their way to take:
So God before did tell,
That there his Israell, their prayers should together make.

5 For there are thrones erect,
And that for this respect,
to set forth iustice orderly:
Which thrones right to maintaine,
To Davids house pertaine,
his folke to iudge accordingly.

6 To pray let vs not cease,
For Ierusalem peace:
thy friends God prosper mightily:
7 Peace be thy walles about,
And prosper thee throughout,
thy places eke continuallie.

8 I wish thy prosperous state,
For my poore Brethrens sake, that comfort haue by meanes of thee.

9 Gods house doth me assure,
Thy peace for to procure,
so much alwaies as I yes in me.

Ade leuau. Psal. Cxxiii. T. S.

A prayer of the faithfull, which are afflicted by the wicked worldlings and contemners of God.

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

O Lord that heauen doest possesse,
I lift mine eyes to thee:
Euen as the seruant lieth by,
his masters hands to see.
2 As handmaids watch their mistresse some grace for to attaine: (hands,
So we behold the Lord our God,
till he do vs forgieue.

3 Lord grant vs thy compassion, and mercy in thy light:
For we are filled and ouercome, with hatred and disight.

4 Our minds be stuf with great rebuke,
the rich and worldly will:

Doe make of vs their mocking stocke,
the proud do vs despise.

Nisi quia Dom. Psal. Cxxiiiij. VV. VV.

The faithfull deliuered out of great daunger, acknowledge not to haue escaped by their owne power, but through the fauour of God.

Nw Israell may say, and that truely, if that the Lord had not our cause maintatnd, If that the Lord had not our right iustand, Calhen all the world against vs furiously, made there byproares and layd, we should all dye.

3 Now long agur,
they had deuoured vs all:
And swallowed quickie,
for ought that we could deeme.

Such was their rage,
as we might well esteeme.

4 And as the flouds,
with mighty foace do fall:
So had they now,
our liues euen brought to thrall.

5 The raging streames, most proud in roaring noyse:
had long agur,
ouerwhelmed vs in the deepe.

6 But loued be God, which doth vs safely keepe:
From bloody teeth,
and their most cruell voice,
Which as a pray,
to eate vs would reioyce.

7 Euen as a bird,
out of the fowlers grins:
Escapes away,
right so it fares with vs:

Broke are their nets,
and we haue leaped thus.

8 God that made heauen and earth is our helpe then:
His name hath laued vs,
from their wicked men.

Qui confidunt. Psal. Cxxv. VV. K.

He describeth the assurance of the faithfull in their afflictions, as I desireth their weal, and the destruction of the wicked.

As in God the Lord doe trust,

2 As mightie mountaines huge and great.
Ierusalem about do cloie:
So will the Lord be vnto those,
Who on his godly will do wait.
Such are to him so deare,
They neuer need to feare.

3 For though the righteous trie doth he,
By making wicked men his roie:
Least they through griefe forsake their God,
It shall not as their lot still be.
4 Since Lord to those thy light,
Whose hearts are true and right.

5 But as for such as turne aside,
By crooked waies which they outlight:
The Lord will surely bring to nought,
With workes most vile they shall abide.
But peace with Israell, for euermore shall dwell.

Another of the same by R. VV.

Sing this as the X. Commandements.

Those that doe put their confidence,
Upon the Lord our God onelie:
And see to him for his defence,
In all their need and miserie.
Their faith is sure, firme to endure,
Grounded on Christ the corner stone:
Wounded with none ill, but standeth still,
Stedfast like to the mount Sion.

And as about Ierusalem,
The mighty billes doe it compass:
So that no enemy come to them,
To hurt that towne in any case,
So God indeed, in euery need.
His faithfull people doth defend,
Standing them by afterdly,
From this time forth, ward without end.

Right wise and good is our Lord God,
And will not suffer certaintie:
The sinners and vngodlies rod,
Least they also from God should goe,
Falling to Ruine and wick. duellie:
O Lord defend world without end,
Thy Chitian flocke through thy goodnesse.

O Lord doe good to Christians all,
That stedfast in thy word abide:
Such as willingly from God fall,
And to false doctrine daily slide.

Such will the Lord scatter abroad,
With hypocrites thrown down to hells
God will them send paines without end,
But Lord grant peace to Israell.

Glorie to God the father of might,
And to his Sonne our Saviour:
And to the holy Ghost whose light,
Shine in our hearts, and vs succour.
That the right way from day to day,
We may walke, and him glorifie:
With hearts desire, all that are here,
Amen to the Lord, and say, Amen.

In concertando. Psal. Cxxvi. N.

This Psalme was made after the returne of the people from Babilon, & sheweth that the meanes of their deliuerance was wonderfull, after the threescore and ten yeares of captiuitie, forespo-ken of Ieremie, chap. 23. 12. & 29. 10.

2 The heathen folke, were forced then this to confesse:
How that the Lord,
for them also great things hath done.
3 But much more we,
and therefore can confesse no lesse:
Wherefore to say,
we haue good cause as we begun,
4 O Lord goe forth,
thou canst our bondage end:
As to deserts,
the flowing riuers send

5 Full trust it is, that they which sow in teares indeed,
A time will come
When they shall reape with mirth and joy.
6 They went and wept
in bearing of their precious seed:
For that their foes full oftentimes did them annoy:
But their returne,
with joy they shall sursee:
Their sheaves home bring,
and not impaired be.

Nisi Dom. Psal. Cxxvij. VV. VV.

It is not mans wit, power, or labor, but the free goodnes of God that giueth riches, preserveth townes and countries, graunteth nourishment and children.

Sing this as the Lords prayer.

EXCEPT the Lord the house do make,
And thereunto do let his hand,
What man do build it cannot stand.
Likewise is none men undertake,
Citties and holdes to watch and ward,
Except the Lord be their safeguard.

2 Though ye rise early in the morne,
And to at night go late to bed,
Feeding full hardly with womans bread,
Yet were your labours lost and worne.
But they whom God doth love and keepe,
Receive all things with quiet sleepe.

3 Therefore marke well when euer you see,
That men haue heires to enioy their land,
It is the gift of Gods owne hand:
For God himselfe doth multiply.

Of his great liberality,
The blessing of posterity.

4 And when the children come to age
They grow in strength and actiuenesse,
In perion and in comeliness:

So that a shaft shot with courage,
Or one that hath a most strong arme,
Shall not so swift nor doth like harme.

5 I welles him that hath his quiver furnished with such artillery:
For when in perill he shall be,
Such one shall neuer shake nor shiver,
When that he pleaderh before the iudge,
Against his foes that beare him grudge.

Beati omnes. Psal. Cxxvij. T. S.

Here is described the prosperous estate of persons married in the feare of God, and the promises of Gods blessings to them that live in his honorable estate, according to his commandment.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Blessed art thou that fearest God,
and walkest in his way:
For of thy labour thou shalt eate,
happy art thou I say.
2 Like fruitful vines on thy house side,
doe thy wife spring out:
Thy children stand like olive plants,
thy table round about.
3 Thus art thou blessed that fearest God, and he shall let thee see

The promised Jerusalem, and her felicitie.
4 Thou shalt thy childrens children see,
to thy great ioyes increase:
And likewise grace on Israel, prosperitie, and peace.

Sepe expugnauerunt. Psal. Cxxix. N.

Hee admonisheth the Church to reioyce, though afflicted in all ages, for God will deliuer and suddenly destroy the enemies thereof.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Oft they now Israel may say,
me from my youth assaid:
2 Oft they assaid me from my youth,
yet neuer they prevaild.
3 Upon my backe the plowers plowed,
and furrowes long did cast:
4 The righteous Lord hath cut the cords of wicked foes at last.
5 They that hate me shall be ashamed, and turned backe also:
6 And made as grasse vpon the house, which withereth ere it grow.
7 Whereof the mower cannot find,
enough to fill his hand:
8 For he can fill his lap that goeth to glean vpon the land.
9 For passers by pray God, on them:
to let his blessing fall:
10 For say, we blesse you in the name of God the Lord, at all.

De profundis. Psal. Cxxx. VV. VV.

An affectionate prayer to obtaine mercy and for-giuenesse of his finnes, and at length deliuerance from all euils.

I did to thee I make my moane,

when dangers me oppress, I call, I sigh,

plaine and groine, truiting to him release,

Hear now, O Lord my request, for it is ful due time: And let thine eares obey

well, vnto this prayer mine.

3 O Lord our God if thou wilst our finnes, and them peruse:
Who shall then escape and say,
I can my selfe excuse:

But Lord thou art mercifull,
and turnst to vs thy grace:
Tha we with hearts most carefull, should feare before thy face.

5 In God I put my whole trust, my soule waiteth on his will:
For his promise is most iust, and I hope therein still.

6 My soule to God hath regard,
wishing for him alway:
Woe then they that watch and ward,
to see the dawning day.

7 Let Israel then boldly, in the Lord put his trust:
He is that God of mercie,
that his deliuer must.

8 For he it is that must saue,
Israel from his sinne:
And all such as surely haue,
their confidence in him.

Domine non est. Psal. Cxxxi. N.

David charged with ambition, protesteth his humilitie before God.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

O Lord I am not puffed in mind,
I haue no iornefull eye:
I do not exercise my selfe,
in things that be too hie.

2 But as the child that waigned is,
cruel from his mothers brest:
So haue I Lord behau'd my selfe,
in silence and in rest.

3 O Israel trust in the Lord,
let him be all thy stay:
From this time forth for euermore,
from age to age, I say.

Memento Domine. Psal. Cxxxii. N.

The faithfull grounded on God promise made vnto David, desireth that he would establish the same, both as touching his posteritie, and the building, to pray there as was forespoken.

Remember Dauid's troubles Lord,

how to the Lord he swore, and vowed a bowe to Iacobs God to keepe for euermore:

I will not come within my house, nor climbe vp to my bed, nor let my temples take their rest, or the eyes in my head.

5 Till I haue found out for the Lord,
a place to sit thereon:
An house for Iacobs God to be, an habitation.

6 We heard of this at Ephrata, there did we heare this sound:
And in the fields and forests there,
these voices sit it were found.

7 We will assay and go in now,
his Tabernacle there:
Before his foote-stoole to fall downe,
vpon our knees in feare.

8 Arise O Lord arise I say, into thy resting place,
Both thou and the Arke of thy strength,
the presence of thy grace.

9 Let all thy Priests be clothed Lord, with truth and righteousness:
Let all thy Saints and holie men,
sing all with ioyfullnesse.

10 And so thy seruant Dauid's sake, refuse not Lord I say
The face of thine appointed, Lord,
nor turne thy face away.

The second part.

11 The Lord to David swore in truth, and will not shrinke from it:
Saying the fruit of thy body
vpon thy seat shall sit.

12 And if thy sons my covenants keepe, that I shall learne each one:
Then shall their sons for ever sit,
vpon thy Princely throne.

13 The Lord himselfe hath chose Zion, and loues therein to dwell:
14 Saying, this is my resting place,
I loue and like it well.

15 And I will blesse with great increase,
her victuals euery where:
And I will satisfie with bread,
the needy that be there.

16 For I will decke and clothe her Priests with my saluation:
And all her Saints shall sing for ioy,
of my protection.

17 There will I surely make the home,
of Dauid's son to bud:
For there I haue ordaind for mine,
a lantern bright and good.

18 As for his enemies I will clothe,
with shame for euermore:
But I will make his crowne to shine,
more bright then heretofore.

Ecce quam Psal. Cxxxiii. VV. VV.

The commendation of godly and brotherly amitie, compared to the most precious oyle, mentioned in Exodus, xxx.

Sing this as the 137. Psalm.

O How happie a thing it is,
and ioyfull for to see:
Brethren together fast to hold,
the bands of amitie:

2 It calls to mind the sweet perfume,
and that costly ointment,
Which on the sacrificers head,
by Gods precept was spent.

- 3 It wet not Zarons head alone,
but denicht his beard throughout:
And finally it did runne downe, his rich attire about.
- 4 And as the lower ground doth drinke,
the dew of Hermon hill:
And Zion with his silver drops,
the field with fruit doth fill.
- 5 Euen so the Lord doth powre on them,
his blessings manifold:
Whose hearts and minds without all guile,
this knot doe keepe and hold.

Ecce nunc. Psal. Cxxxiiij. VV.K.

He exhorteth the Lewites that watch in the Temple, to praise the Lord.

Behold and haue regard, ye seruants of the Lord, Which in his house by night

do watch, praise him with one accord.

- 2 Lift vp your hands on high,
vnto his holy places:
And gine the Lord his praises due,
his benefits embrace.
- 3 For why the Lord who did,
both earth and heau'n create:
Doth Zion blesse a will conserue, for euermore the same.

Laudate nomen. Psal. Cxxxv. N.

He exhorte thall the faithfull to praise God for his marauilous workes, & graces wherewith he hath de lared his maieslie, to the confusion of all Idolaters.

Praise the Lord, praise him, praise him, praise him with one accord: O praise him still all ye that be the seruants of the Lord, O praise him ye that stand and be in the house of the Lord: Ye of his Court and of his house praise him with one accord.

- 3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
sing praises to his name:
It is a comely and good thing, alwayes to do the same.
- 4 For why? the Lord hath chose Jacob,
his very vntue you see:
So hath he chosen Israell, his treasure for to be.

- 5 For this I know, and am right sure the Lord is very great:
He is indeed, aboue all gods,
most easie to entreat.

- 6 For whatsoeuer pleased him,
all that fill well he wrought:
In heauen, in earth, and in the sea,
which he hath fram'd of nought.

- 7 He lifts vp clouds euen from the earth,
he makes lightnings and raine:
He bringeth forth the winds also,
he made nothing in vaine.

- 8 He imote the first borne of each thing,
in Egypt that tooke rest:
He spared there no living thing,
the man nor yet the beast.

- 9 He hath in thee shewed wonders great,
O Egypt voyd of vaunts:
On Pharaoh thy curled King, and his leuere seruants.

- 10 He imote then many nations,
and did great acts and things:
He slew the great and mightiest, and chiselt of thier kings.

- 11 Schun King of the Ammonites, and Og, King of Basan:
He slew also the Kingdomes all,
that were of Canaan.

- 12 And gaue their land to Israell, an heritage we see:
To Israell his owne people, an heritage to be.

The second part.

- 13 Thy name (O Lord) shall still endure,
and thy memo'iall:
Throughout all generations,
that are or euer shall.

- 14 The Lord will surely now auenge,
his poeple all indeed:
And to his seruants he will shew, fauour in time of need.

- 15 The Idols of the Heathen are made,
in all their coats and lands:
Of silver and of gold be they,
the worke euen of mens hands.

- 16 They haue their mouths, and cannot and eyes and haue no sight: (Speake, 17 They haue eke eares that heare nothing, their mouths be breathlesse quite.

- 18 Therefore all they are like to them,
that do so let them forth:
And likewise thole that trust in them,
or thinke they be ought worth.

- 19 O all ye house of Israell, see that ye praise the Lord,
And ye that be of Zarons house,
praise him with one accord.

- 20 And ye that be of Leues house,
praise ye likewise the Lord:
And all that is in awe of him,
praise him with one accord.
21 And out of Zion sound his praise,
the great praise of th. Lord:
Which dwelleth in Ierusalem,
praise him with one accord.

Confitemini. Psal. Cxxxvi. N.

A most earnest exhortation to give thanks vnto
God for the creation & gouernance of all things.

Raise ye the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endureth for euer. 2. Give praise vnto the God of Gods, for his mercy endureth for euer. 3. Give praise

vnto the Lord of Lords, for his mercy endureth for euer. 4. Which onely doth great wonders worke, for his mercy endureth for euer.

- 5 Which by his wisdom made the heauens
for his mercy endureth for euer:
6 Which on the waters stretcht the earth:
for his mercy endureth for euer.
7 Which made great light to shine abroad,
for his mercy endureth for euer:
8 As Sunne to rule the lightsome day,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
9 The Moone and stars to guide the night,
for his mercy endureth for euer:
10 Which sincke Egypt with their first born,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
11 And Israell brought out from them,
for his mercy endureth for euer:
12 With mightie hand & stretched arme.
for his mercy endureth for euer.
13 Which cut the red sea in two parts,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
14 And Israell made passe there through,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
15 And drowned Pharaos and his host,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
16 Through wilderness his people led,
for his mercy endureth for euer.
17 He which did smite great noble Kings,

- for his mercie endureth for euer:
18 Which hath slaine the mighty kings,
for his mercie endureth for euer.
19 As Schon King of the Ammorites,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
20 And Og the King of Baian land,
for his mercie endureth for euer.
21 And gaue their lands for heritage,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
22 Euen to his seruant Israell,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
23 Remembriug vs in bale estate,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
24 And from oppressours rescued vs,
for his mercie endureth for euer.
25 Which giueth food vnto all flesh,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
26 Praise yea the Lord of heauen above,
for his mercie endureth for euer:
27 Give thanks vnto the Lord of Lords,
for his mercie endureth for euer.

Another of the same by T. C.

Sing this as the 143. Psalme.

- O Laud the Lord benigne, Whose mercies last for aye:
2 Great thanks and praises sing,
To God of Gods I say.
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
3 The Lord of Lords praise ye,
Whose mercies aye do dure:
4 Great wonders onely he,
Doth worke by his great power.
For certainly,
His mercies dure:
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
5 Which God omnipotent,
By his great wisdom high:
The heauenly firmament,
Did frame as we do see,
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
6 Praise he the heauie charge,
Of all the earth did stretch,
And on the waters large,
The same he doth out reach.
For certainly,
His mercies dure,
Both firme and sure,
Eternally.
7 Great lights he made to vs,
For why his loue is aye:
8 Such as the Sunne we see,
To rule the lightsome day:
For certainly, &c.
9 And eke the Moone so cleare,
Which shineth in our light:
And Stars that do appeare,
To guide the darkesome night.
For certainly, &c.

10 With grievous plagues and sore,
All Egypt smote he then:
The first borne kille and more,
Whelew of beasts and men:
For certainly, &c.

11 And from amidst their land,
His Israel forth brought:
12 Which he with mighty hand,
And stretched arme hath wrought:
For certainly, &c.

13 The sea he cut in two,
Which stood by like a wall:
14 And made through it to go,
His chosen children all:
For certainly, &c.

15 But therche whelmed then,
The proud King Pharaoh:
With his great host of men
And chariots eke also:
For certainly, &c.

16 Who led through wilderness,
His people safe and sound:
17 And for his loue endlesse,
Great kings he brought to ground:
For certainly, &c.

18 And slue with puissant hand,
Kings mighty and of fame:
19 As of the Amorites land,
Schon the King by name:
For certainly, &c.

20 And Og the Giant large,
Of Basan King also:
21 Whose land for heritage,
He gaue his people tho:
For certainly, &c.

22 Euen vnto Israel,
His seruant deare I say,
He gaue the same to dwell,
And there a bide for aye:
For certainly, &c.

23 To mind he did vs call,
In our most base degree:
24 And from oppressors all,
In safety let vs free:
For certainly, &c.

25 All flesh on earth abroad:
Which food he doth fulfill:
26 Therefore of heauen the God,
To laud best your will:
For certainly, &c.

Superflumina, Psal. Cxxxvi. W. W.

The Israelites in their captiuitie, hearing the Caldeans reproach and blaspheme God and his religion, desire God to punish the Edomites, who prouoked the Babylonians against them, & prophesied the destruction of Babylon.

When as we sat in Babylon, the reuers round about, and in remembrance of Sion, the teares for griefe burst out: We haungd our Harpes and instruments the willow trees vpon: For in that place men for their vse had planted many one.

3 Then they to whome we prisoners wert laid to vs tauntingly:
Now let vs heare your Hebrew songs,
And pleasant melody.

4 Alas, laid we, who can once frame,
his sorrowfull heart to sing:
The praises of our lining God,
thus vnder a strange King?

5 But yet if I Ierusalem, out of my heart let slide:
Then let my fingers quite forget,
the warbling Harpe to guide.

6 And let my tong within my mouth,
berped for euer fast,
If that I say before I see,
thy full deliuerance past.

7 Therefore O Lord remember now
the cried noie and cry,
That Edoms lions against vs made,
when they razd our Citie.

8 Remember Lord their cruell words,
when as with one accord
They cryed, on, lacke, and raze their walls, in despite of their Lord.

9 Euen so shalt thou (O Babylon) at length to dust be brought:
And happy shall that man be cald,
that our reuenge hath wrought.

10 Pea, blessed shall that man be cald, that takes thy children young,
To dash their bones against hard stones, which ly: the streets among.

Confitebor tibi. Psal. Cxxxviii. N.

Dauid praileth the goodnesse of God towards him:
for which euen Princes shall praie the Lord together with him. And he is assured to haue like comfort of God hereafter, as heretofore.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

Thou wilt I praile with my whole heart,
my Lord my God all waies:
Euen in the presence of the Gods,
I will aduance thy praise.

2 Toward thy holy Temple I will louke and worship thee:
And praie in my thankfull mouth,
thy holy name shall be.
Euen for thy louing kindnesse sake,
and for thy truth which shall:
For thou thy name hast by thy word,
aduanced ouer all.

- 3 When I told it thou heardest me,
and thou hast made also:
The power of increased strength, within my soule to grow.
- 4 Psea all the Kings on earth they shall,
give praise to thee O Lord:
For they of thy most holy mouth,
haue heard the mighty word.
- 5 They of the waies of God the Lord,
in singing shall entere:
Because the glory of the Lord,
it is exceeding great.
- 6 The Lord is high, and yet he doth behold the lowly spite:
But he contempting knows a farre,
the proud and loftie wight.
- 7 Although in midst of trouble I do walke yet shall I stand:
Remued by thee O my Lord,
thou wilt stretch out thy hand.
- 8 Upon the wrath of all my foes,
and saued shall I be:
By thy right hand, the Lord God will performe his worke to me.
- 9 Thy mercy Lord endures for aye,
Lord do me not forsake:
Forsake me not that am the worke, which thine owne hand did make.

Domine probasti. Psal. Cxxxix. N.

Dauid to cleane his heart fro all hypocrisie, sheweth that nothing is so secret which god seeth not. After declaring his zeale & feare of God, he protesteth to be enemy to all the that contemne god.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

- O Lord thou hast me ridde and knowne,
my sitting thou dost know:
2 And rising eke me thoughts a farre, thou understandst also.
- 3 By paths yea and my lying downe,
thou compassst alwaies:
And by familiar custome art, acquainted with my waies.
- 4 No word is in my tongue (O Lord)
but knowne it is to thee:
5 Thou me behind holdst and before,
thou layest thine hand on me.
- 6 Too wonderfull aboue my reach,
Lord is thy cunning skill:
It is so high that I the same,
cannot attaine vntill.
- 7 From sight of thy all-seeing spite,
Lord whither shall I go:
Or whither shall I flye away,
thy presence to scape free?
- 8 To heauen if I mount aloft, loe thou art present there:
In hell if I lye downe below,
euert here thou dost appeare.
- 9 Psea let me take the morning wings,
and let me go and hide:
Euen there where are the farthest parts,
where flowing sea doth flide.
- 10 Psea euen thither also shall,
thy reaching hand me guide:
And thy right hand shall hold me fast,
and make me to abide.

- 11 Psea if I lay the darknesse shall,
yet shroud me from thy sight:
Loe euen also the darkest night,
about me shall be light.
- 12 Psea darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day:
To thee the darknesse and the light,
are both alike alwaie.

The second part.

- 13 For thou possidest half my reines,
and thou hast couered me:
When I within my mothers wombe, enclosed was by thee.
- 14 Thine will I praise, made fearefully, and woundously I am:
Thy worke are warnings, right well my soule doth know the same.
- 15 My bones they are not hid from thee,
although in secret place
I haue been made and in the earth beneath I shapd was.
- 16 When I was formelesse, then thine eye saw me, for in thy booke
Were written all, nought was before, that after fashion tooke.
- 17 The thoughts therefore of thee (O God)
how deare are they to me?
And of them all how passing great,
the endless number be?
- 18 If I should count them, loe their summe more then the sand I see:
And whensoever I awake,
yet am I still with thee.
- 19 The wicked and the bloody man,
oh that thou wouldest lay:
Euen those (O God) to whom depart, depart from me I say.
- 20 Euen those of thee, O Lord my God,
that speake full wickedly:
Those that are lifted up in vaine,
being enemies to thee.

- 21 Hate I not them that hate thee Lord,
and that in earnest wise?
Content I not against them all,
against thee that arise?
- 22 I hate them with unfained hate,
euen as my better foes:
23 Try me (O Lord) and know my heart,
my thoughts proue and disclose.

- 24 Consider Lord if wickednesse,
in me there any be:
And in thy way O God my guide,
for euer lead thou me.

Sripe me Domine. Psal. Cxl. N.

Dauid prayeth vnto the Lord against the cruelty, falshood & injuries of his enemies, assuring himselfe of his succour. Wherefore he prouoketh the iust to praye the Lord, and to assure themselves of his tuition.

Sing this as the Lamentation.

- I Lord saue me from the cruell man, and from the cruell wight
- 2 Deliuer me, which kill do imagine in their spite.
- Which make on me continual warre, their tongues loe they haue whet,
- 3 Like serpents vnderneath their lips is Adders porsion set

- 4 Keepe me O Lord from wicked hands, preserve me to abide,
Free from the cruell man that meanes,
to cause my knees to slide.
- 5 The proud haue layd a snare for me,
and they haue spred a net:
With cords in my path-waies, and gins for me eke they haue set.
- 6 Therefore I said vnto the Lord,
thou art my God alone:
Heare me (O Lord) O heare the voice, wherewith I pray and mone.
- 7 O Lord my God thou only art,
the strength that saureth me:
My head in day of battell hath bene covered still by thee.
- 8 Let not O Lord the wicked haue
the end of his desire:
Performe not his ill thought, least he with pride be set on fire.
- 9 Of them that compasse me about,
the chiefest of them all:
Lord let the mischief of their lips,
vpon themselves befall.
- 10 Let coales fall on them, let him cast
them in consuming flame:
And in deepe pits, so as they may,
not rise out of the same.
- 11 For no back-biter shall on earth
be let in stable plight:
And euill to destruction still,
shall hunt the cruell wight.
- 12 I know the Lord that iudged will revenge and iudge the poore:
The iust shall praise thy name, with shall dwell with thee euermore.

lips,
be done.

- 4 That I should wicked workes commit, incline thou not my heart:
With ill men of their delicacies,
Lord let me cate no part.
- 5 But let the righteous smite me Lord,
for that is good for me:
Let him reprove me, and the same
a precious oyle shall be.
Such smiting shall not breake my head,
the time shall shortly fall:
When I shall in their misery make prayers for them all.
- 6 Then when in stonie places Downe their Iudges shall be cast:
Then shall they heare my words, for then they haue a pleasant tast.
- 7 Our vones about the graues mouth,
loose scattered are they found:
As he that beweth wood, or he that diggeth vpon the ground.
- 8 But O my Lord, my God, mine eyes
do looke vpon thee:
In thee is all my trust, let not my soule forsaken be.
- 9 Which they haue layd to catch me in,
Lord keepe me from the snare,
And from the subtil gins of them,
that wicked workers are.
- 10 The wicked into their owne nets,
together let them fall:
While I doe by thy helpe escape,
the danger of them all.

Vox mea ad Dom. Psal. Cxliij. N.

David neither for feare, nor anger, would kill Saul:
but with a quiet mind prayeth vnto God, who
p. cleareth him.

Sing this as the 141. Psalme.

- B Efore the Lord God with my voice,
I did send out my cry:
And with my strained voice vnto
the Lord God prayed I.
- 2 My meditation in his sight,
to powre I did not spare:
And in the presence of the Lord,
my trouble did declare.
- 3 Although perplexed was my spirit,
my path was knownen to thee:
In way where I did walke a snare
they slip laid for me.
- 4 I lookt and viewed on my right hand,
but none there would me know:
All refuge failed me, and for my soule none cared tho.
- 5 Then cryed I Lord to thee, and sayd
my hope thou onely art:
Thou in the land of liuing art,
my porton and my part.
- 6 Harken to my cry, for I am brought full low, deliuer me:
From them that do me persecute,
for me too strong they be.
- 7 That I may praise thy name, my soule from prison Lord bring out:
When thou art good to me, the iust shall praise me round about.

Domine exaudi. Psal. Cxliij. N.

As earnest prayer for the remission of sinnes, acknowledging that the enemies did cruelly persecute him by Gods iudgement. He desireth to be restored to grace, to bee gouerned by his holy Spirit, that he may spend the rest of his life in the true feare and seruice of God.

Sing this as the 141. Psalme.

Lord heare my prayer, hearken the plaint that I do make to thee:
Lord in thy native truth, and in thy iustice answere me.

2 In iudgement with thy seruant Lord, oh enter not at all:

For iustified be in thy sight, not one that lieth shall.

3 The enemy hath pursued my soule, my life to ground hath thrown:
And layd me in the darke, like them that dead are long agoone.

4 Within me in perplexity, was mine accombrd spite:
And in me was my troubled heart, amazed and affright.

5 Yet I record time past, in all thy workes I meditate:
Pea in thy workes I meditate, that thy hands haue create.

6 To thee O Lord my God loe I, do stretch my craving hands:
My soule desireth after thee, as do the thirde lanes.

7 Heare me with speed, my spirit doth faine, hide not my face me fro:
Else shall I be like them that downe into the pit do goe.

8 Let me thy louing kindnesse in the morning heare and know:
For in thee is my trust, shew me, the way that I shall goe.

9 For I lift up my soule to thee, O Lord deliuer me
From all mine enemies, for I haue hidden me with thee.

10 Teach me to doe thy will, for thou, thou art my God I say:
Let thy good spirit into the land of mercy me conuay.

11 For thy name sake with quickning grace, alme do thou me make:
And out of trouble bring my soule, euen for thy iustice sake.

12 And for thy mercy slay my foes, O Lord deliuer them all:
That do oppress my soule for I thy seruant am and shall.

Benedictus Dom. Psal. Cxliij. N.

Dauid praisth the Lord for his victories and kingdom restored, yet calling for the destruction of the wicked, and declaring wherein the safety of any people consisteth.

Sing this as the 141. Psalme.

Blest be the Lord my strength that doth instruct my hands to fight:
The Lord that doth my fingers frame, to battell by his might.

2 He is my goodnesse, fort, and tower, deliuerer and shield:

In him I trust, my people he subdues to me to yeeld.

3 O Lord what thing is man, that him, thou holdest so in price?

O soue of man that vpon him thou thinkest in this wise?

4 Vanities but like to vanity, so passe his dayes to end

5 As fleeting shade. Bow downe O Lord the heauens and descend.

6 The mountaines touch, & they shal smoke, cast forth thy lightning flame:

And scatter them, thine arrows shoot, consume them with the lame.

7 Send downe thy hand euen from above, O Lord deliuer me:

Take me from waters great, from hand of strangers make me free,

8 Whose subtil mouth of vanity, and fondnesse doth entreat:

And their right hand is a right hand of falshood and deceit.

9 A new song will I sing O God, and singing will I be,

On Gicle and on instrument, ten stringed vnto thee.

10 Euen he it is that onely giues, deliuerance to kings:

Vnto his seruant Dauid helpe, from hiltfull sword he brings.

11 From strangers hand me laue and shield, whose mouths take vanities:

And their right hand is a right hand, of guile and subtilty.

12 That our sonnes may be as the plants, whom growing youth doth rear:

Our daughters as earne'd corner stones, like to a palace faire.

13 Our garners full and plenty may, with iudgye sorts be found:

Our sheepe bring thousands, in our streets ten thousands may abound.

14 Our Oren be to labour strong, that none do vs invade:

There be no going out, no cries within our streets be made.

15 The people blessed are that with such blessings are so stor'd:

Pea blessed all thy people are, whose God is God the Lord.

Exaltabte. Psal. Cxlv. N.

Dauid describeth the wonderfull prouidence of God in gouerning and in preserving all the other creatures. He prayeth God for his iustice, mercy, and specially his kindnesse towards those that call vpon him, that feare him, and loue him.

the beautie will record:
And meditate vpon thy workes,
most wonderfull O Lord.
- 6 And they shall of thy power and of thy fearefull acts declare:
And I to publish all abroad,
thy greatnesse will not spare.
- 7 And they into the mansion shall,
breake of thy goodnesse great:
And I aloud thy rightcounesse,
in singing shall repeat.
- 8 The Lord our God is gracious, and mercifull also:
Of great abounding mercie, and to anger he is slow.
- 9 Oe a good to all, and all his workes,
his mercy doth exceed:
- 10 For all thy workes doe praise thee Lord,
and doe thy honour spread.
- 11 Thy Saints do bleste thee, and they doe Thy kingdomes glorie shew:
- 12 And blaze thy power, to cause the sonnes of men his power to know.

The second part.

- 13 And of his mighty kingdomes ke,
to spread the glorious praise:
Thy kingdom Lord a kingdom is,
that doth endure alwaies.
- 14 And thy dominion through each age,
endures without decay:
The Lord upholdeth them that fall,
their sliding he doth stay.
- 15 The eyes of all doe waite on thee,
thou doest them all relieue:
And thou to each suffering soue, in season doe dost giue.
- 16 Thou openest thy plenteous hand,
and bountcouly dost fill:
All things whatsoeuer doctrine, with gifts of thy good will.
- 17 The Lords iust in all his waies,
his workes are holy all:
- 18 There all is he that call on him,
in truth that on him call.
- 19 He the desires which they require,
that feare him will fulfill:
And he will heare them when they cry,
and saue them all he will.
- 20 The Lord preserveth all those to him,
that beare a loving heart:

But he them all that wicked are,
will vterly subuert.
21 Thy thankfull mouth shall gladly speake,
the prayles of the Lord:
All tith to praise his holy name, for ever shall accord.

Lauda anima mea. Psal. Cxlvj. J.H.

David teacheth that none should put their trust in men, but in God alone, who is almightie and delivereth the afflicted, nourisheth the poore, seteth prisoners at libertie, comforteth the fa-therles, widowes, strangers, and is king for euer.
Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

- MY soule praise thou the Lord alwaies,
my God I will confesse:
2 While breath and life prolong me dates,
my tongue no time shall cease.
3 Trust not in worldly Riches then,
though they abound in wealth,
For in the sonnes of mortall men,
in whome there is no health.
- 4 For why? their breath doth soone depart to earth anon they fall:
And then the counsels of their hearts, decay and perish all.
- 5 O happy is that man I say,
whom Jacobs God doth ayd:
And he whose hope doth not decay,
but on the Lord is laid.
- 6 Which made the earth and waters deepe,
the heauens hie withall:
Which doth his word and promise keepe,
in truth and euer shall.
- 7 While right alwaies he doth proceed,
for such as suffer wrong:
The poore and hungrie he doth feed,
and loose the fetters strong.
- 8 The Lord doth send the blind their sight,
thelame to limbe restore:
The Lord I say doth loue the right and iust man euermore.
- 9 He doth defend the fatherlesse,
the strangers sad in heart:
And quit the widow from distresse,
and ill mens waies subuert.
- 10 Thy Lord and God eternally,
O Zion still shall raigne:
In time of all posterity,
for euer to remaine.

Laudate Dominum. Psal. Cxlvij. N.

The Prophet prayseth the bountie, wilddome, power, iustice, and providence of God vpon all his creatures, but especially vpon his Church which he gathered together after their dispersion, declaring his word and iudgement so towards them, as he hath done to no other people.

own Ierusalem he buildeth up alone, and the dispersit of Israel both gather into one.

3 He heales the broken in their heart,

their loze vp doth he bind :

4 He counts the number of the stars, and names them in their kind.

5 Great is the Lord, great is his power,

his wisdom infinite :

6 The Lord relieues the meeke, & throwes, to ground the wicked wight.

7 Sing vnto God the Lord with prayse, vnto the Lord reioyce :

And to our God vpon the harpe,

aduaunce your linging voyce.

8 He couers heauen with clouds, and for the earth prepareth raine :

And on the mountaines he doth make,

the grasse to grow againe.

9 He giues to beasts their food, and to young Ravens when they cry :

10 His pleasure not in strength of horse,

nor in mans legs doth lie.

11 But in all those that feare the Lord,

the Lord hath his delight :

And such as do attend vpon,

his mercies shining light.

The second part.

12 O prayse the Lord Ierusalem,

thy God O Sion prayse

13 For he the bars hath forged strong wherewith thy gates he stales.

14 Thy children he hath blest in thee, and in thy borders he :

Doth settle peace, and with the flower, of wheate he filleth thee.

15 And his commandment vpon

the earth he sendeth out :

And eke his word with speedy course,

doth swiftly run about.

16 He giveth know like wolle, hore frost like ashes doth he spread :

17 Like morsels cast his ice, thertof,

the cold who can abide.

18 Hefendeth forth his mightie word,

and melteth them againe :

His wind he makes to blow, and then,

the waters flow amaine.

19 The doctrine of his holy word,

to Jacob he doth shew :

His statutes and his iudgements he,

giues Israel to know.

so dealt, nor they haue knowne

His secret iudgements, ye therefore prayse ye the Lord alone.

Laudate Dominum. P.sal. Cxlviii. f. H.

He prouoketh all creatures to prayse the Lord, in heauen, and in all places, especially for the power that he hath giuen to his people Israel.

Ireland vnto the Lord, from heauen that is to hie: Prayle him in deed and word aboue the starry skie. And alio ye, his Angels all, armies royall, prayle him with glee.

3 Prayle him both Doone and Sunne,

Which are so cleere and bright :

The same of you be done,

Pe glistring stars of light,

4 And eke no lesse,

Pe heauens faire :

5 And clouds of the ake,

his laud expresse.

6 For at his word they wert,

All formed as we see :

At his voyce did appeare,

All things in their degree.

Which he set fast,

To them he made,

A law and trade,

For aye to last.

7 Extoll and prayle Gods name,

On earth ye Dragons tell :

All deepes doe ye the same,

For it becommeth you well,

8 Him magnifie,

Fire, haile, ice, snow :

And stormes that blow,

At his decree.

9 The hills and mountaines all,

And trees that fruitfull are :

The Cedars great and tall,

His worthe prayle declare.

10 Beasts and cattail,

Pea birds flying,

And wormes creeping,

That on earth dwell.

11 All Kings both more and lesse,

With all their pompous traine :

Princes and all Iudges,

That in the world remaine.

Great his name.

12 Pong men and madde,

Old men and babes,

Doe ye the same.

13 For his name shall we proue,

To be most excellent :

Whose prayle is far aboue,

The earth and firmament.

14 For sure he shall,

Great with blisse :

The borne of his,

And helpe them all.

His Saints all shall forth tell,
His praise and worthines:
The children of Israel,
Each one both more and lesse.
15 And also they,
That with good will:
His words fulfill,
and him obey.

An exhortation to the Church, to praise the Lord for his victorie and conquest that hee giueh his Saints against all mans power.

Sing this as the 145. Psalm.

- Sing ye vnto the Lord our God,
a new reioycing song:
And let the praise of him be heard,
his holy Saints among.
- 2 Let Israel reioyce in him,
that made him of nothing:
And let the seed of Sion hill, beioyfull in their King.
- 3 Let them sound praise with voice of flute,
vnto his holy name.
And with the Timbrell and the Harp,
sing praises of the same:
- 4 For why? the Lord his pleasure all:
hath in his people set:
And by deliurance he will raise,
the meeke to glorie great.
- 5 With glorie and with honor, now let all thy Saints reioyce:
And now aloud vpon their beds,
aduaunce their singing voice.
- 6 And in their mouthes let be the acts,
of God the mightie Lord:
And in their hands eke let them beare
a double edged sword.
- 7 To plague the heathen, and correct
the people with their hands:
- 8 To bind their stately kings in chaines, their Lords in iron hands.
- 9 To execute on them the dosme,
that written is before:
This honor all the Saints shall haue,
praise ye the Lord therefore.

wonderfull workes.

Sing this as the 147. Psalm.

- Yeld vnto God the mightie Lord,
praise in his sanctuarie:
And praise him in the firmament, that shewes his power on his.
- 2 Advance his name and praise him in his mightie acts alwaies:
According to his excellencie of greatnesse, giue him praise.
- 3 His praises with the Princely noise of sounding trumpets blow:
Praise him vpon the Cithre, and vpon the Harpe also.
- 4 Praise him with Timbrell and with flute Organs and Organals:
- 5 With sounding Cymbals praise ye him,
praise him with loud Cymbals.

6 What ever hath the benefit, of breathing praise the Lord:
To praise the name of God the Lord,
agree with one accord.

An exhortation vnto the praise of God,
to be sung before Morning Prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. Psalm.

Praise the Lord, O ye gentiles all,
which hath brought you into his light:
O praise him all people mortall,
as it is most worthy and right:
For he is full determined,
on vs to poure out his mercie:
And the Lords truth be ye assured, abideth perpetually.

Glorie be to God the Father,
And to Iesus Christ his true Sonne:
With the holy Ghost in like manner,
Now and at euery season.

An exhortation vnto the praise of God,
to bee sung before Eueing Prayer. T. B.

Sing this as the 100. Psalm.

Behold now giue heed such as be
The Lords seruants faithfull and true:
Come praise the Lord euery degree,
with such songs as to him are due.
O ye that stand in the Lords house,
Euen in our owne Gods mansion:
Prayle ye the Lord so bounteous,
Which worketh our saluation.

Lift vs your hands in his holy place,
Plea and that in the time of night:
Praise ye the Lord which giueh all grace.
For he is a Lord of great might.

Then shall the Lord out of Sion,
Which made heauen and earth by his power,
Giue to you and your nation,
His blessing, mercie, and fauour.

Glorie to God the Father: as afore.

Attend my people, and giue eare, of secret things I will thee tell: See that my words in mind thou beare, and to my precepts listen well.

I I am the Soueraigne Lord and God,
Which haue the brought from carefull thrall
And eke reclaimed from Pharaos rod
Make thee no gods on them to call.

The Lords Prayer.

The Creed.

Not fashioned forme of any thing,
In heauen or earth to worship it:
For if thy God by reuengings,
With grievous plagues this sinne will limite.

3 Take not in vaine his holy name,
Abuse it not after thy will.
For so thou mightst loane purchase blame,
And in his wrath he would thee spill.

4 The Lord from work the seuenth day ceast
And brought all things to perfect end:
So thou and thine that day take rest,
That to Gods helts ye may attend.

5 Unto thy parents honor giue,
As Gods commandments doe pretend:
That thou long daies and good maist liue,
In earth where God a place doth lend.

6 Beware of murder and cruell hate,

7 All filthie fornication feare:

8 See thou steale not in any rate,

9 False witnesse against no man beare.

10 Thy neighbours house wish not to haue
His wife or ought that he calls mine:
His field, his ore, his ass, his laue,
Or any thing that is not thine.

A prayer.

The spirit of grace grant vs O Lord,
To keepe these lawes our hearts reioyce:
And cause vs all with one accord,
To magnifie thy name therefore.

For of our selues no strength we haue,
To keepe these lawes our hearts reioyce,
And cause vs all with one accord,
To magnifie thy name therfore.

Lord for thy names sake grant vs this,
Thou art our strength O Saviour Christ,
Of thee to lered how should we misse,
In whom our treasure doth consist:

To thee for euermore be praise,
With the Father in each respect:
And with the holy Spirit alwaies,
The comforter of thine elect.

The Lords Prayer. D Cox.

O

Our father which in heauen art, and makest vs all one brotherhood: To call upon thee with one heart. Our heavenly

Father and our God: Grant we pray not with lips alone. But with the hearts deepe sigh and groane.

Thy blessed name be sanctified,
Thy holy word might vs enflame
In holy life for to abide,
To magnifie thy holy name.
From all errors defend and keepe,
The little flocke of thy poore sheepe.

Thy kingdome come euen at this houre
And henceforth euertlastingly:
Thine holy Ghost into vs poure.
With all his gifts most plentifully:
From Satans rage and filthy band,
Defend vs with thy mightie hand.

Thy will be done with diligence,
Like as in heauen in earth also:
In trouble grant vs patience,
Thee to obey in wealth and woe,
Let not flesh, blood, or any ill,
Preuaile against thy holy will.

Sins vs this day our daylie bread,
And aliother good gifts of thine:
Keep vs from warre and from bloodshed,
Also from sicknesse, dearth, and pine,
That we may liue in quietnesse,
Without all greedy carelesnesse.

Forgiue vs our offences all,
Reliue our carefull conscience:
As we forgiue both great and small,
Which vnto vs haue done offence.
Prepare vs Lord for to see thee,
In perfect loue and vnitee.

O Lord into temptation,
Leade vs not when the fiend doth rage:
To withstand his temptation,
Sine powre and strength to euery age.
Arise and make strong thy feeble host,
With faith and with thy holy Ghost.

O Lord from euill deliuer vs,
The dayes and times be dangerous,
From euertlasting death saue vs.
And in our last need comfort vs.

A blessed end to vs bequeath:
Into thy hands our soules receiue.

For thou O Lord art King of kings
And thou hast power ouer all:
Thy glory shineth in all things,
In the wide world vniuersall:
Amen, let it be done O Lord
That we haue praised with one accord.

The Creed.

Al my beleefe and confidence, is in the Lord of might: The Father which all things hath made, The day and eke

the night. The heaueus and the firament

The Creed.

And in like manner, I beleue,
In Christ our Lord his Sonne:
Eoequall with the Deitie,
And man in flesch and bone.

Conceiued by the holy Ghost,
His word doth me assure:
And of his mother Mary bozne,
Yet thee a virgin pure.

Because mankind to Sathan was,
For sinne in bond and thrall:
He came and offered by himselfe
To death to saue vs all.

And suffering most grievous paine,
Then Pilate being iudge:
Was crucified on the Crosse,
And thereas did not grudge.

And so he died in the flesh,
But quickned in the Spirit:
His body then was buried,
As is our vie and rite.

His soule did after this descend,
Into the lower parts:
To them that long in darknes were,
The true light of their hearts.

And in the third day of his death,
He rose to life againe:
To the end he might be glorified,
Out of all griefe and paine.

Ascending to the heauens high,
To sit in glory still:
On Gods right hand his father deare,
According to his will.

Untill the day of iudgement come,
When he shall come againe:
With Angels power (yet of that day,
We all be uncertaine.)
To iudge all people righteously,
Whom he hath dearely bought:
The liuing and the dead and,
Which he hath made of nought.

And in the holy Spirit of God,
(By faith to latistic)
The third person in Trinity,
Welleue I stedfastly.
The holy and Catholique Church,
That Gods word doth maintaine:
And holy Scripture doth allow,
Which Sathan doth vaine.

And also I doe trust to haue,
By Ihesus Christ his death:
Release and pardon for my finnes,
And that only by faith.

What thosall flesh shall rise againe,
Before the Lord of light:
And see him with their bodily eyes,
Which now doe giue them light.

A Prayer to the Holy Ghost.

And then shall Christ our Saviour
The sheepe and Goats diuide:
And giue life euerlastingly,
To those whom he hath tride.
Within his Realme celestiall
In glory for to rest:
With all the holy company,
Of Saints and Angels blest.

Which serue the Lord omnipotent, Obediently each houre:
To whom be all dominion,
And praise for euermore.

A Prayer to the holy Ghost to bee sung before the Sermon,

Sing this as the 119. Psalme.

Come holy Spirit the God of might,
comforter of vs all:
Teach vs to know thy word aright,
that we do neuer fall.

O holy Ghost visite our coasts,
Defend vs with thy shield:
Against all sinne and wickednes,
Lord helpe vs winne the field.

Lord keepe our King and his counsell, and giue them will and might:
To perseuere in thy Gospell, which can put sinne to flight.

O Lord that giueth thy holy word,
send preachers plentiouly:
That in the same we may accord,
and therein liue and die.

O holy Spirit direct aright,
the Preachers of thy word:
That thou by them maist cut downe sinne,
as it were with a sword.
Depart not from those pastors pure,
but ayd them at all need:
Which breake to vs the bread of life,
whereon our soules do feed.

O blessed Spirit of truth keepe vs,
in peace and vnitie:
Keepe vs from sects and errors all,
and from all Papistrie.
Conuert all those that be our foes,
and bring them to thy light:
That they and we may all agree,
and praise thee day and night.

O Lord increase our faith in vs,
and loue is to abound:
That man and wife be void of strife,
and neighbours about vs round.
In our time giue thy peace (O Lord)
to nations farre and nie:
And teach them all thy holy word,
that we may sing to thee.

All glorie to the Trinity,
that is of mighties most:
The liuing Father, and the Sonne,
and eke the holie Ghost,
As it hath bene in all the time,
that hath bene heretofore:
As it is now, and so shall be, henceforth for euermore.

Da pacem Domine. E. G.

Give peace in these our dayes, O

Lord, great dangers are now at hand,

thyne enemies with due accord, Christs

name in every land seekes to deface, roote out of race, thy true right worship indeed:

Be thou the way, Lord we thee pray,

thou helpest alone in all need.

Give vs that peace which we do lacke,

Through misbeliefe and ill life:

Thy word to offer thou dost not slacke,

Which we unkindly gaine strife,

With fire and sword,

This healthfull word,

Some pericute & oppresse:

Some with the mouth,

Confesse the truth,

Without sincere godlinesse.

Give peace and vs thy spirit downe send,

With griefe, and repentance true:

Do pierce our hearts, our liues to amend,

And by faith Christ renewe

To feare and dread,

Warre and bloudshed.

Through thy sweet mercy and grace,

Way from vs slide:

Thy truth may abide:

And thine increase place.

G The Lamentation.

¶ Through perfect repentance the sinner haeth a sure trust in God, that his finnes shall be washed away in Christs blood.

Lord in thee is all my trust, giue care vnto my woofull cry: Refuse me not that am vnjust, but bowing downe thine heauenly eye. Behold how I do still lament my finnes wherein I doe offend:

O Lord for them shall I be gient, sith thee to please I do intend:

No, no, not so, thy will is bent,

to deale with sinners in thine pce:

But when in heart they shall repent,

thou grantest with speed that they desire.

To thee therefore still shall I cry,

to wash away my sinfull crime:

Thy bland O Lord is not yet dry,

but that it may helpe vie in time.

Hast thee O Lord, hast thee I say, to powre on me the giftes of grace:

That when this life shall fleet away,

in heauen with thee I may haue place.

Where thou dost raigue eternally, with God which once bid downe thee send

Where Angels sing continually, to thee be praise woud without end.

A thankesgiuing after the receiuing of the Lords Supper.

Sing this as the 137. Psalme.

The Lord be thanked for his gifts,

and mercies encrease:

That he doth shew vnto his Saints,

to him beland therefore.

Our tongue cannot so praise the Lord,

as he doth right deserue:

Our hearts cannot of him so thinke,

as he doth vs preferue.

His benefices they be so great,

to vs that be but sinne:

That at our hands for recompence,

there is no hope to winne.

O sinfull flesh, that thou shouldst haue,

such mercies of the Lord:

Thou dost deserue more worthily,

of him to be abhord.

Nought else but sinne and wretchednesse,

doth rest within our hearts:

And stubbornly against the Lord,

we daily play our parts.

The Sunne above in firmament,

that is to vs a light:

Doth shew it selfe more cleare and pure,

then we be in his light.

The heaues above and all therein,

more holy are then we:

They serue the Lord in their estate,

each one in their degree.

They do not serue for master ship,

nor slacke their office let:

A Thankesgiuing.

But feare the Lord and doe his will,
hateis to them no let.

Allo the earth and all therein,
of God it is in awe:

It doth obferue the formers will,
by skilfull natures law.

The sea, and all that is therein,
doth bend when he doth becke:

The spirit's benearth doe tremble all,
and feare his wrathfull checke.

But we alas for whom all these,
were made them for to rule:

Do not so knowe or loue the Lord,
as doth the Bee or Wile.

A law he gaue vs for to knowe,
what was his holy will:

He would vs good, but we would not auoyd the thing is ill.

Not one of vs that seeketh out,
the Lord of life to please:

For doe the thing that might vs ioyne, to Christ and quiet ease.

Thus are we all his enemies,
we can it not deny:

And he againe of his good will,
would not that we should die.

Therefore when remedy was none,
to bring vs vnto life:

The Sonne of God our flesh he tooke, to end our mortall strife.

And all the law of God the Lord,
he did it full obey.

And for our finnes vpon the Crosse,
his blood our debts did pay.

And that we should not yet forget,
what good he to vs wrought:

Aligne he left our eyes to tell,
that he our bodies bought.

In bread and wine here visible,
vnto thine eyes and tast:

His mercies great thou mayest record,
if that his spirit thou hast.

As once the come did line and grow,
and was cut downe with sickle:

And threshed out with many stripes, out from his huske to drinke.

And as the mill with violence,
did tears it out so small:

And made it like to earthy dust,
not sparing it at all.

And as the Ouen with fire hot,
did close it vp in heat:

And all this done that I haue said,
that it should be our meat,

So was the Lord in his ripe age,
cut downe by cruell death:

His soule he gaue in toments great,
and pecked vp his breath.

Because that he to vs might be,
an cuerlasting bread:

With much reproch and troubles great,
on earth his life he led.

A Prayer.

And as the grapes in pleasant time,
are pressed very soze:

And plucked downe when they be ripe,
and let to grow no more.

Because the iuyce that in them is,
as comfortable drinke:

The might receaue, and ioyfull be,
when sorrows make vs shrinke.

So Christ his blood out pressed was,
with nattes and eke with weare:

The iuyce whereof doth saue all those,
that rightly do him feare.

And as the comes by vnitie,
into one loafe are knit:

So is the Lord and his whole Church, though hein heauen sit.

As many grapes make but one wine,
so should we be but one:

In faith and loue in Christ aboue, and vnto Christ alone.

Leading a life without all strife,
in quiet rest and peace:

From enmie and from malice both,
our hearts and tongues to cease.

Which if we do, then shall we shew,
that we his chosen be:

By faith in him to lead a life,
as alwayes willed be.

And that we may so doe indeed,
God send vs all his grace:

Then after death we shall be sure,
with him to haue a place.

Morning and Eueuing.

Morning Prayer.

Deuotion. Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we doe not present our felues here before thy Maiestie, trauelling in our owne merits or worthinesse, but in thy manifold mercies, which hast promised to heare our prayers and grant our request, which we shall make to thee in the name of thy beloued Sonne: Iesus Christ our Lord: who also hath commanded vs to assemblie our felues together in his name, with full assurance that hee shall not onely be amongst vs, but also bee our mediator and Advocate towards thy Maiestie, that wee may obtaine all thinges which will seeme expedient to thy blessed will for our necessities. Therefore we beseech thee sweet Father, to turn thy louing countenance towards vs, and impute not vnto vs our manifold sins and offences, whereby wee iustlie deserue thy wrath and sharpe punishment, but rather receaue vs to thy mercy, for Iesus Christs sake, accepting his death and passion as a full recompence for all our offences, in whome onlie thou art pleased, and through whome thou canst not be offended with vs. And seeing that of thy great mercies we haue quietly passed this night, grant (O thou almighty Father) that we may bestow this day wholly in thy seruice, so that all our thoughts, wordes, and deedes may redound to the glorie of thy name, and good example to all men, who seeing our good workes may glorifie thee our heauenlie father. And forasmuch as of thy mere fauour & loue, thou hast not onely created vs to thine owne similitude and likeness, but also hast chosen vs to bee heires with thy deare Sonne Iesus Christ, of that immortal Kingdome, which thou preparedst for vs before the beginning of the world, we beseech thee to increase our faith and knowledge, and to lighten our hearts by thy holy spirit, that we may in the mean time liue in godly conuersation and integritie of life, knowing that Idolaters, adulterers, contentious men, contentious persons, drunkards, gluttons, & such like, shall not inherit the Kingdome of God.

And because thou hast commanded vs to pray one for another, wee doe not onely make request (O Lord) for our felues, and for them that thou hast already called to the true vnderstanding of thy heauenly will, but for all people and Nations of the world, who as they know by thy wordfull wordes, that thou art God ouer all, so they may be instructed by thy holy spirit to beleeue in thee their onlie Sauiour and redemer. But forasmuch as they cannot beleeue, except they heare, nor cannot heare but by preaching, and none can preach, except he be sent, therefore (O Lord) raise vp faithful Ministers of thy Wordes, who setting apart all worldly respects, may both in their life and doctrine onely seeke thy glorie. Contrarily confound Sathan, Antichrist, with all Wicelings, whome thou hast already cast off into a reprobate Lent, that they may not by sects, schismes, heresies, and errors, disquiet thy little flocke. And because (O Lord) we be fallen into the latter daies and dangerous times, wherein ignorance hath gotten the vpper hand, and Satan by his ministers seekes by all meanes to quench the light of thy Gospel, we beseech thee to maintain thy cause against those rauening wolues and strengthen all thy seruants, whome they keepe in prison and bondage. Let not thy long suffering be an occasion either to increase their tyrannie, or to discourage thy children: neither yet let our finnes and wickednesse be an hinderance to thy mercies, but with speed (O Lord) consider these great miseries. For thy people Israel many times by their finnes, provoked thine anger, and thou punishedst them by thy iust indigment, yet though their finnes were neuer so grievous, if they once returned from their iniquitie, thou receiuest them to mercie: We therefore most wretched sinners beuaile our manifold finnes and earnestly repent vs of our former wickednesse, and vngodly behauiour towards thee: and whereas we cannot of our felues purchase thy pardon, yet we humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christs sake to shew thy mercies vpon vs, and receaue vs againe to thy fauour. Grant vs deare Father these our requests, and all other thinges necessarie for vs, and thy whole Church, according to thy promise in Iesus Christ our Lord. In whose name we beseech thee as he hath taught vs, saying, Our Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy name, &c.

Eueuing Prayer.

O Lord God, Father everlasting, and full of pity, we acknowledge and confesse that we be not worthy to lift vp our eyes to heauen, much lesse to present our felues before thy Maiestie, with confidence that thou wilt heare our prayers and grant our requests, if we consider our owne desertings: for our consciences do accuse vs, and our finnes doe witness against vs, and wee know that thou art an eyght iudge, which doeth not iustifie the sinners and wicked men, but punisheth the faults of all such as transgresse thy Commandements: Yet most mercifull Father, since it hath pleased thee to command vs to call on thee in all our troubles and adversities, promising euen then to helpe vs, when we feele our felues (as it were) swallowed vp of death and desperation: We hetherly renounce all worldly confidence, and flie to thy Soueraigne bounty as our onlie stay and refuge, beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold finnes

finnes and wickednesse, whereby wee continually prouoke thy wrath and indignation against vs: neither our negligence and unkindnesse, which haue neither worthily esteemed, nor in all our lines sufficiently expressed the sweet comfort of thy Gospel revealed vnto vs: but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy Sonne Iesus Christ, who offering up his bodie in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our finnes, Haue mercie therefore vpon vs O Lord, and forgie vs our offences. Teach vs by thy holy Spirit that wee may rightlie waigh them, and earnestlie repent for the same: And so much the rather (O Lord) because that the reprobate and such as thou hast forsaken cannot praise thee nor call vpon thy name: but the repenting heart, the sorrowfull mind, the conscience oppressed, hungering and thirsting for thy grace shall neuer set forth thy praise and glorie.

And albeit we be but wormes and dust, yet thou art our Creator; and we be the worke of thy hands: Yet thou art our Father, and we thy children: Thou art our Shepherd, and we thy flocke: thou art our Redeemer, and we the people whom thou hast bought: Thou art our God, and we thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger (O Lord) neither according to our desert punish vs, but mercifullie shall we be with a fatherlie affection, that all the world may know that at what time soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his heart, thou wilt put away all his wickednes out of thy remembrance as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet.

Finally, for as much as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to trauell in, graunt O deare Father, that we may so take our body, that our soules may continuallie yelme that our Lord Iesus Christ is for our deliuerance out of this life. And in the meane season that we come by any phantasies, dreames or temptations, may fully let our minds loue thee, feare thee, & rest in thee. And that our sleepe be not erectine after the vniuersall desires of our onely sufficient to content our hart wee may be the better discusse all godly conuersation, to the praise and profit of our bely prayer to be said

 at all times.

id praise be giuen vnto thee O almighty most deare father vs for all thy mercies & louing vnto vs, in that it hath pleased thy goodness freely and of thine elect and chuse vs to saluation inuing of the world: and call thanks be giuen to thee after thine owne image, for re-with the precious blood of thy deare Sonne when wee were utterly lost, for sanctifying vs with thy holy spirit in the regeneration and knowledge of thy holy word, for helping and succouring vs in all our needes & necessities, for lauing vs from all dangers of bodie and soule, for comfortng vs so fatherly in all our troubles and persecutions, for sparing vs so long, and giuing vs so large a time of repentance. These benefites (most mercifull father) like as we knowledg to haue recetued them of thine onely goodnesse, euen so wee beseech thee for thy deare Sonne Iesus Christs sake, grant vs alwaies thy holy Spirit, that we may continually grow in thankfulness towards thee, to be led into all truth and comforted in all our aduerkities. O Lord strengthen our faith, kindle it more in feruencenesse and loue towards thee & our neighbours for thy sake. Suffer vs not most deare father to rectue thy word any more in vaine: but grant vs alwaies the assistance of thy grace and holy Spirit, that in heart, word & deed, we may sanctifie and do worship to thy name: helpe to amplify and increase thy kingdom, and whereloeuer thou sendest we may be heartily well content with thy good pleasure and will. Let vs not lacke the thing (O Father) without the which we cannot serue thee, but blesse thou so all the workes of our hands that we may haue sufficient, & not be chargeable, but rather helpfull to others. Be mercifull (O Lord) to our offences, and seeing our debt is great which thou hast forgien vs in Iesus Christ, make vs to loue thee and our neighbours to much the more. Be thou our Father, our Captaine and defender in all temptations, hold thou vs by thy mercifull hand, that we may be deliuered from all inconueniencies, & end our liues in the sanctifying & honour of thy holy name through Iesus Christ our Lord and onely Saviour.

Let thy mightie hand & outstretched arme (O Lord) be still our defence: thy mercie and louing kindnesse in Iesus Christ thy deare son our saluation, thy true and holy word our instruction, thy grace and holy Spirit our comfort and consolation, vnto the end, and in the end. So be it.

O Lord increase our faith.

A confession for all estates and times.

O Eternall God and most mercifull Father, wee confesse and acknowledge heere before thy diuine Maestie, that wee are miserable sinners conceived and borne in sinne and iniquity, so that in vs there is no goodnesse. For the flesh euermore rebel- leth against the spirit, whereby we continuallie transgresse thy holy precepts and commandments, and so purchase to our selues through thy indurment, death, and damnation. Notwithstanding (O heavenly Father) for as much as we are displeased with our selues, for the sinnes that we haue committed against thee, and doe violently repent of the same, wee most humbly beseech thee for Iesus Christ take to thyself thy mercie vpon vs, to forgive all our finnes, & enuieale thy holy Spirit in vs: that we acknowledging from the bottome of our hearts, our owne vnrightheousnesse, may from henceforth not onely mortifie our sinfull lusts and affections, but also bring forth such fruits as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will not for the worthinesse thereof, but for the merits of thy dearely beloved Son Iesus Christ our only Sauour whom thou hast already giuen an oblation and offering for our sins, and for whose sake wee are certainly perswaded, that thou wilt denie vs nothing that we shall aske in his name according to thy will. For thy Spirit doth assure our consciences, that thou art our mercifull Father, and so louest vs thy children through him, that nothing is able to reioine thy heavenly grace & fauour from vs. To thee therefore (O Father) with thy Son and the holy Ghost be all honour and glorie, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer to be said before a man begin his worke.

O Lord God and mercifull Father and Sauour, seeing it hath pleased thee to command vs to trauell, that we may relieue our need, we beseech thee of thy grace to so bleesse our labours, that thy blessing may extend vnto vs, without the which we are not able to continue: and that this great fauour may be a witnesse vnto vs of thy bountifullnes and assistance, so that ther, by wee may know thy fatherly care that thou hast ouer vs.

Whereouer (O Lord) we beseech thee that thou wouldest strengthen vs with thy holy Spirit that we may faithfully trauell in our estate and vocation without fraud or deceit: & that we may endeavour our selues to follow thine holy ordinance rather then to seeke to satisfie our greedy affections or desire to gaine. And if it please thee O Lord to prosper our labour, giue vs a mind to helpe them that haue need, according to that ability that thou vnto thy mercie shalt giue vs: and knowing that all good things come of thee, grant that we may humble our selues to our neighbours, and not by any meanes lift vp our selues aboue them which haue not receiued so liberall a portion as of thy mercie thou hast giuen vnto vs. And if it please thee to trie and exercise vs by greater poverty and need then our flesh would desire, that thou wouldest yet O Lord grant vs grace to know that thou wilt nourish vs continually through thy bountifull liberality, that we be not so tempted that we fall into distrust, that we may patiently wait til thou fill vs, not only with corporall graces and benefits, but chiefly with thine heavenly and spiritual treasures, to the intent that we may alwaies haue more ample occasion to gine thee thanks, and wholly to rest vpon thy mercies. Heare vs O Lord of mercie, through Iesus Christ thy son our Lord, Amen.

A Prayer for the whole estate of Christ's Church.

A Almighty God and most mercifull Father, we humbly submit our selues and fall downe before thy Maiestie, beseeching thee from the bottome of our hearts, that this seed of thy word now sown amongst vs, may take such deepe root, that neither the burning heat of persecution caule it to wither, neither the thorny cares of this life choake it, but that as seed sowne in good ground it may bring forth thirty, sixty, and an hundred fold, as thy heavenly wisdom hath appointed. And because we haue need continually to craue many things at thy hands, we humbly beseech thee (O heavenly Father) to grant vs thy holy Spirit, to direct our petitions, that they may proceed from such a feruent mind, as may be agreeable to thy most blessed will: and seeing that our infirmities are able to do nothing without thy helpe, and that thou art not ignorant with how many and great temptations wee poore wretches are on euery side enclosed and compassed: Let thy strength (O Lord) sustaine our weakenesse, that we being defended with the force of thy grace, may be safely preserved against all assaults of Satan, who goeth about continually like a roaring Lyon seeking to deuoure vs. Increase our faith (O mercifull Father) that we do not sweene at any time from thy heavenly word, but augment in vs hope and loue with a careful keeping of all thy Commandementes, that no hardnesse of heart, no hypocrisie, no concupiscence of the eyes, nor enticement of the world doe draw vs away from thy obedience. And seeing wee liue now in these most perilous times, let thy fatherly goodness defend vs against the violence of our enemies, which doe seeke by all meanes to oppresse thy truth.

Furthermore, for as much as by thy holy Apostle we be taught to make our prayers & supplications for all men: We pray not onely for our selues heere present but beseech thee also to reduce all such as be yet ignorant, from the miserable captivity of blindness and errors, to the pure understanding and knowledge of thy truth: that we all with one accord and vnitie of mind, may worship thee our Father and onely Sauour. And that all Pastors Shepherds, and Ministers, to whom thou hast committed the dispensation of thy word, and charge of thy chosen people, in both in their life and doctrine be found faithful, setting onely before their eyes thy glorie, and that by them all poore deepe which wander and go astray, may bee gathered and brought home to thy fold.

Whereouer, because the hearts of Rulers are in thy hands, we beseech thee to direct and gouerne the hearts of all Kings, Princes, and Magistrates, to whom thou hast committed the sword: especially O Lord according to our bounden dutie, we beseech thee to maintaine and increase the honourable

uable estate of the Kings Maestie, and all his most noble Councillors and magistrates, with all the spirituall pastors and ministers, & all the whole bodie of this common weale. Let thy fatherly fauour so preferue them, and thy holy Spirit in gouerne their hearts, that they may in such sort execute their office, that thy religion may bee purely maintained, manners reformed, and sin punished, according to the perfect rule of thy holy word. And for that we bee all members of the miticall bodie of Iesus Christ, we make our requests vnto thee O heauenly Father, for all such as are afflicted with any kind of crosse or tribulation: as warre, plague, famine, sicknesse, pouertie, imprisonment, persecution, banishment, or any other kind of thy rods, whether it bee calamitie of bodie, or deuation of mind, that it would please thee to giue them patience and constancie, till thou send them full deliuerance of all their troubles. Root out from hence (O Lord) all rauening Moloches, which to fill their bellies, seek to destroy thy flocke. And shew thy great mercies vpon those our brethren in other countries, which are persecuted, cast into prison, and daily condemned for the testinancie of thy truth: and though they be utterly destitute of all mans ayde, yet let thy sweet comfort neuer depart from them, but so inflame their hearts with thy holy Spirit, that they may boldly and cheerefully abide such tryall as thy good wisdom shall appoint: So that at length, as well by their death, as by their life, the Kingdome of thy deere Son Iesus Christ may increase and shine through all the world. In whose name wee make our humble petitions vnto thee, as he hath taught vs. Our Father which art, &c.

old temptations made
S. Augustine.

Thou art a tempter: and thou wast
as he was wanting: there and place, and thou wast wanted. The tempter was wanted neither place nor rest me backe that I should tempter came full of dark-thou didst harden mee that but to the intent he should bou diddest restraine him.

The tempter came transell of light: and to the increase me, thou didst re-he intent I should know them me. For he is the beold serpent, called the which hath leuen heads:
ome thou hast created to his huge and broad Sea, sting wights innume-at and small, that is to ends which practiseth noht, but goeth about secenour, except thou resist foul is that old dragon which draweth downe the third part of the starres of heauen with his tasle, and casteth them to the ground, which with his venome poysneth the waters of the earth, that as many menne as drinke of them may die, which trampleth vpon gold, as if it were mire, and is of opinion that Iordan shall runne into his mouth, and which is made of such a mould that hee feareth no man. And who shall saue vs from his chappes. O Lord Iesus: who shalt plucke vs out of his mouth, saving thou O Lord, who hast broken the head of this great dragon: helpe vs Lord, spread out thy wings ouer vs O Lord, that we may flee vnder them from the face of this dragon that pursueth vs, and fence thou vs from his homes with thy shield. For this is his continuall indouour, this is his onely desire, to denoure the soules which thou hast created. And therefore we cry vnto thee O God, deliuer vs from our daily aduersarie, who whether we sleepe or wake, whether we eat or drinke, or whether we be doing anything else, preacht vpon vs by all kind of meanes, assaunting vs day and night with traines and policie, & shooting his venomous arrows at vs, sometime openly, and sometime privily to slay our soules. And yet such is our great madnesse O Lord, in that whereas to see the dragon continually in a readinesse to denoure vs with open mouth, we neuertheless do sleepe and reioyce in our owne foolishnesse as though we were out of his danger, who directh nothing els but to destroy vs. Our mischieuous enemy to the intent to kill vs watcheth continually, and neuer sleepe: and yet will not we awake from sleepe to saue our selues. Behold he hath pitched infinite snares before our feet, and filled all our waies with sundry trappes, to catch our soules. And who can escape, O Lord Iesus so many and great dangers? he hath laid snares in our riches, in our pouerty, in our meat, in our drinke, in our pleasures, in our sleepe, and in our waking: he hath set snares for vs in our words, and our works, and in all our life. But thou O Lord deliuer vs from the net of the fowlers, and from hard words, that wee may giue praye to thee, saying: blessed be the Lord, who hath not giuen vs up to be a pray for their teeth: our soules is deliuered as a sparrow out of the fowlers net: the net is broken and wee escaped.

providence governeth, maintaineth & preferreth the same, according to the purpose of his will.

I beleue also and confesse Iesus Christ the onely Saviour & Medias, who being equall with God made himselfe of no reputation, but tooke on him the shape of a servant, and became man in all things like unto vs except sinne, to assure vs of mercie and forgiveness. For when through our father Adams transgression, we were become children of perdition, there was no meanes to bring vs from the yoke of sinne and damnation, but onely Iesus Christ our Lord, who giving vs that by grace which was his by nature, made vs through faith, the children of God, who, when that fullnesse of time was come, was conceived by the power of the holy Ghost, borne of the Virgin Mary (according to the flesh) and preached in earth the Gospell of saluation, till at length by tyrannie of the Priestes, hee was cruellye cōdemned vnder Pontius Pilat, then President of Iury, a most shamefullye hangd on the Crosse betwene two theues as a notorious trespasser, where taking vpon him the punishment of our sinnes, he deliuered vs from the curse of the law.

And forasmuch as he being onely God could not feele death, neither being onely man could overcome death, he ioynd both together, and suffered his humanitie to bee punished with most cruell death, feeling in himselfe the anger and seuerie iudgement of God, euen as he had bin in extreame torments of hel, and therefore cryed with aloud voyce : My God, my God why hast thou forsaken me : Then of his mercy without compulsion, he offered by himselfe as the onely sacrifice to purge the sins of all the world, so that all other sacrifices for sinne are blasphemous, a derogate from the sufficiencye hereof. Which death, albeit it did suffice to reconcile vs to God, yet the Scriptures commonly do attribute our regeneration to his resurrection. For as by rising againe from the graue the Lord daye conquered death; euen so the victorie of our faith standeth in his resurrection, & therefore without the one we cannot feele the benefites of the other. For as by his death sinne was taken away, so our righteousness was restored by his resurrection. And because he would accomplish all things, & take possession for vs in his kingdome, he ascended into heauen to enlarge the same kingdome by the abundant power of his spirit, by whome we are most assured of his continuall intercession towards God the father, for vs.

And although he be in heauen as touching his corporall presence, where the father hath now set him at his right hand, committed vnto him the administration of all things as well in heauen above, as in earth beneath; yet he is present with vs in his members euen to the end of the world, in preseruing and governing vs with his effectuall power, & grace; chieflye with all things are fulfilled, which God sures, to the uttermost mouth of all his Prophets more ample declaration, will come in the same wholy to rest vpon thy man he ascended, with Lord of mercie, through Iesus Christ, & company, our Lord, Amen

lect from the reprobate. So that none, whether he be alive then, or dead before, shall escape his iudgement. Wherefore, I beleue and confesse the holy Ghost, God equall with the father and the Sonne, who regenerateth and sanctifieth vs, ruler and guide of vs into all truth, perswading most assuredly in our consciences that we be the children of God, brethren to Iesus Christ, and fellow heires with him of life euerslasting : yet notwithstanding it is not sufficient to beleue that God is omnipotent & mercifull, that Christ hath made satisfaction, or that the holy Ghost hath his power and effect, except wee doe applie the same benefites to vs which are Gods elect.

I beleue therefore and confesse one holie Church, which as members of Iesus Christ the onely head thereof, consent in faith, hope, and charitie, vnto the gifts of God wherby they be temporall or spirituall, to the profit & furtherance of the same, which Church is not seene to mans eye, but onely knowne to God, who of the lost sons of Adam, hath ordained some as vessels of wrath to damnation, and hath chosen others as vessels of his mercy to be saved : the which in due time hee callerth to integritie of life, and godly conuerlation, to make them a glorious Church in himselfe.

But that Church which is visible & seene to the eye, hath three tokens and marks whereby it may be knowne. First the word of God contained in the old and new Testaments, which as it is about the authoritie of the same Church, and onely sufficient to instruct vs in all things concerning saluation : so it is left for all degrees of men to reade and vnderstand, for without this word, neither Curia, Counsell, or decree, can establish any poynt touching saluation. The second is the holy Sacraments, to wit, of Baptisme, and the Lords supper, which sacraments Christ hath left vnto vs as holy signes and seales of Gods promises. For as by Baptisme one receiued it signified that we (as well Infants as others of age and discretion) being strangers from God by originall sinne, are receiued into his familie and congregation, with full assurance that although this roote of sinne lie hid in vs yet to the elect it shall not be imputed : & the supper declarerth that God as a most tender father, doth not onely feede our bodies, but also spirituallly nourisheth our soules with the grace and benefites of Iesus Christ, which the Scripture calleth heating of his flesh, and drinking of his blood, neither must we in the administration of these Sacraments follow mans fantasie, but as Christ himselfe hath ordained, so must they be ministered and by such as by ordinary vocation are therunto called. Therefore whosoener receiveth and worketh these Sacraments, or contrariwise contemnerth them in time and place, procurreth to himselfe damnation.

The third marke of this Church is Ecclesiasticall discipline, which standeth in admonition and correction of faults. The final end wherof is excommunication, if the offender be obstinate. And becaus this Ecclesiasticall discipline, I acknowledge to belong to this Church a politticke Magistrate, who mis-trusteth to every man iustice, defending the good, and punishing the euill. To whome we must render honour & obedience in all things which are not contrary to the word of God.

And as Moyses, Ezekias, Iosias, and other good Rulers, purged the Church of God from superstition and idolatry, so the defence of Christs Church appertaineth to Christian Magistrates against all idolaters and heretiques, as Papists, Anabaptists, with such like limbs of Antichrist, to rage out all doctrine of diuels and men, as the Masse, Purgatory, Limbus Patrum, prayers to Saints, and for the dead, freewill, distinction of meats, apparell and dayes, vovs of single life, presence at idoll seruice, mans merites, with suchlike, which draw vs from the society of Christs Church, wherin standeth only remission of sins, purchased by Christs blood, to all them that be-lieue, whether they be Jewes or Gentiles, and lead vs to vaine confidence in creatures, and trust in our owne imaginations: the punishment wherof although God oftentimes discre-teth in this life, yet after the generall resurrection, when our soules and bodies shall rise againe to immortality, they shall be damned to inquenchable fire, and then we which haue forsaken all mans wise dome, to cleane vnto Christ, shall heare the ioyfull voyce: Come ye blessed of my Father, inherite the kingdome prepared for you from the beginning of the world, and so shall go triumphing with him in body and soule, to remaine euertlastingly in glory, where we shall see God face to face, and shall no more need to instruct one another: we shall all know him, from the highest to the lowest. To whome with the Sonne, and the holy Ghost be all praise, honor, and glory, now and euermore. So be it.
